ISSUED QUARTERLY.

AT the Annual General Meeting of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION held at the London Tavern, on Tuesday, the 15th day of March, 1864, the Right Honourable Sir JOHN S. PARKINGTON, Bart., G.C.B., M.P., in the Chair,

The following Report of the Committee was read:—

ANNUAL REPORT.

ON this the fortieth anniversary of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION, the Committee have the satisfaction to present to its supporters and to the British people, the Annual Report of their proceedings—once more have they to place on record the success which, with the Divine blessing, has rested on their labours, and to express their gratitude to a liberal public for its continued support.

In their last Annual Statement, the Committee had to report a falling off in the previous year's income, as compared with that of the year before, consequent on the distress then prevailing in the manufacturing districts. They trust that the considerable increase on the income of the past year, which they are happily now able to announce, may be deemed to indicate that the cloud of misfortune which has so long hung over a large, important, and industrious section of the community, is passing away.

Perhaps the most striking feature in the history of the Institution during the past year is the large number of noble gifts, in the shape of the entire cost of new life-boats, which have been presented to it by philanthropic individuals, a list of which is enumerated in another part of the Report. Through such assistance the Committee have been enabled to replace several life-boats of inferior description, or obsolete character, by others embodying all the latest improvements.

To one of those gifts the Committee have much pleasure in drawing especial attention, not alone on account of its large amount, but as one springing from the very highest order of motives on the part of a commercial firm, and which cannot but be appreciated in this great mart of commerce, while it is invested with additional interest as proceeding from members of one of the most highly respected native communities amongst our fellow-subjects in India. The splendid gift to which they allude, is that of 2,000*l.* given by Messrs. CAMA and Co., Parsee merchants, London, for the purpose of providing the whole cost, and the future maintenance of a life-boat establishment, on the coast of the United Kingdom, in acknowledgement of the success which had attended their business transactions during eight years' residence in this metropolis, and in testimony of the courtesy and kindness which they had invariably received from its inhabitants.

The Committee are likewise able to report that the last remaining of the County Shipwreck Associations, viz., that in Lincolnshire, has decided on coming into union with the NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION, and that a complete renovation of the four life-boat stations on the coast of that county will, as soon as practicable, be effected.

New boats, carriages, houses, and equipment will be provided, and the several establishments made thoroughly efficient in every respect, at a cost of about 2,000*l.*, which will be defrayed jointly from the funds of the Parent and Branch Institutions.

The Committee have the gratification to know that the Lords of the Admiralty are taking steps to provide every ship-of-war with an efficient life-boat, their Lordships having paid the Institution the compliment to consult it on that important subject. Experimental life-boats are now in course of construction, and the Committee trust that their general adoption in the Royal Navy may lead to improvement in the life-boats of the Mercantile Marine.

The Committee having now formed stations on almost every dangerous part of the United Kingdom where a life-boat can be effectively manned, contemplate entering on another sphere of usefulness, by introducing an improved mode of fitting the interior of the larger class of open and half-decked fishing and hovelling boats on our coasts, so that they could at any time be made insubmersible. Our fishing-boats number about 40,000, and are probably manned by 160,000 men and boys, who are ever ready to risk their own lives to save those of their fellow-creatures on occasions of shipwreck.

The Committee propose to accomplish this object by building and placing at some of the principal fishing-stations model or standard boats, from which, after sufficient trial, others might be built in the several localities; and thus a permanent improvement be established, which might lead to the saving of many lives on occasions of such boats being overtaken by gales of wind when at long distances from land.

The general proceedings of the Institution may be epitomized as follows, under the usual headings:—

Life-boats.—During the past year the Institution has been enabled to send no less than 15 new life-boats to the coast, and numerous others are in course of construction. The stations to which they have been sent are Drogheda, Fishguard, Budehaven, Tenby, Lytham, Hastings, Blakeney, Swansea, Teignmouth, Filey, Arklow, Eastbourne, Pembrey, Palling, and Greencastle, near Londonderry. The whole of these, except that at Greencastle, have gone to replace worn-out or obsolete boats. No less than nine of them are gift boats.

The life-boats of the Institution now number one hundred and thirty-two; and some of them were the means of saving no less than four hundred and seventeen lives during the past year, nearly the whole of them under dangerous circumstances, amidst high surfs, when no other description of boats could have been launched with safety. They were also instrumental in taking safely into port or materially assisting seventeen vessels, which had stranded or otherwise got into danger. On forty-nine other occasions the life-boats of the Society were launched, and proceeded to the assistance of vessels that had shown signals of distress, or that were in evident danger, but which did not ultimately require their services. The crews of the life-boats also assembled during stormy weather on many occasions, in readiness to proceed to the aid of vessels. For these services—and for saving 297 shipwrecked persons by fishing and shore boats or other means—the Institution has granted rewards amounting to 1,297*l.*

These valuable services have happily been performed without a single accident attended with loss of life occurring to those who have manned the boats. On such occasions, and on those of quarterly exercise of the life-boats, about 6,000 persons were afloat in them.

