JOURNAL

OF THE

Royal National Life-boat Institution.

(ISSUED QUARTERLY.)

VOL. XVIII.—No. 200.]

1ST MAY, 1901.

[PRICE 1s.

AT the ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION, held at the Town Hall, Westminster, on Saturday, the 20th day of April, 1901, His Grace the DUKE OF NORTHUMBERLAND, K.G., in the Chair, the following Report of the Committee of Management was submitted and adopted :—

ANNUAL REPORT.

WITH the New Year and the opening Century, a great and irreparable loss fell on the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION in the death, on the 22nd January, of its beloved Patron, Her Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA. Her Majesty, ever ready to promote and help any work for the benefit of her people, graciously became the Patron of the Institution on her accession to the Throne in 1837, and never ceased through the very long period of her eventful and glorious reign of 63 years to take a warm interest in its welfare, being also one of the largest Annual Subscribers.

The Committee of Management have also with great regret to record the loss which the Institution sustained last July by the death of H.R.H. the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, Duke of Edinburgh, K.G., who had been a Vice-Patron of the Institution since 1883. His Royal Highness had taken an active interest in the Institution and its work since 1873, having presided and spoken at its meetings on two occasions, served on the Committee of Management for three years, and in various other ways assisted to promote and advance the welfare of the Institution.

The past year, as a whole, proved an anxious one for the Committee of Management, owing to the increased difficulty which they met with in their efforts to raise sufficient funds to carry on and maintain in efficiency the great National Life-Saving Work entrusted to them. This difficulty was due to the numerous appeals which were made throughout the whole year, in every part of the United Kingdom, in connection with the War in South Africa, to which were added, during several months, extensive public collections to relieve the Famine in India. The Committee have not however in any way relaxed their efforts, and they trust that their subscribers and friends will consider that, notwithstanding great obstacles, they have rendered a good account of their stewardship.

Life-boats.—New sailing or pulling Life-boats, fully equipped and thoroughly adapted for their purpose, were supplied to 17 stations during the year after the fullest consultation with the crews who man them. Of these, 3 went to altogether new stations, namely, one to Buckhaven on the Firth of Forth, one to Sunderland, North Dock (Durham), and the third to Helvick Head (Dungarvan Bay); the remaining 14 were placed at stations where the existing Boats had become either unfitted for their work, on account of age or injuries, or owing to changed conditions.

The following is a complete list of the Stations to which the new boats were sent:—

Arbroath	Forfarshire.
Buckhaven	Fifeshire.
Cambois	Northumberland.
Dungarvan Bay . . .	Co. Waterford.
Holy Island (No. 2 Life-boat)	Northumberland.
Hunstanton	Norfolk.
Johnshaven	Kincardineshire.
New Romney	Kent.
Porthleven	} Cornwall.
Porthoustock
Port Patrick	Wigtownshire.
Sunderland (North Dock)	Durham.
Swansea	Glamorganshire.
Tynemouth (No. 2 Life-boat)	Northumberland.
Walton-on-Naze . . .	Essex.
Wexford	Co. Wexford.
Winchelsea	Sussex.

It has been found desirable, owing to change in the local requirements, and with the full concurrence of the Local Committees, to withdraw Boats from Thorpeness (Suffolk), Morthoe (North Devon), Ballinacourty (Co. Waterford), Roker (Durham), Sunderland, South Pier (Durham), and Grimsby (Lincolnshire). In the case of the four last-mentioned Boats, improved arrangements have been made in the respective localities thereby obviating the necessity of retaining the Boats in question.

At the close of the year the Institution's fleet comprised 286 Life-boats.

Transporting Carriages.—New Transporting Carriages have been supplied to 11 Stations.

Inspection of Life-boats, etc.—All the Institution's Life-boats and Stations have been very carefully and thoroughly inspected during the past year, a full and detailed report of each inspection, many of which were "surprise visits," being submitted to and considered by the Committee of Management.

Shipwrecks.—The year 1900, although not so fine as its two predecessors, was not until quite the end of the year remarkable for either stormy or bad weather, but was rather noticeable for its unseasonably mild, dull, and persistently rainy seasons. Such gales as did prevail, however, were not as a rule of long duration or of unusual force, but were fairly distributed throughout the year and on the different parts of the coast. The heaviest gales of the year occurred on the 15-16th February, the 3rd-4th August, and the 27-29th December. On these occasions there were 54 launches of Life-boats, resulting, during the February gale, in the saving of 66 lives and 2 vessels; of 25 lives and 2 vessels during that in August, and of 60 lives in the two gales at the end of December. Throughout the year the Life-boats were launched on service 362 times, and 1,056 times for exercise, besides which, the crews assembled on 55 other occasions, when it was thought that their services would be required.

It is with the profoundest sorrow the Committee have to report, that whilst the new protected-screw steam Life-boat, stationed at Padstow (Cornwall) as recently as February 1899, was proceeding to the assistance of a vessel in distress, on the 11th April last, the wind at the time blowing hard from the W.N.W., she was suddenly struck by a tremendous sea rolling up on the port quarter; the sea broke as it struck her, and turned her over, with the result that she became a complete wreck and was washed up on the rocks. Eight of her crew perished, namely, the engine-room staff of four, who were below, and four of the deck hands all of whom had on their life-belts. The Committee forthwith contributed £1000 to the relief fund opened in the locality and county for the benefit of the dependent relatives of the drowned men and met all the expenses connected with the funerals, etc. The Board of Trade, at the request of the Committee, very carefully inquired into the disaster and could not find that it was attributable either to faulty construction of the Life-boat or mismanagement by her crew. Having regard to the terrible nature of the disaster and the exceptional requirements of the locality the Committee have decided not to replace the wrecked Steam Life-boat, but to substitute for it a sailing Life-boat to be towed by a Steam-tug which has been specially designed for the purpose by Mr. G. L. Watson, the Consulting Naval Architect of the Institution and is now being built.

The total number of lives for the saving of which the Institution granted rewards in 1900 was 865, of which 690 were saved by the Life-boats, and 175

by shore-boats and other means, in addition to which the Life-boat crews were instrumental in saving 35 vessels.

The details of the services rendered during each month of the year, are given in the preceding table.

The total number of lives, for the saving of which the Institution has bestowed rewards since its establishment in 1824, by Life-boats, shore-boats, or by other means, has been 42,707, the number in each year being as follows:—

Rewards.—The rewards given last year by the Institution for the saving of life from shipwreck on the coasts of the United Kingdom or for meritorious and prompt efforts to do so, and in recognition of other good services rendered, included 11 Silver Medals and Clasps, 16 Binocular Glasses, 4 Aneroid Barometers, 36 Votes of Thanks inscribed on vellum and framed, 11 Certificates of Service framed and 10,662l. 0s. 1d., including grants to the relatives of men lost on Service, compensation for personal injuries sustained in the Service, and retiring allowances.

At the close of the year the Institution had bestowed altogether in rewards since 1824, 98 Gold Medals and Clasps, 1,192 Silver Medals and Clasps, 305 Binocular Glasses, 15 Telescopes, 28 Aneroid Barometers, 1,672 Votes of Thanks inscribed on vellum and framed, 127 Certificates of Service framed and 211,348l. 17s. 6d. in money.

Aneroids.—During the year there was a constant demand for the excellent and reliable aneroid barometers which the Institution has supplied at a greatly reduced price to the masters and owners of fishing boats and small coasters since 1882. The total number disposed of last year was 118. Of these 97 were supplied to fishermen and 21 to coasters. The total number issued has been 4,290.

Electrical Communication on the Coast.—Further additions, with a view to completing the scheme, have been made to the system of electrical communication established on the coast for life-saving purposes, and the system each year increasingly proves its need, usefulness and importance. The Committee regret that the Government have not as yet seen their way to utilize wireless telegraphy for light-vessels, especially as the Borkam light-vessel, 20 miles off the German coast, has been utilized since last spring for life-saving and commercial purposes by means of wireless telegraphy. They trust, however, that the full advantages of the discovery may ere long be secured for this country.

Local Committees.—The duties of the Local Committees have been more than usually onerous during the past year owing to the increased difficulty experienced in raising funds for the Institution, caused by the appeals so generally made throughout the length and breadth of the land in connection with the South African War and the Indian Famine. The most hearty and grateful thanks of the Committee of Management are therefore due, and are tendered to all the Honorary Officials of the Institution, including the Branch Committees, Secretaries and Treasurers; and the Committee would express the earnest hope and belief that in the near future all those who have generously co-operated with them in so self-denying a way may see a better and more encouraging result of their unceasing and unselfish labours.

The Committee also desire to acknowledge the very important assistance which they have received from the Public Press, and to recognise the valuable and much appreciated co-operation of H.M. Coastguard.

The cordial acknowledgments of the Committee are also tendered to all who have been so good as to submit for their consideration inventions, suggestions and patents which might possibly, as they hoped, be utilized for increasing the efficiency of the Service.

Life-boat Saturday.—The efforts of the Central Committee of the Life-boat Saturday Fund, the Life-boat Saturday Committees and the Ladies' Auxiliaries throughout the country have been very severely handicapped during the past year by the South African War and Indian Famine Funds. In many instances it was found necessary to abandon Demonstrations and Collections altogether, and in others to modify the arrangements which had been made. The best and grateful thanks, as well as the sympathy of the Institution, are therefore tendered to all the Life-boat Saturday Workers, and the Committee of Management are hopeful that brighter days are in store for the movement in the New Year. It is gratifying to find, however, that notwithstanding adverse circumstances, Life-boat Saturday Demonstrations and Collections were made in 93 cities and towns, and of these four towns had not previously participated in the movement.

Finances.—The total amount received by the Committee of Management last year in subscriptions, donations, dividends, etc., and including the contribution (11,666*l.* 5*s.* 9*d.*) received from Life-boat Saturday Fund, was 69,693*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*, a considerable falling off of 2,895*l.* 0*s.* 9*d.*, as compared with the corresponding total of the previous year. The loss was mainly due to the diminution in the amounts received under the heads of donations and Life-boat Saturday collections, entirely caused, it is believed, by the South African War and Indian Famine Funds. A further amount of 31,491*l.* 1*s.* 10*d.* was received in legacies, of which 12,796*l.* 3*s.* 2*d.* was for special trusts and other specific purposes.

The total expenditure in 1900—enormously increased by the great rise in price of all materials and labour—was 95,623*l.* 3*s.* 7*d.*, and included 43,568*l.* 15*s.* 8*d.*, for building, equipping, improving and repairing Life-boats, Life-boat carriages, Life-boat houses and Slipways; 17,112*l.* 1*s.* 1*d.* for subsidies to non-self-supporting stations, branch payments, aneroids for fishermen and coasters, life-belts, and other stores and the storeyard; 29,104*l.* 3*s.* 3*d.* for payments to coxswains, bowmen, signalmen; to crews, etc., for services and for exercising the Life-boats, for special rewards and recognitions, for services, grants to the relatives of men lost on service, for injuries, pensions, and retiring allowances to coxswains and signalmen, medals and vellums; also for payments to Inspectors. The balance was expended in printing, advertising, postage, telegrams and stationery; on salaries, rates, taxes, house-keeper, other office expenses, and legal charges connected with leases and bequests. Every item of receipt and expenditure has, as usual, been examined, verified, and passed by Mr. Samuel Lovelock, Chartered Accountant.

The Committee of Management once more earnestly appeal for help. They have already drawn attention to the fact that last year, owing to the special reasons mentioned, there was a falling off in the aggregate amount contributed for the Life-boat cause, but they cannot but hope that when it is realised by the public that the moneys received from the ordinary sources of income are insufficient to maintain the Institution's large life-saving fleet in thorough efficiency, those who have the means and recognise the importance of the great national work carried on by the Institution for the last 77 years, will liberally respond to their appeal, and not only supply the deficiency of the year gone by, but also generously provide for the exigencies of the Service in that which is to come.

ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

The work of the Institution mainly consists of:—

1. Building, equipping and maintaining Life-boats, transporting carriages, boathouses and slipways, wherever required on the coasts of the United Kingdom.
 2. Payments and the granting of rewards to Life-boat coxswains, crews and helpers, for services rendered, including exercises; medals and vellums being awarded for conspicuous bravery.
 3. Awarding medals, vellums, or grants of money to those, who, at the risk of their own lives, save, or endeavour to save, by means of shore boats or otherwise, life from shipwreck on the coasts of the United Kingdom.
 4. Granting pecuniary compensation to men injured on service.
 5. Granting pecuniary compensation to the Widows and other dependent relatives of Life-boat men who lose their lives on service; not less than £100 being allowed for each Widow and £25 for each dependent child.
 6. Granting pensions or retiring allowances to Life-boat coxswains, bowmen, and signalmen of long service and good character.

The moneys received from the Life-boat Saturday Fund are, as far as possible, applied by the Committee of Management towards meeting the expenses of items Nos. 2, 4, 5, and 6 only.

The Royal National Life-Boat Institution

Is prepared to establish and maintain a Life-boat Station on any part of the coast of the United Kingdom where it can be shown, from previous disasters, that a Life-boat is required. It is requisite that there should be a sufficient number of men (fishermen, or others accustomed to the management of boats at sea) to man the Life-boat, and a Committee formed from the residents in the neighbourhood to superintend the Station and obtain such small Annual Subscriptions as may contribute towards a portion of the expense of the Life-boat Station.

Communications should be addressed to the Secretary of the Institution, 14 John Street, Adelphi, London, W.C.

GOD HELP OUR MEN AT SEA.

List of the Rewards

FOR SAVING LIFE FROM WRECKS

VOTED BY THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION

TO THE CREWS OF ITS LIFE-BOATS, TO SHORE AND FISHING-BOATS' CREWS, AND TO OTHER PERSONS

FROM THE 1ST JANUARY TO THE 31ST DECEMBER, 1900.

Jan. 2.—KILMORE, Co. WEXFORD.—John Robert Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 1.45 A.M., rockets and guns having been fired from the Barrels Rock Light-vessel. A light S.E. wind was blowing at the time, the sea was moderate and the weather cloudy. On reaching the lightship it was ascertained that the signals had been made as it was feared that one of the crew was dying.

The man was taken into the Life-boat and landed at Kilmore.—Expenses of service paid by the Commissioners of Irish Lights.

Jan. 2.—ROBIN HOOD'S BAY, YORKSHIRE.—Ephraim and Hannah Fox Life-boat.—While a moderate gale was blowing from the E., accompanied by a rough sea, thick weather and rain, the s.s. Knud, of Copenhagen, bound from Ghent for Middlesbrough, in ballast, stranded on the north side of Robin Hood's Bay. The crew of the Life-boat were summoned, and at 5 A.M. the boat was launched. Considerable difficulty was experienced in getting alongside the wreck, but after two attempts this was successfully accomplished; thirteen men were rescued, and at 7 o'clock were safely landed at Robin Hood's Bay.—Expense of service, 33*l.* 18*s.* 6*d.*

Jan. 4.—STAITHEs, YORKSHIRE.—Jonathan Stott Life-boat.—The cobbles which were out fishing in the afternoon were overtaken by a thick fog and at about 3.30 a boat with a crew of five men put off from the shore to assist them. At 5.15, as darkness was coming on and the sea increasing, the boat returned and the Life-boat was thereupon launched and remained in attendance until 6.30, all the fishermen having then safely landed.—Expense of service, 27*l.* 10*s.*

Jan. 7.—GRIMSBY.—James Stevens No. 3 Life-boat.—Notice having been received that her services were required, the steam Life-boat left the harbour at 3.40 A.M., and proceeded to the schooner Demarius, of Goole, bound from London for Hull with a cargo of chalk. She had stranded on the links off Spurn Point in the S.S.W. gale which was then blowing, accompanied by a heavy sea and hazy weather, and her crew had been rescued by the Spurn Point Life-boat belonging to the Hull Trinity Board. At 7 A.M. the schooner floated, some of the Life-boat's crew manned her and, her captain having again boarded her, she was taken into Grimsby.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 11th Jan., 1900.

Voted 939*l.* 17*s.* 1*d.* to pay for watching, assemblies of crews, or taking out the following Life-boats:—Ackergill, Broadstairs, Buckie, Caister No. 1, Clacton-on-Sea, Cresswell, Cromer, Dover, Dunbar, Dungeness, Exmouth, Falmouth, Hauxley, Hoylake, Hythe, Kessingland No. 2, Llandudno, Newburgh, New Brighton (steam Life-boat), New Romney, Padstow (steam Life-boat), Palling No. 2, Plymouth, Port Patrick, Rye, Southend (Scotland), Southwold, Swansea, Thurso, Tramore, Tynemouth No. 2, Walmer, Whitby, Whithorn, Winchelsea and Winterton No. 2.

The Committee considered reports of several acts of gallantry performed on the occasion of the capsizing of the Aldeburgh Life-boat on the 7th December. The details of the casualty were mentioned on p. 619 of the last Annual Report.

The Silver Second Service Clasp was awarded to Mr. CHARLES WARD, bowman of the Life-boat, who was in charge of the Life-boat on the occasion, the coxswain being prevented by illness from going out in the boat. On being washed up on the beach, WARD immediately went back into the water, and at great personal risk rescued first one and then another of his comrades. He already possessed the Institution's Silver Medal, it having been presented to him in January, 1894, for general gallant services in the Life-boat.

The thanks of the Institution, inscribed on vellum and framed, with the sum of 1*l.* 10*s.*, were also presented to Mrs. HOLLAND, laundress, for wading into the sea up to her waist, at considerable risk, and assisting to save one of the crew of the Life-boat.

1*l.* was awarded to Mr. JAMES SMITH, who rendered assistance to two other Life-boat men.

Letters of thanks and pecuniary grants were awarded to Messrs. WILLIAM KING, WILLIAM PALLANT, and E. WARD, and monetary rewards to CHARLES BURWOOD, JAMES CRITTEN, and JOSEPH WARD for services rendered on the occasion.

The Committee also decided to tender their thanks for valuable co-operation rendered on the occasion by Lieut. J. O. WILLIAMS, R.N., Honorary Secretary of the Aldeburgh branch of the Institution; Mr. AHEARN, late of H.M. Coastguard; Mr. JAMES CABLE; Police Inspector MANN, and Messrs. ERNEST BOWEN, GEORGE CONSTANCE, NICHOLLS CORTON, A. EMERSON, ALEXANDER KEY, V. A. PARSLÖE, W. W. WARD, G. A. WHISTLER and A. G. WHISTLER.

Voted 12*l.* 4*s.* (including medical expenses) to two men injured while on service in the Stromness and Winterton No. 2 Life-boats.

Also 5*l.* to a man injured on service in the Palling Life-boat.

The Committee awarded a Silver Second Service Clasp, a certificate of service and a pension to Mr. BENJAMIN STOUT on his retirement from the office of Coxswain of the Longhope Life-boat.

Also a certificate of service and a pension to Mr. EDWIN MATTHEWS and Mr. THOMAS SMALLEY, retiring Coxswains at Polpear and Skegness.

Also a gratuity, on retirement, to the Assistant Coxswain of the St. Anne's No. 2 Life-boat, to the bowman of the Poole Life-boat and to the widow of one of the crew of the North Deal Life-boat.

Also a pension to Mr. WILLIAM KERR, Assistant Coxswain of the Tyrella Life-boat, the station being discontinued.

