VOL. XV.—No. 164.]

2ND MAY, 1892.

[PRICE 1s.

At the ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION, held at Princes' Hall, Piccadilly, on Saturday, 30th day of April, 1892, Sir EDWARD BIRKBECK, Bart., M.P., V.P., in the Chair, the following Report of the Committee was read by the Secretary:—

ANNUAL REPORT.

NEVER probably since the establishment of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION in 1824 has public attention been so specially drawn to its work and needs as during the past year; to its work on account of the numerous gallant services of the Life-boat crews in the saving of life from shipwreck; to its needs by reason of the insufficiency of its income to carry on and extend in the manner desired by the Committee the great work it has undertaken.

The year has also been marked for the special efforts which the Committee have made, not only to improve the discipline and condition of the Life-boat crews, but also to introduce and adopt every improvement in the build of the Life-boats and the equipment and management of the stations which might tend to increase and perfect the efficiency of the service.

The Steam Life-boat, to which attention was drawn in the last Annual Report, has up to the present quite fulfilled the expectations and hopes of the Committee respecting it, having been out altogether on service fourteen times and saved thirty-three lives and two vessels, giving in the performance of those services the greatest satisfaction to the crew. The Committee cannot but feel, however, that the boat has not yet passed out of the region of experiment, and that they would not be justified in building more boats of so expensive a type until a considerable further time has been employed in testing its merits or demerits on other parts of the coast.

Life-boats.—In view of the competitive Life-boat trials, which have just been carried out at Lowestoft, the results of which will in due course be published, the Committee have for a time stayed their hand in building Life-boats of the largest classes, trusting that from the experience gained at the trials they may be able to build a more stable and better type of Sailing Life-boat than has hitherto been produced. During the past year, however, four new stations have been formed, each of which has been provided with a fully equipped Life-boat as follows:—

Beaumaris . . . .	North Wales.
Johnshaven . . . .	Kincardineshire.
Porth Rhuffydd . . . .	Anglesey.
Pwllheli . . . . .	Carnarvonshire.

and new stations are in course of formation, or will be, it is hoped, shortly, at:—

Culdaff Bay . . .	Co. Donegal.
Dungeness . . .	Sussex.
Folkestone . . .	Kent.
Gorleston . . .	Suffolk.
Port of Ness. . .	Island of Lewis.

Besides the new stations which were established and equipped in 1891 eleven new Life-boats, specially built to meet the approval of the crews who would be called upon to man them, were sent to the following places on the coast:—

ENGLAND AND WALES.

Appledore No. 1 . .	Devonshire.
Blakeney . . . .	Norfolk.
Holyhead No. 1 . .	Anglesey.
Holy Island No. 2 .	Northumberland.
Lyme Regis . . . .	Dorsetshire.
St. Mary's . . . .	Seilly Isles.

SCOTLAND.

Longhope . . . .	Orkney Islands.
Stromness . . . .	"

IRELAND.

Ballycotton . . . .	Co. Cork.
Dundalk (Giles' Quay)	„ Louth
Kingstown No. 1 . .	„ Dublin.

New and improved boats will be provided for other stations as soon as circumstances permit.

During the year the boats at nineteen stations were provided with water-ballast tanks and other improvements.

Owing to circumstances which have arisen, the Committee have found it necessary to retain the station at Chapel in Lincolnshire instead of transferring it, as had been decided and as reported last year, to Skegness; but they have withdrawn the small boat from Southend, as the work will be efficiently done by the larger Life-boat sent to the station some time since. At the close of the year the total number of Life-boats under the management of the Institution was 303.

The Committee reported last year that they had met with difficulties in obtaining from the contractors a sufficient supply of transporting carriages for the Life-boats, but that they hoped those difficulties would shortly be overcome, and that they would be enabled to send a large number of carriages to the coast in 1891. Their hopes proved, however, to be too sanguine and have not been fulfilled, for within the last twelve months only six Life-boat carriages have been completed. This state of affairs is most unsatisfactory; but the difficulty is one which cannot readily be overcome, owing to the impossibility of obtaining properly seasoned elm of the size required for the felloes of the wheels. The Committee trust that before long they may have found a metal wheel which, while as light as one made of timber, may have equal and sufficient strength.

Tipping plates.—During the year five stations were provided with Tipping sand-plates, and they have certainly tended to increase the efficiency of the service by enabling the Life-boats to be more easily and promptly launched than they could possibly have been without them.

Shipwrecks.—The year 1891 was remarkable for sudden gales of unusual strength and fury rather than for any long periods of stormy weather; the blizzard of the 9th March, and the great gales of the 13th October and the 11th November, although productive of serious destruction to life and property, were not so disastrous in their consequences as might naturally have been expected. All through the year, however, and particularly on the special occasions to which reference has been made, admirable work in the saving of life and property was done by the Life-boat crews. In the year the Life-boats were launched 342 times on service and 973 times for exercise, in addition to which crews were assembled fifty-one times for service when their assistance was not ultimately required. It is with the deepest regret that the Committee have to report that, of the 17,000 men who were afloat in the Life-boats during the year, six men lost their lives when making gallant attempts to rescue shipwrecked crews—namely, three at New Romney, two at Lydd, and one at Hythe. In each of these cases a Public Inquiry was held, by order of the Committee. The widows, orphans, and dependent relatives of the unfortunate men were in every case well provided for by the Institution, and by funds raised locally. At Douglas, Isle of Man, also, a man helping to launch the boat was thrown down and so badly crushed that he subsequently expired. The Committee at once granted to his widow the sum of 100*l.* In every case where it has been proved that an injury has been sustained by persons employed in the service full compensation has been made by the Institution.

The coxswains and crews of the Life-boats as usual conducted themselves generally in a thoroughly exemplary and gallant manner, so that considerable and somewhat undue prominence has been given in those instances, happily very rare, where there has been any lack of promptness or a disinclination to obey the orders of the coxswain. In every case an official investigation has promptly followed. The officers and men of the Coastguard and the Volunteer Rocket Brigades have also rendered excellent service in saving life.

Since the Institution was founded in 1824, it has granted rewards for the saving of 36,179 lives as follows:—

Rewards.—The rewards granted by the Committee during the year 1891 for the saving of life from shipwreck or for efforts with personal risk to do so and in recognition of other good services rendered, comprised nineteen Silver Medals, one Gold Second Service Clasp, five Silver Second Service Clasps, one Silver Third Service Clasp, thirteen Binocular Glasses, fifty-one Votes of Thanks inscribed on vellum and framed, nine Certificates of Service framed, and 8,245*l.* 18*s.* 4*d.*, including grants to the relatives of Life-boatmen who lost their lives when discharging their duties, and compensation made to men injured in the service.

On the 31st December last the Institution had granted altogether in rewards since its establishment in 1824, 98 Gold Medals and Clasps, 1,073 Silver Medals and Clasps, 197 Binocular Glasses, 15 Telescopes, 4 Aneroid Barometers, 1,352 Votes of Thanks inscribed on vellum and framed, 18 Certificates of Service framed, and 121,739*l.* in money.

Aneroids.—The demand for the Aneroid Barometers, supplied by the Institution to fishermen and small coasters at about a third the retail price still continues, 117 of these very reliable and valuable instruments having been sold during the past year, ninety-two to fishermen, and twenty-five to coasters, bringing the total provided by the Committee since June, 1882, when the system was introduced, to 3,132.

Local Committees, etc.—The best thanks of the Institution are due to the Local Committees, to their Honorary Secretaries and Treasurers, and to all who have co-operated with them for the very important services they have rendered during the past year. The Service being a voluntary one, much depends on the energy, care and attention of the Local Honorary Officials. The grateful thanks of the Committee are equally due to the Public Press for its powerful advocacy on behalf of the cause, and more particularly to those editors of newspapers who have generously opened their columns to receive contributions for the Institution.

In June last the Institution contributed the sum of 30*l.* to the National Sea Fisheries Protection Association for the purpose of supplying oil-bags to various ports on the coast for distribution to fishermen and others in order to encourage them in the use of this very important means of protection, and thereby to diminish the loss of life from shipwrecks which annually takes place on the coasts of the United Kingdom. Most satisfactory reports have been received as to the result of the use of these oil-bags, and the experiments are being continued over an extended area.

The Committee cannot sufficiently congratulate themselves and the supporters of the Institution on having secured the passing of the Removal of Wrecks Act, 1877, Amendment Act, 1889, as under its useful provisions many wrecks, very dangerous to the crews of the Life-boats in the performance of their life-saving duties, have been removed during the past year.

In April last the Chairman of the Institution, at the request of the Committee, gave notice in the House of Commons that he would move a resolution that it was desirable, with the view of decreasing the loss of life from shipwrecks on the coast, that the Government should provide telephonic and telegraphic communication between all the coast-guard stations and signal stations on the coast of the United Kingdom, and on such parts of the coast where there are no coastguard stations that the post offices nearest to the Life-boat stations should be connected. Owing to press of public business, however, no opportunity was afforded for moving this resolution. The Chairman gave notice therefore that he would move a similar resolution early this Session. The question of electrical communication on the coast is increasingly exciting attention in the country, and it is hoped that before the close of the year the Government will, as they have since promised, take action in the matter, with a view to adopting a system at once so important and popular.

With a view to improving the condition of the Life-boatmen, signalmen, and helpers employed in the service, and to securing the services of the best and smartest boatmen that can be procured, the Committee decided in November last to grant them one-half more pay than had hitherto been allowed for services, exercises, and assemblies during the six winter months, and also to appoint a permanent bowman for each Life-boat, wherever it can be arranged, to be allowed a special retaining fee of 30*s.* per annum. These steps have given the greatest satisfaction all round the coast, and the Local Committees are almost unanimously of opinion that greater efficiency in the Service will be the result.

Finances.—An effort was made last spring to establish throughout the United Kingdom a "Life-boat Sunday" and a "Life-boat Saturday," and prominence was given to the statement made in the Annual Report of the previous year that the expenditure of the Institution had very considerably exceeded its income, and that the Committee had been compelled to make use of capital in order to meet the deficiency. The result of the urgent appeal then made to the public has been most satisfactory, and there is every reason to hope that before long the "Life-boat Sunday" and the "Life-boat Saturday," so successfully inaugurated in Manchester in October last, will hold the same place as institutions in the country as the "Hospital Sunday" and "Hospital Saturday" already do. The receipts during the past year under all heads showed a considerable increase. The subscriptions, donations, dividends, etc., amounted to 65,486*l.* 18*s.* 6*d.* This sum included special gifts amounting to 13,450*l.* for the following Life-boat establishments:—

The expenditure for the year was 65,162*l.* 12*s.* 7*d.* Of this sum, the building, improving, repairing and equipping of Life-boats cost 10,735*l.* 7*s.* 8*d.*; Life-boat Carriages and repairs thereto, 2,099*l.* 8*d.*; Life-boat Houses and Slipways, 7,791*l.* 8*s.* 3*d.*; Life-boat Stores, Life-belts, Subsidies to outlying Stations, Branch payments, Aneroids for fishermen and coasters, the Store-yard, the Inspectors' Department and experiments, 22,294*l.* 15*s.* 10*d.*; the payments to coxswains, signalmen and crews for service, and exercising the boats, special rewards and recognitions, medals, vellums, grants for injuries and to relatives of Life-boat men lost on service, amounted to 16,660*l.* 13*s.* 11*d.* The balance was spent on printing and publishing the Life-boat Journal, the Annual Report and Appeals, on salaries, taxes, office, repairs, advertisements, house-keeper, postage, stationery, etc. Every item of receipt and expenditure has been carefully examined, and vouched for by Mr. LOVELOCK, of the well-known firm of Messrs. LOVELOCK, WHIFFIN, and DICKINSON, 19 Coleman Street, E.C., Chartered Accountants. With the view of demonstrating to the public that the capital of the Institution is altogether insufficient to produce in dividends an amount, even when added to the subscriptions, sufficient by one-half to maintain the service in thorough efficiency independently of eleemosynary help, such as donations and gifts, the Committee have decided to publish in future a balance sheet in addition to the Income and Expenditure account. They trust that the result will be not only an increase in the number of annual subscribers, but that those who wish to bequeath money for the benefit of the cause will be led to do so without fettering their contributions by conditions which not unfrequently entail heavy expense on the Institution.

The Committee, in concluding their report, desire to impress strongly on the public the necessity for well-sustained support if the Life-boat Service is to be kept up as hitherto in a proper state of thorough efficiency, and they very earnestly appeal to all to help them in their efforts to minimize the great loss of life which annually takes place from shipwrecks on the coasts of the United Kingdom.

The object of this Institution, as declared in its title and in its Charter of Incorporation, is to afford assistance to every shipwrecked person around the Coasts of the United Kingdom.

The chief means by which the Society endeavours to carry this object into effect are:—

By building, stationing, and maintaining in repair, life-boats of the most perfect description; furnishing them with all necessary Appurtenances, including Houses to preserve them in, and Carriages for their conveyance to the spots where their Services are called for; and further, providing, through the instrumentality of Local Committees, for their proper Management and the occasional Exercise of their Crews.

By conferring Honorary Rewards in the form of Medals and Votes of Thanks, and also making liberal grants of money to all persons who, at the Risk of their own lives, save, or attempt to save, those of others on board vessels wrecked, or in distress, upon any part of the Coast of the United Kingdom.

The number of lives saved either by the Life-boats of the Institution, or by special exertions for which it has granted rewards, since its formation, is 36,179.

Annual Subscriptions and Donations are thankfully received by the Secretary, CHARLES DIBDIN, Esq., at the Institution, 14 JOHN STREET, ADELPHI, LONDON, W.C.; by the Bankers of the Institution, Messrs. COUTTS and Co., 59 Strand; Messrs. HERRIES, FARQUHAR, and Co., 16 St. James's Street; Messrs. ### The Royal National Life-boat Institution

Is prepared to establish and maintain a Life-boat Station on any part of the coast of the United Kingdom where it can be shown, from previous disasters, that a Life-boat is required. It is requisite that there should be a sufficient number of men (fishermen, or others accustomed to the management of boats at sea) to man the Life-boat, and a Committee formed from the residents in the neighbourhood to superintend the Station and obtain such small Annual Subscriptions as may contribute towards a portion of the expense of the Life-boat Station.

Communications should be addressed to the Secretary of the Institution, 14 John Street, Adelphi, London, W.C.

List of the Rewards

FOR SAVING LIFE FROM WRECKS

VOTED BY THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION

TO THE CREWS OF ITS LIFE-BOATS, TO SHORE AND FISHING-BOATS' CREWS, AND TO OTHER PERSONS,
FROM THE 1ST JANUARY TO THE 31ST DECEMBER, 1891.

Jan. 4.—NORTH DEAL.—Mary Somerville Life-boat.—Signal rockets and guns having been fired by the Gull Light-vessel, the Life-boat was launched at about 6.15 p.m., and proceeded towards the Goodwin Sands. The wind was blowing moderately from the N.N.W. and the sea was smooth, but after a time a strong breeze sprung up and the water became rough. On their way to the Sands the Life-boat men, observing large flares burning, at once steered in the direction of the flares, and found they were shown by the brig Kate, of and from Guernsey bound for London, laden with granite. She had stranded on the North West Spit of the Sand, and three Deal boats were alongside her. The Life-boat men were employed to throw out the cargo and try to get the vessel afloat, and with the help of the other boatmen this was ultimately accomplished. The brig having sprung a leak the pumps were kept constantly at work, and at about 6 o'clock on the following evening the vessel, with her crew of nine men on board, was taken into Ramsgate harbour.—Property salvage case.

Jan. 6.—RAMSGATE.—Bradford Life-boat.—The Life-boat, in tow of the steam-tug Aid, left the harbour at 3.30 A.M., in a strong N.E. breeze with snow squalls and a heavy sea, signal guns having been fired from the Goodwin Sands. The tug and Life-boat went at once to the North Sand Head, seeing a flare in that direction, and found the three-masted schooner Crocodile, of and from Guernsey for London, with a cargo of stone. The Life-boat was slipped from the tug and sailed towards the wrecked vessel, letting go the anchor just to windward of her, but the cable parted before the crew could be rescued. The boat was, therefore, obliged to return to the tug, which towed her to windward again, when sail was once more hoisted. On nearing the wreck the second anchor was let go, the boat sheered alongside, and with great difficulty, the heavy seas causing her to strike several times with considerable violence against the vessel, succeeded in saving the crew of six men who had taken refuge in the mizen rigging, the hull being entirely submerged. The master of the vessel having unfortunately been benumbed by the cold fell from aloft and was killed before the Life-boat arrived.—Expense of service paid by the Board of Trade.

