OF THE

Royal National Life-boat Institution,

(ISSUED QUARTERLY.)

VOL. XIX.—No. 212.]

2ND MAY, 1904.

[PRICE 1s.

AT the ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION, held at the Royal United Service Institution, Whitehall, on Wednesday, the 16th day of March, 1904, The Right Hon. Lord BRASSEY, K.C.B., in the Chair, the following Report of the Committee of Management was submitted and adopted:—

ANNUAL REPORT.

THE important and popular work of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION has been actively carried on during the past year, and every effort has been made to maintain that high state of efficiency which is acknowledged on all hands, both at home and abroad, to characterize the British Life-boat Service. Some relief has been given to the anxiety expressed by the Committee of Management in their Reports of the last three or four years by an improvement in the financial position of the Institution, and the Committee are thereby encouraged to hope that better times may now be in store. It is still necessary, however, to appeal earnestly and urgently to all interested in those who "go down to the sea in ships," to generously assist in obtaining for the Institution more reliable and permanent support than has hitherto been secured, and without which no advance can be made.

New Premises.—The Committee of Management have been busy since the publication of their last Report in preparing their new headquarter premises, at 20 and 22, Charing Cross Road, for occupation. Although these were obtained, as reported last year, on very moderate and satisfactory terms, there remained much to be done in the way of adaptation and fitting-up, and they are glad to be able to report that, thanks to the invaluable professional advice and generous assistance given them, entirely gratuitously, by the well-known architect, Mr. J. MACVICAR ANDERSON, of 6, Stratton Street, Piccadilly, to whom their grateful thanks are due, the work was completed in December last, and the final removal from 14, John Street, Adelphi—which had been the habitation of the Institution since 1855—was effected on the 19th December and the few days following. The Committee are of opinion that the change, which was not of their own seeking, will tend to greater publicity being given to the existence and work of the Institution, and certainly to the better health of the Officers and Staff, who for many years have carried out their duties at considerable disadvantage owing to the lack of sufficient space and the inconvenience of their old quarters.

Life-boats.—During the year 1903, 15 new pulling and sailing Life-boats were sent to various stations on the coast after careful and full consultation with the coxswains and crews for whom they were built. In response to the earnest appeal made to the Institution by the Local Committee, coxswains and crew at Eastbourne, the service there has been strengthened by the addition of a second boat.

The following is a complete list of the Stations to which new Boats were sent:—

Berwick-on-Tweed . . .	Northumberland.
Caister (No. 2) . . .	Norfolk.
Eastbourne (No. 2) . . .	Sussex.
Exmouth	Devonshire.
Folkestone	Kent.
Hartlepool (No. 3) . . .	Co. Durham.
Hope Cove	Devonshire.
Littlehaven	Pembrokeshire.
Polpear (The Lizard) . . .	Cornwall.
Skerries	Co. Dublin.
Totland Bay	Isle of Wight.
Watchet	Somersetshire.
Weston-super-Mare	Somersetshire.
Weymouth	Dorsetshire.
Whitehaven	Cumberland.

Owing to the impossibility of obtaining an efficient crew to man the Life-boat which had for many years been stationed at Dunwich (Suffolk), the station has been closed and the Life-boat withdrawn. It has been decided, however, to provide the adjoining station at Aldeburgh with a second boat which will fully compensate for the compulsory abolition of the Dunwich Station.

The Steam Life-boat, which, in 1898, was placed experimentally at Grimsby, was, in January 1903, transferred to Gorleston (Suffolk), where she has already done service.

At the close of the year the Institution's fleet comprised 285 sailing and pulling Life-boats, 4 steam Life-boats and 1 steam tug.

Transporting Carriages.—New transporting carriages have been supplied to 5 stations.

Inspection of Life-boats.—All the Life-boats and Stations of the Institution have, during the year, been thoroughly and carefully inspected; a full and detailed report of each inspection being submitted to the Committee of Management for their consideration.

Shipwrecks.—The first three months of the year 1903 were unusually stormy, the remaining nine months being remarkable for the constant high winds which prevailed, and exceedingly frequent and almost abnormal rains and devastating floods, accompanied at times by destructive gales. The services of the Life-boats of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION were as a natural result in constant requisition throughout the year and the efforts of their gallant crews to render assistance to shipwrecked mariners were in very many instances crowned with success, hardly a week passing without praiseworthy rescues being effected.

The heaviest gales of the year occurred on the 25th–27th February and the 9th–11th September. On these occasions there were 75 launches of Life-boats, resulting during the February gale in the saving of 74 lives, and of 58 lives and 7 vessels during the gale in September.

It is with the greatest regret the Committee have to report that during the gale of the 1st February last, whilst the Swansea Life-boat was proceeding to the assistance of a vessel, believed to be in distress and was making for Port Talbot, she capsized, owing, as reported by the Board of Trade Public Inquiry, to the unfortunate neglect of the crew to make proper use of the drogue, with the terrible result that six of the gallant Life-boat men were drowned. The Committee at once tendered their deepest sympathy to the survivors and to the widows and orphans of the drowned men—forthwith contributing, on behalf of the Institution, 1,200*l.* to the local relief fund opened for their benefit. The Institution also defrayed all the expenses connected with the funerals, medical expenses, etc., amounting to more than 100*l.*

Throughout the year the Life-boats were launched on service 376 times and 1,051 times for exercise, besides which crews were assembled 68 times in readiness for service, but their aid was not ultimately required.

The total number of lives for the saving of which the Institution granted rewards in 1903 was 709; of these, 572 were saved by Life-boats and 137 by shore-boats and other means, in addition to which the Life-boat crews were instrumental in saving 28 vessels and boats.

The table in the preceding column gives the details of the services during each month of the year.

The grand total of lives for the saving of which the Institution has bestowed rewards since its establishment in 1824, by Life-boats, shore-boats, or by other means, has been 44,361, the number for each year being shown in the following table:—

Rewards.—The rewards bestowed by the Institution in 1903 for the saving of life from shipwreck, or praiseworthy and prompt efforts to do so, and in recognition of other good services rendered in the interests of the cause, included 4 Silver Medals, 2 Decorations, 5 Binocular Glasses, 10 Aneroid Barometers, 26 Votes of Thanks inscribed on vellum and framed, 9 Certificates of Service framed, and 10,896*l.* 18*s.* 2*d.*, including gifts to the families of men lost on service, compensation for personal injuries sustained in the Service, and in retiring allowances.

At the close of the year the Institution had granted altogether in rewards since 1824, 99 Gold Medals and Clasps, 1,204 Silver Medals and Clasps, 68 Decorations, 360 Binocular Glasses, 15 Telescopes, 59 Aneroid Barometers, 1,752 Votes of Thanks inscribed on vellum and framed, 168 Certificates of Service framed and 242,004*l.* in money.

Aneroids. — Numerous applications were received during the past year for the valuable Aneroid Barometers issued by the Institution at about a third the retail price to the masters and owners of fishing-boats and small coasters. The total number supplied was 88; of these, 70 were sold to fishermen and 18 to coasters. The total number provided to fishermen since 1882, and to coasters since 1883, has been 4,651.

Electrical Communication on the Coast. — It is with the liveliest satisfaction that the Committee of Management have to report that within the last few months it has been decided by the Government that several of the Light-vessels on the east coast are to be supplied with the necessary apparatus for providing a system of wireless telegraphy. The Committee are satisfied that the results will be thoroughly satisfactory and hope that this system of communicating with the shore so important for securing prompt assistance for vessels in distress will at no distant time be extended to all the more important Light-vessels and Light-houses off the coasts of the United Kingdom.

Local Committees. — The most cordial and grateful thanks of the Institution are due to all the honorary officials throughout the country whose generous and self-denying co-operation is of the utmost importance. The help which has been so well rendered during the past year by the Branch Committees and their Secretaries and Treasurers has been invaluable and cannot be overrated.

The best thanks of the Committee of Management are also tendered to the Public Press, which so constantly appeals to the public to show its confidence in the Institution by extending to it liberal and unstinted support, as well as to H. M. Coastguard whose continued aid is thankfully acknowledged.

Life-boat Saturday. — Great success has followed the zealous efforts of the Life-boat Saturday workers in England, Scotland, and Ireland during the past year. The clouds and discouragements which, owing to special circumstances, seriously thwarted them during some of the preceding years, would seem to have lifted and to some extent disappeared; with the result that renewed effort, backed by unlimited enthusiasm and zeal, has been productive of excellent returns. The Committee of Management desire to place on record their sense of deep gratitude to each and all of their Life-boat Saturday friends, including the Central Committee, the Local Life-boat Saturday Committees and their Officers, and especially to the Ladies' Auxiliaries.

The number of cities and towns in which the Life-boat Saturday movement was worked, in 1903, was 162, as compared with 126 in 1902, collections being made for the first time in several localities. All those working for the cause, and more particularly those connected with the Ladies' Auxiliaries, have been much encouraged and stimulated by the gracious and very important personal interest taken in their work by the PRINCESS OF WALES, who is not only a Vice-Patron of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION, but President of the Ladies' Auxiliaries. On the 3rd July last, HER ROYAL HIGHNESS kindly received, at Marlborough House, the Presidents and other delegated officials of the Ladies' Auxiliaries throughout the country, numbering about 125, thereby not only showing the keen interest which she herself takes in the Cause, but greatly encouraging the general workers.

Inventions. — Many inventions and suggestions have been thoroughly and carefully examined and considered by the Committee of Management since their last Report was issued, and they desire to make it as widely known as possible that they are at all times only too glad to receive and consider any proposals which might possibly, if adopted, tend to increased efficiency in the Life-boat service.

Finances. — The total amount received by the Committee of Management in 1903, in subscriptions, donations, dividends, &c., and including the very gratifying sum of 19,777*l.* 12*s.* 2*d.* from the Life-boat Saturday Fund, was 80,662*l.* 4*s.* 11*d.*, a satisfactory increase of 8,523*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*, as compared with the corresponding total of 1902. A further sum of 32,042*l.* 2*s.* was received in legacies, of which 10,381*l.* 5*s.* 8*d.* was for special trusts or specified purposes.

The total expenditure in 1903 was 93,217*l.* 18*s.* 10*d.* This total included 41,326*l.* 13*s.* 8*d.* for building, equipping, and repairing Life-boats, Life-boat transporting carriages, Life-boat houses and slipways; 16,100*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.* for subsidies for non-self-supporting stations, branch payments, aneroids for fishermen and coasters, life-belts and other stores and the storeyard; 29,666*l.* 2*s.* for payments to coxswains, bowmen, and signalmen, to crews, etc., for services and for exercising the Life-boats, for special rewards and recognitions for services; grants to the relatives of Life-boatmen lost on service; for injuries, pensions, and retiring allowances to coxswains, bowmen and signalmen; medals and vellums; also for payments to Inspectors. The balance was expended in printing, advertising, postage, telegrams and stationery; on salaries, rates, taxes, office expenses and legal charges connected with leases and bequests. Every item of receipt and expenditure has been examined, verified, and passed by Mr. Albert W. Wyon, Chartered Accountant, of the firm of Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., 3, Frederick's Place, Old Jewry, E.C.

For the long period of fourscore years the Institution has carried on its very important national work, increasing year by year, efficiently and usefully; but this desirable state of affairs cannot go on unless the necessary means are found by the British public to whom the Committee of Management earnestly and confidently appeal, not only for substantial monetary support, but also for continued confidence and hearty encouragement.

ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

(Supported solely by Voluntary Contributions.)

ITS OBJECT AND WORK.

The work of the Institution mainly consists of—

1. Building, equipping and maintaining Life-boats, transporting carriages, boathouses and slipways, wherever required on the Coasts of the United Kingdom.
2. Payments and the granting of rewards to Life-boat coxswains, crews and helpers, for services rendered, including exercises; medals and vellums being awarded for conspicuous bravery.

4. Granting pecuniary compensation to men injured on service.
5. Granting pecuniary compensation to the Widows and other dependent relatives of Life-boat men who lose their lives on service; not less than £100 being allowed for each Widow and £25 for each dependent child.

The Royal National Life-Boat Institution

Is prepared to establish and maintain a Life-boat Station on any part of the coast of the United Kingdom where it can be shown, from previous disasters, that a Life-boat is required. It is requisite that there should be a sufficient number of men (fishermen, or others accustomed to the management of boats at sea) to man the Life-boat, and a Committee formed from the residents in the neighbourhood to superintend the Station and obtain such small Annual Subscriptions as may contribute towards a portion of the expense of the Life-boat Station.

Communications should be addressed to the Secretary of the Institution, 20 Charing Cross Road, London, W.C.

GOD HELP OUR MEN AT SEA.

List of the Rewards

FOR SAVING LIFE FROM WRECKS

VOTED BY THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION

TO THE CREWS OF ITS LIFE-BOATS, TO SHORE AND FISHING-BOATS' CREWS, AND TO OTHER PERSONS

FROM THE 1ST JANUARY TO THE 31ST DECEMBER, 1903, INCLUSIVE.

Jan. 2.—ACKERGILL, CAITHNESS-SHIRE.—Jonathan Marshall, Sheffield, Life-boat.—A telegram having been received from Keiss Village, that a vessel had run aground on the sands, the Life-boat was launched shortly after 11 A.M., and proceeded to the scene of the casualty. A strong gale was blowing from S.E., the sea was very heavy and there was a thick rain falling. The stranded vessel proved to be the steam drifter Violet, of Wick, homeward bound from Stromness in ballast. On arrival the Coxswain did not consider it safe to go alongside the wreck, but having got within ten yards threw a line, which was secured by the only man then on board, who, fastening it round his waist, jumped into the surf and was speedily assisted into the Life-boat. It appeared that the drifter had gone ashore about half a mile from the village early in the morning, and that the master hastily constructed a raft, with the view of saving himself and crew of two hands, but the men did not consider it safe, and preferred to remain on board. The master then lashed himself to the raft and after being dashed about in the raging surf for some time, eventually succeeded in getting ashore in a very exhausted condition. As soon as he had sufficiently recovered he went to the nearest house and gave warning of the imminent danger of his men, with the result that the rocket apparatus and Life-boat were sent to their assistance with all despatch. In the meanwhile one of the poor fellows on board died, either from exposure or through being dashed against the wheelhouse by the heavy seas which continually washed over the vessel. The rescued man was in a very exhausted condition and would probably have also succumbed had it not been for the timely arrival of the Life-boat.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 4*s.* 8*d.*

Jan. 3.—ABERDOVEY, MERIONETHSHIRE.—Thomas Niccolls Stratford Life-boat.—While the Life-boat was out for exercise in a moderate south-westerly gale and a very heavy sea, the steamer Sea Spray, of Glasgow, was seen standing into danger. The Life-boat at once proceeded to her. Having signalled to the steamer to alter her course, she then guided her over the bar and brought her to a safe anchorage. Later the Life-boat returned ashore and was re-housed during the afternoon.—Expense of service, 13*l.* 15*s.*

Jan. 8.—WHITBURN, DURHAM.—William and Charles Life-boat.—The s.s. Chamois, of London, while bound from Rotterdam to the Tyne in ballast, stranded in rather a bad position on a reef of rocks known as "Whitburn White Steel," about half a mile north of the Life-boat house. There was a light S.E. breeze at the time, but the weather was rather thick and there was a heavy ground swell. It was 8.20 in the evening when the vessel went aground, and within a quarter of an hour of the signal being fired the Life-boat was on her way to the distressed vessel. She was found to be badly holed and half full of water, so the crew were taken into the Life-boat and brought safely ashore, the rescue being completed soon after 10 P.M. The Life-boat is reported to have behaved well.—Expense of service, 28*l.* 16*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 8th Jan., 1903.

Voted 40*l.* 11*s.* to defray the expenses of launches of the following Life-boats, with the view of assisting those on board vessels apparently in distress: Hauxley and Margate No. 2.

Also 100*l.*, with the sympathy of the Committee, to the widow and four children of JOHN DUNN, who had long been a member of the crew of the Arklow Life-boat, and who died suddenly from heart disease after returning from exercise in the boat on the 30th December, 1902.

Also 10*l.* to the widow of WILLIAM HODDS, late Coxswain of the Winterton Life-boat.

Also 2*l.* to JOHN WILLIAMS, one of the crew of the Rhosneigr Life-boat, on account of an injury received while on duty.

Also retiring pensions to JOHN GOULD, Assistant Coxswain of the Newcastle (Dundrum) Life-boat, and to ROBERT WIGNALL, late Bowman of the Lytham Life-boat.

Jan. 9.—EXMOUTH, DEVONSHIRE.—Joseph Somes Life-boat.—About 6 A.M. the schooner Cardigan, of Cardiff, was seen to be rolling heavily and apparently bumping on the sands about three-quarters of a mile to the W. of the entrance of the harbour. It was a thick rainy morning with a moderate southerly wind, freshening, and heavy sea on the sands and bar. As the vessel's anchors did not seem to be holding and the vessel dragged, the Life-boat was sent with all despatch to the assistance of those on board. Directly the Life-boat got alongside the master and crew jumped into her, intending to abandon their vessel, but the Coxswain persuaded them to return as he thought it would be possible to save her. He then put two of the Life-boatmen on board and got out a tow-rope ready to take to a tug which had subsequently been sent to the aid of the vessel. After the schooner had been towed clear the hawser parted, and the Life-boat was again called upon to take another one from the tug to the vessel, and eventually she was brought safely into harbour.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 6*s.* 3*d.*

Jan. 10.—HOLY ISLAND, NORTHUMB-
BERLAND.—Grace Darling Life-boat.—While bound from Middlesbrough to Aberdeen the steamer Rumleigh, belonging to the latter port, was caught in a whole gale from N. and heavy sea. After running for some miles before the wind she tried to seek shelter at Holy Island, but in doing so she was seen to take the wrong channel and come in on the W. side of the buoy. As it was expected every moment that she would founder, the Life-boat was launched with the greatest celerity and proceeded to her; she however managed to keep clear until the Life-boat reached the Castle point, when she struck. The Grace Darling then succeeded in rescuing the crew of four hands from their perilous position, landing them shortly after 10 A.M.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

Jan. 10.—PORT ERIN, ISLE OF MAN.—William Sugden Life-boat.—About 12.30 P.M. a north-easterly gale suddenly sprang up, accompanied by rain, sleet, and a rough sea, causing all the fishing cobles, which had left the harbour earlier in the morning, to attempt to return. The first one to do so was taken in tow by one of the larger boats, and only succeeded after great difficulty. They then reported having seen one of the other boats in difficulties near the "Calf." The Coxswain having consulted the Honorary Secretary, it was deemed advisable to launch the Life-boat at once. She proceeded under sail to the Sound, where she found the fishing boat Dorothy anchored, with two men aboard who, being unable to land, were keeping the boat's head to sea to prevent her foundering; the third man of the crew was on a rock. They had been in this predicament about an hour when the Life-boat came to their aid. Having taken them on board, an attempt was made to beat back to Port Erin, but owing to the strong flood tide in the Sound and the head wind it was found impossible; in view therefore of the exposure to which his men had been subjected, the Coxswain decided to make for Port St. Mary, where the rescued men were duly landed about 5.30 P.M. After waiting nearly two hours for the ebb tide, another attempt was made to return to Port Erin, but the wind having gone round further N. causing a heavy sea and snow storms, the attempt had to be abandoned, and the Life-boat was made secure at Port St. Mary for the night. Next day the crew went over to Port St. Mary and took the boat back to her station.—Expense of service, 30*l.* 6*s.* 6*d.*

Jan. 10.—PORTHINLLAEN, CARNAR-
VONSHIRE.—Barbara Fleming Life-boat.—Shortly before midnight the schooner John and Henry, of Runcorn, was seen to be in distress owing to her anchor dragging. Everything was prepared in case it should be necessary to render help, and on her showing a signal of distress after bumping heavily, the Life-boat promptly put off and succeeded in rescuing the three men on board. It was blowing a north-easterly gale at the time, accompanied by a heavy sea, but next morning, on the weather moderating somewhat, the master and four other men were able to again board the vessel, which was leaking badly, slip both cables and beach her. The behaviour of the Life-boat was reported to have been excellent.—Expense of service, 24*l.* 1*s.*

Jan. 10.—KINGSTOWN, COUNTY DUB-
LIN.—Dunleary Life-boat.—The Coast-guard reported during the evening that the trawler Industry, of Ringsend, was in distress, and in a very dangerous position off Dalkey Island; and she eventually ran a very narrow escape of being smashed to pieces on the rocks. The trawler had been out fishing when a strong north-easterly gale sprang up, and while the boat was running for shelter, her sails carried away. She was therefore left practically at the mercy of the weather and it was in this condition the master anchored his vessel. On receipt of the message from the Coastguard, the No. 2 Life-boat was despatched about 8.30 P.M. to the assistance of the men on board. The sea was running so high that it was with difficulty the Life-boat got out of harbour, and it was nearly 10 P.M. before she came up to the trawler. She then made repeated attempts to get near enough to take the imperilled men into the boat, but owing to the trawl beam projecting over the vessel's port side and the boom over the starboard side, it was impossible, while the vessel rolled so heavily, to get alongside with any degree of safety. The Coxswain persevered however for five hours, when one of his crew was taken so ill that it was considered necessary to land him. The Life-boat therefore returned ashore at 3.30 A.M., with all the crew exhausted from cold and exposure. Having got dry clothing and refreshment, those who were able again took their places in the Life-boat and the vacant places being filled by volunteers, a fresh start was made to rescue the unfortunate fishermen, who had been exposed to the fury of the gale all night without food or shelter.