Jan. 18.—CAISTER, NORFOLK.—Beauchamp Life-boat.—While a strong breeze was blowing from N.W. by W., increasing to a gale and accompanied by a heavy sea, the coxswain of the Life-boat, who was watching, observed the side-lights of a vessel on the Barber Sands. He at once summoned the crew, and at 4.40 A.M. the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the sand, where two vessels were found stranded. One of them, the ketch Temperance Pledge, of Scarborough, in ballast, from Orford Haven for Hartlepool, was lying well up on the top of the sand and burning flares. The Life-boat answered her signals with a portfire, and spoke the other vessel (the lights of which were those first seen from the shore), which was aground on the outside of the sand. Those on board, however, declining assistance, the boat made for the ketch, and having anchored to windward, veered down to her, striking the ground and being swept by the heavy seas. Having got a rope to the vessel, the boat was hauled nearer and succeeded in rescuing the crew of two men. The Life-boat was then hauled to windward, and waited until the water had risen sufficiently to enable her to sail over the sand to the other vessel, anchored by her and remained until she beat off the sand and resumed her voyage. The ketch floated at the same time and was towed into Yarmouth harbour by a steam-tug.—Expense of service, 42*l.* 15*s.*

Jan. 23.—HAYLE, CORNWALL.—E. F. Harrison Life-boat.—The three-masted schooner Caroline, of Padstow, bound from Hayle for Cardiff with sand, while being towed out of the harbour, in a moderate W.N.W. breeze and a very heavy ground sea, stranded on the eastern side of the bar. She showed signals of distress, and in response to them the Life-boat was promptly launched and at 10.10 A.M. was on her way to the vessel. The crew of six men and a pilot were rescued by the Life-boat, the schooner becoming a total wreck.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 11*s.*

Jan. 24.—CLOGHER HEAD, CO. LOUTH.—Charles Whitton Life-boat.—While about sixteen open yawls were fishing off Clogher Head in the morning, a gale sprung up very suddenly from W.N.W., and the coxswain of the Life-boat, who was watching the fleet, saw that several of the boats were in danger through the loss of their sails. He at once summoned the crew, and at 11.40 the Life-boat put off, taking two extra men to go on board any boat which might be short-handed. Several of the boats had very narrow escapes, but all succeeded in getting into safety. One of them, the lugger Irish Girl, of Dundalk, would probably have foundered with all on board in the absence of help from the Life-boat men. Her sail was split, the boat was half full of water, drifting out to sea, and her crew of six men were completely exhausted. They were taken into the Life-boat, two of the Life-boat men boarded the lugger and baled out the water from her, and the boat was towed safely ashore.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 2*s.*

Jan. 28.—POINT OF AYR, FLINTSHIRE.—H. G. Powell Life-boat.—The s.s. North Tyne, of Newcastle, bound from Huelva for Mostyn, was seen stranded, while a moderate gale was blowing from N.W., with heavy squalls and a rough sea. The Life-boat was launched at 10.35 P.M., and on reaching the vessel found that she had got afloat again and was riding at anchor in about five fathoms at low water. The Life-boat stood by the steamer until the master stated that he did not require her to remain any longer. While alongside, one of the Life-boat men had one of his hands severely crushed between the boat and the vessel.—Expense of service, 31*l.* 5*s.*

Jan. 29.—FILEY, YORKSHIRE.—Hollon the Second Life-boat.—At 7 A.M. the fishing cobbles, twenty-eight in number, put to sea, and at 10 o'clock the wind began to freshen, increasing to a gale from E.N.E. accompanied by a rough sea and showers of rain and snow. At 12.30 the coxswain of the Life-boat returned ashore in his boat and decided to take out the Life-boat to help the others. She was at once launched, proceeded to the Bell buoy, where the cobbles would encounter the greatest danger, and remained afloat until all the boats were in safety; the crews of the last three boats were furnished with life-belts from the Life-boat.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*

Jan. 29.—WINTERTON, NORFOLK.—Edward Birkbeck Life-boat.—While a strong wind was blowing from E.N.E., the weather being squally and the sea heavy, an intimation was received at night that the services of the Life-boat were needed. The crew and helpers assembled and horses were sent for, but before they arrived the men had taken the Life-boat along the beach opposite to where the vessel was stranded, about half a mile north of the Life-boat Station. There she was launched at about 11 o'clock and, with the aid of the whip of the rocket apparatus, succeeded in effecting the rescue of the crew of twelve hands and the master's wife from the barque Theodor of Elsfleth, bound from Hamburg for Monte Video with a general cargo. The vessel became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 32*l.* 8*s.*

Feb. 2.—BRANCASTER, NORFOLK.—Alfred S. Genth Life-boat.—In the morning it was reported by the Coast-guard that lights had been seen on the Burnham Flats and that a vessel was in a dangerous position off Thornham. A strong wind was blowing from E.N.E. accompanied by a rough sea. Soon afterwards she was seen to be making signals, but owing to the distance and the hazy state of the weather they could not be clearly discerned. In these circumstances it was considered prudent to despatch the Life-boat to her assistance; the crew were summoned, and at 10.15 the boat was launched. On reaching the vessel, the schooner Edwin, of Portmadoc, laden with timber, it was found that the crew had left in their boats, and search was therefore made for them but without success. The Life-boat then returned to the vessel and boarded her. She was riding near the Flats, having stranded but floated off again. Shortly afterwards the pilot cutter No. 13, of Lynn, sailed up, having on board the schooner's crew, whom they had picked up from their two boats. With the combined help of the Life-boat men and pilots the vessel was taken into Lynn Roads, the Life-boat remaining by her until 9 o'clock on the following night as she was leaking and was not in a safe position.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 3.—CULLERCOATS.—Co-operator No. 1 Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 10.30 A.M. to the assistance of the coble Thistle, which was in danger while returning from the fishing grounds in a moderate wind from E. by N. and a rough sea. Her crew of four men were taken into the Life-boat and the coble was towed into the harbour.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 5*s.*

Feb. 6.—FORMBY, LANCASHIRE.—John and Henrietta Life-boat.—The schooner Eclipse, of Peel, Isle of Man, bound from Fleetwood for Liverpool with gravel, was seen aground on the most dangerous part of Taylor's Bank, having stranded there in misty weather. The Life-boat put off at 10.45 A.M., and on reaching the schooner found she was bumping heavily. Acting on the advice of the coxswain, a kedge was laid out astern to prevent the vessel from going farther on the bank; shortly afterwards she floated and her anchor was weighed, when she cleared the bank and stood into Queen's Channel with the Life-boat in tow. The boat remained by her until arriving near the Crosby Light-vessel, when, no further help being needed, she returned to her station.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 13*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 8th Feb., 1900.

Voted 712*l.* 0*s.* 6*d.* to pay for launches or assemblies by the crews of the following Life-boats, with the view of assisting those on board distressed vessels:—Aldeburgh, Appledore Nos. 1 and 2, Blackrock, Bude, Caister No. 1, Clacton-on-Sea, Clovelly, Folkestone, Formby, Greencastle, Groomsport, Harwich (steam Life-boat), Hastings, Howth, Hoylake, Kingsdowne, Lowestoft No. 1, Margate No. 1, Palling No. 2, Piel (Barrow), Rhyl, Southend-on-Sea (Essex), Whitburn, Whitby No. 2 and Winterton No. 2.

The Rausgate Life-boat was taken out, but her services were not ultimately needed.

Voted 49l. 1s. 3d. (including medical expenses, etc.) to men injured while on duty with the Crail, Fraserburgh and Harwich Life-boats.

The Committee awarded a pension to Mr. WILLIAM SWANSTON on his retirement from the office of Coxswain of the Longhope Life-boat.

Also a gratuity to Mr. PETER PASCOE, retiring Coxswain at Porthleven.

Feb. 10.—HOLY ISLAND, NORTHUMB-ERLAND.—Grace Darling Life-boat.—Signals were heard in the morning, proceeding evidently from a vessel on the northern part of the island. The weather was thick, snow was falling, the wind was blowing from N.E. a moderate gale, and there was a somewhat heavy sea. At 7 o'clock the Life-boat was launched and proceeded under oars to the Snipe Rocks, N. of Emmanuel Head, where the s.s. Strathbeg, of Fraserburgh, was found stranded. Communication with the vessel had been obtained by means of the rocket apparatus, and three of the crew had been rescued with the lines when the boat arrived and succeeded in saving the remaining seven men. The Life-boat, which was well handled by her crew, behaved excellently. She shipped some heavy seas, one of which broke over her just after the rescue of the shipwrecked men had been effected, but she steadied herself and, to quote the words of the report of the service, "rose like a duck." The vessel became a total wreck.

A letter written on the day of the rescue was received by the Secretary of the Institution, from one of the crew of the vessel, expressing, on behalf of himself and his comrades, admiration of the conduct of the Life-boat men and thankfulness for the service they had rendered.—Expense of service, 19l. 4s. 9d.

Feb. 11.—FISHGUARD, PEMBROKE-SHIRE.—Appin Life-boat.—Flares were shown by two vessels at anchor in Fishguard Bay while a strong gale was blowing from N.N.E. accompanied by a heavy sea, thick weather and snow. Rockets were immediately fired at Goodwick and repeated at Fishguard and at 1.15 A.M. the Life-boat was launched. She proceeded first to the ketch Volunteer, of Aberystwyth, bound from Newport (Mon.) for Fishguard, with a cargo of coal, and afterwards went to the schooner Sarah Davies, of Aberystwyth, coal-laden, from Swansea for Dublin. Each of the vessels had parted one of her cables and was drifting towards the rocks, and, had not the gale abated, would in all probability have been totally wrecked. The Life-boat took off the crew of two men from the Volunteer and the schooner's crew, consisting of three men, and safely landed them at about 2.30 A.M.—Expense of service, 22l. 17s. 6d.

Feb. 11.—RAMSGATE.—Bradford Life-boat.—In response to signals from the Gull Light-vessel the Life-boat was towed out by the harbour steam-tug Aid at 2.10 A.M., while a strong gale was blowing from S.S.W., accompanied by a heavy sea and heavy snow squalls. On speaking the Light-ship it was ascertained that a vessel was aground at the north end of the Goodwin Sands, and the Life-boat was therefore towed in that direction. When near the Sands the boat was cast off, and, proceeding under sail, discovered the vessel showing signals of distress, but found that there was not sufficient water for the boat to approach her. She was kept as near as could be done with safety until 5 A.M., when she was able to get alongside the vessel, and found her to be the ketch Sunbeam, bound from Teignmouth for London, with a cargo of clay; she was bumping heavily, her rudder was smashed, she was otherwise seriously damaged and was full of water. Some of the Life-boat men boarded her and worked at the pumps, but it was found utterly impossible to save the ketch, and her crew of four men were therefore taken into the Life-boat, which was towed back to her station, arriving there at 11.30 A.M., when the shipwrecked men were landed and taken to the Sailors' Home.—Expenses paid by the Board of Trade.

Feb. 11.—MARGATE.—Civil Service No. 1 Life-boat.—While a strong gale was blowing from S.S.W., accompanied by a heavy sea and thick weather, with rain and snow, the Coastguard having reported that the Tongue Light-vessel was firing signals of distress, the Life-boat crew were summoned and the Life-boat was launched at 2.20 A.M. Reaching the Tongue Light-vessel and ascertaining that she was answering the Prince's Channel Light-ship, the Life-boat proceeded in that direction. Subsequently flares were observed on the Shingles, and on arriving there the schooner Picton, of Carnarvon, bound from Shoreham for London, and laden with carbolic acid, was found stranded. She had a good depth of water in her, and her fore compartment was on fire. The Life-boat men succeeded in extinguishing the fire, and worked at the pumps about four hours; but the water gained on them, and, finding it impossible to save the vessel, the Life-boat left her at about 8 o'clock, having taken off her crew of five men, and a dog. The master of the vessel highly commended the conduct of the Life-boat men in their endeavours to save the vessel in such tempestuous weather.—Expense of service, 19l. 5s. 6d.

Feb. 12.—HOLY ISLAND, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Grace Darling Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 11.30 A.M., and stood by some fishing-boats which had been overtaken by a rough sea.—Expense of service, 2l. 2s.

Feb. 12.—BOULMER, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Melissent Life-boat.—The fishing-boats went out at 7.30 A.M., and at about 10 o'clock were compelled to return, a very heavy sea having sprung up. Four of the boats were assisted by the Life-boat, which put off to the rescue at 12.30, the others reaching the harbour without help.—Expense of service, 14l. 8s.

Feb. 12.—WHITBY.—John Fielden Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 12.30 P.M., and attended some of the cobsles which were in danger while returning to the harbour, a heavy sea having sprung up during the time they were out fishing.—Expense of service, 17l. 8s.

Feb. 13.—SCARBOROUGH.—Queensbury Life-boat.—The s.s. trawler Viking, proceeding from the fishing ground to Grimsby, stranded on the White Nab, one mile S. of Scarborough. The weather was very thick at the time and a very light wind was blowing from S.E. The Coxswain was informed of the occurrence and it was decided to take out the Life-boat, which was launched at 9.15 A.M. At the master's request the Life-boat men laid out two anchors, assisted to get the vessel off at high water and guided her safely through the channel between the rocks.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 13.—LOOE, CORNWALL.—Boys' Own No. 1 Life-boat.—Six crab boats brought up off the harbour waiting until there was sufficient water to enable them to cross the bar. The wind increased to a gale from S.E., the sea became heavy, there were heavy falls of snow, and the boats were in such a perilous situation that it was considered advisable to take out the Life-boat and proceed to their assistance. The boat was therefore launched at 1 P.M., and escorted the boats into the harbour, placing herself in a position to shelter the smaller ones in passing through the surf while crossing the bar. One sea which broke on board the Life-boat would probably have had fatal results had its force been encountered by one of the little crabbers.—Expense of service, 13l. 7s. 3d.

Feb. 13.—RUNSWICK, YORKSHIRE.—Cape of Good Hope Life-boat.—Fourteen Whitby cobsles, being overtaken by a rough sea while fishing, were unable to return home and were seen to be making for Runswick. The Life-boat was launched at 1.30 P.M. and remained out until 6.30, by which time all the boats had safely reached the shore.—Expense of service, 13l. 5s.

Feb. 14.—MARGATE.—Eliza Harriet Life-boat.—A vessel was seen riding with two anchors down, not far from a lee shore, about five miles W. of Margate. Her sprit and sails had been blown away and apparently the seas were washing completely over her. A whole gale was then blowing from N. by E., the weather was thick, and hail and snow were falling. The Life-boat was launched at 9.20 A.M., and proceeded across the Nayland rock, encountering very heavy seas which filled her several times, and reached the vessel at about 11 o'clock. She was the barge Mizpah, of Harwich. Considerable difficulty was experienced in getting alongside, but this was ultimately accomplished, and the crew of three men, who were wearing life-belts, were taken into the Life-boat, which remained near the vessel until about 2 P.M., when the weather moderated and some of the Life-boat men and the crew boarded her. The boat stood by for another half-hour, and as the barge was safe—the crew having the help of those Life-boat men who remained on board—it was decided to return to her station, which was reached at about 4 P.M., heavy seas being again encountered on the journey. On the following morning the boatmen left on board took the vessel to the Horse Sand, where she was picked up by a tug, the services of which had been secured by the coxswain of the Life-boat on his return to the shore, and was towed to Faversham, to which port she was destined with a cargo of slate from London.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 14. — BROADSTAIRS. — Francis Forbes Barton Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 4.5 P.M. while a gale of wind was blowing from N., accompanied by a heavy sea, a barge, with a signal of distress flying, having been seen eastward of the Goodwin Sands. On reaching her it was found she was the Mary Kate, of London, homeward bound from Remagen with a cargo of mineral waters. Her sails had been blown away and her rigging was damaged, while her captain had severely injured his hand, and he and his crew of two men were thoroughly exhausted. The Life-boat men having been requested to try to save the vessel, five of them boarded her, and with the help of the Ramsgate steam-tug she was taken to Ramsgate.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 15. — HOLYHEAD. — Duke of Northumberland Life-boat.—In the morning a small schooner was seen drifting helplessly about two miles outside the Breakwater, and a telephone message was received by the Coastguards from the Breakwater Lighthouse keeper stating that the vessel was in need of assistance. The steam Life-boat proceeded to her at 11.45 and assisted to get her into the harbour. She was the Albion, of Runcorn, laden with guano, from Dublin for Saltney, and on board her were a crew of four men and the master's wife and two children. A strong gale was blowing from S., and there was a very heavy sea during the time this service was rendered.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 15-16.—LITTLE HAVEN, PEMBROKESHIRE.—David Pickard Life-boat.—While a strong gale was blowing from W.N.W., accompanied by a heavy sea, intelligence was received that a large barque which was lying in St. Bride's Bay was dragging her anchors and was in danger of going ashore. At 5 P.M. the Life-boat was launched and found the vessel was the Cashier, of Antwerp, bound from Cardiff for Cape Town with a cargo of patent fuel. She was leaking, her mainmast was injured, and she was riding heavily at her anchors. Eight passengers and fifteen of the crew were taken into the Life-boat and landed at Little Haven at about 1 A.M., but the master and four others declined to leave the vessel. During the day the wind increased and a boat was seen to put off from the vessel and make for Little Haven; it was, however, capsized in the breakers while endeavouring to land, and her crew of three men, who had a very narrow escape, were pluckily rescued by men who rushed into the water to their assistance. The captain and another man still remained on board the barque, and it was decided to take out the Life-boat to her again, but on approaching the ship, which was lying about six miles from the station, the Government tug Alligator, which had been wired for, was sighted, and on arrival took charge of her and tried to tow her to Milford. However, when just outside the bay the hawser parted, the two men were then taken on board the tug and the barque was abandoned. She afterwards drove back and became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 40*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.*

Feb. 15.—LOOE, CORNWALL.—Boys' Own No. 1. Life-boat.—At about 5 P.M., while a whole gale was blowing from W.S.W., accompanied by a very heavy sea and thick weather with rain, the ketch R.T.B., of Bridgwater, laden with flour from Plymouth for Cardiff, was seen about two miles from the harbour with a signal of distress flying. In about ten minutes the Life-boat was launched and proceeded under sail to the vessel, which had lost her head sails and stays and was fast drifting towards a lee shore. Her crew of four men were taken into the Life-boat and safely landed at Looe.—Expense of service, 27l. 0s. 6d.

Feb. 15.—ALDEBURGH.—Reserve Life-boat.—In response to messages by telephone, received while a whole gale was blowing from S. by W., the Life-boat temporarily placed at this station was launched at 10.30 P.M. Terrific seas were breaking on the beach; in fact, they are stated to have been the heaviest ever witnessed on this coast, and they extended as far outward as the eye could see, but the Life-boat men did not hesitate one moment and, after gallantly crossing the shoals, encountered a tremendous sea in crossing Sizewell Bank to reach the spot where the vessel had been reported in distress. Nothing, however, could be seen owing to the blinding rain and sleet, so the boat anchored just inside the bank and burned lights. She received no reply until about 4 A.M., when two rockets were sent up about half a mile northward. Proceeding in that direction, the Life-boat men found the s.s. Hylton, of London, riding in a very dangerous position in five fathoms of water, having lost her rudder and propeller. The master stated that the vessel had been aground on Sizewell Bank, and those on board, twenty-one men in all, had had a fearful experience, the seas breaking clean over the ship, washing the hatches off and smashing the starboard life-boat. The weather moderating, the Life-boat left two of her crew on board the steamer, proceeded to Lowestoft, and having secured the services of steam-tugs returned with them, and the vessel was towed to Gravesend, the Life-boat accompanying her.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 15-16.—ATHERFIELD, ISLE OF WIGHT.—Catherine Swift Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at about 5.30 P.M. on the 15th February, the coxswain, while on the cliff, having observed a large barque strike on the Eastern Ledge at Atherfield and immediately swing round with her bow outwards. The weather was very hazy and thick at the time. The Life-boat proceeded to sea and made several attempts to reach the vessel, being frequently almost buried, but the force of the wind, which was blowing a very strong gale from S., and the great quantity of broken water encountered prevented the boat from reaching her, and after about an hour's hard pulling the Life-boat men reluctantly returned ashore and placed the boat on the slipway, resolving to make another attempt when the tide turned. At about 2.30 A.M., the wind having changed to W. and decreased in force, but blowing even then a strong gale and the sea still being heavy, the Life-boat again put off, and after crossing the Eastern Ledge succeeded in reaching the vessel and saved her crew, consisting of eighteen men. In order to avoid having to cross the Ledge again the Life-boat was beached opposite the wreck and the rescued men were safely landed. The vessel was the barque Auguste, of Brake, bound from Fremantle, W. Australia, for London with a cargo of jarrah wood. She became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 65l. 2s.

Feb. 17.—BANFF.—Help for the Helpless Life-boat.—At 3.15 P.M. the Life-boat was launched, a telephone message having been received from Macduff intimating that three fishing-boats about a mile outside the harbour were in urgent need of assistance. A moderate wind was blowing from S.S.E. and the sea was very heavy, rendering the approach to the harbour very dangerous, but with the help of the Life-boat, which remained in attendance on them, the boats were able to effect a safe entry. The Life-boat men were enthusiastically applauded by a large number of people who witnessed the service they rendered.—Expense of service, 19l. 16s.

Feb. 19.—BANFF.—While a strong easterly wind was blowing, accompanied by a heavy sea and snow showers, the barque Ebenezer, of Porsgrund, bound from Grimsby for Norway with a cargo of coal, was seen to the eastward of Banff with her sails in ribbons. As she was drifting towards the shore, the Life-boat was manned and, at 1.20 p.m., proceeded from Macduff Harbour, where she was lying, to her assistance. Before she could be reached, however, the vessel struck the rocks at Whitehills and immediately broke up. Seven of her crew were picked up from the wreckage by the Life-boat men and were landed at Whitehills in a terribly exhausted condition. It being ascertained that the crew had consisted of ten men, the Life-boat returned to the scene of the casualty and remained in the vicinity for an hour and a half, but unfortunately nothing could be seen of the other three men.—Expense of service, 26l. 2s. 6d.

Feb. 19. — NORTH SUNDERLAND, NORTHUMBERLAND. — Thomas Bewick Life-boat.—While a heavy gale was blowing from the S.E., the coxswain of the Life-boat received a message from the Trinity boatman requesting that the Life-boat might be sent to the Longstone Lighthouse. The message did not state the reason for the request and it was impossible to obtain any information, the hazy weather and blinding snow-showers preventing further signaling. The Life-boat was launched, taking out the Trinity boatman and a relief Light-keeper, but found the sea at the harbour mouth so extremely heavy and dangerous that it was decided, after struggling for two hours, that it was not advisable to proceed farther. On the following evening signals were shown indicating that the services of the boat were required for the purpose of landing the principal keeper, who was ill, and in the morning the coxswain, having been apprised of this, decided to make another attempt. There was still a very heavy sea and a strong wind was blowing from N.W. Having received authority from the Trinity House doctor to land the man, the boat was launched, taking off the Trinity boatman, a relief keeper and provisions, succeeded in reaching the lighthouse, took on board the sick man, landed the substitute and provisions, and regained her station at 11.30 a.m. — Expenses of service paid by the Trinity House.

Feb. 23.—RAMSGATE.—Bradford Life-boat.—A message having been received from the North Goodwin Light-vessel, the Life-boat went out in tow of the harbour steam-tug Aid at 8.45 a.m., and found the s.s. Hopeful, bound from London for Liverpool with a general cargo, stranded between the North and North-West Goodwin buoys. The Life-boat stood by her until the tide made, when she was able to get off under her own steam and resumed her voyage, apparently uninjured. The weather at the time was foggy and the sea and wind were moderate, the latter blowing from S.W. — Expenses of service paid by the Board of Trade.