Jan. 6.—BROADSTAIRS AND RAMSGATE.—Christopher Waud, Bradford, and Bradford Life-boats.—The brigantines Glance and Glide, of Ramsgate, both bound for Ramsgate from the north with coal, came into collision off the North Foreland in a strong E.N.E. gale, snow squalls, and a heavy sea. Both vessels were severely damaged and ultimately foundered, their crews taking to their boats. The boat of the Glance having been seen in the offing, the Broadstairs Life-boat put off at about 8 o'clock and rescued the seven men on board, who were in a very exhausted condition. They were landed and taken to the Ramsgate Sailor's Home. A telephonic message reporting the casualty, and stating that the boat of the Glide was adrift, was despatched from Broadstairs to Ramsgate. Immediately on receipt of the news the Life-boat and steam tug Aid put to sea, and found the boat, containing seven men, about two miles distant. The men were taken into the Life-boat and safely landed at Ramsgate at 10 A.M.—Expense of service by Broadstairs Life-boat, 7l. 11s. 6d. Expense of Ramsgate service paid by the Board of Trade.

Jan. 6.—HARWICH.—Duke of Northumberland and Reserve Life-boats.—The steam Life-boat, with the reserve Life-boat in tow, went out in a fresh gale from the N.E., snow squalls and a very heavy sea, signals having been fired by the Cork Light-vessel. On reaching the Cork Sands the masts of a vessel with sails set were seen, and on arriving near to her three men were observed in the rigging, two of whom waved their hands to the Life-boat men. The reserve Life-boat was towed close to the sunken wreck, and threw out grappling irons and life lines, which two of the men caught, tied round themselves, and jumping into the water, were pulled into the Life-boat in a very exhausted and benumbed condition. The other man was dead. The boats then promptly returned to their station, where the men were landed and their wants attended to. Having placed the two survivors in safety, the coxswain of the steam Life-boat considered it would be seemly to return to the wreck and bring ashore the dead body which had been left in the rigging. The boat therefore returned to the wreck, and having made fast to the rigging, one of the crew of the reserve boat, who had volunteered to go in the steamer, jumped on to the rigging, unlashed the man's body and fastened a line to it, by means of which it was dragged on board the Life-boat. The Life-boat man was also hauled on board by means of a line, and the return journey was made to Harwich. The wrecked vessel was the ketch Day's, of Barrow, laden with scrap-iron, and bound from London for Newcastle.—Expense of service, 12l. 2s. 6d.

Jan. 7.—WITHERNSEA.—Admiral Rous Life-boat.—The s.s. Maja, of Copenhagen, having straddled about two miles N. of the pier at Withernsea, the Life-boat proceeded to her assistance at 6.15 A.M. The wind was blowing from the N.W. and there was a moderate sea. At the request of the master the Life-boat remained by the vessel until daylight, when two anchors attached to a tow-rope were put out, and at about 10.45 A.M. the steamer floated and resumed her voyage to Grimsby, the Life-boat regaining her station at 11.40 A.M.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 8th Jan., 1891.

Voted the Second Service Clasp, a certificate of service, and a pecuniary reward to Mr. J. H. SMALLBRIDGE, late coxswain of the Braunton Life-boat.

The Committee specially recognised the good services rendered by the late Mr. THOMAS JENKINSON, formerly coxswain of the Filey Life-boat, during the period of nearly 19 years in which he efficiently occupied that post.

Voted also 28l. 15s. to pay the expenses of the Broadstairs and Harwich steam and reserve Life-boats in assembling their crews or putting off to the assistance of vessels which did not ultimately need their services.

Jan. 20.—HOLYHEAD.—Joseph Whitworth Life-boat.—During a gale of wind from the N.W. by W., and a very heavy sea, the Life-boat was called out by signals of distress exhibited by two vessels lying in the outer anchorage which were dragging their anchors and driving towards a lee shore. The Life-boat was promptly launched at 8.12 P.M., and proceeded under sail first to the schooner Pride of the Dee, the crew of which, four in number, at once got into the boat; she then went to the schooner Isabella, and having taken off her crew of three men, returned towards the shore. Before the land was reached, however, another schooner, the Maggie Brocklebank, burnt a signal of distress, whereupon the Life-boat put about, went out again, and took off that vessel's crew, consisting of four men.—Expense of services, 16l. 10s.

Jan. 29.—LOWESTOFT.—Stock Exchange Life-boat.—The coxswain of the Life-boat was informed that a smack was ashore near the extension pier at the mouth of the harbour. A strong breeze was blowing from the S.S.W., and there was a very heavy sea. He proceeded at once to the Life-boat, mustering the crew as he went along, and at 8.35 P.M. the boat was launched, and rowed to the vessel. On arriving abreast of the smack, which proved to be the trawler Peace, of Lowestoft, returning from the fishing grounds, and carrying a crew of five men, the Life-boat let go her anchor, veered down to the vessel, and took off one of her crew. The others threw their bags of clothes into the boat and thereby lost their chance of getting on board her themselves, for the heavy seas swept her away from the vessel. She got to windward again, and dropped her anchor a second time; but when she again reached the vessel, it was found that three of her crew had been taken off by the rocket apparatus, and that only the master remained on board. The Life-boat men threw a rope to him which he made fast round his body; but he afterwards untied it, gave up his intention of making for the Life-boat, and was rescued by the rocket apparatus.—Expense of service, 25l. 17s.

Jan. 31.—PORT ERIN, ISLE OF MAN.—Annie and Mary of Manchester Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 9 A.M. to the assistance of the trawler Lily of the West, of Douglas, which had been disabled by loss of sails. A strong wind was blowing from the S.W. and an exceptionally high sea was running. The vessel anchored, but as the bay is unsheltered when the wind is in that direction, it was feared that the anchor would not hold, and the crew, consisting of five men, were therefore taken into the Life-boat and brought safely ashore.—Expense of service, 8l. 13s.

Jan. 31.—RAMSEY, ISLE OF MAN.—Mary Isabella Life-boat.—While the Life-boat was out for practice, a trawler reported that a schooner was in need of assistance, most of her sails having been blown away. A strong gale was blowing from the S.W., and there was a heavy cross sea. The Life-boat went in search of the vessel, and found her about five miles E.N.E. of Ramsey harbour where she had anchored close to the Bahama bank. The boat stood by her for an hour; but as her anchors were dragging, her crew of four men left her, and were taken into the Life-boat. The schooner was the Leona, of Belfast, bound from Cardiff for Drogheda with a cargo of coal.—Expense of service, 23l. 8s.

Feb. 11.—WEXFORD.—Andrew Pickard Life-boat.—At about 3.30 P.M., while a strong gale was blowing from the W.S.W., the fishing yawl Prima Donna, of Wexford, grounded on the south side of the bar. The Life-boat was at once manned and proceeded to her assistance. After about half-an-hour the vessel was got afloat, and as the crew of five men were then in safety, the Life-boat returned to her station. At 5.35 p.m. signals of distress were shown by the yawl, and the Life-boat at once proceeded to her again. She had then anchored in the North Bay, having lost her mainsail and one anchor in attempting a second time to cross the bar. At the request of the master, the Life-boat remained by the vessel until 4.30 a.m., when the storm moderated and the boat returned to Wexford, the yawl being afterwards towed in by a steam tug.—Expense of service, 21l. 11s.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 12th Feb. 1891.

Voted the second service clasp, a certificate of service, and a pecuniary reward to Mr. WILLIAM CALLOW, and the Committee specially recognised the good services rendered by Mr. THOMAS CARBIS during the long period in which they respectively served as coxswains of the Castletown and Penzance Life-boats.

Voted 294l. 3s. 4d. to pay the expenses of the Wexford No. 1, North Deal, Middlebrough, Redcar, Saltburn, Great Yarmouth, Douglas No. 2, Lowestoft No. 2, Gorleston No. 1, Caister No. 1, Huna, Winterton No. 2, Whitehaven, Workington, Holyhead No. 2, Port Patrick and Maryport Life-boats, in assembling their crews, watching, or putting off in reply to signals of distress, their services, however, not being eventually needed.

The Rungate Life-boat had also been called out, but her services were not required.

Voted also 2l. 2s. to one of the crew of the Orme's Head Life boat, who was injured while on service in the Life-boat on the 7th November, and thereby rendered for a short time unfit for work.

Also 3l. to a boy who was injured on the occasion of the exercise of the Newquay, Cardiganshire, Life-boat on the 31st Decemb.r.

March 2-4.—PORTRUSH, CO. ANTRIM.—Robert and Agnes Blair Life-boat.—The schooner Ellen Myvanwy, of Beaumaris, bound from Runcorn for Ramelton, co. Donegal, with a cargo of salt, anchored in Skerries Roads, off Portrush, on the 28th Feb. On the 2nd March, a gale from the W. to N.W. set in accompanied by a very heavy sea and the vessel showed signals of distress. The Life-boat put off to her assistance, but was unable to reach her and was compelled to return to the shore. All through the following day attempts were made to get the boat afloat, but all the efforts were rendered futile by the severity of the storm. Only once did it seem that the purpose would be accomplished; the boat was got off, but was soon driven ashore again and had to be beached for the night. The next morning fresh endeavours were made, which were also fruitless until 4 p.m. when the boat went off splendidly, her crew toiling manfully at the oars. As soon as practicable sail was set and in half-an-hour the vessel was reached and her crew of three men taken off. After taking in the bay under sail the boat ran in beautifully to the shore, being greeted with great cheering by the people on the land.—Expense of services, 53l. 8s. 6d.

March 3.—LONGHOPE, ORKNEY ISLANDS.—Dickinson Edleston Life-boat.—The s.s. Victoria, of Sunderland, 1960 tons, bound from Hamburg for New York with a general cargo, was seen about five miles N. of Dunnet Head Lighthouse with signals of distress, while a heavy gale was blowing from the N.W., accompanied by a tremendous sea and snow showers. The Life-boat was launched at 4.30 p.m., and on reaching the vessel found that she was sinking, and that her fires had been extinguished. Her crew, consisting of twenty-two men, were taken into the Life-boat, the boat receiving a slight injury in effecting the rescue, and landed soon after midnight at Widewall, in South Ronaldshay, it being found to be utterly impossible to regain Loughope, owing to the tremendous sea and adverse tide. The Life-boat men were compelled to remain at Widewall Bay until the gale somewhat abated and the boat was enabled to return home, arriving at 1.30 p.m. on the 5th March.—Expense of service, 33l. 15s.

This service was an extremely hazardous one, and great gallantry was displayed by BENJAMIN STOUT, the coxswain, who is a daring and skilful seaman, and the crew of the Life-boat. The Silver Medal of the Institution, accompanied by a copy of the vote inscribed on vellum, was awarded to the coxswain. An extra pecuniary reward was also granted by the Institution to the coxswain and crew, and the owners of the steamer to which the service was rendered generously presented the sum of 21*l.* to the men. Eleven of the rescued men were German sailors, and in recognition of the service rendered to them His Majesty the Emperor of Germany presented, through the Foreign Office, a handsome gold watch, bearing his portrait and monogram surmounted by the imperial arms, to BENJAMIN STOUT, and a grant of 24*l.* to the crew of the boat.

The following gratifying letter, in connection with this service, was published in The Shipping Gazette :—

SIR,—We, the undersigned, on behalf of the whole of the crew of the steamer Victoria, of Sunderland, desire publicly to convey our heartfelt thanks to the 14 men who, on the afternoon of the 3rd instant, put off from Longhope in the Life-boat in the most terrible weather, and rescued us from our vessel when she was not only in a sinking condition, but, as circumstances subsequently proved, was fast driving ashore near Dunnet Head, where we are sure there was not the faintest hope of rescue. Their timely and gallant aid was attended with the utmost danger, for which no thanks can fully express our gratitude. Yours, &c.,

JAMES HARRISON, Master.

J. R. SCARBOROUGH, Mate.

M. WOODWARD, Steward.

DAVID RANKEN, Second Engineer.

March 3.—HARWICH.—Duke of Northumberland and Reserve Life-boats.—The pilot-cutter Providence arrived at Harwich flying signals denoting that the Life-boat was required. The steam Life-boat, with the reserve Life-boat in tow, promptly went out, and the coxswains were informed by the head pilot that the Sunk Light-vessel had been firing guns, a three-masted schooner having stranded on the Long Sand. A moderate N.W. gale was blowing, the sea was very heavy, rain was falling, and the weather was thick and cold. On speaking the Sunk Light the pilot's statement was corroborated, and on proceeding to the Long Sand, the vessel, which was the Mercury, of and for Aberdeen, from Grangemouth, with coal, was found. The Life-boats bore down on her and her crew of twelve men were taken into the steam Life-boat and landed at Harwich at 1.30 A.M.—Expense of services, 31*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*

March 4.—BROUGHTY FERRY, DUNDEE.—Samuel Shawcross Life-boat.—A fleet of twenty yawls, engaged in flounder fishing in St. Andrew's Bay, left Broughty Ferry between seven and eight o'clock in the morning, the weather being fine with a moderate breeze from the S.W. During the day the wind increased to a strong gale from W. by N. accompanied by a rough sea. From the hill-head it could be seen that some of the fishing boats were in dangerous positions in the bay, and it was considered desirable to take out the Life-boat to their assistance. The boat was launched at 4.15 P.M., and on reaching the bay found that all the boats with two exceptions were riding as close as possible to the shore, the four larger ones being anchored, the smaller ones being fastened to them. One boat was riding at anchor away from the rest, and another was in considerable peril. The rope by which the latter was made fast snapped, and the two men on board made for the shore. One of the men jumped on Teutsmuir Sands for the purpose of holding the boat; but the wind blew with such force that it mastered him, and after hanging on until he was up to the waist in water, he had to release his hold, and the boat with the remaining man on board drove rapidly to sea. The Life-boat reached the two boats and put them, with the three men on board, ashore at Buddon Burn.—Expense of services, 15*l.* 3*s.* 6*d.*

March 5.—NEWBURGH, ABERDEENSHIRE.—Ellen Newman and John Bentley Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched to the aid of a small pleasure-boat, the Alexander Duthie, of Aberdeen, which had put out to sea during the morning intending to proceed to Aberdeen. There being a strong N.W. wind and a heavy sea, the boat was drifting northwards about five miles from the land, being beyond the control of her sole occupant. He was taken into the Life-boat and landed at Port Erroll.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 4*s.*

March 10.—BRIXHAM.—Brian Bates Life-boat.—During a very strong gale from the E. with severe snow-storms and a very heavy sea, the trawler Pioneer, belonging to Brixham, was observed close to the rocks near Fishcombe Point, having parted from her moorings, and as anxiety was felt for the safety of her crew, the Life-boat was launched at 10.30 A.M., and proceeded to the vessel. The gale having somewhat moderated, she held on to her bower anchor and was re-moored, the Life-boat remaining by until this was accomplished.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 15*s.*

March 10.—PENZANCE.—Dora Life-boat.—While a whole gale was blowing from the E., with snow and a heavy ground sea, the schooner Joseph Nicholson, of Newcastle, bound from Carnarvon for Norway with slate, dragged her anchors while lying in Mount's Bay, and showed signals of distress. The Life-boat put off to her assistance at 11 A.M., and at the master's request boarded her and brought her and her crew of five men safely into harbour.—Property salvage case.

March 10.—CLACTON.—Albert Edward Life-boat.—News was received that a man had landed about two miles east of Clacton at eight o'clock in an open boat which was nearly full of water. He had been taken to a farmhouse by some labouring people, and stated that he had left four men on his vessel, the schooner J. W. Bebell, of Beaumaris, bound from Aberdeen for London with a cargo of granite. The coxswain of the Life-boat, on being apprised of the event, at once proceeded in a conveyance to the farmhouse to obtain from the man the approximate position of the vessel. He brought the man with him in the carriage to Clacton, and handed him over to the charge of the Shipwrecked Mariners' Society's Agent. At 11.30 A.M. the Life-boat was launched, proceeded across the Wallet and Gunfleet Sands, and was kindly taken in tow by the s.s. Rosalind, of Newcastle, to about two miles below the Gunfleet Light, where the boat was slipped, sail was set, and after passing through a tremendous quantity of broken water and shipping several heavy seas, she arrived at the vessel and found two men in the main rigging. One of the men was taken into the Life-boat; he reported that the other man was dead, and that the master and the cook had been washed overboard and drowned. One of the Life-boat men ascended the rigging, cut away the lashings of the dead body, and lowered it into the boat. While this was being effected one of the boat's crew was dragged overboard by the vessel's rigging, but was happily rescued by his comrades. The Life-boat then made for her station, and arrived there at 4.30 P.M.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 9*s.*

March 10.—ST. AGNES, SCILLY ISLANDS.—James and Caroline Life-boat.—A smack being observed in a disabled condition during a whole gale from the N.E. at 4.30 P.M., was carefully watched, and as it appeared certain that she would run ashore, the Life-boat was launched at 6.15 to meet her. When she struck, one of the crew jumped overboard and succeeded in reaching the rock. The vessel now floated off, but again stranded, and the master and the remaining hand having got into their boat, succeeded in landing on one of the islands, and were taken off by the Life-boat in a very exhausted state, the captain having to be carried to the boat and the other man being unable to walk without assistance. They were brought to St. Agnes at 1.30 A.M. The vessel was the Porth, of Padstow, laden with 60 tons of culm.—Expense of service, 15*l.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 12th March, 1891.

