

THE LIFE=BOAT.

JOURNAL

OF THE

Royal National Life=boat Institution.

(ISSUED QUARTERLY.)

VOL. XVII.—No. 192.]

1ST MAY, 1899.

[PRICE 1s.

At the ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE=BOAT INSTITUTION, held at St. Martin's Town Hall, Charing Cross Road, on Saturday, the 18th day of March, 1899, the Right Hon. the Earl of DERBY, K.G., G.C.B., in the Chair, the following Report of the Committee of Management was submitted and adopted:—

ANNUAL REPORT. 1899.

The great life-saving work of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE=BOAT INSTITUTION has been carried out during the past year with continued and earnest activity, and every effort has been made to maintain and if possible to increase the efficiency of the service.

It is with the deepest regret that the Committee of Management have to advert to the great loss which the Institution has recently sustained by the death of their President, ALGERNON GEORGE PERCY, 6th Duke of NORTHUMBERLAND. His Grace, who died on the 2nd January last, had for the long period of thirty-three years cordially co-operated in carrying out the national and philanthropic objects of the Institution. He took a warm interest in its progress and development and was much concerned if anything happened which he thought might be prejudicial to its interests.

Life boats.—The latest additions to the Institution's fleet include two Steam Life-boats, the principle of which differs somewhat from that of the other three already built by the Institution. The construction of these boats is, speaking generally, similar to those already in the service, but with the important difference that their after ends are hollowed out so as to form a tunnel for the protection of the screw which has been adopted in these boats instead of the turbine. The loss of power inseparable from the use of the turbine will thus be avoided, and it is hoped that the screw will prove so well protected from fouling as to leave nothing to be desired in this respect. One of the new boats has been stationed at Grimsby, and the other has been sent to Padstow. At both these places they will be, it is thought, the means of rendering prompt and ready help to the crews of vessels in distress.

During the year steps have been taken to strengthen considerably the arrangements for life-saving at Margate, which has always been an important station. Hitherto the necessary work has been done by one Life-boat, but of late it has been found that more still could be effected if new and improved launching facilities and a second boat were added. The Committee have therefore, at the cost of nearly 4,000*l.*, built two slipways adjoining the Margate Pier, at the head of each of which has been placed a new and powerful sailing Life-boat.

Seven other stations have also been supplied with new Life-boats, in the selection of which the coxswains and crews have been fully consulted.

The following is a complete list of the stations to which the new boats have been appropriated :—

Grimsby (Steam Life-boat)	} Lincolnshire.
Margate (two Life-boats)
Plymouth	Kent.
Cadgwith	Devonshire.
Padstow (Steam Life-boat)	} Cornwall.
Pwllheli
New Brighton	Carnarvonshire.
Irvine	Cheshire.
Campbeltown	Ayrshire.
Kingstown (No. 2 Life-boat)	Argyllshire.
	Dublin.

During the year the stations at Burry Port, Fethard and Penarth have also been furnished with boats better suited for their requirements.

At the close of the year there were 294 Life-boats on the coast belonging to the Institution, and boats have been withdrawn from Balbriggan, Barmston, Chapel and Point of Ayr, other and improved arrangements having been made in the respective localities.

Transporting Carriages.—New transporting carriages have been supplied at nine stations, and others are now in course of construction.

Inspection of Life-boats, &c.—All the Institution's Stations have during the year been very carefully inspected by the officers appointed by the Committee of Management for the purpose, and a full report has in each instance been submitted to the Committee for their guidance and information.

Shipwrecks.—Notwithstanding that the past year, taken as a whole, was a remarkably fine one from a Life-boat point of view, there was plenty of work for the Life-boats and their crews to do during the comparatively few fitful gales which were experienced. The heaviest gales of the year occurred on the 24th to 28th March, the 16th to 22nd October, and the 22nd to 24th November. In the first case, 36 boats of the Institution were launched on service, resulting in the saving of 90 lives, and the landing of 5 other persons from vessels in dangerous positions. In the second case, 28 Life-boats were launched, resulting in the saving of 30 lives and the safe landing of 9 other persons from vessels in peril; and in the third case, there were 26 launches, resulting in the saving of 69 lives. During the month of August, there were no less than 37 Life-boats launched on service, by which means 34 lives were saved. This number of launches was abnormal having regard to the time of year.

In 1898, the Life-boats were launched altogether on service 375 times and 1,081 times for exercise, in addition to which the crews were assembled on 77 other occasions for service, their assistance not being ultimately required.

The Committee are thankful to be able to report that notwithstanding the many thousands of Life-boat men who went afloat in the Life-boats during the year only one lost his life on service, and he in all probability would not have perished if he had not, contrary to the regulations, gone out in the Life-boat without his life-belt. In all probability this was due to his desire not to delay the launching of the boat. A local collection was made for the widow and orphans, to which the Institution contributed £300.

The number of lives for the saving of which the Institution granted rewards last year was 756; of these 682 were saved by Life-boats and 74 by shore-boats and other means. In addition to which the Life-boat crews saved 22 vessels.

The details of the services during each month of the year are as follows:—

1898.	Number of Life-boat Launches.	Lives Saved by Life-boats.	Vessels Saved by Life-boats.	Lives Saved by Shore-boats.

December	42	47	—	2
Total	375	682	22	74

The boats of the Institution also landed 137 persons who were on board vessels in positions of danger.

The total number of lives for the saving of which the Institution has bestowed rewards since its establishment in 1824, by Life-boats, shore-boats, or by other means, has been 41,233, the number for each year being as follows:—

Rewards.—The rewards given by the Institution last year for the saving of life from shipwreck on the coasts of the United Kingdom, or for creditable efforts to do so, and in recognition of other good services rendered to the Service, included 12 Silver Medals and Clasps, 6 Binocular Glasses, 5 Aneroid Barometers, 28 Votes of Thanks inscribed on vellum and framed, 32 Certificates of Service framed, and 10,141*l.* 7*s.*, including grants to relatives of men lost on service, compensation for personal injuries received in the Service, and retiring allowances.

At the close of the year the Institution had bestowed altogether in rewards since 1824, 98 Gold Medals and Clasps, 1,173 Silver Medals and Clasps, 281 Binocular Glasses, 15 Telescopes, 19 Aneroid Barometers, 1,605 Votes of Thanks inscribed on vellum and framed, 104 Certificates of Service framed, and 189,967*l.* 16*s.* 6*d.* in money.

Pensions and Retiring Allowances.—A special feature of the year has been the system of granting Pensions and Retiring Allowances. It has always been the practice of the Institution for many years past to grant retiring allowances to coxswains and others after good service; but, inasmuch as the Institution in November, 1897, was then turning its attention to the subject of Pensions, it was the opinion of the Committee of Management that the time had come when the retiring allowances should be regulated according to a definite scheme. A Special Committee was therefore appointed to consider and report upon the subject of pensions and allowances. The result of their labours is the system of granting pensions and retiring allowances to coxswains, bowmen and signalmen retiring after good and faithful service on account of old age, accident, ill-health or abolition of office. This system has been in operation since the 1st January, 1898, and has given the greatest satisfaction throughout the Service and has certainly increased the popularity of the Service with the crews who man the boats.

Aneroids.—A considerable number of these extremely useful and reliable instruments were sold in the year, at a reduction of two-thirds in the retail price, to the masters and owners of fishing-boats and small coasters. Of the 172 aneroids so supplied 123 were provided for Fishermen and 49 for Coasters. The total number supplied since June 1882 has been 4,051.

Removal of Wrecks.—The amended Act of 1889, passed through the instrumentality of the Institution, providing for the removal of wrecks in non-navigable waters dangerous to the Life-boats and their crews when carrying out life-saving work, continues to bear good fruit, as it has empowered the Elder Brethren of the Trinity House and other authorities to remove wrecks with which they would otherwise have been unable to deal.

Electrical Communication on the Coast.—Steady if not rapid progress has been made during the past year in the establishment by the Government of telegraphic and telephonic connections on the coast for life-saving purposes—a system of very great importance, adopted by the Treasury in 1892 at the instance of the Institution. The use and importance of these telephonic and telegraphic connections is each year increasingly demonstrated, they being more and more employed, as was of course the intention, for calling out Life-boats when required, preventing unnecessary launches and for warning Life-boat crews to be on the alert to render assistance.

Local Committees, &c.—The grateful and cordial thanks of the Committee are due to all the honorary officials connected with the Institution, who, in the capacity of Secretaries, Treasurers, Branch Committee men, &c., have rendered invaluable help to the cause. Such sustained aid, given so generously and freely, is of the first importance, and enables the Committee of Management to carry on the great but onerous work which has been entrusted to them.

The Committee also desire to recognize the very valuable assistance they have received from the Public Press, as well as the much appreciated co-operation of the Coastguard.

The best acknowledgments of the Committee are also tendered to the patentees and inventors who have been so good as to submit their proposals for consideration, trusting that they might prove useful for the Institution's purposes. The Committee are at all times glad and anxious to receive any suggestions which may tend to increased efficiency.

Life boat Saturday.—The Central Committee of the Life-boat Saturday Fund are to be heartily congratulated on the increased success of their efforts during the past year, and the best thanks of the Committee of Management are tendered to them, to the Local Life-boat Saturday Committees, to the officials, to the Ladies' Auxiliaries—of whose good work too much cannot be said—and to all throughout the country who have given a helping hand. The movement would seem to be gaining ground year by year, and difficulties which were at one time great and disheartening either have been or are being overcome. There is now every reason to believe that Life-boat Saturday will ere long be regarded as one of the established institutions of the country. In 1897 the number of cities and towns in which Life-boat Saturday collections were made was 82, whereas in 1898 the number increased to 113—a large increase of 31.

Finances.—The total amount received by the Committee of Management last year in subscriptions, donations, dividends, &c., and including the contribution received from the Life-boat Saturday Fund, which amounted to 15,302*l.* 8*s.* 4*d.*—a large increase of 5,985*l.* 15*s.* 8*d.* as compared with the total of the previous year—was 71,084*l.* 15*s.* 10*d.*; and the total amount received in legacies was 37,541*l.* 3*s.* 9*d.* Of this sum, however, 9,803*l.* 18*s.* 4*d.* was for specific purposes.

The total expenditure in 1898 amounted to 83,958*l.* 4*s.* 10*d.*, and included 33,730*l.* 16*s.* 4*d.* for building, equipping, improving, and repairing Life-boats, Life-boat Carriages, Life-boat Houses, and Slipways; 15,741*l.* 12*s.* 2*d.* for Subsidies to non-self-supporting Stations, Branch payments, Aneroids for Fishermen and Coasters, Life-belts and other Stores, and the Storeyard; 28,527*l.* 19*s.* 11*d.* for payments to Coxswains, Bowmen, Signalmen; to Crews, &c.; for services and for exercising the Life-boats, for special rewards and recognitions for services, grants to the relatives of men lost on service, for injuries, pensions and retiring allowances to Coxswains and Signalmen, medals and vellums; also for payments to Inspectors. The balance was expended in printing, advertising, postage, telegrams, and stationery; on salaries, rent, rates, taxes, housekeeper, and legal expenses connected with leases and bequests. Every item of receipt and expenditure has, as usual, been examined, verified, and passed by Mr. Lovelock, of the firm of Messrs. Lovelock, Whiffen, and Dickinson, 19, Coleman Street, E.C., Chartered Accountants.

The Committee of Management in presenting to the Subscribers and the Public their 75th Annual Report would again earnestly, yet confidently, appeal for renewed and increased help. Year by year the amount required to maintain the Service in thorough efficiency, so that it may be suitably equipped to perform the important work entrusted to it, increases, in a measure due to the large cost involved by the building and up-keep of Steam Life-boats; and with the increased need the difficulty of raising money for this, or any other philanthropic object, continually grows, owing to the multiplicity of the appeals which day by day are brought under the notice of the Charitable Public. The Committee feel however that the Life-boat cause has a special and peculiar claim on the people of this country, and they therefore believe that the call for liberal financial support now made will not be made in vain.

The object of this Institution, as declared in its title and in its Charter of Incorporation, is to afford assistance to every shipwrecked person around the Coasts of the United Kingdom.

The chief means by which the Society endeavours to carry this object into effect are:—

By building, stationing, and maintaining in repair, Life-boats of the most perfect description; furnishing them with all necessary Appurtenances, including Houses to preserve them in, and Carriages for their conveyance to the spots where their Services are called for; and further, providing, through the instrumentality of Local Committees, for their proper Management and the occasional Exercise of their Crews.

By conferring Honorary Rewards in the form of Medals and Votes of Thanks, and also making liberal grants of money to all persons who, at the risk of their own lives, save, or attempt to save those of others on board vessels wrecked, or in distress, upon any part of the Coast of the United Kingdom.

The number of lives saved either by the Life-boats of the Institution, or by special exertions for which it has granted rewards, since its formation, is 41,233.

Annual Subscriptions and Donations are thankfully received by the Secretary, CHARLES DIBDIN, Esq., at the Institution, 14 JOHN STREET, ADELPHI, LONDON, W.C.; by the Bankers of the Institution, MESSRS. COURTTS AND CO., 59 Strand; by all the other London and Country Bankers; and by all the Life-boat Branches.

The Royal National Life-boat Institution

Is prepared to establish and maintain a Life-boat Station on any part of the coast of the United Kingdom where it can be shown, from previous disasters, that a Life-boat is required. It is requisite that there should be a sufficient number of men (fishermen, or others accustomed to the management of boats at sea) to man the Life-boat, and a Committee formed from the residents in the neighbourhood to superintend the Station and obtain such small Annual Subscriptions as may contribute towards a portion of the expense of the Life-boat Station.

Communications should be addressed to the Secretary of the Institution, 14 John Street, Adelphi, London, W.C.

List of the Rewards

FOR SAVING LIFE FROM WRECKS

VOTED BY THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION

TO THE CREWS OF ITS LIFE-BOATS, TO SHORE AND FISHING-BOATS' CREWS, AND TO OTHER PERSONS

FROM THE 1ST JANUARY TO THE 31ST DECEMBER, 1898.

Jan. 6.—PALLING, NORFOLK.—Hearts of Oak Life-boat.—The coxswain of the Life-boat having been informed that flares had been shown in the direction of the Middle Happisburgh Sand, the crew of the Life-boat were at once summoned, the boat was launched at 1.50 A.M., and on reaching the spot found the brig Prince Consort, of Faversham, bound for Cowes from the Tyne, with a cargo of coal, ashore and leaking badly. The master engaged the services of the Life-boat men to get the vessel afloat, and after working at the pumps for some time they succeeded in getting her off and took her into Yarmouth harbour at 6 P.M. A moderate W.S.W. breeze was blowing at the time these services were rendered, and there was a rough sea. The brig had a crew of eight men.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 13th Jan., 1898.

Voted 178*l.* 6*s.* to pay expenses of assembling the crews or taking out the Appledore, Ballywalter, Cullercoats, Greencastle, Guernsey, Holyhead (steam Life-boat), Kildonan, Margate, Padstow, Rhosneiger, Stornoway and Walmer Life-boats.

Voted the Second Service Clasp and a certificate of service to Mr. MATTHEW KYLE, Mr. WILLIAM HODDS and Mr. CHARLES LEE on their retirement from office of coxswain, respectively, of the Holy Island, Winterton and Worthing Life-boats.

The Committee specially recognised the services of Messrs. RICHARD LOWER, JOSEPH BURNSIDE and ALFRED HICKS, on retirement from the coxswainship of the Newhaven, Redcar and St. Mary's Life-boats.

Also the services of retiring members of the crew of the Holy Island, Douglas, North Berwick and Newcastle (co. Down) Life-boats.

Also 50*l.* to the widow of an elderly man who was accidentally knocked down and killed while witnessing the proceedings of the Bridlington Life-boat on the occasion of her being taken out with the view of launching to a vessel in distress.

Also 6*l.* 1*s.* to persons injured at Life-boat services at Newbiggin, North Deal, Penmon and Winterton.

Jan. 16.—CAISTER, NORFOLK.—Beauchamp Life-boat.—Signals having been fired by the Cockle Light-vessel, the Life-boat was launched at 7.15 P.M. while a light breeze was blowing from S.S.W.; the sea was moderate and the weather thick. Having crossed the Barber Sand the Life-boat steered for the Cockle, when flares were seen in a W. direction, shown by two vessels in collision, one lying across the bows of the other. As a strong ebb tide was running, the Life-boat dropped her anchor and veered down to the vessels, which proved to be the schooner Thomas of Lowestoft, laden with coal, and the ketch Bluejacket of Blakeney, light. Some of the Life-boat men boarded them, and after about an hour's work succeeded in getting them clear of each other. The ketch was towed to Yarmouth harbour by the tug Meteor, the Life-boat being towed astern.

The Life-boat subsequently returned to the other vessel and remained by her until 11 P.M., when she was able to sail for Lowestoft, several of the Life-boat men remaining on board to assist as she was leaking considerably.—Expense of service, 30*l.*

Jan. 20.—APPLEDORE, NORTH DEVON.—Jane Hannah MacDonald Life-boat.—Signals of distress having been observed, the Life-boat was launched at 8.20 P.M. in a moderate S.W. wind, a heavy sea, and thick weather. The schooner J. M. J., of Bideford, was found stranded on Santon Sands, but the master refused to leave her. The Life-boat remained by the vessel about half an hour, and then returned to the shore, arriving at 11 o'clock, and the coxswain reported the matter to two members of the Local Committee. It was decided that the Boat should return to the vessel and render such service as was possible. On her way out the Life-boat met the ship's boat containing the master and crew. The captain and one hand got into the Life-boat and returned to the vessel, the sea being too heavy for their own boat to approach her. When the vessel floated, these two men and some of the Life-boat men boarded her and got her anchors up. Two anchors were laid out by the Life-boat to help to haul her into deep water, the Life-boat men assisted at the pumps, as she was leaking, and the vessel was taken into safety.—Property salvage case.