Feb. 23.—DUNBAR.—Sarah Pickard Life-boat.—While a moderate E. gale was blowing, accompanied by a heavy sea and thick weather, intelligence was received that a large vessel, which was subsequently ascertained to be the four-masted barque Ecclefechan, bound from Calcutta for Dundee with a cargo of jute, was stranded on the Chapel rocks, at Skateraw Point, between Dunbar and Cockburnspath. The Dunbar and Thorntonloch Life-saving Brigades proceeded to the rescue, but the vessel was too far distant from the shore to admit of communication being obtained by means of their apparatus, all the rockets fired falling short. The Dunbar Life-boat was therefore launched at 9.45 a.m., and in two trips rescued twenty-four of the crew. The captain and three of the crew declined to leave the ship in spite of repeated warnings from the assistant-coxswain, who was in command of the boat in the absence of the coxswain, but they were afterwards taken off by a steam-tug, the vessel becoming a total wreck. On the first trip fourteen men were taken into the Life-boat and were landed at Skateraw harbour. On the second occasion ten men were rescued and landed at Dunbar, the arrival of the Life-boat being greeted by loud cheers from a large number of people who had assembled to witness the proceedings. An extra reward was granted to the crew of the Life-boat in recognition of their good services on this occasion.—Expense of service, 37l. 10s. 6d.

Feb. 24.—PORT EYNON, GLAMORGANSHIRE.—A Daughter's Offering Life-boat.—The s.s. Ethiopia, of London, in ballast from Hamburg for Port Talbot, stranded at Oxwich Point, in a very thick fog, a moderate S.W. breeze and a heavy ground swell, on the night of the 23rd February. She was sighted in the morning and information was given to the coxswain of the Life-boat; he summoned the crew, and as soon as possible the boat was launched and proceeded to the vessel, around which a heavy ground sea was breaking. At the request of the captain, the Life-boat stood by and when two steam-tugs and a steam pilot-boat arrived, ropes were got from the Ethiopia to those steamers, which endeavoured to tow her off. They, however, found it impossible to move her. The captain then hailed the Life-boat, which went alongside and took him to one of the tugs, in which he proceeded to Swansea, the rest of the crew remaining on board the steamer and the Life-boat afterwards returning to her station. During the night the vessel was carefully watched from the shore, arrangements having been made with the mate for signalling in case of emergency. Salvage operations were subsequently commenced, and eventually the steamer was dry-docked at Port Talbot.—Expense of service, 16l.

Feb. 26.—PALLING, NORFOLK.—Good Hope Life-boat.—While a moderate wind was blowing from E. by N., accompanied by a heavy sea and a dense fog, the coxswain of the Life-boat was informed that a vessel was riding in a dangerous position near the outer bank at Waxham and about a mile south of Palling. The crew and helpers were at once summoned, horses were obtained and the Life-boat was taken on her transporting carriage to Waxham, where she was launched at 11.15 A.M., and found the vessel was the ketch Ada Gane, of and from Harwich for South Shields, in ballast. The Life-boat stood by her two and a half hours, when the tide flowed and, the wind having shifted to S.E., she was able to get out of danger.—Expense of service, 21l. 9s.

Feb. 27.—FILEY, YORKSHIRE.—Hollon

the Second Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 6.30 A.M., and afforded help to the crew of a fishing-coble who had lost their way in a very thick fog. A life-belt was given to each of the three men and the boat was taken in tow, one of the Life-boat men going on board to assist the fishermen.—Expense of service, 26l. 11s. 6d.

March 2.—APPLEDOBE.—Jane Hannah MacDonald Life-boat.—While a moderate breeze was blowing from N.N.E., accompanied by a smooth sea and fine and cold weather, a message by telephone was received stating that a vessel was stranded on Baggy Leap. At about 12.10 P.M. the Life-boat was launched, and on reaching the vessel found she was the ketch Fame, of and from Barnstaple, bound for Cardiff, laden with gravel. As she was in a dangerous position the Life-boat stood by her and ultimately some of the Life-boat men boarded her at the master's request, assisted in throwing cargo overboard so as to lighten her, kept the pumps at work, and rigged up extra pumps. When she floated, the Life-boat men set her sails, ran her into the harbour, pumping being continued the whole time to prevent her from sinking, and moored her in a safe berth.—Property salvage case.

March 6.—MABLETHORPE, LINCOLNSHIRE.—Heywood Life-boat.—While a moderate wind was blowing from N., accompanied by a choppy sea, a messenger arrived from Theddlethorpe and informed the coxswain of the Life-boat that a small craft was drifting in a S.E. direction. He added that he had seen what appeared to be a man on board baling water out of the boat. The coxswain at once summoned the crew, and on looking at the boat it was seen that she was flying her jib and close to the mainmast was something that certainly appeared to be a man. At noon the Life-boat was launched, and on reaching the boat found her jib was set and the mainsail hanging overboard (this was probably what had appeared from the shore to be a man), but no one was on board; she had, however, been recently occupied, as the condition of some bread and meat found in the cabin showed that they had not long been placed there. She was of about two tons burden and fore and aft rigged, but no trace of her name, port, or ownership could be found. She was taken in tow by the Life-boat and on reaching the shore was handed over to the Receiver of Wreck.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 8th March, 1900.

Voted 826*l.* 6*s.* 3*d.* to pay for assemblies, watching or launches to the aid of vessels not ultimately needing help, by the following Life-boats:—Appledore Nos. 1 and 2, Bembridge, Boulmer, Brighstone Grange, Cadgwith, Caister No. 1, Courtown, Dunbar, Dungarvan, Dunmore East, Eyemouth, Flamborough No. 2, Formby, Gorleston Nos. 1 and 3, Hasborough, Hilbre Island, Margate Nos. 1 and 2, North Berwick, North Sunderland, Palling No. 1, Penmon, Port Eynon, Porthoustock, Runswick, St. Ives, Southend-on-Sea, Southsea, Southwold No. 1, Swanage, Tenby, Tynemouth No. 2, and Whitburn.

Also an aneroid barometer, with a suitable inscription, to WILLIAM BERTRAM, Esq., Honorary Secretary of the Dunbar Branch, in recognition of his valuable services, especially on the occasion of the launch of the Life-boat for service on the 23rd and 27th ult.

The Committee awarded a gratuity to Mr. ALFRED ALEXANDER, Coxswain, and to Mr. CHARLES SPINDLER, Assistant Coxswain, and a pension to Mr. WILLIAM ALEXANDER, Signalman, on the closing of the Life-boat station at Thorpeness.

Also a certificate of service to Mr. JOHN WICKS, late Leading Fireman of the Holyhead steam Life-boat.

Also 58*l.* 13*s.* 3*d.*, including medical expenses, to men injured while on duty with the Crail, Greencastle and North Berwick Life-boats.

March 12. — RAMSGATE. — Bradford Life-boat.—In answer to signal guns fired by the North Goodwin Light-vessel, the Life-boat proceeded, in tow of the harbour steam-tug Aid, to the Sands at 9.15 A.M., and found the brigantine Eagle, of Waterford, laden with bone-dust from London for Newport, had been aground, but had got afloat again. The weather at the time was thick, a light wind was blowing from N.N.E., and there was a slight sea. The vessel was well under way and declined any assistance, but very shortly afterwards she again went aground and, as the tide was falling, the Life-boat men again offered their services which were accepted. A tow rope was then taken from the tug to the vessel which was towed off the Sands and was taken into Ramsgate Harbour, arriving there at noon.—Payment for service arranged by the Board of Trade.

March 18.—MARGATE.—Civil Service No. 1 Life-boat.—In the evening the Coastguards reported that a vessel off the Margate Sandhead buoy had lost her foremast and gear, but was not showing any signal for assistance. A strong gale was then blowing from S. by E., the sea was heavy and the weather thick, with snow and sleet. At 5.50 she hoisted a signal of distress, and eight minutes later the Margate No. 2 Life-boat was on her way to the vessel, which was found to be the ketch Egremont, of Exeter, bound from Southampton for Chatham with timber and iron. Five of the Life-boat men boarded her, and at the request of the captain the boat returned to the shore to obtain the services of a steam-tug. A message was despatched to Ramsgate, and as soon as possible the harbour tug Aid proceeded to the ketch, which had drifted near the Tongue Light-vessel, and towed her into Ramsgate Harbour at about 4.15 A.M. The Egremont had a crew of five men.—Property salvage case.

March 19.—BRANCASTER, NORFOLK.—Alfred S. Genth Life-boat.—A telegram was received from the Coastguard reporting a vessel in distress off Burnham Flats and, as she was showing a signal for help, the Life-boat put off to her assistance at 1.45 P.M., and found she was the ketch Queen Mab, of London, bound from Dunkirk for Lynn. Her mast and sails had been carried away in a squall on the previous night, one of her crew had been killed by the falling gear, and the master and the other two men forming the crew had left the vessel, which was afterwards taken charge of by the crew of a fishing-boat, and at their request the Life-boat men assisted to take her to Lynn.—Property salvage case.

March 22.—CAMBOIS, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Oswald, Sarah and Jane Life-boat.—While a strong gale was blowing from E., accompanied by a very heavy sea, the coxswain of the Life-boat saw a vessel strand on the South Bank at the entrance to the river Wansbeck. Her foremast went by the board, and as her crew were evidently in danger he at once summoned the crew, and at 2 P.M. the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the schooner Fredrick, of and from Bremerhaven, in ballast, for West Wemyss. The master and mate refused to leave their ship, but the crew of three men got into the Life-boat and were safely landed. The boat returned to the schooner, and shortly afterwards the mate decided to leave her and got into the Life-boat, but the master adhered to his decision and would not abandon his vessel. Just as the mate entered the boat a heavy sea struck her, carried her about fifty yards away, and caused three of the crew to lose their oars, which, however, drifted ashore and were ultimately secured. The mate was landed, and it was decided to place the Life-boat on her carriage and leave her at high-water mark ready for any emergency. Almost immediately after this had been done the captain signalled for help, whereupon the boat was once more launched and brought him safely to land. These services occupied the Life-boat men until about 5 P.M., and there was no doubt then that the vessel would be a total wreck.—Expense of services, 39l. 18s.

March 22.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Robert and Susan Life-boat.—The schooner Aspirant, of Stavanger, ran into the bay, being unable to beat off the shore, in a moderate E. gale, a heavy sea and thick weather. The Life-boat on her transporting carriage was taken by horses to the most suitable place for launching, and at about 4.15 P.M. was on her way to the vessel which was rapidly driving ashore. Within ten minutes after she had struck the Life-boat had rescued and landed her crew of six men, the vessel being likely to become a total wreck.—Expense of service, 17l. 19s. 3d.

March 23.—PORTHOUSTOCK, CORNWALL.—Charlotte Life-boat.—The coxswain of the Life-boat was informed that a vessel was firing signals of distress, having stranded on the Manacles rocks. A light wind was then blowing from N.E. and the sea was moderate, but the weather was thick. The crew of the Life-boat were summoned, at about 6.30 A.M. the boat was launched, and on reaching the vessel found she was the barque G.B., of and from Fécamp, bound for the Newfoundland fishery and laden with salt. Having slightly struck the reef known as the Outer Main Voices, she had anchored and was lying in a most dangerous position, close to a mass of sunken rocks. The master refused any assistance from the Life-boat men, stating that all he required was a steam-tug, and ultimately one arrived and, with the help of some fishermen, got a hawser on board, but it parted and the tug, apparently not caring to face the danger of the rocks, did not make another attempt to effect communication with the vessel. Afterwards the steam-tug Eagle, of Falmouth, arrived, and the services of two of the Life-boat men having been asked for, to pilot her amongst the rocks, they were put on board; the hawser was attached to the barque, she was towed out of danger, and was taken into Falmouth harbour.—Expense of service, 21l. 7s. 9d.

April 7.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Thora Zelma Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 3.50 P.M., information having been received that a three-masted schooner had stranded on the outer bank. A N.E. by N. wind was blowing; the sea was smooth and the weather fine but very thick, and there was a dense sea fog. The stranded vessel proved to be the Brazilian, of and from South Shields, bound for Waterford, with a cargo of coal. The Life-boat remained by her, some of her crew assisting at the pumps, and when the tide flowed at about 3 A.M. she was got out of danger.—Property salvage case.

April 11.—DUNGENESS (LYDD).—R.A.O.B. Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 1.40 A.M., while a moderate gale was blowing from W., accompanied by a rough sea, and proceeded to the assistance of the barque Capella, of Bremen, which, while proceeding homewards from the West Indies, with a general cargo, stranded on the Newcombe Bar. At the master's request, the Life-boat stood by the vessel until the tide rose and she got afloat again.—Expense of service, 33l. 18s.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 12th April, 1900.

Voted 189l. 5s. 9d., to pay the expenses of assemblies of crews, watching or launches of the following Life-boats, with the view of assisting those on board vessels in distress:—Ballycotton, Broadstairs, Caister No. 1, Craill, Cullercoats, Dunbar, Eyemouth, Margate No. 1, Montrose No. 2, Newbiggin, North Deal, Queenstown No. 2, Roker, St. Peter's Port, Saltburn, Sheringham, Thorpeness, West Hartlepool and Wexford.

Also 28l. 4s. 9d. to men injured while on duty with the Life-boats at Anstruther, Cadgwith, Montrose No. 1, Point of Ayr and Rhyl.

The Committee awarded a pension and a certificate of service to Mr. ABRAHAM MILLS, Coxswain of the Littlehaven Life-boat, on his retirement, and a pension to Mr. THOMAS WILLIAM ROWNTREE, on his retirement from the office of Coxswain of the Hartlepool No. 1 Life-boat. Also a gratuity to the widow of the late Signalman at the Fethard Life-boat station, and to a man who was for many years one of the crew of the Harwich Life-boats. Also a sum in commutation of pension and a certificate of service to Mr. EDWARD POUNDER, Coxswain of the West Hartlepool Life-boat, on his retirement from office.

Voted the sum of 350l., in addition to the amount already contributed, to the fund for the relief of the dependents of the men lost on the occasion of the Life-boat accident at Aldeburgh on the 7th December last, another member of the crew having unfortunately succumbed to the injuries he then received. A weekly allowance was granted to his family during the time he was unable to work, and the expenses of medical attendance, funeral, &c., were defrayed by the Institution.

April 17.—STAITHES, YORKSHIRE.—Jonathan Stott Life-boat.—The sudden rising of the sea having rendered it dangerous for some of the fishing-cobles to return to the shore, the Life-boat was launched at about 1.15 P.M. and assisted the last two boats which arrived.—Expense of service, 8l. 17s.

April 19.—FENIT, (TRALEE BAY), CO. KERRY.—John Willmot Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 1 P.M. and proceeded to the steam-trawler Salamander, of Great Yarmouth, which had stranded on a dangerous reef of rocks in Brandon Bay, in a dense fog. The Life-boat was towed by the steamer Queenborough, a sister ship of the Salamander, and, on reaching the latter, found that seven of her crew had jumped overboard and had been washed ashore at Garry William Point. They were taken into the Life-boat and landed at Fenit. One of the men had been much injured in an unsuccessful endeavour to rescue the mate, who was washed overboard directly after the vessel struck. The steamer became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 12l. 7s. 6d.

April 25.—SCARBOROUGH.—Queensbury Life-boat.—The coxswain of the Life-boat having been informed that some fishing-cobles were in danger, the Life-boat was launched at 4.45 A.M., while a moderate gale was blowing from N.E., accompanied by a rough sea. She proceeded in a south-easterly direction and, when about a third of a mile from the east pier, met the coble Snowdrop and accompanied her to the harbour. The Life-boat went out again, proceeding in an easterly direction, but when about three quarters of a mile from the shore she was recalled by signal, news having been received that the other cobles had arrived at Robin Hood's Bay.—Expense of service, 13l. 10s.

April 26.—WINTERTON, NORFOLK.—Margaret Life-boat.—Signals having been fired by the Wold light-vessel, the Life-boat was launched at 11.30 P.M. A south-westerly wind was then blowing and the sea was moderate. Proceeding in the direction of the Hasborough Sand, flares were shown by a vessel stranded there, and on reaching her she was found to be the fishing-dandy Ste. Marie Mère de Dieu, of and from Grave-lines, bound for Wick. A boy was taken into the Life-boat, which remained by the vessel until she floated, when the boy was put on board again and the Life-boat made for her station, the master of the fishing-boat requiring no further help.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 5*s.*

April 30.—ROBIN HOOD'S BAY, YORKSHIRE.—Ephraim and Hannah Fox Life-boat.—The fishing-coble Star of Bethlehem, of Scarborough, was seen some distance off the bay and, as the heavy sea then running would render it very dangerous for her to attempt to land, the Life-boat was launched at 6.30 A.M., took the fishing-boat in tow and brought her safely to the shore.—Expense of service, 8*l.* 4*s.* 6*d.*

May 1.—BUCKIE, BANFFSHIRE.—James Sharpe Life-boat.—The lugger Mary, of Buckie, was taken off the beach, at about midnight on the 30th April, in order to proceed to Cluny Harbour to be fitted out for the west coast herring fishery. A whole gale suddenly sprung up from N.N.W., accompanied by a heavy sea, and the boat failed to enter the harbour and was carried past it. She immediately dropped her anchor, but it dragged for a considerable distance and the boat gradually drifted near the rocks at Janstown, near Buckie. The crew of the Life-boat were summoned, and when it was seen that the lugger would certainly be driven ashore unless she had assistance the boat was launched, taking out an anchor, two chains and a spring rope belonging to the owners of the fishing-boat. The boat, by means of this tackle, was securely moored and rode out the gale, which shortly afterwards moderated, her crew of nine men getting into the Life-boat and reaching the land at 9 A.M.—Property salvage case. Balance of expenses paid by Institution, 5*l.* 16*s.* 3*d.*

May 2.—THURSO AND WICK, CAITHNESS-SHIRE.—Co-operator No. 3 Life-boat.—While a moderate breeze was blowing from S., accompanied by a rough sea, the coxswain of the Wick Life-boat received notice, at 6.30 A.M., that a steamer was aground at the back of the North Quay of Wick Harbour and in need of assistance. He at once summoned his crew and manned the Thurso Life-boat, which was lying afloat in the harbour at Wick, having put in there after proceeding to the assistance of a distressed vessel on the previous day. The stranded vessel proved to be the s.s. Shaw, of Aberdeen, a line fishing-boat, homeward bound from Stornoway where her crew had left her, and having only the master and engineer on board. They got into the Life-boat and landed at about 8.30.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 10*s.*

May 10.—MONTROSE, FORFARSHIRE.—Reserve Life-boat.—Nine of the large fishing-boats went out to the line fishery grounds, about ninety miles distant from the land, on the morning of the 8th May. On the following evening the wind, which was blowing from E.N.E., increased to a moderate gale, causing a very heavy sea, and, as it was expected that the boats would be compelled to return to the harbour for safety, a good look out was kept for them. About half-an-hour after midnight the coxswain of the Life-boat received a telephone message from the Coastguard station at Usan, stating that flares were seen in the offing and that they had evidently been shown by the boats. He was also informed that one of them had arrived in the harbour, and that her crew reported there was a heavy sea on the bar and that it was advisable that the Life-boat should proceed there to help the other boats. At about 1 A.M. the Life-boat, temporarily placed on this station, was launched and saw the four boats which were the last to come in safely across the bar; they were the Camelia, Magdalene, Mon Ami and Annie Mearns. The crew of the Rose decided not to incur the risk of crossing the bar and made for Arbroath, where they arrived safely, and the boat Pilgrim kept at sea until about 11 A.M., when the weather moderated and she was able to enter the harbour. The Life-boat remained afloat until 9 A.M.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 18*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 10th May, 1900.

Voted 183*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.* to pay for assemblies of crews, watching, or launches of the following Life-boats, with the view of assisting those on board vessels in distress:—Caister No. 1, Dunbar, Gorleston No. 1, Gourdon, Huna, Palling No. 2, Shoreham, Thurso and Wick.

Approved of the grant of 1,000*l.* which, by direction of members authorised at the preceding Meeting of the Committee, had been remitted, as the Institution's contribution to the fund being raised locally for the relief of the dependents of eight men who unfortunately lost their lives on the occasion of the capsizing of the Padstow steam Life-boat while on service on the 11th April. Four widows and fourteen young children were left to be provided for.

Voted the sum of 5*l.* to each of the crew of the Life-boat Arab, and to each of the deck hands, or their representatives, of the steam Life-boat. Pecuniary grants were also made to men who were injured on the occasion.

The expenses of medical attendance on the survivors and of the funerals of the four men whose bodies had been recovered were defrayed by the Institution.

Voted the sum of 5*l.* to T. PLUMB, a foreman launcher, who was injured while on service with the Dungeness No. 2 Life-boat.

The Committee awarded a pension and a certificate of service to MR. WILLIAM LECKIE, on his retirement from the office of Coxswain of the Ballantrae Life-boat, and to MR. JAMES HENRY HAYLETT, retiring Coxswain of the Caister No. 1 Life-boat.

Also a gratuity and certificate to MR. WALTER POWER, Coxswain of the Dunmore East Life-boat, the station being abolished.

Also 39*l.* 1*s.* (including expense of medical attendance) to two men injured at an exercise of the Saltburn Life-boat.

Also a gratuity on retirement to the Signalmen at the Walmer and West Hartlepool stations.

May 14.—SOUTHEND-ON-SEA, ESSEX.—James Stevens No. 9 Life-boat.—While a moderate gale was blowing from the E., accompanied by a rough sea and rain squalls, the Coxswain of the Life-boat was informed that the light-vessel was firing signal guns for a three-masted schooner aground on the Nore Sand. The water was then low, but fearing that as the tide rose the sea would become heavier, he summoned the crew; the Life-boat was launched at 7 A.M., and on reaching the vessel at 8 o'clock, found she was the Sidney Smith, of Portmadoc, bound from London for Falmouth, with cement and ballast, and having on board the master, his sister and a crew of five men. The master having engaged the services of the Life-boat men, they succeeded in getting the vessel off the sand and took her to Gravesend, arriving there at about 1 P.M. Having moored her, the boat returned to her station which was reached at 4.30.—Property salvage case.