Voted the Silver Medal of the Institution and a copy of the vote inscribed on vellum and framed to Mr. RALPH THOMPSON, in acknowledgment of his services as Coxswain of the Sunderland No. 1 Life-boat for twenty-six years, in which period the boat saved twenty-three lives.

Also the Silver Medal of the Institution, accompanied by a copy of the vote inscribed on vellum, to Captain F. WATT, and to Mr. JOHN HOPKINS, coxswain, in recognition of their general gallant services in the Portrush Life-boat, particularly on the occasion of the rescue of the crew of three men from the schooner Ellen Myvanwy, of Beaumaris.

Voted also 36*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.* to pay the expenses of the Bamberidge, Greencastle, Holyhead No. 2, Camlyn, Cemaes, Palling No. 2, Aldeburgh, Clacton-on-Sea, Fowey, Walton-on-the-Naze, Teignmouth, Hornsea, New Romney, Winterton No. 2, North Deal, Newhaven, Arbroath and Scarborough Life-boats, in putting off in reply to signals, their services not being ultimately needed.

The Committee expressed their deep sympathy with the relatives of three of the crew of the New Romney Life-boat, who were unhappily lost while out on service in the boat during the "blizzard" on the 9th March. The sum of 500*l.* was granted in aid of the fund which was about to be raised for the relief of the widows, children, and other persons who were dependent for their support on the earnings of the deceased men.

Also 4*l.* to five pilots and the crew of three men of the cutter Providence, in acknowledgment of their good services in reporting the stranding of the schooner Mercury, of Aberdeen, on the Long Sand on the 3rd March, and thus contributing to the rescue of the vessel's crew of twelve men by the Harwich steam Life-boat.

Also 5*l.* 2*s.* to a man who was injured at the exercise of the Brighton Life-boat on the 6th October last.

Also 3*l.* to a man injured at the exercise of the Drogheda Life-boat on the 10th February.

Also 1*l.* 5*s.* to defray the medical expenses incurred by a man injured at the exercise of the Mablethorpe Life-boat on the 17th January.

March 15.—STONEHAVEN.—Alexander Black Life-boat.—The barge Der Zehnte Juni, of South Shields, bound from Sunderland for Aberdeen, with a cargo of coal, experienced a good deal of stormy weather on her voyage, and on the 15th March, she was labouring heavily in the teeth of a S.S.E. gale. When off Catterline, about six miles S. of Stonehaven, she was struck by three especially heavy seas which swept her from stem to stern and caused her to spring a leak. The pumps were at once set going, but the water gained on them, and signals were made to the steam-tug which had the vessel in tow to take the crew off, as they were doubtful of being able to keep the barge afloat. It was however deemed best to tow her to Stonehaven Bay, and then to signal for assistance from the shore. On the signal being seen, the crew of the Life-boat were summoned. At that time, it being Sunday, many of the people were in church, but an excellent crew of fishermen volunteered, and at 11.20 A.M. the boat was launched, reached the disabled barge in spite of the heavy sea, and rescued the master and crew, seven men in all. The barge became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 8*l.*

March 16.—PALLING, NORFOLK.—Good Hope Life-boat.—The look-out man having reported a vessel ashore at Waxham, the Life-boat was taken on her transporting carriage along the shore to the scene of the disaster. A strong gale was blowing from the S.S.E., there was a heavy sea and rain was falling. After several attempts the boat was successfully launched at 2.30 A.M., reached the stranded vessel, which was the smack M.K.D., of and for Yarmouth, returning with fish from the North Sea, and with much difficulty took off her crew, consisting of six men.—Expense of service, 23*l.*

March 16.—ST. ANDREWS, FIFESHIRE.—Ladies' Own Life-boat.—The barque Elisabeth, of and from Tönsberg for Leith, with a cargo of pit-props, was seen in St. Andrews Bay steering N.N.W., about three miles off the shore at 4 P.M. It seeming probable that she would ultimately need assistance, as a heavy gale was blowing from the E.N.E. the sea was very rough and the weather thick, the crew of the Life-boat were summoned; the boat was taken out of the house and remained in readiness for service. After tacking about for three hours the vessel stranded on the West Sands. As soon as it was seen in which direction the boat's services would be required, she was taken towards the West Sands, and was launched at 7.20, some of the oars being double-banked in order to accelerate her progress through the heavy seas. She promptly reached the vessel, which became a total wreck, and rescued her crew of eight men.—Expense of service, 29*l.* 2*s.* 9*d.*

March 21.—WINTERTON, NORFOLK.—Edward Birkbeck Life-boat.—The ketch Elizabeth, of Goole, was observed about half-a-mile from the shore running straight for the beach in a strong N.E. breeze and a heavy sea. The crew of the Life-boat having been called, the boat was launched at six o'clock, and proceeded to the vessel which had grounded on the bank opposite the Life-boat house among the breakers and was full of water. As soon as possible the Life-boat got alongside her, and rescued her crew of two men and a boy.—Expense of service, 10*l.*

April 4.—NORTH SUNDERLAND.—Thomas Bewick Life-boat.—The Life-boat was called out on service in the afternoon to the assistance of the barque Ornen, of Frederickstadt, which was water-logged, and had driven on the Greenhill Sands, striking a bar about eight hundred yards from the land. This is said to be one of the worst possible places for a vessel to strike on this part of the coast. The wind was blowing from the S.E., the weather was stormy, and the sea was breaking very heavily on the bar. At 3.30 the Life-boat was launched and pulled up close to the vessel through a very heavy surf, but was struck by heavy seas and driven away from her. For four hours the gallant Life-boat men strove to regain the barque, but were unable to get close to her, and being utterly exhausted by their hard work were compelled to return to the shore. They remained by the boat, and at 3 A.M., directly the sea gave a chance of success, another launch was effected; the vessel, which had driven over the bar into slacker water in a less exposed position, was reached and her crew of eleven persons were rescued. The mainmast was lying over the side of the vessel and the spars and other floating wreckage rendered the task of approaching the barque a difficult and dangerous one, especially as day had scarcely dawned.—Expense of service, 40*l.* 8*s.*

April 8.—CHAPEL, LINCOLNSHIRE.—John Alexander Berrey Life-boat.—While a strong breeze was blowing from S.E. to N.E. and a heavy sea was running, the schooner Vibelia, of and from Griustadt for Boston, Lincolnshire, with a cargo of pit-poles and lumber, stranded off Anderby, her anchors not holding, and filled with water. The Life-boat was launched at 7.45 A.M., reached the vessel, which was found to be a total wreck, and rescued her crew consisting of seven men.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 14*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 9th April, 1891.

Voted 384*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.* to pay the expenses of the Dungeness, Weymouth, Hastings, Aldeburgh, Falmouth, Walton-or-the-Naze, St. Agnes, Margate, Mablethorpe, Burry Port, Tynemouth No. 2, Berwick-on-Tweed, Eyemouth, Broughty Ferry, North Deal, Walmer, Porthoustock, North Sunderland, Lowestoft No. 2, Gorleston No. 1, Holyhead No. 2, Montrose No. 2, Bamburgh Castle and Harwich steam and reserve Life-boats, in assembling their crews, watching, etc., or putting off to the aid of vessels not ultimately needing their help.

Also the sum of 2*l.* to the head launcher of the Penzance Life-boat, in consideration of illness contracted in the Life-boat service.

Also 1*l.* 5*s.* to a man injured at the exercise of the Aldeburgh Life-boat on the 25th March.

April 11.—MARGATE.—Quiver No. 1 Life-boat.—The coastguard having reported a large steamer ashore on the main, the Life-boat was launched at about 3 A.M., and found the steamer European, of Liverpool, bound from London for Antwerp, with a general cargo, stranded on the Walpole Rocks. A moderate N.E. breeze was blowing, the sea was rough and the weather fine and cold. The master of the vessel at first declined assistance, but finding that he could not get his vessel off took the assistance of steam-tugs, and with the help of the Life-boat men and others she was floated on the next tide.—Property salvage case.

April 22.—RAMSGATE.—Bradford Life-boat.—The Life-boat and steam-tug Aid were called out by signal guns from the Gull Light-vessel, and left the harbour at 5.18 A.M. in a moderate E.N.E. wind and hazy weather. The s.s. Kelloe, of London, bound from Newcastle for Sydney, N.S.W., with a cargo of coal, was found stranded on the S.E. Goodwin Sands. Part of a lugger's crew were on board her, and the steamer and Life-boat's crew were engaged to assist to get her afloat. The tug's tow-rope was made fast, and ultimately the ship was towed afloat, and being taken clear of the sands was able to proceed under her own steam to Gravesend, four of the salvors going in her to assist in navigating her, as seven of the crew had abandoned her and had left in one of her boats.—Property salvage case.

May 7.—WINTERTON.—Margaret Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 10.30 A.M., signal guns having been fired by the Wold Light-vessel. On reaching the Hasborough Sands the barque Sirius, of Drammen, timber laden, was found near Palling Knowl, and the Life-boat remained by her until a steam-tug arrived and towed her out of danger.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 10*s.*

May 9.—NORTH SUNDERLAND.—Thomas

Bewick Life-boat.—The fishing-luggers Effrontery of Stonehaven and Snowdrop of Torry being in distress in a moderate gale from the N. and a heavy sea, the Life-boat was launched at 8.30 A.M. and escorted the boats into the harbour.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 15*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 14th May, 1891.

Voted the Silver Medal of the Institution, accompanied by a copy of the vote inscribed on vellum and framed, to Mr. JAMES COLLINS, Coxswain of the Rye Life-boat, in acknowledgment of his gallant services in the boat, in assisting to save 45 lives during the past twelve years.

Also the Third Service Clasp, a certificate of service and a pecuniary grant, to Mr. ROBERT LEGERTON, who had resigned the post of coxswain of the Clacton-on-Sea Life-boat. He had held the office since the establishment of the station, about thirteen years ago, and assisted to save many lives from shipwreck.

The Committee also suitably recognized the valuable services of Mr. WILLIAM NILKS, who had been Coxswain of the Cardigan Life-boat for twenty years, and had resigned on account of old age. The boat had, whilst he held the coxswainship, been launched seventeen times on service, and saved 57 lives.

Voted also 2*l.* 8*s.* 6*d.* to pay the expenses of the St. David's, St. Andrew's, Donna Nook, Lowestoft No. 2, Saltburn, Margate, Walton-on-the-Naze, Broadstairs, Walmer, Caister No. 1, Gorleston No. 1, North Deal, C-mlyn, and Harwich steam and reserve Life-boats, in assembling their crews, watching, etc., or putting off to the assistance of vessels which did not ultimately require their services.

Also 5*l.* to a man who was injured at the exercise of the Balbriggan Life-boat on the 14th March.

The Ramsgate Life-boat had been called out, but no service was rendered. Expense paid by the Board of Trade.

May 14.—CAISTER, NORFOLK, AND GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Covent Garden and Mark Lane Life-boats.—At 3 A.M. the watchmen saw the flash and heard the report of a gun fired at sea N. of the Cross Sand. A strong breeze was blowing from the N., the sea was moderate, but afterwards became rough, and the weather which had been foggy was then fine. A yawl put off and sailed to the vessel in distress, and the Caister No. 1 Life-boat was launched. On reaching the vessel, which was the s.s. Cambria, of and from Dundee bound for London, with a general cargo, it was found that she had been in collision with a steam-collier, and being badly damaged had been run on the North shoal of the Cross Sand. The master of the Cambria engaged the yawl to proceed to the light-vessel to take off the steamer's passengers, who had been put on board for safety by means of one of the ship's boats, and he requested that the Life-boat might remain by him. The yawl sailed to the light-ship, took off the seventeen persons, of whom two were women and some children, then called for the second mate of the Cambria and sailed for Yarmouth. During this time every effort had been made to save the vessel, but without success, and when the yawl returned at 3 P.M. the master sent fifteen of his crew with their effects by her to Yarmouth. The Life-boat kept near the ship, but a N.W. wind sprung up and the sea increased, and at 2 A.M. the master and the remainder of the crew took to their boat and sheered off to the Life-boat which was riding clear with a rope fast to the steamer. Seven of the men were taken into the Life-boat, which then made for Yarmouth harbour, towing the ship's boat, in which the master and one man remained to steer her and to tend the tow-line.

In response to signals the Gorleston Life-boat also put off to the assistance of the vessel, and remained by her for some time in readiness to render any service that might be required.—Expenses of service, 8*l.* 10*s.*

May 17.—CAHORE, CO. WEXFORD.—John Brooke Life-boat.—A messenger arrived at the Life-boat Station from Morris Castle, distant about three Irish miles south, in the evening, and reported that a vessel was stranded on the Black-water Bank. The Life-boat was launched at 8.30 in a strong N.E. breeze, proceeded in the direction indicated, and found that the vessel had floated off the bank and had grounded on the Ram Shoal. The seas were breaking over her, and also over the Life-boat whilst she rescued the crew, consisting of five men. She was the Jewess, of and for Wexford bound for Dublin, with a cargo of malt.—Expense of service, 297.

May 18.—KESSEINGLAND.—Bolton Life-boat.—At about 2 o'clock in the afternoon the schooner Kate and Elizabeth, of Portsmouth, stranded on the Barnard Sand, in a fresh breeze from the N.E., drizzling rain and a rough sea. The Life-boat was promptly launched, and rescued the master, his daughter and the crew of four men from the vessel, which became a total wreck. The wind and tide being then against the Life-boat she signalled for a steam-tug. One of the Lowestoft tugs was despatched to her and towed her to Lowestoft, where the rescued persons were landed, the boat returning to her station the following morning.—Expense of service, 187.

May 19.—NORTHSUNDERLAND.—Thomas Bewick Life-boat.—The fishing-lugger Morning Star of North Sunderland being unable to enter the harbour, the sea having suddenly become very heavy, the Life-boat put off at 1.30 p.m. and brought her safely into port.—Expense of service, 67. 12s.

May 25.—TYNEMOUTH.—Forester Life-boat.—At about 12.45 p.m. alarm guns were fired from the Spanish Battery indicating a vessel in distress. Crowds of people at once rushed to places from which the harbour could be seen, and observed that a steamer was stranded on the Black Middens; she was in an imminently dangerous position, as the wind was blowing strongly from the N.E. and the heavy seas were making a clean breach over her. Two rockets were fired from Tynemouth, one of which carried a line across the vessel, and all the Life-boats at the mouth of the river were speedily manned and launched. The Tynemouth No. 1 Life-boat, belonging to the Institution, was the first to reach the vessel, and at the request of the captain, who handed a rope to the coxswain, remained alongside until the ship was towed off by several steam-tugs and taken into the harbour. She was the s.s. Napier, of North Shields, bound from New York for the Tyne, with a general cargo.—Expense of service, 117. 18s.

June 1.—MABLETHORPE, LINCOLNSHIRE.—Heywood Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at midnight, in a heavy sea and a fresh E. wind, to the assistance of the schooner Eagle, of Portmadoc, which had stranded at Saltfleet. The boat was pulled out clear of the breakers and then sailed to the vessel, which was bound from Newcastle for Santos, laden with machinery. Her crew of six men were landed by the Life-boat, but the master refused to leave. When the tide receded the ship was left dry and he was then able to walk ashore.—Expense of service, 287. 1s.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 11th June, 1891.

The Committee specially recognized the good services rendered by Mr. THOMAS WILLIAMS, who had been Coxswain of the Aberystwith Life-boat for nineteen years, and had resigned on account of old age. The boat had, while he held the coxswainship, been launched nine times on service and saved eighteen lives.

Voted 59l. 7s. 6d. to pay the expenses of the Athfield, Seaton Carew, Kildonan, Saltburn, Lowestoft No. 2, Newhaven and Porthdinlaen Life-boats, in assembling their crews, watching, or putting off to the assistance of vessels which did not ultimately require their assistance.