Jan. 29.—RUNSWICK.—Cape of Good Hope Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 2.30 A.M. while a moderate gale was blowing from N.N.W., accompanied by a rough sea, in response to signals of distress shown by the brig John Pitcairn, of London, which, while on a voyage from Seaham to Poole, had stranded at Kettle-ness Point. The Life-boat was successful in rescuing the vessel's crew consisting of nine men.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 9*s.*

Jan. 29.—STAITHES, YORKSHIRE.—Jonathan Stott Life-boat.—A gale from N.N.W. sprung up, accompanied by a rough sea, and the cobbles, with one exception, which had gone out fishing, returned home. The boat, however, which had not come in would evidently encounter considerable danger in landing; the Life-boat was therefore launched at 8.30 A.M., and stood by the coble while she crossed the bar.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 15*s.*

Feb. 1.—GIRVAN.—Sir Home Popham Life-boat.—A very heavy sea was running outside the bar, and as the gale was freshening, the crew of the Life-boat were summoned, two of the fishing-boats, the Sophia and the Bonny Loch Ryan, not having returned from the fishing-grounds. The boats being seen approaching the harbour, the Life-boat was launched at 7.15 P.M., went outside the harbour, and stood by them while they crossed the bar, on which a very dangerous sea was breaking.—Expense of service, 23*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*

Feb. 1.—CAMPBELTOWN.—Mary Adelaide Harrison Life-boat.—The wind, which had been blowing strongly all day from W., increased to a strong gale towards the evening, at times blowing with hurricane force. At about 9 P.M. the coxswain of the Life-boat reported that a fishing skiff, the Lydia, with four men on board, had lost her sails in trying to enter the bay, and as none of the gear was good, and they had no provisions on board, they were in a helpless and dangerous position. The crew of the Life-boat were summoned, the boat was launched, and proceeding in search of the skiff, found her outside the island of Davaar. The violence of the wind rendered it utterly impossible for the Life-boat to return, so that she was compelled to lay exposed to the storm at the back of the island during the night. The men were wet through, and all the provisions they had consisted of three two-pound loaves for the thirteen Life-boat men and the skiff's crew of four men. In the morning the Honorary Secretaries, Mr. JAMES DONALDSON and the Rev. C. T. WAKEHAM, tried to obtain the services of a steamer, but were unable to do so until the afternoon, and then the Life-boat was towed home, reaching the pier at 3.30 P.M. The best thanks of the Committee were accorded to the Honorary Secretaries for their valuable co-operation on this occasion.—Expense of service, 35*l.* 15*s.*

Feb. 2.—SWANSEA.—Wolverhampton Life-boat.—The ketch Crowpill, of and from Bridgwater, bound for Britonferry, in ballast, stranded on Britonferry bar in a heavy N.W. gale and a very heavy sea, on the 2nd February. The Life-boat was launched at 3.10 P.M., and with considerable difficulty succeeded in rescuing the vessel's crew of four men. Before the arrival of the Life-boat, two ineffectual attempts to rescue the men were made by Neath steam-tugs. The service, which was very well performed, was witnessed by a large concourse of the inhabitants of Neath and Britonferry. Expense of service, 32*l.* 10*s.*

Feb. 3.—WEXFORD.—Andrew Pickard Life-boat.—The yawl Gannet, of Wexford, showed signals of distress, having grounded close to the stones of the north embankment in a strong gale from W. to W.N.W., with heavy squalls and a moderate sea. At 1.45 P.M. the Life-boat proceeded to her assistance and succeeded in getting her into deep water, when she hoisted sail and made for Wexford. It was then found that a tug which had grounded in trying to get close to the fishing-boat was lying across the Life-boat's cable. With some difficulty, however, it was got clear, and the Boat regained her station at 6 P.M.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 10*s.*

Feb. 7.—WALTON-ON-THE-NAZE.—Honourable Artillery Company Life-boat.—A message having been received by telephone from the Gunfleet light-house the crew of the Life-boat were summoned, and at 3.45 A.M. the boat was launched. She proceeded through a rough sea in the direction of the S.W. part of the Gunfleet Sand, but found it impossible to cross owing to a lack of water; she therefore had to run down five miles, succeeded in getting across, and was picked up by a passing steamer which towed her opposite the stranded vessel. She was the ketch Autumn, of Hull, bound from Sunderland for Shadwell, with patent fuel, and had a crew of four men. The Life-boat men were engaged by the captain to get the vessel afloat, and they succeeded in doing so and proceeded towards Harwich. A strong wind and tide were encountered and on reaching the West Rocks H.M. torpedo-destroyer Desperate kindly offered assistance; her offer was gratefully accepted, and she towed the vessel, which was leaking, and the Life-boat to Harwich.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 7.—WINTERTON.—Margaret Life-boat.—The Wold Light-vessel fired rockets and guns, in response to which the Life-boat put off at 4.25 A.M., went to the Middle Hasborough Sand, and searched the sand, but could not find any vessel. She then spoke the steam-tug Gleaner, which towed her to the Light-ship, and on arriving there it was ascertained that a shipwrecked crew were on board. The four men were taken into the Life-boat and safely landed. They stated that the Life-boat had passed them, but having no light, they were unable to attract attention. The tug then towed the Life-boat to Winterton, which was reached at 8.25 A.M. The wrecked vessel was the ketch Robin Hood, of Plymouth, bound from Fowey for Dundee with china clay.—Expense of service, 51*l.* 15*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 10th Feb., 1898.

Voted 323*l.* 13*s.* 8*d.* for launches, watching, or assemblies of crews, of the following Life-boats with the view of assisting those on board vessels in distress:—Abersoch, Angle, Appledore Nos. 1 and 2, Aranmore, Broadstairs, Caister No. 2, Dungarvan, Fleetwood, Gorleston No. 1, Greencastle, Guernsey, Hythe, New Quay (Cornwall), New Romney, Padstow, Palling No. 2, Pwllheli, Rhoscelyn and Winterton.

Also 10*l.* to Winterton beachmen, whose yawl was damaged by the gale and high tide, while the men were engaged on service with the Life-boat, on the 29th November.

The Committee specially recognised the services of one of the crew of the Wells Life-boat, who after 23 years' service has been compelled to retire through blindness; also of retiring members of the crews of Life-boats.

Also 9*l.* 12*s.* to men injured on service at Balbriggan, Hastings, Holyhead, and Howth; also a certificate of service to Mr. Penment Stephenson on retirement from the post of coxswain of the Boulmer Life-boat.

Feb. 21.—STONEHAVEN, KINCARDINESHIRE.—Alexander Black Life-boat.—The sea rose very suddenly, the waves dashing over the piers, while some of the fishing-boats were at sea. At 11.30 A.M. the Life-boat was launched, and made for the boats Silver Eagle and Vine. As it was quite impossible for them to enter the harbour, the Life-boat stood by them for about three hours, when their crews resolved to cast their anchors and come ashore in the Life-boat. Each boat had a crew of five men. In crossing the bar the Life-boat was struck by two or three mountainous seas, but being splendidly handled, was brought into calm water in fine style amid the cheers of a large crowd of people.—Expense of service, 10*l.*

Feb. 21.—ST. ANDREW'S, FIFESHIRE.—Louisa Life-boat.—Two fishing-boats returning from fishing in the bay were placed in a perilous position by a strong N. gale which sprung up, accompanied by a rough sea. One boat was driven on the beach, and the other, which was a mile from the harbour, showed signals of distress. At 3.20 P.M. the Life-boat was launched, proceeded to the boat, and found her leaky and in danger of foundering. Her crew of three men were rescued by the Life-boat, and their boat was left riding at anchor.—Expense of service, 8*l.* 8*s.*

Feb. 21.—WHITBY.—Robert and Mary Ellis Life-boat.—At about 5.30 P.M., while a gale was blowing from N.W., with a rough sea, thick weather and snow, four fishing-cobles which had put into the bay on the previous evening were returning to the harbour. It was seen that they would encounter great danger in crossing the bar, and therefore the Life-boat was launched and rowed to the bar to accompany the boats over. The first one succeeded in getting across in a comparatively smooth sea. On the second attempting to do so, she was caught by a tremendous sea, and for some few seconds it was feared she was doomed; but with the prompt assistance of the Life-boat men and men on the East Pier, she was eventually got into safety. One of the crew was washed overboard, but fortunately retained hold of the boat. The harbour master then hailed the Life-boat, and instructed the coxswain to warn the men in the other two boats not to attempt to enter the harbour, but to anchor their boats and come ashore in the Life-boat. This they did, but unfortunately the boats parted from their anchors in the night, drove on the rocks, and became total wrecks. The boat which the Life-boat men assisted to save was the R. W. Jackson, with a crew of three men. The other two boats were the Tranquil and Martha Dryden, the former having a crew of three men, and the other boat had two men on board.—Expense of service, 30*l.* 15*s.*

Feb. 21.—HOYLAKE, CHESHIRE.—Coard William Squarey Life-boat.—At 6.50 P.M. the Life-boat was launched in a nasty sea, with a moderate N.N.E. breeze, and stood by the s.s. Le Blanc, which had stranded near the Bell Buoy. At high water the vessel was got off the bank with the help of the Life-boat men.—Expense of service, 35*l.* 13*s.*

Feb. 22.—FORMBY.—John and Henrietta Life-boat.—The coxswain of the Life-boat having received a message by cable stating that a vessel was aground on the Great Burbo Bank, the crew of the Life-boat were at once summoned, and at 9.25 A.M. the boat was launched. A strong breeze was blowing from the N.N.E., the sea was rough, and the weather very cold. On reaching the vessel, which proved to be the sloop Beehive, bound from Castletown for Liverpool, laden with turnips, it was found that she had drifted off the sand, but was leaking badly. The Life-boat accompanied her about four miles, when the master stated that he required no further assistance; she therefore returned to her station, arriving at 2 P.M.—Expense of service, 17*l.* 6*s.*

Feb. 25.—MONTROSE.—Robert Henderson Life-boat.—The morning being comparatively fine, with a moderate breeze blowing from S.S.W., the fishing-boats went to sea, but at about 10 o'clock the wind veered to S.S.E. and commenced to blow very strongly, and a heavy sea began to rise. Some of the boats returned and their crews reported that the weather was very bad outside and urged that the Life-boat should be sent to the bar, as there were still about twenty-five boats to come in, and some of them, being small, would run great risk. The coxswain of the Life-boat telephoned to the lighthouse-keeper at Scurdyness as to the state of the bar, and having received a reply that the sea was becoming worse and that he considered it necessary that the Life-boat should go out, the Life-boat put off at 11 o'clock, proceeded to the bar, and remained there until 4 P.M., when the last boat got safely in. Many of the boats had narrow escapes through the heavy seas striking them, and one boat very nearly stranded on the Annat Bank, the tack of her foresail having given way in taking the bar. The Life-boat at once proceeded towards her, but her crew got sail again upon her and succeeded in entering the harbour.—Expense of service, 10*l.*

Feb. 25.—CAISTER.—Beauchamp Life-boat.—Signals of distress were seen in the direction of the Mid Scroby Sand. A heavy sea was running at the time, and a strong wind was blowing from the N. The Life-boat was launched at about 3 o'clock A.M., and on arriving at the sand found the schooner Hermann, of Boekzetelerfehn, bound from Harburg for Poole with oil-cake, had just beaten over the sand and was sinking; her crew of five men were in their boat, which was half full of water and attached to the vessel by about fifty fathoms of rope. The men were taken into the Life-boat, the vessel shortly afterwards foundering in deep water. The Life-boat was towed back to Caister by a steam-tug and the shipwrecked men were conveyed to the Sailors' Home at Great Yarmouth.—Expense of service, 30*l.* 10*s.*

Feb. 25.—NEW BRIGHTON.—Queen steam Life-boat.—The coast-guard on duty having reported a signal of distress in the Crosby Channel at 10 P.M., the Life-boat proceeded in the direction indicated and found the schooner Robert and Elizabeth, of Lancaster, stranded on Crosby Beach. A moderate gale was blowing from W.N.W., and there was a very heavy sea which was washing over the vessel fore and aft. The crew of four men, who were in an exhausted condition, were taken into the Life-boat and landed at New Brighton shortly after midnight.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 2*s.*

Feb. 25.—PENZANCE.—Elizabeth and Blanche Life-boat.—The schooner Mary James of Penzance was being taken into the floating dock when the W. gale caused her to part her warp, and being light she immediately drifted out of the harbour and towards the Cresser reef about four hundred fathoms distant. The Life-boat was launched at 7.25 P.M., and reached the vessel just as she had brought up to two anchors about fifty fathoms from the reef. The crew of ten men decided to leave her, and were landed by the Life-boat at 8.15. About two hours later the wind shifted towards the N. and decreased in force, and the schooner was then taken back to the harbour.—Expense of service, 32*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*

March 2.—SCARBOROUGH.—Queensbury Life-boat.—Signals of distress being shown by the schooner Speculation, of and from Kragerø for Anstruther, with ice, the Life-boat was launched at 6.45 P.M., and proceeded to the vessel, which had lost some of her sails and was without provisions. The master stated that what he required was a tug, and the Life-boat remained at the entrance of the harbour, in readiness to render help if wanted, until a tug arrived.—Expense of service, 27*l*.

March 4.—STAITHES.—Jonathan Stott Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 10.30 A.M., and was out until 1 P.M., standing by the fishing fleet, as the boats arrived, in a strong breeze, a heavy sea and showers of snow.—Expense of service, 13*l*. 10*s*.

March 7. — SHERINGHAM. — William Bennett Life-boat. — The Life-boat was launched at 3 P.M. and proceeded to the aid of the fishing-boats, which had been overtaken by a moderate gale from E.N.E. and a heavy sea. All the boats got safely in with one exception, and in this instance her crew of two men were taken into the Life-boat, and their boat was washed ashore in the evening.—Expense of service, 18*l*.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 10th March, 1898.

Voted 443*l*. 9*s*. in payment for launches or assemblies of the crews of the following Life-boats with the view of assisting the crews of distressed vessels:—Arklow, Broadstairs, Caister No. 1, Deal, Dun- garvan, Exmouth, Eyemouth, Formby, Gorleston No. 1, Holyhead (steam Life-boat), Hoylake, Palling No. 2, Queenstown No. 2, Walmer, Whitby No. 2, Winterton No. 2, and Workington.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was taken out, but her services were not eventually needed.

Voted the Third Service Clasp and a certificate of service to Mr. JOHN CRAGIE, on his retirement from the post of coxswain of the Southwold Life-boat.

Voted 27*l*. to men injured in service at Ilfracombe, North Deal, and Winterton.

The Committee also specially recognised the services of Messrs. RICHARD TUIE and EDWIN HALL, retiring coxswains of Life-boats at Balbriggan and Falmouth; also those of a member of the Cemaes Life-boat crew, on retirement.

March 23.—WELLS, NORFOLK.—Baltic Life-boat.—A fishing-smack being observed with signals of distress flying, while a strong gale was blowing from N.N.E., accompanied by a very heavy sea, the crew of the Life-boat were summoned, and at 5 P.M. the Boat was on her way to the vessel. She was the F. T. B., of Boston, and as it was feared she would founder, her crew of four men left her, got into the Life-boat, and were brought safely to land at 8 o'clock.—Expense of service, 23*l*. 8*s*.

March 24. — KIRKCUDBRIGHT. — Hugh and Ann Life-boat.—The schooner Mary Jane, of Barrow, which had left Maryport for Port William with a cargo of coal on the previous day, entered the river on the 23rd March at 2.30 A.M., and lay in Ross roads awaiting suitable weather to enable her to proceed to Port William. On the following morning the wind blew from N.E. and increased to a gale. The vessel's anchor dragged, her tiller broke, and she commenced to leak. A message was despatched by telephone from Ross Island to the coxswain of the Life-boat, and in response the Life-boat was launched at 12.40 P.M., proceeded to the vessel, rescued her crew, consisting of two men, and landed them at Brighthouse Bay.—Expense of service, 14*l*. 13*s*.

March 24.—FISHGUARD, SOUTH WALES. — Appin Life-boat.—While a whole gale was blowing from the N.E. with heavy squalls of sleet, and the sea was very heavy, signals of distress were shown by a vessel at anchor in the bay, and the crew of the Life-boat were thereupon summoned. Three other vessels subsequently showed signals for assistance. At 10.5 A.M. the Life-boat was launched and proceeded first to the ketch Progress, of Aberystwyth, bound from Aberdovey for Dover, with a cargo of slates; then to the ketch John and Ann of Aberystwyth bound from Newport, Mon., for Goodwick, coal laden; afterwards, to the smack Martha Jane of Aberystwyth, coal laden, from Cardiff for Aberayron; and finally, to the ketch Dolphin of and from Bideford, which had discharged her cargo of gravel at Goodwick. From each of these four vessels the master and crew of two men were rescued by the Life-boat, which then ran for the beach at Goodwick, where all were safely landed. The Dolphin and Martha Jane afterwards parted their cables and drove on to the beach; the John and Ann parted her cables about an hour after her crew had been taken off, sunk in deep water, and became a total wreck; and the Progress rode heavily at her anchors, apparently waterlogged, and eventually sunk.—Expense of service, 17*l.* 1*s.* 3*d.*

March 24.—SOUTHEND (ESSEX).—Theodore and Herbert Life-boat.—A telegram having been received from Lloyd's Station at the pierhead stating that a schooner was ashore on the Nore Sand with signals of distress flying, while a strong gale was blowing from N.N.E., accompanied by a very rough sea and snow, the Life-boat was launched at 5 P.M., and found the stranded vessel was the Hugh Miller of Inverness, laden with salt, from Middlesborough for London. She had driven over the Nore Sand on to the Grain Spit, and had lost her rudder. The Life-boat remained by her until the following morning at the master's request, but as there was no prospect of getting her off, the crew of six men got into the Life-boat, which then made for Sheerness, arriving there at 11 A.M. At 12 o'clock the schooner rolled over on her beam ends and became a total wreck. In consequence of the severity of the gale, the Life-boat had to remain at Sheerness until 6 o'clock on the following morning, when she was able to leave, arriving at Southend pier-head at 9 o'clock.—Expense of service, 37*l.*

March 25.—PENZANCE.—Elizabeth and Blanche Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 8.40 P.M., and proceeded to the assistance of the brigantine Henry Harvey, of Hayle, bound from Runcorn for Lelant with coal, which while endeavouring to make the harbour at Penzance in a strong N.E. gale and a heavy sea, missed stays. An anchor was at once let go, but the cable parted and she struck near the Battery Rocks, where she became a total wreck. She burnt flares for help, and the Life-boat rescued her crew of five men and a woman who was on board, returning safely ashore with them at 10 P.M.—Expense of service, 29*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*

March 25.—ALDEBURGH and HARWICH.—Aldeburgh and City of Glasgow Life-boats.—In response to a message received by telephone, the Aldeburgh Life-boat was launched at 5.30 A.M. in a whole gale from N.E. and a terrific sea, with very heavy rain and snow squalls, and saved the crew of three men from the ketch Ludovicus, of and from West Hartlepool, bound for Orford with coal. The Life-boat then made for Harwich and landed the rescued men. To return to her station would have entailed a dead beat to windward against a very heavy gale, and as, moreover, there was too much sea on the shoals to allow of a landing at Aldeburgh, it was decided to remain at Harwich until the gale moderated. At 5.30 on the following afternoon the Life-boat men were sitting at tea when the signal gun was heard, a message by telephone having been received reporting a vessel on the Maplin Sands. The crew at once manned the Life-boat, proceeded to the sands, and found the s.s. Pampa, of and from Hamburg for San Francisco, with a general cargo and twenty-four persons on board. The Aldeburgh Life-boat reached her at 7.45 P.M., and shortly afterwards the Institution's Harwich steam Life-boat City of Glasgow and the private Life-boat True to the Core, of Walton-on-the-Naze, arrived. The Life-boat men assisted to jettison the cargo in order to lighten the vessel, and with the help of two tugs she was got off the sand at 3.30 on the morning of the 28th, and proceeded to Gravesend, some of the Life-boat men accompanying her. The Aldeburgh then started for home and just after daylight observed a vessel apparently ashore. The Swin Middle light-vessel was spoken, and those on board having stated that they thought the vessel was stranded, and that they were about to fire guns for a Life-boat, the Aldeburgh proceeded to her and found she was the barque Magdimeta, of Risör, laden with ice from Christiania for London. She was lying on the Heape Sands, her back was broken and she was full of water. Her crew of ten men were saved by the Life-boat, which then resumed her journey to Aldeburgh, falling in with the s.s. Moness, of Hartlepool, which very kindly gave her a tow, and arriving at her station at 1.45 P.M. The Aldeburgh Life-boat men were thus engaged on service more than a hundred hours, and contributed to the saving of thirty-seven lives.—Pampa, property salvage case.—Expense of other services, 83*l.* 9*s.*

March 25.—DOVER.—Lewis Morice Life-boat.—While a strong gale was blowing from N.E., accompanied by a heavy sea, two vessels in the bay showed signals of distress, and at 10 A.M. the Life-boat put off to their assistance. She first proceeded to a fishing smack and ascertained that she wanted a tug. The Life-boat anchored, and was afterwards towed by the tug alongside the other vessel, the galliot Norden, of Haugesund. The master stating that he required assistance to get the vessel into harbour, four of the Life-boat men boarded her, one of them steering her and she was taken safely into port.—Property salvage case.—Balance of expenses, 23*l.* 1*s.* 6*d.*

March 25. — WEST HARTLEPOOL. — Forester's Pride Life-boat. — While a strong wind was blowing from E.N.E., and in a very high sea, the coxswain of the Life-boat saw the schooner Johannes, of Grossefehn, in the bay at 9 A.M. At about 3 o'clock in the afternoon he observed a tug go out, evidently with the intention of towing her into dock. The schooner wore round with her head to the S., and the tug followed her for some distance, but as she was running into danger, the Longscar Rocks being ahead, the tug turned round. Observing this, and seeing breakers ahead, the schooner wore round to the N., but was unable to follow the tug, and gradually drifted towards the land. Seeing that the vessel was in danger, the coxswain decided to launch the Life-boat, and with considerable difficulty rescued the vessel's crew of five men. She stranded near the battery, about five hundred yards N. of the Life-boat house.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.*

March 25. — YOUGHAL, CO. CORK. — Mary Luckombe Life-boat. — The ketch Gipsy, of Youghal, returning from Cork, with no cargo or ballast on 24th March, found that with a strong head wind and an ebb tide she could not enter the harbour; she therefore ran for shelter under Blackball Head and anchored. The wind increased to a strong gale accompanied by a rough sea, and finding her anchor dragging, she slipped her cable at high water, about 7 P.M., and headed for the harbour entrance, but being light she became unmanageable, and was driven ashore about a mile and a half S.W. of the harbour. A heavy sea was breaking round her, but as the tide was falling, those on board were in no immediate danger, and as in all probability they would be able to get her off with the morning's tide, it was considered unnecessary to send the Life-boat to their assistance. At 4.30 A.M., however, the weather having become more boisterous, the Life-boat was launched and rescued the crew, consisting of three men.—Expense of service, 33*l.*

March 26. — SUNDERLAND, SOUTH OUTLET. — Richard and Nellie Hodges Life-boat. — While a whole gale was blowing from E.N.E., accompanied by a very heavy sea, snow and hail, the three-masted schooner Arion, of Bremerhaven, laden with coal, stranded on Hendon Beach and became a total wreck. At 10 A.M. the Life-boat was launched and rescued the vessel's crew, consisting of eight men. The service, which was an excellent one — the Life-boat being handled with great skill and judgment — was witnessed by a large number of people who gathered on the cliffs and beach and gave tremendous cheers as the last man from the schooner, the skipper, got into the boat. Some of the men were in an exhausted state and had to be supported; all of them as they walked through the crowd were heartily welcomed with hand-shakes and cheers.—Expense of service, 28*l.* 13*s.*

March 26. — RAMSGATE. — Bradford Life-boat. — While a moderate gale was blowing from N.E., with a heavy sea, the smack Ismene, of Ramsgate, was seen in Pegwell Bay, burning flares for assistance. The Life-boat proceeded out, in tow of the steam-tug Aid, at 7 P.M., and ascertained that the vessel had struck the sandbank at the mouth of the harbour and that one of her crew of three men had been injured at sea. One of the Life-boat men boarded the smack and stood by her until the tide made, when the tug towed both the Life-boat and the smack into the harbour, arriving at 11 P.M.—Payment arranged by Board of Trade.