Life-boat Carriages.—Transporting-carriages have been provided for the whole of the above-named life-boats, except those at Tenby, Blakeney, Eastbourne, Teignmouth, and Arklow.

Boat-houses.—New boat-houses have been built at Budehaven, Lytham, Fleetwood, Teignmouth, Pembrey, and Greencastle, whilst others are in course of erection at other places.

Shipwrecks.—The Committee regret to have to report that the number of wrecks during the past year was, as usual, very large, and that the gales of October and December were perhaps the most destructive that ever visited the shores and the seas of the British Isles. The widows and orphans, caused by the storm of the three early days of December, are to be numbered by hundreds in the towns of Yarmouth, North and South Shields, and other places.

It is, however, most gratifying to be able to report, that during the time that storm lasted, the life-boats were providentially the means of rescuing no less than 250 shipwrecked persons. Of these, 120 were saved by the Ramsgate life-boat in conjunction with the steam-tug Aid, and 48 by the Holyhead life-boat. Noble deeds of daring were also performed by the crews of the Institution's life-boats at Bacton, Fleetwood, Southport, Tenby, Llanddwyn, Skerries, and other places.* On numerous occasions when services were equally perilous and gallant, it is difficult to select any particular cases for narration, but they are all briefly detailed in the Appendix to this Report.

With a shipping representing about sixty-one millions of tons, and 400,000 vessels which cleared outwards and entered inwards from British ports during the past year, a large number of shipwrecks has become almost a natural sequence. Accordingly it is found that 1,602 casualties took place last year on the shores and in the seas of the British Isles, accompanied with the loss of 568 valuable lives—lives of the utmost consequence to the commerce and defence of the country.

However, it is gratifying to find that during the same period 4,565 persons were rescued by life-boats, the rocket-apparatus, shore-boats, and other means; 498 of these owe their preservation to life-boats, 329 to the rocket apparatus and 3,738 to ships' own boats, steamers, fishing-boats, and other means.

Those saved by life-boats, which are, as it were, the "forlorn hope" of the army of rescue, have, in nearly every instance, been saved under perilous circumstances, when they probably must have perished in the absence of such aid. The British public are now sensible of that fact, and their generous support to the NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION has been proportionately liberal. Our countrymen in all parts of the world manifest by their contributions their interest in its welfare; and its successful operations on our coasts have awakened in foreign countries a desire to provide similar means for saving life from shipwreck on their shores.

The total number of lives saved during the forty years from the establishment of the Institution in 1824, to the end of the year 1863, either by its life-boats, or by special exertions for which it has granted rewards, is as follows:—

The Committee are thankful to be able to report that so many of their fellow-creatures have thus been rescued from the perils of the deep, and restored to their families and to the service of their country. Every contributor to the Institution is entitled to participate, in that satisfaction, as an assistant in the great and good work. It will likewise be felt, that the thanks of all are eminently due to the gallant men who have so readily manned the life-boats on every occasion, and to all others who have personally aided in saving so many thousands of persons from a watery grave.

Rewards.—In the Appendix will be found a summary of the cases in which honorary and other rewards have been voted by the Institution. During the past year 15 silver medals, 26 votes of thanks inscribed on vellum and parchment, and 1,297l. have been granted for saving the lives of 714 persons by life-boats, shore and fishing boats, and other means, on the coasts and outlying banks of the United Kingdom.

In reference to these grants, our boatmen and fishermen everywhere know that their exertions in saving life from shipwreck will be promptly rewarded by the NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION in proportion to the risk and exposure incurred in the service. Thus a spirit of emulation and activity is fostered and encouraged by the Institution on the coasts of the British Isles, productive of the best results.

With the special object of enhancing the value of the medals of the Institution, they are never granted except when risk of life is believed to have been incurred, and great gallantry displayed; and the most careful investigation is made of every case before it is decided on. In that important work the Committee have received the prompt and cordial co-operation of Commodore A. P. RYDER, R.N., Controller-General, and Capt. J. W. TABLETON, R.N., C.B., Deputy Controller-General, and of the Officers of the Coast-guard service, to whom the best thanks of the Institution are hereby tendered.

The Committee again acknowledge the valuable assistance received from the Mercantile Marine Fund, through the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade, which assists the Institution to continue its liberal scale of payments to the life-boat crews.

The proceedings of the Committee on this head may be thus briefly stated:—Since the formation of the Institution it has expended on life-boat establishments nearly 100,000l., and has voted 82 gold and 738 silver medals for saving life, besides pecuniary awards, amounting together to 17,830l.

Local Committees.—The Committee desire to acknowledge the cordial co-operation of the local Branch Committees, which constitute so important a portion of the machinery for the supervision of the several life-boat establishments of the Institution. They have likewise especially to express their sense of the valuable and gratuitous services of the zealous Honorary Secretaries of those Committees, who conduct the correspondence with the central managing body in London.