It being daylight when the Dunleary again approached the trawler they succeeded in getting sufficiently near for the men to jump, and as they fell they were seized by the Life-boatmen, and dragged aboard in a very exhausted condition. On arriving at Kingstown shortly after noon on the 11th, they were properly cared for and made comfortable. The Committee of Management, after considering the report of this service, decided as a mark of their high appreciation of the Coxswain's (EDWARD KNIGHT) admirable conduct, to confer on him the thanks of the Institution inscribed upon vellum and framed, and a few weeks later the presentation was made the occasion of a pleasant public function at Kingstown.—Expense of service, 39*l.* 5*s.*

Jan. 16.—PEEL, ISLE OF MAN.—Mayhew Medwin Life-boat.—About 8 A.M. in the morning, during a strong southeasterly gale, a vessel was observed riding heavily at anchor with all her sails blown away. She was thought to be in difficulties, but as there were several steamers in the vicinity it was expected that one of them would tow her into safety. One by one however the steamers left her, and about 10 A.M., in response to her signals, the Life-boat was launched to her assistance. She proved to be the smack Fayaway, of Ramsey, with a crew of two hands. All the canvas had been blown away and the bulwarks smashed in. It appeared she left Liverpool for Ramsey the previous day at noon, and encountered a terrible time, meeting the full force of the gale; finding it impossible to make Ramsey, she endeavoured to get to Peel, but her last sail being blown to pieces, she had to anchor when still about three miles off. When the Life-boat came up to her the two hands were rescued, but not without a serious accident to the Captain, who, in his eagerness to board the Life-boat, jumped too soon, and with the tremendous sea that was running, slipped, and fell between his own vessel and the Life-boat, sustaining a broken leg. The men were landed with all despatch, and after being cared for, the injured one was sent to the Hospital to be attended to. The Life-boat behaved splendidly and her sailing qualities are stated to have been all that could be desired, and further, that she was handled in a masterly manner by her Coxswain and crew.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 3*s.*

Jan. 16.—FISHGUARD, PEMBROKESHIRE.—Appin Life-boat.—About 6.30 P.M., signals of distress were shown by a steamer lying between the New Breakwater and Denis Head, and in response the No. 2 Life-boat, immediately launched and proceeded to her. On reaching the steamer the master informed the Coxswain that a schooner astern of him was in a sinking condition, and asked him to go at once alongside. This he did, and found she was the Prince Llewellyn, of Carnarvon, bound from Treport to Amlwch. The captain stated she was leaking very badly, and when picked up by the steamer between St. Davids and Strumbles Head the pumps were choked and he had lost all his headsails.

He therefore requested the Coxswain to stand by him, which he did; but after some time, the wind having increased, he further requested that some of the Life-boatmen would assist to put down another anchor, and then take him and his crew ashore, as all were very exhausted. There was a moderate S.S.E. gale blowing and rough sea, the night being very cold and thick.—Expense of service, 20*l.* 5*s.*

Jan. 19.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—James Stevens No. 3 Life-boat.—As the Steam Life-boat, stationed at Gorleston, was preparing to go out for exercise, signals were fired by the St. Nicholas Light-vessel. Slipping her moorings, the Life-boat at once proceeded to sea and learnt that a large steamer was aground on the Cross Sand Ridge. On arrival at the vessel, which proved to be the s.s. Kolpino, of Hull, bound for that port with a general cargo from the Mediterranean, the services of the Life-boatmen were engaged to try and save the vessel. The Life-boat Mark Lane No. 1 was also sent for, and with the assistance of four tugs and several lumpers, who lightened her, the vessel was two days later successfully floated and taken into the roads. The Steam Life-boat then returned, and having taken off a relief party, returned to harbour about midnight. The Mark Lane however remained by the vessel, not returning ashore until 9.30 A.M. on the 22nd idem. While both these Life-boats were engaged in salving the above vessel, about 4.45 A.M. on the 20th, the Coxswain of the James Stevens No. 3 heard a steam-whistle near them, which he answered. Almost immediately a large steamer came upon them, and it was only by going full steam ahead that they escaped being run down. As the Life-boat got out of the way, warning was given to the master of the steamer—which was the s.s. Orlando, of Sundsvall—and he let go his anchor, but not in time to prevent the ship swinging round on to the sand. The Life-boatmen then offered their help to get this vessel off, and having succeeded when the tide made, the James Stevens returned to the Kolpino and remained with her as stated above.—Property salvage cases.

Jan. 19.—CAISTER, NORFOLK.—Covent Garden Life-boat.—At midday signals of distress were heard in the direction of the Cross Sand, and in response the No. 1 Life-boat at once launched and proceeded to the sands; there they found the s.s. Fenham, of Sunderland, aground. The master of the steamer having engaged the Life-boatmen to assist in getting his vessel off, they worked until about 3 P.M. on the 21st, when their efforts were rewarded by success. The vessel was then taken to a safe anchorage and the Life-boatmen reached home about 11 P.M. that night.—Property salvage case.

Jan. 21.—PORT PATRICK, WIGTOWNSHIRE.—Civil Service No. 3 Life-boat.—About 3 o'clock in the morning, the s.s. Baron Glamis, of Ardrossan, while bound from Glasgow to the River Plate, stranded on the "Ebbstone" in thick weather. When it cleared somewhat the chief officer landed and made his way to the Corsewall Lighthouse, where he reported the casualty, and the Life-boat was at 12.50 P.M. telegraphed for. She at once proceeded to the scene of the accident, but at that time the weather was not so bad as to cause any alarm. From the position of the vessel however it was known that if the wind were to get to the westward it would be necessary to take off those then on board; the Life-boat therefore decided to remain alongside all night. Towards midnight the weather got worse and the crew of the steamer signalled to be taken into the Life-boat, but it was then too dark to risk the operation, and it was not until nearly daybreak that they were able to commence the work of rescue. At this time the gale from S.W. was very heavy and the sea so rough that the Life-boat incurred great danger in approaching the wreck, her bows on one occasion being dashed through one of the ship's boats as it hung on the davits. An endeavour was made to calm the sea somewhat by pouring oil from the fore-part of the vessel, and eventually all the men were got safely on board the Life-boat, which then headed for Loch Ryan, where the shipwrecked men were landed. The ship became a total wreck. In appreciation of this excellent service, resulting in saving of twenty-six lives, the Committee conferred on the Coxswain the thanks of the Institution inscribed on vellum and framed.—Expense of service, 42*l.* 4*s.* 9*d.*

Jan. 22.—CAMPBELTOWN, ARGYLL-SHIRE.—James Stevens No. 2 Life-boat.—On the night of the 21st January, while the brigantine Essex, of Coleraine, was bound from that port to Maryport, she was overtaken by bad weather, and when trying to run for Lamlash for shelter, she stranded off Kildonan, Isle of Arran, in a whole gale from S.S.W., a heavy sea, thick weather and heavy snow showers. The coastguard at Kildonan attempted to save the crew with the rocket apparatus, but the line broke while the first man was being hauled ashore. He was ultimately rescued from the waves, but no others could be saved from the ship. They then telegraphed to Campbeltown for assistance, and the Life-boat was promptly despatched. She reached the wreck about 9 A.M. on the 22nd idem, to find the sea washing right over the vessel. After going through a great deal of broken water she got under the lee of the vessel, which afforded her protection, and by means of lines succeeded in getting the remainder of the crew, five in number, safely into the boat. The Life-boat then made for Whiting Bay and landed the crew, who, after procuring some food, left about 12.30 P.M. for home.

In the meanwhile the weather had improved and the wind became light; after passing Plada Lighthouse the boat had to be rowed and did not reach home until after 11 o'clock that night. This was an excellent service, in which the Life-boat travelled over fifty miles, and the Hon. Secretary of the Branch, Canon Wakeham, was again thanked by the Committee for the energy he displayed.—Expense of service, 61*l.* 19*s.*

Jan. 22.—PETERHEAD, ABERDEEN-SHIRE.—George Pickard Life-boat.—This Life-boat saved six men, the crew of the schooner Exile, of Peterhead. About 7.30 A.M. one of the Life-boatmen observed signals of distress and informed the Harbour-Master, who immediately ordered out the Life-boat. There was a strong southerly breeze and heavy sea at the time, and it was only after some trouble that the Life-boat got under the lee of the ship, which she found had stranded and was bumping heavily. The Life-boat anchored, and having got a line on board, succeeded in getting the six men into the boat, landing them at 8.30 A.M.—Expense of service, 20*l.* 15*s.* 9*d.*

Jan. 23-24.—DOUGLAS, ISLE OF MAN.—Civil Service No. 6 Life-boat.—About midnight, the barque Otzamiz, while lying at anchor in the North Bay, displayed signals of distress. As there was a strong S.S.W. breeze and a rough sea the Life-boat promptly went to her assistance. They found the vessel in a very dangerous position, dragging her anchors, so took the crew of sixteen hands into the Life-boat and landed them shortly after 1 A.M.—Expense of service, 26*l.* 16*s.*

Jan. 27.—ST. DAVID'S, PEMBROKE-SHIRE.—Gem Life-boat.—This Life-boat rescued six of the crew of the s.s. Graffoe, of Grimsby. The Graffoe left Glasgow on 23rd January, bound for Monte Video; bad weather was experienced, the vessel got out of her course, and shortly before 11 P.M. on the 25th idem she stranded on the southern end of Ramsey Island, off the coast of St. David's. It was thick weather and a south-westerly wind was blowing. Fourteen men got into one of the ship's Life-boats and were ordered to stand by under the lee of the land, but were washed out to sea. Happily they were picked up late in the afternoon of the following day by a steamer, about thirty miles from the scene of the disaster, and landed at Penarth. The roughness of the sea rendered the launching of the other ship's Life-boat impossible, so the remainder of the crew sought safety on the bridge and in the rigging. The ship settled down almost immediately; the master and chief engineer were washed away and drowned, but the others—7 in number—managed to hold on, although they experienced a terrible time owing to the tempestuous weather, the masts of the vessel being practically the only part of the ship out of the water. The weather continued rough and thick and it was not until nearly 10 A.M. on the 27th that the wreck was seen from the mainland and reported to the Life-boat authorities, who at once sent out the Life-boat Gem. There was much difficulty and great risk in approaching the wreck owing to the strong wind, the set of the tide and current, and the close proximity of dangerous rocks. After strenuous efforts communication was effected, but one of the men who had been in the rigging this length of time without water and without food, and had there endured all the hardships of two winter nights, was found lashed up quite dead. A line was got on board the steamer, and the first pulled through the sea to the Life-boat was this dead seaman, to whom the living men paid this mark of respect; then followed the other six, one of whom was thought to be dying. Having got all the men on board, the boat was pulled clear and sail set, St. Davids being reached at 2.15 P.M. On landing, every care was taken of the rescued men and with the assistance of a doctor the apparently dying man was restored. The same evening the shipwrecked men were conveyed to the town, and expressed their deepest gratitude for the humanity and hospitality shown them.

The following extract from a letter written to the local press by one of the members of the crew, shows with what high appreciation the action of the Life-boatmen was regarded:—

“Now a word in praise of the gallant Life-boat crew, for we know that it wanted great courage to reach us in the position the wreck was lying and the heavy seas that were running at the time; we all think that Coxswain NARBETT's management of the boat, and the decisive way of making up his mind to act, makes him an efficient man for the position of Coxswain.”

The silver medal of the Institution was subsequently awarded to WILLIAM NARBETT, the acting Coxswain, by the Committee of Management, in recognition of his gallant and meritorious conduct on this occasion and an additional monetary grant was made to each member of the crew of the boat.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 19*s.* 9*d.*

Jan. 27.—DUNGENESS, KENT.—Thomas Simcox Life-boat.—About midnight a collision occurred between the s.s. British Prince and the four-masted barque Waterloo, off Dungeness. Both vessels sustained damage, the former of so serious a nature that she had to be run ashore. The crew and launchers of the No. 2 Life-boat were promptly assembled, but it was not until 4 A.M. that their services were called upon; the Captain of the British Prince then requested that the Life-boat should come and stand by him, as the vessel was leaking badly. This the Coxswain did, and on the vessel being towed off, the Life-boat accompanied her as far as Walmer. Her services being no longer required, she was beached there, and returned to her station next day. The weather was cold, with a moderate S.W. gale and moderate sea.—Property salvage case.

Jan 29.—ARBROATH, FORFARSHIRE.—James Stevens No. 13 Life-boat.—The fishing-boat Isobel, of Arbroath, with two men on board was seen to be in difficulties off that harbour; the wind was increasing and the sea rough, but it was hoped she would be able to make the harbour without help. About two hours later however it was seen that this would be impossible, so the Life-boat was launched, to give her the necessary assistance. In the meantime another fishing-boat had gone to her and taken her in tow. As the wind was now blowing a hurricane, the Life-boat stood by both crafts and accompanied them into harbour, which was only gained with much difficulty on the part of the fishing-boats.—Expense of service, 6*l.* 17*s.* 3*d.*

Jan. 30.—STORNOWAY, ISLE OF LEWIS.—Sarah Pilkington Life-boat.—During a heavy gale from W.S.W. and very rough sea, about 7 P.M., the large four-masted steamer Marwarri, of Liverpool, bound from Dundee to Barry in ballast, while attempting to anchor in the harbour was driven by the force of the gale on the rocks at Battery Point. Immediately her critical position was observed the crew of the Life-boat was summoned. The call was answered promptly, the boat launched and they proceeded to the stranded steamer. At the request of the Captain the Life-boat remained in attendance until 5.45 next morning, when she returned to harbour, her services being no longer required. During the time, nearly 10 hours, while the boat remained in close proximity to the stranded steamer, the crew were exposed to the full force of the gale, with blinding rain. They were also of service in saving a steam trawler from running ashore: this vessel mistaking the stern light of the wrecked steamer, which had been left burning, for that of another vessel at anchor. The trawler was seeking shelter from the gale, and but for a blue light being burnt in the Life-boat, she certainly would have stranded.—Expense of service, 25l. 4s. 6d.

Jan. 30.—TORQUAY, DEVONSHIRE.—Wighton Life-boat.—The Coastguard at Babbacombe telegraphed about 11 P.M. that a vessel was in the Bay showing signals of distress. The crew of the Life-boat was promptly summoned and the boat launched. On arrival the Coxswain found the schooner Silvia, of Beaumaris, at anchor, riding out the gale, which was blowing from S., accompanied by a very heavy sea. The vessel had lost some of her spars and sails, the Captain therefore asked that the Life-boat would stand by him in case the cable broke and it should be found necessary to abandon the ship. After some hours the wind changed and as the immediate danger was over the Life-boat returned to her station, being re-housed at 4.30 next morning.—Expense of service, 21l. 14s.

Feb. 1.—MARGATE, KENT.—Civil Service No. 1 Life-boat.—At 4 A.M. distress signals were observed off the Longnose Rock by the Coastguard, who reported it to the Life-boat authorities. The crew of the No. 2 Life-boat was assembled and the boat proceeded to the spot indicated. There they found the s.s. Trent, of Hull, with her life-boat lowered and provisioned, ready for the crew to abandon her. On the Life-boatmen boarding her, the Captain reported that he had three feet of water in the stoke-hole, and that his men were working up to their knees in water keeping the fires up. It appeared that he had been trying to enter Ramsgate Harbour, had struck the East Pier Head and knocked a portion of the steamer's starboard side in. Then finding it impossible to get into the harbour, he made for Margate Roads, but the vessel made so much water that she was in grave danger of foundering; the master therefore decided to run his vessel ashore and signal for assistance. The Life-boatmen were at once employed to try to salve the vessel, the engines were kept at work on the pumps, and the bunker coal jettisoned, about forty tons in all being thrown overboard. At daylight the leaks were found and the holes plugged, two large kedges having then been got out, the vessel was floated at 1.30 P.M. and taken under her own steam into Ramsgate Harbour. There was a strong southerly gale and moderate sea at the time.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 1.—LLANDUDNO, CARNARVONSHIRE.—Theodore Price Life-boat.—At 9.30 A.M. a telegram was received from the Orme's Head Lighthouse that a steamer was showing signals of distress about six miles E.N.E. The assembly signal was immediately fired, and within eighteen minutes the Life-boat was afloat and on her way to the steamer, which could then be seen in the offing rolling heavily and displaying signals of distress. She was found to be the s.s. Wylam, of Limerick, from Liverpool to Limerick with a general cargo. She had left Liverpool the night before and encountered a gale of wind which caused her cargo to shift; she was making water rapidly, then having eight feet of water in the hold, which was gradually extinguishing the fires. The captain asked the Life-boat to stand by him for a time, as they were coming closer to land. This they did, but the pilot on board feared the vessel would founder, so went on board the Life-boat and was landed. The vessel however, in spite of a great list and rolling heavily, eventually got into Llandudno Bay and anchored. The crew then cleared the pump which had become choked and towards evening when the weather moderated the vessel proceeded on her voyage.—Expense of service, 21l.

Feb. 2.—HOLYHEAD, ANGLESEY.—Duke of Northumberland Life-boat.—In a strong N.N.W. gale and heavy sea, a vessel was seen making signals of distress, and the Steam Life-boat immediately went out. They found the schooner Useful, of Barrow, which had just sailed into the harbour and anchored, but the anchors not holding she had drifted and was bumping on the rocks. At the request of the master the Coxswain endeavoured to find a tug to tow the vessel into safety, but being unsuccessful he put four of the Life-boatmen on board, and with their assistance the schooner was got into the old harbour and moored in safety.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 2.—FISHGUARD, PEMBROKESHIRE.—Appin Life-boat.—During a moderate N.N.E. gale and a heavy sea, signals of distress were observed on the schooner Mary Roberts, of Carnarvon, which was lying in the roads. Rockets to assemble the crew were at once fired and the Life-boat launched and proceeded to her. It was found that the anchors were dragging and that the schooner was likely to drive ashore. The crew, consisting of the captain and three hands, were taken into the Life-boat and landed. Later in the day the vessel having weathered the gale, the men again went on board and took the vessel to a safe anchorage.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 3*s.* 9*d.*

Feb. 2.—IRVINE, Ayrshire.—Jane Anne Life-boat.—The deputy harbour master, about 10 P.M., informed the Coxswain of the Life-boat that a vessel was on the beach to the north of the bar showing flares. The crew were summoned, the Life-boat launched and proceeded to the vessel. On getting alongside they found she was the smack Janes, of Campbeltown, and that she had stranded while bound from Carrickfergus to Irvine with a cargo of salt. As she was then making water, the crew were taken into the Life-boat and landed about midnight. The night was dark and cloudy, with a strong W.S.W. breeze blowing and heavy sea.—Expense of service, 21*l.* 6*s.*

Feb. 4.—IRVINE, Ayrshire.—Jane Anne Life-boat.—On this night the Life-boat was again called out to the assistance of the galliot Alpha, of Riga, which also stranded to the north of the harbour. A tug-boat went to her, but after making two ineffectual attempts to get her off returned into harbour and towed the Life-boat out. The sea was very heavy and was then breaking right over the vessel. It was only with considerable difficulty that the Life-boat got under her lee, and in doing so one of the crew was knocked overboard, but was happily recovered without injury. The shipwrecked crew of six men were eventually got into the boat and landed in safety.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 1*s.*

Feb. 4.—SENNEN COVE, CORNWALL.—Ann Newbon Life-boat.—In thick weather, a strong S.W. breeze and a rough sea, a large steamer—the s.s. Benwick, of Newcastle—stranded on the “Runnel Stone” and subsequently became a total wreck. It was soon after 7 A.M. when the coastguard observed the steamer and warned the Coxswain; the Life-boat was immediately launched and proceeded to the place. On arriving they found the captain and four other men in a small boat standing by the steamer, which by this time was against the cliffs. The men were taken into the Life-boat, which then proceeded to search along the shore for other members of the crew who had left in one of the ship's boats soon after she struck. This took the Life-boat in the direction of Penzance; the Coxswain therefore decided to land the shipwrecked men there, and arrived about 11 A.M. It was subsequently learnt that the missing men had landed in safety. The Life-boat left Penzance again for Sennen Cove at 12.30 P.M. in thick and dirty weather, reaching her station at 8 P.M.—Expense of service, 35*l.* 16*s.* 6*d.*

Feb. 6.—NAIRN, NAIRNSHIRE.—Theophilus Sidney Echalaz Life-boat.—During a strong W.S.W. gale and a rough sea, while several of the fishing-boats were out, news came that one of them had been lost and her crew of two hands drowned. Very shortly after this two of the yawls, one a small one, were observed in a dangerous position. The Life-boat was launched and proceeded to them; taking the smaller one, with two hands on board, in tow she brought it into harbour.—Expense of service, 5*l.* 17*s.*

Feb. 6.—THURSO, CAITHNESS-SHIRE.—Co-operator No. 3 Life-boat.—The fishing-boat Camperdown, of Port Knockie, was returning from the fishing grounds in the evening, when a hurricane from W.S.W. suddenly rose and disabled her, breaking the yard and splitting her sail. She was observed by the look-out man at Thurso, who at once summoned the Life-boat crew. The Life-boat was quickly launched, bore down on the fishing-boat, and stood by ready to render assistance. When the gale began to subside the Life-boat returned to the roadstead and secured the services of a steamer; she then accompanied her back to the craft, and having passed a rope from the steamer, the disabled vessel was towed into safety. The boat then returned ashore and was re-housed next day.—Expense of service, 26*l.* 14*s.*

Feb. 7.—HILBRE ISLAND, CHESHIRE.—Admiral Briggs Life-boat.—It was reported that a flat was in distress and would require assistance. She first caught the Salisbury Bank, where she lost her punt, but got off, slipped her anchor and made for Hilbre; she then went ashore on the rocks on the north end of the island, where she hung for a time; again she got off and drifted helplessly on to the East Hoyle Bank. In this position the Life-boat came to her. The Life-boatmen went on board and put her sails, &c., in order; the boat then took a warp, which was made fast to the shore to prevent her drifting further on to the bank, and when the tide made she was brought into a safe anchorage. The master was very grateful for the help given, as the vessel would probably otherwise have been lost, and possibly lives as well, owing to the loss of the punt on board.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 12th Feb., 1903.