March 27. — FLAMBOROUGH. — Matthew Middlewood Life-boat. — At noon a telephone message was received from Bridlington asking that the Life-boat might take provisions to the steamer Hartside, of Newcastle, which was lying off Sewerby. A gale of wind was blowing from the N.E., accompanied by a heavy sea, snow and rain. Shortly after the receipt of the message the Life-boat was launched and took out provisions, which were gratefully received by the steamer's crew, to whom the Life-boat men also gave all the tobacco they had with them. Signals were then shown by the brigantine Kathleen, of Lowestoft, and the Life-boat at once proceeded to her. Her store of provisions was nearly exhausted, and five of her crew were anxious to go ashore. They got into the Life-boat, two other men deciding to remain in the ship, were landed, and on the following morning returned to the vessel. — Expense of service, 13*l.* 16*s.*

March 27. — HARTLEPOOL. — Charles Ingleby and Cyclist Life-boats.—The Life-boats were taken out three times with the view of assisting vessels which were in danger in a gale of wind backing from E.N.E. to N.E., accompanied by a very high sea. The first vessel, the schooner Baltic, of Drammen, stranded behind West Hartlepool South Pier, where the seas were tremendous, the waves from seaward meeting those rebounding from the pier. The crew of the Charles Ingleby made a gallant and determined effort to reach the schooner, but were driven back to within about a boat's length of the pier, some distance N. of the vessel. After regaining control of the boat, and it being impossible in such a sea to reach the vessel from where she then was, she endeavoured to get to windward; and while doing so, the first of a number of rockets was fired from the shore, the shipwrecked crew being eventually saved by means of the rocket apparatus. Seeing the hazardous nature of the attempt made by the Charles Ingleby, and as other vessels were apparently in difficulties, it was decided to take out the Cyclist Life-boat, to be at hand if required. Another schooner, the Dagmar, was observed about to drop her anchor, with her topsail and other sail still set. The coxswain of the Charles Ingleby Life-boat, fearing that the cable would part and the vessel would be driven ashore, advised the master to try to get between the piers into West Hartlepool Harbour. This advice he promptly followed, with the result that he just managed to get in, striking the North Pier a side blow, but saving his ship and crew. The two Life-boats then proceeded to the German barque Mermaid, and stood by her until with the assistance of a steam-tug she was got into the harbour. The boats reached the harbour at 6.30, and an hour afterwards went out to the assistance of the schooner Vilfrid. A tug also went to her but failed to get communication, after twice getting her line on board, as the vessel had no towrope to give the tug. The schooner drifted to leeward and struck close to the Baltic. The Life-boats endeavoured to reach her, and the Charles Ingleby, which was furthest out, was struck by several of the tremendous seas which were still breaking. The boat was compelled to lay head to sea, and signal for the assistance of the other Life-boat; and while she was approaching, another heavy sea struck the Charles Ingleby, breaking three of her oars. A rocket from the shore was fired over the vessel, and as her crew could then be taken off by the rocket apparatus, the Life-boats returned to the harbour at 8.15. As they passed the tug at the bar, they were informed that the light of another vessel making for the harbour had been seen. Having taken in a fresh supply of spare oars for the Charles Ingleby the boats therefore again went out and searched the bay, but could find no trace of the reported vessel. At 9.30 they returned to the harbour. The crews landed, went round the cliffs, and looked out for the ship's light, but none could be seen. The Life-boats were moored in the harbour all night, so as to be immediately available if required, and were housed on the following morning. — Expense of services, 59*l.* 8*s.*

March 27. — PALLING. — Good Hope Life-boat.—A telephone message was received from Bacton reporting a barque with signals of distress flying, while a whole gale was blowing from N.E. by E., the sea was very heavy and the weather very cold, with squalls of hail. The crew of the Life-boat were summoned, the Life-boat was launched at 11.50 p.m. at Waxham, whither she had been taken by road on her transporting carriage. Several of the helpers were swept away from the boat and carriage by the heavy seas, and the launch altogether was a very difficult one. The Chief Officer of Coastguard passed two rocket lines which were fast to the vessel to the Life-boat men, and by means of these the Boat was got within a length and a half of the wreck, but a high bank lying between the ship and the boat prevented the latter from getting alongside. Some of the crew got out of the boat and succeeded in throwing the heaving cane and line on board the ship, with a veering line attached, and the bowman of the Life-boat boarded the vessel. With the help of those on shore four men were landed, but four others were helpless from long exposure. The coxswain of the Life-boat, with assistance, then got on board, hauled in the whip of the rocket apparatus and by means of this the men were safely landed, the last man reaching the shore at 2 A.M. The vessel was the barque Hilda, of Frederickstadt.—Expense of service, 43*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*

March 28.—BROADSTAIRS.—Frances Forbes Barton Life-boat.—The coast-guard on duty reported a vessel, burning flares, off the North Foreland at 3.45 A.M. The Life-boat was launched at 4 o'clock, and found the barge Anglo-Saxon about two miles off the Foreland. She had left Ramsgate only a few hours when her steering-gear became disabled, and becoming unmanageable she broached to and was in danger of sinking. The sea fortunately moderating, her crew contrived to get her under control by lashing a spar to the rudder-head. The coxswain of the Life-boat offered to assist to take the barge back to Ramsgate gratuitously, and the offer being accepted, one of the Life-boat men went on board to pilot her, the boat remaining by her until she arrived at Ramsgate at 8 o'clock.—Expense of service, 34*l.* 9*s.*

March 29.—BLYTH, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Dalmer and Oswald, Sarah and Jane Life-boats.—Signals of distress were sent up by the s.s. Dan, of Copenhagen, which had stranded on the Sow and Pigs rocks a little to the eastward of Blyth Harbour, and in response the Life-boats were launched and remained by the vessel until she floated off with the rising tide. The steamer was bound from Ghent, in ballast, for Blyth, and was making for the dry dock for repairs.—Expense of services, 46*l.* 8*s.*

April 1.—WITHERNSEA.—Admiral Rous Life-boat.—Intelligence having been received that a fishing smack and a large steamer had stranded, the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the assistance of the vessels. A dense fog prevailed at the time and there was a heavy ground swell. The steamer succeeded in getting afloat again and resumed her journey, but the fishing boat, the dandy Fertile, of Grimsby, with a crew of five men, was not so fortunate. At the request of the master the Life-boat remained alongside the vessel and ultimately, with the help of two steam-tugs, she was got afloat and was taken home to Grimsby.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 15*s.*

April 6.—FLEETWOOD.—Maude Pickup Life-boat.—Signals of distress being shown by the steam trawler Diana, of Grimsby, which had stranded on Barnard's Wharf in a strong W.S.W. breeze, a heavy sea, and thick weather, the Life-boat was launched at 11.45 P.M., and on reaching the vessel found her in a sinking condition. She had lost her propeller, rudder and stern post, and several feet of her keel had been torn away by continually striking on the bank. The tide had floated her and was drifting her off the bank into deep water. The master, acting on the advice of the coxswain of the Life-boat, let go the anchor as the vessel was unmanageable, and with the aid of the donkey engines succeeded in keeping the water under until, with the aid of a tug which was summoned by the Life-boat, the vessel was taken into the harbour.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.*

April 6.—HOLYHEAD.—Duke of Northumberland Steam Life-boat.—The s.s. Dahomey, of London, bound from Liverpool for West Africa, with a general cargo, stranded on the rocks between the breakwater and the North Stack in a thick fog. On receipt of intelligence of the casualty the Life-boat, at about 10.15 P.M., proceeded to the vessel, and first of all took off the passengers, nine in number, and four of the crew. Having safely landed them, the Life-boat returned to the vessel and found that a steam-tug had arrived and was ready to render any assistance. The mails having been taken on board the Life-boat and landed, another trip was made with the parcel post packages and the passengers' luggage, and on returning once more to the vessel the master and Lloyd's agent requested her to remain by, and she accordingly stayed until about 7 o'clock in the morning.—Expense of first service, 7*l.* 3*s.* 9*d.* Other services paid for by owners of vessel.

April 7.—KILMORE, Co. WEXFORD.—John Robert Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 12.30 P.M., the coxswain having observed from his house a barque apparently ashore on Crossfarnogue Point.

The vessel, which had grounded in thick weather, a moderate W.S.W. breeze and a smooth sea, was the Haweswater, of and for Liverpool, in ballast, from Port Natal. At the request of the master the Life-boat remained by her until about an hour after high water and then returned ashore, and eventually the ship's crew abandoned her and landed, as there was a probability of her becoming a total wreck.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 18*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 7th April, 1898.

Voted 75*l.* 4*s.* 6*d.* to defray the cost of launches, watching, or assemblies of crews of the following Life-boats, with the view of assisting the crews of vessels in distress:—Bridlington, Brixham, Caister Nos. 1 and 2, Clacton, Donna Nook, Falmouth, Gorleston No. 1, Grimsby, Harwich (steam Life-boat), Hayle, Hoylake, Kingsdowne, Lowestoft No. 2, Margate, Palling No. 2, Saltburn, Seaham, Seaton Carew, St. Ives, Sunderland South Pier, Sutton, Tynemouth No. 1, Walton-on-the-Naze, Whitelink Bay, Winterton Nos. 1 and 2, and Great Yarmouth.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was also taken out, but her aid was not required.

Voted 180*l.* compensation to the owners of four horses drowned in an attempt to launch the Margate Life-boat for service on the 24th March.

Also an aneroid barometer to Mr. THOMAS JEPHCOFF, Honorary Secretary of the Margate Branch, in recognition of his good services on the occasion of the attempted launch of the Life-boat on 24th March, and of the valuable aid he has rendered on previous occasions in connection with Life-boat work.

The Committee specially recognised the services of Mr. HY. MACFADYN, retiring coxswain of the Southend (Cantyre) Life-boat.

Also of the retiring coxswains at Kessingland and Carnsore.

Also 21*l.* 8*s.* grants to, and medical expenses incurred by, five men injured at Kessingland, Lowestoft, Winterton and Tynemouth.

April 9.—CLOUGHY, Co. DOWN.—Faith Life-boat.—The barque Beaconsfield, of Drammen, laden with teak from Rangoon for Greenock, via Falmouth, stranded on the ridge inside North Rock in a strong

S.S.W. breeze and a rough sea. She fired signals of distress, and at 11.20 P.M. the Life-boat proceeded to her assistance. Two of the crew got into the Life-boat and were safely landed. The others refused to leave the vessel unless they were allowed to take their kits with them, but as the crew themselves numbered sixteen men, the coxswain of the Life-boat was unable to accede to their request. On the following morning the wind freshened, and at about 1 P.M. the men hoisted a signal of distress, the Life-boat again went off to the ship and brought ashore seven of the crew. The other seven men took to one of their own boats, one of the Life-boat men taking charge of it, and by 4.50 P.M. all were safely on shore.—Expense of service, 26*l.* 13*s.*

April 11.—FISHGUARD, PEMBROKESHIRE.

—Appin Life-boat.—While a strong gale was blowing from N. accompanied by a heavy sea, thick weather, rain and hail, the three-masted schooner Mary Lloyd, of Carnarvon, laden with slates, from Portmadoc bound for Hamburg, was seen dragging her anchor and drifting towards the dangerous rocks on the Dinas side of the bay. The Life-boat was launched at 8.10 P.M., sailed to the vessel and reached her in about twenty minutes. At the master's request some of the Life-boat men boarded the schooner, more chain was paid out with the view of bringing her up if possible, and eventually her crew of seven men took to the Life-boat, it being dangerous to remain any longer on board their vessel. The Life-boat then proceeded to the ketch Elizabeth, of Newport, Mon., bound from Cardigan to Pembroke Dock, with a cargo of bricks, which was riding heavily and in danger of parting her cable. Two of her crew got into the Life-boat, but the third man resolutely declined to leave the vessel which fortunately held to her anchor.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 6*s.* 3*d.*

April 12.—RHYL, NORTH WALES.—

Caroline Richardson Life-boat.—Signals of distress having been observed, the Life-boat was launched at about 3.30 A.M., and found the yacht Ripple, of and for Liverpool, from Conway, with three men on board, at anchor about a mile outside the mouth of the Voyrd River, having been prevented from entering the harbour, as had been intended, by the heavy seas. A moderate gale was blowing from the N.W., the weather was thick, there was a rough sea, and it was extremely probable that if the yacht remained where she was until low water she would go to pieces. In about three quarters of an hour, the weather having moderated, the coxswain of the Life-boat advised the yachtsmen to slip their cable and either follow the Life-boat to the Voyrd river or run for the Chester river. They adopted the latter course, the Life-boat seeing her fairly on her way.—Expense of service, 19*l.* 18*s.* 1*d.*

April 13.—RAMSEY, ISLE OF MAN.—Mary Isabella Life-boat.—While the wind was blowing from S.S.W., with the force of a strong breeze to a moderate gale, very squally, with a somewhat rough sea, and rain, a signal of distress was shown by the ketch Newlands, of Belfast, which was dragging her anchor about a mile E. of the harbour. The Life-boat was launched at 7.38 P.M., took off the crew of two men, and two pilots who had boarded the vessel in the morning to try to get her into the harbour, and safely landed them at 8.15.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 15*s.*

April 13.—MONTROSE.—Robert Henderson Life-boat.—At about 9 A.M. the wind commenced to blow from S.S.E., and the sea rose quickly; the coxswains of the Life-boats were therefore on the watch during the day in case there should be any call for their services. A large number of the fishing-boats had gone to sea in the early morning, but most of them had returned safely by noon. In the afternoon the wind increased to a strong gale, with a heavy sea, rain, and thick and very cold weather. Four of the boats had not come back and a sharp look-out was kept for them. At about 5.30 one of the boats was observed making for the harbour, and it was evident she would encounter much difficulty and danger in effecting an entrance, as the sea was breaking frequently right over the bar. The Life-boat was therefore launched, pulled down against wind and tide, and reached the harbour mouth just in time to see the boat, the Tisiphone, safely over the bar. Anticipating the arrival of the other boats, the Life-boat remained inside the bar, and at about 7.30 assisted two of them to cross. The last one reported that the fourth boat had been seen running N., evidently for Stonehaven or Aberdeen. The Life-boat then proceeded back to her station, but while going up the river saw a schooner running for the harbour; she therefore went back and by means of a flag guided the vessel safely in. The schooner proved to be the Gleaner, returning to Montrose after a voyage to Newcastle.—Expense of service, 10*l.*

April 13.—PETERHEAD.—George Pickard Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 2.20 P.M. to the assistance of a fishing boat which was in danger, her mast having been carried away in a whole gale from S.E. and a heavy sea. Other boats, however, went to the rescue, and she was towed into the harbour. The Life-boat, therefore, gave her attention to other fishing-boats, and remained in attendance until they succeeded in making the harbour.—Expense of service, 17*l.* 19*s.*

April 15.—CULLERCOATS, NORTHUMBRLAND.—Co-operator No. 1 Life-boat.—In the morning several fishing-cobles were out, chiefly engaged with the crab pots, when the sea began to rise. Six of the boats returned before the sea reached its height, one of these shipping a sea in crossing the bar. The Life-boat was launched at 9.20, proceeded to the bar, and for four hours was occupied in escorting the boats across as they arrived.—Expense of service, 8*l.* 11*s.*

April 15.—HAUXLEY, NORTHUMBRLAND.—Algernon and Eleanor Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 1 P.M., and stood by the fishing-coble Guiding Star, of Hauxley, which had been overtaken by a very heavy sea. The other boats had landed, the last one to arrive being several times nearly swamped, and the Guiding Star was seen about two miles to the S., her crew rowing against the tide, it being impossible to sail, and having to round the Bondicar buoy, where she would encounter considerable danger. The Life-boat met the boat near the buoy and accompanied her to the shore.—Expense of service, 10*l.*

April 15.—FILEY.—Hollon the Second Life-boat.—Six fishing-cobles which had gone out in the morning being overtaken by a heavy sea, the Life-boat was launched at 1.30 P.M., when the boats came in sight, passed lifebelts on board them, and escorted them to the shore.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 5*s.*

April 15.—SCARBOROUGH.—Queensbury Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 1.15 p.m., and rendered assistance to several fishing cobles which were in danger in a heavy sea. At 6 o'clock the Life-boat returned to the shore, and her crew, who were fatigued by their exertions, having been replaced by a fresh one, the Boat again went out. Thirty-two men were landed from the cobles, and the boats were towed into the harbour one at a time.—Expense of service, 17l. 5s.

April 16.—WHITBY.—John Fielden Life-boat.—At about 11 a.m., the Life-boat was launched to the aid of fishing-cobles which were in danger in a rough sea. The Life-boat stood by the boats and at 1.30 returned to the shore, the last coble having by that time safely reached the harbour.—Expense of service, 10l. 14s.

April 27.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Robert and Susan Life-boat.—A heavy sea rapidly sprung up, seriously endangering six cobles which had gone out to fish, and were returning to port. The Life-boat was launched at about noon and escorted each of the boats through the worst part of their journey. They were all in safety at 3 p.m.—Expense of service, 9l. 15s.

April 28.—WHITBY.—John Fielden Life-boat.—The Life-boat went to the assistance of endangered fishing-cobles, and remained by the boats until they safely crossed the bar and entered the harbour.—Expense of service, 10l. 2s.

April 28.—NORTH SUNDERLAND.—Thomas Bewick Life-boat.—While the fishing-boats were out the sea suddenly rose, compelling them to return home. All the boats succeeded in entering the harbour safely with the exception of two, and to assist these, the Life-boat was launched at 11.30 a.m. One of the boats went back to the Farne Islands, but the other, the coble Beautiful Star, happily succeeded in entering the harbour, the Life-boat standing by her until she was in safety.—Expense of service, 9l. 10s.

April 28.—PETERHEAD.—George Pickard Life-boat.—In the evening the wind increased to a gale from E.S.E., and a heavy sea sprung up, and as some fishing-boats were expected to arrive from Shetland, and the approach to the harbour was dangerous, it was decided to launch the Life-boat into the harbour, so as to be immediately available should her services be required. A watch was kept by the crew, half of them being on duty the first part of the night and the others relieving them. About 9 o'clock on the following morning the Maggie M. Birnie was observed, and the Life-boat at once proceeded to meet her and stood by her until she was towed into the harbour by the steam-tug.—Expense of service, 10l. 4s. 6d.

April 29.—STAITHES, YORKSHIRE.—Jonathan Stott Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 10 a.m. and stood by the cobles which were returning home, having been overtaken while out fishing by a rough sea and a thick fog.—Expense of service, 9l. 8s.

April 30.—CRESSWELL, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Ellen and Eliza Life-boat.—In the morning, while the wind was blowing half a gale from S.E., accompanied by a heavy sea, the s.s. Strathcarron, of Glasgow, bound from Danzig for Philadelphia, via the Tyne, laden with sugar, was observed stranded on the rocks at Brig Head. She had run aground in a dense fog, and before she was seen from the shore the mate and three of the crew took one of their boats and made for the land; the boat was capsized, but fortunately the men were able to swim to the shore. At 5 o'clock the Life-boat was launched, proceeded to the vessel and at the master's request remained by her. It was however found impossible to get the vessel afloat and, as it seemed probable that she would become a total wreck, it was decided to abandon her, and in two trips the Life-boat brought safely ashore the twenty-seven men on board, all being safely landed at 7.15.—Property salvage case.