Finances.—The total amount of receipts during the past year was 21,101l. 6s. 3d.; and of this sum the Committee are happy to report that 4,944l. 5s. 0d. were special donations given to defray the cost of the following twelve life-boats:—

Amongst the most gratifying recent donations to the Institution occur the following, the receipt of which the Committee gratefully acknowledge:—

100*l.* from a Sailor's Daughter, per Messrs. DRUMMONDS; 100*l.* as a Thank-Offering for Preservation at Sea during the storm of the 31st October last; 1*l.* 6*s.* 9*d.*, being the amount of a Collection at St. John's Sunday School, Manchester, per Mr. R. HANLEY; 3*l.* 18*s.* 8*d.* collected in Mochrum Parish Church, as a New Year's Offering to the Institution, per Rev. R. CRAIG; 20*l.* as a Thank-offering from E. JONES, Esq., and Mrs. JONES, for Preservation from imminent Danger at Sea; 100*l.* from 'A Friend,' in gratitude to God for the Preservation of his Wife for another year; 20*l.* from a Seaman's Daughter (C. T.), the produce of her Needlework; 200*l.* Consols, from GEORGE WHEELHOUSE, Esq. of Deptford, and 120*l.* collected from seamen and others by the agents of the Sister Institution, the Shipwrecked Fishermen and Mariners' Royal Benevolent Society.

The Committee have also especially to express their best thanks to W. N. RUDGE, Esq., for collecting 607*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.* on the London Stock Exchange, for the Institution; to ROBERT WHITWORTH, Esq., and the Rev. E. HEWLETT, for collecting nearly 1,000*l.* amongst their friends and others in Manchester; and to many other valuable co-adjutors at Birmingham, Pontefract, Tunstall and Wolverhampton in Staffordshire, Bristol, Huntingdon, and other places.

The following Legacies, less duty, have also been bequeathed to the Society since the publication of the last Report:—JAMES MILLER, Esq., of Glasgow, 100*l.*; WM. CURRIE, Esq., of Cornhill, London, 200*l.*; JOHN FARNELL, Esq., of Isleworth, 1,000*l.* (free of duty); MILBORNE WILLIAMS, Esq., of Whitchurch, 50*l.*; BERIAH BOTFIELD, Esq., M.P., of Norton, 10*l.* 10*s.*; Mrs. ADAMS, of St. Michael's Terrace, Stoke, 100*l.*; Mrs. M. A. DUROURE, of Blackheath, 50*l.*; Miss EMMA KEATE, of Kensington, 300*l.*; and RICHARD SPENCER, Esq., of Gower Street, London, 200*l.*

The expenditure of the Institution in the year 1863 was 16,672*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*, of which sum 6,417*l.* 14*s.* 3*d.* were expended on additional life-boats, transporting-carriages, boat-houses, and necessary gear; and 4,959*l.* 19*s.* 10*d.* on the necessary expenses of repairs, painting, refitting, and inspection; 1,351*l.* 6*s.* 4*d.* in rewards for services to shipwrecked crews; and 2,441*l.* 9*s.* 1*d.* for coxswains' salaries, and the quarterly practice of the boats' crews.

For a considerable saving in the item of transport to their stations, of new life-boats and carriages, the Committee have again to express their thanks to the several Railway and Steam Packet Companies, who have most liberally conveyed them to all parts of the United Kingdom, free of charge.

The items of receipt and expenditure are detailed in the financial statement annexed to this Report.

Considering the magnitude and unavoidable costliness of the operations of the NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION, embracing the whole of the Coasts of the British Isles, a large permanent annual income is indispensable to enable it to maintain, in an effective state, its One hundred and thirty-two life-boats, and to increase their number, should circumstances render it desirable to do so.

The Committee appeal to the British public with fresh confidence for support to an Institution whose mission of mercy must come home to every one, and plead for sympathy and support; and they feel assured that they will not make that appeal in vain; for if it be a high privilege and duty to feed the hungry, to clothe the naked, to heal the sick, and to teach the ignorant, it is surely, if possible, a still higher privilege and duty to rescue from a premature and sudden death fellow-creatures who may be preserved for a long career of future usefulness.

FROM THE 1ST JANUARY TO THE 31ST DECEMBER, 1863.

Jan. 1.—The Braunton (North Devon) life-boat put off and rescued, during a gale of wind, the master, his wife, and 18 of the crew of the ship Louisa, of Bristol. Mr. WILLIAMS had previously exerted himself in saving life from wrecks. 8*l.* 10*s.* were also granted to pay the expenses of the life-boat on the occasion.

When first observed, the 6 shipwrecked men were drifting about in one of the vessel's boats.

Also voted 6*l.* to 3 Irish fishermen for putting off, during a hurricane, in a curragh—a small wicker-boat—and rescuing two men belonging to the ship J. S. Parsons, of New York, which was wrecked off Innishowen, on the coast of Donegal. The ship struck with fearful violence, and in a few minutes was in a thousand pieces. The sea at the time was running mountains high, and it was considered impossible for any ordinary boat to live in it. It was heart-rending to witness the crew (28 in number) clinging to the rigging, while huge waves were breaking over them every moment. Shortly after the vessel broke up, two men were seen holding on to the roof of the deck cabin, which had floated away from the ship. Seeing the dangerous position of the poor fellows, the 3 curragh men put off in their frail boat, and succeeded in saving one of them, the other having, in the meanwhile, perished. Twenty other persons were saved by men wading into the surf, and a reward of 5*l.* was granted to these men. The Institution also presented its thanks, inscribed on vellum, to R. EDWARDS, Esq., Inspecting Chief Officer of the Rutland Coast-guard Division, for his valuable services on the occasion, and 3*l.* to his boat's crew of 6 men.