May 15.—LOWESTOFT.—Samuel Pim-soll Life-boat.—The attention of the Coxswain of the Life-boat was called to a steamer which was showing flares for a pilot, and on looking at her he saw that her course was taking her towards the N.E. Newcome Sand; five minutes later she went aground. A moderate gale was blowing from N.E. by E. and there was a short, choppy sea. The crew of the Life-boat were summoned; at nine P.M. the boat was launched, starting under sail but being picked up by the steam-tug Lowestoft which towed her near the vessel. On arriving alongside, it was found she was the s.s. Skulda, of Grange-mouth, bound from Windau for Lowestoft, laden with sleepers, and having on board a crew of seventeen persons. The master asked the Life-boat men to remain by him and render assistance. Some of the men helped to throw overboard the deck cargo so as to lighten the ship, an anchor was laid out, a tow rope was taken from the tug to the Skulda, and at about 6.30 on the following morning she was got off the sand and was taken into Lowestoft harbour.—Property salvage case.

May 16. — DOVER. — Lewis Morice Life-boat. — Signals of distress having been fired by the light-vessel moored off the works in progress at the Admiralty pier, while a strong breeze was blowing from N.E., the Life-boat was launched at 10.15 P.M., and ascertained that the lightship had been run into by a large steamer. The boat remained by the vessel until daylight, when it was found that there was no need to stay longer. — Expense of service, 20*l.* 8*s.*

May 26. — CADGWITH, CORNWALL. — Minnie Moon Life-boat. — The full-rigged ship Wandsbek, of Hamburg, struck on the Dales rocks at the Lizard Point. Rockets were fired from the signal station, the Life-boat was launched at 4.5 P.M. in response to them, and remained during the night by the vessel, on board of which the captain remained, the crew having left in the ship's boats. The ship was firmly fixed on the rocks which penetrated her, her cargo of wheat being sodden with water became swollen and burst the decks, and she became a total wreck. She had arrived at Falmouth a few days previous from Portland, U.S., awaiting orders, and was on her way to Liverpool to discharge her cargo when the casualty overtook her. — Expense of service, 31*l.* 10*s.*

May 29. — BROADSTAIRS. — Frances Forbes Barton Life-boat. — At 4.45 A.M. the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the brig Danube, of Whitby, coal laden from Shields for Dover, which was stranded on the N. Goodwin Sands. A N.N.W. wind was blowing and the sea was moderate. The Life-boat stood by until the vessel floated and was towed by a steam-tug clear of the sands. — Expense of service, 13*l.* 11*s.*

May 29. — SHERINGHAM, NORFOLK. — William Bennett Life-boat. — The private Life-boat Henry Ramey Upcher was launched to the assistance of seven boats which were returning from fishing off Blakeney, in a moderate to strong gale from N.N.E. and a rough sea. As the Life-boat had to pull for three miles or more against wind and tide, a double crew was taken, and having embarked a further number of seventeen men from the fishing-boats she was overloaded and her coxswain felt some anxiety as to her safety in returning through the broken water, which extended nearly a mile out from the shore. He therefore signalled for the Institution's Life-boat which put off at about 3 P.M. and stood by the other boat until all danger was past. The fishermen's boats had to be left to drift ashore; five of them were washed up safely and were secured, but the other two were dashed to pieces. — Expense of service, 10*l.* 2*s.*

May 29. — HOYLAKE, CHESHIRE. — Coard William Squarey Life-boat. — The Coastguard on duty having observed a vessel aground on the East Hoyle bank, while a S.W. gale was blowing, with a rough sea, informed the Coxswain of the Life-boat, and at 7.22 P.M. the boat was launched. The vessel was found to be the s.s. Dolphin, of Manchester, and the Life-boat stood by her until she floated at 4.30 on the following morning. — Expense of service, 28*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.*

June 5. — PALLING, NORFOLK. — Hearts of Oak Life-boat. — A message by telephone was received in the morning from the North Hasborough Light-vessel, stating that a vessel was in need of assistance. The weather was foggy, the sea was very heavy, and a moderate gale was blowing from N.N.E. At 7.40 the Life-boat was launched, and when near the Wold Light-ship was taken in tow by a steam-tug towards the vessel which proved to be the steam-trawler City of Edinburgh, of Grimsby. She had stranded in the night and shortly before the arrival of the Lifeboat had got off the sands but had lost her rudder. The Life-boat remained by her until a temporary rudder was fixed and the vessel proceeded in a northerly direction. — Expense of service, 17*l.* 6*s.*

June 5. — BROADSTAIRS. — Frances Forbes Barton Life-boat. — A dismasted yacht being seen off the North Foreland while a moderate gale was blowing, accompanied by a heavy sea, the Life-boat was launched at 5 P.M. and on reaching the vessel found she was the yacht Dorothy, of Southend. She was drifting towards the Longnose rocks. Some of the Life-boat men boarded her, with difficulty a tow-rope was got on board and she was towed clear of the broken water and was taken to Rams-gate. There were two persons on board, and the master stated that a heavy sea breaking on the mainsail had caused the mast to go over the side of the vessel.—Property salvage case.

June 7.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—The Coxswain of the Life-boat having been informed by a Coastguardsman that a steamer was aground on the Cross Sand, while the wind was blowing from W., accompanied by a moderate sea and thick weather, he at once summoned the crew, and at 10.55 A.M. the Life-boat was launched. On arriving at the south part of the sand, the s.s. Flamingo, of Hull, homeward bound from Dunkirk, with a general cargo, was found stranded, and the Life-boat stood by her for three hours, when she got off the sand and proceeded on her way.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 14th June, 1900.

Voted 167*l.* 9*s.* 6*d.* to pay for launches, watching or assemblies by the crews of the following Life-boats with the view of assisting those on board vessels in distress :—Broadstairs, Caister No. 1, Hastings, Hunstanton, Longhope, Margate Nos. 1 and 2, North Deal, Polpear, Port Eynon, Swansea, Wick, Winterton Nos. 1 and 2.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was also taken out for service, but her assistance was not ultimately needed.

Voted 100*l.* to Mr. J. G. Nevin, who was very seriously injured while on duty at the Torquay Life-boat station.

Voted also 3*l.* to two men who were injured while on service in the Winterton No. 2 Life-boat on the 10th May.

Also a gratuity to a man who was for many years a member of the Life-boat crew at Hayle.

June 16.—RHOSCOLYN, ANGLESEY.—Ramon Cabrera Life-boat.—A very thick fog prevailed here on the night of the 15th June, and at about 5.30 on the following morning the coxswain of the Life-boat, who had been watching during the night, heard voices close to the signal and look-out station. He, as soon as possible, fired signals to summon the crew, and putting off with others in small boats found the s.s. Avon, bound for Liverpool with fire-clay, stranded on the rocks under the flag-staff, but the captain declined any assistance. Shortly after seven o'clock the sea, which had been up to that time smooth, became lumpy and dangerous for the small boats, and it was therefore decided to return to the shore and take out the Life-boat to stand by the steamer in case she should get free of the rocks with the rising tide and her crew be in danger, it having been stated that the ship was leaking. Just as the Life-boat arrived the steamer floated, hoisted her two boats which had been lowered, and proceeded on her journey. The Life-boat followed her until she was out of the bay.—Expense of service, 9*l.* 7*s.*

June 19.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—At 2.43 P.M. the Coastguard reported to the Coxswain of the Life-boat that a vessel was aground on the Cross Sand, and in seven minutes the Life-boat was launched. A southeasterly wind was blowing and there was a moderate sea. The stranded vessel was the schooner Helene, of Groningen, laden with cement, from Rochester for Kirkcaldy, and, with the help of the Life-boat men and a steam-tug, she was got off the sand at 11.35, the Life-boat regaining her station at 1.45 on the following morning.—Property salvage case.

June 21.—HUNA, CAITHNESS-SHIRE.—Caroline and Thomas Life-boat.—On receipt of a telegram from Brough, the Life-boat was launched at 6 P.M., proceeded to the Pentland Skerries and found the fishing lugger Magdalen Hughes, of Kirkcaldy, stranded on the S.W. point of Little Skerry. Her crew had landed, and the Life-boat men assisted them to save their nets and other materials, it being probable that the lugger would become a total wreck. The weather was thick at the time of stranding, a light E. wind was blowing and the sea was smooth.—Expense of service, 23*l.* 16*s.*

June 25.—REDCAR, YORKSHIRE.—Brothers Life-boat.—At about 10 A.M. a rowing boat, which had gone out early in the morning to gather mussels in the Tees, attempted to make for Redcar. Her crew of a man and two boys were in danger, as the wind had increased and the sea had become rough, and the Life-boat therefore proceeded to their assistance and brought them safely ashore.—Expense of service, 9*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.*

June 25.—RUNSWICK, YORKSHIRE.—Cape of Good Hope Life-boat.—A fishing coble having been disabled by a sudden squall in the morning, when about three-quarters of a mile from the shore, a pilot coble which was near at hand proceeded to her and rendered assistance. A moderate gale was blowing at the time, and as there was a heavy sea, the Life-boat put off at 11.30 and stood by both boats until they safely reached the land.—Expense of service, 8*l.* 19*s.*

June 28.—WALTON-ON-THE-NAZE.—Honourable Artillery Company Life-boat.—In a light wind, a moderate sea and hazy weather, a telephone message was received in the morning from the Gunfleet Lighthouse, reporting a barque ashore. The crew of the Life-boat were summoned and the boat was taken on her transporting carriage along the beach and launched at the East Terrace breakwater at 7.15. She proceeded at first under oars and sail and afterwards was picked up by a steam-tug and towed near the stranded vessel which was the Argo, of Tvedestrand, bound from Husum for London, with firewood. She was reached at 8.45, and on boarding her the Coxswain of the Life-boat ascertained that she was leaking badly, and he agreed with the master that the Life-boat men should assist at the pumps and help to throw the deck cargo overboard, so as to lighten the ship. These operations were continued until high water, but she did not get off the sand. The wind then springing up from the E. caused the sea to increase, and the Life-boat men consented to remain until the tide again made, when, with the help of two steam-tugs, the barque was got clear of the sand; only just in time, for as she left it the tide was commencing to ebb. She was assisted into Harwich, her rudder being disabled, and was left at anchor there, the Life-boat regaining her station shortly after noon on the following day. The barque had a crew of thirteen men.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 12th July, 1900.

Voted 77*l.* 9*s.* to pay the expenses of watching and of the following Life-boats in proceeding out with the view of assisting distressed vessels:—Harwich (steam Life-boat), Kilmore, Kingstown No. 1, Mullion, Plymouth, Scarborough, Tynemouth and Walton-on-the-Naze.

The Committee granted a pension and a certificate of service to Mr. WILLIAM HENRY BROWN on his retirement from the office of Coxswain of the Torquay Life-boat.

Also a pecuniary grant to the late caretaker at Southend (Cantyre) Life-boat Station.

Voted 15*l.* (including medical expenses) to two men injured at exercise of the Cloughey and Llandudno Life-boats.

July 20.—COURTMACSHERRY, Co. CORK.—Farrant Life-boat.—In the evening a large steamer was reported in distress in Sevenheads Bay. The weather at the time was foggy, there was no wind and the sea was smooth. At 6 o'clock, the Life-boat proceeded to the assistance of the vessel and found her to be the Texan, of and from Liverpool, bound for St. Thomas, with a general cargo, and having about two hundred persons on board. She had a large hole amidships, having been in collision with another steamer in the fog, and would have been in a critical condition if the sea had risen. The Life-boat remained by her until two steam-tugs arrived from Queenstown and took her in tow.—Expense of service, 9*l.* 18*s.*

July 21.—SCARBOROUGH.—Queensbury Life-boat.—Two boatmen who were looking out from the Castle Yard in the morning observed a vessel stranded about three miles N. The weather was thick, no wind was blowing, and the sea was moderately rough. The Life-boat was launched at 4.30, proceeded to the steam trawler Industria, of Hull, which was lying in the bay awaiting the tide, and was towed by her to the stranded vessel, which proved to be the brigantine Kathleen, of South Shields, bound from Newhaven for the Tyne in ballast. She had run aground in a dense fog which had prevailed during the night. Considerable difficulty was experienced by the Life-boat in getting near her, owing to the heavy sea and the dangerous rocks on which the vessel was striking heavily, but ultimately the boat succeeded in getting alongside and rescued the crew of six men and a retriever dog. The vessel was half full of water, had lost her rudder, and was otherwise much damaged.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 4*s.* 6*d.*

July 21.—DOUGLAS, ISLE OF MAN.—Civil Service No. 6 Life-boat.—At about 4 P.M. the steamer Lily, of Liverpool, which had left that port in the morning, with six hundred and twenty-eight passengers for Douglas, ran aground on the rocks at Onchan Harbour, North Bay, Douglas, in a dense fog. Signals were fired from the Rocket Station, and the Life-boat put off in response, the launch occupying only five minutes, and stood by the vessel. Fortunately the weather was calm and the sea smooth, so that those on board, many of whom were women and children, were in no immediate danger. Steam ferries and a number of harbour boats and pleasure boats proceeded to the stranded vessel, the rocket brigade effected communication with her, and all rendered valuable help in getting the people ashore, the boats also landing some of the passengers' luggage. Several residents and visitors also arrived from the Howstrake district and assisted the rescued people up the cliff side, and in about an hour after the time of striking the rocks all of them were safe on shore. On the following morning the vessel slid off the rocks at high water and proceeded under her own steam to the Victoria Pier, where she was berthed, a large concourse of people watching the operation from the cliffs.—Expense of service, 6*l.* 13*s.*

July 29.—PORT ERROLL, ABERDEENSHIRE.—Frances Camilla Howard Life-boat.—At about 7 o'clock in the morning a dense fog, which had prevailed about eight hours, lifted and disclosed a vessel close in shore at Whinnyfold, south of Cruden Scars, and apparently on the rocks. A crew for the Life-boat having been obtained, the boat was launched, proceeded to the vessel and found she was the barque Lady Penrhyn, of Christiania, from Hamburg, in ballast, bound, it was understood, for St. John's. She was not on the rocks, as had been supposed, but was lying about a hundred yards from them and was unable to get away from her dangerous position without the aid of a steam-tug. At the master's request, the Life-boat returned to Port Erroll, landed one of her crew to telegraph to Aberdeen for a tug, and again proceeded to the vessel, remaining by her until no further help was needed.—Expense of service, 8*l.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 2nd August, 1900.

Voted 2*l.* 6*s.* 6*d.* to the crew, etc., of the Totland Bay Life-boat for assembling in readiness to proceed, should it have been necessary, to the assistance of a vessel in distress.

Also 5*l.* to a man who was injured while on service with the Aldeburgh Life-boat on the 7th December last.

Also 63*l.* 12*s.*, including medical expenses, to a man who was injured while on service in the Ardrossan Life-boat, on the 10th November last, and had been thereby incapacitated for work for some months.

Aug. 3.—EASTBOURNE.—James Stevens No. 6 Life-boat.—While a gale was blowing from S., accompanied by a very heavy sea and rain, the ketch Caroline, of London, bound from Goole for Portland, with a cargo of coal, parted her cable and drifted towards the shore, ultimately stranding about two miles eastward of the Life-boat house, where she became a total wreck. The crew of the Life-boat were summoned and at 9.30 A.M. the boat was launched, rowed to the weather side of the vessel, anchored and veered down to her. Her crew of three men got into the Life-boat and were taken safely ashore at about 11.15. The master, however, refused to leave the vessel, but the wind increased and the schooner drifted on to the main, and at 11.30 the Coastguards fired a line over the ship by means of the rocket apparatus, and the captain was hauled ashore.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 3*s.*

Aug. 3.—RAMSEY, ISLE OF MAN.—Mary Isabella Life-boat.—At about 12.15 P.M. the fishing smack Queen, of

Douglas, was observed making for the harbour and, in attempting to enter, she struck on the bar and stranded opposite the Life-boat House. As a moderate gale was blowing from N.E., and there was a heavy sea, the Life-boat put off to her assistance and safely landed her crew, consisting of three men, at 1.15. Two hours later the smack, which had been got afloat, was taken into the harbour.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*

Aug. 3.—WEST HARTLEPOOL.—Forester's Pride Life-boat.—In the afternoon the brigantine William Crow, of Great Yarmouth, was seen to be drifting ashore. A whole gale was blowing from E.N.E., the weather was thick and there was a heavy sea, and as it did not seem probable that she would get out of danger the crew of the Life-boat were summoned, and at 5.30 the boat was launched. With considerable difficulty the vessel was reached and her crew of four men were rescued and landed at 7 o'clock.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 3*s.* 6*d.*

Aug. 3.—FISHGUARD, PEMBROKE-SHIRE.—Appin Life-boat.—While a strong gale was blowing from N.N.W., accompanied by a rough sea and squally weather, signals of distress were shown by the schooner Albion, of and from Runcorn, for the Yealm river, Devonshire, with coal, which was riding heavily at anchor in the bay. The Life-boat was launched at 6.30 P.M., reached the vessel in six minutes, and rescued her crew, consisting of the master and three men. While the boat was taking these men off the vessel, another schooner, which was at anchor close by, and also riding heavily, showed signals for assistance. The Life-boat therefore proceeded to her and took off her crew of the master and four men. This vessel was the Esther, of and for Plymouth, from Runcorn, with a cargo of coal. The two schooners rode out the gale, which shortly afterwards abated; the Esther however parted one of her cables.—Expense of service, 12*l.*

Aug. 3.—MARGATE.—Civil Service No. 1 Life-boat.—Signals were shown by a vessel in Margate Roads, while a whole gale was blowing from N.W., accompanied by a very heavy sea and thick weather, with rain. The Life-boat was launched at 11.40 P.M. and found the vessel was the barge Intrepid, of Ipswich, bound from London for Dover, laden with maize, and having on board the master, the mate, and the master's wife. The vessel was riding at anchor, she was very low in the water, and it was feared that she would founder. Three times the Life-boat got a rope attached to her, but on each occasion it parted. At the last attempt, owing to the barge driving on the main, the Life-boat had not sufficient time to hoist her sails before she touched the rocks; her anchor was at once let go, and she rode with her head to sea, but finding it impossible to get off, and those on board the barge continuing to signal for help, it was decided to cut the cable, losing about two fathoms of it and the anchor, the latter being subsequently recovered, and make another attempt to reach the vessel. A rope was got on board, and having been made fast, the three persons were taken into the boat. It was then daylight and the Life-boat remained by the barge for about two hours, the captain and five men were put on board her, the anchor was slipped and she was taken to Ramsgate, the master's wife and the mate being taken ashore in the Life-boat.—Property salvage case.

Aug. 4.—BROADSTAIRS.—Francis Forbes Barton Life-boat.—Messages by telephone were received in the morning, intimating that the services of the Life-boat were required. A whole gale was then blowing from N.W., there was a heavy sea, and rain was falling at intervals. The Life-boat was launched at 6 o'clock, and proceeding to Margate Roads found the ketch Thomas and Edwin, of Plymouth, laden with cement from London for Dartmouth, and having a crew of three men. She had lost her anchor and chain, and her rigging, etc., was in a damaged condition. Four of the Life-boat men boarded her and with their help she was taken to Ramsgate and was safely berthed in the harbour at 9 A.M. The Life-boat then went in the direction of two other vessels which were showing signals of distress, but two steam-tugs arrived, and each of them took one of the vessels in tow to Ramsgate.—Property salvage case.

Aug. 4.—WELLS, NORFOLK.—Baltic Life-boat.—The ketch Hopewell, of Lynn, bound for Wells from Hull, with corn and cake, arrived in Holkham Bay on the afternoon of the 3rd August, just after high water, and was lying there awaiting the next tide, when she would proceed to the quay. A heavy gale, however, sprung up at about 10 o'clock at night, and the vessel dragged her two anchors, drove on the East bar about 4 A.M., and at once sunk, the master and crew of two men taking to the rigging. The weather was so thick and the rain so heavy that unfortunately the men were not observed from the shore until about 8 o'clock. The crew of the Life-boat were summoned, the boat was launched, and on reaching the Scalp Beacon was taken in tow by the steam-tug Marie, which took her to windward of the wreck; the boat then sailed down to the vessel, and with some difficulty succeeded in rescuing the men, who were greatly exhausted, from their perilous position. One of the crew of the Life-boat had a narrow escape while assisting to get them from the rigging. He was washed out of the boat on the windward side and came up on the leeward side, when he was at once grasped by his companions and pulled on board.—Expense of service, 13*l.* 16*s.* 3*d.*

In connection with this service a gratifying letter, of which the following is a copy, was received by the Honorary Secretary of the Wells Branch of the Institution:—

“Wells-next-the-Sea,

“11th August, 1900.

“I, R. W. Green, late of the ketch Hopewell, stranded off Wells on the 4th inst., on behalf of myself and crew, who were rescued by the Life-boat Baltic, feeling desirous of conveying our heartfelt thanks to the National Life-boat Institution, and more particularly the Wells Branch, beg that you, Sir, will be the medium of conveying the same.

“Had it not been for the promptness in launching and the skilful handling of the boat by Coxswain Crawford and crew, I feel assured the result must have been different.

“Again I thank all concerned in the rescue.

“I am, Sir,

“Yours faithfully,

(Signed) “R. W. GREEN.

“H. E. LOYNES, Esq.,

“Bank House,

“Wells.”