June 26.—NEWHAVEN AND EASTBOURNE.—Michael Henry and William and Mary Life-boats.—The paddle-steamer Normandy, of and for Newhaven from Dieppe, with 130 passengers and a general cargo, stranded on a reef of rocks called the Ledge, opposite Holywell, near Eastbourne, in a dense fog, a light S. wind and a smooth sea. As it was known that a large number of persons were on board the vessel it was considered desirable that the Life-boats should proceed to her so as to be at hand if their services were needed. The Newhaven Life-boat left her station at 8 a.m., the Eastbourne boat was launched soon afterwards, and both boats remained by the steamer until with the aid of a tug she was extricated from her dangerous position and proceeded for her destination.—Expenses of service, 217. 1s.

June 27.—WALTON-ON-THE-NAZE.—Honourable Artillery Company Life-boat.—Signals having been hoisted at the Gunfleet light-vessel denoting that immediate assistance was required, the Life-boat was launched at 6.13 p.m. in a moderate sea and a W.S.W. wind, and steered for the Swin, where she fell in with a steamer, and was towed to windward of the vessel in distress, which was the brig St. George, of Guernsey, bound from London for Shields, laden with chalk, and which had stranded about two and a half miles from the Gullfleet Light. She was then high and dry, and the Life-boat had to wait two hours before she could get to her. Several boatmen were in charge and were throwing out the cargo so as to lighten her, and with the help of a steam-tug she was got afloat at high water, the Life-boat remaining by her until she was out of danger.—Expense of service, 25l. 3s.

June 27.—PALLING, NORFOLK.—British Workman Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched to the assistance of the schooner Hanna, of Lomland, timber laden, from Gælle for Dunkirk, which having lost her mast and becoming water-logged had been abandoned by the crew, and had stranded on the Hasborough Sand in a S.S.W. wind and a moderate sea. With the combined services of the Life-boat men, the crews of yawls, and a steam-tug, the vessel was got afloat, and was beached at Palling on the 30th June. Her crew took refuge on board the steamer Astrologer, and were landed at Antwerp.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 9th July, 1891.

Voted 20l. 2s. to pay the expenses of the Drogheda No. 2 Life-boat in putting off to the assistance of a stranded vessel.

Aug. 2.—NORTH DEAL.—Mary Somerville Life-boat.—The Life-boat was called out by signals fired by the Gull Light-vessel in a strong breeze to a moderate gale and a heavy sea at about 9 in the morning and proceeded to the s.s. trawler Euphrates, of Hull, bound from Liverpool to Great Yarmouth, which had stranded on the Goodwin Sands. The Life-boat men assisted to get the vessel afloat at high water at about 9.30 p.m., and she was able to resume her voyage almost immediately afterwards, arriving at Yarmouth at 11.25 on the following morning. She carried a crew of eight men, and the master's wife was also on board.—Property salvage case.

Aug. 2.—RHYL.—June Martin Life-boat.—In the evening a rowing-boat named the Oregon, of Rhyll, was seen to capsize near the end of the pier. The wind was blowing from the W.N.W. and the weather was fine, but there was a choppy sea. Fearing that the occupants, fifteen in number, of the boat would be unable to reach the shore, the coastguard on duty at once fired a signal rocket, in response to which the Life-boat was launched and towed the boat back to Rhyll, those who had been on board her having fortunately been able to gain the land with the help of persons on the shore.—Expense of service, 11l.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 6th August, 1891.

Voted the Second Service Clasp, a certificate of service, and a pecuniary grant to Mr. JOSEPH COX, who had been Coxswain of the Appledore Life-boats for twenty-three years. He had previously served as second coxswain for thirteen years and as a member of the crew for six years. During the period he had served as Coxswain, the Life-boat had been launched twenty-one times on service and saved fifty lives.

Voted 72l. 7s. to pay the expenses of the Lytham, North Deal, Broadstairs, Walmer and Harwich steam and reserve Life-boats, in assembling their crews, or putting off to the assistance of vessels which did not ultimately need their services.

Also 2l. to a man injured at the exercise of the Fethard Life-boat on the 13th July.

Also 2l. to a man who was injured at the exercise of the Balbriggan Life-boat on the 14th March.

Aug. 6.—SCARBOROUGH.—Queensbury Life-boat.—While the herring fleet was making for the harbour in the morning in fine weather with very little wind, a very heavy sea rapidly sprung up. The boats were eagerly watched, and at about 10.45 the Life-boat put off to the rescue, went to a lugger which had dragged her anchor and stranded on the beach, and ran a warp from her to the pier. It was then seen that another lugger, the Minnie, of Lowestoft, was fast driving ashore near Ramsdale Scar; the Life-boat at once made for her, and, finding that she was fast filling with water, took off her crew, consisting of seven men and a boy, and safely landed them. The Life-boat remained out until 1.45, and rendered valuable aid to several other boats by running ropes to them and assisting them in various ways.—Expense of services, 10l. 12s.

Aug. 11.—CEMAES, ANGLESEY.—George Evans Life-boat.—Intelligence having been received that the sailing-boat Gladys and two rowing-boats had been blown out to sea, and were in great danger about two miles from the shore, during half a gale of wind from the S.W. on the 11th August, the crew of the Life-boat were at once summoned, the boat was launched at 2 P.M., and assisted the distressed boats to regain the shore. The prompt and gallant conduct of the Life-boat men was greatly admired by hundreds of people who witnessed the service.—Expense of services, 8l. 10s.

Aug. 22.—NORTH SUNDERLAND.—Thomas Bewick Life-boat.—A whole gale of wind blow from the N.E., the sea was very heavy, and as risk would be incurred by the fishing craft in returning to port, the Life-boat was launched at 4.30 A.M. At 5 o'clock the lugger Advance capsized at the mouth of the harbour, and the Life-boat at once proceeded to her assistance, and saved four of her crew, two others being unhappily drowned before the boat could possibly reach them. The Life-boat was kept afloat until 6.30 P.M. in readiness to render help to any other boats which might require assistance.—Expense of services, 12l. 15s.

Aug. 22.—MONTROSE.—Bessie Webster Life-boat.—The herring fleet started for the fishing ground in favourable weather, on the previous day, but during the night the wind blew very strongly from the E.S.E., increasing to a moderate gale, while a very heavy sea broke across the bar. At about 10.30 A.M., it being evident that none of the boats could attempt to cross the bar unless assistance were at hand, the Life-boat was launched, pulled over the bar, and remained out until the boats, twenty in number with 140 men on board, had safely entered the harbour. Seven of the boats were strangers to the port, and to these valuable help was afforded by the Life-boat men signalling the course they should take. One of them, an Irish boat, in the absence of this assistance, would have certainly met with disaster, as she was attempting to cross the "Leads," a dangerous ridge of rocks, instead of keeping in the channel.—Expense of services, 7l. 8s. 6d.

Aug. 23.—ST. ANDREWS.—Ladies' Own

Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 2 A.M. to the assistance of the fishing-boat Agnes and Ann, of St. Andrews, which was lying at anchor waiting for daylight and the tide to enable her to enter the harbour. As a gale of wind was blowing from the N.E. it was judged expedient to take out the Life-boat in case any accident should befall the fishermen. Two of the Life-boat men were put on board the boat, and assisted her crew to bring her safely into port. She was returning from the herring fishery when she was overtaken by the storm, and had tried successively to enter Montrose and Arbroath harbours, but the sea was too heavy to allow her to do so.—Expense of service, 13l.

Aug. 25.—TRAMORE, COUNTY WATERFORD.—Alfred Trower Life-boat.—The brigantine Albert, of Cork, bound from Newport for Youghal with a cargo of coal, stranded at Tramore in a strong S.W. breeze, thick weather and rough sea. The signal mortar was fired to summon the crew and launchers for the Life-boat, and, under very difficult circumstances, the boat was launched, and succeeded in rescuing the vessel's crew, consisting of seven men. Some of the crew and helpers did not hear the signal, and consequently were not present when their services were required. Volunteers, however, rendered willing help, Capt. J. R. PIM, Messrs. JAMES MCCOY and JAMES POWER gallantly taking the places of three of the crew; and assistance in effecting the launch being readily rendered by members of the Royal Irish Constabulary, prominent amongst whom was Constable SHARKY, who, in addition to assisting to launch the boat, volunteered to go out in her, and acted as bowman. Mr. EDWARD JACOB, the Honorary Secretary of the Branch, rendered invaluable aid on the occasion, and very kind service was also performed by two ladies, who, on hearing the alarm, hurried to the sands, one of them carrying a lantern to give light to those who were dragging the boat.—Expense of service, 18l. 10s.

Aug. 25.—ALDEBURGH.—Aldeburgh Life-boat.—Signal rockets were fired from the Coastguard Station at 9.10 A.M., denoting a vessel in need of assistance. A moderate gale was blowing from the S.W., with rain, and there was a rough sea. The Life-boat was promptly launched, and found two cutters, the Vesta and Ripple, belonging to Woodbridge, in distress in the bay. The crews of the two vessels, numbering in all seven men, were taken into the Life-boat, and were safely landed at 10.30.—Expense of services, 13l.

Aug. 31.—EASTBOURNE.—William and Mary Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 1.45 P.M. to the assistance of the fishing-cutter Mystery, of Brixham, while a strong S.S.W. wind was blowing accompanied by a rough sea. The vessel had struck on the Boulder Bank a little to the westward of the pier-head. She got over the bank into deeper water and then knocked against the inside of the reef and stranded. Her crew of four men and a boy took to their boat and were met by the Life-boat, but did not need any help. They stated that the vessel had a large quantity of water in her, the mast was sprung just above the deck and they feared that it would fall. The Life-boat then proceeded to the smack, which had been boarded by two watermen and had been taken through a gap in the reef into the offing. The Life-boat overtook her about two miles from the shore, some of the Life-boat men boarded her, and she was taken into Dover harbour.—Property salvage case.

Aug. 31.—MOELFRE, ANGLESEY.—Star of Hope Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched for practice in a strong S.W. gale and a moderate sea. Whilst cruising under canvas, signals of distress were seen to be shown by the schooner John and Jane, of Carnarvon, which was lying at anchor about two miles N.N.W. of Penmon Lighthouse. The Life-boat bore down on her, and the master stated that he feared the wind might shift more to the W. during the night, and his vessel would, in that event, be in a very dangerous position, her head sails having been blown away. At his request, he was taken off to consult the Penmon pilots, and, having done so, was put on board his vessel again.—Expense of service, 8l. 10s.

Aug. 31.—RHYL.—Jane Martin Life-boat.—The s.s. Fawn, of Liverpool, was seen approaching the mouth of the river Clwyd in a strong gale from the W.S.W., squally weather, and a rough sea. It was afterwards noticed that she was not making any headway, and ultimately she fired blue lights and rockets, in response to which the Life-boat proceeded to her assistance and found that a hawser had become entangled with her propeller. As a precautionary measure the Life-boat in two trips landed the passengers, fifty in number, and on the following tide the vessel safely entered the river.—Expense of service, 37l. 1s.

Sept. 1.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Leicester Life-boat.—The yawl Kate, of Liverpool, in trying to enter the harbour in a strong breeze from the S.W. and a rough sea, was driven close to the North pier. A steam-tug took the yacht's tow-ropes, but it broke; her own hawser was then attached, but it also parted, and the vessel drifted on to the North Sand. The No. 2 Life-boat put off to her assistance and rescued her crew, consisting of six men, and a beachman who had boarded her from a harbour boat. The vessel became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 8l. 10s.

Sept. 6.—HOLYHEAD.—Thomas Fielden Life-boat.—A telegram was received at 8.50 A.M. reporting a vessel in distress half a mile from the South Stack. The signal for the Life-boat was at once fired, and in seven minutes the boat was launched, and proceeded through a very heavy sea to the schooner Eliza Bell, of Beaumaris, bound from Bray to Bangor in ballast, which had had both her masts carried away. A steam-tug took her in tow, and the Life-boat accompanied her into the harbour.—Expense of service, 8l. 10s.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 10th Sept., 1891.

The Committee specially recognized the good services rendered by Mr. JOSEPH EVANS, who had been Coxswain of the Rhyl Life-boat for ten years and had resigned. During that period the boat had been launched nine times on service, and saved twelve lives.

Voted 172l. 7s. 6d. to pay the expenses of the Cemlyn, Winterton No. 2, North Sunderland, Plymouth, Southport No. 2, Orme's Head, Aldburgh, Harwich, Eye-mouth, Kildonan, Penmon and Tramore Life-boats, in assembling their crews or putting off to the assistance of vessels which did not eventually require help.

Voted the thanks of the Institution, inscribed on vellum, to Captain J. R. PIM, JAMES MCCOY, Esq., and JAMES POWER, Esq., for going out in the Tramore Life-boat, taking the places of some of the regular crew who had not heard the signal, and assisting to rescue the crew of the three-masted brigantine Albert, of Cork, on the 25th August. Pecuniary awards were granted to Constable SHARKEY, R.I.C., who rendered valuable help in launching the Life-boat and going out in her as bowman, and to other members of the constabulary for assisting to launch the boat.

The thanks of the Institution, on vellum, were also awarded to EDWARD JACOB, Esq., the Honorary Secretary of the Tramore Branch of the Institution, who was indefatigable in his efforts to obtain a crew and get the Life-boat launched on the occasion in question.

Sept. 19.—HOLYHEAD.—Thomas Fielden Life-boat.—Signals of distress having been fired by the Skerries lighthouse, the Life-boat was launched at 3.30 A.M. in a moderate sea, a strong breeze, and hazy weather, and found that the signals had been made because the principal lightkeeper was very ill, and it was desired to send him ashore. He was therefore taken into the Life-boat and landed at Holyhead.—Expense of service repaid by the Trinity House.

Sept. 27.—WEXFORD.—Andrew Pickard Life-boat.—At 5 P.M. while a moderate W. gale was blowing, accompanied by a heavy sea, signals of distress were shown by the schooner yacht Ruby, of Wexford, which had missed stays, and had grounded on the S. side of the bar. The crew of the Life-boat were at once summoned, the boat proceeded to the vessel and found her half full of water. With great difficulty a rope was got on board, and after a long time the vessel was towed out of her perilous position. Eight persons were on board the yacht.—Expense of service, 9l. 15s.

Oct. 5.—HOLYHEAD.—Thomas Fielden Life-boat.—While a strong gale was blowing from the S., accompanied by a very heavy sea, signals of distress were shown by the schooner Mary and Martha, bound from Queensferry for Dundalk, laden with bricks, which had lost her main sheet and was lying close to the breakwater. The Life-boat put off to her assistance at 10 P.M., and brought the vessel's crew of four men ashore, landing them about midnight.—Expense of service, 16l. 10s.

Oct. 5.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—The Life-boat went out in response to flares shown by the barque Toivo, of Nagu, bound from Uteaborg for London, which had grounded on the North Sand in a strong S. by W. breeze and a rough sea. Eight of the Life-boat men went on board the vessel and assisted to jettison the cargo so as to lighten her; the services of a steam-tug were afterwards engaged, and the vessel was towed off the sand and taken into the harbour at high water, having lost her rudder whilst aground. She had a crew of thirteen men.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 8th Oct., 1891.

Voted a Gold Second Service Clasp, framed testimonials, and a pecuniary grant, to Mr. CHARLES E. FISH, on his retirement, through ill-health, from the post of coxswain of the Ramsgate Life-boat. He had been out in the Life-boat's belonging to that station 353 times during the past twenty-nine years, and had thus helped to save 877 lives from different shipwrecks. He already possessed the Gold and Silver Medals of the Institution, and the Clasp now added to the Gold Medal is the first golden one ever granted by the Institution.

Also the thanks of the Institution, inscribed on vellum, to Mr. FRANK BODILLY, Mr. THOMAS L. BURGWIN, and Mr. HARRY J. WELCH for their valuable services in taking the places of three of the crew of the Sennen Cove Life-boat when she proceeded to the assistance of a vessel in distress in a gale of wind and a rough sea on the 30th September.

Also 190l. 11s. 6d. to pay the expenses of the Holyhead No. 2, Sennen Cove, Berwick-on-Tweed, Winterton No. 1, Barrow, Hastings, Bamburgh Castle, Holy Island, Ballywalter, Aldeburgh and Harwich Life-boats in assembling their crews or putting off with the view of rendering assistance to vessels which did not eventually require their services.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was also called out, but rendered no service.—Expenses paid by the Board of Trade.

Oct. 9.—RAMSEY, ISLE OF MAN.—Mary Isabella Life-boat.—A mounted messenger arrived with intelligence that a vessel was in distress at Manghold Head. A strong gale was blowing, the sea was heavy, and the weather very thick, with heavy rain. The Life-boat was launched at 12.45 A.M., and with great difficulty and danger, the vessel being only a few yards from the rocks on the S. side of the head, which are very precipitous with deep-water alongside, took off the crew of nine men. The vessel, which was the barque Columba, of Christiansand, bound from Glassou Dock for Ardrossan, in ballast, had been parted from her steam-tug during the gale, and immediately afterwards the master found himself within sound of breakers, and let go both anchors, only one of which, however, held.—Expense of service, 2-7. 10s.