April 12.—The Seaton Carew life-boat went off in the night in reply to signals of distress and rescued the crew of seven men from the brig Regalia, of Whitby, which had sunk during stormy weather and in a heavy sea off Seaton Carew. This valuable life-boat had already been the means of rescuing the crews of the following wrecked vessels:—Brig Eliza, of Middlesborough, 7; brig Mayflower, of Newcastle, 8; brig Providence, of Shields, 8; and barque Robert Watson, of Sunderland, 5; making a total of 35 lives saved by that life-boat alone. Its cost was the gift to the Institution of WILLIAM MCKERRELL, Esq., in the year 1857. On being informed of the last service of the boat on the 12th April, Mr. MCKERRELL transmitted to the Society a contribution of 10*l.*, and at the same time stated how very much gratified he was to learn that his life-boat had providentially been the means of saving so many lives from shipwreck without a single accident occurring to her brave crew.—Expense of service, 13*l.* 10*s.* Voted the Silver Medal to Mr. ROBERT HOOD, coxswain of the life-boat, in testimony of his long services in that and a previous life-boat at Seaton Carew in saving life from wrecks.

This valuable life-boat has, on previous occasions, rescued shipwrecked crews, under the most perilous circumstances, during very stormy weather.

Also the Silver Medal of the Institution, and a copy of its vote on parchment, to Mr. THOMAS ROWLANDS and Mr. GEORGE LEWIS, and 3*l.* to some other men, in admiration of their brave services in wading into the surf and rescuing the crew of 3 men from the sloop Frances, of Cardigan, which, during a heavy gale of wind and high sea, had sunk on Newport Sands, near Fishguard, on the 17th March. MESSRS. ROWLANDS and LEWIS had incurred much risk of life in wading into the surf. J. PARSONS, A. GRAY, and J. SIMMONS, and 5*l.* to them and to two other Coast-guard men, in testimony of their gallant conduct in rescuing, at considerable risk of life, 11 out of 14 of the crew of the ship Genoa, of Liverpool, which, during a very heavy gale of wind and high surf, was wrecked on the 12th April, on Rattray Brigg Rocks, near Peterhead.

While engaged in the rescue of the shipwrecked men, a heavy sea struck the life-boat, and carried away one of her crew; but he fortunately regained the boat by means of his life-belt and a line. WILLIAM ALEXANDER, the gallant coxswain, had on several occasions, in this and another life-boat, been off to save life under very perilous circumstances. The Society voted to him its Silver Medal, in testimony of his valuable services as coxswain of the Thorpe life-boat. The cost of this life-boat was presented two years ago to the NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION by the residents of Ipswich. Upon nearing the distressed vessel, the salvors found it impossible to rescue the crew, owing to the fearful sea, which ran so high as to break over the vessel's maintop, completely obscuring the poor men in the rigging, who were shouting for help, and seemed frantic with despair. The crew of the pilot-boat, however, determined not to leave them, and stood off and on all night until the weather had somewhat moderated, when they succeeded with great difficulty in snatching the six men from an inevitable death.

The lad, who had been attracted to the spot by the screams of two women who had observed the drowning man, at once dived in and succeeded in bringing the body, apparently lifeless, to the shore. After some time, however, the man happily recovered. There were no other means of rescue at hand, and a moment's longer immersion must have proved fatal to him. His hands, when he was brought on shore, were still entangled in the sea-weed.—Reward, 1*l.*

Aug. 15.—The Aberdovey life-boat rescued 6 of the crew of the barque William Bromham, of Gloucester, which had struck on Aberdovey Bar during stormy weather. — Expense of service, 4*l.* 10*s.* After landing these men, the life-boat again put off, and assisted in bringing into safety the barque Huron, of Cardiff, which was also in distress off this port.

The Lytham life-boat afterwards proceeded to the rescue of the remainder of the crew of the barque St. Lawrence. On arriving alongside, however, the 4 men still refused to abandon their ship, and the life-boat returned to the shore. Early the next morning the vessel was seen with signals of distress still flying, and the boat was again launched during a heavy gale from the W.N.W., but on arriving alongside no one was found on board the vessel. The crew of the boat, however, succeeded, after some hours of toil, in bringing the vessel safely into harbour, much to the satisfaction of the owner, who witnessed the persevering and gallant exertions of the life-boat's crew, to whom he made a very handsome present. It was afterwards discovered that the 4 men had abandoned the vessel in the course of the night, in their own boat, and had fortunately succeeded in reaching the shore in safety.—Expense of service, 8*l*. For his gallantry on this and many other occasions the Committee presented the Silver Medal of the Institution to JAMES CANDLISH, the Coxswain of the life-boat.