Also the sum of 20*l.* to THOS. MICHAEL, one of the survivors. In addition, the Institution made special rewards to the Life-boatmen, and discharged the funeral and other expenses, amounting to 100*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*

Voted also the sum of 150*l.* to the widow of FREDERICK ARNOLD, a member of the crew of the Kingsdowne Life-boat, whose death was due to an injury received while employed in that Life-boat.

Also 7*l.* 15*s.*, including medical expenses, to J. RUDD, on account of illness contracted when the Ilfracombe Life-boat was launched for exercise in December, 1902.

Also 5*l.* to RICHARD MORRIS as a final grant for illness contracted when employed with the Porth Rhaffydd Life-boat in 1901.

Also yearly pensions to JOHN LENNINGHAM, Coxswain of the Maryport Life-boat, and JAMES BROWN, Signalman at Balcary, on resignation.

Also a grant, in lieu of pension, to RICHARD HETHERINGTON, Signalman at Maryport, on resigning.

Feb. 15.—CAISTER, NORFOLK.—Covent Garden Life-boat.—Shortly before 8 P.M. signals of distress were observed opposite Caister, and the No. 1 Life-boat was launched with all despatch. On arrival outside the Barber Sand the ketch Evelyn, of Jersey, was found brought up in the roads and leaking badly. Life-boatmen were at once put on board to man the pumps and they worked until after midnight. A tug then came up and the anchor having been slipped, the vessel was taken in tow and brought to Yarmouth Harbour. It appeared that the ketch was bound from Southampton to Bo'ness with a cargo of scrap iron, and when near Caister, had sprung a leak and was in danger of foundering. The sea at the time was smooth, with a moderate northerly breeze.—Property salvage case. Balance paid by Institution, 7*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

Feb. 19.—MONTROSE, FORFARSHIRE. Sarah Jane Turner Life-boat.—The weather in the early morning being comparatively moderate, the fishing fleet put to sea, but about 9.30 A.M. the wind increased to a whole W.S.W. gale, accompanied by a very heavy sea. At 9.45 the Scurdy Ness Lighthouse-keeper telephoned to the Coxswain of the Life-boat that the Life-boat would be required, the fishing-boats then being in great danger. Shortly afterwards the boat Gladiator was driven on to the Annat Bank among the breakers, and another boat, the Enterprise, went ashore inside the bar. The Life-boat was launched and went to the first-named vessel's assistance, and got her crew, four in number, into the Life-boat. By this time the tide had ebbed sufficiently to enable the crew of the Enterprise to jump ashore; the Life-boat therefore proceeded to the other boats and stood by them until all had been towed into safety by a steam trawler which came to their aid. The Life-boat then returned to her station and during the afternoon was re-housed.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 14*s.*

Feb. 19.—LLANDUDNO, CARNARVONSHIRE.—Theodore Price Life-boat.—The smack Stag, of Beaumaris, lay at anchor from early morning in Llandudno Bay on account of having sprung a leak, and in order to obtain shelter from the westerly gale then blowing. About 3.50 P.M. she was found to be sinking, the crew therefore showed signals of distress. Within twelve minutes of the assembly signal being fired the Life-boat had been brought to the shore and launched, and without loss of time the two men on board were rescued, the vessel ultimately sinking. The sea was rough at the time, and the boat is reported to have behaved remarkably well.—Expense of service, 17*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*

Feb. 21.—WINTERTON, NORFOLK.—Margaret Life-boat.—In the early morning the s.s. Martello, of Hull, a vessel of over 3,000 tons, collided with another steamer near the Newarp Light-vessel. As a result her bows were completely cut away and she was brought up by her cables falling through the breach and fouling some wreckage. In answer to the signals fired by the Newarp Light-vessel, the No. 2 Life-boat proceeded to the vessel, together with tugs, and they were requested to render assistance. Some of the Life-boatmen were put on board and assisted to jettison the cargo, the Life-boat meanwhile standing by while the tug attempted to clear the cables which had fouled. Happily the bulkheads of the vessel held, and on the 23rd idem, as the cables could not be cleared, they were cut through and slipped. The vessel was then towed into shallow water and shortly afterwards proceeded to Hull with a tug and the Life-boat in attendance. During this service, which was performed in a heavy W.S.W. wind and heavy sea, the Life-boat was seriously damaged. The men were engaged in the salvage operation from the morning of the 21st until the afternoon of the 24th, and they did not get back to their homes until the 26th February, but by their hard and continuous work they assisted to save a vessel and cargo valued together at more than 87,000*l.*—Property salvage case.

Feb. 21.—CAISTER, NORFOLK.—Covent Garden Life-boat.—At 9.30 A.M. the vessel referred to above, the s.s. Martello, of Hull, was observed from Caister, and the crew of the No. 1 Life-boat assembled and launched their boat. They found the Winterton Life-boat in attendance, but hearing there had been a collision, went in search of the other vessel. About 12.30 P.M. they came up with her in a sinking condition about two miles north of Palling, flying signals of distress and in tow of another steamer. She proved to be the s.s. Holywell, of Sunderland, and her captain asked for help. Shortly after the arrival of the boat the hawser connected with the assisting steamer parted, and she drifted helplessly on to the Cross Sand and foundered. When the other steamer came to the assistance of the Holywell the crew and passengers, numbering thirty-one in all, were taken on board; these were now transferred to the Life-boat, which returned ashore and landed them at Yarmouth. The sea was very heavy and the Life-boat was frequently buried, but she freed herself well and is reported to have behaved magnificently.—Expense of service, 36*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

Feb. 21.—COVERACK, CORNWALL.—Constance Melanie Life-boat. — About 6 A.M. a four-masted steel barque—the Clan Graham, of nearly 2,000 tons register—while on a voyage from Algoa Bay to the English Channel in ballast, ran aground on the rocks near Lowland Point. It was, at the time, blowing a moderate S.S.W. gale with a heavy sea. In response to rockets sent up by the barque, the Life-boat went to her assistance and was requested to stand by her. About the same time a tug came up, and it was decided to make an effort to get the vessel off on the rising tide, and later two other tugs arrived. The Life-boat did excellent service in carrying warps from the stranded vessel to the tugs, and eventually the vessel was saved and taken into Falmouth Harbour, making water rapidly.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 22.—PADSTOW, CORNWALL.—Edmund Harvey Life-boat.—The coast-guard at Trevoze Head during the night reported that a large steamer was in distress five miles to the north, and that she was burning signals for assistance. The tug Helen Peele, with the Life-boat in tow, at once proceeded to sea, and about half an hour after midnight reached the steamer, which proved to be s.s. Martha of Copenhagen. She had sustained damage to her machinery and the captain requested the Life-boatmen to stand by him throughout the night. This they did, and after temporary repairs had been effected, finding that a tug only was then required to tow the steamer to Swansea, they decided to return home. Padstow was reached at 11.15 A.M. next morning, the Life-boatmen having been exposed to the fury of a S.W. gale and rough and cold weather for thirteen hours.—Expense of service, 46*l.* 12*s.*

Feb. 23.—FLEETWOOD, LANCASHIRE.—Maude Pickup Life-boat. — About 7.30 in the morning a vessel was observed in distress on the east side of Sunderland Bank, Morecambe Bay. A strong W.S.W. gale was blowing, which steadily increased, accompanied by a very heavy sea. The crew of the Life-boat was summoned and, the boat having been launched, proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the barque Vanadis, of Mariehamn. It appeared that she had stranded during the night, and when the tide ebbed six of her crew and the pilot managed, at great risk, to get ashore; but as the flood made the gale increased so much that all hope of those remaining on board leaving their vessel had to be abandoned. However, the Life-boat was then nearing the scene of the disaster, and the Coxswain with considerable difficulty got the rest of the crew, consisting of the captain and eight men, into the Life-boat. They then beat back to Fleetwood against a very heavy sea and a piercing wind, having travelled about twenty-six miles.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 12*s.*

Feb. 24.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Bradford Life-boat.—During a very strong S.S.W. gale and a very heavy sea, the ketch Capella, of Libau, tried to make Ramsgate Harbour, but when still about half-a-mile away her gear carried away and she became unmanageable. She at once anchored, the heavy sea flooding her decks with water, in addition to which she was in a very dangerous position. The Life-boat, in tow of a tug, was despatched to her assistance, and got near enough for the second Coxswain to get on board, but he ran great risk in doing so. A hawser was then taken from the tug to the disabled vessel and her cable having been slipped she was towed into safety.—Payment arranged by the Board of Trade.

Feb. 24.—NORTH DEAL, KENT.—Mary Somerville Life-boat. — About 10.30 P.M. the Coastguard informed the Coxswain that flares were being burnt in the direction of the Brake Sand. He immediately summoned the crew, launched the Life-boat and proceeded to the spot indicated, where they found the barge Dawn, of London, very near the sands, in danger of stranding. The Coxswain got as close to the barge as possible, then anchored and veered down to her. It was only with great difficulty and danger that they succeeded in getting alongside, as it was blowing a whole gale from S.W., and the sea was very heavy. The master asked that they would save the crew and his vessel if possible. Four of the Life-boatmen were put on board, and they succeeded in getting the vessel into Ramsgate Harbour at 6 o'clock next morning.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 25.—PORT EYNON, GLAMORGANSHIRE.—A Daughter's Offering Life-boat.—During a strong S.W. gale and heavy sea in the morning a vessel was observed to be drifting apparently in a helpless condition. The crew of the Life-boat were quickly assembled and the boat successfully launched. They proceeded to the vessel, which was the barque Allegro, of Skudesnaes, and at the request of the master, stood by for upwards of three hours. The vessel was then drifting towards the Port Talbot Sands, so the master asked that the Life-boat should run to Swansea, and, if possible, procure a tug. Having reached Swansea they found it impossible to return, so remained in harbour that night and returned to Port Eynon next day.—Expense of service, 26*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*

Feb. 26.—LITTLEHAMPTON, SUSSEX.—James, Mercer and Elizabeth Life-boat.—This Life-boat was called out at 1.30 P.M. by distress signals shown from the s.s. Brattingsborg, of Copenhagen, which lost her propeller about five miles south of Littlehampton, when bound from Hamburg to Cardiff. At the request of the master, the Life-boat stood by him until she was towed by a local tug into a safe anchorage. Having performed this service, the Life-boat returned ashore and was re-housed about 7 P.M. There was a moderate gale and heavy sea during this service.—Expense of service, 22*l.* 7*s.* 9*d.*

Feb. 26.—WICKLOW.—Robert Theophilus Garden Life-boat.—A storm of terrific violence visited Wicklow and the district during the day. The wind had been blowing from the S., but towards night it increased to hurricane force, accompanied by a very heavy sea, and downpours of rain and sleet at intervals. About 8 P.M. the Coastguard reported a vessel in a dangerous position about a mile to the north of the harbour. The Honorary Secretary of the Branch at once proceeded to the Pier Head, where he could see the vessel's light; she was then drifting, but as she made no distress signals, he did not order the Life-boat out. He remained there until 9.30 P.M., when wet through, he returned home to put on dry clothes. On his way back to the Boathouse, he learnt that the vessel had burnt a flare, so without delay the assembly signal was fired for the crew, and within five minutes the Life-boat was launched. She proceeded to the wreck, which was then about four miles to the northward, close to the shore. With great difficulty and trouble, owing to the heavy seas, the Life-boat was taken near the vessel and her crew of four rescued in an exhausted condition. On the return journey the boat's mizen mast was carried away, but they made the harbour safely and landed the shipwrecked men about 1.30 A.M. The vessel in distress was the schooner Brackley, of Liverpool, bound for Wicklow from Wexford.—Expense of service, 27*l.* 1*s.*

Feb. 26-27.—MOELERE, ANGLESEY.—Star of Hope Life-boat.—The tremendous gale which visited the coasts of the United Kingdom on the night of the 26th February blew for several days with great violence, and caused much destruction of property and jeopardized many lives. The services of the brave Life-boatmen were called upon at many stations, and during the storm they were the means of rescuing more than seventy people, who, but for the timely succour, would doubtless have perished. One of the first services performed was that by the Life-boat Star of Hope, resulting in the crew of four of the schooner Hodbarrow Miner, of Barrow, being saved. This vessel, while bound to Plymouth from Runcorn with a cargo of coal, anchored in Moelfre Roads. Shortly after 1 A.M. she began, in the S.E. gale and heavy sea, to drag her anchors. Signals of distress were made, and in response the Star of Hope launched. On getting alongside, the schooner's crew jumped into the Life-boat, which landed them by 5 A.M.

Directly after this, further signals of distress were observed from the schooner William Jones, of Carnarvon. The Life-boat was again manned and proceeded to her assistance, and having taken her crew of four hands off, returned ashore about 8 A.M., the Life-boat being re-housed at noon.—Expense of services, 42l. 12s. 6d.

Feb. 27. — ABERSOCH, CARNARVONSHIRE. — Oldham Life-boat. — About 1.15 A.M. signals of distress were observed from St. Tudwell's Roads. There was a whole W.S.W. gale and very heavy sea at the time. The Life-boat was promptly launched and found that the s.s. Telephone was drifting, her cables having parted. The Life-boat stood by until the vessel was beached, her crew managing to get ashore without help.

Immediately afterwards, another signal was observed to leeward, and on the Oldham reaching the spot, the ketch Seaman, of Amlwch, was found in a sinking condition, with her crew of four hands lashed to the rigging, from which position they were rescued in a very exhausted condition.—Expense of service, 37l. 9s.

Feb. 27. — NEWHAVEN, SUSSEX. — Michael Henry Life-boat. — At 2 A.M. the Coastguard reported that a vessel, about six miles to the S.E. of the harbour, was firing signals of distress. The crew of the Life-boat were assembled and an application made for the assistance of the harbour tug, but the Harbour Master did not think it advisable for the tug to go out of the harbour in such a hurricane. Two attempts were then made without the tug, but it was found to be impossible. After a time the wind moderated somewhat and the Life-boat was eventually towed to the vessel, which proved to be the s.s. Sola, of London. Her machinery had broken down while bound from Antwerp to Newport (Mon.). At the request of the Master the Life-boat stood by until she was taken in tow by two tugs, and then returned to port, arriving about 1 P.M. — Expense of service, 36l. 19s.

Feb. 27. — CARDIGAN. — Lizzie and Charles Leigh Clare Life-boat. — During the night there was every indication of a heavy gale approaching, and the Coxswain of the Life-boat determined to keep watch all night. Shortly after 4 A.M. on the 27th idem, when it was blowing a whole gale from N.N.W. and a heavy sea running, he saw signals made from a vessel in the bay. He summoned his crew and launched the Life-boat. On arriving alongside they found the ketch Mouse, of Cardigan, with the sea breaking over her, and the crew of four hands in the rigging. They were taken with all despatch into the Life-boat and landed at Penrhyn Castle shortly after 10 A.M. — Expense of service, 19l. 17s. 6d.

Feb. 27. — NORTH BERWICK, HADDINGTONSHIRE. — Life-boat Norman Clark. — A telegram from Anstruther was sent to the Coxswain of the Life-boat at North Berwick stating that a fishing-boat was in great danger off that place, and that the Life-boat stationed there was unable to get out owing to the violence of the gale. This message was received a few minutes before 7 A.M., and by five minutes past seven the Life-boat had started to go to her assistance. The vessel, which proved to be the smack Providence, of Cellardyke, was reached about 9 A.M., but by this time the wind had veered round more to the westward and the smack managed to anchor about a quarter of a mile from the shore. At the request of the skipper the Norman Clark stood by him while an attempt was made to get into harbour and this was eventually accomplished. As the services of the Life-boat were required no longer she returned to North Berwick, which was reached in safety about 2 P.M. in spite of the wind having risen to a perfect hurricane. The behaviour of the Life-boat caused the liveliest satisfaction, and the crew were delighted with their craft.—Expense of service, 22l. 17s.

Feb. 27. — NEW BRIGHTON, CHESHIRE. — Queen Steam Life-boat. — During a heavy westerly gale and rough sea, the Coxswain of the Life-boat received a message that a vessel had foundered off North Wall and that the crew had taken refuge in the rigging. The crew was promptly summoned and the Queen proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the Fingal, of Dublin, a large four-masted barque of over 2,000 tons register. Great difficulty was experienced in getting alongside, but it was eventually accomplished, and the crew of 32 hands were rescued from their perilous position and landed at New Brighton.—Expense of service, 10*l.* 1*s.* 6*d.*

Feb. 27.—CAMPBELTOWN, ARGYLL-SHIRE.—James Stevens No. 2 Life-boat.—On the occasion of the wreck of the barque Argo, of Fredrikstad, near Mac-harioch the crew of the Life-boat at Southend were assembled, but as it was very doubtful if that boat could effect a rescue, the caretaker wired for the Campbeltown Life-boat to be sent. At 9.30 A.M. the latter boat was launched and proceeded under sail in a heavy sea and a whole gale from W.N.W. to the barque. A tug having been despatched shortly afterwards, she picked up the Life-boat, and towed her within a half-a-mile of the wreck, which they found on a reef of rocks with her hull almost under water and the crew in the rigging. The anchor was let go and she veered down, got a line aboard and rescued the nine men. The Coxswain then got clear, and the tug taking them in tow again returned with all haste to Campbeltown. The rescue was only carried out just in time, as the barque went to pieces within a few minutes of the men being taken off. It subsequently transpired that as soon as the vessel struck three of the crew went ashore in a small boat to summon help. Two of them then attempted to return, together with a landsman, but the boat was blown away and never seen again. There is little doubt her unfortunate occupants perished. The Norwegian Government subsequently awarded each member of the Life-boat's crew a medal and diploma in recognition of the gallant and timely help, in saving nine of their fellow-beings, who were face to face with death when delivered from their peril.—Expense of service, 17*l.* 3*s.* 3*d.*

Feb. 27.—GROOMSPORT, Co. DOWN.—Chapman Life-boat.—Shortly after 9 A.M. the Coastguard reported that a barque about a mile N.W. of Copeland Islands was signalling for "immediate assistance." The Coxswain assembled his crew and launched the Life-boat. On arrival they found she was the barque Hjertness, of Sandefjord, bound from New Zealand to Glasgow with a cargo of timber; one of her cables had parted and there was great risk, in the strong W.N.W. gale which was blowing, that the other might also carry away. The sea was so heavy that the Life-boat could not go alongside, so she was taken under the stern and by means of ropes the crew of twelve hands and a pilot were lowered into her. A dog which was on board was also rescued. Sail was then made and the boat beat back for Groomsport; on the way they fell in with a tug which towed them nearly home. On landing the men were in such a drenched, miserable and famished state that their immediate needs were cared for by the Honorary Secretary of the Branch.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 12*s.*

Feb. 27.—MARYPORT, CUMBERLAND.—Civil Service No. 5 Life-boat.—A gale which was described as a "perfect hurricane," drove the Hougomont, a large four-masted vessel of 2,000 tons, ashore at Allonby, when bound from San Francisco to Liverpool with a general cargo. As the tide rose the huge waves washed right over the vessel, and the crew, who were in danger of being washed overboard, had to take refuge in the rigging. On information being sent to Maryport, orders were given for the Life-boat to go to her assistance. Owing to there being no tug available and to the impossibility of the Life-boat getting out of the harbour without one, some delay was occasioned, but on the arrival of the Life-boat twenty-five of the hands on board were transferred to her and landed at Allonby. The tide had turned and was ebbing by this time, so the captain and six others elected to remain on board, and landed later. During the afternoon the Life-boat carriage was sent to Allonby and the Life-boat conveyed back to her station by road.—Expense of service, 26*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*

March 1.—PADSTOW, CORNWALL.—Arab Life-boat.—Shortly after noon it was reported that the steam trawler Birda, of Milford, was on the "Doombar" with the sea washing right over her. Rockets were at once fired, and while the crew were being assembled, the pilots, who were on the spot, with the assistance of their wives and daughters, launched the Life-boat in readiness. She proceeded to the steamer and rescued the crew of nine men. There was a moderate W.N.W. gale with rough and squally weather.—Expense of service, 13*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.*

Rather later in the day, the weather having moderated somewhat, the captain requested the Coxswain to put him and his crew on board again, so that an attempt might be made to save the vessel when the tide made. The boat was launched and the crew conveyed to the steamer; they then took a rope off to her from the capstan house, by means of which and her own engines she was eventually got off and taken into safety.—Property salvage case.