At 9 A.M., the gale having moderated considerably, the Life-boat again went to the vessel, taking her crew back to her. The Life-boat men assisted in slipping the anchors and in passing the tow-rope to a steam-tug. In the first attempt to tow the vessel, the hawser was cut by the rocks; in the next attempt the rope parted, but the third endeavour proved successful, and she was towed safely into the harbour.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 13.—NEW BRIGHTON.—Henry Richardson Life-boat.—The No. 2 Life-boat was towed out, at 4 P.M., by a steam-tug, to the assistance of two shrimping boats which had been reported to be in distress about a mile S. of the Crosby light-vessel, in a heavy S.W. gale and a heavy sea. With the help of the Life-boat and a tug, the two boats were taken safely into the harbour. Their crews numbered in all five men.—Expenses of service, 13l. 5s.

Oct. 13.—HOLYHEAD.—Thomas Fielden Life-boat.—A steamer was seen dragging her anchors in a whole gale and a rough sea. She collided with the schooner Margaret Jane, of Bangor, and drove across the bows of the Trinity steamer Stella. In response to signals of distress the Life-boat was taken out at 4 P.M., and proceeded to the scene of the disaster. The steamer by that time had steam up, and was able to extricate herself from her difficulties; but considerable damage had been done to the schooner, and one of her cables had parted. Her crew of three men, and the master's wife, were therefore taken into the Life-boat and brought to land.—Expense of service, 12l. 10s.

Oct. 13.—MOELFRE, ANGLESEY.—Star of Hope Life-boat.—During a strong S.

gale, signals of distress were shown by the schooner Thomas, of and from Liverpool, for Amlwch, laden with coal, which was lying at anchor in Red Wharf Bay. The crew of the Life-boat were at once summoned, and at 4.30 P.M. the boat was launched and proceeded to the vessel. She had lost most of her sails, and, as the crew were afraid that she would drag her anchors and be driven ashore, they were taken into the Life-boat and safely landed at 6 o'clock. They numbered three men.

Soon after the Life-boat had reached the shore, she was again called out by a signal of distress, shown by the schooner Catherine Lathom, and found that that vessel also had her sails carried away and was in danger of dragging her anchors. Her crew, consisting of four men, were therefore taken ashore.—Expense of services, 18l. 7s. 6d.

Oct. 13.—CEMLYN.—B. J. Nicholson Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 5.30 P.M., and brought ashore the crew, consisting of four men, from the schooner Ocean Maid, which was riding at anchor in a very dangerous position in Cemlyn Bay, and had shown signals of distress while a gale of wind was blowing, accompanied by a rough sea.—Expense of service, 17l. 15s.

Oct. 13.—FLEETWOOD.—Child of Hale Life-boat.—Signals of distress having been shown by some fishing-smacks, the Life-boat was launched at 6.30 P.M. in a S.W. gale, and found the boats anchored in about two and a half fathoms of water on Bernard's Wharf. The Life-boat remained by them until the tide rose, when, the wind having slightly shifted, they were able to get off the back and make their way into port.—Expense of service, 22l.

Oct. 13.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—During a severe gale from the S. with a very heavy sea, signals of distress were observed, at about 7 P.M., in the direction of the Scroby Sand. No steam-tug was available, and, in the opinion of many of those present, any attempt to cross the bar would prove disastrous. The coxswain of the Life-boat, after consulting two pilots, who volunteered to accompany him, decided to make an attempt at all hazards, and the Life-boat was therefore manned and launched. With the assistance of men on the pier, the boat was tracked to the South pier-head, and then proceeded under double-reefed storm-sails. When crossing the bar, a heavy sea broke on board, forcing the boat head to wind, but happily, she paid off, and got safely to sea, and found the ketch Ada, of and for Portsmouth, from Seaham, coal-laden, lying at anchor. She had struck twice on the Scroby Sand, and finding that the anchor would not hold, and that the vessel was leaking badly, the master had burned everything available, including blankets steeped in paraffin oil, in order to make known his need of assistance. The pumps were again sounded, and, finding that the water was still gaining, the crew of four men were taken into the Life-boat, and landed at 3.45 A.M.—Expense of service, 41l. 10s.—The weather having moderated, the Life-boat afterwards returned to the vessel and took her into Yarmouth harbour.—Property salvage case.

The gallant conduct of the coxswain, the two pilots, and the crew of the Life-boat was most highly praised by all who witnessed the service. When the boat was struck by the heavy sea on the bar, she was for a time rendered invisible to those who were on the pier, and great anxiety was felt for her safety, for had she been driven on the North Sand the very worst was to be feared for the brave men who manned her.

Oct. 13.—PEEL, ISLE OF MAN.—John Monk Life-boat.—During a heavy gale of wind from the S.E. and a heavy sea the schooners Glide and Nelson, both belonging to Belfast, and laden with coal, showed signals of distress, as they were riding heavily at their anchors. The Life-boat was launched at 8 P.M., and brought safely ashore the two vessels' crews, numbering in all ten men.—Expense of service, 16l. 4s.

OCT. 13.—DOUGLAS, ISLE OF MAN.—Civil Service No. 6 Life-boat.—The schooner Progress, of Castletown, bound from Liverpool for Douglas with coal and salt, dragged her anchors in the bay, and drifted into a dangerous position, while a severe gale was blowing from the S.W. Signals of distress were shown, and at 8.15 P.M. the Life-boat was launched, and brought ashore the vessel's crew of four men.—Expense of service, 14l. 12s.

OCT. 13.—RAMSEY, ISLE OF MAN.—Mary Isabella Life-boat.—Signals of distress were seen at 11 P.M., while a strong S.W. breeze was blowing, accompanied by a moderate sea. At 11.10 the Life-boat was launched, and found that the signals had been shown by a steamer which had on board the crew, consisting of three men, of the schooner Mary Agnes, of Dumfries, with which vessel the steamer had been in collision. The Life-boat took the men back to the schooner, and, with the help of the Life-boat men, the two vessels were freed from their entanglement. All the schooner's sails had been blown to pieces, and her spars were broken. A few of the Life-boat's crew were left on board to render any further help required, and the master was taken ashore to arrange for a tug to tow his vessel into the harbour. The schooner was brought in about 7 o'clock on the following morning.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 13.—KIRKCUDBRIGHT.—Hugh and Ann Life-boat.—In response to signals fired at Ross Bay, the Life-boat was taken there by road on her transporting carriage, and at 9 P.M. was launched in a gale of wind veering from S.E. to N.W. She found the brigantine Jane, of Belfast, bound from Maryport to Belfast with coal, anchored in a dangerous position and showing signals of distress. All attempts to reach the vessel were rendered futile by the violence of the gale, and the Life-boat was compelled to return to the shore. At midnight another attempt was made, the Life-boat got alongside the ship, and, at the master's request, remained by her. Some of the Life-boat men boarded her, and she was taken to a position of safety.—Property salvage case.

OCT. 13.—TORQUAY.—James and Eliza Woodall Life-boat.—While a whole gale of wind was blowing from the S.S.E., and a heavy sea was running, the smack Louie, of Plymouth, while trying to haul in her trawling gear, drifted towards the rocks off Daddyhole, Torbay, and was in imminent danger of being wrecked. The Life-boat went to her as promptly as possible, at 12.20 P.M., but the vessel slipped her anchor and managed to clear the rocks, and as she was then out of danger, the Life-boat put back. Shortly afterwards the vessel had her sails blown to pieces and her main boom carried away, and was scudding for Torquay. The Life-boat proceeded to her, and, under the direction of the Life-boat men, the smack's crew succeeded in taking their vessel into Torquay inner harbour without further mishap.—Expense of service, 7l. 14s.

Oct. 14.—NORTH BERWICK.—Fergus Ferguson Life-boat.—Signals of distress having been observed, the Life-boat put off at 6.30 A.M., and found that they had been shown by the Puffin, a small steam-launch, which had left Cauty Bay on the previous night, and had been caught by a storm. Her fires had been extinguished by the heavy seas which broke into her; she had dragged her anchors, being gradually carried out to sea, and was lying between the Bass Rock and North Berwick when the Life-boat reached her. As the launch was half full of water, she was securely anchored, and her three occupants, who were greatly exhausted, were taken into the Life-boat and landed at North Berwick.—Expense of service, 8l. 16s.

Oct. 14.—RAMSEY, ISLE OF MAN.—Mary Isabella Life-boat.—At 6.35 A.M. the Life-boat was called out, signals of distress having been shown by the schooner Unity, of Chester, bound from Conway for Larne, with slates. The wind was then blowing a moderate gale from the S.W. and there was a rough cross sea. The vessel had lost her sails, and most of her spars had been broken or damaged. The Life-boat signalled for a steam-tug, and the schooner, which had a crew of four men, was taken safely into the harbour.—Expense of service, 9l.

Oct. 14.—PORT LOGAN.—Edinburgh and R. M. Ballantyne Life-boat.—A vessel having been reported a-hore in Luce Bay, the Life-boat put off to her assistance at 9.15 A.M., and found her to be the schooner Mary Ann, of Belfast. She had been totally disabled, by having her canvas blown away, during a S.S.W. gale which then prevailed, and had sustained other damage. Some of the Life-boat men boarded her, gave out more chain, so as to enable her to ride easier to her anchors, and took her crew of four men, who were much exhausted, safely ashore.—Expense of service, 23l. 15s.

Oct. 14.—MABLETHORPE.—Heywood Life-boat.—The cutter Nancy, of Grimsby, was observed riding at anchor about seven miles E. of the Coastguard Station. She appeared to be in distress, having lost her topmast and her lower-mast head, and, as the wind was blowing a gale from the S.W., and there was a heavy sea, the Life-boat proceeded to her assistance at noon. It was found that the vessel was in need of help, and the Life-boat men therefore assisted to get her anchor up, and remained by her until she was in safety at the mouth of the Humber.—Expense of service, 30l. 6s.

Oct. 14.—SILLOTH.—Emma Frisby Life-boat.—The Life-boat rendered assistance to several fishing-boats which were in danger, and was the means of saving one of the boats.—Expense of service, 13l. 18s. 6d.

Oct. 15.—TEIGNMOUTH.—Arnold Life-boat.—The fishing-boat Trio, of Teignmouth, was seen running for the bar, on which a heavy sea was breaking. In attempting to cross the bar the boat stranded, and her crew, consisting of three men, were in imminent danger. The Life-boat promptly went to their assistance, and on reaching the boat a line was passed on board. The Life-boat remained by her until the tide rose, when she floated and was towed into the harbour.—Expense of service, 14l.

Oct. 16.—CULLERCOATS.—Co-operator No. 1 Life-boat.—A gale having sprung up, several fishing-cobles, which had gone to sea early in the morning, were compelled to run for the harbour, and got safely in, with the exception of two, which were unable to cross the bar, owing to the heavy seas. The Life-boat was launched at 6.30 A.M., proceeded over the bar, and remained by the boats until they were in safety.—Expense of service, 9l.

Oct. 16.—ARBROATH.—William Souter Life-boat.—Twenty-one fishing-boats, which had gone to sea early in the morning, were observed making for the harbour, a strong gale from the S.S.E. having sprung up. The Life-boat was launched at 7.45, proceeded to the bar, on which a heavy sea was breaking, and remained there in readiness to assist any of the boats that might require help. All the boats safely got into the harbour, the last one arriving about noon.—Expense of service, 9l.

Oct. 16.—MOELFRE.—Star of Hope Life-boat.—At 2.30 P.M. signals of distress were shown by the schooners Catherine Lathom and Sir Robert, which were in danger while lying at anchor in Moelfre Bay during a gale of wind. Their crews, numbering in all seven men, were taken into the Life-boat, and landed at Moelfre at 3.30.—Expense of service, 8*l.* 1*s.* 6*d.*

Oct. 22.—NEW ROMNEY.—Sandal Magna Life-boat.—The barque Jarlen, of Moss, Norway, stranded, in a S.S.W. wind, thick weather, and a heavy sea. The Life-boat was launched at 11 A.M. took off the master, his wife, and the crew of fourteen men, and landed them safely some distance eastward of St. Mary's Coastguard Station.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 17*s.*

Oct. 22.—DOVER.—Lewis Morice Life-boat.—A telegram having been received stating that the services of the Life-boat were required, the boat was launched at 1.10 P.M., and found the Government dredger No. 18 in a very dangerous position off the South Foreland, the hawser having broken while she was being towed by a steam-tug in a very heavy gale from the S.S.W. and a tremendous sea. Nine men who were on board the dredger were taken into the Life-boat and conveyed to Ramsgate, and soon afterwards the vessel broke up and became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 25*l.* —s. 6*d.*

Oct. 23.—CAISTER.—Godsend Life-boat.—Large flares having been seen on the North Scroby Sand, the Life-boat was launched at 2 A.M. in a heavy sea and a strong S.S.W. breeze and proceeded to the Sand, but could not find any vessel. The coxswain then burnt a port-fire, and was at once answered by the vessel, which kept lights burning until the boat was alongside. The master stated that his vessel, the schooner C. S. Atkinson, of Belfast, had been on the Scroby Sand, had lost her anchors and chains, and was full of water. The vessel was kept before the wind, sail was made for Winterton, and on reaching shoal water she was brought up. Soon afterwards a steam-tug arrived, and towed her into Yarmouth Harbour. The crew's effects were put into the Life-boat, and the boat was towed alongside the vessel ready to take the men off should the vessel founder. She was kept afloat, however, until she entered the harbour, her deck by that time being level with the water.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 23.—GORLESTON.—Mark Lane

Life-boat.—At 6.40 A.M. the Life-boat proceeded to the assistance of a brig, which proved to be the Star, of and for London from Hartlepool with coal, making for St. Nicholas Gateway with her colours flying half-mast high. The wind was then blowing strongly from S.W. by S., and the sea was rough. Some of the Life-boat men went on board the vessel to render assistance, she having lost both her anchors, and with the help of a steam-tug she was taken to Yarmouth.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 25.—WEXFORD.—Andrew Pickard Life-boat. At 3.30 P.M. while a strong gale was blowing from the N.E. and a heavy sea was running, the schooner George IV., of Barrow, bound from Chester for Wexford, with a cargo of coal, was seen to run aground on the eastern side of the Dogger bank. The Life-boat put off at 3.45, beating over the bar against a heavy head and beam sea, got close to windward of the vessel, let go her anchor, veered down on her and remained by her for some time, fearing that the crew would have to abandon her. When the flood tide made, however, the vessel beat off the bank into deep water and sailed up the harbour, but again grounded. The Life-boat again went alongside, but found that she was not leaking, and that no further help was required.—Expense of service, 15*l.*

Oct. 26.—POOLE.—Boy's Own, No. 2, Life-boat.—In response to signals, the Life-boat was launched at 4.20 A.M. in a strong breeze from the E.N.E., thick weather, and a heavy ground swell, and found the schooner Mount Clair, of Plymouth, stranded on the Hook Sands. The Life-boat remained by her until the wind moderated, when a steam-tug arrived, and with the flowing tide took her in tow and proceeded to Poole.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 18*s.*

Oct. 26.—THORPENESS.—Christopher North Graham Life-boat.—A vessel which had been used as a light-vessel to denote the position of a sunken wreck was driven from her moorings by the force of a strong gale from the N.N.E. and a very heavy sea, and lost her rudder. She signalled for assistance, and the Life-boat put off to her; two of the Life-boat men were placed on board to assist her crew, and the boat then proceeded to Harwich to despatch a steam-tug to her assistance.—Expense of service, 34*l.* 15*s.*

Oct. 26.—MARGATE.—Quiver Life-boat.—In response to signals fired by the Tongue and Edinburgh light-vessels the Life-boat was launched at 7.15 P.M., spoke both the light-hips, and ascertained that a three-masted schooner was ashore on the Long Sand. A moderate gale was blowing from the E.N.E., and a very heavy sea was running. The Life-boat cruised about the Sand, but was unable to find any trace of the vessel, and at length laid to until daybreak, when signals were observed from the Black Deep light-vessel. The Life-boat at once went to her, and found that the crew, ten in number, of the schooner, which was the Austra, of Riga, had taken refuge on board. They were, with some difficulty, taken into the Life-boat and landed at Margate.—Expense of service, 26l. 6s.