The crew of the life-boat were reported to have behaved in a very gallant manner.—Expense of service, 8*l*. 4*s*. 6*d*. She was at once lost sight of in the intensely dark night, and she in her turn lost sight of the wreck. However, after much skilful manoeuvring, the wreck was at last fetched—and her crew snatched from a watery grave amidst the hearty cheers of the life-boat's crew, who afterwards safely brought them ashore.

Oct. 30.—The Fleetwood life-boat again went out in tow of the steam-tug Wyre, in reply to signals of distress from the ship Lillias, of St. John's, New Brunswick, which had struck on a sandbank, off Fleetwood. The steam-tug got close to the wreck for a few moments, and 26 of the vessel's crew immediately jumped on board the steamer. The captain and the 2 mates were left on the ship: they requested the life-boat to remain by them, which she did for three hours, when a very heavy sea struck the ship and brought her down upon the life-boat, which, with her gallant crew, narrowly escaped destruction. The life-boat was then cut adrift, and notwithstanding the noble and repeated efforts of her crew, she was unable, in her crew's exhausted condition, and in the face of the heavy gale, tide, and sea, to regain the ship. She was therefore compelled to run for Glasson Dock, where the crew arrived about midnight, nearly perished with cold and exhaustion. At daylight they again returned to the ship with the view of rescuing the poor men on board, but fortunately they had been previously taken off by a Morecambe steamer, the weather having moderated.—Expense of both services, 42*l*. 4*s*.

Oct. 30.—The Fraserburgh life-boat rescued 1 man from the smack Saucy Jack, of Inverness, which was totally wrecked, during stormy weather, on Cairnbuly Briggs, near Fraserburgh. The remainder of the crew unfortunately perished before the life-boat could reach the vessel.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 6*s.*

Oct. 31.—The Southport life-boat went off at night and saved the crew of 17 men from the Norwegian barque Tamworth, of Skien, which was totally wrecked during a hurricane on Trunk Hill Sandbank, about five miles from Southport. The captain of the vessel expressed his admiration of this gallant service, and stated that he and his crew must have perished but for the services of the life-boat.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 5*s.*

Nov. 1.—The Prussian galiot Maria was in distress off Sunderland during a heavy storm. A shore-boat, manned by 8 men, went off and brought on shore 7 men belonging to the schooner Heinrich, of Stralsund, which vessel had foundered at sea. The crew took to their boat, and were picked up by the Maria in an exhausted state.—Reward, 4*l.*

Nov. 7.—The brig Arthur Leary, of London, was wrecked, during a gale of wind, off Seaford, Sussex. A shore-boat, manned by 8 men, put off and saved 7 of the vessel's crew.—Reward, 4*l.*

Nov. 11.—The St. Ives life-boat went off to the assistance of the brig Benjamin Boyd, of Bristol, in distress; but, on reaching her, found her services were not required. When returning they saw a pilot-gig, with her crew of 7 men, in danger, approaching the harbour. The crew were taken into the life-boat, and the gig towed ashore in safety.—Expense of service, 5*l.* 1*s.*

Nov. 26.—The brig Theophilus, of Aberdeen, struck on the Bondicair Bush Rock. The Hauxley life-boat rescued the crew of 5 men. The fishermen had attempted to reach her in their cibles, but were unable to do so from the heavy sea that was running.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 1.—A Filey fishing-coble, whilst running for the beach in a south-easterly gale and a heavy surf, was unfortunately upset, and 1 man drowned. The other 2 men were saved by the Filey new life-boat, The Hollon.—Expense of service, 8*l.* 6*s.* This life-boat, which is the gift of the present LORD MAYOR and LADY MAYORESS of York, had only been on her station a few days when she rendered this important service.

Dec. 1.—Voted 67*l.* 15*s.* to pay the expenses of the Cemlyn, Seaton Carew, Rhyll, Holyhead, Silloth, Kingstown, New Brighton, Tynemouth, and Blakeney life-boats, in going off in reply to signals of distress from vessels which, however, had succeeded in getting out of their perilous positions, and did not require the services of the life-boats.

Reported the services of the Buddon Ness (Dundee) life-boat in going off and assisting to bring to a port of safety the schooner Guilia, of Palermo, and her crew of 10 men. The vessel was in distress, during stormy weather, off Buddon Ness on the 10th October. The life-boat's crew received salvage for their services on this occasion.

Dec. 2.—Two of the Tenby fishing-boats, while following their occupation, were caught in a heavy gale, and were unable to regain the land. The Tenby life-boat was at once launched, and proceeded to assist the most leewardly of the two, and saved the boat and her crew of 3 men.—Expense of service, 8*l.* 4*s.* While the life-boat was thus engaged, Mr. J. GOODRICH, the master of the smack Emma, and 9 other men, most gallantly rescued the other fishing-boat and her crew of 3 men, for which service JOHN GOODRICH was presented with 1*l.*, and the other men with 10*s.* each.