March 2.—SOUTHEND, ESSEX.—James Stevens No. 9 Life-boat.—At 9.30 A.M. the Coxswain received a telegram from Shoebury that a barge had foundered. As a whole southerly gale was blowing, and a rough sea running, the Life-boat proceeded to her assistance. The barge Mary Ann, of London, was found close to the West Shoebury buoy in a sinking condition, but the Coxswain seeing another barge—the Edith, of Rochester—sunk at the Middle Buoy with the crew in the rigging, he went to her first and rescued the two men; he then returned to the Mary Ann and, as she was making water rapidly, took her crew of two men into the Life-boat and landed all four about 1 A.M. He had just carried this out when a further message, stating that another barge was in distress, was received. The Life-boat once more immediately put to sea, but after a fruitless search for some hours, she returned again to her moorings.—Expense of services, 24*l.*

March 9.—YARMOUTH, NORFOLK.—John Burch Life-boat.—This Life-boat was launched in the afternoon to the assistance of the schooner Arthur Wyatt, of Beaumaris, which was seen to run aground on the Scroby Sand while bound from Hull to Teignmouth with a cargo of coal. The Life-boatmen were at once engaged to try and save the vessel, and in this, with the assistance of a tug, they were successful and the Life-boat was re-housed by 8.30 P.M.—Property salvage case.

March 11.—WEXFORD, IRELAND.—James Stevens No. 15 Life-boat.—Shortly after noon in a strong S.S.W. breeze and rough sea this Life-boat was sent to the assistance of the yawl Gannett, of Wexford, which had grounded about a quarter of a mile from the Point Light. The boat was sailed to the mouth of the harbour and was there picked up by a tug, which towed her as near to the vessel as possible. She then ran down to the yawl, but by that time she was beginning, with the flood tide, to beat over the bank, so the Life-boat stood by until she was safe and then accompanied her into harbour, being re-housed about 5.30 P.M.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 18*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 12th March, 1903.

Voted 1,065*l.* 10*s.* 1*d.* to pay the expenses of assemblies of crews, watching, etc., or launches at the following Life-boat Stations, with the view of assisting those on board vessels in distress: Anstruther, Appledore Nos. 1 and 2, Bridlington Quay, Brighton, Broadstairs, Broughty Ferry, Bull Bay, Caister No. 1, Castletown, Dungeness No. 1, Falmouth, Gorleston (Steam Life-boat), Hayling Island, Hilbre Island, Holyhead (Steam Life-boat), Hoylake, Hythe, Irvine, Johnshaven, Looe, Margate No. 2, New Brighton (Steam Life-boat), Newquay (Cornwall), North Sunderland, Palling No. 1, Penzance, Piel, Plymouth, Point of Ayr, Porthdinllaen, Porthoustock, Porth Rhuffydd, Pwllheli, Sennen Cove, Southend-on-Sea, Southend (Cantyre), St. Ives, Stornoway, Swansea, Thurso, Walmer, Wexford, Weymouth, Whitburn, Whithorn, Winchelsea, Winterton No. 1, and Yarmouth.

Also 4*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.* to Helpers at Kessingland and Workington, who were injured while assisting to launch those Life-boats for service.

Also a gratuity of 15*l.* to R. HEADON, ex-Coxswain of the Clovelly Life-boat; and a further grant of 36*l.* 8*s.* to two daughters of a Life-boatman, who lost his life on the occasion of the deplorable accident to the Portrush Life-boat in 1889.

March 16.—CARDIGAN.—Lizzie and Charles Leigh Clare Life-boat.—In the early morning, while a strong gale was blowing, signals of distress were seen from a ketch in Cardigan Bay. The Life-boat was promptly launched and went to her help. She proved to be the ketch Morcel, of Treguier. The crew declined to leave her, but asked that some help might be given to them. Two Life-boatmen were therefore put on board and with their assistance, sails were set and the vessel brought to a safe anchorage.—Property salvage case. Balance paid by Institution, 17*l.* 18*s.*

March 16.—WINTERTON, NORFOLK.—Reserve Life-boat.—In a strong S.W. breeze the schooner Agnes, of Faversham, stranded near the Cockle Light-vessel. A yawl put off to her assistance, but on arrival signalled for more help. In response, the Life-boat proceeded to her and, having put some men on board, who assisted in laying out anchors, she stood by until the rising tide floated the schooner clear. The Life-boat then returned ashore.—Property salvage case.

March 23.—APPLEDORE, DEVONSHIRE.—Jane Hannah Macdonald Life-boat.—About 1.15 P.M. the ketch Camille, of Nantes, while bound from that place to Fremington, with a cargo of oil, attempted to come through the "south gut" and stranded. In response to her signals of distress the Life-boat launched and went to her assistance. Two Life-boatmen were put on board and with their help the ketch was got off, and taken into the West Appledore, but she was leaking so much that it was necessary to beach her to prevent her sinking.—Property salvage case.

March 25.—DUNBAR, HADDINGTONSHIRE.—William Arthur Millward Life-boat.—About half-past five in the morning, information was received that the schooner Guide, of Faversham, bound for Grangemouth from London with a cargo of pig-iron, was ashore on a reef of rocks near Whitesands, a considerable distance from the shore. The Life-boat and the rocket apparatus both proceeded to the scene of the wreck, but the latter could not render any assistance on account of the distance being too great. At the request of the Captain the Life-boat stood by the vessel for nearly nine hours and was able to render considerable help, although the position of the vessel from the first was hopeless. The crew, however, with one exception, declined to leave their vessel, so the Life-boat returned ashore, arriving about 3 P.M. The vessel meanwhile was lying badly holed and bumping heavily, and as it was evident the crew were in great danger the Hon. Secretary decided to put a watchman on duty.

About 1 A.M. next morning there was a rumour that the vessel had gone to pieces, but this proved to be incorrect. It appeared the crew had endeavoured to launch their own boat, but it was immediately swamped and one of the crew nearly drowned. The Life-boat again put off and rescued the seven men still on board, returning to Dunbar at 11 A.M. There was a strong S.E. wind and moderate sea at the time.—Expense of services, 31*l.* 14*s.* 4*d.*

March 25.—TENBY, PEMBROKESHIRE.—William and Mary Devey Life-boat.—During the night, signals of distress were seen to the eastward from the Coastguard station. On it being reported, the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the s.s. Peritia, of Flensburg, bound from Burryport to Rostock, with a cargo of coal. It transpired that while the steamer was crossing Llanelly Bar the cargo shifted, and when trying to trim it the mate and one seaman took a candle into the hold, which caused an explosion, blowing off the hatches and badly injuring the two men. At the request of the Captain these two men were taken into the boat and landed. The Life-boat afterwards returned to the vessel and stood by her until she was brought to a safe anchorage, where she remained until about midday on the 26th idem.—Expense of service, 50*l.* 1*s.*

In the meantime her cargo had been trimmed, and the vessel again put to sea. Shortly afterwards the cargo again shifted and the vessel became unmanageable. Distress signals were shown, and in response the William and Mary Devey again went to her aid. There was a strong S.W. wind and a ground sea. Before the Life-boat reached the steamer the flood tide had brought her into somewhat smoother water, but her bulwarks were then under water and the bridge was nearly awash. As many of the Life-boatmen as could be spared were put on board, at the request of the Captain, and worked until she was got out of immediate danger. The Life-boat then left her and she was brought into the harbour next tide.—Property salvage case.

March 26.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Robert and Susan Life-boat.—This Life-boat was launched to the assistance of some of the local fishing cobsles, in consequence of the southerly wind suddenly increasing to a gale, and endangering the return of the boats. In one case where the coble was to leeward and unable to carry sail she was taken in tow and brought into harbour.—Expense of service, 7l. 3s. 6d.

April 3.—GREENORE, Co. LOUTH.—Sir Arthur Blackwood Life-boat.—About 4.30 P.M., the Coastguard observed two steamers approaching Carlingford Lough from seaward, but not by the proper channel. The keepers of the Haulbowline Lighthouse therefore hoisted a signal and warned them of their danger, and on this being observed both vessels turned and attempted to put to sea again: one succeeded in getting clear, but the other went on to the rocks and remained fast. As the weather was threatening and a strong S.W. breeze blowing, it was decided to launch the Life-boat. This was done at 6.45 P.M., and she anchored, at 7.15 P.M., as near the vessel as possible in case her services should be required. Soon after 11 P.M. she was able to get alongside, and the Coxswain boarded the vessel, which proved to be the s.s. Bosphorus No. 48, of Constantinople, bound from Greenock to that place. He asked the master if he required assistance, but he declined, at the same time asking that the boat should stand by him. Shortly after, the steamer commenced to move on the rock, which strained her very much, and finding that there was a great deal of water in the engine-room, the crew with one exception decided, on account of the dangerous position, to leave her. They were accordingly taken into the Life-boat and landed at 1.30 A.M. After the men had left her the vessel righted herself, and when the tide made came off the rock; the hand who had remained on board steered her into a safe place and let go the anchor. Next morning the remainder of the crew went aboard again, got up steam and, although she was leaking badly, were able to take her into safety.—Expense of service, 18l. 18s.

April 7.—SCARBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE.—Queensbury Life-boat.—While the fishing boat Rosebud, of Lowestoft, was being sailed from that place to Lerwick, by two Shetland fishermen who had just purchased her, she was brought up by stress of weather and had to anchor in Scarborough Bay. After lying there all day, the wind, which was blowing from North, suddenly increased about 8 P.M. to a hurricane, and very shortly afterwards the Rosebud burnt a flare for assistance. The Life-boat at once put off; on getting alongside, the skipper stated his anchors were dragging and that he required help to get into the harbour. At his request the Coxswain put two Life-boatmen on board, they then weighed anchor and sailed in, the Life-boat meanwhile remaining close at hand in case her services should be required.—Expense of service, 19l. 11s.

April 8.—CULLERCOATS, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Co-operator No. 1 Life-boat.—Thirteen fishing-cobsles were endeavouring to return home while a heavy sea was breaking on the bar. As they would incur considerable risk in crossing, the Life-boat was launched at 9 A.M., and stood by the boats until they safely reached the shore. She then returned ashore and was re-housed at 11.30 A.M.—Expense of service, 9l. 10s.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 9th April, 1903.

Voted 338l. 2s. 9d. to pay for launches of Life-boats, assembly of crews, &c., at the following Life-boat Stations, with the view of assisting vessels in distress:—

Appledore No. 2, Aranmore, Broughty Ferry, Bull Bay, Caister No. 1, Clacton-on-Sea, Cloughy, Dunbar, Dungarvan Bay, Gorleston No. 1, Lowestoft No. 1, Peterhead, Rhoscolyn, Southend-on-Sea, Worthing, and Yarmouth.

Also the thanks of the Institution, inscribed on vellum and framed, to Mr. F. LE BOULANGER, Honorary Secretary at Swansea, and Mrs. LE BOULANGER, for their indefatigable work in connection with the lamentable accident to the Swansea Life-boat on the 1st February.

Also an aneroid barometer, mounted on a shield and bearing a suitable inscription, to Capt. H. JONES, Harbour Master at Port Talbot, for his gallantry in attempting to save life on the above occasion. Also letters of thanks to the District Inspector, Lieut. HOWARD ROWLEY, R.N., and Mr. WILLIAM CARNEY, the Graving Dock Master, for their services.

Also 22l. to men at Groomsport, Kessingland, Johnshaven, Tenby, and Walmer, for injuries received in connection with Life-boat work.

Also a yearly pension and certificate to E. W. WOODS, P. LE RICHE, and T. H. TUICK, late Coxswains at Gorleston, St. Heliers, Jersey, and St. Ives, respectively, on retiring.

Also a pension to T. BONIFACE, Assistant Coxswain at Eastbourne, on resignation.

April 12.—BUCKIE, BANFFSHIRE.—James Sharpe Life-boat.—A little before 6 P.M., the Coxswain of the Life-boat received a telegram from the Coastguard at Portsoy, stating that a vessel was riding at anchor in Sandsend Bay, labouring heavily, and should anything go wrong with her anchors she must drive ashore. He at once consulted the Honorary Secretary, and it was decided to send the Life-boat to Sandsend. There was a strong north-westerly gale blowing, accompanied by snow showers, a very heavy sea, and it was dead low water spring tides; owing to this latter fact, it was impossible to launch the boat near the boathouse. It was therefore decided to try a creek at the east end of Ians-town, but when this place was reached it was found that there was too little water. The boat was then transported to Strathlene, about two miles from Buckie, and a successful launch was effected. With the wind and tide in her favour, within two hours the boat got to Sandsend; she found the schooner Maria, of Barsseel, labouring very heavily at anchor, but she did not appear to be dragging her anchors. Communication with the vessel was made by means of a line and the Coxswain offered to take the crew off. This offer was refused, as they preferred to remain with their vessel; the Captain however asked that the Life-boat might stand by him. At midnight, after the boat had been standing by for three hours, the wind became stronger and the Coxswain again asked if he should take the crew off, but as they persistently refused, the Life-boat ran for Portsoy. About 4 A.M., as had been anticipated, the Maria went ashore and became a total wreck, the crew being rescued by local fishermen. As the gale continued all the next day, it was not until the 14th that it was possible to take the Life-boat back to her station, where she arrived at 4 A.M. on the 15th having had to contend with a head wind all the way.—Expense of service, 26l. 9s. 1d.

April 15.—APPLEDORE, DEVONSHIRE.—Jane Hannah MacDonald Life-boat.—While the ketch Sylph, of Bideford, was bound for that port with a cargo of coal, she stranded on the South Tail and showed signals of distress. In response, the Life-boat was at once launched to her assistance, and within a quarter of an hour was alongside the vessel. At the request of the Master he and his mate were taken into the Life-boat and landed at Appledore.—Expense of service, 20l. 14s.

April 15.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Bradford Life boat.—At 8.55 P.M. flares were observed from a vessel on the Brake Sands by the lookout man on the east pier, and reported to the Harbour Master. Orders were at once given for the Life-boat and the tug to go to her assistance. On arriving at the vessel, which proved to be the ketch Stour, of Harwich, they found she had lost both her anchors, her sails were split and that she had drifted on to the edge of the Brake Sands. The Trinity House steamer while making for Ramsgate saw the signals of distress, steamed to her, and had succeeded in getting her clear of the sand by the time the Life-boat and tug had arrived. Some of the Life-boatmen were put on board and the tow rope having been transferred from the Trinity House steamer to the tug a start was made for Ramsgate, which was reached soon after midnight. The weather was fine and clear, but a fresh N. wind was blowing with a moderate sea.—Expenses paid by Board of Trade.

April 26-27.—MOELFRE, ANGLESEY.—Star of Hope Life-boat.—At midnight, the Coxswain of the Life-boat observed two schooners, about half a mile to S.E. of the station, showing signals of distress. As there was a strong easterly gale and very heavy sea, he at once assembled his crew and launched the Life-boat to their assistance. On arriving at the first vessel, which proved to be the Belt, of Beaumaris, they found she was in grave danger of her anchors dragging, so took the crew of four hands off; they then proceeded to the County of Cork, of Amlwch, which was in a similar state, and having taken her crew of three also into the Life-boat, returned ashore, arriving at 5 A.M. There was such a heavy swell running inshore that it was not possible to land with any safety. After a wait of more than two hours however a landing was effected and the boat was re-housed at 7.30 A.M.—Expense of service, 17*l.* 5*s.*

April 27.—FILEY, YORKSHIRE.—Hollon the Second Life-boat.—Several of the fishing cobles which put to sea early in the morning attempted to return about 8.30 A.M. on account of the E.S.E. breeze which, together with the sea, was rapidly increasing. As their return was attended with a certain amount of danger, orders were given for the Life-boat to be launched without delay. About 9 A.M. she proceeded to the "Brig," where there was a heavy sea running, and remained there until the six cobles in the vicinity had safely made the bay; she then went to the south side of the bay and stood by while the remaining crafts also got out of danger, returning ashore about 2 P.M.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 17*s.*

April 27.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Robert and Susan Life-boat.—In response to signals of distress shortly after 10 P.M., the Life-boat went to the assistance of the s.s. Attiki, of Andros, Greece, which ran on to the rocks at Newbiggin Church Point and was badly damaged. There was a moderate S.E. wind, rough sea and thick weather at the time. The captain and one of the crew refused to leave the ship, but twenty-five of the men elected to go ashore, so the Life-boat landed them soon after midnight, and the boat was re-housed at 2 A.M.—Expense of service, 22*l.* 7*s.*

April 26-27.—WEXFORD.—James Stevens No. 15 Life-boat.—In response to a telephone message, stating that signals were being fired at the Tuskar Lighthouse, the Life-boat was launched and proceeded there. On arrival the s.s. Manchester Market, of Manchester, was found on the rocks with so much water in her, that part of the crew had taken refuge in the lighthouse. At the request of the master, who was still in the vessel, the Life-boatmen agreed to land the second mate, in order that he might communicate with the owners, four sailors going ashore at the same time. An attempt was afterwards made to land the men from the lighthouse, but the sea was so heavy it was impossible.—Expense paid by owners.

Next day the James Stevens No. 15 went out again, and succeeded in taking off the twenty-six men who were still in the lighthouse and landed them during the afternoon.—Expense of service, 27*l.*

May 10.—ARKLOW, Co. WICKLOW.—Frances and Charlotte Life-boat.—At 4.35 P.M. the coastguard reported that a vessel was on the Arklow Bank, and without delay the Life-boat was despatched to her aid. It was 5 o'clock when she crossed the bar and within an hour and a half she arrived at the vessel, which was the ketch Fair Fanny, of Bideford, but no one was found on board. The boat then proceeded to the South Arklow light-vessel where it was found the crew of the vessel had taken refuge, when they abandoned their ship before the arrival of the Life-boat. The men, four in number, were transferred to the boat and landed at Arklow.—Expense of service, 23*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 14th May, 1903.

Voted 156*l.* 8*s.* to pay the expenses of assembling the crews or launching the following Life-boats, with the view of assisting vessels in distress: Appledore Nos. 1 and 2, Berwick-on-Tweed, Caister No. 1, Dungeness No. 1, Gorleston No. 1, Hoylake, Margate No. 1, Palling No. 2, Robin Hood's Bay and Scarborough.

Also 10*l.* towards a fund which had been raised at Port Talbot to reward those who rendered important help in the work of rescue after the accident to the Swansea Life-boat on the 1st February. Also 2*l.* to one of the survivors who also rendered assistance.

Also medical expenses amounting to 1*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.* to one of the helpers who was injured at the launch of the Campbelltown Life-boat on the 22nd January, 1903.

Also a yearly pension to JAMES BERRY, Coxswain, and CLARK SWIFT, Signaller, at Lyme Regis and Appledore respectively, on their resignation.

Also a commuted pension to R. GARRATT, late Coxswain of the Ramsey Life-boat.

Reported that H.M. the German Emperor had awarded three silver watches to the officers and 30*l.* to be divided between the fifteen other members of the crew of the Aldeburgh Life-boat, in recognition of their services in rescuing the crew of the German barque Antares, in October 1900.