Oct. 26.—GREAT YARMOUTH.—Abraham Thomas Life-boat.—Signals of distress were shown by the schooner Royal George, of Shoreham, which was dragging her anchors, and eventually stranded on the south beach, in a gale from the E.N.E. and a heavy sea. The Life-boat was launched at 8 P.M., and with some difficulty reached the vessel and took off her crew of four men, who had taken refuge in the rigging, as the seas were sweeping clean over her. The vessel broke up soon afterwards.—Expense of service, 19l. 5s.

Oct. 27.—CLACTON-ON-SEA.—Albert Edward Life-boat.—Signals of distress being seen, the Life-boat was launched at 9.5 A.M. in a heavy sea, thick weather, and a strong gale of wind from the E.S.E., and found the barque Oliver Cromwell, of Oland, ashore on the Whittaker Sand, having parted from both her anchors. The master of the vessel had left in a smack, intending to land at Brightlingsea and telegraph to Harwich for a steam-tug, but it could be seen from the deck of the barque that the smack had also run aground. The mate of the vessel stated that the crew would not leave the ship until all chances of saving her had vanished, although at that time she had ten feet of water in her hold, with all hands at the pumps. The Life-boat remained by until 4 P.M., when the seas were making a clean breach over her, and it became necessary to leave her. The crew were with considerable difficulty taken into the Life-boat, which then proceeded to the stranded smack, and found that part of her crew and the master of the barque had been taken off by another smack, which was lying at anchor. The Life-boat made for the latter vessel, took the captain on board, and returned to Clacton, where all were safely landed.—Expense of service, 17l. 12s.

Oct. 27.—COURTOWN.—Three Sisters Life-boat.—During a fresh gale of wind from the E. and a very heavy sea, the schooner Isabel, of Arklow, was in imminent danger of being driven on the rocks, her chain cable having broken. The sea was too rough to allow any ordinary shore boat to go out, and the Life-boat therefore went to the vessel's assistance, taking to her anchor cable. Even after this cable had been laid out the schooner continued to drift towards the rocks, and as it was unsafe for the crew to remain on board, the men, four in number, were taken into the Life-boat and brought to land.—Expense of service, 18l. 12s. 9d.

On the following day the Life-boat took the crew back to the vessel, and afterwards took off to her a hawser and an anchor, and assisted to moor the ship securely.—Property salvageable.

Oct. 30.—TEIGNMOUTH.—Arnold Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 2.30 P.M., in a very rough sea and an E. wind, and proceeded to the assistance of the sloop William IV., of Teignmouth, which, while returning to her port from London, with a cargo of cement, had stranded on the bar, over which the seas were breaking with tremendous force. The tide fortunately was rising, and the vessel was driven over the bar, and was towed into the harbour by a steam-tug, the Life-boat remaining by her until all danger was past.—Expense of service, 7l. 10s.

Oct. 31.—GORLESTON.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—Flares having been seen in the direction of the Holme Sand during a fresh S.E. by S. breeze, and a moderate sea, and the Corton lightship also firing guns and rockets, the Life-boat proceeded out at 3.25 A.M. in tow of a steam-tug, and went to the Corton light-vessel to ascertain where her services were required. Just then the flares were again observed, and the Life-boat and steamer at once made for them, and found the barque Mirliton, bound from Christiania for Great Yarmouth with ice. She had got into shallow water near the outside part of the Holme Sand, where she had hove to. Some of the Life-boat men boarded her, all plain sail was set, and a course steered for the Gatway. On arriving in the roads the services of a pilot were obtained by the master, and the vessel was towed into the harbour.—Expense of service, 13*l.* 12*s.* 9*d.*

Oct. 31.—CAISTER.—Godsend Life-boat.—It having been reported that the Wold light-vessel was signalling, the Life-boat was launched at 11.30 P.M., and on reaching the Cockle fairway, was picked up by a steam-tug and towed to the lightship. Having ascertained that flares were burning on the Hasborough Sand, the boat was towed as close to the sand as the steamer dared to go, and then set sail for the stranded vessel. After two attempts, communication was effected with her, and ultimately the shipwrecked crew, numbering four men, were happily rescued. She was the ketch Brightlingsea, of Harwich, bound from Shields for Colchester with a cargo of coal.—Expense of service, 31*l.* 10*s.*

Nov. 2.—CAHORE.—John Brooke Life-boat.—When the dense thickness which had prevailed during the early part of the morning cleared, a steamer was observed ashore on the Button rocks. The Life-boat was very promptly launched and found the vessel was the Frederica, of St. Johns, bound from Worthington for Brazil with a cargo of steel rails. Some of the Life-boat men boarded her, assisted to get her afloat, and with the help of a steam-tug she was taken beyond the Blackwater Light-vessel.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 10.—TEIGNMOUTH.—Arnold Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 6.30 P.M., in a S.E. gale and a very rough sea, and rescued three men, being the crew of the fishing-boat Ethel, of Teignmouth, which had stranded on the Pole Sands. Four other fishing-boats not having returned, the Life-boat was taken over the bar, shipping several heavy seas in crossing it, to wait for them. On sighting three of the boats, a light was shown to indicate the channel, and on their arrival they were escorted across the bar into smooth water. The Life-boat then returned to the shore and landed the rescued men, but as the fourth boat was still out, the crew remained watching until 11.30, when news arrived that she had safely reached Babbacombe.—Expense of service, 14*l.*

Nov. 11.—POOLE.—Boys' Own, No. 2 Life-boat.—While a heavy gale was blowing from the S.S.E., with a very heavy sea, signals were fired, denoting that a vessel was in need of assistance. The Life-boat put off at 1.30 A.M., and found the brig Solertia, of Tönsberg, stranded in Studland Bay. The seas were breaking over her, her mainmast had been carried away and was lying over the side of the vessel, which was full of water, and her crew of eight men, and a Customs officer who was on board, were in a very perilous situation. With great difficulty they were taken into the Life-boat, and were safely landed at Poole at 9.30.—Expense of service, 34*l.* 16*s.*

Nov. 11.—WORTHING.—Henry Harris Life-boat.—While a whole gale was blowing from the S.S.W., two vessels were observed, and as it was evident that they would be driven ashore, the Life-boat crew were summoned, and at 9.45 A.M. the boat started to the rescue, and saved the crew, numbering seven men, from the three-masted schooner Yong Karl, of and for Christiania from Liverpool with a cargo of coke, which had stranded half a mile W. from Lancing. After landing these men, the Life-boat was again launched, the weather having become much worse than it was when the former service was rendered, and brought ashore seven of the crew, five others having landed some time previously in their own boat, from the barque Capella, of Hamburg, bound from Marseilles for the Tyne in ballast.—Expense of services, 31*l.*

Nov. 11.—LOWESTOFT.—Samuel Plim-soll Life-boat.—At 10 A.M. the Life-boat was launched, and proceeded, in tow of a steam-tug, to the assistance of a schooner which had been reported to be showing a signal of distress while a heavy gale was blowing from S. by E., with a very rough sea. When about half a mile from the Holm Sand, the fishing lugger Paramount, of Hopeman, was seen to strike the sand, and before the Life-boat could reach her she capsized. Four of her crew were washed away at once; four others managed to get on the bottom of the boat and held on to her keel, which was split, but two of these were soon washed off by the heavy seas and were lost. The skipper and one other man, who were thus the sole survivors of the crew, were picked up by the Life-boat, considerable difficulty being experienced in effecting their rescue from their having bladders tied round them, and these had to be cut away before the men could be taken into the boat.—Expense of service, 24l. 7s.

Nov. 11.—ALDEBURGH.—Aldeburgh Life-boat.—While a whole gale was blowing from the S.S.W., the barque Winnifred, of and from Laurvig for London, with wood, was seen coming north. She had lost her main and mizen masts, and had a flag flying in her fore-rigging. The Life-boat was promptly launched to the assistance of the vessel, which struck on a sandbank in the bay, and filled with water. Great difficulty and danger were experienced by the Life-boat men in taking off the crew, she having grounded on the outer edge of the shoal, on which a very heavy sea was breaking; but eventually the rescue was accomplished, some of the men being taken from the jib-boom, and others having to be hauled through the surf into the boat, and at 4.30 she returned to her station with the shipwrecked crew of sixteen men and the pilot. The barque became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 30l. 0s. 3d.

Nov. 11.—BURNHAM.—John Godfrey Morris Life-boat.—A very heavy W.N.W. gale sprang up, and nine vessels were driven ashore. At noon the Life-boat was launched to the assistance of the crew of the smack Elizabeth, of Gloucester, who had taken to the rigging, as the vessel was beginning to break up. All efforts to reach the smack failed, and the boat was driven back on the shore. The wind moderated a little about two hours later, and then another attempt was made. The vessel was reached, and her crew of three men were safely landed. The boat went out again to the help of the ketch Flora, of Gloucester, whose crew of three men were in the rigging, as the seas were sweeping over their vessel. These men were also brought safely to land.—Expense of service, 22l. 7s.

Nov. 11.—NORTH DEAL.—Mary Somerville Life-boat.—While the wind was blowing a whole gale from the S.S.W., the ketch Thistle, of Plymouth, was observed on the Brake Sand. The Life-boat put off at about 2.30 p.m., and proceeded to the vessel through very heavy broken seas. On nearing her it was seen that she had knocked over the sand and that her crew had taken to their boat. The Life-boat was skilfully manœuvred by her gallant coxswain and crew so as to bring the ship's boat on the lee side and lessen the probability of her capsizing. The crew, five in number, were then rescued by the Life-boat and landed at Broadstairs, the boat, which had sprung her foremast, being compelled to remain there until the following morning.—Expense of service, 33l. 4s. 2d.

Nov. 11.—RAMSGATE.—Bradford Life-boat.—The ketch Touch Not, of Hull, in making for the harbour before there was sufficient water, stranded at the back of the East Pier. A heavy gale had been blowing from the S.W., the weather was thick, and a high sea was running. The Life-boat, in tow of the harbour steam-tug, proceeded to the stranded vessel and took off her crew, consisting of four men. Four other men belonging to Deal, who were on board the ketch, took to her boat and landed at Broadstairs.—Expense of service paid by the Board of Trade.

Nov. 11.—NEW ROMNEY.—Sandal Magna Life-boat.—The brigantine Aeolus, of Arendal, stranded off the Great Stone Point during a heavy gale from the S. to W., squally weather, and a very rough sea. She was soon partially dismasted, and was driven along the shore to St. Mary's, where her anchors held. An attempt to launch the Life-boat was made, but it proved utterly impossible to get her afloat, owing to the heavy sea and fury of the wind. Communication with the vessel was obtained by means of the rocket apparatus, but the haul-off line parted, and another effort was then made to get the Life-boat off. At 5.30 p.m. this was successfully accomplished, and the vessel's crew of eight men were rescued.—Expense of service, 36l. 16s.

The thanks of the Institution, inscribed on vellum, were presented to the Rev. C. A. ROBINS and Mr. ALEXANDER C. PROCTER, of Lydd, who kindly went out in the Life-boat on this occasion, taking the places of two of the crew, and thus enabling the boat to proceed on service with the full complement of hands required to man her.

Nov. 11.—HYTHE.—Meyer de Rothschild Life-boat.—The ship Benvenue, of Glasgow, was driven ashore in a whole gale from the S.S.E. and a very heavy sea; the vessel soon afterwards foundered, and her crew took to the rigging. The Life-boat put off from Sandgate to her assistance at 8 A.M., but encountered terrific seas and was ultimately driven back to the shore. As it was considered impossible to launch again at Sandgate, the boat was then taken on her carriage to Hythe, and at 9.30 was launched, manned by a crew of twenty men, in a heavier sea than that which had been experienced at Sandgate. Before the boat could get clear of the surf she was struck by a heavy wave and capsized, the whole of her crew, with the exception of three men, being thrown into the water. Nineteen of the men succeeded in reaching the land, but the other man unhappily lost his life. The Life-boat was washed ashore, and was replaced on her carriage. At about 9.30 P.M. the sea had considerably moderated, and it was decided to make another attempt to rescue the shipwrecked crew. With considerable difficulty a launch was effected, the ship was reached, and the twenty-seven survivors of the crew of thirty-two persons were taken into the Life-boat and landed at Folkestone. — Expense of services, 95*l.* 15*s.* 11*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 12th Nov., 1891.

Voted the Second Service Clasp, a certificate of service and a pecuniary grant, to Mr. PATRICK KAVANAGH, who had been coxswain of the Carnsore Life-boat for thirty years. During that period he had assisted, in the Life-boats on that Station, to save 130 lives, having been out twenty-nine times on service.

Voted also 758*l.* 16*s.* 11*d.* to pay the expenses of the Thorpeness, Gales' Quay, Gorleston Nos. 1 and 2, Douglas No. 1, Howth, Ramsey, Holyhead Nos. 1 and 2, Harwich, Newburgh, Margate, Aldeburgh, Cloughy, Plymouth, Southwold No. 2, Torquay, Poole, Southport No. 2, Workington, Tynemouth No. 2, Anstruther, Barrow, Fleetwood No. 1, Berwick-on-Tweed, Wexford No. 1, Brooke, Ilracombe, Cresswell, Llanddwyn, Rhosneigir, Rhoscolyn, Kingsdowne, Walmer, Lydd, Lowestoft No. 1, Donna Nook, St. Ives, Alderburgh, Palling No. 2, Winterton No. 2, Mablethorpe, New Romney and Littlehampton Life-boats, in assembling their crews or putting off to the assistance of vessels which did not ultimately need their help.

Voted the silver medal, with a copy of the vote inscribed on vellum, to Mr. E. W. Woods, Coxswain of the Gorleston No. 1 Life-boat, in recognition of his general gallant services in the boat, particularly on the occasion of the rescue of the crew, numbering four men, of the ketch Ada, of Portsmouth, in a whole gale from the S. and a very heavy sea, on the 13th October. The thanks of the Institution, inscribed on vellum, were awarded to Mr. ABEL ADAMS and Mr. HENRY HOWARD for gallantly volunteering for service in the Life-boat and assisting to rescue the crew of the Ada. An extra pecuniary reward was also granted to all the men forming the crew of the boat in acknowledgment of their praiseworthy services.

Voted also 100*l.*, with an expression of deep sympathy, to the widow of W. GORDON, who died from the effects of an operation performed for the amputation of his right leg, necessitated by an accident while assisting to take the Douglas No. 1 Life-boat to the launching slip, when her services were required on the 18th October.

Also 1*l.* to a man injured at the exercise of the Brighton Life-boat on the 7th October.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE MEETING,
25th Nov., 1891.

Read the Report furnished by the Chief Inspector of Life-boats of the public enquiry he held, with the assistance of the District Inspector, into the circumstances attending the capsizing of the Lydd and Hythe Life-boats while on service during a very severe gale on the 11th November, on which occasion three of the Life-boat men unhappily lost their lives.

Voted £00*l.* in aid of the local subscription for the relief of the widows and children of the two men who were lost from the Lydd Life-boat, and 150*l.* in aid of the subscription raised locally for the widow of the Hythe Life-boat man who was drowned.

Voted also the Silver Medal of the Institution to Mr. JAMES LUCAS, Coxswain of the Lydd Life-boat, and to Mr. LAW-RENCE HENNESSY, Coxswain, and Mr. A. SADLER, Assistant-Coxswain of the Hythe Life-boat, in recognition of their gallant conduct.

Also 131l. 2s. 9d. to pay the expenses of the services of the Lydd and Dover Life-boats.

Nov. 28.—BRIDLINGTON.—William John and Frances Life-boat.—Three fishing-cobles which had been overtaken by a gale from the S.S.E. were making for the harbour, and, as entering it would be attended with danger, it was considered best to launch the Life-boat so as to be ready to assist them if necessary. The boat proceeded about half-a-mile to sea, stood by two of the cobles until they reached the harbour, and then pulled out to the third boat. By that time the sea had become very heavy, and her crew of three men were therefore taken into the Life-boat, and their boat was towed into the harbour.—Expense of service, 16l. 12s.

Dec. 1.—EASTBOURNE.—William and Mary Life-boat.—Rockets having been fired from the Royal Sovereign Light-vessel, the Life-boat put off at 2.30 A.M., and on reaching the light-ship found that one of her crew had fallen from the shrouds attached to the shaft on which the light revolves, a height of 35 feet, and had been seriously injured. He was taken into the Life-boat, and on reaching the shore medical attendance was obtained and he was taken to the Princess Alice Hospital.—Expense of service, 26l. 10s.

Dec. 2.—LOWESTOFT.—Samuel Plimsoll Life-boat.—The schooner Belled Will, of Jersey, bound from Dunkirk for Lowestoft, with oil-cake, in making for Pakefield Gat struck on the Newcome Sands. The Life-boat was launched at 12.30 P.M., and was towed by a steam-tug to the vessel. Nine of the Life-boat men boarded the schooner and rendered assistance to her crew, communication was effected with the tug, and the vessel and Life-boat were towed into the harbour.—Expense of service, 9l.

