

THE LIFE-BOAT.

OF THE

Royal National Life-boat Institution,

(ISSUED QUARTERLY.)

VOL. XIX.—No. 216.]

1ST MAY, 1905.

[PRICE 1s.

AT the ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION, held at the Royal United Service Institution, Whitehall, on Wednesday, the 15th day of March, 1905, The Most Honourable The MARQUIS OF SALISBURY, P.C., C.B., President of the Board of Trade, in the Chair, the following Report of the Committee of Management was submitted and adopted:—

ANNUAL REPORT.

EVERY effort has been made during the past year to promote and secure the highest possible state of efficiency in the great life-saving service of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION. The Committee of Management have persevered in the work, feeling assured that they have the sympathy and goodwill not only of the British Public but of the whole civilized world.

It is with deep regret the Committee have to record the death in November last of Mr. GEORGE LENNOX WATSON, the well-known yacht designer who had for many years acted as the Consulting Naval Architect to the Institution. The services rendered and the valuable assistance given by him since his appointment in April 1887 are well known to all and were greatly appreciated by the Committee.

Life-boats.—For many months past the Committee of Management have been carrying out important and interesting experiments having for their aim the establishment in the Institution's service of a reliable "motor" Life-boat. There is every prospect of their efforts in this direction proving successful and they believe that at no distant date their endeavours will lead to good results.

In 1904 no fewer than 20 new pulling and sailing Life-boats were built, equipped and despatched to stations on various parts of the coast of England, Scotland and Ireland. In each case the coxswains and crews of these stations, in conformity with the uniform practice of the Institution, were fully consulted as to the several types of boats supplied.

The following is a complete list of the stations to which new Boats were sent:—

Aberdovey	Merionethshire.
Abersoch	Carnarvonshire.
Anstruther	Fifeshire.
Brighton	Sussex.
Bull Bay	Anglesey.
Donna Nook	Lincolnshire.
Grimsby	Lincolnshire.
Harwich (No. 1) . .	Essex.
Littlehampton . . .	Sussex.
Polkerris	Cornwall.
Port Erroll	Aberdeenshire.
Rhosneigir	Anglesey.
St. Agnes	Scilly Islands.
Salcombe	Devonshire.
Sheringham	Norfolk.
Shoreham	Sussex.
Southend	Argyleshire.
Southport (No. 2) .	Lancashire.
Troon	Ayrshire.
Yealm River	Devonshire.

Owing to the improved arrangements made at adjacent stations it became unnecessary to incur the expense of maintaining any longer the Southport No. 1 (Lancashire), the Gorleston No. 3 (Suffolk), and the Porth Rhuffydd (Anglesey) stations, and the Boats which had been there for many years have therefore been withdrawn. The Life-boat has also been withdrawn from the Dornoch Firth in Sutherlandshire. The Institution's entire fleet comprised at the close of 1904 281 sailing and pulling Life-boats, 4 steam Life-boats, and 1 steam-tug.

Transporting Carriages.—New transporting carriages have been provided for 7 stations.

Inspection of Life-boats.—All the stations and their relative Life-boats have been most thoroughly and carefully inspected during the past year, a full report of each inspection having been submitted to and considered by the Committee of Management.

Shipwrecks.—The year 1904, unlike its predecessor, was not a stormy one, although during the earlier months boisterous weather was experienced, which returned now and again throughout the year after many weeks of comparative calm. The heaviest gales of 1904 occurred on the 11–13th February, and the 9–16th December. On the first occasion there were 20 launches of Life-boats, resulting in the saving of 17 lives and 5 vessels; whilst during the latter gale 48 lives and 3 vessels were saved as a result of 35 launches.

Between the 1st January and the 31st December last, inclusive, the Life-boats were launched 309 times on service, and 1,093 times for exercise, in addition to which crews assembled in readiness for service on 52 occasions when their help was fortunately not ultimately needed.

It is with the deepest sense of thankfulness and satisfaction the Committee of Management record the gratifying fact that notwithstanding the many thousands of Life-boatmen who were afloat in the Life-boats last year not one lost his life by drowning or other accident whilst on service.

The number of lives for the saving of which rewards were granted by the Institution in 1904 was 528; 390 of these were saved by the Life-boats, and the remaining 138 by shore-boats and other means, besides which the crews of the Life-boats were instrumental in saving 37 vessels and boats.

The following table furnishes the details of the services during each month of the year :—

Rewards.—The rewards which were granted by the Institution in 1904 for the saving of life from shipwreck on the coasts of the United Kingdom, or for gallant and meritorious efforts to do so, and in recognition of other praiseworthy services rendered, included 2 Silver Medals, 1 Decoration, 13 Binocular Glasses, 8 Aneroid Barometers, 19 Votes of Thanks inscribed on vellum and framed, 5 Certificates of Service framed, and 7,798*l.* 1*s.* 6*d.*, including pensions, retiring allowances, gratuities, and compensation for personal injuries sustained in the Service.

At the end of the year the Institution had granted altogether in rewards since 1824, 99 Gold Medals and Clasps, 1,206 Silver Medals and Clasps, 63 Decorations, 357 Binocular Glasses, 15 Telescopes, 60 Aneroid Barometers, 1,755 Votes of Thanks inscribed on vellum and framed, 163 Certificates of Service framed, and 248,777*l.* in money.

Aneroids.—During the year there was a steady demand for the excellent Aneroid Barometers supplied to the Masters and Owners of fishing-boats and small coasters at about one-third the retail charges. The total number provided was 171; of these 161 were supplied to fishermen, and 10 to coasters. The total number issued since 1882 has been 4,822.

Local Committees.—The most grateful thanks of the Committee of Management are due to all the honorary officials and helpers of the Institution throughout the country, without whose important and valuable help it would be impossible to carry on and maintain the great life-saving service entrusted to them. The hearty co-operation of the Branch Committees and their Secretaries and Treasurers is becoming increasingly important and necessary, and wherever secured is most highly appreciated.

The cordial thanks of the Committee are also tendered to the Public Press, the generous and all-powerful advocacy of which is so constantly employed in appealing for financial support for the Institution, and in enlisting the interest of the public in its thoroughly national work.

Life-boat Saturday.—The indefatigable workers for the Life-boat Saturday Fund have everywhere been energetically pressing the claims of the Institution during the past year, and, having regard to the general depression in business which has been prevalent, have met with marked success, a success well merited by their enthusiastic, zealous and self-denying efforts. Life-boat Saturday collections were made in no less than 132 cities and towns in 1904, and in several of these the cause was advocated for the first time. The Ladies' Auxiliaries have been more especially active, and efforts have been made to extend the area of their usefulness. In June last the West End of London Ladies' Auxiliary inaugurated a great Life-boat Concert, held at the Queen's Hall, the programme of which was gratuitously contributed to by the leading musical artistes of the day. The Concert, which was under the immediate patronage of the King and Queen, was graciously attended by the Prince and Princess of Wales, and several other members of the Royal Family. The Committee of Management tender once more, as they have so frequently done before, their most hearty and grateful thanks to the Central Committee of the Life-boat Saturday Fund, as well as to all the Local Life-boat Saturday Committees and their officers, including more particularly the Ladies' Auxiliaries.

Inventions.—The Committee have as usual had the pleasure of receiving and examining during the past year numerous suggestions and inventions; and they wish it to be as widely known as possible that they are at all times desirous to consider any proposals which might on examination prove useful to the service and tend to increase its efficiency.