May 29.—HARTLEPOOL, DURHAM.—Temporary Life-boat.—In a dense fog, about 7.30 P.M., the s.s. Perseverance, of Glasgow, ran aground on the Garrison Head Rocks, to the north of Hartlepool lighthouse, while bound from Tyne-mouth to Middlesbrough with a general cargo. Shortly after she struck, the life-saving apparatus fired a rocket over her, but the men at the time showed no disposition to leave their vessel. A man was put on the look-out, and a watch kept. About 1.30 A.M. on the 30th

May the tide made, and the vessel's danger increased; the No. 3 Life-boat was therefore despatched to the wreck in tow of a tug. There was a very thick fog prevailing, but by means of signals made between the tug and the vessel with their steam syrens the tug was able to ascertain the position of the wreck, and take the Life-boat into close vicinity. It was then about 2 A.M., and after the Life-boat had stood by the vessel for an hour the master and crew decided to abandon her; they were therefore taken into the Life-boat and conveyed ashore; the vessel subsequently became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 13*l.* 9*s.* 6*d.*

June 4.—STROMNESS, ORKNEY ISLANDS.—Good Shepherd Life-boat. About 3.20 A.M. rockets were observed from the lighthouse, and on the Honorary Secretary learning that a vessel had stranded on the Kirk Rocks, he immediately despatched the Life-boat to her assistance. There was a thick fog, a strong westerly wind blowing and a moderate sea. The Life-boat reached the vessel about 5 A.M., and she proved to be the steam trawler Star of Peace, of Aberdeen, homeward bound from the fishing grounds; she was lying in a very exposed position, and in danger of going to pieces. The crew of nine hands were promptly taken on board and landed in safety shortly before 7 A.M. The Life-boat, in performing this service had to use both her sails and oars, and is reported to have behaved splendidly.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 5*s.*

June 9.—COURTOWN, CO. WEXFORD.—Robert FitzStephens Life boat. — During a moderate north-easterly gale in the morning the schooner Blue Grit of Dublin, at anchor off Courtown, parted her cable and began drifting on to Breanoge Head. As the position was extremely dangerous, the crew of the Life-boat were assembled and the boat launched. Unfortunately in doing so she took the ground, and it was only after great exertion on the part of the crew and launchers that she was properly floated. In the meantime the schooner managed to just scrape clear of the rocks and get a little to seaward under her foresail. She then drifted southward and still appeared in danger of grounding. The Life-boat therefore kept in the vicinity until the Coxswain was satisfied the vessel was out of danger, and then returned ashore, the boat being re-housed during the evening.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 15*s.*

June 9.—HOYLAKE, CHESHIRE.—Coard William Squarey Life-boat.—At 12.30 P.M. a flat was observed off Hoylake with main gaff carried away and mainsail blown away. A quarter of an hour later she drifted ashore on to the East Hoyle Bank in a heavy surf, the seas breaking over her and making her position very dangerous. It was deemed advisable to send her assistance, and the crew of the Life-boat were summoned. Twenty-four minutes later the boat, after being transported a mile along the shore from the boat-house, was launched, and proceeded to the distressed vessel. While this was being done a schooner also grounded in close proximity to the flat, and on the arrival of the Life-boat the captain of the schooner, which proved to be the Thomas Pearson of Beaumaris, requested the Coxswain to stand by until she floated; meanwhile the Life-boatmen rendered assistance in putting out an anchor and helping with the sails. As the weather moderated and the vessel was not making much water, the captain decided when she got clear to continue his voyage, but two young men of the crew refused to go on in her, so were landed by the Life-boat. With regard to the flat, which was the Hannah of Runcorn, when the tide ebbed some fishermen went to her and as the tide rose helped to work her into Hilbre Pool; the services of the Life-boat were therefore not required.—Expense of service, 37*l.* 2*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 11th June, 1903.

Voted 90*l.* 3*s.* 10*d.* to pay the expenses of assembly of the crews or launches of the following Life-boats with the view of helping persons in distress: Appledore No. 1, Aranmore, Ballywalter, Caister No. 1, Gorleston No. 1 and Steam Life-boat, Palling No. 2 and Winterton No. 2.

Also 6*l.* 3*s.* 6*d.*, including medical expenses, to persons injured while on duty with the Life-boats at Winchelsea, Sidmouth, and Swansea.

Also a final grant of 75*l.* to one of the helpers at Winchelsea, who was permanently injured when assisting to launch that boat in 1901.

July 6.—HARTLEPOOL, DURHAM.—Charles Ingleby Life-boat.—In the early morning the ketch Young John of Montrose, when off Berwick, while bound from Middlesbrough to Fisher Row, lost her mainsail in a northerly gale, and ran back for Hartlepool under her stay foresail. About 8.30 P.M. she was observed in the bay in an unmanageable condition, and drifting to leeward in the direction of the Long Scar Rocks. A tug went to the vessel's assistance and got her tow-rope, but this parted and she drifted to the weather-edge of the rocks. In the meantime the Coxswain assembled his crew and launched the Life-boat and rowed across the bay to the wreck. She went about half a mile S.S.E. of the harbour, and then, using her drogue, dropped before the sea towards the vessel in heavy breaking water, which carried her nearly two cables' length beyond before she could be brought up. With great difficulty, owing to the sea constantly washing over her, the Life-boat, after two attempts with her grapnels, succeeded in getting alongside. A child was at once thrown from the ketch and was caught in the arms of one of the Life-boatmen, and immediately afterwards the crew jumped into the boat; the grapnel line was then cut and a start made for the harbour.

It was a time of terrible anxiety for those on shore who were watching the fortunes of the boat and the brave souls in her. After they signalled that they were returning ashore the boat was entirely lost sight of for half-an-hour; the wreck and the tugs near her could still be seen with the naked eye through the waning daylight, but no glimpse could be caught of the Life-boat even with good glasses. After a considerable time the anxious watchers feared that some terrible mishap had occurred, and that those on board had perished. Their fears however proved unfounded, and to the intense relief and joy of all she at last re-appeared, having been lost to sight in the heavy waves. When the Life-boat got under the lee of the breakwater a tug took her in tow, the men being much exhausted.

This service, which was considered locally to have been one of the bravest and finest pieces of life-saving work rendered for many years in the bay, was watched as long as daylight lasted by thousands of people from the Hartlepool cliffs. It was after dark when the boat returned, and when they learnt that the vessel's crew had been successfully rescued a tremendous cheer was given in recognition of the gallantry of the Life-boatmen.

Two days later the following letter appeared in the columns of the Northern Daily Mail, written by the master of the ill-fated vessel:—

"SIR,—In your last night's issue of the Northern Daily Mail there was an account of the rescue of myself, my son, and my two mates, by the crew of the Hartlepool Life-boat. As master of the Young John, which is now broken to pieces on the rocks, I should like to express my gratitude to those who came to our rescue. Had there been any delay we must have perished. In another thirty minutes it is probable that help would have come too late. This is now the third time that I have been shipwrecked, and of the three, the situation of Monday night was I consider the worst, yet, I have never seen a Life-boat come along quicker, and I take this opportunity of thanking them for their timely help.—Yours truly,

(Signed) "JOHN JANSEN."

The Committee of Management after considering this case decided to award the Coxswain, Mr. THOMAS W. ROWNTREE, the silver medal of the Institution, together with a copy of the vote inscribed on vellum and framed, and to each member of the crew an additional monetary reward, in appreciation of the skill and bravery displayed—Expense of service, 27*l.* 3*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 9th July, 1903.

Voted 58*l.* 3*s.* to pay the cost of launching the following Life-boats, night watching, etc.:—Ballywalter, Dunbar, Palling No. 2 and Wexford.

Also gratuities amounting to 34*l.* to old life-boatmen at Wells and Courtown.

Also 15*l.* to M. GRUNMILL, 2nd Coxswain at Skyness, for injury while engaged in Life-boat work.

Also a yearly pension to G. BURGESS and W. THOMAS, late Assistant Coxswain and Signalman at Gorleston and Llanddoyrn, respectively.

Also 15*s.* to the Coxswain at Courtown, who sustained a slight injury to his foot while engaged in the Life-boat service.

July 18.—CAISTER, NORFOLK.—Nancy Lucy Life-boat.—In a moderate N.W. breeze and a rough sea, about 5.40 P.M., the watchman observed a large steamer on the N.W. part of the Cross Sand, and within a few minutes the Light-vessel on the sand fired signals to draw attention to the casualty. The No. 2 Life-boat was at once launched and, on arrival at the vessel, found she was the s.s. Bramham, of London, which had stranded while on her way to Hartlepool for a cargo. The Captain engaged the Life-boatmen to try to save his vessel, and after working for upwards of five hours, with the assistance of some Gorleston Life-boatmen and steam-tugs, the steamer was got afloat and was able to proceed on her voyage. This was the first launch of the new Life-boat, which had only been placed on her station a few days previously, and although the sea was not sufficiently rough to thoroughly test her qualifications, she is reported to have behaved very well indeed and launched beautifully.—Property Salvage Case.

July 18.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—James Stevens No. 3 Steam Life-boat.—This Life-boat had just returned from an exercise when the s.s. Bramham, referred to above, was reported to have stranded on the Cross Sand. She immediately put to sea again, and reached the vessel about the same time as help from Caister. The Life-boatmen were engaged to help to get the vessel off, and on this being accomplished they returned to Gorleston, arriving there soon after 2 next morning.—Property salvage case.

July 18.—HILBRE ISLAND, CHESHIRE.—Admiral Briggs Life-boat.—The Life-boats stationed at Hilbre Island and Hoylake visited New Brighton to take part in a demonstration which had been organized at that place in aid of the "Life-boat Saturday Fund." In order that the conditions respecting the return of the Life-boats to their respective stations the same night might be fulfilled, both boats left New Brighton at 8.30 p.m. in tow of the tug London. When off Leasowe and in the Rock Channel, the Hoylake boat cast off and proceeded under oars to the Hoyle Lake, where horses and her carriage were waiting to transport her to her house. The London then proceeded with the Hilbre Island Life-boat, Admiral Briggs, and in spite of advice given by the Life-boatmen, stood too near the North Bank, with the result that about 9.30 p.m. she ran ashore. There was a moderate E.N.E. breeze and heavy swell and thick weather. As the tug was in a dangerous position and ran a risk of capsizing, the Life-boat remained in attendance until she floated off with the rising tide about 2.30 a.m. and came to an anchor in deep water; thence the Life-boat was rowed to Hilbre, and reached there at 3.45 a.m.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 13th August, 1903.

Voted 17*l.* 13*s.* 2*d.* in payment for launches of the Life-boats, or for assemblies of the crews with the view of assisting vessels in distress, etc., Broadstairs, Cloughey, Dunbar, Eyemouth, Fraserburgh, Gorleston, Harwich, Holyhead, Kessingland No. 1, Lowestoft No. 2, Margate No. 2, Porth Rhuffydd, Rhoscolyn, Seaton Carew, Shoreham, St. Helier's, Whitby No. 1, Wick.

Also £15 to Life-boatmen at Middlesbrough, Porth Rhuffydd, and Weston-super-Mare in consideration of illness, &c., contracted in the Life-boat service.

Also yearly pensions to WILLIAM MORGAN, and JOHN BAWDEN, ex-signalman and ex-bowman at Swansea and Weston-super-Mare respectively.

Aug. 14.—COURTOWN, Co. WEXFORD.—Robert FitzStephens Life-boat.—

About 2 a.m. in the morning the schooner Supply, of Barrow, while anchored off Courtown Harbour, showed signals of distress. The signals were observed and after some delay caused by the great difficulty in launching the Life-boat in a heavy surf, she reached the vessel. There was a moderate S.S.E. gale blowing, accompanied by a very rough sea with heavy surf, and the vessel was riding to a very weak chain, her cable having parted some hours before.

The Coxswain offered to put some men on board with a view of navigating the vessel into safety, but the master deemed it advisable to abandon the vessel and land in the Life-boat. The master, his wife and child, together with the crew of three hands, were accordingly taken on board and placed in safety. Shortly afterwards the schooner broke adrift and drove ashore near to the North Pier, where she ultimately became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 34*l.* 8*s.* 6*d.*

Aug. 14.—MONTROSE, FORFARSHIRE.—Sarah Jane Turner Life-boat.—This Life-boat was called out in a S.E. moderate gale and heavy sea during the afternoon to the assistance of several fishing boats, which were endeavouring to return to port. It was seen that their passage over the bar would be attended by considerable danger; the Life-boat was therefore taken to the mouth of the river ready to render any help that might be necessary. Some of the boats, knowing the risk they would incur, decided to keep off; but those which did return, accomplished it happily without disaster. The Life-boat was then taken back and placed at mooring about 6.20 p.m.

About 8 p.m. rockets were again fired, as another boat was seen approaching the mouth of the river. The Sarah Jane Turner was therefore again manned, and proceeded down the river. By this time the fishing boat—which proved to be the Mon Ami—was showing signals of distress, and it was only by the very timely assistance rendered by the Life-boat that she was eventually saved and the crew rescued from their peril.—Expense of services, 15*l.* 7*s.*

Aug. 15.—JOHNSHAVEN, KINCARDINESHIRE.—Sarah Ann Holden Life-boat.—

About 7 P.M. a fishing boat, the Venus Star, of Johnshaven, was seen approaching port. As the sea was very rough and the wind blowing strongly from S.E., the boat was watched with anxiety from the shore. An hour later she burnt a flare, and the Life-boat crew were summoned. It was then seen that the sea was too rough for the Venus Star to attempt to enter the harbour, and rockets were fired to warn her. The Life-boatmen, who remained on duty all night, launched the Life-boat about 4 A.M., and proceeding to the distressed vessel, lay by a short time, finally conducting her safely into harbour.—Expense of service, 14l. 6s.

Aug. 15.—TOTLAND BAY, ISLE OF WIGHT.—Robert Fleming Life-boat.—During a westerly gale and heavy sea, the Coxswain of the Life-boat saw the yacht Avonia showing a signal of distress on account of her anchor dragging. The crew were promptly summoned, and the Life-boat proceeded to the vessel, which she found was not under control owing to the rudder-head being damaged. Three of the Life-boatmen were placed on board, and the skipper was taken ashore in order to have the rudder-head repaired. Later the yacht was taken to Yarmouth, the Life-boat accompanying her.—Property salvage case.

Aug. 15.—CLOVELLY, DEVONSHIRE.—Elinor Roger Life-boat.—During the evening, the schooner Mary Stewart, of Greenock, and the yacht Gadfly, of London, lay off Clovelly. About 7 P.M. the master of the former vessel hoisted a signal, which the Coxswain of the Life-boat understood to be a signal of distress, and shortly afterwards he saw a similar signal from the yacht. In the meantime he had launched the Life-boat and proceeded to the schooner. Those on board, five in number, requested that they might be landed, and were taken into the Life-boat, which then proceeded to the yacht, from which vessel she took off three more persons, all of whom were landed by 8 P.M. There was a strong westerly breeze and a moderate sea at the time.—Expense of service, 17l. 19s. 6d.

Sept. 6.—PADSTOW, CORNWALL.—Arab Life-boat.—At 11.45 P.M. the Coxswain of the Life-boat was called by the Chief Officer of Coastguard, who stated that a small yacht named the Shamrock was outside the harbour and unable to get in. The wind was light, but there was a heavy ground sea, and the yacht was in great danger, through the influence of the tide, of being driven on to the rocks. The assembly signal was promptly fired, and a few minutes after midnight the Life-boat was on her way to the distressed vessel. On reaching her communication was effected, and the Life-boat, by taking the yacht in tow, was the means of saving the vessel and the three persons on board.—Expense of service, 16l. 8s.

Sept. 9.—CLACTON-ON-SEA, ESSEX.—Albert Edward Life-boat.—In the early morning a message was received stating that a vessel was showing distress signals on the Maplin Sands. The crew of the Life-boat were immediately summoned, and the boat proceeded to the position indicated. The vessel proved to be the schooner Martha of Rudkjobing, bound for London with a cargo of timber. On the arrival of the Life-boat a tug was found to be already in attendance, but at the request of the master of the schooner the boat stood by him until the tide flowed sufficiently to enable the tug to tow her clear. The weather was rough and squally, with a westerly gale and a rough sea.—Expense of service, 9l. 2s.

Sept. 9.—EASTBOURNE, SUSSEX.—Olive Life-boat.—During the night a strong westerly gale suddenly sprang up, and about 5.30 A.M. the Coxswain and crew of the No. 2 Life-boat were asked if they would launch to the assistance of the pleasure yacht Britannia, which had been anchored off the pier, but was dragging her anchors and likely to become a total wreck. The sea was exceptionally rough, making it impossible to launch an ordinary shore-boat; the No. 2 Life-boat was therefore launched and the pleasure boat was eventually saved.

The Life-boat is reported to have behaved splendidly, and the crew are loud in their praises of her. As the yacht belonged to a fellow-fisherman, the crew make no charge for their services.

Sept. 9. SWANAGE, DORSETSHIRE.—William Erle Life-boat.—About 8 A.M., after a very heavy S.W. gale, it was found that a small pleasure boat belonging to one of the members of the Life-boat's crew, had broken from her moorings and was drifting out to sea. As there was no boat at Swanage suitable to be launched, the owner of the boat requested that the Life-boat might go and try to bring it back. As he was able to get a crew who were willing to give their services the Life-boat was accordingly lent him, and the boat saved.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 10th Sept., 1903.

Voted 177l. 3s. in payment for launches of Life-boats, or for assemblies of the crews, &c., at Arklow, Campbelltown, Courtown, Cromer, Gorleston (steam), Hayle, Hilbre Island, Llanddwynn, Padstow, Point of Ayr, Porthdinllaen, Rhyl, Tynemouth No. 2, Watchet, Yarmouth and Yealm River.

Also 50l. towards the local fund raised for the benefit of the widows and dependent relatives of the three Life-boatmen who lost their lives in the disaster which befell the pleasure yacht New Skylark off Yarmouth on the 1st September.

Also 42l. 10s. to men injured in the Life-boat service at Watchet, Tenby, and Aranamore.

Also a gratuity of 6l. to the widow of the late Coxswain at Hasborough.

Sept. 10.—NEWQUAY, CARDIGANSHIRE.—Frank and Marion Life-boat.—At 12.15 A.M., during a westerly gale and heavy sea, a signal of distress was observed about two miles from the shore. The crew of the Life-boat were immediately summoned and the Life-boat despatched to the vessel, which proved to be the ketch Isabel, of Milford, bound for Newquay in ballast. Her sails had been blown away, and she was rapidly drifting towards the rocks. Both anchors were let go, and when the Life-boat got alongside, they were still holding; the master however requested that he and his crew, seven all told, might be taken ashore. They were accordingly taken into the boat and safely landed at 3 A.M. Three hours later, as the vessel was still riding to her anchors, the Life-boatmen determined to try to save her; accordingly they borrowed suitable sails, launched the Life-boat, and returned to the ketch. They then bent the sails, weighed anchor, and after an unsuccessful attempt to get to Newquay, took the vessel to Aberayron, reaching there at 11 A.M.—Expense of first service, 21l. 5s. Second service, Property salvage case.

Sept. 10.—ST. MARY'S, SCILLY.—Henry Dundas Life-boat.—Shortly before 2 P.M. a small sailing boat, belonging to St. Mary's, named the Kathleen, was observed to be in difficulties in Crow Sound. The sea was very rough, and a whole gale was blowing from W.S.W. The crew of the Life-boat were promptly summoned, and without loss of time the boat was despatched to her assistance. On arrival, it was found that some of the gear had carried away, and that the boat was then at anchor off Windmill Cove. The two visitors on board were transferred to the Life-boat, which then returned to St. Mary's, where they were landed. Further assistance was sent to the Kathleen, and when the weather moderated, she was sailed home.—Expense of service, 7l. 7s.

Sept. 10.—LOOE, CORNWALL.—Ryder Life-boat.—In a moderate south-westerly gale, increasing to a whole gale and a heavy sea, this Life-boat was launched at 2.45 P.M. to the assistance of the smack William, of Par, which was in grave danger of driving on to the rocks in Plaidy Bay. The Life-boat succeeded in getting the two hands safely on board, and took them ashore. Shortly afterwards the wind, which had been dead on shore, shifted to the westward; this movement saved the vessel, and next day she was brought into the Roads.—Expense of service, 9l. 8s. 6d.

Within an hour of returning to shore from the above rescue, the services of the Life-boat were again required. By this time the wind was blowing a whole gale from west, and the sea was very heavy. A lugger—the Anemone, of Looe—drifted into a dangerous position on a lee shore. She had no anchors on board, and the sails and spars were carried away or useless. Her crew made vain endeavours to save their craft, but it soon became evident that she was doomed to destruction. In the meantime, the Life-boat reached the lugger, and remained as near to her as was possible with any degree of safety. When the master decided to abandon his vessel, she was only about half a mile from the shore; he then signalled to the Life-boat to come alongside. With consummate skill and splendid judgment—which was afterwards described by an eye-witness as a “triumph of seamanship”—the Coxswain manœuvred the Life-boat near enough to the drifting vessel to enable two of her crew to jump on board; he then repeated the operation, and succeeded in rescuing the other two, happily without the slightest injury to the Life-boat, although the wind was blowing with hurricane force, and the boat appeared at times to be almost standing upright. The Life-boat also behaved admirably on the return journey, and by 7.30 p.m. the rescued men were safely ashore. The Committee of Management, after fully considering the case, decided, as a mark of approval, to grant each member of the crew an additional reward for his services on this occasion.—Expense of service, 17l. 11s.

Sept. 10.—YOUGHAL, IRELAND.—Mary Luckombe Life-boat.—During a terrific gale from S.W. the yacht Zepherine, of Cork, was reported to be in a dangerous condition, dragging her anchors and frequently washed by the heavy seas. Two men had boarded her some time previously to make her secure, and their position was one of great peril, as their boat had broken adrift, and they had no means of leaving the endangered yacht. The Life-boat was launched, and succeeded in getting the two men on board, and having made the yacht more secure by another anchor, returned ashore.—Expense of service, 8l.

Sept. 10.—HELICK HEAD, DUNGARVAN BAY.—James Stevens No. 16 Life-boat.—At 5 p.m. the fishing yawl Victory, of Waterford, was out fishing when the wind increased to a whole gale from N.N.W. There was not sufficient water for her to get into harbour, she therefore anchored off Ballinaguel, but in the tremendous storm and heavy sea she commenced to drag her anchors. As the sea continually broke over her, signals of distress were shown, and in response the Life-boat went to her assistance. Having taken her crew of four hands on board, the Life-boatmen let go another anchor in order to try to save the vessel; they then returned to Ballinaguel and landed the rescued men. Owing to the additional anchor the yawl rode out the gale, and two days later, when the weather moderated, the Life-boat again put off and succeeded in saving the vessel. The gale is described as one of the worst ever experienced on that part of the coast.—Expense of service, 17l. 8s.