Aug. 6.—HOLYHEAD.—Joseph Whitworth Life-boat.—While a strong gale was blowing from N.W., accompanied by a heavy sea and rain, the Coxswain of the Life-boat observed a barque dragging her anchors and driving towards the Nimrod rocks. He summoned the crew of the Life-boat, and at 7.10 P.M. the boat was launched. On reaching the vessel, which was the Islamount, of Dundee, bound from Limerick for Liverpool, in ballast, it was found that her anchors had caught on the rocky bottom, but it was feared this was merely a temporary holding and that she would soon be again adrift; therefore the master, his wife, the crew of fourteen men, and a passenger got into the Life-boat and at 8.30 were safely on land. At midnight the Life-boat took back the master, at his request, some of the Life-boatmen remained on board with him during the night, and at daylight the Boat took the crew off to the barque, some of the Life-boatmen afterwards helping to get her to a safer anchorage.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 10*s.*

Aug. 15.—CRESSWELL, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Ellen and Eliza Life-boat.—A message by telephone was received by the Coxswain of the Life-boat in the morning, stating that a vessel was ashore S. of the Coastguard house. A moderate breeze was then blowing from S.E., the sea was moderate and the weather very foggy. At 3 P.M. the wind increased and, as it was known that the crew were still on board the vessel, it was considered desirable that the Life-boat should be launched and proceed to their assistance. This was done, and the vessel was found to be the French fishing lugger Arago. She had stranded on the Headigy Rocks, had about nine feet of water in her, and would probably be a total wreck. Ten of her crew desired to leave her and were landed by the Life-boat, but the other eleven men decided to remain on board the lugger—Expense of service, 9*l.* 10*s.*

Aug. 26.—PALLING, NORFOLK.—Reserve Life-boat.—The Coastguard on duty having observed a small boat about a mile N. of the station, with a signal of distress flying, informed the Coxswain of the Life-boat. He at once summoned the crew of the Life-boat placed here while a new boat was being built for the station, and at 7 A.M. she was launched. A moderate to fresh breeze was then blowing from N.N.E. and there was a heavy sea. The distressed boat was found to contain the crew of the fishing lugger Masterpiece, of Great Yarmouth, which had stranded on the Happisburgh Sands on the previous night and at once commenced to break up. The nine men were taken into the Life-boat and were landed at Horsey, four miles S. of Palling, the direction of the wind and tide preventing the Boat from being beached at her station.—Expense of service, 24*l.*

Aug. 27.—FOLKESTONE.—J. McConnel Hussey Life-boat.—The fishing boat Jessie, of Folkestone, left the port in the afternoon of Sunday, 26th August, and after a rough night at sea was observed on the following morning brought up off Seabrook. At 11.20 the Life-boat was launched, a strong E.N.E. gale blowing at the time accompanied by a heavy sea, and found the Jessie riding heavily and shipping large quantities of water; she had lost all her sails and her rudder was damaged. The crew of three men, who were exhausted by exposure and want of food, were taken into the Life-boat, and three of the Life-boatmen took their places in the fishing boat which was then brought safely into the harbour.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 8*s.*

Sept. 2.—SUNDERLAND, SOUTH PIER.—Junius Life-boat.—In the morning, three young men put off in a small boat from Sunderland, for a pleasure trip. When they started, the wind was blowing from the N.W. and the sea was choppy, but afterwards the wind increased to a moderate gale from N.E. and the sea became so heavy that the little boat was unable to face it and return to the harbour. The Coxswain of the Life-boat, seeing that the boat was being driven in the direction of the rocks where she would probably be dashed to pieces, summoned the crew, and at 11.15 the Life-boat was launched and rescued the three men, their boat becoming a wreck fifteen minutes after they had been taken out of her.—Expense of service, 9*l.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 13th Sept., 1900.

Voted 245*l.* 3*s.* to pay for assemblies of Life-boatmen, watching or launches to the assistance of distressed vessels at Aberdovey, Blyth, Broadstairs, Caister, Cresswell, Criccieth, Dunbar, Eye-mouth, Grimsby, Hartlepool, Margate, Newquay (Cardiganshire), North Deal, Point of Ayr, Port St. Mary, Uppang, Wells and Whitby.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was taken out on two occasions, but her services were not ultimately needed.

Voted 21*l.* 16*s.* 6*d.*, grant and medical expenses, to men injured while on Life-boat service at Bull Bay, Hastings, Walton-on-the-Naze and Winterton.

Sept. 16.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Robert and Susan Life-boat.—The s.s. Klondyke, of Laurvig, in ballast from Hartlepool for Blyth, stranded in Cambois Bay while a moderate breeze was blowing from S.S.W., with a moderate sea, on the night of the 15th September. The weather was so thick that she could not be seen and, as the condition of the sea outside Newbiggin Bay was uncertain and there are dangerous rocks in the locality, it was considered expedient to launch the Life-boat. At 1.30 A.M. the boat put off and stood by the steamer until the tide rose and she got afloat again.—Expense of service, 19*l.* 19*s.*

Oct. 4.—RAMSEY, ISLE OF MAN.—Mary Isabella Life-boat.—Flares having been shown by a vessel at anchor in the bay while a moderate gale was blowing from S.E., accompanied by a heavy sea and thick weather, the Life-boat was launched at 5.50 A.M., and found the barque Topdal, of Mandal, bound from Apalachicola for Whitehaven, with a cargo of pitchpine, dragging her anchors and in danger of being driven ashore. Her crew of eight men were rescued by the Life-boat and safely landed at 8.30. They stated that the vessel had driven a mile shoreward during the night.—Expense of service, 22l. 10s. 6d.

Oct. 4.—ALDEBURGH, SUFFOLK.—Reserve Life-boat.—At 12.41 P.M. a telephone message was received from the Shipwash Light Vessel, stating that a large barque was aground on the sands. A strong gale was blowing from the south at the time, accompanied by a very heavy sea and heavy rain squalls. The Life-boat was manned and launched, and having been hauled, by means of the haul-off warp, through the heavy breakers on the inner shoal, sail was made. Afterwards the s.s. Minerva, of Hamburg, was hailed, and the Master, Captain H. von Spreckelsen, thereupon stopped the steamer, and very kindly took the boat in tow, until she was in a position to reach the stranded vessel. She was lying near the middle buoy, with signals of distress flying, and the seas were breaking over her fore and aft. The Life-boat proceeded towards her, through the heavy breakers, and, having anchored, veered down to her by means of the cable of which about 80 fathoms were paid out. Two gallant attempts to get alongside were made by the Life-boatmen, but the vessel was lying in a bad position and afforded no shelter whatever for the boat. At first, the vessel was lying with her stern towards the sea but afterwards she turned completely round, with her head towards the breakers. These attempts proved futile, but their third endeavour was successful and the vessel's crew were found to have life-belts on, ready to jump into the Life-boat. Watching his opportunities, the Coxswain successfully got all the men, eleven in number, on board, but, in spite of all precautions, the mate had a somewhat narrow escape. He fell between the ship and the boat, but was promptly grasped by some of the Life-boatmen, and was dragged into the boat, fortunately with no more serious injury than a bruised hand and thigh. The vessel, which was the barque Antares, from Karlskrona, for London, with deals, was, by this time, full of water, and apparently beginning to break up. The Life-boat at once made sail for home, and arrived at 7.30

P.M., with the rescued men, all of whom were greatly exhausted, the greater number of them having to be led up the beach to the nearest hotel, where their wants were attended to.

The following paragraph appeared in the East Anglian Times of the 6th October:—

“The master of the German barque Antares, which was wrecked on the Shipwash Sand on Thursday, passed through Ipswich on Friday morning, on his way to Harwich. He spoke with grateful admiration of the manner in which he and the crew of ten men were rescued by the Aldeburgh Life-boat, and dictated and signed the following letter:—‘Sir, I wish, through your columns, to record our heartfelt thanks to the Aldeburgh Life-boat for the splendid service they rendered to us on Thursday afternoon. There was a terrific sea running over the Shipwash Sand, on which we stranded, and Coxswain Cable had to sail right through the breakers to get alongside our ship. The waves were breaking right over ship, fore and aft, and it was a difficult and dangerous task to get us off. The coxswain and crew stuck to their work, however, and saved our lives, for which I wish now to express the deep gratitude and thankfulness that we now feel.’”

(Signed) A. WÄHDEL.

An extra reward was granted to the coxswain and crew of the Life-boat for their service on this occasion, and a letter of thanks was sent to the captain of the s.s. Minerva for the assistance so kindly rendered by him.—Expense of service, 50l. 10s. 6d.

In recognition of the gallantry of Mr. JAMES CABLE, coxswain of the Aldeburgh Life-boat, on this occasion, and on the occasion of the service to the Hylton on the 15th February last, the Institution's silver third service clasp was awarded to him, he already possessing the silver medal and second service clasp, presented to him for gallantry on previous occasions. Appointed to the office of coxswain in January, 1888, he has had charge of the Life-boat on more than twenty occasions of service, and has assisted in the rescue of 269 lives.

Oct. 4.—CAMPBELTOWN, ARGYLLSHIRE.

—James Stevens No. 2 Life-boat.—The brigantine Anna Sarah, of Ipswich, while on her way from Ardrossan to a French port, with a cargo of coal, was overtaken by a gale from the S.S.E., when off the Maidens, on the coast of Ireland, and her sails were carried away. She tried to make for Lamlash, Isle of Arran, but failed to do so, and eventually anchored in Saddell Bay on the 4th October. Fearing the gale and sea would increase, and that the vessel would, in that case, drive ashore, the master hoisted signals of distress. A telegram was at once despatched from Saddell to Campbeltown summoning the Life-boat, and at 1.30 p.m. the Life-boat was launched, and, proceeding under sail through a very wild and confused sea in which the boat behaved splendidly, reached the vessel and rescued the crew of six men. Had the direction of the wind changed, nothing could have saved the vessel; but fortunately the gale abated, her anchors held and on the following day she was towed into the harbour by a steam-tug.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 5*s.*

Oct. 4.—CLOVELLY, NORTH DEVON.—Elinor Roget Life-boat.—While a moderate to strong gale was blowing, accompanied by a heavy sea, a vessel was seen by the Coastguard at the Watch Tower Station and, although she had no signal of distress flying, she appeared to be in difficulties and was therefore kept under observation. The crew of the Life-boat were summoned; the boat was launched at 4.20 p.m., and at 5.30 reached the vessel, which had anchored off Westward Ho. She was the brigantine Charles P. Knight, of Newport, laden with coal, and had a crew of seven men. The master asked for assistance, but the coxswain of the Life-boat was unable to allow any of his men to board the vessel as she was in such a dangerous position close to the S.W. tail of the Bar, on a lee shore, darkness was coming on, and there was no prospect of the vessel getting out of danger unless the direction of the wind changed. All that could be done was to save the lives of her crew, who got into the Life-boat, the vessel afterwards stranding at Westward Ho. The Life-boat took six hours to beat back to her station and during the whole of the time the weather was very bad and cold, with rain, hail-storms and lightning. At 11.45, however, she arrived, and her crew and those whom they had rescued safely landed.—Expense of service, 42*l.* 19*s.*

Oct. 4.—PORT ST. MARY, ISLE OF MAN.—James Stevens No. 1 Life-boat.—A severe storm was experienced here, the wind blowing from the S.E. with almost hurricane force, with a very heavy sea and heavy rain. The storm continued throughout the day, and in the evening the wind decreased to a strong breeze, but there was still a heavy sea and rolling surf. At 8.30 the s.s. Footah, of Barrow, burnt flash lights and blew her whistle. She was about half-a-mile outside the breakwater and, as she appeared to be in danger of stranding, the Life-boat was launched at 8.40 and proceeded to her assistance. It was ascertained that her pumps were choked and, as she was in a very perilous position, the Assistant-Coxswain of the Life-boat boarded the steamer and piloted her into the harbour. She was bound from Barrow-in-Furness for Ardrossan with a cargo of iron ore.—Expense of service, 26*l.* 14*s.*

Oct. 5.—RAMSGATE.—Bradford Life-boat.—The schooner Alnwick, of Beaumaris, bound from London for Workington, with cement, ran for the harbour from the Downs for shelter while a strong W.S.W. wind was blowing, in the evening, but missed the entrance and was carried by the strong tide to the back of the East pier, where she stranded, bumping heavily in the rough sea. As she was in much danger, the steam-tug Yare and Life-boat proceeded to her assistance at 7 o'clock, and the small surf-boat from the East pier also put off to the rescue. The Life-boat anchored near the vessel, veered down to her and put some men on board to assist her crew, a line was taken to the steam-tug which got a hawser on board and towed the schooner into the harbour at 9.15. She was leaking badly.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 6.—MARYPORT, CUMBERLAND.—Civil Service No. 5 Life-boat.—In the evening the coxswain of the Life-boat received a telegram from Whitehaven warning him to watch for a barque coming up the Solway Firth. A strong gale was blowing from S.W. at the time and there was a very heavy sea. He at once went on the "look-out," but the thick weather, wind and rain rendered it impossible for him to see anything. At 9 o'clock the weather cleared, the wind abated, and the Harbour Master observing signals of distress, apparently a burning tar barrel, at once summoned the crew of the Life-boat. At 9.30 the boat was launched and on nearing the vessel, which was the barque Topdal, of Mandal, timber laden, from Apalachicola for Whitehaven, stranded on the Robin Rigg where she became a total wreck, a quantity of timber was fallen in with rendering it dangerous to approach her. Meanwhile the s.s. Kittiwake, of Glasgow, was proceeding from Silloth for Liverpool, and when about half a mile W.S.W. of the Solway Light-vessel cries for help were heard but nothing could be seen. The master, however, headed the steamer in the direction from which the sounds came and ultimately sighted the wrecked vessel, her mizen lower mast alone standing and a portion of the poop deck awash, to which the crew were clinging. The steamer's starboard Life-boat was immediately launched and, manned by the mate and four able-seamen, succeeded, with considerable difficulty and danger, in rescuing the eight shipwrecked men, transferring them to the Maryport Life-boat which came up just as the men had been taken off the wreck.—Expense of service, 28*l.* 8*s.* 9*d.*

Oct. 9.—WALMER AND KINGSDOWNE.—Civil Service No. 4 and Charles Hargrave Life-boats.—On the morning of the 9th October the South Sand Head Light Vessel fired signals indicating that a vessel was in distress, and the Coastguard on duty at Walmer at once reported the fact to the Coxswain of the Life-boat. He summoned his crew, and the boat was promptly launched. The signals were also seen and heard at Kingsdowne, and, the Coastguard there having called up the Coxswain, and the crew having assembled, the Life-boat was also launched. Both boats were on their way to the Goodwin Sands at 1.45, and on arriving there found the s.s. Carlotta, of Spezzia, a large vessel of about 1,800 tons, bound from Taganrog for Antwerp, stranded. She had a cargo of barley and rape seed and a crew of twenty-five persons on board. The Life-boatmen, assisted by the crews of several boats which came off from the shore, jettisoned some of the cargo, with the object of lightening the steamer, and the services of steam-tugs were secured to try to tow the vessel; anchors were also laid out, but although the efforts were continued for a long time, they were unsuccessful. While the men were still at work the vessel suddenly parted amidships and those on board signalled for the Life-boats to come alongside to take them off. Fifty-eight persons were in the vessel, this number including the men from the boats, their boats having been compelled to return to the shore in consequence of the state of the weather. As soon as possible the Life-boats approached the ship, rescued all of those on board, and brought them safely to land, the Walmer Life-boat reaching the shore at about 11 P.M., and the Kingsdowne boat at 9.15. Of the lives saved, 35 were rescued by the Walmer Life-boat, and 23 by the Kingsdowne Life-boat.—Expense of services, 12*l.* 17*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 11th Oct., 1900.

Voted 142*l.* 3*s.* to pay for launches, assemblies of crews or watching at the following Life-boat stations, with the view of assisting distressed vessels:—Aldeburgh, Balcarry, Cemlyn, Gorleston No. 1, Holyhead (steam Life-boat), Ilfracombe, Newhaven, Plymouth, Salcombe, Scarborough and Selsey.

Voted 13*l.* 5*s.* (including medical expenses) to men injured while assisting with the Ilfracombe and Newbiggin Life-boats.

Also 100*l.* to a man who was very seriously injured while on duty with the Douglas, Isle of Man, Life-boat on the 11th August.

Also a gratuity to Mr. WILLIAM SOPER, on retirement from the post of Coxswain of the Teignmouth Life-boat.

Oct. 13.—CAISTER, NORFOLK.—Beauchamp Life-boat.—A vessel, which proved to be the trawler Corsair, of Calais, being seen stranded on the Caister shoal, the Life-boat was launched at 7.45 P.M., and proceeded to the spot. In rounding the bow of the vessel, the boat struck the ground several times and heavy seas broke over her but, having anchored, she veered down to the vessel and stood by her until she floated off and proceeded on her journey.—Expense of service, 30*l*.

Oct. 25.—WINCHELSEA, SUSSEX.—John William Dudley Life-boat.—The Coastguard watchman reported to the Coxswain that rockets were being sent up eastward of the Life-boat house, and as the Coxswain left his house he saw another rocket discharged. He at once summoned the crew, and at 4.30 A.M. the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the vessel which had fired the signals, having stranded three-quarters of a mile W. of Rye harbour. She was the Helicon, of Hamburg, a large full-rigged ship, bound from Hamburg for Port Talbot, in ballast. At the master's request, the Life-boatmen laid out an anchor and cable by means of which the vessel was got off when the tide flowed.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 26.—SUNDERLAND, NORTH DOCK.—George Woolfindin Life-boat.—While a strong N.N.E. gale was blowing, accompanied by a very rough sea and torrents of sleet and rain, on the 26th October, the ketch Emma Walker, of Sunderland, laden with coal for Wick, attempted to enter the harbour but got too far southwards, became unmanageable and stranded between the old south pier and the new south breakwater. Communication was effected by means of the rocket apparatus, but the crew of two men and a boy were unable to make use of it and called for the Life-boat. The Life-boat was launched at 11.45 P.M., Commander THOMAS HOLMES, R.N., Inspector of Life-boats in the Eastern District, who was on a visit of inspection at the station, going out in the Boat. In consequence of the darkness of the night and no lights being shown by the vessel, the Life-boat had great difficulty in finding her. After rowing about for nearly two hours, the Life-boat crew succeeded in rescuing the men, but were too much exhausted to return ashore against the heavy seas. The Boat therefore anchored, and rode until about 3.30 A.M., when there was sufficient depth of water for a tug to approach her and take her in tow. She returned home at about 3.45. Only the good seamanship of the Coxswain and his crew saved the Life-boat from being totally wrecked, as the current was very strong. Indeed, so great was the danger that a body of the life-brigade stood on the breakwater with life-lines, expecting every minute to see the Boat dashed to pieces against the masonry. In recognition of their good service on the occasion of this, the first service of this Life-boat, which had only recently been placed at the station, an extra reward was granted to the crew, and the Committee of Management expressed their thanks to Commander HOLMES for his services in going out in the Boat.—Expense of service, 34*l*. 15*s*.

Oct. 27.—PALLING.—Reserve Life-boat.—While a strong gale was blowing from W.N.W., accompanied by a heavy sea and heavy rain at intervals, the Coxswain of the Life-boat and Officer of Coastguard on the look-out observed a light from a vessel stranded on the main at Eccles. The crew of the Life-boat were summoned and horses were sent for, and meanwhile two men were sent forward with life-lines. With as little delay as possible, the boat was taken on her transporting carriage along the coast to the scene of the casualty. She was launched and with the aid of the rocket apparatus line succeeded in reaching the vessel which was the ketch Oban, of Goole, bound from London for Boston, with guano. One of the crew jumped into the Life-boat, but before the other two men could do so the heavy seas carried her away from the vessel. With the help of the rocket apparatus line two ropes were got on board the vessel, and the two men, having fastened them round their bodies, were hauled into the Boat in a greatly exhausted condition, and safely landed at 9 A.M.—Expense of service, 30*l*. 19*s*.

Oct. 27.—HILBRE ISLAND.—Admiral Briggs Life-boat.—A fisherman, observing a large steamer stranded on the East

Hoyle Bank, reported the circumstance, and at 8.24 A.M. the Life-boat was launched. A moderate gale was blowing from N.W. by W., the sea was rough, and the weather squally. On reaching the bank, the vessel—the Olaveaga, of Bilbao, in ballast from Workington for Garston—was so high on it that the boat had to wait two hours before there was sufficient water to enable her to get alongside. The Life-boat stood by the vessel—which, however, did not get off the sand—and afterwards landed the master and steward.—Expense of service, 22l. 13s. 6d.

Nov. 1.—ALNMOUTH, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Allen Scott Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 7.45 P.M., and proceeded to the assistance of the steam-trawler Lily Dale, of North Shields, which ran aground on Alnmouth rocks in a fog. The crew of eight men were taken into the Life-boat and landed at 8.30.—Expense of service, 26l. 2s.

Nov. 2.—APPLEDORE, NORTH DEVON.—Jane Hannah MacDonald Life-boat.—Signals of distress being shown by the schooner Shamrock, of Barnstaple, bound from Appledore for Cardiff, which had stranded on the South Tail, in a moderate breeze from N.W. and a heavy ground sea, the Life-boat was launched at 3.45 P.M. The crew of three men were rescued by the Life-boat and safely landed at 6.30.—Expense of service, 23l. 2s.

Nov. 7.—CLOVELLY, NORTH DEVON.—Elinor Roget Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 3 A.M., while a moderate to strong gale was blowing from N.W., accompanied by a heavy sea, and saved the crew of four men from the ketch H. F. Bolt, of Appledore, coal laden, which had signalled for assistance while lying at anchor off Clovelly Quay.—Expense of service, 27l. 9s.