Finances.—The total amount received by the Committee of Management in 1904, in subscriptions, donations, dividends, etc., and inclusive of the very important sum of 16,405*l.* 17*s.* 3*d.* received from the Life-boat Saturday Fund, was 72,418*l.* 3*s.* 1*d.*, a decrease of 8,244*l.* 1*s.* 10*d.*, as compared with the corresponding total for the preceding year, the falling off being evidently due to the prevailing depression in the trade of the country. In addition, the sum of 46,089*l.* 15*s.* 9*d.* was received in legacies, of which 19,717*l.* 10*s.* 2*d.* was for special trusts or specified purposes. Were it not for the valuable help provided by legacies, it would be impossible for the Committee of Management to carry on the work of the Institution, the annual subscriptions, donations, and dividends being quite inadequate for the purpose.

The total expenditure in 1904 was 99,869*l.* 15*s.* 10*d.* This total included 48,288*l.* 3*s.* 6*d.* for building, equipping and repairing Life-boats, Life-boat transporting carriages, Life-boat houses and slipways; 16,541*l.* 12*s.* 5*d.* for subsidies for non-self-supporting stations, branch payments, aneroids for fishermen and coasters, life-belts and other stores and the store-yard; 22,946*l.* 15*s.* 9*d.* for payments to coxswains, bowmen and signalmen, to crews, etc., for services and for exercising the Life-boats, for special rewards and recognitions for services; grants to the relatives of deceased Life-boatmen for injuries; pensions and retiring allowances to coxswains, bowmen and signalmen; medals and vellums; also for payments to inspectors. The balance was expended in printing, advertising, postage, telegrams and stationery; on salaries, rates, taxes, office expenses and legal charges connected with leases and bequests. Each item of receipt and expenditure has, as usual, been examined and verified by Mr. Albert W. Wyon, Chartered Accountant, of the firm of Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., 3 Frederick's Place, Old Jewry, E.C.

In conclusion the Committee of Management appeal strongly and earnestly for increased financial support. The cause is acknowledged on all hands to be one of national importance and value, and the Committee rely on the British Public to show their confidence in their efforts by contributing liberally and generously towards the maintenance of the Institution and its large fleet of Life-boats, with the result that those "in peril on the sea" will still be provided with the best Life Saving Service in the world.

5. Granting pecuniary compensation to the Widows and other dependent relatives of Life-boatmen who lose their lives on service; not less than £100 being allowed for each Widow and £25 for each dependent child.

The Royal National Life-Boat Institution

Is prepared to establish and maintain a Life-boat Station on any part of the coast of the United Kingdom where it can be shown, from previous disasters, that a Life-boat is required. It is requisite that there should be a sufficient number of men (fishermen, or others accustomed to the management of boats at sea) to man the Life-boat, and a Committee formed from the residents in the neighbourhood to superintend the Station and obtain such small Annual Subscriptions as may contribute towards a portion of the expense of the Life-boat Station.

Communications should be addressed to the Secretary of the Institution, 20 Charing Cross Road, London, W.C.

GOD HELP OUR MEN AT SEA.

List of the Rewards

FOR SAVING LIFE FROM WRECKS

VOTED BY THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION

TO THE CREWS OF ITS LIFE-BOATS, TO SHORE AND FISHING-BOATS' CREWS, AND TO OTHER PERSONS

FROM THE 1ST JANUARY TO THE 31ST DECEMBER, 1904, INCLUSIVE.

Jan. 1.—COURTMACSHERRY, CO. CORK.
 —Kezia Gwilt Life-boat.—This Life-boat rendered very useful service to the barque Faulconnier, of Dunkirk. During a strong breeze from E.S.E. and rough sea, with somewhat hazy weather, the barque stranded, about 6.30 A.M., in a very exposed and rocky position known as the Seven Heads, about four miles by land from Courtmacsherry. Her lights were seen by the people at the Cove close by, and a messenger was despatched for the Life-boat. In the meantime a yawl manned by six local fishermen put off to succour the crew of twenty-six men who had taken to their boats, but owing to the heavy sea breaking were unable to land. The shore-boat made two trips, bringing fifteen of the men ashore, but while returning the second time a heavy sea struck the boat, throwing all her occupants into the water; happily they all managed to get ashore, some being badly bruised. Eleven of the ship's company still remained to be saved; the Life-boat was on its way, and they managed to keep the boat end on to the sea until she reached them. Their position was one of great peril; to starboard, within 200 or 300 yards, was a dangerous reef of rocks, while on the port side the ship lay wrecked on another reef. After strenuous efforts and considerable risk the Life-boat reached them and took them aboard; she then made for Courtmacsherry, where the men, who were all French, were duly cared for.

The greatest credit is due to the fishermen who put off in the shore-boat to assist the shipwrecked men, and they were rewarded by the Institution for their bravery. The Faulconier was a large barque of 1,715 tons, and was bound from San Francisco to Queenstown, with a cargo of corn, when this disaster overtook her; she eventually became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 13l. 5s. 6d.

Jan. 7. — NEWQUAY, CORNWALL. — James Stevens No. 5 Life-boat.—Shortly before noon the Coastguard reported that a ketch was in need of assistance off St. Agnes Head. The crew of the Life-boat were immediately summoned, and the boat proceeded with all possible speed. When the ketch, which was the John Rees, of Plymouth, with three hands aboard, was reached, the captain reported that he had six feet of water in her hold, the pumps were choked and the fore-stay gone. Five of the Life-boatmen were put on board and brought the vessel to anchor in Newquay Bay; they then jettisoned about five tons of her cargo, and as soon as the tide had made sufficiently, took the ketch into harbour. This was only accomplished with great difficulty on account of the strong S.S.W. breeze and very heavy ground sea. As it was dark and a heavy sea was running, it was considered advisable to leave the Life-boat in the harbour for the night, and she was rehoused the next day.—Property salvage case: Balance paid by Institution, 41l. 5s.

Jan. 9.—GREAT YARMOUTH, NORFOLK. —John Burch Life-boat.—While the Life-boat was out for exercise during the morning, a steamer was observed apparently on the Scroby Sands. The boat proceeded to the steamer, which proved to be the Helea, of Copenhagen, which had been aground, but had just floated off. The captain requested that the Life-boat would stand by him, as his position was still one of danger. The crew then proceeded to jettison a portion of the cargo, and during the afternoon the vessel was got clear of the sands. As the Life-boat was not required any longer, she returned ashore, and was rehoused at 6 p.m.—Expense of service, 16l. 2s. 6d.

Jan. 12.—ILFRACOMBE, DEVONSHIRE. —Co-operator No. 2 Life-boat.—During the afternoon a message was received stating that two vessels had been in collision off Bull Point. The crew of the Life-boat were promptly assembled and the Life-boat at once proceeded to the position indicated. On the way they fell in with the schooner Hawke, and found that she and the schooner Esther, of Appledore, had been in collision, the latter vessel foundering shortly after. Happily, the crew of the Esther were able to get on board the Hawke, and on the arrival of the Life-boat they were transferred to her and landed at Ilfracombe. The weather was cold, sleet falling heavily, and the wind blowing a fresh gale from S.W., with a heavy ground sea.—Expense of service, 31l. 16s.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 14th Jan., 1904.