Sept. 10.—ABERSOCH, CARNARVONSHIRE.—Oldham Life-boat.—About 5 p.m. signals of distress having been observed from St. Tudwell's Road, the Life-boat crew were assembled as soon as possible and the Life-boat launched. She proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the schooner Dora, of Portmadoc; in the strong W.N.W. gale her sails had blown away and her anchors were dragging. The crew of five men were got safely on board the Life-boat, which then returned and landed them near the Life-boathouse. The sea was very heavy, and after the service was over there was too much surf to attempt to put the Life-boat back in her house, she was therefore placed at moorings and re-housed next day.—Expense of service, 12l. 8s. 6d.

Sept. 10.—KINGSTOWN, Co. DUBLIN.—Hannah Pickard Life-boat.—A very heavy gale from N.E. sprang up suddenly at Kingstown, and some of the vessels in the harbour commenced to drag their anchors. A trawler and a yacht stranded, their crews being saved by the Coastguard; as the Coxswain of the Life-boat feared other vessels might be wrecked and lives lost, he launched the No. 1 Life-boat and went to some yachts lying at anchor; in most cases they declined assistance, but one man elected to come ashore, so was taken into the Life-boat and landed.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 18*s.*

Sept. 10.—MEVAGISSEY, CORNWALL.—James Chisholm Life-boat.—Towards the evening the wind, which was blowing from W., rapidly increased until it was blowing a whole gale, and great anxiety was felt for two fishing boats—the Ripple and Kingfisher, which were anchored off Pentewen. A local fishing lugger went to their assistance, but, owing to the force of the storm, could do nothing, and it was only with great difficulty that she regained the harbour in safety. The Life-boat was then despatched to help the endangered boats. Having landed the crew of three men from the Ripple she proceeded to the Kingfisher, and afterwards accompanied her into safety, being re-housed at 8 P.M.—Expense of service, 10*l.* 3*s.*

Sept. 10.—CLOVELLY, NORTH DEVON.—Elinor Roget Life-boat.—The s.s. Ralph, of London, anchored off Clovelly during the afternoon on account of a S.S.W. gale which had suddenly sprung up. Later in the day signals of distress were seen from her, and in response the Life-boat launched to help her. By this time the wind had increased to a whole gale, and it was with great difficulty, on account of the heavy sea running, that the Life-boat was got alongside. After repeated efforts the crew of six men were eventually taken in safety from the bridge of the vessel into the Life-boat, which then returned ashore.—Expense of service, 21*l.* 1*s.*

Sept. 10.—MOELFRE, ANGLESEY.—Star of Hope Life-boat.—About 8 P.M. a ketch was observed showing signals of distress, the crew of the Life-boat were quickly mustered and the boat proceeded to her assistance. She proved to be the ketch Sarah, of Beaumaris, and in the strong N.E. gale and very heavy sea she was dragging her anchors. The Life-boat anchored to windward, veered down to her, went alongside and succeeded in getting the master aboard; the three men of the crew however were unable to get into the Life-boat while alongside: lines were therefore thrown to them and they were hauled through the water, and happily got into the Life-boat without accident. The Life-boat then returned ashore and was re-housed next day.—Expense of service, 17*l.* 18*s.*

Sept. 10.—FISHGUARD, PEMBROKE-SHIRE.—Appin Life-boat.—Messengers from the harbour works and the Coast-guard informed the Coxswain that signals of distress were being shown by the schooner John and Margaret, lying at anchor in Fishguard Bay. The Coxswain at once took steps to assemble the crew, and as soon as possible launched the No. 2 Life-boat. There was a terrific gale from N.N.E. with heavy squalls and rain and a very heavy sea. The Life-boat at first tried to reach the vessel under oars, but in consequence of the very strong wind could not make any way; she therefore hung on to a vessel which was at anchor and set her sails. With considerable difficulty and after three attempts the Coxswain then succeeded in reaching the schooner, and rescued her crew of three hands.

There were a large number of vessels taking shelter in Fishguard Bay, and in performing this service the Life-boat, while trying to avoid one vessel, came into collision with a schooner; but happily the damage done was not sufficiently serious to prevent the Life-boat performing this useful service. She returned with the rescued men to the new jetty at Goodwick about 11.30 P.M., but in consequence of the very heavy sea running it was impossible to land there. The Coxswain therefore took the Life-boat to the outer wooden jetty, where two hours later the crews were landed. The Life-boat was then placed at moorings, and when the weather moderated next day, she was re-housed.

The John and Margaret had been badly damaged by another vessel colliding with her in the height of the gale.—Expense of service, 32*l.*

Sept. 10.—PWLLELI, CARNARVON-SHIRE.—Margaret Platt of Stalybridge Life-boat.—About 9 P.M., during a whole N.N.E. gale and very heavy sea, signals of distress were observed. The Life-boat crew were promptly assembled and the Life-boat launched. On arrival at the vessel, which proved to be the fishing smack Two Brothers, of Pwllheli, the crew were taken on board and brought to Pwllheli; but, owing to the heavy sea, it was not possible for them to land.

In the meantime the fishing smack, although in a very dangerous position and running great risk of her cable parting, managed to ride out the worst of the storm, and at 5 A.M., when the weather moderated somewhat, the Life-boat returned to her, placed the crew on board again, and they, with the help of three of the Life-boatmen, succeeded in bringing the smack into safety.—Expense of service, 22*l.* 9*s.*

Sept. 10.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Bradford Life-boat.—The barge Cetus, of London, was in great danger of foundering, in a whole S.S.W. gale and very heavy sea, and about 10.10 P.M. she showed signals of distress. In response the Life-boat, in tow of a tug, was immediately despatched to her assistance. On arrival, they found the barge's anchors were dragging and that she was dangerously near the Brake Sands.

Three of the Life-boatmen managed to get on board her, and having passed a rope to the tug, the anchor-chain was slipped, and she was towed into safety at 11.30 P.M.—Payment arranged by the Board of Trade.

Sept. 11.—At 1.15 A.M. a message was received that the South Goodwin light-vessel was firing signals of distress and appeared to be drifting. By this time the wind had got round to N.N.W. and was blowing a whole gale. In the existing weather it was considered that the tug was not sufficiently powerful to take the Life-boat, but an order was given for an attempt to be made. A start was effected in very bad weather, and they succeeded in getting within two miles of the light-vessel; but the sea was then too heavy on the sands for them to proceed further, and they therefore, at 4 A.M., stood in towards the land. At daylight a Dover tug was observed to be near the lightship, and her anchors appeared to be holding. The Bradford and the tug then made for Ramsgate; but on getting near the Middle Fairway Buoy, the barge Challenge, of Weymouth, was observed in a disabled condition with her sails and gear blown away. Four of the Life-boatmen were placed on board, and, with their assistance, communication was effected with the tug and the barge taken in tow, Ramsgate Harbour being again reached at 8.15 A.M.

Sept. 11.—ST. IVES, CORNWALL.—James Stevens No. 10 Life-boat.—Just after daybreak a vessel was observed apparently disabled and rapidly drifting towards the land. A rocket promptly summoned the crew of the Life-boat and the boat was launched. The weather was very rough, with a strong N.N.W. gale blowing and a heavy sea running. The Life-boat reached the vessel—the Enterprise, of Beaumaris—when she was half-way between St. Ives Head and Godrevy; she was then drifting helplessly. As soon as the Life-boat got alongside the crew, comprising three men and a boy, jumped on board, and the Life-boat returned to Harbour, landing them safely shortly before 7 A.M.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 12*s.*

Sept. 11.—CLOVELLY, NORTH DEVON.—Elinor Roget Life-boat.—About 6 A.M. a brigantine was seen in Barnstaple Bay with her sails blown away, and the Life-boat was launched to her assistance. There was a N.N.W. gale blowing and the sea was very rough, but by skilful handling the Coxswain managed to reach the vessel as she was drifting into Morte Bay, and with great difficulty got alongside. She was found to be the Brigantine Flimby, of Maryport; her sails were blown away, her bulwarks gone, in fact, she was a perfect wreck with 4 feet of water in her hold; three of the crew were promptly got on board, and it was then ascertained there were two more below. The Life-boat, in the meantime, was in great danger of being dashed to pieces against the wreck, and it was only due to her crew's seamanship and skill that the rescue was effected without serious damage to the Life-boat. The remaining two men were after several attempts eventually got into the boat, the last being the master, who was in a very exhausted condition. Very shortly after the vessel became a total wreck. A start was made for Clovelly, and the shipwrecked men were landed in safety soon after noon. The Committee made a special grant to each member of the crew for this excellent service.—Expense of service, 19*l.* 14*s.*

Sept. 11.—WELLS, NORFOLK.—Baltic Life-boat.—During the heavy northerly gale which raged on the night of the 10th and morning of the 11th Sept., a sad case of shipwreck occurred off Holkham. The ketch Eliza Patience, of Great Yarmouth, while bound from Hull to Lowestoft, went ashore in the early morning, and unfortunately the master was drowned before help could reach them. It appeared that as soon as the vessel struck the seas commenced washing over her, and the crew, consisting of three men, had to take to the rigging; shortly afterwards the ship's boat was smashed to pieces, and the master, fearing she too was breaking up, dived overboard, only to meet his death within a few minutes by drowning. In the meantime information of the wreck had been conveyed to Wells, and the Life-boat was able to rescue the other two men from their perilous position, and within half an hour of taking them on board had put them ashore out of all danger.—Expense of service, 17*l.* 14*s.* 3*d.*

Sept. 11.—SELSEY, SUSSEX.—Lucy Newbon Life-boat.—At 6 A.M. one of the large fishing vessels was seen to have broken from her moorings in the westerly gale that was blowing and to be rapidly drifting to sea. Another of the fishing boats put off and succeeded in placing a crew on board the drifting vessel. When they endeavoured to set the sails however the gear carried away, and the crew on board were in grave danger. The Life-boat was then despatched with the least possible delay, but on arrival it was found that the crew had managed to get back to the vessel which took them out, and the other craft was left to her fate. The sea still being very heavy, the Life-boat remained with the fishing vessel with the two crews on board, and accompanied her back to Selsey, which was reached in safety soon after 10 A.M.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.*

Sept. 11.—PORT ISAAC, CORNWALL.—Richard and Sarah Life-boat.—During a N.N.W. gale a vessel was seen off

Port Isaac flying signals of distress. The Life-boat was promptly launched, and within an hour had reached the vessel, which proved to be the brig l'Union, of Amoy, bound for Port Talbot with a cargo of wood. On the arrival of the Life-boat the brig was anchored, and for some hours the Life-boat stood by her, but as there was a bad ground sea and the vessel was practically water-logged, the whole of the crew, consisting of six persons, were taken off and safely landed during the afternoon.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 9*s.*

Two days later the abandoned brig, notwithstanding her leaky condition and the quantity of water in her hold, still rode to her anchors, and the Captain decided to try to save her. In response to a request for the use of the Life-boat, she was again launched and took the crew back to the brig. The Life-boatmen also went on board and rendered valuable assistance at the pumps, weighing anchor, &c., and eventually the vessel reached Padstow in safety, where the necessary repairs were put in hand.—Property salvage case.

Sept. 11.—SHERINGHAM, NORFOLK.—William Bennett Life-boat.—At 7 o'clock in the morning a report was received at this Life-boat station from the Coast-guard that there was a small steam yacht in distress off Cley, and that the Life-boat at Blakeney was preparing to go to her assistance. There was a whole N.N.E. gale blowing with a very heavy sea. Later in the morning a telephonic message was received stating that the Blakeney Life-boat could not get out of harbour. The William Bennett, whose crew had been assembled in readiness, was thereupon launched, and in due course she reached the yacht, which proved to be the Asteroid, of London. Her engines had broken down, and in the violent storm her anchor was dragging. Eleven of the Life-boatmen were put on board, and with their assistance the anchor was weighed and canvas set; she then proceeded to Yarmouth accompanied by the Life-boat, which rendered valuable help by towing when necessary. Yarmouth was reached in the early morning of the 12th, and the Life-boat regained her station the same evening.—Property salvage case.

Sept. 19.—RUNSWICK, YORKSHIRE.—Cape of Good Hope Life-boat.—In a thick fog the s.s. Viola, of North Shields, bound from Carthage to the Tees with a cargo of iron ore, ran aground at Kettleless Point, and subsequently became a wreck. The Life-boat was promptly launched and took off seventeen of the crew, the Captain and two others refusing to leave their vessel. There was a moderate E.N.E. breeze and rough sea at the time, but later the weather got worse, the Life-boat therefore returned to the steamer, when the three men on board, realizing the danger they were in, were taken into the Life-boat and landed.—Expense of service, 22*l.* 7*s.*

Sept. 20.—ROBIN HOOD'S BAY, YORKSHIRE.—Mary Ann Lockwood Life-boat.—This Life-boat was launched about 8 A.M. to the assistance of the ketch Eva of Lowestoft, which was reported to be in a dangerous position to the north of Robin Hood's Bay. On arrival at the ketch it was found the crew had deserted her. A search was therefore made for them, and shortly afterwards the ship boat was found containing the three men of the crew and a dog, all of whom were taken into the Life-boat and safely landed. The wind was light, but the sea heavy; the ketch subsequently became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 10*l.* 8*s.*

Sept. 20.—ST. MARY'S and ST. AGNES, SCILLY.—Henry Dundas and James and Caroline Life-boats.—Both these boats were called out about 8 A.M. by urgent signals for assistance from the barque Queen Mab of Glasgow. It appeared that when entering the harbour the vessel struck on the "Spanish Ledges," and was in a sinking condition. The Life-boatmen were engaged to try to save the vessel, and with great difficulty, by continuously keeping the pumps working, they succeeded in keeping her afloat until the afternoon, when she was towed into the harbour.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 6.—HILBRE ISLAND, CHESHIRE.—Admiral Briggs Life-boat.—At 5.15 P.M. a sloop was observed flying signals of distress. A whole gale was blowing from W.S.W., and as it increased it caused the sea to rise tremendously. The Life-boat was launched without delay, she reached the distressed vessel, which proved to be the sloop James of Liverpool, at 6.40, and took off all her company of three men, who would otherwise have been swept away and drowned. As it was not possible for the boat to return to her station, she made for Hoylake, and landed the shipwrecked people there. Next day the Life-boat was taken back to Hilbre Island.—Expense of service, 36*l.* 1*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 8th Oct., 1903.

Voted 399*l.* 4*s.* 2*d.* for payment of launches of Life-boats, or assemblies of the crews, &c., with the view of assisting vessels in distress at Angle, Appledore No. 1, Bembridge, Blakeney, Brancaster, Dover, Dunbar, Dungeness No. 1, Gorleston Steam and Nos. 1 and 3, Hayle, Hayling Island, Holyhead No. 2, Huna, Ilfracombe, Kingsdowne, Margate No. 1, Newquay (Cornwall), Padstow No. 2, Palling No. 1, Rosslare Harbour, Scarborough, Shoreham, Southsea, St. David's, St. Ives, St. Peter's Port, Walmer, Walton-on-Naze, Watchet, Whitby No. 1 and Yarmouth.

Also 10*l.* to the second cowswain at Tlanddwyn, who was injured on service on the 9th Aug.

Also a yearly pension and certificate of service to FREDERICK ELLIOTT on his resigning the post of Coxswain of the Queenstown Life-boat.

Also a gratuity of 25*l.* and a certificate of service to WILLIAM COTTON, late Coxswain at Atherfield, and 5*l.* to an old Life-boatman at Lowestoft.

Also 3*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.* to a man injured at St. Anne-on-the-Sea.

Oct. 12.—SUNDERLAND, DURHAM.—George Woofindin Life-boat.—Late in the evening, while the schooner Emily Smeed of Aberdeen was being towed into harbour the rope parted, and owing to the strong sea running, the tug was unable to get another tow-line to her. Shortly afterwards the schooner stranded to the northward of the harbour; the Life-boat stationed at North Dock was immediately launched, and succeeded in taking off the crew of six men and landing them in safety.—Expense of service, 22*l.* 5*s.* 5*d.*

Oct. 12. — SWANSEA, GLAMORGANSHIRE.—Temporary Life-boat.—About 1 P.M. the Coastguard on duty reported that a French schooner was ashore at the mouth of the harbour. There was a strong S.S.W. breeze blowing and a rough sea at the time, with a heavy ground sea in the Channel; the coxswain therefore considered it advisable to take the Life-boat to the vessel. On arrival, she was found to be the schooner Irma, of Lannion. At the request of the master, the Life-boat stood by her for nearly six hours, when there being no further danger, the Life-boat was taken back to her station and re-housed.—Expense of service, 39*l.* 12*s.*

Oct. 14.—CLACTON-ON-SEA, ESSEX.—Albert Edward Life-boat.—During the afternoon the barque Sheffield, of Fredrikstad, stranded on the West Gunfleet Sands. Information reached Clacton at 4.30 P.M., and the Life-boat was at once launched, but on arrival at the vessel, the master declined the proffered help, at the same time requesting that the boat would stand by him, in case it should be necessary to leave the barque. As the tide rose, the position of the vessel became more critical, and at high tide the crew of eleven hands were obliged to abandon her, and ultimately she became a total wreck. The Life-boat landed the men in safety at 6.15 the next morning.—Expense of service, 38*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*

Oct. 14. — PAKEFIELD, SUFFOLK.—The Two Sisters, Mary and Hannah Life-boat.—At 8.20 in the morning, the steam drifter Glenlyon, of Aberdeen, was observed close in shore on the sands opposite Pakefield Lighthouse, in a dangerous position. The Life-boat was quickly launched, and taken alongside. It was found that the steamer had broken her propeller while engaged herring fishing, and was then in a leaking condition. The Life-boat assisted to get a hauser on board from an attending tug, and when this broke, established communication between them a second time. She then, together with the tug, succeeded in floating the vessel, and taking her and her crew of nine hands into safety.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 16.—PALLING, NORFOLK.—Hearts of Oak Life-boat.—The s.s. White Swan, of Newcastle, while bound from Sunderland to Constantinople with a cargo of coal, stranded about 7 A.M. on the Hasborough Sands. In response to the signals fired from the light-vessel, the No. 2 Life-boat was launched, and proceeded to the steamer. On arrival, the crew of twenty-two hands declined to leave their vessel, but at the request of the master, the Life-boat remained by him, and with the help of tugs, succeeded in saving the steamer and the men on board. There was a moderate westerly gale at the time, with heavy sea; the Life-boat therefore accompanied the vessel until she safely reached Yarmouth.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 16.—FLEETWOOD, LANCASHIRE.—Maude Pickup Life-boat.—This boat was launched at 6.45 P.M. to the barque Liv, of Laurvig, Norway, which left Douglas, Isle of Man, on the 14th October homeward bound in ballast. Two days afterwards, the vessel, after being blown about by the prevalent gales, sought shelter at Fleetwood, and came to anchor in "Lime Deep." The wind however which was N. to N.W., increased in violence with the rising tide. About 4.30 she broke from her moorings, and drifted rapidly on to Pilling Sands, where she went aground, and showed signals of distress. The crew of the Life-boat were quickly summoned, and the boat launched in charge of the second coxswain, in the absence of the Coxswain through illness. She had to beat up channel, and then bore down upon the stranded barque, with a fierce N.W. gale blowing, increasing sometimes to a hurricane, with frequent squalls of hail and rain. It being impossible to get the crew off the weather side of the wreck, owing to the broken water and wind, the acting coxswain brought the Life-boat to leeward, and succeeded in saving the seven hands on board. Considerable difficulty was experienced in carrying out this rescue, on account of the wreck rolling heavily; at times so much so that the whole of her deck was submerged. When all the men had been got safely into the Life-boat, she was manœuvred clear of the wreckage, and made for home, reaching there at 8 P.M.—Expense of service, 26*l.* 6*s.*

Oct. 19.—BLAKENEY, NORFOLK.—Zaccheus Burroughes Life-boat.—About 6 A.M. a ketch rigged vessel was seen apparently making for Blakeney Harbour, and shortly after it was noticed that, having entered the lower part of the harbour, she altered her course and stranded. The wind was blowing strongly from S.E. and the sea was moderately rough. A few men put off in a boat and went to the vessel, but her crew refused to leave her and asked for the Life-boat to come and stand by them in case the sea increased and imperilled their lives. The crew were accordingly assembled and the Life-boat launched. With considerable difficulty, on account of the strong tide, they eventually reached the vessel, and having laid out a kedge-anchor, succeeded in getting her off, and brought her into safety. She proved to be the Reaper, bound for Blakeney from Hull with a cargo of coal.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 12*s.*