Dec. 7.—BLYTH.—Dalmer Life-boat.—The Life-boat put off to the ship Dominion, of Liverpool, which had stranded at the entrance to the harbour in a moderate gale from the E.S.E. and a rough sea. The Life-boat brought ashore a pilot who had put off to the vessel, and also picked up his boat. Several of the ship's crew were landed by the rocket apparatus, but the master and five men remained on board, and the Life-boat was therefore kept afloat during the night with her crew in attendance, ready to render help if required.—Expense of service, 21l. 3s.

Dec. 7.—CULLERCOATS.—Co-Operator No. 1 Life-boat.—While the whole fleet of fishing-cobles were at sea a gale suddenly sprung up from the E., and they were compelled to run for the harbour. All the boats got safely in with the exception of one, and as the seas were breaking so heavily on the bar as to render it almost impossible for the coble to cross it without assistance, the Life-boat was launched, met the boat about a mile off, took out the crew of four men and towed their boat into the harbour.—Expense of service, 13l. 10s.

Dec. 7.—CLOVELLY.—Graham Hughes Life-boat.—At 4.10 P.M. a signal of distress was shown by the ketch Rose, of Bristol, which had anchored in the bay about an hour previously, having lost her main boom and gaff. A whole gale was blowing from the W.N.W., and there was a very heavy sea. In the first attempt to launch the Life-boat she was thrown back broadside on the beach by the heavy seas, and sustained a good deal of damage. The second attempt, however, proved successful, and the boat was enabled to bring ashore the vessel's crew consisting of four men.—Expense of service, 20l. 12s. 6d.

Dec. 7.—NEW BRIGHTON.—Henry Richardson Life-boat.—At 7.30 P.M. the Life-boat put off in tow of a steam-tug to the assistance of a vessel which had been reported to be in distress. On reaching the Little Burbo Bank the barque Hannah Landles, of Glasgow, was found stranded, having broken the hawser whilst in tow of a tug. She was bound from Liverpool for Portland, Oregon, and had on board a crew of twenty-four men, two passengers, and a pilot, twenty-five of whom were rescued by the Henry Richardson, the remaining two being taken off by the Liverpool Life-boat, which had also proceeded to the rescue.—Expense of service, 25l. 10s.

Dec. 8.—CAISTER.—Godsend Life-boat.—At 1 A.M. the Life-boat was launched in a very heavy sea and a whole gale from the N.W., and, on reaching the Cockle Sand, from which large flares had been seen, found the brig Queen of the Isles, of West Hartlepool, lying at anchor. She had been riding on the inside of the sand, dragged her anchors and had knocked over the sand. The Life-boat remained by the vessel until daylight, when the weather having moderated she was got under weigh.—Expense of service, 27*l*.

Dec. 8.—PALLING.—British Workman Life-boat.—While a strong gale was blowing from the W.N.W. and a very heavy sea was running, signals were made by the North Float Light-vessel. The Life-boat was launched, and on reaching the Happisburgh Sands found the schooner Amelié, of Copenhagen, totally wrecked. Her crew of seven men were in a very exhausted condition, and were with extreme difficulty taken into the Life-boat by means of lines.—Expense of service, 32*l*. 10*s*.

Dec. 8.—WINTERTON.—Edward Birkbeck Life-boat.—In response to signals the Life-boat was launched at 8.15 A.M., proceeded to the Hasborough Sands, and found two wrecked vessels. The Palling Life-boat was taking off the crew of one of them, and a Lowestoft smack was endeavouring to rescue the crew of the other, an Italian barque. The Life-boat made for the barque, and found the smack's boat, with six of the shipwrecked men on board, in a very dangerous position. A line was thrown to the boat, and she was taken clear of the sand. A tug then picked up the boats and towed them to the smack, when it was found that all the wrecked crew had been rescued, and the Life-boat then returned to her station.—Expense of service, 13*l*. 15*s*.

Dec. 9.—EXMOUTH.—Joseph Somes Life-boat.—The ketch Mater Dei, of Dunkirk, bound from Le Croisic for Exeter with potatoes, stranded on the Pole Sands at 1.30 P.M. The master declined the proffered assistance of some boats which went to him, but at 8 P.M., as the tide was rising, the wind was rapidly increasing, and a heavy sea was breaking on the sand, the Life-boat put off to the vessel, anchored to windward of her, veered alongside, and took off the master and crew, four in all. The wind had by that time attained the force of a gale, and the heavy seas were washing completely over the vessel.—Expense of service, 24*l*. 18*s*.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 10th Dec., 1891.

Voted the Silver Medal of the Institution and a copy of the vote inscribed on vellum, to Mr. JAMES WOODGATE, Coxswain of the Dover Life-boat, in consideration of his valuable services during the twenty-one years he had occupied that position. During that period he had been out in the boat sixteen times on service, and assisted to save twenty-four lives.

The Committee also specially recognized the long services of Mr. JOHN AUSTIN, late coxswain of the Shoreham Life-boat. He had held that position for twenty-six years, during which period he had been out in the boat six times on service, and assisted to save twelve lives.

Voted also 776*l*. 13*s*. 6*d*. to pay the expenses of the Brighton, Shoreham, Courtmacsherry, Harwich, Porthleven, Lytham, Aranmore, Skegness, Rye, Winchelsea, Weymouth, Douglas Nos. 1 and 2, Mablethorpe, St. Mary's, Donna Nook, Southport No. 2, Bembridge, Portmadoc, Hastings, Gorleston No. 1, New Romney, Port Isaac, Walton-on-the-Naze, Brixham, Arbroath, Cemlyn, Cemaes, Bude, Bridlington, Newburgh, Falmouth, Southsea, Montrose No. 1, Clacton-on-Sea, Withernsea, and Weymouth Life-boats, in assembling their crews or putting off with the view of assisting vessels which did not eventually need their services.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was also taken out, but her services were not required.—Expenses paid by the Board of Trade.

Voted the Silver Medal of the Institution, with a copy of the vote inscribed on vellum, to Mr. CHARLES LEE, Coxswain of the Worthing Life-boat, in recognition of his gallant services on the occasion of the rescue of the crews, numbering in all fourteen men, from the three-masted schooner Yong Karl, of Christiania, and barque Capella, of Hamburg, which had been driven ashore in a whole gale of wind from the S.S.W. and a heavy sea on the 11th November.

Also the Silver Medal and copy of the vote on vellum to Mr. JAMES CABLE, Coxswain, and Mr. W. MANN, Assistant-Coxswain of the Aldeburgh Life-boat, in recognition of their several gallant services in the Life-boat, particularly on the occasion of the rescue of seventeen men from the Norwegian barque Winnifred, of Laurvig, in a whole gale from the S.S.W.

and a very heavy sea on the 11th November.

Also 5*l.* 15*s.* 4*d.* to the signalman at the Tramore Life-boat station, who was injured while firing the signal mortar on the 8th September.

Also 37*l.* 10*s.* to two men who were injured while assisting in taking out the Scarborough Life-boat to launch her to the assistance of a distressed vessel on the 6th August.

Also 3*l.* to a man injured while helping to launch the Aldeburgh Life-boat on service on the 26th October.

Dec. 10.—PENARTH.—Joseph Denman Life-boat.—The four-masted ship Drumblaire, of Greenock, bound from Barry Dock to Port Pierre, with coke and railway iron, dragged her anchors in Barry Roads and stranded on the west side of Sully Island in a gale from the W.S.W. and a very high sea. The casualty was reported by the master of a steam-tug, which towed the Life-boat to the scene of the wreck. On arriving, the Life-boat men found that part of the crew had left the ship in their own life-boat. The master and fifteen of the crew were on the vessel, and they were taken off by the Life-boat, put on board the tug, landed at Penarth, and conveyed to the Sailors' Home at Cardiff.—Expense of service, 13*l.* 19*s.*

Dec. 10.—RAMSGATE.—Bradford Life-boat.—The smack Leaflet, of Ramsgate, having grounded on the Colbourn Shoal in a whole gale from the W., and a very heavy sea, which was breaking over her, the Life-boat proceeded to her assistance, and remained by her till she floated with the rising tide.—Expenses paid by the Board of Trade.

Dec. 12.—EYEMOUTH.—James and Rachel Grindlay Life-boat.—The fishing lugger Alice and William, of Eyemouth, dropped anchor in the bay, but the anchor would not hold, and the boat drifted to the rocks on the N. side of the bay. The wind was blowing off the land, and the sea was sufficiently smooth to allow a coble and a punt to put off with a rope to the vessel, which was then hauled by fishermen and others on the pierhead to the harbour entrance, where the rope broke. The Life-boat went to her assistance, and attached a hawser to the boat, which was then got into the harbour without much damage.

Dec. 13.—MILFORD.—Reserve Life-boat.—The barque, Tamar Marshall, of Nova Scotia, 2000 tons, in ballast, parted both her cables, and was driven ashore on Angle Point in a whole gale of wind from the N.W. and a heavy sea, and hoisted a signal that she was in need of assistance. The Life-boat was launched at 9 A.M., went alongside, and was requested by the master to procure the assistance of H.M. steam-tug Stormcock, as he was afraid his vessel might drift into a fleet of small coasting vessels which were lying at anchor in Angle Bay. Having obtained permission to employ the tug, the Life-boat was towed back to the vessel, and then assisted in putting the towing-hawser on board.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 13.—LOWESTOFT.—Samuel Plim-soll Life-boat.—At the request of the Secretary of an Insurance Company, the Life-boat went out in a heavy S.W. by S. gale and a very heavy sea, and placed a light on a trawler which had been in collision with another boat, and having sunk was a source of danger to vessels passing through the channel.—Expense of service paid by the Insurance Company.

Dec. 16.—DONNA NOOK.—Richard Life-boat.—The four-masted ship Lord Brassey, of Liverpool, was observed in a dangerous position at the north edge of the Haile Sand. A strong breeze was blowing from the N.W., veering to N., and, the weather being thick, it was impossible to see whether she was showing any signal of distress. The Life-boat proceeded to her, and found that she was lying in four and a half fathoms of water, and likely at any moment to drift and ground on the Sand. The Life-boat therefore remained by her until she was towed by a steam-tug into deep water.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 18.—DONNA NOOK.—Richard Life-boat.—At 2 A.M. the Life-boat was launched, in response to signals of distress, and found the trawler Hope, of Grimsby, on the North Haile Sand. She had two anchors out, her sails were set, and she was striking the sand heavily and leaking. On the advice of the Life-boat men, the sails were lowered and the pumps were set to work. The Life-boat remained by the vessel until the tide flowed, when assistance was rendered in getting the anchors up, and the vessel floated off the sands.—Expense of service, 37*l.* 16*s.*

Dec. 28.—CAISTER.—Godsend Life-boat.—A vessel was observed in the direction of the Barber Sand, but, although she had her sails set, she did not move. The Coxswain of the Life-boat was called, and as the wind, which was blowing a strong breeze from the S., was increasing, and there was a heavy sea, he decided to launch the Life-boat and proceed to the vessel. The boat went off at 4 A.M., and found that the ship was the schooner Hannah Ransom, bound for Sunderland in ballast. She had stranded on the Sand, and the seas were breaking all round her. The master engaged the services of the Life-boat men to get her afloat, and at about 7.30 this was accomplished. Just as she was leaving the sand the seas became very heavy, filling the Life-boat two or three times, and but for the help afforded by the Life-boat's crew, the schooner would doubtless have been totally wrecked.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 28.—WINCHELSEA.—Frances Harris Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched, at 6.30 P.M., to the assistance of the barque Warwickshire, of London, which had stranded between Camber and Jury's Gap during thick weather. A steam-tug attempted to get the vessel afloat, but failed to do so. At the master's request, the Life-boat remained by the barque, as the wind was freshening, until 7 o'clock on the following morning, when the wind increased to a moderate gale, and there was a heavy sea, which broke over the vessel. Seventeen of the crew and a fisherman were then taken into the boat and landed.

Dec. 30.—DOVER.—Lewis Morice Life-boat.—The barque Warwickshire, of London, which had been ashore at Rye, and was being towed by a steam-tug, became unmanageable when off Dover, broke the towing hawsers, drifted some distance, and anchored off the South Foreland. A strong gale was blowing from the S.W., the sea was very heavy, and the night was intensely dark. The tug made for Dover, to obtain the assistance of the Life-boat, which put off at 9.30, and was towed by the steamer to the vessel. After several attempts, the boat got sufficiently near to the vessel to get a rope on board; then dropped astern, and with much difficulty rescued fifteen men.

On the following morning the Life-boat again went out, but could find no trace of the vessel. It was afterwards ascertained that those who had remained on board were taken off by a steam-tug and landed at Dover.

Dec. 31.—Voted 490l. 7s. 9d. to pay the expenses of the Saltburn, Queenstown, Gorleston No. 1, Portmadoc, Winterton No. 2 Kingsgate, Walmer, Margate, Southend (Essex), New Brighton No. 2, North Deal, Southport, Hunstanton, Newhaven, Brighton, Orme's Head, Beaumaris, Lowestoft No. 1, Dover, Cemaes, Walton-on-the-Naze, Broughty Ferry, Great Yarmouth, Fleetwood No. 1, and Barrow Life-boats, in assembling their crews or putting off to the aid of vessels which did not eventually require their assistance.—Also 6l. to a man who was injured at the launch of the Cemaes Life-boat on service, on the 12th Dec.—Also 2l. to one of the crew of the New Brighton Life-boat, injured on service on the 7th Dec.

Jan. 8.—Voted 3*l.* to six men for putting off in a coble and bringing ashore the crew of two men from the collier Diamond, of Scarborough, which was dragging her anchors in a strong gale from the N., and a heavy sea, on the 18th October.

Also 3*l.* to six men, for putting off in a boat and bringing ashore the crew of five men of the schooner St. Germans, which was in danger off Moelfre in a N.N.W. gale and a very heavy sea, on the 7th November.

Also 2*l.* to two men who put off in a boat and rescued five men from the ketch Endeavour, of Bude, which was totally wrecked off Ilfracombe, in a whole gale from the W.N.W. and a heavy sea, on the 19th December.

Jan. 9.—Two men put off in a boat and rescued one of two men from a punt which had been capsized off Strangford, co. Down. The other occupant of the boat was drowned while attempting to swim to the shore.—Reward, 1*l.*

Jan. 31.—Eight fishermen put off in a boat and rescued the crew of five men from the fishing-boat Eliza, of Tramore, which was drifting out to sea, having broken two oars, off Innishowen Head, co. Donegal, in a strong gale from the S.S.W.—Reward, 4*l.*

Jan. 31.—Twelve men rendered service on the occasion of the stranding of the fishing-boat Wace, of Whitehaven, at Maryport, Cumberland, in a strong gale from the S.S.W. to S.W., and a very rough sea. The boat's crew of three men were brought safely ashore.—Reward, 6*l.*

Feb. 11.—Seven fishermen put off in a coble and rescued the crew of five men from the schooner Pioneer, of Banff, which had stranded on the South Steel Rocks off Boulmer, Northumberland, in a heavy W. gale.—Reward, 3*l.* 10*s.*

Feb. 12.—Voted 1*l.* to a farm labourer for wading into the surf and rescuing two of the crew of the brigantine Aurora, of Vannes, which stranded in Woolacombe Bay, Devonshire, in a strong gale and a heavy sea on the 19th October, 1889.

Feb. 22.—Two men put off in a boat and rescued a boy and a girl from two boats at Mornington, co. Meath. The boy, aged eight years, got into a little flat boat, which went adrift, and his sister, aged thirteen, proceeded in a similar boat to his assistance, but there being a strong wind and an ebb tide, she lost all control of the boat, and it capsized. The girl, who fortunately retained hold of the boat, was insensible when rescued, and as the salvors boat was too small to allow them to take her into it, they were obliged to tow her ashore.—Reward, 1*l.* A reward of 10*s.* was presented to the girl for her bravery in attempting to rescue her brother.