May 2.—HILBEE ISLAND, CHESHIRE.—Admiral Briggs Life-boat.—It having been reported that some of the boats engaged in cockle-fishing were in a dangerous position on the West Hoyle bank, the Life-boat was launched at 4.25 p.m., and in two trips rescued three boats, the Emblem, Times and Delembra, belonging to Parkgate, and their crews consisting of six men and two women. A strong gale was blowing from E.S.E., the sea was choppy and the weather squally at the time these services were rendered.—Expense of service, 14l.

May 5th.—GREAT YARMOUTH.—John Burch Life-boat.—A schooner, which proved to be the Ocean Wave, of Fowey, coal laden, from Shields for Plymouth, was seen stranded on the Scroby Sand in thick weather. At 6.50 P.M. the Life-boat proceeded to her assistance, and with the help of a steam-tug succeeded in getting her afloat, and took her into the roadstead where she anchored.—Property salvage case. Balance of expenses, 5*l*.

May 11.—FLEETWOOD.—Maude Pickup Life-boat.—While a strong W.N.W. gale was blowing, accompanied by a heavy broken sea, the barque Margarethe, of Borgo, Finland, bound from Fleetwood for Canada, stranded on Barnard's Wharf. The Life-boat was launched in response to signals at 11.40 A.M., and was towed to the vessel by the harbour steam-tug Brock. Heavy seas were breaking over her, and, being only in ballast, she was lifted and tossed about by every gust and wave. Great caution had therefore to be exercised in approaching her and rescuing her crew. The Life-boat was skilfully handled by the coxswain, and in less than ten minutes the eleven men on board the barque were taken into the boat, and at 12.45 were safely ashore.—Expense of service, 13*l*. 19*s*.

May 11.—RAMSEY, ISLE OF MAN.—Mary Isabella Life-boat.—Signals of distress being shown by the brigantine Parkside, of Dundalk, while a strong gale was blowing from W.N.W. with a heavy sea, the Life-boat put off to her assistance at 9.55 A.M. Having become unmanageable the vessel had been anchored but was very close to the Whitestone Bank. Her crew of five men, fearing she would founder, had put on lifebelts and had their kits ready to take with them into the Life-boat, and at noon the boat returned to her station with the men and their belongings.—Expense of service, 11*l*. 2*s*.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 12th May, 1898.

Voted 217*l*. 5*s*. 9*d*. for assemblies of crews or launches with the view of rendering service by the following Life-boats:—Blakeney, Broadstairs, Caister No. 2, Cemaes, Cemlyn, Ferryside, Fethard, Fraserburgh, Holyhead (steam Life-boat), Montrose No. 1, Porth Rhuffydd, Tenby, West Hartlepool, Whitehaven, Whitelink Bay and Yealm River.

The Committee specially recognised the services of MESSRS. JAS. SHEARER and JOHN SHERIDAN, COXSWAINS of the Stromness and Drogheda No. 1 Life-boats.

Also those of the assistant coxswain of the Balbriggan Life-boat, on retirement.

Voted 2*l*. to a man injured on service at Mevagissey.

May 20.—BROUGHTY FERRY.—Samuel Shawcross Life-boat.—The brig Speculation, of Christiania, bound from Tapport for Bremen, with coal, was in tow of a steam-tug in a strong N.E. wind and a choppy sea, when the tow-rope broke. Another hawser was attached, but that rope also parted and the vessel began to drift towards the Abertay Sands. As quickly as possible a third rope was passed on board, but, although the rope was able to stand the strain, the brig's windlass gave way, the vessels were once more separated, and the brig went aground on the sands and heeled over. Her dangerous position being observed from the shore, the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to her. The seas were breaking over her, she had several feet of water in her hold and was gradually settling down. The heavy swell rendered it impossible for the Life-boat to approach her, and therefore the boat anchored and waited for a lull in the storm, when she succeeded in getting alongside and, with considerable danger, rescued the crew, consisting of seven men, some of their belongings and the ship's papers. The vessel became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 13*l*. 5*s*. 6*d*.

May 21.—SUTTON, LINCOLNSHIRE.—Sir John Life-boat.—A message by telephone being received stating that a steamer was aground about two hundred yards south of Huttoft, the Life-boat was launched at 12.45 P.M., and found the vessel was the Thelma, of Christiania, bound from Hamburg for Grimsby, in ballast. She had stranded in the foggy weather which prevailed at the time. The Life-boat stood by her until she was afloat, the coxswain explaining to the master his exact position and giving him his course. No further assistance being needed, the Life-boat sailed back to the station, arriving there at 4 P.M.—Expense of service, 14*l*. 6*s*.

May 26.—ST. AGNES, ISLES OF SCILLY.—James and Caroline Life-boat.—Signals having been fired by the Bishop Rock

Lighthouse, the Life-boat was launched at 12.15 P.M., and found the lugger Nyanza, of Penzance, engaged in the mackerel fishery, at Crebawethan, where she had been run ashore, having been damaged by striking on rocks. One of her crew was taken off by an island fishing-boat, and the remainder, four in number, were landed by the Life-boat at St. Mary's. The Life-boat also saved some of the gear of the vessel, which was expected to become a total wreck.—Expense of service, 8*l.* 10*s.*

June 1.—WHITBURN.—William and Charles Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 11.30 P.M., and landed a man from the coble Guiding Star. Whilst he was out attending to his crab-pots, a heavy sea rose and he was in considerable peril; the surf was breaking so heavily that it would have been impossible for him to have landed in the coble.—Expense of service, 12*l.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 9th June, 1898.

Voted 120*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.* to pay for launches or assemblies of crews of the following Life-boats with the view of assisting vessels in distress:—Broughty Ferry, Caister No. 2, Cardigan, Gorleston No. 1, Kildonan, Mablethorpe, Mullion, Polpear, Winterton No. 1, and Great Yarmouth.

Also 41*l.* 10*s.* to men injured while on service with the Bridlington, Clacton-on-Sea, Kingsdowne and Torquay Life-boats.

The Committee specially recognised the services of Mr. DAVID SINCLAIR, Coxswain of the Irvine Life-boat, on resignation, also of one of the crew who retired on account of old age, also of the late Second Coxswain at Youghal.

June 24.—HILBRE ISLAND.—Admiral Briggs Life-boat.—Having received intelligence that a yawl was in a very dangerous position close to the rocks on the west side of the island, the Life-boat was launched at 12.40 P.M., and proceeded through a rough sea to the spot where the yawl Conovium, of Beaumaris, was stranded. The master requested that some of the Life-boat men might board the vessel and try to get her off. With some difficulty she was got afloat, and the Life-boat then returned to her station, arriving at 2.55 P.M.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 18*s.*

JUNE 27.—WINTERTON.—Margaret and Edward Birkbeck Life-boats.—The full-rigged ship Galatea, of Greenock, bound from Hamburg to Sydney with a general cargo, stranded on Hammond's Knoll, in a fresh N.E. breeze, a rough sea and thick weather. The look-out man at Winterton, having observed her, at once gave an alarm, and at 8.30 A.M. the No. 2 Life-boat was launched, and proceeded to the vessel in tow of a steam-tug. The master having engaged the Life-boat men to try to get the ship off, the tug was despatched to Winterton to fetch more help, and returned with the No. 1 Life-boat. The wind and sea, however, increased, the ship was fast filling with water, and ultimately all efforts to save her had to be abandoned, and she became a total wreck, her crew of twenty-five men being rescued by the Life-boats.—Expense of service, 85*l.* 10*s.*

JUNE 29.—WALMER.—Civil Service No. 4. Lift-boat.—Guns were heard in the direction of the Middle Light-vessel during hazy weather at about 10.15 A.M. and shortly afterwards a barque was discerned stranded close to the Light-vessel. The Life-boat was launched, proceeded to the sand, and found the stranded vessel was the barque River Thames. She belonged to Flekkefjord, and was on a voyage from Hamburg for Pensacola, in ballast. The ebbing tide had left her dry on the sands, and the Life-boat was unable to get alongside until half-past one. The master stated that he had engaged a boat to go to Dover for a tug, and he requested that the Life-boat would remain by him until high water. Two tugs arrived, and at six o'clock succeeded in towing the vessel off, and took her to the Downs. The Life-boat left her at 7.30, and half an hour later returned to her station.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 18*s.*

JULY 12.—WHITHORN.—Henry and John Leighton Life-boat.—In the evening several small boats were fishing for mackerel while a moderate breeze was blowing from W. The wind suddenly shifted to N., and increased to a strong gale. One of the boats contained the coxswain of the Life-boat, and on board others were the assistant coxswain and other Life-boat men. They managed with considerable difficulty to get into port, but another member of the crew, whose boat was farther out in the offing, was seen drifting fast to sea. The Acting Honorary Secretary had the keys of the Life-boat house ready, and a few minutes after landing in their own boats the men were off in the Life-boat proceeding to the assistance of their endangered comrade. They came up with him about five miles distant from the land, took him into the Life-boat, and towed his boat home. When the gale came on he let go his anchor, but the rope parted, and in trying to pull to the shore he broke one of his oars, and was therefore in a helpless condition when rescued.—Expense of service, 6*l.* 4*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 14th July, 1898.

Voted 56*l.* 13*s.* for launches, assemblies, or watching by the Palling Nos. 1 and 2, Plymouth, Poolbeg and Tynemouth No. 2 Life-boats.

Voted the silver medal and a certificate of service to Mr. WILLIAM TODD on his resignation from the post of Coxswain of the Gorleston No. 2. Life-boat.

The Committee also specially recognised the services of Messrs. JAMES McCARTNEY and WALTER G. HUNKIN, Coxswains of Girvan and Mevagsissey Life-boats, on resignation of office.

Also a special grant to the widow of the late Coxswain of the Hartlepool No. 3 Life-boat.

Also 126*l.* 5*s.* to a man who was seriously injured while assisting to launch the Kingsdowne Life-boat for service on the 2nd May, last year.

Also 18*l.* 4*s.* to men injured while on service with the Swansea, Whitby No. 1, Winterton, and Worthing Life-boats.

Also 25*l.* to the widow and children of one of the crew of the boat Young Odd-fellows, of Gorleston, who was drowned by the capsizing of that boat on the 8th July. He had been, for more than thirty years, a highly respected member of the Gorleston Life-boat crew.

July 23. — POINT OF AYR. — H. G. Powell Life-boat.—The dandy Thomas Stratton, of Maldon, bound from Swansea for Mostyn, laden with burnt ore, stranded on the West Hoyle Bank in a strong breeze from N.W., and a choppy, breaking sea. She commenced to leak, and hoisted a signal of distress, in response to which the Life-boat was launched at 8.45 A.M., and proceeded to her assistance. A steam-tug took the boat to windward of the vessel; she was then cast off and continued her journey under sail and oars. Some of the Life-boat men boarded her to assist at the pumps, as by that time she was leaking very badly, and with the aid of a tug the vessel was taken to Mostyn, the Life-boat men continuing pumping until she arrived there. — Expense of service, 15*l.* 9*s.*

Aug. 5. — NEW BRIGHTON. — Queen Steam Life-boat.—The chief officer of coastguard at Blundell Sands reported by telegraph that a steam flat was stranded on Seaforth Beach. The vessel was also observed from New Brighton. The steam Life-boat left her moorings at 12.7 P.M., and proceeded to the assistance of the vessel, over which heavy seas were breaking, but her crew refused to leave her, and were anxious that the Life-boat should remain by them until they were out of danger. The Life-boat remained near until the men were able to walk ashore and then returned to her moorings; the vessel, which was the Bessie, of and from Liverpool for Runcorn, in ballast, being left on the beach full of water.—Expense of service, 4*l.* 16*s.*

Aug. 6.—POLPEAR, LIZARD.—Edmund and Fanny Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 9 A.M., and proceeded to the four-masted barque Vortigern, of and from London, bound for Calcutta with a cargo of jute. She was found to be anchored in Pentreath Bay, having narrowly escaped stranding in the fog, but as she was embayed the Life-boat, at the master's request, remained by her until the arrival of a steam-tug which took her in tow for Falmouth.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 4*s.*

Aug. 7.—ALDEBURGH and THORPENESS. — Aldeburgh and Christopher North Graham Life-boats.—A telephone message being received from the Shipwash Light-vessel reporting a vessel on the sands, the Life-boat Aldeburgh was launched at 2.30 P.M. in a rough sea, a strong E.N.E. wind, with heavy squalls and thick weather. The stranded vessel was found to be the s.s. Francesco Crispi, of Messina, coal laden from Blyth for Palermo. An attempt was made to get her off at high water, but this failed, and it was decided to wait until the next tide and then try again. There was, however, considerable danger of the vessel heeling over, and, therefore, the crew were taken into the Life-boat for the night. The second attempt also proved fruitless and, as the weather was getting worse, the ship was leaking badly and her bulkheads were giving way, it was decided to abandon her, the Life-boat arriving at her station at 9.30 on the following night, with the crew of twenty-two men, a monkey, and a pet ram.

The Thorpeness Life-boat also put off to the assistance of this vessel. Her services in this respect were not called into requisition, but she rendered valuable aid in conveying to the shore one of the crew of the Aldeburgh Life-boat who had been injured by falling down the hatchway while engaged on board the stranded steamer.—Expenses of services, 75*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 11th August, 1898.

Voted 18*l.* 17*s.* for launches or assemblies by the crews of the following Life-boats with the view of assisting vessels in distress:—Caister No. 2, Courtmacsherry, Dunbar, Gorleston No. 1, Hilbre Island, Margate No. 1, Palling No. 2, Runswick, Walmer, and Walton-on-the-Naze.

Also 10*l.* 16*s.* to men injured on service at Mevagissey and Newquay (Cardiganshire).

Voted the Second Service Clasp and a certificate of service to Mr. H. HOOD, on resignation of the post of Coxswain of the Life-boat at Seaton Carew.

Aug. 14.—PALLING, NORFOLK.—Hearts of Oak Life-boat.—A message by telephone being received reporting that a large barque was aground on the Hasborough Sand, the Life-boat was launched at 8.15 A.M., and found the barque Helena Mena, of London, bound from Hull for South Africa, stranded on the middle part of the sand. The proffered services of the Life-boat men were at once accepted by the master, and with the aid of the crew of a yawl and two steam-tugs, the vessel was got afloat at 6 P.M. The Life-boat accompanied her to Yarmouth Roads, and arrived back at her station at 2.30 P.M. on August 16th.—Property salvage case.

Aug. 16.—KINGSDOWNE AND NORTH DEAL.—Charles Hargrave and Mary

Somerville Life-boats.—On 16th August the Kingsdowne and the North Deal Life-boats were launched early in the morning, signal guns having been fired by the East Goodwin and Gull Light-vessels. A thick fog prevailed at the time. The barque Unione, of Naples, bound from Savannah for Antwerp, was found stranded on the south part of the Goodwin Sands, and the Life-boat men offered to render what help they could to get the vessel afloat. Their services being accepted, they assisted in jettisoning the cargo, which consisted of turpentine and resin, and also helped to man the pumps. On the following day the barque floated, and was taken to the Downs with the assistance of a steam-tug.—Property salvage case.

Aug. 21.—ALDEBURGH.—Aldeburgh Life-boat.—A message by telephone having been received from the Shipwash Light-vessel, stating that they had on board the master, his wife and child, and fifteen of the crew, of the barque Nimbus, of Sandefjord, which had been run down by a steamer. The wind was blowing with moderate force from E.N.E., there was a moderate sea and a thick fog. The Life-boat Aldeburgh put off at 9.40 A.M., and at 3.30 P.M. returned to her station with the eighteen persons. The Nimbus was on a voyage from London for Pitea, Sweden, in ballast.—Expense of service, 19*l.* 18*s.*

Aug. 21.—GORLESTON.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—Signals having been fired by the Cross Sand Light-vessel, the Life-boat was towed out by a steam-tug, and found the s.s. Selby stranded on the sand. A moderate E.N.E. wind was blowing, the sea was smooth, and the weather thick. At the master's request, the Life-boat remained by the steamer from 6 P.M. until 8 P.M., and eventually the vessel floated off the sand without help.—Expense of service, 27*l.* 7*s.* 4*d.*

Aug. 27.—GREENORE, Co. LOUTH.—Sir Arthur Blackwood Life-boat.—The schooner yacht Colleen, of Leith, lost one of her anchors and had the other disabled in a very heavy squall, and stranded about fifty yards W. of the Earl Rock, in Carlingford Lough. In response to her signals of distress, the Life-boat was launched at 1.29 P.M., and put two men on board to assist the crew. The Life-boat's anchor was laid out, and by means of this the yacht was got off into deep water, and was enabled to proceed to Warrenpoint. Mr. Basil Hall, District Inspector of Life-boats, who was making his periodical visit, went in the Life-boat.—Property salvage case.

Aug. 30.—ABERSOCH, CARNARVONSHIRE.—Oldham Life-boat.—Signals of distress were shown by the yacht Atalanta, of Abersoch, which was dragging her anchors in St. Tudwall's Roads, while a moderate gale was blowing from S.W., accompanied by a rough sea and thick weather. The Life-boat put off to her assistance at 8 P.M., and landed the crew, consisting of three men, at Penrhyn Point. The wind afterwards veered suddenly to N.W., and thus enabled the vessel to ride out the gale.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 12*s.*

Aug. 30.—HOYLAKE, CHESHIRE.—Coard William Squarey Life-boat.—In the afternoon the lightkeeper observing a yacht apparently capsized, with the crew clinging to her side, at once reported the circumstance to the coxswain of the Life-boat, who decided to take out the Life-boat, as the weather was very threatening. The boat was launched at 4.30, and half an hour later arrived at the scene of the casualty. The yacht, which was the Queen, of New Brighton, on a pleasure trip, was on her beam ends on the North Bank, the tide being low. Her crew of six persons were taken on board the Life-boat, which stood by the vessel until she floated and was able to make for New Brighton.—Expense of service, 28*l.* 1*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 8th Sept., 1898.

Voted 359*l.* 14*s.* to pay for the launches or assemblies by the crews of the following Life-boats with the view of rendering help to distressed vessels:—Ballantrae, Brancaster, Broadstairs, Cadgwith, Caister No. 2, Castletown, Clacton, Formby, Girvan, Kingstown No. 2, Lowestoft No. 1, Newquay (Cornwall), North D-al, Palling No. 1, Totland Bay, Walmer, Walton-on-the-Naze and Winterton No. 2.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was also taken out, but her services were not ultimately needed.

Voted the thanks of the Institution to H. INGLIS, Esq., Honorary Secretary of the Ballantrae Branch, for taking command of the Life-boat, at the request of the assistant-coxswain and crew, when called out for service, in the temporary absence of the coxswain, on the 28th August.

Also to Mr. MCKENNA, Postmaster of Girvan, and to Mr. CHAS. LAWSON, for riding a tandem-cycle from Girvan to Ballantrae, a distance of thirteen miles, and giving information that a vessel was in distress, on the 28th August. An interruption in the telegraph system prevented a message being sent by wire. The cyclists arrived about 3 o'clock in the morning, covered with mud and thoroughly soaked by rain.

Also to J. G. TAIT, Esq., solicitor, a member of the Local Committee at Girvan, for going out in the Life-boat at that place, in the absence of some of the regular crew, when proceeding to the assistance of a vessel on the 28th August.

Also to the owner of the steam-yacht Alice, for kindly towing the Totland Bay Life-boat when called out for service on the 31st August.

Also the Third Service Clasp of the Institution and 25*l.* to Mr. A. PAGE, late Master of the Ramsgate Harbour Steam-Tugs, on his retirement, in consideration of his long and gallant services in towing the Ramsgate Life-boats.

Also 19*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.* to men injured while on duty with the Clacton-on-Sea, Sheringham, and Worthing Life-boats.

Also 5*l.* to an old member of the crew of the Hauxley Life-boat, on his retirement from the service.