Dec. 3.—During a very heavy gale from N.W. the barque Ina, of North Shields, coal-laden, came on shore about a mile south of Haisborough. The Bacton life-boat was immediately launched, and, under sail, ran down to her assistance—a distance of 5 miles. On nearing the wreck the life-boat was anchored, and after much difficulty, owing to the heavy sea that was running, succeeded in taking off the master, a North-sea pilot, and 12 of the crew, and landed them in safety. The mate could not be persuaded to leave the vessel, and perished when she broke up.—Expense of service, 20*l.* 14*s.* Mr. W. CURRIE, Hon. Sec. of the Bacton Branch, having gone off in the life-boat to animate and encourage the crew, the Silver Medal of the Institution was presented to him. This gentleman has on several occasions distinguished himself by his humane and noble efforts to save life.

Dec. 3.—The schooner Economy, of Portmadoc, was observed, off Ven-y-chain Point, with signals of distress flying. The Portmadoc life-boat immediately went out to her assistance, and succeeded in bringing the vessel and her crew of 5 men into a place of safety.—Expense of service, 6*l.* 10*s.*

Dec. 3.—The Skerries life-boat went out to the assistance of the fishing-lugger Vigilant, of Peel, Isle of Man, which was dragging her anchors in a heavy northerly gale, and showing signals of distress. With great exertions the life-boat's crew succeeded in bringing her and her crew of 7 men into Skerries Harbour.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 4*s.*

Dec. 3.—The Swansea life-boat went off to the assistance of the barque Duke of Northumberland, which had parted from her anchors, in the Mumbles Roads, in a heavy N.W. squall, and had come on shore, on the Swansea Flats, with signals of distress flying. After remaining out some hours, the life-boat brought on shore the vessel's crew of 17 men and 1 passenger.—Expense of service, 15*l.*

Dec. 3.—A ship and the barque Jupiter, of London, were observed in collision, in Penarth Roads, during a heavy N.W. gale, the latter with signals of distress flying. The Penarth life-boat immediately proceeded to her assistance, and, at the request of the captain, remained by the Jupiter till she was clear of the ship.—Expense of service, 5*l.* 10*s.*

Dec. 3.—During a heavy gale from the N.W. the Gull Stream light-vessel was observed to fire two guns, and a ketch was noticed dragging her anchor, and driving towards the Goodwin Sands. The Walmer life-boat was immediately launched, and proceeded through a heavy sea to her assistance. On nearing the vessel, which proved to be the Hanoverian galliot Cornelia, her long-boat was seen conveying her crew to a Kingsdown lugger to leeward. The vessel subsequently drove on the Sands, and became a total wreck. Owing to the force of wind and heavy sea the life-boat did not regain the shore till 3 A.M. the next morning, having been out 11 hours. Her gallant crew were completely exhausted.—Expense of service, 23l. 2s.

Dec. 3.—During a strong N.W. gale, with a heavy sea running, a light was observed off the entrance to Barmouth. The life-boat stationed at that place was at once launched, and, proceeding in the direction where the light was last seen, discovered a vessel on shore on the South Bank, from which perilous position she rescued the crew of 5 men. The vessel proved to be the schooner Margaret and Jane, of Dublin, which had driven from St. Tudwell's Roads with loss of anchors and sails.—Expense of service, 12l.

Det. 3.—The Llanddwyn life-boat rescued the crew of 4 men of the brigantine Maria, of Amlwch, which, during a heavy N.W. gale and thick weather, was driven on the North Sand, off Caernarvon Bar.—Expense of service, 5l. 6s.

Dec. 3.—The Holyhead life-boat went off in a heavy N.W. gale, and rescued the crew of 4 men from the schooner Elizabeth, of Whitehaven, which vessel was flying a signal of distress.—Expense of service, 13l.

Dec. 4.—The same life-boat went out again about 2 A.M. this morning, and between that hour and 9 A.M. had rescued the crews of the following vessels:—the barque Confiance, of Liverpool, 23 men; the barque Elizabeth Morrow, of Glasgow, 19 men; and the French schooner L'Espérance, of Nantes, 2 men. These vessels had been driven on shore in the hurricane.—Expense of services, 29l.

The Southport life-boat was immediately conveyed along the shore and launched to the wreck, off which she took 8 men. The remainder of the crew were rescued by the Formby life-boat, belonging to the Liverpool Dock Company.—Expense of service, 8l. 18s.

Dec. 4.—The life-boat stationed at Llanddwyn brought into safety the schooner Harry Russell, of Barrow, and her crew of 8 men. This vessel was off Carnarvon Bar, with signals of distress flying, during the heavy gale of that day.—Rewarded by Owners.

Dec. 5.—Intelligence having been brought to Aberystwyth that a vessel was dismasted between Aberayron and Newquay, with signals of distress flying, the Aberystwyth life-boat went to her assistance, and succeeded, the following day, in bringing the vessel and her crew of 7 men into Aberystwyth Harbour. The vessel proved to be the brig Mary Anne, of Scilly.—Expense of service, 13l. 5s.

Dec. 7.—While the smack Lewis, of Campbelltown, was attempting to enter Irvine Harbour during a westerly gale, a heavy fresh in the river threw her on the broken ground to the south of the river, from which perilous position her crew of 3 men were rescued by the Irvine life-boat, manned by a crew of volunteers.—Expense of service, 6l. 18s.