Oct. 21.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Leicester Life-boat.—In the early morning the steam drifter Peep of Day, of Wick, ran aground on the North Bank, off Gorleston; and in response to her signals the No. 2 Life-boat put off to her assistance. The master engaged the services of the Life-boatmen to salve his vessel if possible. The sea was rough, but the wind was moderate; two anchors were laid out, and after three hours' work the vessel was hove clear on the rising tide. During this service the Life-boat was somewhat damaged, but was reported to have behaved well.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 24.—CAISTER, NORFOLK.—Nancy Lucy Life-boat.—At 2.30 in the morning the coastguards on watch saw flares on the Barber Sands, followed by signals from the Cockle light-vessel. Without loss of time the Life-boatmen were summoned and the Life-boat launched. On arriving at the Sands the Steam Drifter Shamrock, of Peterhead, was found stranded. The Captain at once engaged the services of the Life-boatmen to try to save his vessel. An anchor was then laid out, and shortly before daylight the steamer floated; she then proceeded to Yarmouth harbour, several of the Life-boatmen accompanying her, while the remainder took the Nancy Lucy back to her station. The weather was cold and hazy, with a moderate W.S.W. wind, with a rough sea on the sands.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 27.—BRIXHAM, S. DEVON.—Betsy Newbon Life-boat.—While the Life-boat was out for her quarterly exercise in a S.S.E. gale and very heavy sea there were several sailing vessels and steamers anchored in Torbay for shelter. One, a French schooner, Amiral l'Hermitte, of Dunkirk, was seen to be riding heavily a considerable distance to leeward; the Life-boat therefore went to her. On getting alongside she was found to be held by only one anchor, and the Captain, who was unable to speak English, made signs intimating that he wished the Life-boat to remain in case her services should be required. The assistant coxswain and two of the Life-boatmen were put on board the schooner, and assisted in the preparations for laying out another anchor. After standing by the vessel about four hours the wind veered to S.W. and the weather moderated somewhat, the Coxswain therefore considered it unnecessary to remain longer, and returned ashore, re-housing the Life-boat at 6.30 P.M.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 3*s.* 10*d.*

Oct. 28.—BOULMER, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Melissent Life-boat.—In a strong south-westerly wind and foggy weather the steam trawler Wild Rose, of North Shields, while homeward bound with a cargo of fish, ran on to the rocks off Boulmer. The Life-boat was quickly launched and proceeded to her. The crew at first refused to leave their vessel, but the master requested the Coxswain of the Life-boat to stand by until the tide flowed. This was accordingly done. When the vessel first struck there was a moderate swell, but as the tide made, the sea increased very rapidly and filled the vessel with water, the crew were therefore obliged to abandon her. The Life-boat took them aboard and landed them all—nine in number—shortly after 5 A.M. on the 29th Oct.—Expense of service, 29*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

Oct. 29.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—James Stevens No. 3 Steam Life-boat.—At 5.50 P.M. the Coastguard informed the Coxswain that a small boat was in difficulties in the surf to the south of the station. It was a fine moonlight evening, but the sea was rough and a strong S.S.E. breeze was blowing. Steam was raised with all despatch, and the Life-boat left as quickly as possible to help the occupants of the boat. After searching for half an hour the boat was found, and they had the satisfaction of rescuing the captain and four of the crew of the schooner Arcturus, of Pernau, which was lying in the Corton Roads. The men had been on shore to buy provisions, and while attempting to return to their vessel found the ebb tide and wind too strong for them. When rescued the boat was half full of water, and the occupants were in an exhausted condition. The Life-boat took the boat in tow, and finding the Arcturus, placed the men on board, she then returned to Gorleston.—Expense of service, 10*l.* 15*s.*

Nov. 2.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Robert and Susan Life-boat.—In a moderate to strong E.S.E. breeze, a rough sea and thick weather, the steam trawler Grecian Prince, of South Shields, ran on to the Beacon rocks. Information was conveyed to the Coxswain of the Life-boat, and he promptly launched the boat to her assistance. On reaching her it was found she had got off again, with the loss of her rudder and propeller; the Life-boat therefore stood by until a tug came and took her in tow to the Tyne.—Expense of service, 23*l.* 3*s.* 6*d.*

Nov. 6.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—James Stevens No. 3 Steam Life-boat.—Information reached Gorleston that a vessel was in distress on the Scoby Sands, and the steam Life-boat was accordingly despatched as soon as possible to her assistance. On arrival they found the schooner Phyllis and Mary, of Guernsey, rolling heavily on the sands with her back broken, but the whole of the crew, with one exception, refused to leave their vessel. The Life-boat therefore stood by them for some hours, but the pipe connected with the pump gave way and they returned ashore. Later in the evening as the tide rose it was decided to again send the Life-boat out, as the men on board the schooner were in considerable peril. Shortly after arrival the water rose to the level of the ship's deck, and those on board, numbering eight in all, were then only too ready to be taken into the Life-boat and conveyed ashore.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 3*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 12th Nov., 1903.

Voted 656*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.* to pay the expenses of assembling the crews or taking out the following Life-boats with a view of assisting the crews of vessels in distress:—Blakeney, Brighton, Broadstairs, Buckhaven, Caister No. 2, Dover, Falmouth, Formby, Gorleston (steam) and No. 1, Holyhead (steam), Howth, Kingstown No. 2, Littlehampton, New Brighton Nos. 1 and 2 (steam), Newhaven, Palling, Plymouth, Weston-super-Mare, Winterton No. 2 and Yarmouth.

Also 20*l.*, 3*l.* 11*s.*, 3*l.* and 2*l.* 10*s.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at Dover, Llanddwyn, Walton-on-Naze and Margate, respectively.

Also 2*l.* 10*s.* and 2*l.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at Flamborough and Porthoustock.

Also 25*l.* to the widow and children of F. RICH, late Coxswain of the St. Peter's Port Life-boat, and 10*l.* to the widow of the Assistant Coxswain of the Aldeburgh Life-boat.

Also a yearly pension and certificate to THOMAS JANE, Coxswain of the Cadgwith Life-boat; and a pension each to MICHAEL BOYLE, Assistant Coxswain at Aranmore; C. O'DONNELL, Bowman at Aranmore; and JOHN WARDROP, signalman at Campbeltown, on their retirement from their several posts.

Nov. 14.—PETERHEAD, ABERDEENSHIRE.—George Pickard Life-boat.—On the evening of the 13th Nov. a strong S.S.W. gale sprang up, accompanied by rain and fog. Next morning it had moderated slightly, but the sea was very heavy. Shortly after 8 o'clock a telegram was received stating that a vessel was ashore on the Scaurs of Cruden; the Life-boat was promptly launched, and proceeded, in tow of the tug Flying Scud, to the scene of the wreck, which was found to be the brigantine Astrea, of Christiansand, with her hull completely under water, and the crew in the rigging. After considerable trouble and danger the Life-boat got close to the wreck, and by means of a rope, the crew, eight in number, were taken safely into the Life-boat, which was then taken in tow again by the tug, and conveyed back to Peterhead.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

Nov. 17.—MONTROSE, FORFARSHIRE.—Sarah Jane Turner Life-boat.—About 10 A.M. the schooner Roska, of Svendborg, was being towed in by the harbour tug, and while crossing the bar, the tow-rope broke, and the wind, which was blowing strongly from the north, caused the schooner to drift between two reefs of rocks. The light-house keeper at Skurdyness, seeing there was considerable danger of her being dashed on to the rocks, at once signalled for the Life-boat, and the No. 1 boat was promptly launched, and proceeded to the vicinity of the vessel, which by that time had drifted south about half a mile. One anchor had been let go, which fortunately held, and this enabled the crew to get the vessel's head off the land and set some sails, and by this means some headway was made. The harbour tug then went alongside, and having got the vessel's tow-rope on board, another attempt was made to tow her, but again the hawser broke. The tug then put their own rope on board the schooner, and after this they succeeded in towing her into harbour. In the meantime the Life-boat stood by, in case her services should be required, after which she made for the harbour, and was replaced in her house.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 9*s.*

Nov. 18.—BLYTH, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Dash Life-boat.—At 5.15 P.M. the Coxswain saw signals of distress from a vessel off Blyth; he at once took steps to summon the crew, and launched the Life-boat. She was towed out to sea by the tug Livingstone, and found the s.s. Dunelm, of Sunderland, fast on the "Sow and Pigs" rocks. All the crew, with the exception of four, were taken into the Life-boat, which then brought them ashore. As the four men on the wreck were in considerable danger, the Life-boat, at the request of the master, again proceeded out; meanwhile the tide was making and the vessel filled with water, and about midnight it had reached her deck. The men on board were then rescued from their dangerous position and landed in safety in the Life-boat.—Expense of service, 24*l.* 18*s.*

Nov. 20.—GT. YARMOUTH, NORFOLK.—John Burch Life-boat.—About 1.30 in the afternoon a fishing boat was observed to ground on the Scroby Sand. One of the local yawls was at once sent to her help, and the signal fired to summon the Life-boat's crew. After the yawl reached the vessel—which proved to be the Ocean Pearl, of Banff—she signalled for the Life-boat to be launched, and this was accordingly done. On arrival, the master of the fishing-boat requested the Coxswain to stand by him until high water. As the glass was falling, and the wind from W.S.W. increasing, it was not deemed prudent for the yawl to remain in the vicinity of the stranded vessel; she was therefore sent home. The Life-boat stood by until 7 P.M., when the Ocean Pearl floated with the tide; and having seen her out of danger, she then returned to her station.—Expense of service, 48*l.* 15*s.*

Nov. 21.—THURSO, CAITHNESS-SHIRE.—Co-operator No. 3 Life-boat.—During a strong N.N.W. gale and rough sea this Life-boat put off in response to signals of distress from the schooner Barbara, of Wick, which, while bound to Thurso from Glasgow with a cargo of coals, had anchored in Scrabster Roads. The worst of the storm was then over, but the crew elected to be landed, and were therefore taken into the Life-boat and brought ashore.—Expense of service, 13*l.* 5*s.* 6*d.*

Nov. 21.—MOELFRE, ANGLESEY.—Star of Hope Life-boat.—At 3.40 P.M. the Coxswain of the Life-boat observed signals of distress displayed by two schooners at anchor in Moelfre Roads. He promptly mustered his crew, and launched the Life-boat. The first vessel reached was the schooner J.M.K., of Dublin, from which the crew of four were taken: the boat then went on to the Isabella, of Barrow, and rescued her crew of five hands. Both vessels were carrying cargoes of coal, and had put in through stress of weather. When the men were rescued, there was a heavy northerly gale, accompanied by a very rough sea which caused the anchors to drag. The Life-boat was reported to have behaved splendidly.—Expense of service, 24*l.* 9*s.* 3*d.*

Nov. 21.—HELVICK HEAD, Co. WATERFORD.—James Stevens No. 16 Life-boat.—At 5 P.M. signals of distress displayed by a fishing boat not far from Ballinacourty Light-house were seen by the Coastguard at Helvick Head. He at once took steps to inform the Life-boat authorities, and without delay the Life-boat was sent to render aid to those on board. It was a cold and wild night; the wind from N.W. was blowing a whole gale, and the sea very heavy. Within half an hour of launching, the Life-boat found the fishing boat St. Patrick, of Waterford, dragging her anchors and leaking. Her crew of three, who were exhausted from working at the pumps, were taken into the Life-boat, which then proceeded to Dungarvan, and landed them. When taking the Life-boat back to her station, the crew saw the abandoned vessel was still riding to her anchor, so they again went to her, got on board, pumped her clear, and succeeded in taking her to Dungarvan also. For the latter service the owners remunerated the salvors.

It was subsequently heard that there had been another fishing boat also in distress on the "Deadman Bank," but in the dark, the Life-boatmen were unable to find her. Happily, at high-water, she got off, and reached port in safety. Expense of service, 25*l.* 7*s.*

Nov. 28.—LLANDDWYN, ANGLESEY.—Richard Henry Gould Life-boat.—About 9 A.M., during a moderate gale from N.W. with very heavy sea, signals of distress were made by the smack Midsummer, of Douglas, when riding heavily at anchor four miles south of Llanddwyn. Rockets were at once sent up to assemble the Life-boat crew, she was promptly launched and proceeded to the distressed vessel. On arrival the crew of two men were taken into the boat and landed safely at Llanddwyn. Shortly afterwards the Honorary Secretary of the Branch received the following letter from Mr. John Jones, the master of the smack:—

"SIR,—I desire to thank the crew of the Llanddwyn Life-boat for the services they gave me and my mate Hugh Humphreys on the 28th November last, while riding out in a heavy gale in Carnarvon Bay on that date, when there was a very heavy sea running. My two anchors were out, one of which was parted and the rudder broken. We had but little hopes of getting to land safely. We made signals of distress, which, fortunately, were seen by the look-out at Llanddwyn. My mate saw a rocket going up from Llanddwyn, and in about an hour and a half afterwards we saw the Life-boat making for us under sail. The sea was very heavy, but the boat came alongside under our lee, and took the mate and myself off, and landed us safely at Llanddwyn. We now desire to return our best thanks to the crew of the Life-boat, through you, for having so quickly answered our signal of distress and coming out to save us when we had but little hopes of escaping a sailor's grave.—I am, sir, yours respectfully (signed) JOHN JONES, Master."

Nov. 28.—WHITBY, YORKSHIRE.—Robert and Mary Ellis Life-boat.—On the morning of the above date all the fishing cobles of Whitby were at sea, and about 1 P.M. commenced returning home. It was then half-tide, the wind easterly, and the sea growing fast, and broken on the bar. All the vessels got safely in except four, and the first of these to come for the harbour was the Abstainer, with three men on board; when on the bar she was struck by a heavy sea and capsized. The Coxswain of the Life-boat, who had been at sea in his coble, had just previously come ashore, and while running to the pier saw the casualty. He at once ordered out the Life-boat, and within seven minutes of the accident she was on the way to rescue the drowning men. In the meanwhile two of the other cobbles at great risk picked up the men, one of them nearly capsizing in the attempt.

The Life-boat then remained with the three cobbles until safe in the harbour, when she was taken ashore and re-housed.—Expense of service, 17*l.* 2*s.*

Nov. 28.—WICKLOW, CO. WICKLOW.—Robert Theophilus Garden Life-boat.—During a gale from E.N.E. and very heavy sea the schooner Sarah Jane, of Bridgwater, about 9.30 P.M. burnt flares, while at anchor about two miles from the harbour. The crew of the Life-boat were promptly summoned and the boat proceeded out. On arrival the Captain stated he did not require the Life-boat but was signalling for a pilot. He engaged however the services of the Life-boatmen, and five were placed on board. An attempt was then made to weigh the anchors but without avail, the cables were therefore slipped, and the vessel, with the assistance of the Life-boatmen, brought into harbour.—Property salvage case, balance paid by Institution, 8*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

Nov. 29.—BRIXHAM, DEVONSHIRE.—Betsy Newbon Life-boat.—A heavy gale having sprung up from the eastward the Coxswain thought it advisable to go to the boat-house to see how the vessels at anchor in the Bay would weather the storm. About 9.30 A.M. the Brigantine Patra of Brixham was seen to be in a very dangerous position riding heavily, the Life-boat therefore put off to her. On getting alongside two men were put on board, and the Captain with their help gave her more chain, in the hope she would ride out the storm in safety; he and his crew of five hands were then taken into the Life-boat which landed them at Brixham at 1 P.M.—Expense of service, 10*l.* 10*s.*

Later in the day the Life-boat was again called out, but her services were not eventually required.

Next day, the 30th idem, the weather moderated somewhat, and the wind went to E.N.E.; about 9 A.M. the Captain of the Patra, which happily did not founder in the gale, asked the Coxswain of the Betsy Newbon to put him and his crew back on board. This was accordingly done; two of the Life-boatmen were also put on board, and the Life-boat remained at anchor alongside. The pumps were tried and water was found in the vessel, in addition to the rigging being damaged. The Master asked the Life-boatmen to help pump the vessel out and take her into Torquay. All the men that could be spared were then placed on board, and after an hour's work at the pumps, one of the anchors and ninety fathoms of chain were got in, the other anchor slipped, and the vessel accompanied by the Life-boat taken into Torquay.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 30.—GOURDON, KINCARDINESHIRE.—Theophilus Sidney Echalaz Life-boat.—It was reported at 5.30 A.M. that a ketch had stranded on the rocks near the village, and a quarter of an hour later the Life-boat launched to aid her. She arrived to find the ketch Annie of Peterhead fast on the rocks making a good deal of water. As the crew did not wish to leave their vessel, several of the Life-boatmen boarded her and remained, until with the rising tide she floated.

The vessel then steered northwards with the Life-boat in attendance, but after proceeding some distance the water gained so rapidly that it was deemed prudent to make for Gourdon. Her course was accordingly altered, and the Life-boat piloted the ketch into the harbour.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 3.—PENMON, ANGLESEY.—Christopher Brown Life-boat.—Shortly before 10 A.M. the Coxswain of the Life-boat saw signals of distress displayed by the schooner Rebecca Mary of Carnarvon, which was at anchor in the entrance of the Menai Straits, he at once mustered the crew and proceeded to the spot.

Having got to windward of the schooner he anchored and veered down to her, went alongside and took off her crew of three hands and their dog. A start was then made to return, but on the way another vessel—the J. M. K.—was observed making signals, the Life-boat at once made for her and took her four hands aboard. The Life-boat then proceeded to Beaumaris, where the imperilled men were landed, and returned to her station next day. During this rescue the sea was very heavy, and the wind blowing a strong gale from south-west.—Expense of service, 17*l.* 19*s.*

Dec. 4.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Temporary Life-boat.—In the very early morning of the 1st Dec. a large, unknown steamer collided with the East Goodwin Light-ship. In response to her signals, several Life-boats in the vicinity put off. It was found however that she was not making much water, most of the damage being above her water line. It was cold, wintry weather at the time, the wind strong from N.E., accompanied by a heavy sea, but the light-vessel was able to remain at her station. During the two succeeding days the weather got worse, until on the night of the 3rd idem it was blowing a strong S.S.W. gale, with a very heavy sea. Shortly before midnight further signals were seen from the light-vessel, and the Life-boat, in tow of the tug Aid, was immediately despatched. About 2 A.M. a heavy sea struck the Life-boat, filling her with water and breaking the tow-rope, but she was picked up again and proceeded reaching the light-vessel at 4 A.M. She was labouring heavily, and shipping large quantities of water, and owing to her damaged bows, the master was afraid her cables would cut her down; he therefore asked the tug and Life-boat to stand by him, the weather being exceptionally bad. At 7.30 A.M. the master decided to slip his cables, and tow to Ramsgate. A tow-rope was passed by the Life-boat to the tug, which held her until 10 A.M. The weather was now improving; it was therefore decided to leave the light-vessel, and report the condition of affairs to the Trinity House authorities. Ramsgate was reached about 1 P.M., and steps taken for having the light-vessel replaced.—Expenses paid by Board of Trade.

Dec. 7.—CARDIGAN.—Lizzie and Charles Leigh Clare Life-boat.—The sloop Ann and Betsy, of Cardigan, while bound from Aberporth to Cardigan, in ballast, was observed to be in distress in Cardigan Bay. The Life-boat was launched with all despatch, and succeeded in rescuing her crew of three hands, who were landed in safety at Penrhyn Castle. There was a strong southerly gale and rough sea at the time, cold weather and sleet.—Expense of service, 30*l.*

Dec. 7.—FILEY, YORKSHIRE.—Hollon the Second Life-boat.—During a strong south-easterly gale, which suddenly sprung up, three of the fishing cobs of Filey were driven into a position of great danger off the "Brigg." The Life-boat was despatched to them, and remained near in case her services might be required, but the cobs were eventually able to reach the shore in safety.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 7.—MONTROSE, FORFARSHIRE.—Marianne Atherstone Life-boat.—A telephone message was received at Montrose about 8.20 A.M., stating that a small ketch was running for the harbour. As the wind was blowing a strong S.S.E. gale accompanied by a very heavy sea, it was considered she would incur great risk in crossing the bar. Scarcely had the crew of the No. 2 Life-boat assembled before they were signalled for from the Lighthouse at Scurdy Ness. The Life-boat was immediately launched and proceeded down the river, to find that the ketch which proved to be the Royal Gem of Montrose, bound from Bo'ness to Gourdon with coals, had been thrown by the force of the wind and sea on to the Annat Bank, where the seas were making a clean breach over her.

The Life-boat proceeded to windward, anchored, and veered down until she came alongside, when they found the two men on board were so benumbed with the cold that one of the crew of the Life-boat had to board her and assist them into the Life-boat; when this was successfully accomplished the boat proceeded to her station, which was reached about 10 A.M., and the rescued men were carefully attended and supplied with food and dry clothes.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 9*s.*

Dec. 7.—BRIDLINGTON QUAY, YORKSHIRE.—George and Jane Walker Life-boat.—The ketch Jehovah Jireh of Goole, while bound from Yarmouth to Shields, stranded to the south of Flamboro' Head. The weather was thick at the time, the sea very heavy, and a gale blowing from S.S.E. The vessel was happily seen, and without delay the Life-boat was sent to her. Owing to the position of the vessel and the very heavy sea the Life-boat encountered great difficulty in reaching the ketch, but after hard work it was accomplished, and the four persons on board saved. The vessel eventually became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 20*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 7.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—About 1.30 P.M. it was reported that a schooner, with a flag in her rigging as a signal of distress, was drifting towards the beach, apparently with a great deal of water in her. The crew of the No. 1 Life-boat were quickly mustered, and the boat despatched in tow of a tug. On reaching the vessel, which proved to be the schooner Mably Ann of Goole, the crew, who were working at the pumps, were taken into the Life-boat, which landed them safely at Gorleston. There was a whole gale blowing from S.S.E., and the sea was very heavy, when the rescue was effected.—Expense of service, 32*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 8.—NEW QUAY, CARDIGAN.—Frank and Marion Life-boat.—At 7.45 A.M., during a strong westerly gale and rough sea, a vessel at anchor in Cardigan Bay was seen to have a distress signal flying. The Life-boat was at once launched and went to her. On getting alongside, she found she was the ketch Telephone of Padstow bound to Cardigan from Cardiff, and that she was dragging her anchors. The two men on board promptly jumped into the Life-boat, but the Master was persuaded to return to his vessel, with six of the Life-boatmen, and by their help, the ketch was eventually brought safely into harbour.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 9.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Temporary Life-boat.—At 11 A.M. the watchman on the East Pier reported that a steamer was ashore on the Brake Sand; the weather was then thick with rain, a moderate S.S.W. gale blowing, and a rough sea. Orders were immediately given for the tug and Life-boat to proceed to her assistance. The Life-boat went alongside the steamer, which was the Alf of Stavanger, bound from Porsgrund to Ramsgate with a cargo of ice, and placed five men on board, a rope was then conveyed to the tug. The steamer meanwhile was bumping heavily, but with the flowing tide the tug succeeded towing her clear of the sands, and took her into Ramsgate.—Expense paid by the Board of Trade.