Nov. 7.—NEWQUAY, CARDIGANSHIRE.—Frank and Marion Life-boat.—While a whole gale was blowing from the N., the dandy Ann and Elizabeth, of Cardigan, homeward bound, in ballast, was seen drifting towards the beach. Efforts were made to save the crew by means of the rocket apparatus, but they were unsuccessful, and, the vessel then drifting away from the shore, the Life-boat was launched at 5 A.M. and saved the crew, consisting of two men and a boy. The vessel afterwards stranded and became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 27l. 7s. 6d.

Nov. 7th.—CARDIGAN.—Lizzie and Charles Leigh Clare Life-boat.—Having received information that a vessel was in distress in Cardigan Bay, while a strong N.W. gale was blowing, the Coxswain of the Life-boat summoned the crew, and at about 5 A.M. the Boat was launched. The vessel, which was the schooner Mouse, of Cardigan, bound from Chester River for Fishguard, had stranded on the Popit Sands and her crew had taken refuge in the rigging. Repeated attempts were made to reach her but the tremendous seas washing over her rendered all the efforts futile. After a hard struggle, however, the Boat succeeded in approaching within fifteen yards of the ship, a heaving cane was thrown to the men in the rigging, and by means of lines, a block and life-buoy, the crew numbering three men were hauled through the surf and were taken safely into the Life-boat.

The Officer of H.M. Coastguard at St. Dogmael's, who was an eye-witness of the service, highly commended the conduct of the Coxswain and crew of the Life-boat on this occasion.—Expense of service, 41l. 16s. 3d.

Nov. 7.—ST. IVES, CORNWALL.—Exeter Life-boat.—The ketch Star, of Scilly, homeward bound from Cardiff, with a cargo of coal, was seen running for the harbour for shelter from a strong gale which was blowing from N.N.W. In entering the mouth of the harbour, she missed stays and drifted towards the Pednolva rocks, whereupon the crew let go two anchors, but the heavy seas swept over the vessel, and signals of distress were shown. At 7.30 A.M. the Life-boat was launched and rescued the crew of three men from the ketch which afterwards dragged her anchors, drove on the rocks at Porthminster Point and became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 13l. 4s.

Nov. 7.—ST. MARY'S, ISLES OF SCILLY.—Henry Dundas Life-boat.—At 9 A.M. the Coastguard at St. Martin's telephoned that a partially dismasted vessel was near Seven Stones. A moderate gale was then blowing from N.W., the sea was heavy and the weather squally. The Honorary Secretary of the Branch got into telephonic communication with a pilot at St. Martin's, who considered the vessel was not in immediate danger as she had set a fore and aft sail which he thought would enable her to clear the Seven Stones; she had no signals flying. He was however requested to keep a good watch on her, and at 11.45 he reported that the vessel was about three or four miles off St. Martin's, unmanageable and showing signals of distress. The Life-boat was launched, and on reaching the vessel found she was the barque Dove, of Porsgrund, bound from Cardiff for Rio de Janeiro with a cargo of coal. She had lost her bowsprit, foremast and main-top-gallant-mast. At the master's request, the Life-boat attempted to put some men on board to take the vessel into port, but the sea was so rough and the barque was labouring so heavily that the attempts failed and were abandoned after breaking four of the oars and incurring a risk of swamping the Boat. The Coxswain then advised the captain to get more sail on the vessel and follow the Boat into smooth water, which was done for three-quarters of an hour, when the mail steamer from Penzance arrived and took the barque in tow, the Life-boat still remaining by. At about 6 P.M., when in St. Mary's Sound, the tow rope parted, and at the captain's request another effort was made by the Life-boatmen to board the vessel, her crew of thirteen men being greatly exhausted. This time the attempt was successful and the barque was taken to a safe anchorage in St. Mary's Roadstead.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 8th Nov., 1900.

Voted 90L 17s. 6d. to pay the expenses of launches or assemblies of crews of the following Life-boats, with the view of assisting those on board vessels in distress:—Ballantrae, Hastings, Hauxley, Huna, Palling No. 2, Sunderland (South Outlet) and Whithorn.

Awarded pension and a certificate of service to Mr. R. K. GILPIN, on his resignation of the office of Coxswain of the Teignmouth Life-boat.

Pecuniary grants were awarded to the widow of the late Coxswain of the Eastbourne Life-boat and to ex-members of the Sidmouth and Harwich Life-boat crews.

Also 6l. (weekly allowances) to a man injured at Douglas.

Nov. 8.—ARDROSSAN.—James Stevens No. 8 Life-boat.—The steamer Emily, of Chester, with fifty tons of dynamite on board, struck on the Crinan rock, off Ardrossan Harbour, broke her propeller and drifted towards the Long Craigs, a ridge of rocks on the north shore of Ardrossan, dragging her two anchors. Early in the morning the crew, excepting the master and two others, came ashore in their own boat, but the S.W. gale increased and they were unable to return to the vessel. At 9 A.M. the Life-boat was launched, and when she reached the steamer the master requested that the boat would return and fetch the engineer and fireman in order that the pumps might be set going. This was done, and the harbour tug made an attempt to assist, the Life-boat endeavouring to get communication between the vessels by means of lines, but the tug's propellers were damaged and the attempt had to be abandoned, and eventually it became necessary to leave the Emily, the five men on board being taken into the Life-boat and safely landed about 12.20 P.M. The Life-boat, which behaved admirably, was skilfully handled both under oars and sails, her crew, on their return, being warmly greeted by a concourse of people who had witnessed their service from the pier.—Expense of service, 25l. 2s. 6d.

Nov. 8.—WHITBY.—John Fielden Life-boat.—The fishing coble Victoria, which had left the harbour about 10 A.M., was overtaken by a gale which suddenly sprung up from W.S.W., and at noon was seen to be in distress and rapidly drifting out to sea. The Life-boat was launched, proceeded to the coble's assistance and towed her into the harbour, arriving at 4.30 P.M. She had a crew of two men.—Expense of service, 16l. 16s.

Nov. 11.—WICK, CAITHNESS-SHIRE.—John Aivins Life-boat.—A salvage party working at the steam trawler Champion, stranded on the Little Pentland Skerry, showed signals of distress while a moderate gale was blowing from W.S.W. accompanied by a very heavy sea. The Life-boat put off to their assistance at 2 A.M. and rescued five of the men, four others preferring to remain on the rock or island.—Expense of service, 37l. 4s.

Nov. 12.—WITHERNSEA.—Admiral Rous Life-boat.—At 1.30 A.M. the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the assistance of the s.s. Angelo, of Hull, which had stranded about half a mile S. of Holmpton, in foggy weather. The sea at the time was moderately smooth and a merely light wind was blowing from S.E., but, as the steamer had fifty-nine passengers on board in addition to her crew of twenty-eight persons, the master considered it prudent to have assistance at hand and therefore sent a message asking that the Life-boat might be launched and stand by the ship. She remained by her until 9.20 A.M.—Expense of service, 48l. 4s. 9d.

The following highly gratifying letter was afterwards received by the coxswain of the Life-boat from the owners of the steamer:—

Hull,
14th Nov., 1900.

Mr. Peter Parkinson,
Coxswain of the Life-boat,
WitherNSEA.

Dear Sir,—We desire to thank yourself and crew of the Life-boat for the ready and willing assistance given to the Angelo. To show our appreciation of your help and services we beg to enclose a cheque for 20l. for yourself, crew, and beach men, which kindly accept.

Yours truly,
For THOS. WILSON, SONS & Co., Ltd.
(Signed) A. WILSON.

Nov. 12.—NEWQUAY, CARDIGANSHIRE.—Frank and Marion Life-boat.—At 7 A.M. the Life-boat was launched and rescued the crew of three men from a small open boat, the Ranger, which, while fishing about three miles from the land, had been overtaken by a whole gale from S. and had lost her mast and sail. The fishing boat was afterwards picked up and taken into port by a steamer.—Expense of service, 13l. 14s. 6d.

Nov. 12.—WALMER.—Civil Service No. 4 Life-boat.—The Coastguard having reported that there was a vessel burning signals of distress about a quarter of a mile from the Life-boat station, the Life-boat put off to her assistance and found she was the barque Superbo, of Fiume, timber laden, from the Baltic for Marseilles, and having a crew of eleven men. On nearing the stranded vessel the Life-boat anchored and veered down to her. A gale of wind was blowing from S.S.W., the sea was heavy and the barque was striking so heavily that it was feared every minute that she would lose her masts. The Life-boat men let go the port and starboard anchors and as the tide rose the vessel floated and was towed by a steam-tug to Gravesend, some of the Life-boatmen remaining on board to help at the pumps as the barque was in a leaky condition.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 13.—MARGATE AND KINGSDOWNE.—Civil Service No. 1 and Charles Hargrave Life-boats.—At 4.45 P.M. a message by telephone was received at Margate from the Kentish Knock Light-vessel stating that a steamer was either ashore on the sands or at anchor but had made no signals. The crew of the Life-boat Civil Service No. 1 were summoned and remained in attendance ready to put off should their services be needed. At 9 P.M. a message was sent to the lightship and the reply was to the effect that the vessel had burnt a blue light and was continually blowing her whistle. In ten minutes the Life-boat was launched and at midnight arrived alongside the stranded vessel, the s.s. Sardonyx, of London, bound from Alexandria for Hull. The master at once engaged the Life-boatmen to assist in jettisoning the cargo, so as to lighten the vessel, and to lay out a kedje anchor and wire hawser. The Margate surf-boat afterwards arriving on the scene her crew were also employed and work was continued until 9 A.M. on the 15th, when the sea increased to such an extent that it became necessary to batten down the vessel. At 1 P.M., it being absolutely impossible to remain by her, her crew of 26 men were taken into the Life-boat, which then proceeded to the tug Cambria and was towed to Margate, arriving at about 6 P.M. The men brought ashore with them two cats and a lizard. At night the weather moderated, and the captain requested that the Life-boatmen would return to the vessel, as the crew would be going back to her in one of the tugs. At 6.30 A.M. the Life-boat and surf-boat put off, and on reaching the steamer found she was water-tight, and they resumed throwing cargo overboard. The surf-boat from Walton-on-the-Naze arrived and her crew were engaged to assist in the operations. Five steam-tugs endeavoured to tow the vessel off the sands, but their combined efforts failed to move her. During the following night the wind gradually increased, and at 9 o'clock on the morning of the 17th the towing operations were discontinued. More of the cargo was jettisoned but the wind freshened to a whole gale and at noon it became necessary to again abandon the ship. The Margate surf-boat took off eight men and the Institution's Life-boat rescued the remaining twenty-two persons who were on board the steamer, including six of the crew of the Walton private Life-boat, which was then about two miles to leeward and had no prospect apparently of being able to regain the vessel. On getting clear of the ship, the Life-boat, which was between eighteen and twenty miles from land, with thirty-seven men on board, including her own crew, had to face a full gale of wind and a very heavy sea, but fortunately returned in safety to Margate, where she arrived at about 6 P.M.

The Sardonyx afterwards floated off the sand, was picked up by the steamer Hubert, and on the morning of the 18th November a telephone message was received at Kingsdowne stating that the two steamers were seen in the direction of the Goodwin Sands. They had also been watched from Kingsdowne, and at 11.30 the Life-boat Charles Hargrave was launched and proceeded to their assistance, as one of them had three signal flags flying. The Hubert had the Sardonyx in tow and five of her crew were on board the latter vessel. Five of the Life-boatmen also boarded her, and the Life-boat was towed astern. Shortly afterwards one of the Hubert's boats, which was alongside, began to fill with water, and the Life-boat thereupon went to her and took off the man who was on board. The Life-boat remained by the Sardonyx, ready to take off the men if necessary, as she was in a sinking condition, and was towed with her into Dover Bay, where she was safely anchored. The Hubert's men went back to their vessel, leaving the Life-boatmen to look after the Sardonyx; but after some time they returned, the mate, by order of the master, requesting the Life-boatmen to remain by them. They accordingly stayed until the following evening, when the Sardonyx's own crew boarded her, and no further help being required the Life-boat returned to the shore, reaching the harbour at about half-past nine. The Sardonyx was taken to Tilbury, where she was repaired, and she afterwards proceeded to Hull.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 15.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Robert and Susan Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched about 8 A.M., and remained in attendance on several of the fishing cobles which were in danger, having been overtaken by a moderate gale from S. by E. and a rough sea.—Expense of service, 14l. 14s. 9d.

Nov. 15.—FILEY, YORKSHIRE.—Hollon the Second Life-boat.—At 3 A.M. seven fishing cobles proceeded to sea, and at 7 A.M. thirty-one others went out, but the latter returned soon afterwards, as the wind had increased to a moderate gale. At about 9 o'clock the wind backed to S.S.E., increasing to a strong gale and causing a very rough sea. It was decided to take out the Life-boat and proceed to the seven boats which were still out. Six of them, with great difficulty, reached home, the Life-boat standing by them until they were in safety, and the other boat was assisted by a large Scotch fishing boat which took her to Scarborough.—Expense of service, 16l. 7s. 6d.

Nov. 15.—SCARBOROUGH.—Queensbury Life-boat.—At 9.45 A.M. it was reported that a large steamer was in the offing, disabled and in a sinking condition. The Life-boat Queensbury and two steam-tugs promptly proceeded to the rescue, the Life-boat being towed by the harbour-tug Alexandra. The vessel proved to be the Lord Warsick, of North Shields, coal laden, bound from Sunderland for Marseilles. The Life-boat stood by the steamer which was heavily water-logged, and eventually five of the crew and sixteen of the men who had boarded her to render assistance jumped into the boat, fearing the steamer was about to founder. A steam-tug then came alongside, but crushed the Life-boat against the steamer and considerably damaged the boat, and the twenty-one men thereupon boarded the steamer again. Afterwards four men got into the Life-boat and remained until the steamer was towed by three tugs into the inner roadstead where she grounded, and they then returned on board her.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 15*s.*

Nov. 17.—CLACTON-ON-SEA.—Albert Edward Life-boat.—The Coastguard having reported that a vessel was aground, the Life-boat was launched at 11 A.M., in a heavy sea, the wind blowing a strong gale from N.N.E., and found the barque Norman, of Laurvig, bound from Söderhamn for London with fire-wood, had stranded on the Hook Sand while in tow of a steam-tug. Her crew were jettisoning the deck cargo so as to lighten the vessel and enable her to float at high water. At the request of the master, the Life-boat remained by the vessel which bumped heavily as the water rose, but eventually floated. The Life-boatmen assisted to set her head sails and took her near the Maplin Lighthouse, when the steam-tug again took her in tow and resumed the journey to London.—Expense of service, 38*l.* 15*s.*

Nov. 18.—BROADSTAIRS.—Francis Forbes Barton Life-boat.—In response to signals, the Life-boat was launched at 6.40 A.M., while a whole gale was blowing from N.N.E., accompanied by a very heavy sea, and on nearing the Goodwin Sands a screw steamer was seen at anchor in a very dangerous position, about half a mile to windward of broken water. She had a signal of distress flying, and was rolling and pitching so heavily that considerable difficulty was experienced in boarding her; in fact she rolled down on the boat and caused considerable damage to her air-cases, but ultimately the Life-boatmen got on board and found she was the Sir Robert Peel, of London, homeward bound from Dunkirk, with a general cargo and manned by a crew of thirteen persons. The Ramsgate Harbour steam-tug and Life-boat afterwards arrived, and the tug's tow-rope having been attached with the help of the Broadstairs men in the Life-boat and on board the Sir Robert Peel, the latter was taken into Ramsgate Harbour, where she was safely berthed.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 18.—MARGATE.—Eliza Harriet Life-boat.—While a whole gale was blowing from N.E., accompanied by a very heavy sea, a steamer was seen apparently flying some flags, but as she was about seven or eight miles distant from the shore and the weather was hazy her signals could not be clearly deciphered. It was therefore decided to launch the Life-boat and proceed to her. At 2 P.M. the boat put off and found the vessel was the Duisburg, of Bremen; she was lying close to the edge of the North Spit, Margate Sands, on which she had been stranded, and had lost her propeller and rudder. A large steamer was near her and had passed a wire rope to her, but it had parted, and seeing the Life-boat coming up no further attempt was made to get hold of her, and the other vessel steamed away. At the request of the master, the Life-boat, having put two men on board, slacked astern and rode by the vessel during the night. About 7 A.M. two tugs arrived; with some difficulty their towing hawsers were attached, one ahead and the other astern, and the Duisburg was taken out of danger, the Life-boat, as desired, remaining by until they got into smooth water, which was entered after passing the Knob Channel. The boat then made for her station, arriving at 12.30 P.M.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 21.—GOURDON, KINCARDINE-SHIRE.—Theophilus S'dney E-halaz Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 7.30 A.M. and went out six times during the day to the assistance of several fishing-boats, the condition of the sea in the harbour rendering it dangerous for the boats to enter. The Life-boat was engaged until about 2 o'clock on the following morning.—Expense of services, 34*l.* 7*s.*

Nov. 21.—JOHNHAVEN, KINCARDINESHIRE.—Sarah Ann Holden Life-boat.—As the result of a gale at sea, a heavy swell was running and the fishing-boats which had gone out were compelled to return. The Gourdon boats having been warned off their port made for Johnshaven, arriving there about 9 A.M., but three of them and a Johnshaven boat were still out when darkness set in. At 6 P.M. the Life-boat was launched, and having brought in the Johnshaven boat at 10.30, waited for the others and brought them in at 1.30 on the following morning.—Expense of service, 22*l.* 13*s.*

Nov. 24.—CAISTER, NORFOLK.—Beauchamp Life-boat.—Rockets were fired by the Cross Sand and Cockle Light vessels and, in response, the Life-boat was launched at 2.50 A.M., and on reaching the edge of the Cross Sand fell in with a steam-tug and ascertained that she had on board the crew of a vessel which had been in collision with the lightship. The Life-boat went in search of the abandoned vessel, found her about three miles off and took her into Yarmouth harbour. She was the schooner St. Austell, of Fowey, bound from Bath for Goole with a cargo of clay.—Property salvage case. Balance of expenses, 15*l.* 5*s.*

Nov. 24.—POLPEAR AND CADGWITH, LIZARD.—Edmund and Fanny and Minnie Moon Life-boats.—The barque Glimt, of Stavanger, laden with wheat and bound from Rosario to Falmouth for orders, missed stays and ran aground near the Enoch rock, in a moderate breeze from S.E. and a very heavy ground sea. The Polpear Life boat was launched at 4 A.M. and rescued four men who were lashed to the rail of the vessel of which little else remained. The Cadgwith Life-boat then arrived and the attention of her crew being called to a man who was floating amongst a mass of wreckage, they proceeded in the direction, and by means of a rope succeeded in saving him; he proved to be the master of the barque. Learning that six of the crew had left the vessel in their own boat, the Cadgwith Life-boat went out again to search for them, but they had succeeded in effecting a landing at Coverack.—Expenses of services, 101*l.* 2*s.*

Nov. 24.—PORT PATRICK, WIGTOWNSHIRE.—Civil Service No. 3 Life-boat.—The fishing boat Irex was unable to return to port while a moderate S.S.E. gale was blowing, and at 4.50 P.M. the Life-boat was launched, proceeded to her assistance, took her in tow and brought her safely home. Her crew of three men were thoroughly exhausted from long-continued pulling, cold, and want of food.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 4*s.* 6*d.*

The following letter was afterwards received from the master and owner of the Irex :—

North Crescent,
Port Patrick,
26th Nov. 1900.

The Secretary,
ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT
INSTITUTION,

Dear Sir,

I desire to express my appreciation of the services rendered by the Civil Service No. 3, on Saturday evening. Having been at sea an unusual time without food, and being on the oars for six or seven hours, pulling hard against wind and tide, we were fairly worn out when the Life-boat reached us. We looked for the Life-boat earlier, but at Port Patrick it was natural to assume that we had made for Dally Bay, a shelter to leeward. When enquiry at that place elicited the reply that our boat had not been seen, the Life-boat must have got out with commendable promptitude, and we were heartily glad to see her approaching. I have informed the Honorary Secretary here of my desire to thank the Institution direct. I am not a member of the Life-boat crew, therefore I can more readily appreciate the services at any time rendered to the frail fishing boats of this station, the crews of which have to follow a perilous calling at considerable risk. Again thanking you,

Yours respectfully,
(Signed) JOHN McJURY.

Nov. 26.—CAISTER, NORFOLK.—Beauchamp Life-boat.—Rockets and guns being fired by the Cockle Light-vessel the Life-boat was launched at 7.10 A.M. and was towed by the steam-tug United Service to the Cockle Sand, where the brigantine Northern Star, of South Shields, was found anchored on the inside edge of the Sand, in three fathoms of water. The vessel, which was bound from South Shields for Great Yarmouth, with coal, was taken safely into Yarmouth Harbour. A moderate wind was blowing from N.W. to W., there was a heavy swell and the weather was thick at the time the service was rendered.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 28. — GORLESTON. — Leicester Life-boat.—At 5.40 A.M. the Life-boat was launched, and rescued the crew of ten men from the dandy Workman, of Great Yarmouth, which, while returning from fishing, had stranded on the North Sand. A strong breeze was blowing from S.E. by E., the sea was heavy and the weather thick. Subsequently the Life-boat made another journey to the vessel and succeeded in saving her.—Expense of first service, 18l. 14s. 6d.; second service, property salvage case.