Dec. 10.—The Lytham life-boat put off, during a gale of wind, and succeeded in bringing into a port of safety the schooner Caledonia, of Lytham, and the brigantine Fame, of Maryport, and crew of 5 men, for which services they were rewarded by the Owners.

Dec. 12.—The Thurso life-boat put off and rescued the crew of 15 men of the barque Graces, of Shields, which was dragging her anchors in Thurso Bay during a strong W.N.W. gale, and showing signals of distress.—Expense of service, 7l. 17s.

THE MEDAL OF THE
ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION, FOR THE PRESERVATION OF LIFE FROM SHIPWRECK.

Obverse.—Bust of Her Majesty Queen Victoria; beneath, in minute letters, “L. C. Wyon.”
 Double legend, “Royal National Life-boat Institution. Founded in 1824.
 Incorporated 1860. Victoria, Patroness.”

Reverse.—Three sailors in a Life-boat,—one of whom is in the act of rescuing an exhausted mariner from the waves on a fragment of the wreck. “W. Wyon, Mint.”
 Inscription “Let not the deep swallow me up.”

THE beautiful obverse of this medal, which has recently been executed by L. C. WYON, Esq., represents the bust of QUEEN VICTORIA, Her Majesty's locks gracefully waving and gathered in a knot behind, from which issues a wreath of oak clustering over the forehead. This life-like portrait of the QUEEN, in high relief, conveys a truly pleasing and faithful likeness of Her MAJESTY, as at this period of her life; combining dignity of aspect and benevolence of nature; and represented by Mr. WYON with the most exquisite finish, delicacy, and beauty of workmanship.

The reverse, representing the Life-boat, in which there are three Sailors, rescuing a fourth from the sea, is a work of superlative merit. Two of the Sailors are steadying the boat, while the other, stooping, draws in the Shipwrecked Sailor, whose figure is given so as to show the form in the most natural and beautiful manner; and the expression thrown into his countenance looking up to his preserver is unrivalled by anything that we have ever seen, while the easy flowing lines of this sailor are finely contrasted by those of his companions: the whole displaying the most perfect knowledge of the human frame, the finest taste to arrange it, and a command of the graver to embody to us what the artist's bright genius had shadowed out to himself.

But there is another pleasing motive for our admiration of this beautiful Medal, as the figure who is so humanely extending his relief to the drowning Mariner is a portrait of the Artist (the late WILLIAM WYON, Esq., R.A.) himself.

The following is a LIST of the GOLD and SILVER MEDALS that have been voted by the Committee of this Institution, since its establishment in 1824, to persons whose humane and intrepid exertions in saving Life from Shipwreck have been deemed sufficiently conspicuous to merit that honourable distinction. The Cases will be found recorded in detail in the several Annual Reports of the Institution.

Note.—The asterisk (*) after the name denotes the reception of a Gold Medal.

The figure after the name signifies the number of honorary distinctions received from the Institution.

THE LIFE-BOAT OF THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

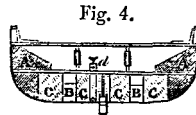

Sheer Plan.

Deck Plan.

Body Plan.

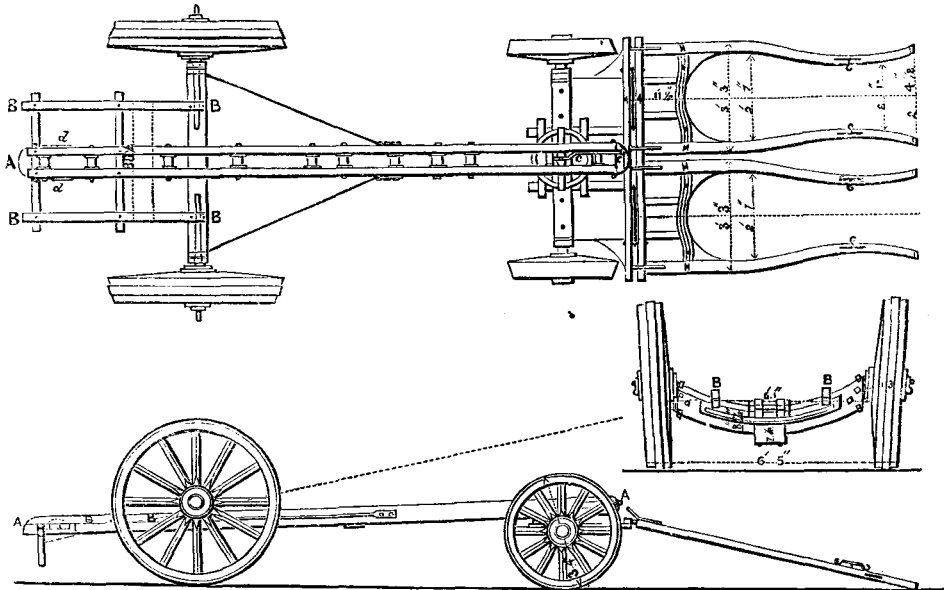

Midship Section.