Sept. 16.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—In response to signals, the Life-boat was launched at 2.40 A.M., and found the fishing-smack Boy Nicholas, of Lowestoft, aground on the East Cross Sand, where she had stranded in a thick fog. The Life-boat stood by her until she floated and got out of danger.—Expense of service, 27*l.* 7*s.* 4*d.*

Sept. 16.—PORT ERROLL, ABERDEENSHIRE.—Frances Camilla Howard Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 11 P.M., and proceeded to the s.s. Milwankee, of Liverpool, which had shown signals of distress, having stranded on Cruden Scars, in thick hazy weather, a strong S. breeze and a rough, choppy sea. At the request of the master the Life-boat remained by the ship, and at 5.30 on the following morning twenty-one men of the crew got into the boat and were taken to Port Erroll, where they were landed at 6.30 the remainder of the crew, numbering twenty all told, had, with the exception of the master and chief officer, been taken off by a tug and a fishing-boat.—Property salvage case.

Sept. 29.—YOUGHAL, Co. CORK.—Mary Luckombe Life-boat.—At 5.30 p.m., the Life-boat was launched, and proceeded to the assistance of six non-commissioned officers of the 17th Lancers and Royal Artillery, stationed at Youghal, who had put off in a boat on a pleasure trip, but were being blown out to sea, and were in a dangerous position, a strong gale blowing from N.N.W., the sea being heavy and the tide ebbing. The boat was a mile and a half E. of the Light-house, and in all probability she would have been blown on to the rocks between Youghal and Ardmore and dashed to pieces if she had not been swamped before the rocks were reached. With considerable difficulty the soldiers were got into the Life-boat, but the state of the weather and the strong adverse tide rendered it impossible to save the boat, which was full of water, and she was therefore cast adrift.—Expense of service, 8l. 17s.

Sept. 30.—PORT ERIN, ISLE OF MAN.—William Sugden Life-boat.—While a gale was blowing from N.W., accompanied by a high sea, signals of distress were shown by the lugger Jenny Lind, of Port St. Mary, which while returning from the herring fishery stranded inside the breakwater in Port Erin Bay. The crew of the Life-boat were immediately summoned, the Life-boat was launched at 5 a.m. and rescued the boat's crew consisting of three men.—Expense of service, 22l. 8s. 6d.

Sept. 30.—CLOVELLY, NORTH DEVON.—Elinor Roget Life-boat.—Signals of distress were shown at 8 a.m. by the ketch Swift, of Bideford, which was dragging her anchors and subsequently struck on the rocks and went to pieces. Her crew of three men were saved and on her way back from this vessel the Life-boat went to the ketch Nellie Mary, of Bideford, which had also shown flares for assistance, and took off her crew of two men, as she was also dragging her anchors. The wind at the time was blowing with the force of a fresh breeze to a strong gale from N.N.W.

with heavy squalls, and there was a rough sea.—Expense of service, 18l.

Sept. 30.—FISHGUARD, PEMBROKESHIRE.—Appin Life-boat.—The ketch Albert, of Watchet, laden with burnt ore from Belfast for Cardiff, which had been lying at anchor in the bay, showed signals of distress while a strong gale from N.N.E. was blowing, accompanied by a heavy sea and thick weather. At 3.15 a.m. the Life-boat was launched, proceeded to her assistance and reached her in about half-an-hour. Her crew of three men were rescued by the Life-boat and the vessel afterwards parted her cables and drove ashore near the entrance to the harbour, where she became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 16l. 10s.

Oct. 8.—BROADSTAIRS.—Frances Forbes Barton Life-boat.—At 5 p.m., a brigantine, which was subsequently ascertained to be the Eureka, of Faversham, was sighted turning to windward, and when off Broadstairs she missed stays, and being in only two fathoms of water she let go her anchor to avoid going on shore. A moderate breeze was blowing from E.N.E., and there was a heavy long shore swell and surf. As it was evident that she was in a critical position, and must take the ground when the tide receded, the crew of the Life-boat were summoned, and remained in attendance ready in the event of their services being required. At 9.15 the vessel parted her cable and stranded broadside on, striking heavily, with the seas breaking over her. The Life-boat at once put off to her assistance, and having sailed to windward of her, anchored and veered down to her. Great caution was necessary in approaching the vessel, as it was feared that her masts would fall on to the boat, but ultimately the crew, consisting of seven men, were got safely into the Life-boat. It was then found that the vessel had dragged over the Life-boat's cable, so that it was impossible to haul off by it, and as the boat was riding in broken water and was in danger of being driven ashore, a spring was put on the cable, which was then slipped, and the boat got away, and proceeded to Ramsgate with the rescued men, the water being too low in the harbour at Broadstairs to allow of landing there. The brigantine filled with water and broke up.—Expense of service, 31l. 9s.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 13th Oct., 1898.

Voted 162*l.* 5*s.*, to pay for launches or assemblies of the crews of the following Life-boats, with the view of assisting vessels in distress:—Clacton, Formby, Hoylake, Kildonan, New Brighton (steam Life-boat), Newquay (Cardiganshire), Port Erroll, Rosslare Harbour and Wexford.

Voted the Second Service Clasp and a certificate of service to Mr. GEORGE WARFORD, on his resignation of the office of coxswain of the Pakefield Life-boat.

The Committee also specially recognised the services of the resigning coxswains of the Aberdovey, Hasborough and Yealm River Life-boats, Messrs. JOHN BELL, THOS. WISEMAN and W. HOCKADAY, and those of retiring members of the crews at Aberdovey and Pakefield.

Voted 1*l.* to a man injured while on duty with the Worthing Life-boat.

Oct. 14.—PORTHOUSTOCK, CORNWALL.—Charlotte Life-boat.—A disastrous shipwreck occurred on the Manacle rocks, near the Lizard, at night, involving the lamentable loss of 106 lives. The s.s. Mohegan, of Hull, a large four-masted vessel, bound for New York, with 1280 tons of general cargo, in addition to which she carried coal and water ballast to the extent of 3170 tons, left London on the previous day. She had a crew of 97 men. There were seven cattlemen on board, and at Gravesend 53 passengers were taken in. All seems to have gone right on her way down the Channel, and at 2.40 p.m. on the 14th, at Prawle Point, she signalled "All well, report me." She was then about three miles off. She was afterwards seen off Rame Head, and again at about 5 p.m. some ten or twelve miles distant from the Eddystone Lighthouse. Later on, between six and seven o'clock, her lights were noticed from Falmouth; some coloured lights were also observed. Shortly before seven o'clock the coxswain of the Life-boat Charlotte, stationed at Porthoustock, saw a masthead light, and as it was evident to him from the position that the vessel must be in danger, he summoned the boat's crew and put off to render assistance. A moderate gale was then blowing from E.S.E., and there was a heavy sea. Proceeding in the direction of the Manacle rocks a white light was burnt, but no response was received. Shortly afterwards an overturned boat was found, and two men who were clinging to it were rescued. Cries being then heard from beneath the boat, a grapnel was thrown from the Life-boat; this caught the boat's gunwale and righted her. The dead body of a child was found in the boat, also two ladies who were still alive. One of these was taken into the Life-boat but died from exhaustion shortly after being landed; the other was jammed under the thwart. At once the bow-man of the Life-boat jumped into the boat, cut away the thwart by means of an axe and liberated the imprisoned passenger. Signals were then burnt by the Life-boat denoting that further help was required. More cries being heard the boat pulled in the direction they proceeded from and met a ship's Life-boat with twenty-four persons in her. The boat was much damaged and nearly full of water, and had the occupants tried to land in her they would probably have perished. They were transferred to the Life-boat, which then made for the shore, reaching it at 10 p.m. Having landed the rescued people the Life-boat again put off and pulled in the direction of the Manacle rocks. On this occasion the second coxswain was in the boat. He was not in her the first time, but went out in a shore-boat with other men to the scene of the casualty. They ascertained the exact position of the wreck and returned to the shore, the information they were able to afford being of great value on the second trip of the boat, and saving time which would otherwise have been occupied in searching for the wreck. Hearing shrieks and cries the boat anchored as near to the wreck as could be done with safety. Quarter-master Juddery, one of the vessel's crew, who was in the main rigging, seeing that the boat could not approach any nearer owing to the heavy tide, swam off to the Life-boat, and taking a line swam back again to the ship; by this prompt, brave action materially helping to save the whole of the people in the rigging. The boat's anchor was then lifted and she was allowed to drop down so as to enable her to take off the rest of the people who were in the rigging and on the funnel. The rocks all round were afterwards searched, but no other persons were found, and the Life-boat men continued to burn lights at intervals until reaching the shore between four and five o'clock on the following morning. Forty-four lives were saved by the Life-boat.

An investigation into the circumstances attending this disaster was instituted by the Board of Trade, and the Court, after an exhaustive enquiry, occupying six days, were enabled to form the opinion that the cause of the vessel stranding was that a wrong course, W. by N., was steered after passing the Eddystone at 4.17 p.m. on the 14th October, and that the deplorable loss of so many lives was in consequence of the vessel taking a very sudden and serious list to port, of her going down in not more than a quarter of an hour from the time of striking, and of there being no light to indicate her position, the electric light having gone out, and it being impossible to exhibit other lamps, as the lamp-room was inaccessible, being under water.

Only a few signals of distress could be fired from the ship, as the socket for the signal was on the port side, on which she had listed, making it very difficult to discharge them.

The captain and all the officers being drowned, the Court was utterly unable to arrive at any conclusion as to why the course was set and steered. It is worthy of notice that none of the officers were saved, proving without doubt the bravery and unselfishness displayed by the master, officers and crew.

The Court expressed their great approbation of the conduct of Mr. Juddery, who has since been awarded a Silver Medal by the Board of Trade, and spoke with approval of the promptness and skill of Mr. James Hill, the coxswain of the Porthoustock Life-boat and the crew of the boat. In recognition of the services rendered on this occasion, the Institution presented its Silver Medal to Mr. Hill, together with an extra reward to him and to the crew of the boat, a further sum being awarded to the bowman for his special services already mentioned. The thanks of the Institution were also tendered to Mr. E. P. Bokkrige, the Hon. Sec. of the Porthoustock Branch, for his valuable co-operation.

Further, the Court found that the Institution's Life-boats at Falmouth, Cadwith and Polpear (Lizard), were promptly launched when summoned, but failed to rescue any of the passengers and crew, as there were no lights to indicate the vessel's position, which caused much loss of time in searching for her, and because before their arrival at the wreck all the survivors had been taken off by the Porthoustock Life-boat. One person was picked up by the tug which had the Falmouth Life-boat in tow, and others were picked up on the rocks by a coast-guard boatman.—Expenses of services of Porthoustock Life-boat, 117l. 17s. 6d. Reward to the crew who went off in the shore-boat, 2l. 10s.

Oct. 14.—LOWESTOFT.—Samuel Plim-soll Life-boat.—Having seen signals of distress in the North Roads, the coxswain of the Life-boat summoned the crew at 5.50 p.m. The vessel drifted past the mouth of the harbour and continued to show flares, and at 6 o'clock the Life-boat was launched, sailed to her, and found she was the schooner Dovey Belle, of and from Portmadoc, bound for Lowestoft with a cargo of slate. A steam-tug had in the meantime succeeded in getting communication with the vessel, but her tow-ropes parted twice. The Life-boat went close to the schooner, but no further aid was required, and the boat returned under sail to the harbour, arriving at 7.40.—Expense of service, 36l.

Oct. 15.—GROOMSPORT, Co. DOWN.—George Pooley Life-boat.—While a whole gale from E.N.E. was raging, accompanied by a very heavy sea, the night being pitchy dark, a signal of distress was seen at 8.10, and seven minutes later the Life-boat was launched. She was, however, unable to clear the harbour, but was beaten back, and was in great danger of being driven on the rocks. At 11.50 another attempt was made and the boat succeeded at about 2 a.m. in getting near the vessel, which was stranded on Brigg's Reef, but could not get close to her on account of the rocks and the heavy seas breaking on them. She therefore was compelled to lay off until dawn, heavy waves continually breaking into her, when she was able to approach the ship and saved her crew of eight men. The master resolutely declined to leave the vessel and the Life-boat therefore had to return to the station with the crew, leaving him on board; he was, however, subsequently rescued by means of a shore-boat. The vessel was the s.s. Dalriada, of Glasgow, bound from Ardrossan for Belfast, with a cargo of coal. The conduct of the Life-boatmen is deserving of the greatest praise, and in recognition of their arduous services, they were awarded extra payment.—Expense of service, 37*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.*

Oct. 17.—HARWICH and CLACTON-ON-SEA.—Springwell and Albert Eduard Life-boats.—The barque Inga, of Laurvig, bound from the Baltic for London with timber, stranded on the Gunfleet Sands in a strong S. breeze and a moderate sea. Intimation of the casualty being conveyed by telephone the Life-boats put off to render assistance, the steamer Satellite, belonging to the Hon. Corporation of the Trinity House, kindly giving the Harwich boat a tow, and the Clacton boat proceeding under sail. The private Life-boat True to the Core, of Walton-on-the-Naze, and a steam-tug also went to the help of the barque. At high water the vessel was towed off by the tug, the Life-boats remaining by her until this was accomplished.—Expense of services, 27*l.* 15*s.*

Oct. 18.—ST. ANDREW'S.—Louisa Life-boat.—The schooner Wilhelm of Riga, coal laden from Boston for Memel, was seen to be embayed while a strong gale was blowing from the E. accompanied by a very heavy sea, and as it appeared inevitable that she would go ashore the Life-boat was taken to the West Sands, where the vessel struck shortly afterwards. The Life-boat was then taken a distance of about two miles along the sands, launched at 8 P.M., and rescued the five men who were on board the vessel, another of the crew having been washed overboard and drowned before the vessel struck.—Expense of service, 34*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*

Oct. 19.—MONTROSE.—Bessie Webster Life-boat.—In the morning the weather, which had been very stormy for several days, became worse, a strong gale blowing from the E. and the sea being very heavy. At about 5 o'clock the coastguard reported that a vessel's light had been seen in the N. part of the bay and afterwards a rocket was fired and a steam whistle blown. The Life-boat was taken along the beach, on her carriage, to the vicinity of the vessel, which was about two miles from the station, and launched. After a severe struggle against the heavy seas the Life-boat got alongside the vessel and found she was the Buda, of and for Leith, from Stettin with sugar and timber. Five of her crew got into the Life-boat and were landed, the others deciding to remain on board their vessel.—Expense of service, 21*l.* 15*s.* 5*d.*

Oct. 19.—ST. ANDREW'S.—Louisa Life-boat.—While a moderate gale was blowing from the S.E., with a heavy sea and thick weather, the brigantine Kiana, of Marstal, Denmark, bound from Ilfracombe for Gothenburg in ballast, stranded about one hundred and fifty yards eastward of the Life-boat house. The crew of the Life-boat were in readiness and the boat was launched at 5.15 P.M., just as the vessel struck, and rescued her crew of seven men.

A most regrettable accident occurred in connection with this service. While the Life-boat on her carriage was being taken through a narrow cutting, one of the helpers named George Sharp fell, was run over and died shortly afterwards. He was a most energetic helper on all occasions of service. The Institution awarded 100*l.* to his parents, of whom he was the chief support.

Expense of service, 33*l.* 11*s.*

Oct. 19.—BOULMER, NORTHUMBRELAND.—Melissent Life-boat.—The barque Adelgunde, of Tönsberg, bound from London for Christiania, with a cargo of coke, stranded on the North Steel rocks, in a strong E. gale and a very heavy sea, and became a total wreck. The Life-boat was launched at about 6 A.M., and succeeded in rescuing the twelve men on board the vessel, one of the crew having been washed overboard before the Life-boat arrived.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 13*s.* 3*d.*

Oct. 20.—ARROATH.—William Souter Life-boat.—The brig Brodern Clausen, of Tönsberg, being seen in danger the Life-boat put off to her assistance at 7 A.M., and the Life-saving Brigade also turned out with rocket apparatus. A strong gale from S.E. was blowing and there was a very heavy sea. The Life-boat made for the brig, which was labouring just beyond the bar, but she suddenly changed her course and was rapidly driven into broken water, the seas breaking completely over her, and soon grounded on the Knuckle Rock, E. of the harbour. Her crew tried to take to their boats, but both of them were smashed, and the men who had got into them were hauled back on board the brig, which began to break up and parted amidships a few minutes only after she struck. Meanwhile the Life-boat men were doing all in their power to pull to the vessel against the tremendous seas and wind, but although they succeeded in getting near her, the dangerous rocks rendered it utterly impossible to get alongside. The rocket brigade succeeded in firing a line over the vessel just as a heavy sea washed two men overboard, one of them was an old man who had been ill for some days and the poor fellow was soon drowned; the other was a young lad, who fortunately was provided with a life-buoy which kept him afloat and enabled the Life-boat to pick him up. The life-saving apparatus having been adjusted, the remainder of the crew, six in number, proceeded to avail themselves of that means of rescue. The Life-boat men being thoroughly exhausted by their efforts, returned ashore and landed the lad whom they had rescued. Other men having taken the places of those of the crew who were worn out the Boat again went off and stood by until the vessel's crew were taken off.—Expense of services, 27*l.* 18*s.*

Oct. 20.—FRASERBURGH.—Anna Maria Lee Life-boat.—The schooner Hurteg, of Christiansund, laden with empty bottles from Gothenburg, showed signals of distress while a strong gale was blowing from E.S.E., accompanied by a heavy sea. The Life-boat was launched at noon and found the vessel had started on her voyage on the 15th October and had had her sails carried away or damaged in the gale she had encountered. Two men of the Life-boat's crew, both pilots, went on board the schooner, and by skilful management she was guided through the breakers and taken safely into the harbour. The piers were crowded with spectators, who expressed their entire approval of the promptitude displayed by the Life-boat men in proceeding to the vessel's assistance.—Expense of service, 10*l.* 10*s.* 9*d.*

Oct. 21.—ARKLOW.—Frances and Charlotte Life-boat.—Intelligence was received that the fishing-smack Lizzie, of Arklow, had been seriously damaged by collision with another smack outside the harbour, being cut down to the water's edge and losing her mainsail and rudder. One of her crew jumped on board the vessel with which she had collided, but four men remained on board the Lizzie, which drifted out to sea. They, having no other means of making signals, hoisted a light and continued to haul it up and down. At midnight the Life-boat was launched, went to her and took off the four men, who were safely landed, the smack being left at anchor. She, however, rode out the gale which sprung up during the night, and on the following morning the Life-boat again went out to her, put men on board, took her in tow and got her into the harbour.—Expense of service, 27*l.* 18*s.* 9*d.*

Oct. 29.—WALTON-ON-THE-NAZE.—Honourable Artillery Company Life-boat.—A telephone message having been received from the Gunfleet lighthouse stating that flares were seen on the sand, the Life-boat was launched at midnight and proceeded to the rescue. She was picked up by the steam-tug Harwich, which kindly gave her a tow until abreast the vessel. The Life-boat grounding on the sand, two of her crew waded to the ship and found the crew of the Walton private Life-boat True to the Core were rendering assistance in throwing overboard part of the cargo of coal. Ultimately the Life-boat got alongside, and stood by until nearly high water, when the vessel was leaking so badly that it became necessary to abandon her. The crew took to the True to the Core and were safely landed. The vessel was the brigantine Stephen and Sarah, of and for Whitstable from Sunderland; she had a crew of seven men.—Expense of service, 39*l.* 10*s.*

Oct. 30.—ILFRACOMBE.—Co-Operator No. 2 Life-boat.—The pilot-cutter Minnie, of Newport, Mon., was dismasted in squally weather, about four miles N. of Lee. On receipt of intelligence of the accident the Life-boat was immediately launched, proceeded to the vessel and found her about four miles off Bull Point. Another Newport pilot-boat was bearing down on her and took her in tow, the Life-boat standing by her until she was made fast.—Expense of service, 20*l.* 16*s.* 6*d.*

Oct. 31.—LONGHOPE.—Samyias Stan-nah Life-boat. The s.s. Manchester City, a new steel vessel, 5,900 tons gross register, was proceeding through the Pentland Firth on her first voyage, from the Tyne for Montreal in ballast, on the afternoon of the 31st Oct., when her steering gear broke down. A strong gale was blowing from N.W. and there was a very heavy sea at the time. She anchored and signalled for assistance, in response to which the Life-boat proceeded to her; but shortly before the boat arrived both the chains parted and the vessel drove from her anchors. When the Life-boat came up with her it was arranged with the captain that one of the crew of the boat should be put on board the steamer and that the Life-boat should accompany her until she was placed in a safe position. The ship was allowed to drift with the flood-tide through the Pentland Firth, encountering considerable risk of running aground on the Island of Stroma and on the Skerries, and having to steam at one time ahead and at another astern in order to avoid these dangers. When near Stroma two steamers came to her, one of them standing by and the other attempting to tow her. The Life-boat men, with their intimate knowledge of the locality, were able to render invaluable aid and enabled her to clear the Firth. She then steamed over to the East coast and was brought to anchor near Wick. The captain endeavoured to rig up temporary steering gear, and a steam trawler came up and rendered valuable help in towing her round so as to enable her to proceed to Cromarty Bay, the trawler being astern and assisting to steer the ship. At the Moray Firth she stopped to obtain a pilot and to remedy some defects in the steering apparatus, and after some time again started, a man from the trawler going on board to assist the pilot in steering into Cromarty. Another steamer arrived and also rendered assistance, and the vessel was brought up in Cromarty Firth, where she was anchored. Soon afterwards the ship, which had only her third anchor and a hawser out, having lost the other two anchors and chain cables, broke from her moorings and drifted ashore. She was towed off by tugs, and, hand-steering gear having been rigged up sufficient to effectually steer her, she was taken into the Moray Firth. By that time she was able to proceed under her own steam, the other steamers remaining by her to render further assistance if required. She however lost sight of them in a fog and eventually overshot the Tyne, the tugs which arrived there first having to wait for her. Eventually she was towed by the tugs up the river and was safely moored at 2.30 p.m. on the 7th November. She had a crew of fifty-two persons on board and was valued at 89,500*l.* The Life-boat man was on board the vessel five days, the boat, which had been damaged by collision with the steamer when boarding her, returning to her station at 2 p.m. on the 1st November.