Voted 184l. 18s. to defray the expenses of launches of the following Life-boats, or assembling the crews in readiness, with the view of assisting those on board vessels apparently in distress: Exmouth, Gorleston No. 1, Harwich (steam), Hauxley, Newhaven, Padstow No. 2, Palling No. 2, and Walton-on-Naze.

Also 5l. to R. OWEN, one of the crew of the Holyhead Life-boat for an injury sustained in the Life-boat service.

Also a grant of 25*l.* to J. Cox, ex-Coxswain of the Appledore Life-boat in consideration of his long service; and 10*l.* to J. KNIGHTS, one of the crew of the Lowestoft Life-boat for many years.

Also a retiring pension, together with a certificate to P. NICHOLLS, Coxswain of the Penzance Life-boat, on his resignation.

Jan. 15. — PALLING, NORFOLK. — Hearts of Oak Life-boat. — At 5.45 A.M. a telephone message was received at Palling that a vessel was showing signals of distress two miles W.S.W. of the North Hasborough Light-vessel. The crew of the No. 2 Life-boat were promptly summoned, and the boat launched through a heavy surf and in a heavy W.N.W. gale. On proceeding in the direction indicated, the steam-trawler Jules Orban de Xivry, of Ostend, was found in a disabled condition, having been aground on the sands. She was then afloat, but making water, and the crew gladly accepted the assistance of the Life-boat, which experienced considerable difficulty in effecting communication. In conjunction with a steam-tug, which subsequently arrived, the trawler was taken to Yarmouth, and later the Life-boat returned to her station. — Property salvage case.

Jan. 16. — CULLERCOATS, NORTHUMBERLAND. — Co-operator No. 1 Life-boat. — This Life-boat was launched about 8 A.M. to the assistance of five fishing-boats, which had put to sea in the early morning. Shortly after the boats had gone out the N.N.W. wind increased to a gale and the sea became exceedingly heavy on the bar. On getting outside the bar the Life-boatmen warned the boats it was impossible for them to get in safety, and then stood by them while they made for Shields Harbour. — Expense of service, 14*l.* 5*s.*

Jan. 16. — WATCHET, SOMERSETSHIRE. — John Lingard Ross Life-boat. — In a strong N.N.W. gale and very heavy sea the ketch Annie Christian, of Liverpool, got into difficulties off Watchet while bound from Ely with a cargo of coal. The vessel had been at anchor, but in the heavy sea her cable parted, she became unmanageable, and was thrown on to a ledge of rocks known as "Skopart." Her dangerous position was observed, and the Life-boat was speedily launched. On arrival, six of the Life-boatmen were placed on board, and after half an hour's hard work the ketch was got clear and taken into Watchet Harbour. — Expenses partly paid by owners, balance paid by Institution, 16*l.* 9*s.* 6*d.*

Jan. 17. — CAISTER, NORFOLK. — Covent Garden Life-boat. — On Sunday morning this Life-boat arrived at Yarmouth Harbour, bringing four of the hands of the schooner Jasper, of Fowey, and the body of one of the crew, who had died from exposure while the men were endeavouring to reach safety in their little boat.

The schooner, while bound from Plymouth to Hull with a cargo of china clay, ran aground on the Hasborough sands, and her crew in a very short time found it necessary to abandon her. The weather was very thick and cold, with a strong W.N.W. wind blowing and a heavy sea. The men started to pull for one of the Light-vessels, but the wind and tide prevented them making any progress. Heavy seas continually broke over the boat, and it was only by constant baling she was kept afloat. For several hours they bravely struggled on, drenched to the skin and exposed to the icy wind, until numbness and exhaustion commenced to overtake them, and from this one of them succumbed. Fortunately, the change of the tide helped them, and after nine hours' exposure they succeeded in getting to the Newarp Light-vessel. With the little strength they had left the survivors climbed on board and were kindly tended by the light-keepers, who also transferred the body of the dead man to the lightship. Early next morning signals were made, and in reply the Covent Garden Life-boat went out. On arrival they took the shipwrecked men on board and, in tow of a tug, made for Yarmouth with all despatch, the Life-boat subsequently returning to her station. — Expense of service, 36*l.* 10*s.*

Jan. 21. — WHITBY and UPGANG, YORKSHIRE. — Robert and Mary Ellis and Upgang Life-boats.—About 9.45 at night information reached the Coxswain at Whitby that a steamer was ashore at Upgang, whereupon the No. 1 Life-boat was launched and went to her assistance. She proved to be the s.s. Cayo Bonito, of London, 2,000 tons, bound from the Tyne in ballast. It was a cold, frosty night, and when the lifeboat launched the wind was blowing moderately hard from the N.W., but this gradually fell. On reaching the vessel the coxswain boarded her, and at the request of the Captain ran out a kedge anchor. The Upgang lifeboat, having also been launched, now came alongside the steamer and by this time the flood-tide was making so strongly that it was impossible for one boat to get out another anchor; both boats were therefore employed, and about 4 A.M. the next morning the steamer was hove clear of the rocks. Later the Captain decided to return to the Tyne and the Life-boats not being required any longer, returned to their stations.—Property salvage case.

Jan. 27.—PALLING, NORFOLK.—54th West Norfolk Regiment Life-boat.—During a moderate S.S.W. gale a vessel was observed by the Coastguard stranded on the main about two miles north of Palling. The crew and helpers were speedily called, and the No. 1 Life-boat, having been transported to a suitable launching-place, was launched and made for the vessel, which they found to be the brigantine Sam Weller, of Brixham, with seven hands aboard. At the request of the master, the Life-boat stood by, and after some hours' work the brigantine was floated, apparently undamaged. The services of the Life-boat being no longer needed, she was taken back to her station and rehoused.—Expense of service, 22l. 18s. 6d.

Jan. 27-28.—BOULMER, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Melissent Life-boat.—At 10.45 P.M. signals for help were observed from a vessel at Boulmer Head, and within a quarter of an hour the Life-boat was on her way to her assistance. She proved to be the steam trawler Glenc of North Shields, which while homeward bound from the fishing grounds, had gone ashore in the prevailing fog. Both wind and sea were moderate at the time and the trawler was in no immediate danger. One of the crew therefore went ashore in the Life-boat to obtain the assistance of steam-tugs. Next morning the wind increased, causing a heavy swell, and as no tugs had come to the help of the distressed vessel, the position of those on board became perilous. Shortly after 11 the master signalled for the Life-boat, the Melissent therefore again put off and in spite of the sea which was then breaking right over the trawler succeeded in rescuing the crew of eight hands.—Expense of service, 49l. 7s.

Jan. 29.—RAMSEY, ISLE OF MAN.—Mary Isabella Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 6 P.M. in a strong S.S.E. gale and heavy sea and succeeded in saving the crew of four hands of the schooner Useful of Barrow-in-Furness from a position of great peril. The vessel was bound from Swansea to Irvine with a cargo of coal; she had been overtaken by tempestuous weather, and when the men were taken into the Life-boat she was on a lee shore with her anchor dragging.—Expense of service, 30l. 16s.

Jan. 29.—ARBROATH, FORFARSHIRE.—James Stevens No. 13 Life-boat.—At 6 P.M. information was received that the fishing fleet was making for the harbour, and that in the prevailing weather—a strong S.S.E. gale and very heavy sea—their coming in would be attended with danger; the Life-boat was accordingly launched and remained in readiness until all the boats were in safety, the last one coming in at 8.15 P.M. Happily the services of the Life-boat were not further required, and she therefore returned ashore.—Expense of service, 16l. 14s. 6d.