The accompanying figures show the general form, the nature of the fittings, and air-chambers of one of these boats, 33 feet in length and 8 feet in breadth. In figs. 1 and 2, the elevation and deck plans, the general exterior form of the boat is shown with the sheer of gunwale, length of keel, and rake of stem and stern-posts. The dotted lines of fig. 1 show the position and dimensions of the air-chambers within board, the relieving-tubes, and internal ballast. In fig. 2, A represents the deck, B the relieving-tubes (6 inches in diameter and 6 in number), C the side air-cases, D the side air-chambers, E ballast, F ventilators to admit of a free current of air under the water-tight deck, G ventilator to receive pump. In fig. 3, the exterior form of transverse sections, at different distances from stem to stern, is shown. Fig. 4 represents a midship transverse section, A being sections of the side air-cases, B the relieving-tubes, of the same depth as the space between the deck and the boat's floor. C, C, C, are spaces beneath the deck, 9 feet in length, placed longitudinally, at the midship part of the boat, with solid chocks of light wood, or cases packed with cork, forming a portion of the ballast; d is a ventilator, having a pump fixed in it, by which any leakage can be pumped out by one of the crew while afloat. The festooned lines in fig. 1 represent exterior life-lines attached round the entire length of the boat, to which persons in the water may cling till they can be got into the boat; the two central lines are festooned lower than the others, to be used as stirrups, so that a person in the water, by stepping on them, may climb into the boat.

This life-boat possesses in the highest degree all the qualities which it is desirable that a life-boat should possess:—

1. Great lateral stability.
2. Speed against a heavy sea.
3. Facility for launching and for taking the shore.
4. Immediate self-discharge of any water breaking into her.
5. The important advantage of self-righting if upset.
6. Strength.
7. Stowage-room for a number of passengers.

LIFE-BOAT TRANSPORTING-CARRIAGE.

LIFE-BOAT TRANSPORTING-CARRIAGE AS ADOPTED BY THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

THE carriage consists of a fore and main body. The latter is formed of a keelway A, A, and of side or bilgeways B, B, in rear of the main axle, the boat's weight being entirely on the rollers of the keelway. Its leading characteristic is that, on the withdrawal of the long forelock pin C, the fore and main bodies can be detached from each other. The advantages of this arrangement are that the weight of the boat when she is launched from the rear end forms an inclined plane by elevating the keelway, yet without lifting the fore body off the ground, whilst to replace her on the carriage she can be hauled bow foremost up the fore end or longer incline. The bilgeways B, B, are needed at the rear end, that the boat may be launched in an upright position with her crew on board; but they are not required at the fore end of the carriage. The boat is hauled off the carriage and launched into the sea by a rope at each end of the boat rove through the sheeve D, having one end hooked to a self-detaching hook at the boat's stern, and the other manned by a few persons on the shore, who thus haul the boat and her crew off the carriage and launch them afloat at once, with their oars in their hands, by which means head-way may be obtained before the breakers have time to beat the boat broadside on to the beach.

A Subscription List has been opened to found a new Life-boat (to be named the Balmoral): it will cost about Two Hundred and Fifty Pounds, which sum is being raised in Five Thousand Shares, at One Shilling each. Will you aid this benevolent object by becoming a Shareholder? Consent to do so, and at no distant period you will be satisfied with the dividend when you take up the Newspaper and read an account of a Wreck, in which the Gallant Crew of the Balmoral succeeded in saving all on board some ill-fated vessel! For it is a fact, that wherever a Life-boat has been established, the saving of life has invariably followed. "If we have the means of doing good—and know the way—and do it not, great is our responsibility."

When the Boat is launched it will be provided with a Transporting-carriage and Boat-house, and be maintained at the expense of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

Donations, in Money or Stamps, are received by

Yours respectfully,

M. T. MORRALL, Matlock, and 7 High Street, Manchester,

The object of this Institution, as declared in its title, is to afford assistance to every wrecked person around the coasts of the United Kingdom.

The chief means by which the Society hopes to carry this object into effect are:—

To build, station, and maintain in repair, Life-boats of the most perfect description; to furnish them with all necessary Appurtenances, including Houses to preserve them in, and Carriages for their conveyance to the spots where their Services are called for; and further, to provide, through the instrumentality of Local Committees, for their proper Management, and the occasional Exercise of their Crews.

To confer Honorary Rewards in the form of Medals and Votes of Thanks, and also to grant Pecuniary Remuneration to all persons who, at the risk of their own lives, save, or attempt to save, those of others on board vessels wrecked, or in distress, upon any part of the coasts of the United Kingdom.

As an index of the necessity for the provision of such a machinery as the above, it may be stated—that the average loss of lives from shipwreck annually on the shores of the United Kingdom is between 700 and 800.

Donations and Annual Subscriptions will be thankfully received by Messrs. WILLIS, PERCIVAL, and Co., 76 Lombard-street; Messrs. COURTIS and Co., 59 Strand; Messrs. HERRIES, FARQUHAR, and Co., 16 St. James's-street, London; by all the London and Country Bankers; by the several Metropolitan Army and Navy Agents; and by the Secretary at the Office of the Institution, 14 JOHN STREET, ADELPHI, London—W.C.

1st April, 1864.