Nov. 28.—BLYTH, NORTHUMBERLAND. — Dalmar Life-boat.—The s.s. Fram, of Bergen, bound from Kallundborg for Blyth, in ballast, stranded on the Seaton Sea rocks, off Blyth Harbour, on the morning of the 26th November. All efforts to get her off were unsuccessful, and on the morning of the 28th a strong E.S.E. breeze sprung up and the sea became so rough that the vessel was in danger of breaking up. The master and four of the crew were ashore and unable to return, and as those who were on board were in considerable danger the captain requested that the Life-boat might be sent to their assistance. At 10.30 the Boat was launched, was taken in tow by a tug, and rescued the sixteen men.—Expense of service, 12l. 3s.

Nov. 29.—MARGATE.—Eliza Harriet Life-boat.—While a strong gale was blowing from S.E., accompanied by a heavy sea, the Coastguard reported a vessel stranded on the Longnose Rock. The Life-boat was launched at 7.5 A.M., and on reaching the vessel found she was the three-masted schooner Anna, of Riga, bound thence for Poole, and carrying a crew of seven men. At the master's request, the Life-boat stood by the vessel until high water; but she did not float then, and the Life-boatmen were requested to assist in jettisoning cargo so as to lighten her. This was continued, and after three tides she was, with the aid of the Ramsgate steam-tug, got off the sand, but she was leaking badly. She was towed into Ramsgate Harbour by the tug, the Life-boat accompanying so as to steer her, she having lost her rudder. The boat returned to her station at 9.20 on the morning of the 1st December.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 30.—BERWICK-ON-TWEED.—John and Janet Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 1.30 P.M., and stood by three fishing-boats belonging to Spittal, which were in danger of being swamped while crossing the bar, on which a heavy sea was breaking.—Expense of service, the Life-boatmen accepting a reduced rate of payment in consideration of the service being rendered to fishermen, 6l. 2s. 6d.

Dec. 1.—FLAMBOROUGH.—Mary Frederick Life-boat.—While fifteen of the cobbles were out fishing, the wind, which was blowing from E.S.E., increased to a moderate gale, and a rough sea sprung up, causing considerable anxiety for the safety of the boats and their crews. The Life-boat proceeded to their assistance at 10.30 A.M., and rendered valuable service to the cobbles, all of which safely reached the land.—Expense of service, 14l. 8s. 9d.

Dec. 10.—CAMPBELTOWN, ARGYLL-SHIRE.—A small skiff which had gone out line fishing at 9 A.M. had not returned, a strong gale was blowing from W.S.W., with fierce squalls and a heavy sea, and great anxiety was felt for the three fishermen. At 7.45 P.M. the Life-boat was launched, called at the lighthouse pier on Davaar Island and ascertained from the light-keepers that the men had landed on the island and that one of them, an old man, was in an exhausted condition. They were taken into the Life-boat, which at once returned to her station, arriving about 9.10 P.M. During the whole time the Boat was out the wind blew with great fury, the squalls at times being of almost hurricane force.—Expense of service, 24l. 6s. 6d.

Dec. 11.—MONTROSE.—Reserve Life-boat.—The s.s. Staperayder, of London, which had left Montrose for Leith on the previous afternoon, stranded on the Annat Bank, while a strong W.S.W. gale was blowing accompanied by a rough sea. She showed flares, and shortly afterwards a signal rocket was fired from Scurdyness. At 5 A.M. the Life-boat put off, and on reaching the vessel found she had driven over the bank and had stranded on the sands about half a mile N. of the river. Having sprung a leak in the engine-room, her fires were extinguished, and she was practically disabled. She, however, attempted to make the harbour under sail, but the wind drove her on the sands. With considerable difficulty her crew of seven men were taken into the Life-boat, which was then towed back to Montrose by a steam-tug.—Expense of service, 26*l.* 2*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 13th Dec., 1900.

Voted 778*l.* 11*s.* 3*d.* to pay for watching, assemblies of crews or launches of Life-boats at the following stations with the view of assisting the crews of distressed vessels:—Aldeburgh, Bridlington, Dunbar, Flamborough No. 1, Formby, Gorleston No. 1, Grimsby (steam Life-boat), Hartlepool No. 1, Harwich (steam Life-boat), Hayle, Hayling Island, Holyhead (steam Life-boat), Hoylake, Huna, Kirkcudbright, Lowestoft No. 2, Margate No. 2, New Brighton No. 1, New Brighton (steam Life-boat), Padstow, Palling No. 2, Penzance, Porthdinllaen, Rhoscolyn, St. Helier's Jersey, St. Ives, Stonehaven, Walton-on-the-Naze, West Hartlepool and Weymouth.

The Rainsgate Life-boat was taken out, but her services were not ultimately needed.

Granted 1*l.* to a man injured at the exercise of the Pwllheli Life-boat.

Also a pecuniary grant to the signalman at the Nairn Life-boat station, on his retirement.

Dec. 17.—RAMSEY, ISLE OF MAN.—Mary Isabella Life-boat.—At 4.10 A.M. the Life-boat was launched in response to signals from the schooner Rheidol Vale, of Aberystwyth, bound from Belfast for Portmadoc, with a cargo of deals, which had lost one anchor and was driving towards the Bahama Bank, while a strong gale was blowing from S.S.W. accompanied by a rough sea. Her crew of three men were rescued by the Life-boat and safely landed at 5.50.—Expense of service, 32*l.* 2*s.*

Dec. 18.—CLACTON-ON-SEA.—Albert Edward Life-boat.—A message by telephone being received from the Gunfleet Lighthouse stating that a vessel was signalling for help, the Life-boat was launched at 1.40 A.M., and rescued the crew of six men from the brigantine Nina, of Tynemouth, bound from Middlesbrough for London, laden with salt, which had stranded on the Gunfleet Sand and became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 29*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 20.—SOUTHEND-ON-SEA, ESSEX.—James Stevens No. 9 Life-boat.—While a whole gale was blowing from S.W., accompanied by a heavy sea and rain squalls, the Life-boat was launched at 10 P.M., a message having been received from Shoeburyness stating that a vessel was in distress. The barque Delta, of Fredrikstad, homeward bound from London, in ballast, was found lying at anchor close to the West Burrow buoy. She had knocked over the sand and, having about seven feet of water in her hold, was firing rockets and burning flares for assistance. With the assistance of a steam-tug the Life-boatmen took the vessel, which had a crew of ten men, to Gravesend, arriving there at about 6 o'clock on the following evening.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 20-21.—HOLYHEAD.—Duke of Northumberland steam Life-boat.—In response to signals of distress in the direction of the Skerries and rockets fired from the end of the breakwater, the Life-boat left her moorings at 5.30 P.M. A whole gale was then blowing from S.W., there was a very heavy sea and the weather was very cold and dark. A large screw steamer, the Cufic, of Liverpool, was found anchored close to the Skerries rocks. It appeared that her engines having broken down, she was being towed up channel by two tugs when both hawsers parted, and she was so perilously near the rocks that she was compelled to anchor. The forty-one persons on board were taken into the Life-boat and brought safely ashore, and the vessel, which fortunately held to her anchors, was afterwards taken into safety. In reporting this service the Institution's honorary secretary at Holyhead stated "Since the steam Life-boat has been here she has never been out in such a sea as was running off the Skerries. The Coxswain tells me she is a perfect sea boat and he is quite satisfied she is perfectly safe and trustworthy in any sea. The boat could not have had a more trying test, because it is well known that in consequence of the strong irregular tide, the sea off the Skerries, in bad weather, is exceptionally dangerous."

The Hon. Sec. afterwards received a letter from Captain Murray, one of the managers of the White Star Line to which the Cufic belongs, which is interesting as it states the behaviour of the boat in a very heavy sea. The following is a copy of his communication:—

12, St. Catherine's Road,
Bootle,
23rd Dec., 1900.

Dear Captain Kendall,

I am very thankful to inform you that we got the Cufic safely to Liverpool and in dock about 2.30 this morning, and all the crew safe and well. For the latter we owe you a deep debt of gratitude for the splendid manner in which your Life-boat, after four hours' attempt, succeeded at slack tide in getting alongside and safely landing us on Thursday, in a strong gale with a very heavy sea. It was a fine sight watching her manoeuvre from our deck in the heavy sea, appearing more like a fish than a boat. As the seas broke over her she glided along about level with the water. For your kind permission to use her please accept of my best thanks, but as the weather was moderate yesterday morning we had little difficulty in boarding the ship in our boats.—With many thanks,

Yours very truly,
(Signed) P. D. MURRAY.

After rendering this service the Life-boat returned to her moorings at midnight, and her crew having ascertained that the Joseph Whitworth Life-boat had also been out with the view of assisting a vessel in distress, but had been unable to do so, decided to go out again after a supply of coal had been taken in. It appeared that the Joseph Whitworth dragged her anchor, and after having a narrow escape of being dashed upon the rocks had been obliged to slip her cable in order to save the boat and the crew, and returned to the harbour to obtain a fresh anchor and cable. The steam Life-boat went out at 12.15 and found the vessel in need of assistance was the schooner Julia, of Gloucester, coal laden, bound from Runcorn for Plymouth. She had dragged her anchors and was dangerously close to the Clipera rocks. Her crew consisted of four men and they were taken into the Life-boat, which regained her station at 3 A.M.

In recognition of the good services rendered by those who manned the steam Life-boat on these occasions an extra reward was granted to each of the men.—Expense of services, 31l. 5s.

Dec. 20.—HOLYHEAD.—Joseph Whitworth Life-boat.—At midnight, while a whole gale was blowing from S.W. accompanied by a very heavy sea, the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the help of a vessel which was showing flares in the New Harbour. She was found to be the s.s. Delorane, of Glasgow, in ballast, which had put into Holyhead for orders. She had dragged her anchors and had fouled the hawser of a schooner, and the captain requested the services of the Life-boatmen to arrange for a tug to be sent out to take the vessel into the Old Harbour.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 21.—ST. ANNE'S, LANCASHIRE.—Brothers Life-boat.—A sudden and severe gale sprung up from W.N.W. on the night of December 20, and on the following morning signals of distress were seen in the vicinity of the Salthouse Bank. The Life-boat was launched about 7 o'clock, and proceeded through a tempestuous sea to the vessel by which the signals had been shown. She was the hopper No. 6, belonging to the Corporation of Preston, and was stranded in a very dangerous position on the Bank. Her crew of seven men and six navvies were greatly exhausted, but with the help of two of the Life-boatmen, who went on board, the barge, which floated when the water rose, was taken safely to Preston. After leaving this vessel, the Life-boat went to the assistance of a large vessel which was helplessly drifting about three miles away. She was found to be derelict, and as the Life-boat had been considerably damaged while alongside her, it was thought advisable to leave the ship and make for St. Anne's.—Expense of service, 26*l*.

Dec. 21.—WHITEHAVEN.—Elizabeth Leicester Life-boat.—The ship Bardowie, of Glasgow, in ballast, from Liverpool for Cardiff, parted from her tug on December 20, drifted into the Solway Firth, and at midnight anchored off Whitehaven, in a whole gale from W.N.W., with terrific squalls and a very heavy sea. As she was riding heavily and would be in considerable danger if her anchors dragged, she showed signals of distress, and at 8.30 A.M. the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to her assistance, in tow of a steam-tug. The wind and sea, however, were too wild for the tug, and they were forced to put back. The Boat was then taken in tow by the steam trawler Ebenezer, and after twice parting the tow-line the vessel was reached, and six of her crew, who were in an exhausted condition, were taken off, the remainder deciding to stay on board.—Expense of service, 33*l*. 16*s*. 6*d*.

Dec. 21.—NEW BRIGHTON.—Steam Life-boat Queen.—The Life-boat left her moorings at 9.25 A.M., while a whole gale was blowing from N.W., accompanied by a very heavy sea, and proceeded to the s.s. Angola, of Glasgow, which was found anchored on the flats inside Taylor's Bank and flying a signal for assistance. At the request of the master, the Life-boat stood by until the weather moderated and the steamer was able to get out into the Channel.—Expense of service, 6*l*. 16*s*.

Dec. 21.—GREENCASTLE.—Mary Beckwith Life-boat.—The Coxswain of the Life-boat seeing a signal of distress about four miles S.S.W. of the Life-boat house, summoned the crew. The boat was launched and proceeded to the vessel which was signalling and proved to be the schooner Mary Jones, of Chester. She had parted one of her chains, and stranded on the sand-banks at the S. end of Lough Foyle, and at the request of the master the Life-boat stood by until daylight, and the master was then landed by the boat.—Expense of service, 30*l*. 6*s*.

Dec. 21.—LYTHAM.—Charles Biggs Life-boat.—At daylight a four-masted ship was observed on the Horse Bank. The Life-boat was launched as soon as possible, but was unable to proceed in the face of the heavy sea and gale from the W. without the aid of a steam-tug. Shortly after 9 o'clock the tug Energy, belonging to the Preston Corporation, took the boat in tow, and on reaching the ship it was found that her crew had abandoned her. It was subsequently ascertained that they had been taken off by a steam-tug on the previous afternoon. The vessel had lost a portion of her sails and one of her topmasts had been carried away. The Life-boat returned to her station and in the course of the afternoon again went off to the ship, the Chiltonford, of Glasgow, bound from Liverpool for Australia with a general cargo, as there appeared to be a chance of getting her off the bank. This was safely accomplished on the afternoon of Dec. 23.—Expense of first service, 13*l*. 19*s*. Second service, property salvage case.

Dec. 24.—BERWICK-ON-TWEED.—John and Janet Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 11.20 A.M. and rendered assistance to three fishing-cobles, of Spittal, which were in danger of being swamped on the bar on which a heavy sea was breaking. The Life-boat was also the means of saving another coble and her crew of two men.—Expense of service, the Life-boatmen charging a reduced rate as the service was rendered to fishermen, 6*l*. 12*s*. 6*d*.

Dec. 24.—DUNGARVAN BAY, Co. WATERFORD.—James Stevens No. 16 Life-boat.—At 2.50 P.M. the Life-boat was launched and went to the assistance of the schooner Supply, of and from Barrow, bound for Dungarvan with coal, which had stranded on the bar in a fresh gale from S.W. by S. and a rough sea. The Life-boat stood by the vessel until she floated, and then showed the way up the channel.—Expense of service, 19l. 3s.

Dec. 24. — POOLE. — City Masonic Club Life-boat.—Signals of distress having been shown while a moderate breeze was blowing from S.S.W., increasing in force, accompanied by a moderate sea and hazy weather, the Life-boat put off at 9.30 P.M., and found the s.s. Matin, of and from Sunderland for Poole, with a cargo of coal. She had been aground on the Hook Sands, in Bournemouth Bay, but floated and succeeded in getting off under her own steam, and ultimately anchored in Studland Bay, the Life-boat accompanying her until she was in safety.—Expense of service, 23l. 14s.

Dec. 27. — NEWHAVEN. — Michael Henry Life-boat.—The brigantine Hans Olsen, of Stavanger, bound from Lulea for Newhaven, with timber, in running for the harbour while a moderate gale was blowing, with a rough sea, struck the bar. The Life-boat was launched at 9.45 A.M., and took from the vessel to the pier-head a rope, by means of which she was hauled into the harbour when the tide rose.—Expense of service, 11l. 18s.

Dec. 27.—FALMOUTH.—Bob Newbon Life-boat.—In response to signals fired while a W.S.W. gale was blowing, accompanied by a heavy sea, the Life-boat was launched at 7.15 P.M., and met the vessel about half-way across the Carrick Roads in tow of a steam-tug. She was the barque Queen of Cambria, of Carnarvon, bound from Tocopilla for Liverpool, with a cargo of nitre. On hailing her, a reply was received that she was sinking, having been in collision with a four-masted ship lying at anchor. The Life-boat went alongside, put some men on board who manned the pumps and afterwards rendered material assistance in patching a hole in her side with canvas, &c., and with the aid of another tug the vessel was taken to a sand bank where she was grounded.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 27.—ST. IVES.—James Stevens No. 10 Life-boat.—While the fishing fleet were at work in the bay in the evening, the wind, which had been blowing strongly from W., suddenly freshened, shifting to about W.N.W.

and increasing to a strong gale, and a heavy sea sprung up. The boats, with two exceptions, hauled their nets and managed to get back to the harbour. About 10.15 signals of distress were shown by one of these boats and the Life-boat at once proceeded to her assistance. She was the lugger Honor, had lost her sails, her rudder was damaged, she was leaking badly and was helplessly drifting towards the shore on the E. side of the bay. Her crew of five men were taken into the Life-boat, the lugger becoming a total wreck. The other boat succeeded in getting into the harbour without assistance.—Expense of service, 30l.

Dec. 28. — KESSINGLAND. — Bolton Life-boat.—Flares having been shown by a vessel, the crew of the Life-boat were summoned and at 6.30 A.M. the boat was launched. A strong breeze was blowing from S.W. to S.S.W., the sea was rough and the weather cold and misty. The vessel was the steamer Christiana, of Haugesund, laden with blocks of granite and bound from Christiansund for London. She had had a very rough passage across from Norway, was short of coal, and the master wanted a pilot to take him to Lowestoft. One of the Life-boatmen therefore boarded the steamer and rendered the required assistance.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 28.—PORTHINLLAEN.—George Moore Life-boat.—A terrific N.W. gale was experienced here, in fact it is stated to have been the heaviest remembered by any of the inhabitants of the locality, and there was a very heavy sea. At 10.15 A.M. it became necessary to launch the Life-boat and proceed to the flat Caliban, of Liverpool, which had signalled for assistance while in the bay. Having rescued the vessel's crew of two men the Life-boat endeavoured to recover her anchor which had been dropped ahead of the flat so as to enable the boat to veer down to her, but it was found impossible to raise it owing to some obstruction. The cable was therefore slipped and sail was made, but in trying to work off the lee shore she missed stays and had to be run on the beach.—Expense of service, 20l. 19s.

Dec. 28.—SWANSEA.—James Stevens

No. 12 Life-boat.—Three vessels showed signals for assistance during a gale of exceptional severity from W.N.W., accompanied by a very heavy sea and thick weather. The Life-boat was launched at 11 A.M., and proceeded first to the R. W. T., of Plymouth, and rescued her crew of two men; then went to the Lizzie, of Padstow, and having taken off her crew of three men, made for the Careless, of Ilfracombe, from which the crew of two men were rescued. The vessels were dragging their anchors.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 8*s.*

Dec. 28.—ARERSOCH.—Oldham Life-boat.—A vessel being reported flying signals of distress when lying at anchor in St. Tudwall's Roads, while a N.N.W. wind was blowing with almost hurricane force, accompanied by a very heavy cross sea, the Life-boat was launched at noon, and found the schooner Llanddulas, of Liverpool, bound from Llanbadrig for Birkenhead. As the Life-boat approached the vessel the latter parted both her cables, and those on board, consisting of the master, his wife, and the mate, were taken into the boat and safely landed. The vessel drifted before the gale and foundered.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 8*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 28.—PENARTH.—Joseph Denman Life-boat.—The Life-boat was called out, and at 12.15 P.M. proceeded to the barque Zeffiro, of Castellamare, which had been in collision with another vessel about a mile S.W. of the English and Welsh Grounds Light-vessel, while a whole gale was blowing from W., and in a very heavy sea and hazy weather. The crew of nine men and the master's wife were rescued.—Expense of service, 38*l.* 16*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 28.—BERWICK-ON-TWEED.—John and Janet Life-boat.—A heavy ground sea having suddenly sprung up, causing considerable danger to several fishing-boats which were out, the Life-boat put off at 12.30 P.M., and stood by the boats needing assistance until they were in safety. One of them had a very narrow escape of being swamped in entering the river.—Expense of service, the Life-boatmen charging a reduced rate in consequence of the service being rendered to fishermen, 6*l.*

Dec. 28.—HOLYHEAD.—Duke of Northumberland steam Life-boat.—While a whole gale was blowing from N.W., with a very heavy sea and thick weather, the Norwegian barquentine St. Joseph was seen dragging her anchors in the outer roads, and at 12.55 P.M. the Life-boat proceeded to her, but the master of the vessel stated that he did not require any assistance. The Life-boat then went to the schooner Ebenezer, of Carnarvon, in ballast from Dundalk for Portmadoc, which was also dragging her anchors. The master stated that he was about to show signals of distress, and he and the crew of four men got into the Life-boat and were safely landed at 1.45.—Expense of service, 5*l.* 10*s.*

Dec. 28.—MOELFRE, ANGLESEY.—Star of Hope Life-boat.—Signals of distress being shown by the ship Pass of Balmaha, of Glasgow, while the wind was blowing from W.N.W., varying in force from a strong to a whole gale, with a very heavy sea and thick weather, the Life-boat was launched at 2 P.M., and found the vessel had parted one of her cables. Twenty-six of her crew got into the Life-boat, which had to land about two miles E. of her station, being unable to reach Moelfre. On landing, it was ascertained that two men were missing, and another journey was made to the vessel, but there was no sign of anyone being on board. Nevertheless, a third trip was made and the two men were found on board asleep.—Expense of services, 59*l.* 14*s.*

Dec. 29-30.—PORTLEVEN, CORNWALL.—John Francis White Life-boat.—On the evening of the 29th December a vessel was seen in the bay, apparently in tow of a steamer, heading towards Portleven. Within an hour the vessel anchored about a quarter of a mile from the shore and the steamer showed flares. The Life-boat put off, in response, at 9.15, and found the vessel was the barque Polykarp, of Grimstad, bound from Barry Dock for Pernambuco with a cargo of coal. She had sailed on Christmas Eve and had encountered a severe gale which had blown her sails almost to ribbons, her pumps were choked and she had ten feet of water in her hold. The master, mate, carpenter, and one seaman were on board, the other seven members of the crew having been taken off by a passing steamer. The master and carpenter came ashore in the Life-boat, the other two men remaining on board the barque, and arrangements were made whereby on the following morning the vessel was towed by steam-tugs to Penzance, the Life boat accompanying her at the captain's request.—Expense of first service, 21l. 12s. Second service, property salvage case.