Mr. JUSTICE PHILLMORE, in making his award to the crew of the Life-boat in the Admiralty Division of the High Court of Justice for the property salvage services rendered by them, made the following observation:—"The Elder Brethren advise me that, in their opinion this is one of the finest services which a Life-boat has rendered for a long time—one of the best. There may have been perhaps a more gallant one, but this was one of the most useful and valuable services, at any rate to property, rendered by a Life-boat for a long time. It comes to this, that they consider the ship was in a very great danger in the Pentland Firth after the cables parted. I am aware that we are awarding a very large sum to the Life-boat, but after consultation with the Elder Brethren I have come to the conclusion that she should have the sum of 1,400*l.*"

Oct. 31.—TURSO and HUNA.—Co-Operator No. 1 and Caroline Thomas Life-boats.—These Life-boats also put off to the assistance of the steamer Manchester City, and remained by her for some time.—Expenses of services, 80*l.* 5*s.*

Nov. 2.—POINT OF AYR.—H. G. Powell Lifeboat.—Signals of distress having been reported, the Life-boat was launched at 8 A.M. in a fresh to moderate gale from S.W. and a heavy sea, and proceeded to the West Hoyle Bank, where the schooner Piel Castle, of Barrow, timber laden from Youghal for Preston, was found totally wrecked. The crew of four men were rescued by the Life-boat and safely landed at 10.15.—Expense of service, 21l. 8s.

Nov. 2.—WHITHORN.—Henry and John Leighton Life-boat.—A telegram having been received, stating that a vessel was off Craggleton with a signal of distress flying, the crew of the Life-boat were summoned, and at 9.30 A.M. the Boat was on her way to the ship. She proved to be the schooner Doris, of Liverpool, bound from Workington for Kill, leagh with coal. She was lying between Craggleton head and Eggerness point, the seas were washing over her, and her crew of four men were afraid that the cable would part and that she would then be driven ashore. They were therefore taken into the Life-boat, and at 10.45 were safely ashore at Garliestown.—Expense of service, 15l. 9s.

Nov. 2.—GORLESTON.—Thora Zelma Life-boat.—The brig Harebell, of Great Yarmouth, while being towed into the harbour in a moderate S.S.W. gale and a rough sea, stranded on the north sands. The Life-boat put off to her assistance at 11 A.M. and rescued six of her crew, one other man being landed by the rocket-apparatus, which also effected communication with the vessel. The brig was bound from the Tyne for Great Yarmouth with a cargo of coal.—Expense of service, 15l. 9s. 6d.

Nov. 2.—DUNGENESS.—R.A.O.B. Life-boat.—The schooner Queen of the Sea, of Gravesend, while on a voyage from Shields to Exeter with a cargo of coal, stranded between No. 1 and No. 2 Battery, having missed stays, in a moderate gale and a rough sea. The Life-boat was launched at 11.30 A.M., proceeded to the vessel and was requested by the master to take a warp to a steam-tug which had also gone to her assistance. It was found, however, that the schooner had five or six feet of water in her hold, and it was probable that if she were towed off she would simply sink in deep water. The crew of five men and two Deal boatmen who were on board then got into the Life-boat and were landed at No. 2 Battery at 1 o'clock.—Expense of service, 27l. 9s. 6d.

Nov. 3.—PORTRUSH.—Robert and Agnes Blair Life-boat.—In response to signals shown by the brigantine Maria, of and for Coleraine laden with coal, the Life-boat was launched at 2.30 P.M. in a heavy sea, the wind blowing half a gale from

W. and the weather being squally. The Life-boat men boarded the ship, which had parted one of her chains and was dragging the remaining anchor, and assisted to enable her to get out of danger. She had a crew of six men.—Expense of service paid by owners of vessel.

Nov. 7.—GORLESTON.—Leicester Life-boat.—The smack Daisy, of Great Yarmouth, stranded on the beach about three quarters of a mile S. of the pier, in a strong breeze from S.S.E. and a moderate sea. The Life-boat was launched at 5 A.M., proceeded to the vessel, remained by her until she floated, and accompanied her into the harbour, as she was leaking badly.—Expense of service, 18l. 7s. 6d.

Nov. 8.—HOLYHEAD.—Duke of Northumberland Life-boat.—At about 1.20 A.M. the Life-boat left her moorings, signals having been shown from the lighthouse on the breakwater, and found the schooner Sylvia, of Liverpool, laden with coal from Garston for Kinsale, stranded on the breakwater, having missed stays. A strong S.S.W. breeze was blowing, the sea was smooth, and the weather cloudy. A steam-tug was in attendance, and as the tide was full flood, very little difficulty was experienced in getting the vessel off, and the Life-boat then accompanied her to a safe anchorage.—Expense of service, 10l. 15s.

Nov. 10.—SENNEN COVE.—Ann Newbon Life-boat.—At about midnight on the 9th November the assistant-coxswain of the Life-boat was fishing off Cape Cornwall, when his attention was called to signals from the Longships Lighthouse, denoting a vessel in distress in the neighbourhood. He immediately returned to Sennen Cove and aroused the coxswain. At 15 A.M. the Life-boat was launched, in a marvellously short time, proceeded to the ship, and reached her within twenty minutes from the time the crew were summoned. She was hard and fast on the rocks right under the lighthouse. Four of her boats were launched; one had been stove in, and two contained the kit, etc., of the crew, who were preparing to leave the ship. When the Life-boat arrived, however, they decided to avail themselves of her services, and got on board her, their boats with the baggage being towed to Sennen Cove, arriving there at 5 A.M., after a three hours' hard pull against a very strong tide and a strong breeze. The vessel, which became a total wreck, was the s.s. Blue Jacket, of and for Cardiff, from Plymouth in ballast. She had a crew of twenty-two persons.—Expense of service, 27*l.* 15*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 10th Nov., 1898.

Voted 77*l.* 2*s.* 4*d.* to pay for the launches or assemblies by the crews of the following Life-boats, with the view of rendering help to distressed vessels:—Ackergill, Anstruther, Aranmore, Arbroath, Ballywalter, Berwick-on-Tweed, Blyth No. 2, Boulmer, Broughty Ferry, Cadgwith, Campbeltown, Crail, Donna Nook, Dunbar, Falmouth, Gourdon, Groomsport, Hilbre Island, Hornsea, Johnshaven, Llanddulas, Margate No. 2, Montrose No. 1 and No. 2, Newburgh, Peterhead, Polpear, Port Erroll, Redcar, Rhyl, Robin Hood's Bay, Saltburn, Scarborough, Southwold, Stonehaven, Uppang, West Hartlepool and Whitby No. 2.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was also taken out, but her services were not eventually needed.

Voted 300*l.*, with an expression of deep sympathy, in aid of the fund raised locally for the relief of the widow and eight young children of MARK A. FAIRHURST, assistant coxswain of the Blyth No. 2 Life-boat, who lost his life on the occasion of the capsizing of the Life-boat while on service on the 16th October. The boat was struck by two heavy seas, the second one knocking all the port oars out of the crutches, and before the men could recover their oars another sea struck her broadside on and capsized her, throwing the whole of her crew out. She righted immediately and some of the crew regained her, others swimming to the shore, but the assistant coxswain, who, contrary to the regulations of the Institution, was not wearing a lifebelt, was carried about forty or fifty yards seaward of the boat, clinging to one of the oars. On observing him, JOHN WILLIAM TINNING, the coxswain of the Life-boat, at once jumped overboard, swam to him, and, at great risk, succeeded in getting him to the shore, but he was in a state of collapse, and all efforts to resuscitate him were unavailing.

For this gallant act, the Silver medal of the Institution, accompanied by a copy of the vote inscribed on vellum and framed, was awarded by the Committee to Mr. TINNING. He had been highly complimented by the coroner at the inquest held on the body of the late assistant coxswain, at which a verdict of "death from misadventure" was returned.

Double pay was granted to the men who manned the Life-boat on the occasion in question.

It was subsequently awarded to a coast-guard who rendered good service to some members of the crew of the Life-boat.

The crew of the vessel to which the Life-boat was proceeding, the Norwegian sloop Fremad, were rescued by the rocket apparatus.

Voted the thanks of the Institution, inscribed on vellum and framed, to Mr. WILLIAM H. SMITH, coxswain of the Arbroath Life-boat, for his services on the occasion of the wreck of the brigantine Tjelva, of Oscarshamn, in a whole gale and heavy sea, on the 18th October. Finding the crew of the vessel were ignorant of the working of the lines of the rocket apparatus, the coxswain hauled himself off by one of them, adjusted the ropes, and enabled the crew of seven men to be landed.

Also a Silver Medal and a certificate to Mr. ANDREW TAYLOR, Cullercoats, and the Second Service Clasp and certificate to Mr. J. GILBERT, Tynemouth, on their resignation of the post of coxswain of the Life-boats.

The Committee also specially recognised the services of Messrs. WILLIAM RICHARDSON, EDWARD JONES and D. MCKINNA, retiring Life-boat coxswains at Alnmouth, Cemlyn and Kildonan, and of the retiring coxswains, etc. at Middlesbrough and Cullercoats.

Voted 27*l.* 19*s.* to three men injured on service with the Life-boats at Bull Bay, Clovelly, Ilfracombe, Redcar, Campbeltown, Teignmouth and Newburgh.

Nov. 12—CRESSWELL and HAUXLEY.—Ellen and Eliza and Algernon and Eleanor Life-boats.—These Life-boats proceeded to the assistance of the s.s. Bankchef Fasting, of Christiansund, bound for Grangemouth, in ballast, which had stranded at Clibburn mouth during thick weather. The Life-boats remained by her until about 1 P.M., when she floated and was able to resume her voyage.—Expenses of service, 32*l.* 9*s.*

Nov. 13.—ROBIN HOOD'S BAY.—Ephraim and Hannah Fox Life-boat.—The steam-trawler Umbria, of Hull, while returning to her port from the fishing-grounds, ran aground on Blewick Steel in Robin Hood's Bay in a dense fog. The Life-boat proceeded to her assistance at 5.45 A.M., and six of her crew desired to be taken ashore, but the master, mate and chief engineer decided to remain by the vessel.—Expense of service, 24l. 9s.

Nov. 13.—FISHGUARD.—Appin Life-boat.—While a strong gale was blowing from N.N.E. accompanied by a heavy sea and thick weather, signals of distress were shown by seven vessels at anchor in the bay. The crew of the Life-boat were summoned, and at 8 A.M. the boat was launched. She proceeded under sail to a three-masted schooner which was lying a long distance out in the bay. She was the Poole Fisher, of Barrow-in-Furness, laden with manure from Birkenhead for London. Having taken off her crew of five men, the boat went, under sails and oars, to the other distressed vessels, and rescued the crew of five men from the three-masted schooner Harvest Queen, of Runcorn, coal laden from Irvine for Teignmouth; three men from the ketch Waterloo, of and from Carnavon for Gloucester with slates; three men from the ketch Brothers, of Aberporth, laden with slates from Bangor for Bristol; four men from the schooner Jessie, of Fleetwood, coal laden from Mostyn for Plymouth; four men from the schooner Ealing, of Bude, from Portmadoc with slates for Plymouth; and five men from the schooner John Ewing, of and from Carnavon for London with a cargo of slates. Two of the vessels parted their cables before the Life-boat was launched, and the others were in considerable danger of meeting with a similar catastrophe. The twenty-nine rescued men were landed at Goodwick New Pier at 10.10 A.M. amidst much cheering. In recognition of the prompt and good services rendered on this occasion an extra reward was granted to the Life-boat men.—Expense of service, 16l. 6s. 3d.

Nov. 13.—HAUXLEY.—Algernon and Eleanor Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 10 A.M. and stood by the ss. Lotus, of Antwerp, which had stranded on the Carr Stone, on the south side of the Bordicarr Reef. A gale of wind was blowing from N. accompanied by a heavy sea and thick weather, with rain. At 1 P.M. the steamer floated and proceeded for Blyth to be overhauled.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 19.—ROSSLAKE HARBOUR.—Tom and Jennie Life-boat.—A signal of distress being shown by the barque Færdler, of Tönsberg, which had stranded on the Long Bank, the Life-boat at 10.15 A.M. proceeded to the vessel. The boat had been to her on the previous day, but found that no immediate assistance was required. The master stated that the signal had been hoisted by the crew without his knowledge; he was able to speak very little English, and the Life-boat men had a somewhat difficult task to understand what he and his crew intended to do, but eventually nine of the crew decided to leave the vessel and were taken ashore in the Life-boat, one of their boats being towed astern. The master and two men decided to stay on board the vessel, arrangements being made that they should signal if they needed any assistance.—Expense of service, 22l. 3s.

Nov. 22.—WESTON-SUPER-MARE.—William James Holt Life-boat.—The ketch Caerleon, of Bridgwater, was seen to be dragging her anchors in the bay and was evidently in great danger of striking on the Breaan Down rocks. A heavy sea was running at the time and a strong N.E. breeze was blowing. At 9.30 A.M. the Life-boat put off to her assistance, placed four men on board, took her in tow while she got her anchors up and placed her in safety.—Expense of service, 10l. 13s.

Nov. 22.—PALLING.—Good Hope Life-boat.—At 2 P.M., while a gale was blowing from N.E., with a heavy sea and hail squalls, the look-out man sighted a vessel with her foremast carried away, flying signals of distress about nine miles south of the station and driving southwards. A message reporting the vessel was also received by telephone from Bacton. The Life-boat was at once got ready, as it was thought the vessel would come ashore about two miles north of the station, but she kept driving south, and at 5 o'clock brought up a mile N. by E. of the station. The Life-boat put off and her services were readily accepted by the master, as the vessel, in addition to having lost her mast, was leaking badly, and with the help of a steam-tug and the life-boat men she was taken to Yarmouth. She was the brigantine Craig Alvah, of Dover, bound from London for the Tyne with a cargo of burnt ore, and had a crew of eight men.—Property salvage case.—Balance of expenses, 11l. 11s. 6d.

Nov. 22.—CLACTON-ON-SEA.—Albert Edward Life-boat.—The three-masted schooner Ornan, of Osthammer, bound from Gefle for Portsmouth with timber, stranded on the Gunfleet Sand. The Life-boat was launched to her assistance at 8 A.M. and the Life-boat men endeavoured to get her afloat. Some of the cargo was jettisoned in the hope that at high water she would be got off the sand. In this however they were disappointed, she continued to bump heavily and began to leak badly. It was decided to make another endeavour at the next high tide and the pumps were worked through the night, but the wind sheered round from N. to S. and increased to a gale, and the heavy seas made a clean breach over her fore and aft; her stern-post and rudder were carried away and she was soon full of water. With great difficulty the crew of seven men were got into the Life-boat, and in landing them further difficulty was experienced owing to the heavy seas; this however was safely accomplished on the following morning, and the Life-boat was made safe at her moorings until the weather moderated sufficiently to enable the men to get her on to the pier.—Expense of service, 50l. 5s.

Nov. 22, 23, and 24.—ARANMORE.—Vandeleur Life-boat.—While a gale was blowing from S. accompanied by a high choppy sea and a heavy ground swell, the weather being thick and sleet falling, three fishing luggers were in distress while at anchor near Calf Island in Aran roads. The boats in question were the St. Paul, St. Eunan and St. Malaise. The Life-boat was called out on three occasions by signals of distress and rescued twenty men.—Expense of services, 74l. 12s.

Nov. 23.—RAMSEY.—Mary Isabella Life-boat.—A whole gale from S.S.E. accompanied by a very heavy sea with hail, snow, sleet, and very cold weather was experienced, and at 2.30 A.M. the Life-boat was launched in response to signals of distress. Considerable difficulty was experienced in launching the boat, the scour of the heavy seas enveloping the carriage and washing away the sand from under the wheel plates and causing the carriage to settle down and become almost immovable. By dogged perseverance, however, the difficulty was overcome and the boat was got afloat, reached the distressed vessel, the schooner William Thomson, of Dumfries, and rescued her crew of four men at about 3 o'clock. About twenty minutes afterwards, when about two miles from the shore, the boat was struck by a very heavy curling sea which carried away her mizen outhaul. She was at once anchored and the necessary repairs were executed. It was then discovered that the after drop-keel was gone, having probably been carried away by the same sea, as it was known to have been all right when the boat left the schooner. At 7 o'clock the Life-boat regained the harbour and at 8.10 was again called out by the schooner Bessie Arnold, of Whitehaven, which hoisted a signal of distress, being in danger a mile E. of the harbour. The crew of five men were rescued, the Life-boat returning with them to the harbour at 9 o'clock. At 11.10 a third call was received and five men were rescued from the ss. Mana Maid, of Ramsey, which had dragged her anchors, and her machinery having broken down, was in a dangerous position near the shore. The boat arrived at Ramsey at 11.55 A.M. and, no further help being needed, was shortly afterwards replaced in the boathouse.—Expense of services, 60l. 4s.

Nov. 23.—TOTLAND BAY.—Charles Luckombe Life-boat.—The three-masted schooner Ernst, of Barth, laden with salt from Liverpool for Dantzic, started for her voyage on 10th Nov. and encountered rough weather as soon as she entered the Channel. On nearing the St. Catherine Lighthouse the vessel was put about, being unable to weather the point, but her sails were blown away and she became unmanageable. She tried to enter the Solent through the Needles, but was carried by the strong ebb tide on to the Shingles bank. A message was despatched by telephone from the Needles Lighthouse and in response the Life-boat was launched at 9.15 P.M. in a whole gale from S. to S.E. and an unusually heavy sea. On nearing the vessel the boat anchored with the intention of veering alongside, but owing to the fierce wind and tide the anchor would not hold, and the boat drifted to leeward, and was forced to return to Totland Pier to obtain a tug. A delay, however, occurred in procuring one, and the boat again put to sea and anchored as near as possible to the vessel, so as to be ready to pick up any person who might be washed overboard. At 6.5 A.M. the vessel suddenly broke up, and the Life-boat at once got her anchor up and, rowing amongst the wreckage, succeeded in rescuing the master and two men of the crew. She remained searching for others until a tug came up, and then proceeded for Totland. Meanwhile a message had been received from the Needles Lighthouse stating that a raft with four men on it could be seen floating towards Christchurch. The boat was signalled to call at the pier, and, having received this intelligence, immediately proceeded in search of the raft, which, however, was washed ashore at Christchurch.—Expense of service, 48*l.* 19*s.*

Nov. 23.—SWANAGE AND POOLE.—William Erle and City Masonic Club Life-boats.—The Life-boats at these well-known places on the south coast were instrumental in rendering excellent service to vessels in great distress during the severe gales of November last. On the 23rd of that month the former boat, named William Erle, in memory of the late Lord Justice, was launched while the wind was blowing a whole gale from the South and a very heavy sea was running, a telephonic message having been received from Studland stating that a vessel was in a critical condition in that Bay between the Old Harry Rocks and Poole Bar and was signalling for assistance. The Life-boat very promptly reached the vessel, which proved to be a three-masted schooner, the Velocity, of Leith, bound to Poole from Shields with a cargo of coal, and found that she was riding heavily at her anchors and was in a leaky condition. The captain was naturally loth to leave while there was a chance of saving the ship, but on account of the severity of the gale the coxswain could not spare any of the crew of the boat to go on board to help at the pumps, and knowing that as the tide fell the schooner would bump heavily and probably become a wreck, he decided to go into the smooth water under the cliffs and stay there at anchor in readiness to rescue the crew. The Poole Life-boat, City Masonic Club, also arrived at this time, having been towed out over the bar by a steamer, but finding that the other boat was remaining in attendance she returned to her station. Some hours later, about 10 P.M., signals of distress were shown from the vessel, which had parted one of her cables and was dragging into shallower water. With much difficulty the Life-boat men rescued the master and his crew of five men, after which they made for Poole, which was reached at 3 A.M., by which time the Life-boat men had been afloat between 11 and 12 hours. The Poole Life-boat also went out again, but found that the Swanage boat had accomplished the rescue before her arrival. The schooner ultimately became a total wreck.