Feb. 4.—SUNDERLAND, SOUTH OULET, DURHAM.—Richard and Nellie Hodges Life-boat.—A large Spanish steamer, the Peña Rocas, of Santander, went ashore at Sunderland during the night. She left the Tees during the afternoon in ballast bound for the Wear. At about 9 o'clock, when entering the harbour, there being then a strong N.E. breeze with a heavy sea, she became uncontrollable.

The crew of the Life-boat were assembled and the Life-boat prepared for launching, and at the express desire of the captain she put off about 3 A.M. and rendered valuable assistance in taking hawsers to the tugs which also went to the vessel's assistance.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 11th Feb., 1904.

Voted 474*l.* 19*s.* 5*d.* to pay the expenses of assembling the crews or taking out the following Life-boats, &c., with the view of assisting vessels in distress:—Ackergill, Brighstone Grange, Broadstairs, Burry Port, Caister No. 1, Clacton-on-Sea, Clogher Head, Cromer, Gorleston, No. 1, Hasborough, Margate No. 2, Newcastle, Palling No. 2, Point of Ayr, Runswick, Sunderland (North Dock), Sunderland (South Outlet), Walton-on-Naze, Whitby No. 1, Wicklow, Winchelsea and Winterton, No. 2.

Also retiring pensions to WILLIAM CONWAY, Assistant - Coxswain, and JOSEPH HICKS, Signalmen, at Totland Bay and Appledore No. 2 stations, respectively.

Also 31*l.* 10*s.* to men injured while engaged in Life-boat service at Brighstone Grange, Newcastle, Llandudno, Runswick, Skegness, and Winterton.

Feb. 12.—PALLING, NORFOLK.—Hearts of Oak and 54th West Norfolk Regiment Life-boats.—At 10.20 P.M. during a strong S.S.W. gale and moderately heavy sea, flares were observed about one and a half miles from Palling. The crew and helpers were summoned, and the No. 2 Life-boat launched. It was not long before they reached the vessel, which proved to be the ketch Amelia and Ann, of Goole, considerably damaged, one man missing and the master injured, the result of a collision with another vessel. As the assistance of the Life-boat was very necessary to the ketch, a signal was made for the No. 1 Life-boat to launch, in order to search for the other vessel and the missing man. In the meantime the Life-boatmen assisted to clear away the wreckage on the Amelia and Ann, and when this was completed, in conjunction with a steam-tug, they took the vessel to Yarmouth.—Property salvage case.

When the No. 1 Life-boat arrived on the scene of the disaster the other colliding vessel could not be seen; she therefore proceeded to cruise about in the vicinity, and eventually fell in with the brigantine Mary Annie, of Folkestone, damaged, but not so seriously as the ketch had been. The missing man, happily, was found on board. The Life-boat remained with her until daylight, when, finding her services were no longer required, she took the missing seaman aboard and returned to her station.—Expense of service, 53*l.* 4*s.* 6*d.*

Feb. 12.—HOLYHEAD, ANGLESEY.—Duke of Northumberland Life-boat.—During a strong S. gale and heavy sea a vessel was seen trying to make her way into Holyhead Harbour, but she failed owing to the state of the weather. She then anchored and hoisted a signal, in response to which the steam Life-boat was at once despatched. She was found to be the schooner Irish Girl, of Dundalk, bound from Waterford to Liverpool with timber. The master having asked that the Life-boatmen would assist him to save his vessel, four of them were put on board. A tug then took the schooner in tow, and by their united efforts the vessel was taken to a safe berth.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 12.—GIRVAN, Ayrshire.—James Stevens No. 18 Life-boat.—While the Girvan fishing fleet were off Corsewell, a gale suddenly sprang up from S.E., which afterwards veered to S. and increased in violence. The boats promptly made for home, and all got in safely with the exception of seven. Shortly afterwards one of these came in and reported he had seen a boat about three miles to seaward with her sails split. The Life-boat promptly put off and found the Viola, of Girvan, with her sails blown to ribbons, and in danger of foundering; as soon as communication could be effected she was taken in tow. The master wished to be taken to Ayr, but as there was another vessel in want of help the Coxswain towed the Viola to Dunure Harbour, and left her at anchor in comparative safety. The Life-boat then stood out to sea again and picked up the Annie Fyfe, which had shipped several seas, and was in grave danger. On the arrival of the Life-boat an attempt was made to get to Ayr. Shortly afterwards a tug came up, which took the endangered craft in tow, and Ayr was safely reached. It was however impossible for the Life-boat to beat back that night to Girvan; she was therefore secured for the night at Ayr, and towed back to her station the next day.—Expense of service, 22*l.* 3*s.* 3*d.*

Feb. 12.—MOELFRE, ANGLESEY.—Star of Hope Life-boat.—At 1.30 P.M. the Coxswain of the Life-boat observed signals of distress displayed by a schooner at anchor in Moelfre Roads. He mustered his crew, and without delay launched. It was blowing a strong gale from the south, and the sea was very rough. The vessel proved to be the schooner Emily Warbrick of Fleetwood, bound from Amlwch to Fleetwood, in ballast; the Life-boat went alongside, and the crew of five hands were taken on board. While this was being done the schooner swung round and carried away the mast of the Life-boat, which however happily got clear, and the men were eventually landed in safety at Moelfre.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 10*s.* 3*d.*

Feb. 12.—LLANDUDNO, CARNARVONSHIRE.—Theodore Price Life-boat.—At 4 o'clock in the afternoon a message was received from the Orme's Head Lighthouse that a schooner was displaying signals of distress about three miles off in a north-westerly direction. In a very short time the Life-boat was launched and on her way to the vessel, which was the schooner Progress, of Wicklow, laden with coal. A gale from S.W. was blowing, with a rough sea; when the Life-boat reached the schooner she found two steamers were standing by, and that the crew in one of the ship's boats had got safely on board one of the vessels bound for Llandulas. The Life-boatmen having made an offer to land them, which they declined, then made an effort to save the vessel; they succeeded in beaching her near Abergele, thus taking her out of the track of vessels going in and out of Liverpool, but they were unable to save her.—Expense of service, 53*l.*

Feb. 12.—NEWHAVEN, SUSSEX.—Michael Henry Life-boat.—During a whole gale from south by west, accompanied by a very heavy sea, a message was received from the Coastguard that a vessel was ashore at the entrance of the harbour, signalling for assistance. The crew were assembled, and the Life-boat was launched; she was taken in tow by a tug, and proceeding to the distressed vessel, found she was the brig Commerce, of Newhaven. Another tug was already trying to tow her off, but at the request of the master the Life-boat remained by him and rendered assistance; the vessel was ultimately towed off and taken into Newhaven.—Expense of service, 27*l.* 19*s.*