Dec. 29.—HOLYHEAD.—Joseph Whitworth Life-boat.—A message by telephone being received from the South Stack Lighthouse, the Life-boat was launched at 10.0 P.M., and found the brig Ocean Belle, of South Shields, bound from Liverpool for Gibraltar, with coal. She was about a mile and a half distant from the Breakwater Lighthouse and continued to burn flares. The master stated that he required a pilot, and one of the Life-boatmen, who is a Holyhead pilot, was therefore put on board the vessel and took her into Holyhead.—Expense of service, 23l. 5s.

Dec. 30.—GROOMSPORT.—George Pooley Life-boat.—The s.s. Rosabelle, of Bangor, homeward bound with a cargo of coal from Silloth, grounded on the South Briggs Reef, in a moderate gale of wind, a heavy sea, and thick weather. At 12.50 A.M. the Life-boat was launched and, at the request of the master, remained by the vessel, which was rolling heavily on the rocks, until she floated, and then accompanied her to Bangor Bay.—Expense of service, 25l. 4s.

Dec. 31.—RYDE, ISLE OF WIGHT.—Captain Hans Busk Life-boat.—The crew, consisting of four men, were rescued by the Life-boat from the schooner Mette, of Mandal, coal laden, which had dragged her anchors and stranded about a quarter of a mile E. of Ryde Pier, in a strong gale from N.W. to N. and a rough sea. She was leaking badly.—Expense of service, 6l. 6s.

Dec. 31.—BRIDLINGTON.—George and Jane Walker Life-boat.—A vessel having been reported in danger and flying signals of distress, the Life-boat was launched about 10.0 A.M. and proceeded to her assistance. A strong E. gale was blowing, there was a very heavy sea, and the weather was hazy. The vessel was found to be the four-masted ship Oranasia, of Liverpool, bound from the Tyne for Calcutta. She was riding about two miles off a lee shore. With the help of the Life-boatmen, another anchor was unlashd and let go and afterwards another anchor was dropped. A watch was set to see the cables did not part. The boat remained by during the night, and on the following morning steam-tugs took the vessel in tow for the Humber, nine of the Life-boatmen being left on board to assist in heaving up the anchors.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 31.—GRIMSBY.—Steam Life-boat James Stevens No. 3.—A message by telephone having been received stating that a large four-masted vessel was close to the Sand Haile Shoal, the Life-boat put out to assist her at 10.25 A.M. A strong gale was blowing from N.E., there was a very heavy sea, the weather was squally and sleet was falling. The vessel was found to be the barque Lizbeth, of Hamburg, in ballast, and was being towed from London for Newcastle when she was driven by stress of weather too close in and dropped her anchors, but they dragged and she drifted in the direction of the Sand Haile. The Life-boat stood by her and fortunately the weather moderated, her anchors held, and she was towed away by steam-tugs on the following morning.—Expense of service, 8l. 10s. 6d.

Dec. 31.—Voted 344l. 17s. 9d. to pay the expenses of assemblies, watching or launches with the view of assisting the crews of distressed vessels by the following Life-boats:—Buckhaven, Campbeltown, Cemaes, Cemlyn, Formby, Holyhead No. 1, Holyhead (steam Life-boat), Ilfracombe, Irvine, New Brighton (steam Life-boat), Plymouth, Pwllheli, Ramsey, Rhoscolyn, Shoreham, Southport No. 2, Swansea, Troon and Walton-on-the-Naze.

The sum of 3l. was also awarded to Mr. DEMPSEY, and 2l. to each of his two sons.

The men were seen in the rigging at 7.30 A.M., by Mr. Williams, who shouted to them to make for the shore, and as they reached the rocks he alone and unaided got hold of them and dragged them out of the broken water.

Feb. 16.—Police-Constable WILLIAM JAMES, of the Pembrokeshire Constabulary, assisted in saving life on the occasion of the capsizing of a boat belonging to the barque Cashier, of Antwerp, at Little Haven, Pembrokeshire. Having had ambulance training, he was also able to render valuable help in resuscitating one of the men who was nearly drowned, and who, in the absence of such assistance, would probably have expired.—Reward, 1l. 10s.

Police-Constable JAMES, who was for some years in the Mercantile Marine, generously returned as a donation the sum awarded to him, stating that his experience while at sea had enabled him to appreciate the value of the Institution.

March 8.—Voted the Silver Medal of the Institution, accompanied by a copy of the vote inscribed on vellum and framed, to Sergeant THOMAS DANIELS, 4th Battalion South Staffordshire Regiment, for gallant services in saving life. On the 24th January, while the wind was blowing from W.N.W., accompanied by a moderate sea, Sergeant DANIELS and two private soldiers went in a boat from Rocky Island to Spike Island, co. Cork, and on the return journey, at about 7 P.M., the boat was capsized. Seeing that one of the soldiers was unable to swim (he sank twice before he could be reached) Sergeant DANIELS swam to his assistance, took him to the upturned boat and, having enabled him to hold on to her, endeavoured to assist the other soldier, but unfortunately was unable to find him. Attracted by the men's shouts, a boat's crew put off from Spike Island, rescued the soldier from the boat, picked up the sergeant, who was much exhausted by his exertions, and then searched for the missing man, but without success. For their services the crew of the boat were rewarded by the local military authorities.

granted to the two men who put off in the boat referred to.

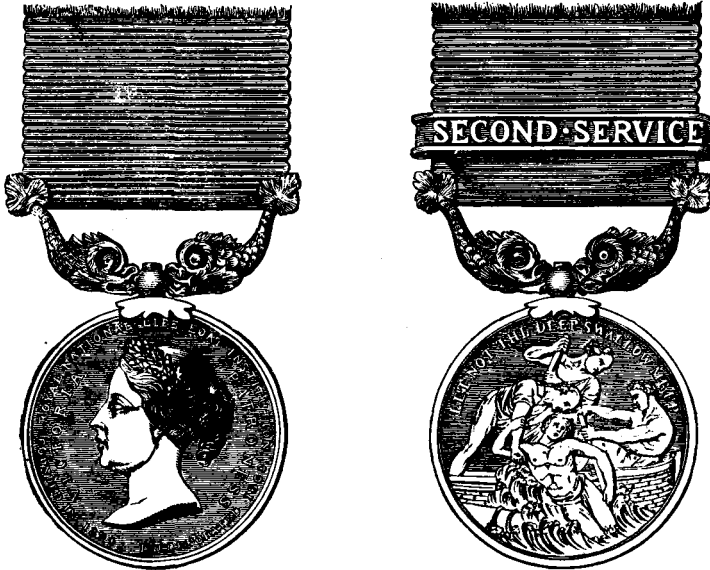

Also an aneroid barometer, bearing a suitable inscription, accompanied by a letter of thanks, to Captain D. CAMPBELL, of the s.s. Kittiwake, of Glasgow, and 1*l.* each to five of the crew of that vessel, for their services on the occasion of the wreck of the barque Topdal, of Mandal, on Robin Rigg Bank, Solway Firth, in a strong S.W. gale, a very heavy sea, and thick weather, on the 6th October. Hearing cries for help, Captain CAMPBELL altered his course and proceeded in the direction from which the shouts came; a boat was lowered, manned by the mate and four able-seamen, and rescued the barque's crew of eight men with considerable difficulty and risk, owing to the heavy swell and floating wreckage and timber. The rescued men were transferred to the Maryport Life-boat, which arrived just after they had been taken off.

Nov. 21.—The crew of the surf-boat Maggie Law, of Gourdon, Kincardineshire, co-operated with the Institution's Life-boat at that port in assisting several fishing-boats which had been overtaken by a very heavy sea.—Reward, 2*l.*

THE
 FOR THE PRESERVATION OF LIFE FROM SHIPWRECK.

Obverse.—Bust of Her Majesty Queen Victoria; beneath, in minute letters, "L. C. Wyon." Double legend, "Royal National Life-boat Institution. Founded in 1824. Incorporated 1860. Victoria, Patroness."
Reverse.—Three sailors in a life-boat,—one of whom is in the act of rescuing an exhausted mariner from the waves on a fragment of the wreck. "W. Wyon, Mint." Inscription, "Let not the deep swallow me up."

The beautiful obverse of this medal, executed by the late L. C. WYON, Esq., represents the bust of QUEEN VICTORIA, Her Majesty's locks gracefully waving and gathered in a knot behind, from which issues a wreath of oak clustering over the forehead. This life-like portrait of the QUEEN, in high relief, conveys a truly pleasing and faithful likeness of HER MAJESTY at that period (1862), combining the dignity of aspect and benevolence which always characterised the Queen throughout her long and prosperous reign.

The reverse, representing the Life-boat, in which there are three Seamen, rescuing a fourth from the sea, is a work of great merit. Two of the men are steadying the boat, while the other, stooping, draws in the Shipwrecked Sailor, whose figure is given so as to show the form in the most natural manner; and the expression thrown into his countenance looking up to his preserver is supplicating in the extreme, while the easy flowing lines of this sailor are finely contrasted by those of his companions: the whole displaying a perfect knowledge of the human frame, and a command of the graver to embody what he had shadowed out to himself.

But there is another pleasing motive for admiration of this beautiful Medal, as the figure who is so humanely extending his relief to the drowning Mariner is a portrait of the Artist, the late WILLIAM WYON, Esq., R.A.

The colour of the ribbon (which is corded silk) attached to the medal is blue.

The following is a LIST of the GOLD and SILVER MEDALS which have been voted by the Committee of the Institution from its establishment in 1824 to the 31st Dec., 1906, to persons whose humane and intrepid exertions in saving Life from Shipwreck on our Coasts, etc., have been deemed sufficiently conspicuous to merit that honourable distinction. The Cases will be found recorded in detail in the several Annual Reports of the Institution.

The total number of Medals and Clasps granted by the Institution is 1,280, 98 of which are in Gold, and 1,182 in Silver.

Note.—The asterisk (*) after the name denotes the reception of a Gold Medal or Clasp. The figure after the name signifies the number of honorary distinctions received from the Institution. Abbreviations.—C.G.—Coast Guard. R.C.—Revenue Cruiser. M.M.—Master Mariner.

THE LIFE-BELT USED BY THE CREWS OF THE LIFE-BOATS OF THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

The requisite qualities of a Life-boat man's life-belt are—

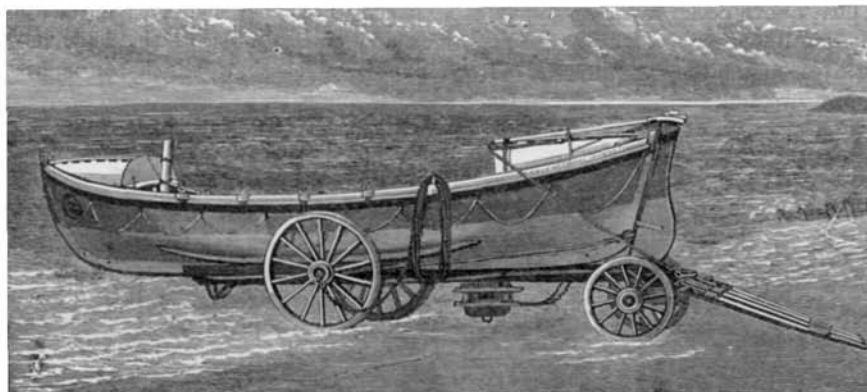

1. Sufficient extra buoyancy, 22 lbs., to support a man heavily clothed, with his head and shoulders above the water, or to enable him to support another person besides himself.

2. Perfect flexibility, so as to readily conform to the shape of the wearer.

3. A division into two zones, an upper and lower, so that between the two it may be secured tightly round the waist; for in no other manner can it be confined sufficiently close and secure round the body without such pressure over the chest and ribs as to materially affect the free action of the lungs, impede the muscular movement of the chest and arms, and thereby diminish the power of endurance of fatigue, which, in rowing-boats, is a matter of vital importance.

4. Strength, durability and non-liability to injury.

THE LIFE-BOAT STATION.

THE following brief description and diagrams illustrative of a complete Life-boat Establishment, including the House for the protection of the boat, will serve to convey an idea of the general character of one of the 286 Life-boat Stations of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

It will be seen that it is a work of a costly nature, and that not only in the first instance, but that a large permanent expense is entailed in keeping the whole machinery in an efficient state, in the re-supply of any part of it which may be destroyed or worn out, in the exercise of the boats' crews, in launching and working the boats, and in remunerating them for their services in saving their fellow-creatures. Yet, looking to the vast importance of the result effected, and the responsibility of calling on men to risk their lives in effecting the same, it is felt that few if any persons will be found who will consider that expense to be incurred in vain.

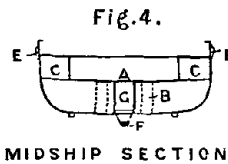

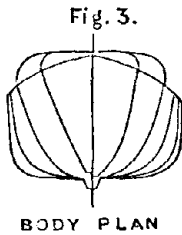

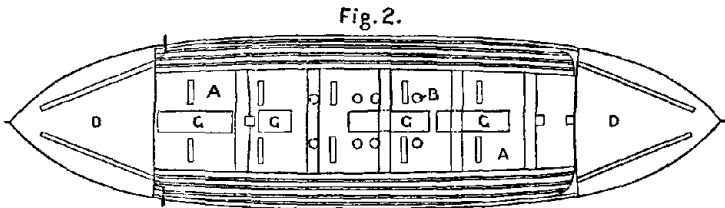

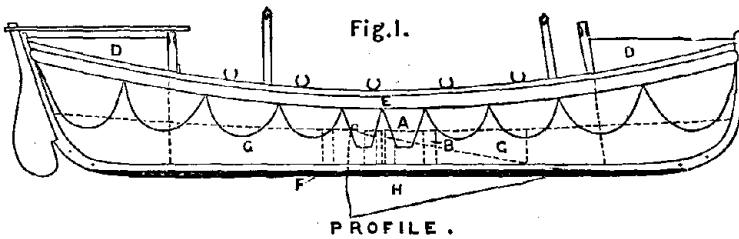

THE LIFE-BOAT.

(See Diagrams on following pages.)

The following drawings show the general outline and principal fittings of the different types of Life-boats used in the Institution's service. Figure 1 gives the profile or broadside view. Fig. 2 the "plan" or deck view. Fig. 3 the "body plan," showing the form of transverse vertical sections at regular intervals in the length; and Fig. 4 the "midship section." The festooned lines on the Fig. 1 profile views represent outside lifelines for men in the water to catch hold. The blackened portion of the keel indicates "iron keel" ballast in distinction from "water ballast" carried in "tanks" or compartments provided in the hold for the purpose, and admitting of being taken in or pumped out at pleasure; both "iron" and "water ballast" are variable and optional in the several boats according to the special circumstances of the different stations and wishes of the coxswains and crews. Water shipped on deck by seas breaking over the boat and otherwise is automatically freed through the holes in the deck and bottom of boat, connected by large pipes called "relieving tubes" having valves called "relieving valves" fitted at the deck, which pass water downwards but not upwards. Some boats, such as the "Norfolk and Suffolk" type, have also freeing scuppers in the sides of boat above deck for the same purpose. Enclosed compartments are automatically ventilated by specially designed valves and pipes. Most of the boats have "centre boards" or "drop-keels" of variable size and weight, which can be used at pleasure and materially add to their weather qualities.

THE LIFE-BOAT TRANSPORTING-CARRIAGE.

The Life-boat transporting-carriage is a very important auxiliary to the boat. Nearly every Life-boat, except a few of the larger sizes, is provided with a carriage, on which she is kept in the boat-house ready for immediate transportation to the most favourable position for launching to a wreck. A Life-boat is thus made available for a greater extent of coast than she otherwise would be. In addition to its ordinary use, a carriage is of immense service in launching a boat from a flat beach; while "Tipping's plates," with which the main wheels are sometimes clad, greatly facilitate the transport of the boat over the long stretches of soft sand which have to be traversed before deep enough water is reached to float the boat.

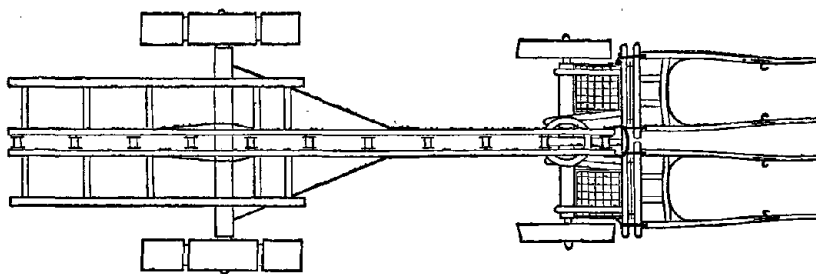

The carriage consists of a fore and main body. The latter is formed of a keelway, and of bilgeways attached to it, and resting on the main axle, the boat's weight being entirely on the rollers of the keelway. Its leading characteristics are that while for launching it forms an inclined plane, down which the boat can be launched off the rear end, it can also be used for replacing the boat, the inclined plane being reversed by removing the fore-carriage.

A very full equipment of stores is supplied to the Life-boats of the Institution—such as cork life-belts, anchors and cables, grapnels and lines, life-buoys, lanterns, rockets, and many other articles, together with portable or launching-skids.

THE LIFE-BOAT HOUSE.

The boats of the NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION, and all belonging to them, are kept in roomy and substantial boat-houses, under lock and key, in charge of paid coxswains, under the general superintendence of local honorary committees of residents in the several localities. Each boat has its appointed coxswain at a salary of 8*l.*, and an assistant at 2*l.* a year, with further allowances under special circumstances. The crew consists, in addition, of a bowman, who is paid 30*s.* a year, and as many boatmen as the boat pulls oars. A signalman is also appointed who receives a retaining fee of 1*l.* per annum, and payment as a helper each time he is on duty. The members of the volunteer crews are registered and, wherever practicable, at least double the number of men required are entered on the register. Such men are mostly resident boatmen, fishermen or Coastguardmen. On every occasion of going afloat to save life, the coxswains and each of the crew receive alike from the funds of the Institution (whether successful or not) 10*s.*, if by day, and 1*l.*, if by night; and usually 4*s.* each for every time of going afloat for exercise. These payments are increased by one half during the six months of each year beginning the 1st October, and ending the 31st March. The Institution also grants retiring allowances to Coxswains, Bowmen and Signalmen of good behaviour and long service. It should be specially noted that the Life-boat crews, excepting when remunerated by the owners of vessels for property salvage service, are paid by the Institution for their efforts, whether successful or not, in saving life.

A reward of 7*s.* is given to the man who first brings intelligence of a wreck in such a position as not to be in sight of a Coastguard man on duty or other responsible look-out man.

On boarding wrecks, the preservation of life is the sole consideration. Should any goods or merchandise be brought into the Life-boat, contrary to the coxswain's remonstrance, he is authorised to throw them overboard.

The formation of a Life-boat Station costs considerably more than 1,000*l.*, and the Annual Expense of maintaining it is about 125*l.*—in many instances much more.

Such is a brief summary of the chief of the Regulations under which the Life-boats are worked. How faithfully and with what result they are carried out let the journals of each Life-boat Station and the annals of the Institution tell.

The NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION has now 286 Life-boats under its charge. Nearly all of these have been specially presented to it, and they save every year hundreds of shipwrecked sailors. Altogether, the Institution has granted rewards for the saving of 42,707 lives, either by its Life-boats or by other means.

Despite, however, this fleet of 286 Life-boats, and of 16 others locally provided or otherwise supported, and despite the numerous rocket apparatus stations on our coast, there remains the melancholy fact that between 500 and 600 lives are lost annually on or near the coasts of the United Kingdom alone, as shown by the Board of Trade Returns, proclaiming solemnly, though silently, that, for humanity's sake, and for the national credit, no exertions should be spared in providing every possible means for the conveyance of succour to the shipwrecked.

The Institution needs an income of at least 80,000*l.* to maintain its great Life-saving Fleet; and the Committee feel assured that it will never lack it so long as it maintains its boats in the state of thorough efficiency that they are in at the present time, and manned as they are on every emergency by as fearless and noble a class of men as ever Nelson or Collingwood led to battle to uphold our country's honour and glory.

The number of Lives saved either by the Life-boats of the Society, or by special exertions for which it has granted rewards since its formation, is 42,707. The rewards and recognitions granted by the Institution in the same period comprise 98 Gold Medals and Clasps, 1,192 Silver Medals and Clasps, 305 Binocular Glasses, 15 Telescopes, 28 Aneroid Barometers, 1,672 Votes of Thanks, inscribed on vellum and framed, 127 Certificates of Service framed, and £211,348 in money.

The Committee earnestly appeal to the British Public for Funds to enable them to maintain their 286 Life-boats now on the Coast and their Crews in the most perfect state of efficiency. This can only be effected by a large and permanent annual income. The Annual Subscriptions, Donations and Dividends are quite inadequate for the purpose. The Committee are confident that in their endeavour to provide the brave Life-boatmen, who nobly hazard their lives in order that they may save others, with the best possible means for carrying on their great work, they will meet with the entire approval of the people of this the greatest maritime country in the world, and that their appeal will not be made in vain, so that the scope and efficiency of our great Life-saving Service, of which the Nation has always been so proud, may not have to be curtailed.

Annual Subscriptions and Donations are earnestly solicited, and will be thankfully received by the Secretary, CHARLES DIBDIN, Esq., at the Institution, 14 JOHN STREET, ADELPHI, London; by the Bankers of the Institution, Messrs. COURTS AND CO., 59 Strand; and by all the other Bankers in the United Kingdom.—1st May, 1901.