Dec. 10.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBRLAND.—Robert and Susan Life-boat.—The sudden rising of the sea having rendered it dangerous for some of the fishing cobsles to return to the shore, the Life-boat was launched at noon and remained in attendance until they all came in. One of them in doing so was struck by a heavy sea which nearly swamped her.—Expense of service, 6*l.* 16*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 10th Dec., 1903.

Voted 60*l.* 3*s.* to pay the expenses of the launches of the following Life-boats or assemblies of the crew with the view of assisting distressed vessels:—Blakeney, Boulmer, Broadstairs, Brixham, Buckhaven, Courtown, Donna Nook, Dover, Gorleston Nos. 1 and 2, Hornsea, Ilfracombe, Irvine, Kingsdowne, Lowestoft, Montrose No. 1, New Brighton No. 1, North Deal, Lowestoft No. 1, Pakefield, Palling No. 2, Ramsey, Ramsgate, Rhosneigr, St. Peter's Port, Whitby No. 1 and Yarmouth.

Also 10*l.* 4*s.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at Crail, Hornsea, and Skegness.

Also a yearly pension and certificate of service to GEORGE CALVERT, Coxswain of the Runswick Life-boat, on retirement; also a gratuity of 10*l.* to G. USHER, late Coxswain of the Hornsea Life-boat.

Also 40*l.* to the owner of the horses used for Life-boat work at Worthing as compensation for losses.

Dec. 12.—BRIXHAM, DEVONSHIRE.—Betsy Newbon Life-boat.—During a whole S.E. wind and very heavy sea a three-masted schooner was observed about 11 A.M. at anchor in Torbay, with a flag flying in her rigging. The Life-boat had been prepared earlier in the day for launching in case of necessity, and at 11.15 A.M. she was launched and proceeded to the schooner, which proved to be the Camborne, of Amlwch, bound from London to Llanelly. The Life-boat was anchored, veered down alongside and took off the five men on board, the vessel at the time labouring very heavily; she then proceeded to the barge Celtic, also at anchor in Torbay, and rescued her crew of three men. During the afternoon the Life-boat was again called out to a vessel, but her services were not required.—Expense of service, 21l. 5s.

Next day the weather having moderated the captains of the vessels—which had outlived the gale—asked that the crews might be put back on board. An agreement was made by the Coxswain of the Life-boat to replace the crew on the Camborne and for part of his crew to assist in bringing her into Brixham Harbour. This was accordingly done, and crew also put on board the schooner, which services the owners paid for.

Dec. 13.—ABERSOCH, CARNARVONSHIRE.—Oldham Life-boat.—About 2.30 P.M. a schooner was observed dragging her anchor and drifting towards the shore with a signal of distress displayed. The matter was reported to the Coxswain of the Life-boat, who promptly summoned his crew and proceeded to her assistance. The vessel was the schooner John and Mary, of Aberystwith, bound from Cork to Garston with a cargo of timber. The crew of five hands at once took to the Life-boat, which landed them at Penrhyndu at 4.15 in the afternoon. Next morning it was seen the vessel had not stranded, the crew were therefore able to return to her and take her into safety.—Expense of service, 12l. 18s. 3d.

Dec. 13.—DROGHEDA, CO. LOUTH.—Rose Beddington Life-boat. The s.s. Airforce, of Whitehaven, while bound from Drogheda to Garston in ballast, stranded at the mouth of the Boyne on Sunday afternoon about 4.30 P.M. There was a moderate easterly breeze but rough sea at the time. She made signals for help, and the Life-boat put off to her. They remained near her until 11 P.M., when the captain informed the Coxswain that the crew would not stop on board unless the Life-boat remained alongside all night. They therefore stood by until nearly 7 A.M., when the weather having moderated they returned ashore.—Expense of service, 30l. 10s.

Dec. 15-16.—NORTH SUNDERLAND, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Thomas Bewick Life-boat.—A telegraph message was received from Bamburgh at 9 A.M. on the 15th stating that a vessel was ashore to the north of that place. The Life-boat was launched, and proceeded in a moderate S.E. breeze and rough sea to Waren Bar, where the steamer Bjorn, of Bergen, was found stranded. At the request of the captain, the Life-boat took a telegram ashore, and afterwards ran out a kedge anchor. As the crew refused to leave their vessel, the Life-boat stood by her all that day and night, and until noon on the 16th, when, with the assistance of the Life-boat, she was towed clear by the tugs, which had also come to her aid.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 16.—BLYTH, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Dash Life-boat.—About 6 A.M. a vessel, which proved to be the s.s. Viking, of Hangesund, ran ashore on the "Sow and Pig" rocks, in thick but moderate weather. The Life-boat was promptly despatched to her assistance. On arrival, the captain asked the Coxswain to stand by him, as he was not in want of any immediate aid, but might require it when the tide made. As the tide rose, the steamer though badly damaged floated, and with the assistance of two tugs, was taken into harbour.—Expense of service, 19l. 7s.

Dec. 18.—SUNDERLAND, NORTH DOCK, DURHAM.—George Woofindin Life-boat.—During a dense fog the steamer Cairnie, of Aberdeen, while bound from that place to Sunderland, collided with the South Pier. The vessel was badly holed, and commenced to fill so rapidly that her captain decided to beach her. The Life-boat, which had been warned directly the accident occurred, at once proceeded to the steamer, and stood by her until beached. The crew—ten in number—were then taken into the Life-boat, and they together with their belongings were brought into port.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 11*s.* 3*d.*

Dec. 20.—NEWHAVEN, SUSSEX.—Michael Henry Life-boat.—A message was received by the Coxswain of the Life-boat at 8.30 A.M. that a large steamer was ashore at Seaford, blowing her whistle for assistance. There was a very thick fog at the time, so he proceeded to the coastguard station, and consulted the Chief Officer, who thought it advisable for the Life-boat to launch, in case her service should be required. She then proceeded to the spot, and found the s.s. Ebro, of Glasgow, ashore, in want of a tug. This subsequently arrived, and the Life-boat stood by the steamer until successfully floated; she then returned to Newhaven, and was re-housed.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 1*s.*

Dec. 21.—JOHNHAVEN, KINCARDINESHIRE.—Sarah Ann Holden Life-boat.—The fishing fleet belonging to Johnshaven put to sea in the early morning, but towards mid-day the wind commenced to rise, until at 3 P.M. it was blowing a strong gale from S., which quickly made the sea very rough. In the meantime several of the boats had returned from the fishing-grounds, including one in which the Coxswain of the Life-boat was afloat; as soon as he landed he ascertained that there were still two vessels to be accounted for, so promptly launched the Life-boat. Shortly after he had proceeded to sea the crafts came into the bay, and the Life-boat having seen them safely into harbour returned ashore.—Expense of service, 6*l.* 4*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 22.—HELVICK HEAD, CO. WATERFORD.—James Stevens No. 16 Life-boat.—The ketch Tilly, of Chester, while bound from Cardiff to Youghal with a cargo of coal, lost her mainsail and drifted in the thick mist on to the rocks and then on to the bar. On information being received the Life-boat was despatched to her, but the Master being of opinion he could get his vessel off declined any assistance. The Life-boat then landed one of the crew for him at Dungarvan and returned to her station, arriving about 7.30 A.M. The wind was S.W. by W.—moderate gale—and a heavy sea was breaking on the bar.—Expense of service, 19*l.* 11*s.*

Dec. 24-25.—STAITHES, YORKSHIRE.—Jonathan Stott Life-boat.—This Life-boat was launched at 5 A.M. in response to flares made by a vessel stranded to the south of Staithes. On arrival at the vessel, which proved to be the s.s. Microphon, of Belfast, it was found that the crew were not in any immediate danger, the Life-boat therefore stood by her until daylight, when the weather having moderated, some of the cobsles also came to her aid. Steps were then taken to lighten the steamer by throwing cargo overboard, the Life-boat in the meantime standing by until about 6 P.M., when she was towed off by a tug, which took her into Hartlepool, the Life-boat accompanying them.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 26-30.—WINTERTON, NORFOLK.—Margaret Life-boat.—About 7.30 A.M. on the 26th December, lights were seen to the N.E. of Winterton by the lookout man, and reported. The No. 2 Life-boat was promptly launched, proceeded to the place indicated, and there found the s.s. Leopoldina of Regusa, a large vessel of more than 2,000 tons, with her engines broken down. As there was a heavy ground swell and a fresh E.S.E. breeze, the Life-boat stood by the vessel for nine hours, when the Captain engaged the Life-boatmen and tugs to take his vessel, if possible, into Hull. The anchor was weighed and a start made, Hull docks being eventually reached about 5 P.M., on the 29th idem. During this service the Life-boat was somewhat damaged, the crew therefore, instead of taking her to Winterton, proceeded to Yarmouth, where she was left for repairs, they then returned home, having been occupied from the 26th until 30th December in performing this service.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 28.—PALLING AND CROMER, NORFOLK.—54th West Norfolk Regiment and Louisa Heartwell Life-boats.—At mid-day on the 27th December a steamer was observed brought up off Palling with something apparently wrong with her machinery; the weather was squally, wind E., and the sea very heavy. She remained anchored through the night, and a watch was set on shore. At 7.45 the next morning the Coxswain observed a distress signal being hoisted; he at once summoned the crew and helpers, transported the No. 1 Life-boat on her carriage to a suitable position, and launched. On reaching the vessel, which was the Enriqueta of Grangemouth, the Master stated he had effected temporary repairs, and as he intended to proceed at half speed, he wished the Life-boat to stand by him. This they did, and after accompanying the vessel five miles, returned to Palling, as the vessel did not appear in need of further help. When the Enriqueta came abreast of Mundesley, she was seen by the coast-guard, and as the signal was still displayed they telephoned to Cromer. In response the Louisa Heartwell Life-boat was despatched. They found the engines had again broken down, and at the request of the Master returned ashore and telegraphed for a tug, they then went back to the steamer, and remained with her until towed safely into dock. They then made for Cromer, which was reached at 6 A.M. on 31st December, after a cold and rough journey.—Property salvage cases.

Dec. 30.—WEXFORD, Co. WEXFORD.—James Stevens No. 15 Life-boat.—Shortly after 6 A.M. signals of distress were observed from a steamer on the Dogger Bank, and the Life-boat at once proceeded to her. There was a moderate S.E. gale and a heavy sea, and the Life-boat encountered a very rough sea while crossing the bar. On arrival at the vessel, which proved to be the s.s. Norwood, of Glasgow, the crew declined to leave her, as they hoped to get clear when the tide made. The Life-boat then returned ashore. In the meantime the wind increased until it was blowing a strong gale, and some three hours later signals were again seen from the vessel. As a very strong tide was running the Life-boat went out in tow of a tug to the windward of the wreck. The tug then tried to veer the Life-boat down to her, but owing to the heavy sea and currents it was found impossible; the boat therefore slipped the tug's hawser, made sail, and after considerable trouble got a line on board the steamer, by which they hauled alongside. Two of the crew then took to the Life-boat, which made sail and returned to her station.—Expense of service, 20l. 0s. 6d.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 30th Dec., 1903.

THE LIFE-BELT USED BY THE CREWS OF THE LIFE-BOATS OF THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

The requisite qualities of a Life-boat man's life-belt are—

1. Sufficient extra buoyancy, 22 lbs., to support a man heavily clothed, with his head and shoulders above the water, or to enable him to support another person besides himself.

2. Perfect flexibility, so as to readily conform to the shape of the wearer.

3. A division into two zones, an upper and lower, so that between the two it may be secured tightly round the waist; for in no other manner can it be confined sufficiently close and secure round the body without such pressure over the chest and ribs as to materially affect the free action of the lungs, impede the muscular movement of the chest and arms, and thereby diminish the power of endurance of fatigue, which, in rowing-boats, is a matter of vital importance.

4. Strength, durability and non-liability to injury.

THE LIFE-BOAT STATION.

THE following brief description and diagrams illustrative of a complete Life-boat Establishment, including the House for the protection of the boat, will serve to convey an idea of the general character of one of the 289 Life-boat Stations of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

It will be seen that it is a work of a costly nature, and that not only in the first instance, but that a large permanent expense is entailed in keeping the whole machinery in an efficient state, in the re-supply of any part of it which may be destroyed or worn out, in the exercise of the boats' crews, in launching and working the boats and in remunerating them for their services in saving their fellow-creatures. Yet, looking to the vast importance of the result effected and the responsibility of calling on men to risk their lives in effecting the same, it is felt that few if any persons will be found who will consider that expense to be incurred in vain.

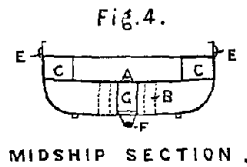

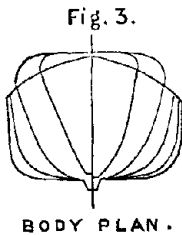

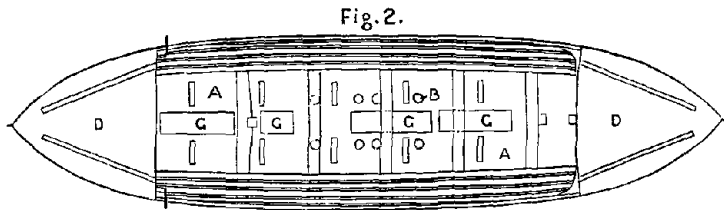

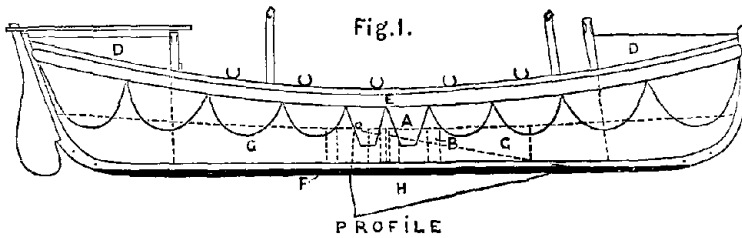

THE LIFE-BOAT.

(See Diagrams on following pages.)

The following drawings show the general outline and principal fittings of the different types of Life-boats used in the Institution's service. Figure 1 gives the profile or broadside view. Fig. 2 the "plan" or deck view. Fig. 3 the "body plan," showing the form of transverse vertical sections at regular intervals in the length; and Fig. 4 the "midship section." The festooned lines on the Fig. 1 profile views represent outside lifelines for men in the water to catch hold. The blackened portion of the keel indicates "iron keel" ballast in distinction from "water ballast" carried in "tanks" or compartments provided in the hold for the purpose, and admitting of being taken in or pumped out at pleasure; both "iron" and "water ballast" are variable and optional in the several boats according to the special circumstances of the different stations and wishes of the coxswains and crews. Water shipped on deck by seas breaking over the boat and otherwise is automatically freed through the holes in the deck and bottom of boat, connected by large pipes called "relieving tubes" having valves called "relieving valves" fitted at the deck, which pass water downwards but not upwards. Some boats, such as the "Norfolk and Suffolk" type, have also freeing scuppers in the sides of boat above deck for the same purpose. Enclosed compartments are automatically ventilated by specially designed valves and pipes. A large proportion of the boats have "centre boards" or "drop-keels" of variable size and weight, which can be used at pleasure and materially add to their weather qualities.

THE LIFE-BOAT TRANSPORTING-CARRIAGE.

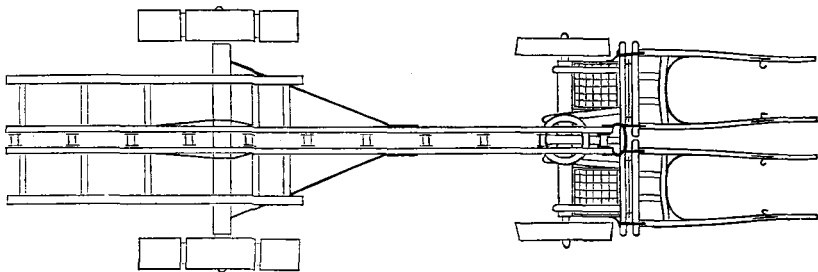

The Life-boat transporting-carriage is a very important auxiliary to the boat. Nearly every Life-boat, except a few of the larger sizes, is provided with a carriage, on which she is kept in the boat-house ready for immediate transportation to the most favourable position for launching to a wreck. A Life-boat is thus made available for a greater extent of coast than she otherwise would be. In addition to its ordinary use, a carriage is of immense service in launching a boat from a flat beach; while "Tipping's plates," with which the main wheels are sometimes clad, greatly facilitate the transport of the boat over the long stretches of soft sand which have to be traversed before deep enough water is reached to float the boat.

The carriage consists of a fore and main body. The latter is formed of a keelway, and of bilgeways attached to it, and resting on the main axle, the boat's weight being entirely on the rollers of the keelway. Its leading characteristics are that while for launching it forms an inclined plane, down which the boat can be launched off the rear end, it can also be used for replacing the boat, the inclined plane being reversed by removing the fore-carriage.

A very full equipment of stores is supplied to the Life-Boats of the Institution—such as cork life-belts, anchors and cables, grapnels and lines, life-buoys, lanterns, rockets, and many other articles, together with portable or launching-skids.

THE LIFE-BOAT HOUSE.

The boats of the NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION and all belonging to them are kept in roomy and substantial boat-houses, under lock and key, in charge of paid coxswains, under the general superintendence of local honorary committees of residents in the several localities. Each boat has its appointed coxswain at a salary of 8*l.* and an assistant at 2*l.* a year, with further allowances in special circumstances. The crew consists, in addition, of a bowman who is paid 30*s.* a year, and as many boatmen as the boat pulls oars. A signalman is also appointed who receives a retaining fee of 1*l.* per annum and payment as a helper each time he is on duty. The members of the volunteer crews are registered and wherever practicable at least double the number of men required are entered on the register. Such men are mostly resident boatmen, fishermen or Coastguardmen. On every occasion of going afloat to save life the coxswains and each of the crew receive alike from the funds of the Institution (whether successful or not) 10*s.*, if by day, and 1*l.*, if by night; and usually 4*s.* each for every time of going afloat for exercise. These payments are increased by one half during the six months of each year beginning the 1st October and ending the 31st March. The Institution also grants retiring allowances to Coxswains, Bowmen and Signalmen of good behaviour and long service. It should be specially noted that the Life-boat crews, excepting when remunerated by the owners of vessels for property salvage service, are paid by the Institution for their efforts, whether successful or not, in saving life.

A reward of 7*s.* is given to the man who first brings intelligence of a wreck in such a position as not to be in sight of a Coastguard man on duty or other responsible look-out man.

On boarding wrecks the preservation of life is the sole consideration. Should any goods or merchandise be brought into the Life-boat contrary to the coxswain's remonstrance he is authorised to throw them overboard.

The formation of a Life-boat Station costs considerably more than 1,000*l.*, and the Annual Expense of maintaining it is about 125*l.*—in many instances much more.

Such is a brief summary of the more important Regulations under which the Life-boats are worked. How faithfully and with what result they are carried out let the journals of each Life-boat Station and the annals of the Institution tell.

The ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION has now 289 Life-boats under its charge. Nearly all of these have been specially presented to it, and they save every year hundreds of shipwrecked sailors. Altogether, the Institution has granted rewards for the saving of 44,361 lives, either by its Life-boats or by other means.

Despite however this fleet of 289 Life-boats and of 16 others locally provided or otherwise supported, and despite the numerous rocket apparatus stations on our coast, there remains the melancholy fact that about 500 lives are lost annually on or near the coasts of the United Kingdom alone, as shown by the Board of Trade Returns, proclaiming solemnly though silently that for humanity's sake and for the national credit, no exertions should be spared in providing every possible means for the conveyance of succour to the shipwrecked.

The Institution needs about 100,000*l.* per annum to maintain its great Life-saving Fleet; and the Committee feel assured that it will never lack it so long as it maintains its boats in the state of thorough efficiency that they are in at the present time, and manned as they are on every emergency by as fearless and noble a class of men as ever Nelson or Collingwood led to battle to uphold our country's honour and glory.