Feb. 13.—HOWTH, CO. DUBLIN.—James Stevens No. 7 Life-boat.—This Life-boat succeeded in saving the ketch Ocean Pearl, of Wexford, and her crew of three hands. Shortly after 10 A.M. a message was received by telephone that a vessel was drifting northward showing signals of distress, and in an apparently helpless condition. With all despatch the Life-boat put off, and on coming up with her found the crew in a pitiable condition. The sails had been blown to ribbons in the strong westerly gale prevailing, both anchors had been lost, and for three days and nights the men had worked incessantly. In their exhausted condition they were inclined to leave the ketch to her fate, but the Life-boatmen agreed with the master to try to save her. Three of their number were placed on board and the vessel taken in tow, and some two hours later she and her crew were safely brought into Howth Harbour.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 13.—PADSTOW, CORNWALL.—Arab Life-boat.—The trawler Annie, of Brixham, while attempting to come into Padstow, grounded on the "Doombar." There was a heavy ground sea and strong W.S.W. gale at the time, and she no sooner struck than the seas made a clean breach over her. Within a few minutes of the disaster the No. 1 Life-boat put off to the ketch. The position of the five men on board was one of great danger, but happily before the Life-boat reached them the vessel floated off, and by the time the Arab came alongside they were in comparative safety; the master, however, asked for help to take his vessel to Padstow, and three Life-boatmen having been placed on board, the port was safely reached. — Expense of service, 12*l.* 14*s.*

Feb. 16.—RHYL, FLINTSHIRE.—Caroline Richardson Life-boat.—During the morning the Life-boat was called out to the assistance of a small yacht—the Lady Lucy, of Liverpool—in distress ashore outside the bar. She left Liverpool the previous afternoon bound to Conway, and when night set in a stiff north-westerly breeze sprang up, driving the vessel shorewards; in spite of efforts to get clear, the yacht grounded, and the owner sent his man ashore in the punt to get help. The Coxswain of the Life-boat at once put off in his own boat, but in the darkness he failed to find the yacht, as she had no lights. At dawn it was seen that she was in a very dangerous position. The Life-boat was therefore launched, and succeeded in reaching the yacht, whose owner was in a very exhausted condition.—Expense of service, 20*l.*

Feb. 17.—BALLYWALTER, CO. DOWN.—William Wallace Life-boat.—In thick weather, while the ship Wellgunde, of Hamburg, a new ship of 1766 tons, was being towed from Greenock to Port Talbot, both tug and vessel grounded on the Butterfly rock, off Ballyferris Point. The Life-boat was at once despatched to the spot, in case her services might be required. The sea was smooth and a moderate off-shore wind blowing. As the tide made, the tug floated clear, and later, by the aid of the tug, the Wellgunde was also got off, the Life-boat standing by until she was seen to be in a safe position.—Expense of service, 21*l.* 17*s.*

Feb. 18.—SEAHAM, DURHAM.—Skynner Life-boat.—A reef of rocks about one mile to the south of Seaham Harbour was the scene of a shipping disaster which would have probably caused the loss of twelve lives had it not been for the valuable aid rendered by the Life-boat. The s.s. Lilian, of Newcastle, while bound from Rochester to Seaham in ballast, stranded on the night of the 17th–18th February, and the captain at once came ashore to get the assistance of tugs to get his ship off. Having made his arrangements, he engaged a pilot to put him back on board his steamer, but the northerly wind and the sea had increased so much that they found it impossible to approach the stranded steamer. The harbour tug put off to see what prospect there was of saving the vessel, and met the pilot boat returning with the captain. He then asked for the services of the Life-boat, as the ship was rapidly filling, and was in danger of breaking up. Immediately on the return of the tug, the crew of the Life-boat were assembled and the boat was smartly launched. The tug then towed her as near the wreck as possible, and when the men on board had been rescued, took her back to harbour, where she had to remain, owing to the weather, which had got very much worse. Very shortly afterwards the steamer became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 24*l.*

Feb. 19–25.—DUNGENESS, KENT, AND WINCHELSEA, SUSSEX.—R.A.O.B., Thomas Simcox, and John William Dudley Lifeboats.—At 3.30 A.M. on the 19th February, the s.s. Lake Michigan, of Liverpool, collided with a sailing vessel about two miles S.W. of Dungeness. The steamer, a very large one of 9240 tons register, was on a voyage from St. John's, New Brunswick, to London, with a general cargo and cattle. Immediately after the collision the fires were swamped by the inrush of water, and the captain only just managed to run his vessel ashore to prevent her sinking in deep water. Later on a tug arrived and towed her within half a mile of the shore. Information having reached Dungeness, the No. 2 Life-boat, Thomas Simcox, was promptly launched at 5.30 A.M., and stood by the imperilled vessel until the night of the 20th, when some of the cattlemen and firemen wished to land. Forty-six were accordingly taken into the Life-boat and transferred to a tug, which, in her turn, transferred them to the Dungeness No. 1 Life-boat, R.A.O.B., as it was too rough for the tug to land them. In the meanwhile the No. 2 Life-boat had returned to the Lake Michigan, and remained alongside until the evening of the 21st February, when, the men being exhausted, she proceeded home, the Winchelsea Life-boat being alongside the steamer. The next morning she again returned, and stood by her until successfully floated off on the 25th February. The Life-boat R.A.O.B., in response to an urgent message, was also despatched to the steamer on the morning of the 19th, but as the captain stated he did not require the assistance of both boats, she returned ashore, and was only launched again on the 20th to land the forty-six persons referred to above. When the Lake Michigan was first beached the weather was moderate, with a north-west breeze and moderate sea, but it gradually got worse, causing very grave fears for the prospect of salving the valuable ship and cargo. On the evening of the 20th a message was sent by telephone to Winchelsea, asking that that Life-boat should be sent to the vessel with all despatch. The request was at once attended to, and the Winchelsea Life-boat, John William Dudley, arrived alongside the steamer on the 20th at 9.15 A.M.; she remained with the vessel until the 25th, when the vessel was towed off, only then returning to her station after having been on duty for a period extending over five days and nights. Fortunately, both the ship and cargo were ultimately saved through the action of tugs, the value at stake amounting to no less than £142,000.—Expense of services, Dungeness No. 1, 51*l.* 17*s.* 3*d.*; Dungeness No. 2 and Winchelsea, Property salvage cases.

Feb. 24. — GOURDON, KINCARDINE-SHIRE. — Theophilus Sidney Eschalaz Life-boat.—One of the fishing boats of this port, while attempting to enter the harbour during a strong S.S.W. breeze with a rough sea, incurred considerable risk, and the Local Committee, knowing she was in danger owing to the condition of the sea, ordered the Life-boat to be launched. This was done about 9.30 A.M., and she stood by the fishing boat until she safely made the harbour.—Expense of service, 6*l.* 14*s.* 3*d.*

Feb. 26. — BOULMER, NORTUMBERLAND. — Melissent Life-boat.—During a heavy snowstorm and very cold weather the Life-boat was launched to the help of a vessel ashore about half a mile south of Houghton Steel. She was the s.s. Villalegre of Aviles, a steamer of 2700 tons, bound for Burntisland from Carthagea with a cargo of iron ore. The vessel was reached at 2.30 A.M.; the crew refused to leave her, but the captain requested that the Life-boat should stand by him. This was done, and at daylight they ran out a kedge anchor and also took a line to a tug which had been sent for. Later on the weather freshened, and the crew finding it impossible to get their vessel off, decided to leave her. Fourteen men were taken into the Life-boat and landed; a second journey was then made and another six were taken into safety. Six of the men still preferred to remain on board, but at low tide they also had to abandon the vessel.—Expense of service, 54*l.* 18*s.* 6*d.*

On the night of the 29th February an attempt was made to save her; during the first part of the night the weather was fine, but about midnight a strong breeze sprang up from S.E. A fishing boat which was in attendance at once took off as many of the salvage party as possible, but was unable to return owing to the severity of the weather, and at the urgent request of the fishermen the Life-boat again went out and landed the six remaining men.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 15*s.*

Feb. 26.—WALTON-ON-NAZE, ESSEX. —James Stevens No. 14 Life-boat.—At 9.30 A.M. a telephone message was received from the Gunfleet Lighthouse stating that a vessel was aground on the sands. The crew and helpers of the Life-boat were at once summoned, and the boat promptly manned. There was a strong S.S.E. gale blowing, and it was cold and rough with heavy snow squalls. Under all sail the Life-boat proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the schooner Leif, of Rudkjobing; the master subsequently agreed with the Life-boatmen and a tug, which had also come out, to save his vessel. This they succeeded in doing, and took the vessel into Harwich.—Property salvage service.