A few hours later the Poole Life-boat went out a third time in response to a telephone message from the Sandbanks Coastguard Station, that a vessel was in distress off Flag Head, near Bournemouth Bay, and very shortly afterwards the Coastguard at Southbourne, near Bournemouth, sent word that another ship was signalling for provisions and help. As the Swanage men were too exhausted to go out again, a fresh crew was mustered at Poole and took out their Life-boat with a supply of provisions. The wind was still blowing a strong gale, and there was a heavy sea in the Bay. The Poole boat was eventually successful in saving the crew of eight men from the vessel to which she was launched, the barquentine Frier, of Porsgrund, which afterwards stranded on the beach and became a total wreck. The other Life-boat discovered the barque Bonne Mère, of Havre, in a very dangerous position; her master requested the Life-boat would obtain a steam-tug and twelve men to try to get the vessel off, which she did, and the Poole Life-boat also went out in company with her in tow of the steamer. After rendering all the assistance they could, and the crew not wishing to leave the vessel, the two boats returned to Poole about nine o'clock at night. The following morning the Poole boat went out again, making her fifth launch in three days, and passed a hawser to the steam-tug, which then took the barque to Southampton, the Life-boat towing astern in case of need.—Expense of services other than those of property salvage, 129l. 7s. 7d.

The thanks of the Committee were accorded to H. BURDEN, Esq., Hon. Secretary of the Poole Branch, for going out in the Poole Life-boat and arranging for the Swanage Life-boat to proceed to the assistance of the vessels in distress.

Nov. 21.—TORQUAY.—James and Eliza Woodall Lifeboat.—The Lifeboat was launched at 9.45 A.M. and stood by six seine fishing-boats which were in danger, having been overtaken by a gale from S.E. with a heavy sea. The Life-boat remained at hand until all the boats safely entered the harbour, returning ashore at 11.15.—Expense of service, 11l. 9s.

Nov. 26.—WICKLOW.—Reserve No. 3 Life-boat.—The schooner Samuel Dixon, of and from Wexford, bound for Swansea, in trying to make Wicklow Harbour in a strong N.E. wind and a rough cross sea, failed to effect an entrance and was forced to bring up in a dangerous position close to the rocks near Wicklow Head. She showed signals of distress, and in response the Life-boat proceeded to her assistance at 11.30 A.M. and landed her crew of four men and two Wicklow hobblers who were on board.—Expense of service, 11l. 8s. 6d.

Nov. 29.—DUNGENESS.—R. A. O. B. Life-boat.—Intimation being received that a vessel was showing signals of distress off No. 2 Battery, the Life-boat was launched at 9.40 P.M., and found the three-masted schooner Meerents, bound from Riga for Bristol with deals, stranded. A moderate breeze was blowing from N.W., there was a heavy ground swell and the weather was thick and frosty. At the request of the master, the Life-boat men took the vessel to a safe position when she had been got off, and remained by her to ascertain whether she was leaking badly; but it was found that it was only to the extent of two inches per hour, and as she could be safely left, the Life-boat returned to her station, arriving at 3.20 A.M.—Expense of service, 29l. 12s. 6d.

Nov. 30.—GORLESTON.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—In response to signals from the St. Nicholas Light-vessel, the Life-boat put off at 5 A.M. in a moderate W.S.W. breeze and thick weather, with frost, and found three Scotch fishing-luggers stranded on the Scroby Sand, all of them being within a distance of a hundred yards. The Life-boat stood by them until they floated, and directed them the proper course to steer.—Expense of service, 32l. 9s. 6d.

Dec. 1.—COURTOWN.—Three Sisters Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 10 P.M., and rendered assistance to the smack Mayflower, of Courtown, which was in distress off Ballymoney in a strong breeze from W.S.W.—Expense of service, 30l. 19s. 6d.

Dec. 2.—FILEY.—Hollon the Second Life-boat.—The fishing-coble Lily was endeavouring to return to the shore, but was unable to make much progress, in a very strong gale from W. by N. and a rough sea. The Life-boat put off to her assistance at 2 P.M. and stood by her until she safely landed, as she was in considerable danger of being swamped.—Expense of service, 15l. 5s.

Dec. 2.—CAMPBELTOWN.—James Stevens No. 2 Life-boat.—In the morning a strong gale was raging from N.W., having commenced on the previous evening, and towards mid-day it increased in violence. At about 1 o'clock a small steamer, the Polar Light, of Greenock, bound from Troon for Campbeltown, was seen making for the port, but she was unable to reach the bay and was driven ashore on the N. side of Davar Island. At first the vessel was in no great danger, but as the tide came in the wind increased to almost hurricane force and the sea gradually became worse, and as the steamer was blown over to the W. side of the island and was in danger of being driven out to sea, it was decided to launch the Life-boat and proceed to her assistance. The Life-boat men found the vessel and crew in a helpless condition. The three men were taken into the Life-boat and safely landed. The steamer had only started from Campbeltown in the morning, and was putting back for shelter from the gale.—Expense of service, 24l. 8s. 6d.

Dec. 4.—PORTHEVEN.—Charles Henry Wright Life-boat.—The full-rigged ship Antonin, of Dunkirk, while trying to beat out of the bay in a strong S.W. breeze, a rough sea and thick weather, was observed to be in a dangerous position. The Life-boat was launched at 10.45 A.M. and proceeded to the vessel, which was then about three quarters of a mile from the lee shore and about a mile and a half from Porthleven. When the Life-boat neared her the master, after being signalled to, let down his anchor, and it was arranged that the Life-boat should go ashore to despatch a telegram to Falmouth for steam-tugs, and that the Life-boat should return and stand by the ship during the night if the tugs did not arrive. They came at 3.15 p.m. and the Life-boat went out a second time to see the vessel safely off, returning to the harbour at 4.15.—Expense of service, 10*l.* 16*s.*

Dec. 5.—SWANSEA.—Reserve Life-boat.—While a heavy gale was blowing from S.W., the steam-tug Saxon, of Falmouth, failed to make Briton Ferry in consequence of the heavy sea on the bar, and, while at anchor about a mile from the harbour entrance, the cable fouled her propeller and rendered it useless. Eventually she stranded on the Frenchman's Bank, the seas washing over her, and showed signals of distress, in reply to which the Life-boat was launched at 6.15 p.m. and rescued the crew, consisting of four men.—Expense of service, 24*l.* 10*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 8th Dec., 1898.

Voted 611*l.* 3*s.* 6*d.* to defray the cost of launches, watching, or assemblies of crews of the following Life-boats, with the view of assisting those on board vessels in distress:—Abersoch, Atherfield, Brixham, Broadstairs, Brooke, Caister No. 2, Cromer, Dungeness No. 1, Eastbourne, Folkestone, Gorleston No. 1, Harwich (steam Life-boat), Hasborough, Holyhead (steam Life-boat), Hornsea, Hythe, Margate Nos. 1 and 2, Newbiggin, New Romney, North Deal, Port Logan, Runswick, Wexford, Winterton No. 2, Withernsea and Great Yarmouth.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was also taken out, but her services were not ultimately needed.

The Committee specially recognised the services of Messrs. JOHN CALDER, GEORGE TOSK and THOS. H. DAWSON, retiring coxswains of the Life-boats at Huna, Runswick and Newbiggin, and of a Life-boat employé at Anstruther and the widow of a Life-boat man at Douglas, Isle of Man.

Voted 57*l.* 14*s.* 3*d.*, compensation and medical expenses, to Life-boat men injured at Grimsby, Piel, Hasborough, Campbeltown, Walmer, New Romney and Rosslare Harbour.

Dec. 8.—CULLERCOATS.—Co-Operator No. 1 Lifeboat.—The Life-boat put off at 9.40 a.m. and stood by the coble W. E. Gladstone, which was in considerable danger while trying to return to the harbour, the sea having rapidly risen and breaking heavily across the bar. She succeeded in getting in safely, but two other cobbles ran for Shields, their crews being afraid to attempt to enter Cullercoats.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 15*s.*

Dec. 10.—CAMPBELTOWN.—James Stevens, No. 2 Life-boat.—Signals were fired by the Davar Lighthouse, and afterwards a schooner was seen lying about a mile and a half N. of the island with a signal of distress flying. The Life-boat was launched at 10.15 a.m., and on reaching the schooner found her crew of four men in an exhausted condition, having been struggling for fifteen hours to keep the vessel from driving ashore. They were taken into the Life-boat and safely landed at 12.30 p.m. The schooner rode out the gale and was brought into port by a fishing-boat's crew. She was the Finlaggon, belonging to Campbeltown, and was homeward bound from Briton Ferry with a cargo of coal.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 15*s.* 9*d.*

Dec. 15.—SCARBOROUGH.—Queensbury Life-boat.—The yawl Five Brothers, of Scarborough, was seen about 7.30 p.m., evidently making for the harbour, but as the sea was very rough and the tide half ebb she had no chance of getting in, and the usual pier flare was lighted to warn her not to make the attempt. She then showed signals of distress, and the Life-boat, which proceeded to her assistance, found that she was in a sinking condition. The boat stood by her for an hour, when her crew of two men, who were greatly exhausted, decided to leave her and were taken into the Life-boat. The vessel, which was bound from Hartlepool for Orford, with coal, afterwards drove on the rocks about three miles north of Scarborough and became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 27*l.* 12*s.*

Dec. 16.—ROBIN HOOD'S BAY.—Ephraim and Hannah Fox Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 7.35 a.m. and landed the crew of eleven men from the s.s. Nad-Odd, of Egersund, which, while on a voyage from Hull to Blyth, stranded about three-quarters of a mile north of the coastguard station at Robin Hood's Bay, in a strong W. breeze, hazy weather and a rough sea.—Expense of service, 20l. 12s.

Dec. 18.—CLOVELLY.—Elinor Roget Life-boat.—The coastguard reported that a light had been observed, but on account of the thick fog no vessel could be seen. The Life-boat was launched at 7.20 A.M., and fortunately at that time the fog lifted a little and disclosed a three-masted schooner standing towards Bucks Ledge. The Life-boat proceeded to her and found she was the Reaper, of Truro, bound from Exmouth for Bideford with manure. The master wanted a pilot to take him over the bar, and the bowman of the Life-boat volunteering, he boarded the vessel and rendered the required help.—Expense of service, 13l. 8s.

Dec. 27.—CARRICKFERGUS.—Zaida Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 6.30 P.M., signals of distress having been seen, while a strong gale was blowing from S.W. accompanied by a very heavy sea. The signals were found to proceed from two vessels which were stranded. The first one reached was the brigantine C. M. Reynolds, of Belfast, in ballast from Belfast for Maryport. Dropping down on the vessel, the heaving cane was thrown on board over the stern, and having got a warp from the ship, her crew of five men climbed along the rope into the Life-boat. She was then hauled clear and set sail for the other vessel, the brigantine Huntress, of and for Belfast, coal laden from Swansea, which was lying about a quarter of a mile to leeward. Having rescued the crew of four men, sail was again set and the harbour was reached at about 9 P.M. The behaviour of the Life-boat gave great satisfaction to the crew and gained the admiration of the large number of people who witnessed the service.—Expense of service, 20l. 4s.

Dec. 27.—RAMSEY.—Mary Isabella Life-boat.—While a whole gale was blowing from S.W., with a heavy sea, signals of distress were shown by the schooner Twin Sisters, of and for Drummore from Liverpool, with a general cargo. She was riding heavily about a mile E.S.E. of the harbour, and her windlass had been rendered useless by the strain of the anchors. Her crew of three men were taken on board the Life-boat, which returned with them to the harbour at 3.45, and at 4.40 was again called out by signals shown by the schooners Return, of Greenock, and Annie Warren, of Aberdovey. The gale was still furious, but the Life-boat sailed through it in grand style. All the loose spars and oars had to be secured, the heavy seas filling the boat and nearly washing them away. Five men were rescued from each of the two vessels and the harbour was regained at 5.50.—Expense of services, 41l. 0s. 6d.

Dec. 27-29.—CAMPBELTOWN.—James Stevens No. 2 Life-boat.—On the morning of the 27th a heavy gale was blowing from W.S.W., with a heavy sea, and gradually increased as the day advanced. At about 10.15 the schooner Rhoda, of Portrush, was seen to be dragging her anchors; one of her cables parted, and she showed signals of distress. The Life-boat put off to her assistance, reached her just as she was commencing to strike the rocks on the south side of Maeriman's point, and with some difficulty succeeded in rescuing her crew of five men. The vessel then was driven broadside on to the rocks, and being dashed against them it was feared she would become a total wreck, but fortunately the tide rose very high, carried her over the rocks and left her high and dry.

After landing these men a small boat was reported to be drifting to sea in a helpless condition with one man on board. The Life-boat immediately proceeded out again, and on coming up with the boat found that its occupant was a lad, who having become frightened at the storm had put off from the ketch Oimara, of Campbeltown, hoping to be able to reach the shore. But for the timely arrival of the Life-boat he would in all probability have lost his life.

Through the following day the storm continued to rage with exceptional severity, the wind having veered to W.N.W., and at midnight the schooner James Shearer, belonging to Campbeltown and bound for Belfast, was seen dragging her anchors and in danger of driving ashore at the French point. She showed signals, and at 12.30 A.M. the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to her aid. She was then in close proximity to the shore, and at the request of the master four of the crew of the Life-boat went on board to assist the crew, who were in an exhausted condition, the Life-boat remaining by. In about two hours the weather considerably moderated, and as the vessel's anchors were holding and no further help was needed, the Life-boat then left her and returned to her station, arriving at 3.30 A.M.—Expenses of services, 47*l.* 7*s.* 3*d.*

Dec. 29.—FISHGUARD.—Appin Life-boat.—Soon after 11 P.M., while a strong gale was blowing from N.N.E. with heavy squalls and a heavy sea, signals of distress were shown by the schooners Leander and Thomas, both of Carnarvon, at anchor in the bay. The Life-boat was launched and proceeded under oars first to the Leander and then to the Thomas, from each of which she rescued a crew of three men, safely landing them at the new pier at Goodwick at 12.20. The Leander rode out the gale, but the other vessel parted her cables, drove ashore, and sunk.

Dec. 31.—DUNGENESS.—R.A.O.B. Life-boat.—The full-rigged ship Glenard, of Port Glasgow, with a general cargo, from Shields for San Francisco, stranded at No. 2 Battery in thick weather. Intimation of the casualty being received, the Life-boat was launched at 1.45 A.M., and with the help of a steam-tug succeeded in getting the ship afloat.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 31.—FILEY.—Hollon the Second Lifeboat.—The Life-boat was launched at 9.30 A.M. and remained in attendance on several fishing-cobles, which were in danger while returning to the shore, a strong gale from the S.S.E. having sprung up, accompanied by a very rough sea.

Dec. 31.—Voted 263*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.* to pay the expenses of assemblies, watching, or launches with the view of assisting the crews of distressed vessels by the following Life-boats:—Ayr, Broadstairs, Dunbar, Girvan, Holyhead (steam Life-boat), Irvine, Littlehampton, Mullion, Newbiggin, Padstow, Port Patrick, Rosslare Harbour, St. Agnes, St. Mary's, Sornoway, Stromness, Troon, Whithorn and Worthing.

SHORE-BOAT SERVICES REWARDED BY THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION IN 1898.

Jan. 13.—Voted 2*l.* each to the four survivors of the crew of the Margate beachmen's surf boat Friend of all Nations, which was capsized, with the loss of nine of her crew, while on her way to a distressed vessel on the 2nd December last.

Also 5*l.* to twenty men for rendering help to four of the crew of the Martha Ellen, of Goole, which stranded at Blakeney, Norfolk, in a whole gale from N.W. and a very heavy sea on the 29th November. The sum of 15*s.* was also granted to the owner of a boat which was damaged on the occasion.

Also 4*l.* 15*s.* to the master and crew of the lugger Love Lane, of Wexford, for endeavouring to rescue those on board the schooner Margaret, of Beaumaris, which they had observed stranded on the Blackwater Bank, on the 3rd December. Finding they were unable to effect communication with the wreck, they attracted the attention of those on shore, and a coastguard boat put off and rescued the shipwrecked men.

Also 3*l.* 15*s.* to six men for rescuing four men from a boat belonging to the s.s. Heligoland, of Hamburg, which was unable to regain the vessel, in Carmarthen Bay, in a fresh S. gale and a very heavy sea on the 14th December. The men were greatly exhausted, the boat was half full of water and had lost her mast.

Also 3*l.* to six men for rendering assistance to four of the crew of the Norwegian barque Fram, who had taken to one of their boats, the vessel having stranded near Auchmithie, Forfarshire, on the 26th December.

Also 2*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.* to five persons for rescuing one of three men from a fishing boat, which had been capsized off Isle Martin, Cromarty, in a strong N.N.W. breeze, a rough sea and thick weather, on the 17th September.

Also 2*l.* to two men for wading into the surf and rescuing one of the crew of the brig Penine, of Newhaven, which had stranded at Palling, Norfolk, in a whole gale from N.N.W. and a very heavy sea on the 29th November.

Also 1*l.* 10*s.* to three fishermen of Filey, Yorkshire, for rescuing nine men from the boat of the stranded s.s. Centaur, of Grimsby, in a strong S. gale and a rough sea, on the 13th December.

Also 1*l.* to two men for rescuing a man whose boat had struck on a rock, and sunk between the Mewstone and the mainland in a strong N.E. breeze and a heavy sea, on the 1st November.

Jan. 13.—A man rescued the boat Mischief, of Peppercombe, Devon, containing two men, which was helplessly drifting out to sea in Barnstaple Bay, in a fresh S.E. breeze and a moderate sea.—Reward, 10*s.*

Feb. 8.—Six men rescued three other men from a boat which had been capsized by a heavy sea near the entrance to Portrush harbour, co. Antrim.—Reward, 2*l.* 5*s.*

Feb. 10.—Voted 4*l.* 15*s.* to six men for putting off in a yawl and rescuing the master of the schooner Hilda, of Bridgwater, which had stranded and sunk close under the cliff at Duncannon Fort, Ireland, in a strong S.S.W. gale, a high sea, and thick weather on the 27th December. The crew of the vessel had landed in their own boat to obtain assistance, but were unable to return to their vessel.

Also 1*l.* 15*s.* to seven men for putting off in a boat with the view of rescuing two men on board the schooner Margaret, of Beaumaris, stranded on the Blackwater Bank, Ireland, in a S.W. wind and a moderate sea on the 3rd December. The two men were rescued by a coastguard boat.

Feb. 12.—Nine men saved the fishing boats Mary and Ann Alexandrina, of Montrose, and their crews of six men, which were in danger while returning to port in a strong S.S.W. gale and a very heavy sea.—Reward, 3*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*

Feb. 12.—Nine fishermen rescued four other fishermen who were unable to return to Cromarty, a fresh gale having sprung up, accompanied by a heavy sea.—Reward, 4*l.* 10*s.*

Feb. 25.—Five men rescued the crew of three men from the schooner Grace Phillips, of Carnarvon, which had stranded off Holyhead, in a W.N.W. gale, and a moderate sea.—Reward, 3*l.* 15*s.*

March 7.—Eight men saved a fishing boat and her crew of four men, which had been capsized at Knockadoon, co. Cork, in a moderate E.S.E. gale and a rough sea.—Reward, 4*l.*

March 18.—Seven fishermen rendered service on the occasion of the capsizing of the fishing yawl Britannia, of Dundee, near Kingsbarns, Fifeshire, in a strong S.W. gale and a rough sea.—Reward, 1*l.* 5*s.*

April 6.—Two men rescued the crew of two men of a boat capsized off Trefri Point, Merionethshire, in a rough sea.—Reward, 15*s.*

April 6.—A crew manned the Institution's boarding boat at New Brighton and stood by the smack Frederica, of Liverpool, which stranded on the Burbo Bank in a strong W. breeze, a rough sea, and hazy weather.—Reward, 9*l.* 5*s.*

April 7.—Voted 25*l.* in aid of the fund raised locally for the widow and family of a man who lost his life in an endeavour to assist the crew of the private Life-boat Seagull, of Bridlington, who were in considerable peril, the boat being dashed against the sea wall and entirely destroyed when about to proceed to sea on service in a strong E.N.E. gale and a very heavy sea on the 25th March.