March 7.—Nine men put off in a boat and rescued one of four persons whose boat had been swamped, in squally weather and a rough sea, in Broadhaven Bay, co. Mayo.—Reward, 4*l.* 10*s.*

March 9.—Six men rescued two of the crew of the Lizzie Ellen, of Chester, which had stranded on the Longstone Rock, near Halsands, Devonshire, in a whole gale of wind from the E., a very heavy sea and a snowstorm.—Reward, 6*l.*

March 16.—The Chief Boatman-in-Charge and four Coastguard boatmen put off in the life whale-boat at Culdaff, co. Donegal, and, with considerable difficulty, the boat being swamped in the first attempt to launch it, rescued the crew of five men from the schooner Westward, of Plymouth, which was in danger in Culdaff Bay, in a strong N.E. gale and a heavy sea.—Reward, 5*l.*

April 7.—Five artillerymen rescued three persons from a small sailing-boat which had been capsized by a sudden squall at Milford Haven, in a strong E. breeze and a heavy sea.—Reward, 2*l.* 10*s.*

April 9.—Voted the Silver Medal of the Institution, a copy of the vote inscribed on vellum, and 1*l.*, to Mr. WILLIAM MCALLISTER for gallantly swimming through a heavy surf and rescuing one of the crew of the Portrush Life-boat, on the 2nd March.

Also 2*l.* to a Coastguard man, who assisted in effecting the rescue, having previously helped another man to reach the shore.

Also the Silver Medal, a copy of the vote on vellum, and 1*l.* to Mr. JAMES E. GOURLAY, for taking command of the Boarhills, Fifeshire, private life-boat, and at great risk rescuing the crew of six men from the schooner Francis, of Drammen, which became a total wreck in St. Andrew's Bay, in a gale from the E. and a very rough sea, on the 5th April. 1*l.* each was also awarded to twelve other men, who formed the crew of the boat on the occasion.

Also the thanks of the Institution inscribed on vellum, with the sum of 2*l.* to Mr. WILLIAM FITZGERALD, Chief Officer, and 2*l.* each to four Coastguard men, for putting off in their life whale-boat and at great risk, the boat being capsized in returning ashore, rescuing the crew of three men from the ketch Western Belle, of Exeter, which had stranded at Felpham, Sussex, in a strong E. gale and a heavy sea, on the 9th March.

Also 5*s.* each to ten Coastguard men, who assisted to launch the boat and rendered help with life-lines.

Also 5*l.* to five men for services rendered to two vessels which had stranded at Duigeness in a heavy sea, on the 9th March.

May 11.—Six fishermen put off in two boats and saved two men from a small fishing-boat which had been capsized off Cromer, Norfolk, in a N. to N.E. wind and a rough sea.—Reward, 3*l.* 15*s.*

May 14.—Voted the Silver Medal of the Institution, accompanied by a copy of the vote inscribed on vellum, to Mr. JOHN BOYD and to Mr. DAVID PATTON, for rescuing at considerable risk, a boy who, while proceeding to a smack lying in Portrush Harbour, co. Antrim, on the 8th May, came in contact with the warp of a vessel, and was thereby thrown out of his boat. BOYD, who was on board a vessel about a hundred yards distant, jumped overboard with his clothes and heavy sea-boots on, and reached the boy first. PATTON was on shore, about two hundred yards off, and on witnessing the accident at once ran to the quay, throwing off his coat as he went, jumped into the water, and also swam to the rescue. Both men then supported the boy until all were picked up by a boat from the shore.

 FOR THE PRESERVATION OF LIFE FROM SHIPWRECK.

Obverse.—Bust of Her Majesty Queen Victoria; beneath, in minute letters, "L. C. WYON." Double legend, "Royal National Life-boat Institution. Founded in 1824. Incorporated 1860. Victoria, Patroness."
Reverse.—Three sailors in a Life-boat,—one of whom is in the act of rescuing an exhausted mariner from the waves on a fragment of the wreck. "W. Wyon, Mint." Inscription, "Let not the deep swallow me up."

THE beautiful obverse of this medal, executed by the late L. C. WYON, Esq., represents the bust of QUEEN VICTORIA, Her Majesty's locks gracefully waving and gathered in a knot behind, from which issues a wreath of oak clustering over the forehead. This life-like portrait of the QUEEN, in high relief, conveys a truly pleasing and faithful likeness of HER MAJESTY at that period (1862), combining the dignity of aspect and benevolence which have always characterised the Queen throughout her long and prosperous reign.

The reverse, representing the Life-boat, in which there are three Seamen, rescuing a fourth from the sea, is a work of great merit. Two of the men are steadying the boat, while the other, stooping, draws in the Shipwrecked Sailor, whose figure is given so as to show the form in the most natural manner; and the expression thrown into his countenance looking up to his preserver is supplicating in the extreme, while the easy flowing lines of this sailor are finely contrasted by those of his companions: the whole displaying a perfect knowledge of the human frame, and a command of the graver to embody what he had shadowed out to himself.

But there is another pleasing motive for admiration of this beautiful Medal, as the figure who is so humanely extending his relief to the drowning Mariner is a portrait of the Artist, the late WILLIAM WYON, Esq., R.A., himself.

The following is a LIST of the GOLD and SILVER MEDALS which have been voted by the Committee of the Institution from its establishment in 1824 to the 31st Dec., 1890, to persons whose humane and intrepid exertions in saving Life from Shipwreck on our Coasts have been deemed sufficiently conspicuous to merit that honourable distinction. The Cases will be found recorded in detail in the several Annual Reports of the Institution.

The total number of Medals and Clasps granted by the Institution is 1,171, 98 of which were in Gold, and 1,073 in Silver.

Note.—The asterisk (*) after the name denotes the reception of a Gold Medal. The figure after the name signifies the number of honorary distinctions received from the Institution. Abbreviations.—Ct. G<sup>d</sup>.—Coast Guard. R. C.—Revenue Cruiser. M. M.—Master Mariner.

THE LIFE-BELT USED BY THE CREWS OF THE LIFE-BOATS OF THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

The requisite qualities of a life-boatman's life-belt are—

1. Sufficient extra buoyancy (maximum 28 lbs., minimum 25 lbs.) to support a man heavily clothed, with his head and shoulders above the water, or to enable him to support another person besides himself.
2. Perfect flexibility, so as to readily conform to the shape of the wearer.
3. A division into two zones, an upper and lower, so that between the two it may be secured tightly round the waist; for in no other manner can it be confined sufficiently close and secure round the body without such pressure over the chest and ribs as to materially affect the free action of the lungs, impede the muscular movement of the chest and arms, and thereby diminish the power of endurance of fatigue, which, in rowing-boats, is a matter of vital importance.
4. Strength, durability, and non-liability to injury.

THE LIFE-BOAT STATION.

THE following brief description and diagrams illustrative of a complete Life-boat Establishment, including the House for the protection of the boat, will serve to convey an idea of the general character of one of the 303 Life-boat Stations of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

It will be seen that it is a work of a costly nature, and that not only in the first instance, but that a large permanent expense is entailed in keeping the whole machinery in an efficient state, in the re-supply of any part of it which may be destroyed or worn out, in the exercise of the boats' crews, in launching and working the boats, and in remunerating them for their services in saving their fellow-creatures. Yet, looking to the vast importance of the result effected, and the responsibility of calling on men to risk their lives in effecting the same, it is felt that few if any persons will be found who will consider that expense to be incurred in vain.

THE LIFE-BOAT.

The following drawings show the general outline and principal fittings of a 34 feet by 7½ feet self-righting boat. Figure 1 gives the profile or broadside view, the shaded part showing that devoted to the air-cases, which give extra buoyancy, The letter A shows the deck, and the unshaded parts the relieving-tubes, by which any water that breaks on board escapes. The shaded part of the keel, B, represents the ballast composed of iron. The festooned dotted lines are the life-lines outside the boat, for men to catch hold of when overboard.

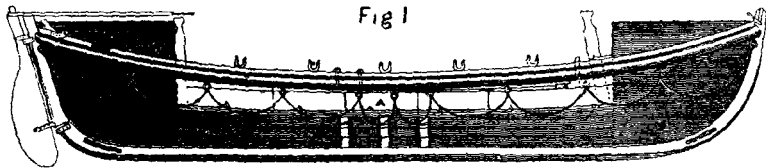

In Figure 2, the unshaded space, A, represents the uncovered part of the deck;

B, the relieving-tubes, C, the side air-cases above the deck, D, the end air-cases, E, the ventilating scuttles, F, the water-ballast tanks, G, the plugs, and H, the pumps of the ballast tanks.

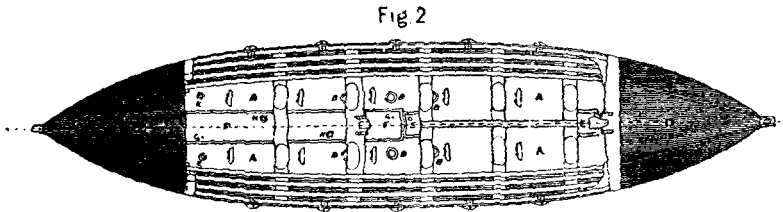

Figure 3 represents the body plan or cross sections at various distances from stem to stern.

MIDSHIP SECTION

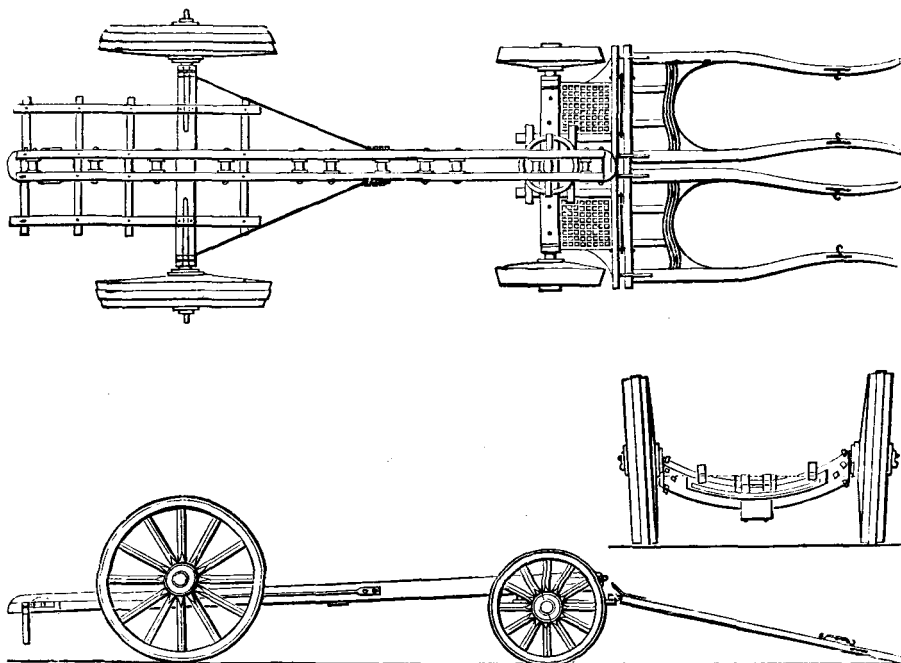

This Life-boat possesses in the highest degree all the qualities which it is desirable that a Life-boat should possess:—

1. Great lateral stability, or resistance to upsetting.
2. Speed against a heavy sea.
3. Facility for launching and taking the shore.
4. Immediate self-discharge of any water breaking into her.
5. The important advantage of self-righting if upset.
6. Strength.
7. Stowage room for a large number of passengers.

THE LIFE-BOAT TRANSPORTING-CARRIAGE.

The Life-boat transporting-carriage is a very important auxiliary to the boat. Nearly every Life-boat, except a few of the larger size, is provided with a carriage, on which she is kept in the boat-house ready for immediate transportation to the most favourable position for launching to a wreck. A Life-boat is thus made available for a greater extent of coast than she otherwise would be; and even when launched from abreast of the boat-house, she can generally be much quicker conveyed to the water's edge than without a carriage. In addition to this ordinary use, a carriage is of immense service in launching a boat from a beach; indeed, to such an extent is this the case, that a boat can be readily launched from a carriage in a high surf, when without one it would often be very difficult to do so.

The carriage consists of a fore and main body. The latter is formed of a keelway, and of bilgeways attached to it, and resting on the main axle, the boat's weight being entirely on the rollers of the keelway. Its leading characteristics are that while for launching it forms an inclined plane, down which the boat can be launched off the rear end with considerable impetus, it can also be used for replacing the boat, the inclined plane being reversed by removing the fore-carriage.

A very full equipment of stores is supplied to the Life-boats of the Institution—such as cork life-belts, anchors and cables, grapnels and lines, life-buoys, lanterns, rockets, and many other articles, together with portable or launching-skids.

THE LIFE-BOAT HOUSE.

The boats of the NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION, and all belonging to them, are kept in roomy and substantial boat-houses, under lock and key, in charge of paid coxswains, under the general superintendence of local honorary committees of residents in the several localities. Each boat has its appointed coxswain at a salary of 8*l.*, and an assistant at 2*l.* a year, with further allowances under special circumstances. The crew consists, in addition, of a bowman, who is paid 30*s.* a year, and as many boatmen as the boat pulls oars. The members of the volunteer crews are registered, and wherever practicable, at least double the number of men required are entered on the register. Such men are mostly resident boatmen, fishermen, or Coastguardmen. On every occasion of going afloat to save life, the coxswain and each of the crew receive alike from the funds of the Institution (whether successful or not) 10*s.*, if by day, and 1*l.*, if by night; and usually 4*s.* each for every time of going afloat for exercise. These payments are increased by one half during the six months of each year beginning the 1st October, and ending the 31st March.

A reward of 7*s.* is given to the man who first brings intelligence of a wreck at such a distance along the coast as not to be in sight of the Coastguard Station or other look-out.

A flag hoisted by day, and the firing of a carronade (or other alarm signal) by night, are the well-known signals for calling the crew together.

On boarding wrecks, the preservation of life is the sole consideration. Should any goods or merchandise be brought into the Life-boat, contrary to the coxswain's remonstrance, he is authorised to throw them overboard.

The average cost of a Life-boat Station is 1,050*l.*, and is made up as follows:—

Life-boat and her equipment, including Life-belts for the Crew,
Skids, and Transporting-carriage . . . . .	£700
Boat-house . . . . .	350
Total . . . . .	£1,050

Such is a brief summary of the chief of the Regulations under which the Life-boats are worked. How faithfully and with what result they are carried out let the journals of each Life-boat Station and the annals of the Institution tell.

The NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION has now 303 Life-boats under its charge. Nearly all of these have been specially presented to it, and they save every year hundreds of shipwrecked sailors. Altogether, the Institution has contributed to the saving of 36,179 lives.

Despite, however, this fleet of 303 Life-boats, and of 30 others locally provided or otherwise supported, and despite the numerous rocket apparatus stations on our coast, there remains the melancholy fact that an average of 650 lives are lost annually on and around our own shores alone, proclaiming solemnly, though silently, that, for humanity's sake, and for the national credit, no exertions should be spared in providing every possible means for the conveyance of succour to the shipwrecked.

The Institution needs a permanent income of about 50,000*l.* to maintain its great Life-saving Fleet; and the Committee feel assured that it will never lack it so long as it maintains its boats in the state of thorough efficiency that they are in at the present time, and manned as they are on every emergency by as fearless and noble a class of men as ever Nelson or Collingwood led to battle to uphold our country's honour and glory.

APPEAL.

THE COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT have to state that during the past year (1891) the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION expended £51,625 on its 303 Life-boat Establishments.

GENERAL SUMMARY OF THE WORK OF THE INSTITUTION DURING 1891.

Total . . . . .	99	736	£8,245	18 4

The number of Lives saved either by the Life-boats of the Society, or by special exertions for which it has granted rewards since its formation, is 36,179; for which services 98 Gold Medals and Clasps, 1,073 Silver Medals and Clasps, 197 Binocular Glasses, 15 Telescopes, 4 Aneroid Barometers, 1,352 Votes of Thanks, inscribed on vellum and framed, 18 Certificates of Service framed and £121,739 have been given as Rewards.

The Committee earnestly appeal to the British Public for Funds to enable them to maintain their 303 Life-boats now on the Coast and their Crews in the most perfect state of efficiency. This can only be effected by a large and permanent annual income. The Annual Subscriptions, Donations and Dividends are quite inadequate for the purpose. The Committee are confident that in their endeavour to provide the brave Life-boatmen, who nobly hazard their lives in order that they may save others, with the best possible means for carrying on their great work, they will meet with the entire approval of the people of this the greatest maritime country in the world, and that their appeal will not be made in vain, so that the scope and efficiency of our great Life-saving Service, of which the Nation has always been so proud, may not have to be curtailed.

Annual Subscriptions and Donations are earnestly solicited, and will be thankfully received by the Secretary, CHARLES DIBDIN, Esq., at the Institution, 14 JOHN STREET, ADELPHI, London; by the Bankers of the Institution, Messrs. COURTS and Co., 59 Strand; Messrs. HERRIES, FARQUHAR, and Co., 16 St. James's Street; Messrs. HOARE, 37 Fleet Street, London; and by all the other Bankers in the United Kingdom.—1st August, 1892.