Feb. 26.—WICK, CAITHNESS-SHIRE. —John Avins Life-boat.—While the fishing boat Olive, of Banff, was attempting to put to sea in a moderate S.E. breeze, but rather rough sea, she grounded on a sandbank at the mouth of the harbour, when a huge wave drove her on to the rocks at the back of the North Quay. The Coxswain of the Life-boat seeing the danger she was in, at once launched the Life-boat and proceeded to her. On arrival the skipper asked that the Life-boat should remain by him in case the efforts then being made to get his boat off should not be successful. This they did, but with the flowing tide the fishing boat got clear, and in a somewhat damaged state returned to the harbour.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 6*s.*

Feb. 26.—WEYMOUTH, DORSET.—Friern Watch Life-boat.—During rough weather, the wind blowing dead on shore with a heavy sea, a message was received from the Coastguard stating that a large foreign ship, which afterwards proved to be the Alauda, of Hamburg, had just signalled, "Send Life-boat to save crew." This was at 6.5 P.M., and within ten minutes the Life-boat was on her way to the vessel. On reaching her it was found that no less than four steamers were rendering assistance, and the master stated he did not require further help, but he wished the Life-boat to remain in attendance until the ship was in safety. This was done, and subsequently the Coxswain boarded the vessel, when the master said, "You came very quickly when I made signal for Life-boat. I was afraid the tugs would not get me clear. I wanted to save my daughter and crew."—Expense of service, 23*l.* 8*s.*

Feb. 27.—WINTERTON, NORFOLK.—Margaret Life-boat.—In the early morning, during moderate but cold weather, a barque was observed on the Hasboro' Sands. The No. 2 Life-boat was launched and made for the wreck; on the way a steam-tug picked them up and towed them to the vessel, which proved to be the barque Actæon, of Drammen, bound for Liverpool with a cargo of timber. On arrival the captain stated he intended to try to get his vessel off without assistance when the tide made, but requested the Life-boat to stand by in case her services should be required. This they did, and the vessel floating off at high water, they returned to Winterton, which was reached at 5 P.M.—Expense of service, 22*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*

March 4.—BROADSTAIRS, KENT.—Francis Forbes Barton Life-boat.—About 6.30 A.M. it was reported that the Lightships on the Goodwin Sands were firing signals. The Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the sands, where they found the s.s. Margarethe, of Bergen, stranded. The Life-boat went alongside, but found that the crew had left the vessel and were on board a Dover tug that was standing by her. There was six feet of water in the engine-room, but when the boat reached her she was beginning to swing to her anchor with the tide; the Life-boatmen therefore slipped the cable, took a hawser to the tug, which towed the vessel to Dover, accompanied by the Life-boat.—Property salvage case.

March 4.—MARGATE, KENT.—Eliza Harriet Life-boat.—During a strong E.N.E. gale and heavy sea, signals were reported about 7.15 P.M. Owing to the exceptionally low tide it was only after great difficulty the No. 1 Life-boat was launched, and proceeded to the Tongue Lightship; there it was learnt they were repeating the signals made by the Princess Channel Lightship. The Life-boat at once made for that vessel, where they were informed signals of distress had been observed to the N.W. Proceeding in that direction, the ketch Rothie May was found at anchor in dangerous proximity to the sands, with the seas breaking right over her. With difficulty the Life-boat got alongside; the master then stated that he had been on the sands, but had knocked over. At his request five of the Life-boatmen were put on board, and about 4 A.M., with their assistance, the anchor was weighed and the vessel got clear of the sandbanks, the Life-boat meanwhile standing by. When the ketch was out of danger the Eliza Harriett returned to her station, leaving the men she had placed on board the ketch to take her into port.—Property salvage case.

March 5.—STONEHAVEN, KINCARDINESHIRE.—Alexander Black Life-boat.—This Life-boat was launched shortly after noon, to the fishing fleet, which had put to sea earlier in the day, and were overtaken by a strong gale, which caused the sea to rise rapidly, and render the return of the fishing-boats when crossing the bar, highly dangerous. All the boats, however, succeeded in getting in without accident, after which the Alexander Black returned ashore.—Expense of service, 6*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*

March 7.—ROSSLARE HARBOUR, WEXFORD.—Tom and Jennie Life-boat.—The schooner Yarra Yarra, of Skerries, bound from Newport to Wexford with a cargo of coal, was driven ashore near the Rosslare Lighthouse in a strong E.S.E. gale and very rough sea, during the night. Signals of distress were displayed and both the Life-boat and life-saving apparatus responded. Efforts were made by those on shore to get connection with the rocket apparatus, but the vessel was too far out. After considerable difficulty the crew of the Life-boat succeeded in getting near the stranded vessel, whose crew, owing to the darkness, the fierce gale and the seas dashing over them, were in a position of great peril. Communication was at last effected with the help of a line, and the three hands on board were dragged one by one through the raging sea to the Life-boat in safety.

Sail was then made and the Life-boat returned ashore, where the rescued men received every attention. The Yarra Yarra, after the crew had been saved, became a total wreck. On receipt of the news that a vessel was in distress, when the signal for the Life-boat's crew was fired, four gentlemen, Messrs. J. HOWLIN, J. MONKHOUSE, T. THOMPSON, and F. R. WOODLEIGH, kindly volunteered their services, and as promptness was all-important, their offer was accepted; they were cordially thanked subsequently by the Committee of Management for their gallant and useful co-operation.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 18*s.*

March 8.—RUNSWICK, YORKSHIRE.—Cape of Good Hope Life-boat.—The usual quietude of Runswick, a small fishing village to the north of Whitby, was considerably disturbed in the early hours of the 8th March by the s.s. Ayuthia, of London, stranding on the rocks known locally as the "North Steel," during the prevalence of a thick fog and a heavy sea. In response to her signals of distress the life-saving apparatus proceeded to the scene of the casualty, but was unable to effect any communication, as, in spite of strenuous efforts, they could not get into a position for the rocket lines to reach the vessel. However, within a quarter of an hour of the first signal being seen, the Life-boat was launched, but not without tremendous difficulty in consequence of the heavy breakers, and, once afloat, it was not long before she was alongside the distressed vessel, and proceeded to take part of the crew on board. The rough sea and close proximity of rocks rendered this exceedingly dangerous, and on several occasions the Life-boat was nearly thrown on to the steamer. After leaving the ship on the return journey, the Life-boat broached to, being for the moment completely buried; having regard to the large number on board the position was somewhat desperate, especially as several oars were broken, but fortunately the crew managed to get her before the sea without further accident, and the twenty rescued men were landed in safety. Undaunted by the arduous nature and danger of their first trip, the sturdy fishermen prepared to return without delay to those left on board the Ayuthia. The boat was hauled up on her carriage and another launch successfully effected, but to do this the many willing launchers had to go waist deep into the water. Reaching the stranded vessel after another desperate struggle, the remainder of those on board, numbering sixteen, including the captain's wife, were rescued and taken into safety, the Life-boatmen being thoroughly exhausted when they reached the shore the second time. They were enthusiastic in their praises of the behaviour of their Life-boat, and this service, resulting in the saving of 36 lives, is considered locally the finest one ever performed in the neighbourhood. The Committee of Management, in appreciation of the gallantry displayed, made an additional award to the crew of the Life-boat.—Expense of service, 45*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.*