April 20.—Two men saved two men from a capsized boat belonging to the yacht Marie, of Hoylake, in a smooth sea.—Reward, 10*s.*

May 15.—Three men put off in a boat and saved two men from the boat Edith, of Campbelltown, which had been capsized off Peninver, Argyllshire.—Reward, 15*s.*

July 9.—Two men put off in a boat and saved one of two men whose boat had been capsized in broken water in Durlston Bay, Dorset, in a light E. breeze.—Reward, 10s.

2s. 6d. was also granted to the man who gave the first intimation of the capsizing of the boat.

July 14.—Voted the thanks of the Institution, inscribed on vellum, to EVAN ROBERTS, an aneroid barometer to HUGH EVANS and ROBERT JOHN HUGHES, and 1l. to WALTER JONES for their very praiseworthy services in saving life from several boats in danger at Rhos-on-Sea, on the 3rd June. A framed vellum recording the services of their late son was presented to the parents of Mr. EDWARD MORGAN, who unfortunately lost his own life in endavouring to rescue others from drowning on this occasion.

July 24.—Two men rescued one of three men from a boat which had been capsized in Newbiggin Bay, in a moderate N.E. breeze and a heavy ground swell.—Reward 1l.

Also 2l. 5s. to nine other men who put off in boats and endeavoured to rescue the two men who were drowned.

Aug. 1.—A man assisted to save five persons (two of whom died soon after being rescued) from a boat which had been capsized off Campbelltown, in squally weather.—Reward, 1l.

Aug. 9.—Two men rescued two men from a sailing-boat which, while returning from the Skerries to Cemlyn, Anglesey, in a strong S.W. breeze and a heavy ground swell, became impaled on an old wreck, about a mile E. of Carmel's point.—Reward, 15s.

Aug. 27.—Three men rescued four of the crew of the schooner Röskilde, of Röskilde, Denmark, which was capsized in a squall off Kinghorn, Fifeshire.—Reward, 3l.

Sept. 18.—Two men put off in a boat and rescued a pleasure boat, containing two men, which was drifting out to sea at Llandudno, in a moderate W. gale.—Reward, 1l.

Oct. 13.—Voted the thanks of the Institution, inscribed on vellum and framed, to Mr. GEORGE R. WACE, for saving life under the following circumstances:—While three boats were racing at Aberdovey, on the 23rd August, one of them carried away her mast and drifted into the breakers on the bar, where she was completely filled. Her two occupants were thrown into the water, but were able to cling to the boat. Major Danks and John Price, boatman, who were in a small fishing boat, dropped their anchor to enable them to take down their sail prior to rowing to the rescue, but the anchor dragged, their boat was filled, and Price unfortunately lost his life. Major Danks retained hold of the sprit and was rescued by Mr. Wace, who was in one of the competing boats, and proceeded to his assistance after having saved the occupants (one of whom was his son) of the other swamped boat. The third competing boat went up the river and obtained the assistance of the fishing boat Cetewayo, which sailed down the estuary and took them into the harbour.

Voted 50l. to the widow and daughter of John Price, who thus lost his own life in a noble endeavour to save others. He had been a member of the crew of the Aberdovey Life-boat for forty years.

Oct. 16.—Six men put off in a boat from Groomsport, Co. Down, and rescued the Master of the s.s. Dabriada, which stranded on Briggs' Reef, in a strong E. wind. The crew had already been rescued by the Life-boat, but the Master then declined to leave the vessel.—Reward, 1l. 10s.

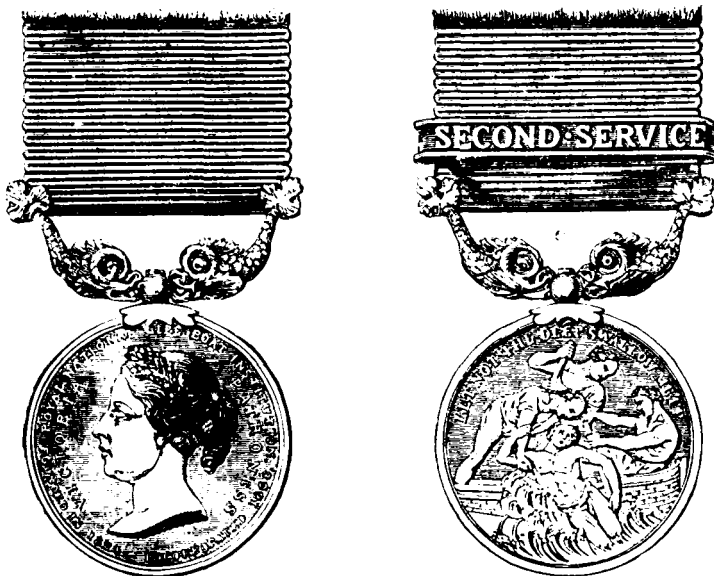

The sum of 17s. 6d. was awarded to seven men who rendered assistance, and 10s. was granted to the owner of the boat used on the occasion.

Oct. 18.—Five men rescued, by means of lines, one of the crew of the barque Birger, of Rauma, which was totally wrecked off Redcar.—Reward, 1l. 17s. 6d.

Nov. 3.—Two pilots put off in a boat from the steam-tug Mabel, and rescued one of the crew of the barquentine Angot, of Christiania, which had stranded in the Burry Inlet, Carmarthenshire, in a strong W.N.W. breeze and a heavy sea. The remainder of the vessel's crew, who had taken to their boat, succeeded in getting back to the ship, which afterwards drove across the channel, and went aground on the mainland.—Reward, 1l.

Dec. 8.—Voted the thanks of the Institution, inscribed on vellum and framed, with the sum of 1l. each, to ANGUS MACLEAN, DUNCAN MACALPINE, and TURNER MACALISTER, seamen of the steam yacht Iris, for lowering a small boat from that vessel and gallantly proceeding in it to the assistance of the caretaker on board the steam yacht Bertie, of Greenock, whom they rescued. The vessel was being filled by heavy seas, and ultimately sunk at her moorings in Gourcock Bay, Renfrewshire, in a strong gale from E.N.E., and a very heavy sea, on the 17th October.

THE
 FOR THE PRESERVATION OF LIFE FROM SHIPWRECK.

Obverse.—Bust of Her Majesty Queen Victoria; beneath, in minute letters, “L. C. Wyon.” Double legend, “Royal National Life-boat Institution. Founded in 1824. Incorporated 1860. Victoria, Patroness.”
Reverse.—Three sailors in a Life-boat,—one of whom is in the act of rescuing an exhausted mariner from the waves on a fragment of the wreck. “W. Wyon, Mint.” Inscription, “Let not the deep swallow me up.”

THE beautiful obverse of this medal, executed by the late L. C. WYON, Esq., represents the bust of QUEEN VICTORIA, Her Majesty's locks gracefully waving and gathered in a knot behind, from which issues a wreath of oak clustering over the forehead. This life-like portrait of the QUEEN, in high relief, conveys a truly pleasing and faithful likeness of HER MAJESTY at that period (1862), combining the dignity of aspect and benevolence which have always characterised the Queen throughout her long and prosperous reign.

The reverse, representing the Life-boat, in which there are three Seamen, rescuing a fourth from the sea, is a work of great merit. Two of the men are steadying the boat, while the other, stooping, draws in the Shipwrecked Sailor, whose figure is given so as to show the form in the most natural manner; and the expression thrown into his countenance looking up to his preserver is supplicating in the extreme, while the easy flowing lines of this sailor are finely contrasted by those of his companions: the whole displaying a perfect knowledge of the human frame, and a command of the graver to embody what he had shadowed out to himself.

But there is another pleasing motive for admiration of this beautiful Medal, as the figure who is so humanely extending his relief to the drowning Mariner is a portrait of the Artist, the late WILLIAM WYON, Esq., R.A.

The colour of the ribbon (which is corded silk) attached to the medal is blue.

The following is a LIST of the GOLD and SILVER MEDALS which have been voted by the Committee of the Institution from its establishment in 1824 to the 31st Dec., 1898, to persons whose humane and intrepid exertions in saving Life from Shipwreck on our Coasts, etc., have been deemed sufficiently conspicuous to merit that honourable distinction. The Cases will be found recorded in detail in the several Annual Reports of the Institution.

The total number of Medals and Clasps granted by the Institution is 1,271, 98 of which are in Gold, and 1,173 in Silver.

Note.—The asterisk (*) after the name denotes the reception of a Gold Medal or Clasp. The figure after the name signifies the number of honorary distinctions received from the Institution. Abbreviations.—C.G.—Coast Guard. R.C.—Revenue Cruiser. M.M.—Master Mariner.

THE LIFE-BELT USED BY THE CREWS OF THE LIFE-BOATS OF THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

The requisite qualities of a Life-boat man's life-belt are—

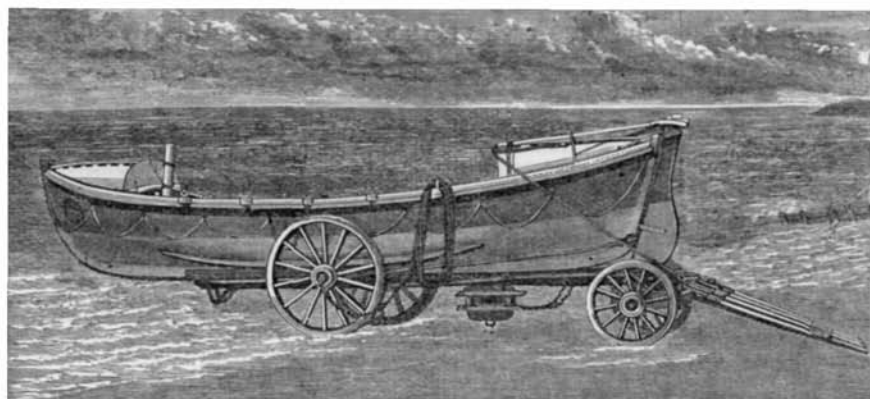

1. Sufficient extra buoyancy, 22 lbs., to support a man heavily clothed, with his head and shoulders above the water, or to enable him to support another person besides himself.

2. Perfect flexibility, so as to readily conform to the shape of the wearer.

3. A division into two zones, an upper and lower, so that between the two it may be secured tightly round the waist; for in no other manner can it be confined sufficiently close and secure round the body without such pressure over the chest and ribs as to materially affect the free action of the lungs, impede the muscular movement of the chest and arms, and thereby diminish the power of endurance of fatigue, which, in rowing-boats, is a matter of vital importance.

4. Strength, durability and non-liability to injury.

THE LIFE-BOAT STATION.

THE following brief description and diagrams illustrative of a complete Life-boat Establishment, including the House for the protection of the boat, will serve to convey an idea of the general character of one of the 294 Life-boat Stations of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

It will be seen that it is a work of a costly nature, and that not only in the first instance, but that a large permanent expense is entailed in keeping the whole machinery in an efficient state, in the re-supply of any part of it which may be destroyed or worn out, in the exercise of the boats' crews, in launching and working the boats, and in remunerating them for their services in saving their fellow-creatures. Yet, looking to the vast importance of the result effected, and the responsibility of calling on men to risk their lives in effecting the same, it is felt that few if any persons will be found who will consider that expense to be incurred in vain.

THE LIFE-BOAT.

The following drawings show the general outline and principal fittings of a 34 feet by 7½ feet self-righting boat. Figure 1 gives the profile or broadside view, the shaded part showing that devoted to the air-cases, which give extra buoyancy. The letter A shows the deck, and the unshaded parts the relieving-tubes, by which any water that breaks on board escapes. The shaded part of the keel, B, represents the ballast composed of iron. The festooned dotted lines are the life-lines outside the boat, for men to catch hold of when overboard.

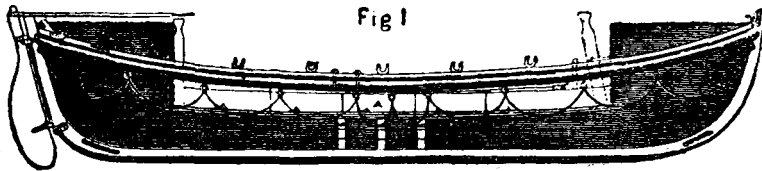

In Figure 2, the unshaded space, A, represents the uncovered part of the deck,

B, the relieving-tubes, C, the side air-cases above the deck, D, the end air-cases, E, the ventilating scuttles, F, the water-ballast tanks, G, the plugs, and H, the pumps of the ballast tanks.

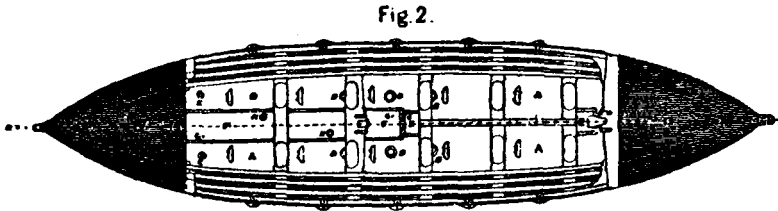

Figure 3 represents the body plan or cross sections at various distances from stem to stern.

MIDSHIP SECTION.

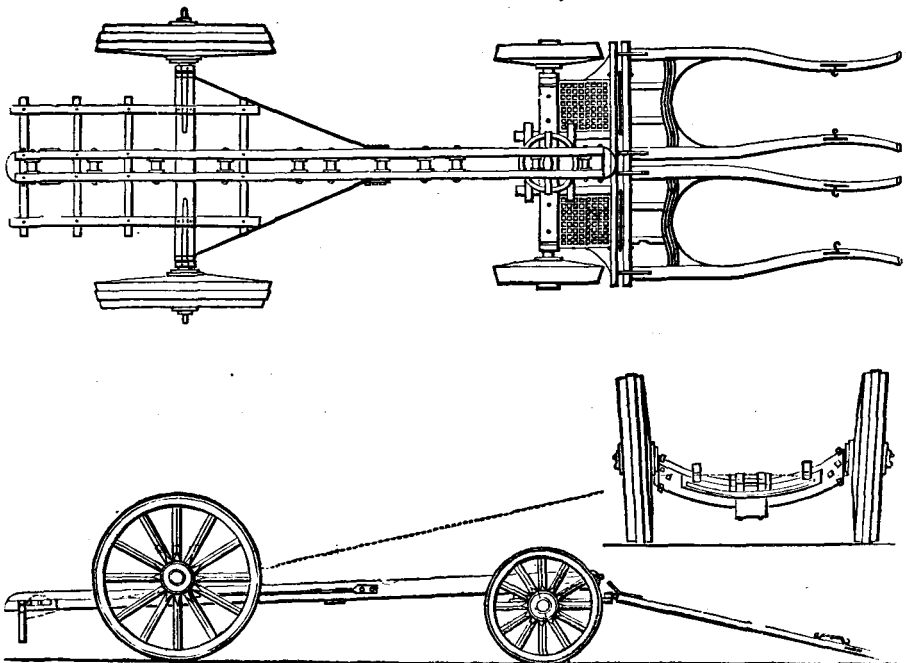

This Life-boat possesses in the highest degree all the qualities which it is desirable that a Life-boat should possess:—

1. Great lateral stability, or resistance to upsetting.
2. Speed against a heavy sea.
3. Facility for launching and taking the shore.
4. Immediate self-discharge of any water breaking into her.
5. The important advantage of self-righting if upset.
6. Strength.
7. Stowage room for a large number of passengers.

THE LIFE-BOAT TRANSPORTING-CARRIAGE.

The Life-boat transporting-carriage is a very important auxiliary to the boat. Nearly every Life-boat, except a few of the larger size, is provided with a carriage, on which she is kept in the boat-house ready for immediate transportation to the most favourable position for launching to a wreck. A Life-boat is thus made available for a greater extent of coast than she otherwise would be; and even when launched from abreast of the boat-house, she can generally be much quicker conveyed to the water's edge than without a carriage. In addition to this ordinary use, a carriage is of immense service in launching a boat from a beach; indeed, to such an extent is this the case, that a boat can be readily launched from a carriage in a high surf, when without one it would often be very difficult to do so.

The carriage consists of a fore and main body. The latter is formed of a keelway, and of bilgeways attached to it, and resting on the main axle, the boat's weight being entirely on the rollers of the keelway. Its leading characteristics are that while for launching it forms an inclined plane, down which the boat can be launched off the rear end with considerable impetus, it can also be used for replacing the boat, the inclined plane being reversed by removing the fore-carriage.

A very full equipment of stores is supplied to the Life-boats of the Institution—such as cork life-belts, anchors and cables, grapnels and lines, life-buoys, lanterns, rockets, and many other articles, together with portable or launching-skids.

THE LIFE-BOAT HOUSE.

The boats of the NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION, and all belonging to them, are kept in roomy and substantial boat-houses, under lock and key, in charge of paid coxswains, under the general superintendence of local honorary committees of residents in the several localities. Each boat has its appointed coxswain at a salary of 8*l.*, and an assistant at 2*l.* a year, with further allowances under special circumstances. The crew consists, in addition, of a bowman, who is paid 30*s.* a year, and as many boatmen as the boat pulls oars. A signalman is also appointed who receives a retaining fee of 1*l.* per annum, and payment as a helper each time he is on duty. The members of the volunteer crews are registered and, wherever practicable, at least double the number of men required are entered on the register. Such men are mostly resident boatmen, fishermen or Coastguardmen. On every occasion of going afloat to save life, the coxswains and each of the crew receive alike from the funds of the Institution (whether successful or not) 10*s.*, if by day, and 1*l.*, if by night; and usually 4*s.* each for every time of going afloat for exercise. It should be specially noted that the Life-boat crews, excepting when remunerated by the owners of vessels for property salvage service, are paid by the Institution for their efforts, whether successful or not, in saving life. These payments are increased by one half during the six months of each year beginning the 1st October, and ending the 31st March. The Institution also grants retiring allowances to Coxswains, Bowmen and Signalmen of good behaviour and long service.

A reward of 7*s.* is given to the man who first brings intelligence of a wreck in such a position as not to be in sight of a Coastguard man on duty or other responsible look-out man.

A flag hoisted by day, and the firing of a carronade (or other alarm signal) by night, are the well-known signals for calling the crew together.

On boarding wrecks, the preservation of life is the sole consideration. Should any goods or merchandise be brought into the Life-boat, contrary to the coxswain's remonstrance, he is authorised to throw them overboard.

The formation of a Life-boat Station costs more than 1,000*l.*, and the Annual Expense of maintaining it is about 100*l.*—in many instances much more.

Such is a brief summary of the chief of the Regulations under which the Life-boats are worked. How faithfully and with what result they are carried out let the journals of each Life-boat Station and the annals of the Institution tell.

The NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION has now 294 Life-boats under its charge. Nearly all of these have been specially presented to it, and they save every year hundreds of shipwrecked sailors. Altogether, the Institution has granted rewards for the saving of 41,233 lives, either by its Life-boats or by other means.

Despite, however, this fleet of 294 Life-boats, and of 15 others locally provided or otherwise supported, and despite the numerous rocket apparatus stations on our coast, there remains the melancholy fact that between 500 and 600 lives are lost annually on or near the coasts of the United Kingdom alone, as shown by the Board of Trade Returns, proclaiming solemnly, though silently, that, for humanity's sake, and for the national credit, no exertions should be spared in providing every possible means for the conveyance of succour to the shipwrecked.

The Institution needs an income of at least 80,000*l.* to maintain its great Life-saving Fleet; and the Committee feel assured that it will never lack it so long as it maintains its boats in the state of thorough efficiency that they are in at the present time, and manned as they are on every emergency by as fearless and noble a class of men as ever Nelson or Collingwood led to battle to uphold our country's honour and glory.