March 9.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Leicester Life-boat.—The shrimp-boat Falcon, while homeward bound in a strong N.E. breeze, stranded on the outer bank to the south of the harbour. On information reaching Gorleston, the No. 2 Life-boat was promptly despatched to her help, but just as the boat reached her the sea washed the Falcon on to the mainland. The Leicester then stood by her and laid out an anchor, by which, when the tide rose, she was hove off, after which she was towed into harbour by the Life-boat.—Expense of service, 23*l.* 9*s.* 6*d.*

March 9 and 10.—MARGATE, KENT.—Eliza Harriet Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched about 11.15 P.M. in response to flares shown in Margate Roads by the steam launch Sterry, of Lowestoft, bound to Penzance with coal, which was found riding to her anchor in about four fathoms of water close to the land, with the seas breaking right over her. The launch being so small, and the sea so heavy, it was only with great difficulty the Life-boat was taken alongside, three attempts being unsuccessful. As soon as the Life-boat got near enough, the crew of three jumped on board. The Sterry was left riding to her anchor, and the crew were conveyed to Margate, arriving at 2.30 A.M. At daylight next morning, the launch was found ashore under the cliffs. During this service the wind was blowing a strong gale from N.E. accompanied by a rough sea.—Expense of service, 24*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.*

Two hours after the return of the Life-boat another vessel was reported in distress; the crew were again summoned and the Life-boat launched. They proceeded in the direction of the signals, passing through an exceptionally heavy sea. At times the boat was quite buried, the sea making a clean sweep right over her; she however cleared herself well and eventually the vessel, which proved to be the ketch Robert Henry, of Rye, was reached. Three attempts were made before they got alongside; two men were placed on board, when the hawser carried away. With difficulty communication was again established, and five more men boarded her; the cable was then slipped, and after a considerable amount of hard work the ketch was rescued from her perilous position. The Life-boat then returned ashore, Margate being reached at 8 A.M.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 10th March, 1904.

Voted 607*l.* 5*s.* 5*d.* to pay the expenses of assemblies of crews, watching, etc., or launches at the following Life-boat Stations with the view of assisting those on board vessels in distress:—Ackergill, Aldeburgh, Anstruther, Atherfield, Bridlington Quay, Brighstone Grange, Brighton, Bull Bay, Campbeltown, Cromer, Donna Nook, Gorleston No. 1 and tugs, Hasborough, Harwich (steam), Hayle, Howth, Kingstown No. 2, Looe, Mablethorpe, Margate Nos. 1 and 2, Newhaven, New Romney, Palling No. 2, Penzance, Plymouth, Pwllheli, Sutton, Swansea, Walton-on-Naze, Whitburn, Whitehaven and Winchelsea.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was also launched on two occasions.

Also voted a gratuity of 20*l.* to SAMUEL CHARLETON, for many years Coxswain of the Seascale Life-boat before the abolition of that station.

Also 10*l.* to the widow of a coast-guardsmen, who had a fit and expired while putting the gear in order after the launch of the Margate No. 1 Life-boat on the 4th March.

March 12.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Bradford Life-boat.—Signals were reported from the Gull Light-vessel and were promptly responded to by the Life-boat and the Ramsgate harbour tug. On reaching the light-vessel they learned that a vessel was ashore to the northward, and also that a boat from her had come alongside a short time previously having six of the crew in her, and that they had left for Deal. The tug and Life-boat then proceeded along the sands, and to the northward found the brigantine Eleanor, of Yarmouth, with only the master on board. Eight of the Life-boatmen were put on board and a rope passed to the tug. By their united efforts the vessel was got clear, and both the vessel and Life-boat were towed back to Ramsgate.—Property salvage case.

March 20 — RAMSGATE, KENT.—Bradford Life-boat.—During the night the harbour tug and the Life-boat were again called out to the assistance of the barque Gwydyr Castle, of Liverpool, which had stranded on the north end of the Goodwin Sands while bound from Port Pirie to Antwerp with a cargo of silver ore, the weather being moderately fine, but hazy. When the Life-boat went alongside the master asked for immediate help to get his ship off. This was shortly after 11 P.M., and about midnight a hawser was successfully taken to the tug, which, after trying for an hour, got the vessel afloat. She then took her to a safe anchorage in the Downs, arriving there at 6 A.M. Four of the Life-boatmen were left on board, and the tug and Life-boat then proceeded to the assistance of another vessel ashore abreast the East Goodwin Buoy. It was 7.30 A.M. when the Bradford and the tug got near this vessel, but they had to wait till noon before they could get alongside, as there was not sufficient water. On the Life-boatmen boarding the ship, which was the schooner Regulus, of Riga, they found six Deal men there rendering assistance. When the tide had flowed sufficiently for the tug to get near the vessel a rope was taken on board, and by 1.30 P.M. the Regulus was towed off and taken to Ramsgate. — Payments arranged by the Board of Trade.

March 21.—HOLYHEAD, ANGLESEY.
—Duke of Northumberland Life-boat.
—At 4.30 A.M., during a N.W. wind, signals of distress were observed in the vicinity of the "North Stack," and in response the steam Life-boat promptly put off through a rough sea. On arriving at the vessel, which proved to be the steamship Clan Grant, of Liverpool, of more than 2,000 tons, it was found she had been in collision, and was in need of a pilot to take her to Holyhead, where she was eventually beached. — Expenses paid by owners.

March 24.—PAKEFIELD, SUFFOLK.—
Two Sisters, Mary and Hannah Life-boat.
—During a strong wind from E.N.E. and a heavy sea, flares were seen from a vessel on the South Newcombe Sands. The Life-boat's crew were summoned, and without delay the Life-boat proceeded to her assistance. On reaching the sands they found the steam trawler Frobisher, of Great Yarmouth, with her rudder broken, riding to a kedge anchor in twelve feet of water, her large anchor having been lost. A Life-boatman was put on board, and the boat, with the assistance of a tug, which had also come out, succeeded in saving the vessel and her crew of nine hands. — Property salvage case.

March 23–24.—NEW ROMNEY, KENT.
—James Stevens No. 11 Life-boat.—A telephone message was received from the coastguard about midnight stating that a vessel was making signals of distress off Littlestone Point. The night was cold and wet, accompanied by a strong N.E. wind and rough sea, but the Life-boat took the water well and when clear of the breakers bore down on the vessel and pulled up under her lee. Seas were then breaking right over her, and the crew were in a very dangerous position. Directly the Life-boat got alongside all the hands, five in number, jumped on board and the Life-boat made for the shore. Some difficulty was experienced in landing owing to the heavy surf, but ample assistance being available it was accomplished in safety. The vessel was the schooner Antje, of Geestemunde. — Expense of service, 41*l.* 7*s.*

March 26.—MONTROSE, FORFARSHIRE.
—Marianne Atherstone Life-boat.—This Life-boat performed an excellent service on the 26th March, resulting in the saving of four lives. About 5 o'clock a steamer was seen approaching the harbour, but as the sea was very heavy on the bar it was not considered safe by some of the pilots to go out to her. Four men however were seen to pull down the river, evidently with the intention of going to the steamer. While crossing the bar the boat was filled by a heavy sea, which washed the men overboard. Within five minutes of the accident the Life-boat was launched, and with all speed made for the spot. They found the boat, which was awash, had drifted about three hundred yards to the southward with two of the men clinging to her, and they were at once taken into the Life-boat. After this the boat made for one of the others, who was clinging to the boat's mast, but he held on so tenaciously, as with a death grip, that it was only after considerable difficulty and trouble he was picked up. The last of the four was then found clinging to the boat's oars, and he was also saved by the Life-boat, which then made for Montrose. The rescued men were all in a very exhausted condition and had, when landed, to be medically treated, but happily all recovered.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 17*s.*

March 27.—STAITHES, YORKSHIRE.—Jonathan Stott Life-boat.—The steam trawler Maggie Ross stranded on the rocks at Boulby in hazy weather about 4 A.M., while bound from Aberdeen to Hull with a cargo of fish. About 7 A.M. three of the crew of the vessel arrived at Staithes in the ship's boat and reported the casualty. Some cobsles were launched, but found there was too much sea for them to reach the trawler; the ship's boat, however, put off again with the intention of returning to the stranded vessel, but was upset in the surf, two of the crew being unfortunately drowned; the third man was washed ashore alive. The Life-boat was promptly launched, and, although unable to save the two men lost from the boat, succeeded in rescuing the remainder of the crew of the trawler, six in number.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 14*s.*

March 29.—NEWHAVEN, SUSSEX.—Michael Henry Life-boat.—The Coxswain of the Life-boat was called at 3.50 A.M. by the harbour watchman, who reported that a vessel was in distress at the mouth of the harbour. The Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the ketch Progress, of Brixham, aground on the bar. On the master being asked if he required assistance, he requested the Life-boat to stand by him to see if the vessel would float with the rising tide. This they did, and when the ketch got clear both she and the Life-boat proceeded to the harbour. The wind was blowing a moderate gale from S.W., with a heavy sea, and the weather was very cold and thick, with rain.—Expense of service, 23*l.* 3*s.*

March 29.—LOWESTOFT, SUFFOLK.—Stock Exchange Life-boat.—At midnight the trawler Industry, of Lowestoft, while homeward bound, went ashore on the Newcome Sands. A strong wind was blowing, accompanied by a heavy sea at the time. On information reaching Lowestoft the No. 2 Life-boat proceeded with all despatch to the aid of those on board. The trawler was missed in the first attempt to reach her, but the Life-boat quickly put about, anchored to windward, and veered down to her. The master and four hands were then successfully rescued, but while taking them off a heavy sea struck the Life-boat, throwing her on to the trawl beam, which seriously damaged the boat, but not sufficiently to prevent her reaching Lowestoft again in safety at 1.40 A.M. on the 30th.—Expense of service, 40*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*

About an hour later the Stock Exchange went out again in tow of a tug to try to save the trawler. Several men were placed on board and manned the pumps, a hawser was then taken to the tug, and later in the day the Industry was towed into Lowestoft.—Property salvage case.

April 1.—BERWICK-ON-TWEED, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Matthew Simpson Life-boat.—A small sailing yacht, the Little Teal, of Berwick, was observed during the afternoon trying to keep in shore, but the westerly wind was too heavy for her to carry any after-sail, and she was driven out. At 4 P.M. the Coastguard telephoned to the Coxswain of the Life-boat, and the Life-boat was promptly launched. The yacht was by this time five or six miles off land, in great danger of being swamped owing to the roughness of the sea. On reaching her the Life-boat took her in tow, landing her and her crew of three at 8 P.M.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 18*s.*

April 2.—WEXFORD, IRELAND.—James Stevens No. 15 Life-boat.—During a strong S.S.W. gale the lightship's tender steamship Belle, of Wexford, stranded on the bar at the mouth of the river, and the Life-boat was despatched with promptness to her assistance. The sea was heavy and broken, continually washing right over the Life-boat. On getting alongside, the Belle, over which the sea was also breaking, was found to have eight feet of water in her, her fires were extinguished, and her machinery disabled. The crew of four men and five lightship men, nine in all, were taken into the Life-boat, which then returned and landed them at Wexford Quay, some in a very exhausted state. Very shortly after the return of the Life-boat the steamer went to pieces.—Expense of service, 5*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.*

April 5.—Three days later the James Stevens No. 15 was again called out, and rescued the crew of seven men of the smack Annie, of Wexford. In answer to her signals of distress, the Life-boat proceeded at 7.30 P.M. and found the smack near the bar at anchor; her mast had been carried away, and she was in considerable danger of her cable parting. All the men were taken on board the Life-boat, which then took them to Wexford Quay. During this service a moderate W.S.W. gale was blowing, but after the men were landed it got very much worse; it was therefore decided to keep the Life-boat at Wexford that night. She returned to her station next day when the weather had moderated.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*

April 3.—HOYLAK, CHESHIRE.—Coard William Squarey Life-boat.—A party of four Liverpool yachtsmen were rescued from a dangerous position in the early morning. They set out the night before in the yacht Shrimp, but had not proceeded far when they encountered a severe westerly gale, accompanied by violent showers of hail and a heavy sea. They lost their punt, and the yacht when in the Rock channel got into difficulties. In response to their signals of distress, the Life-boat was launched to them and succeeded in rescuing the four imperilled yachtsmen, landing them at Hoylake at 10.30 A.M.—Expense of service, 33*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.*

April 3.—PORTHLEVEN, CORNWALL.—John Francis White Life-boat.—This Life-boat rendered very valuable assistance to the steam launch Sterry, of Lowestoft, on Easter Sunday morning. There was a strong wind blowing from the west, and the vessel was unable to steam against the strong wind and sea. She had been at anchor about twenty hours, and her position was most dangerous; in addition to this the crew were without provisions and in an exhausted condition. The launch was taken in tow by the Life-boat and during the afternoon placed in a position of safety. The wind afterwards increased in force, and but for the help of the Life-boat she would probably have foundered. This was the same vessel from which the crew were rescued by the Margate Life-boat on the 9th March.—Property salvage case.

April 5.—PETERHEAD, ABERDEENSHIRE.—George Pickard Life-boat.—During the night, the wind, which had been blowing strongly from the north-west, increased to a whole gale, the sea becoming extremely rough, and about 10.30 A.M. on the following morning information was received that one of the steam trawlers, which had been sheltering in the Bay, had stranded about two miles to the south of Peterhead. The Life-boat was promptly launched and proceeded under sail to the distressed vessel. On getting alongside the trawler, which proved to be the Ben Venue, of Aberdeen, she was found to be full of water and in great danger of sliding off the rocks and sinking. The crew of nine men were therefore taken into the Life-boat, which was towed back to Peterhead by another trawler which had also come to assist the men on board the Ben Venue. Very shortly after the rescue the stranded trawler sank.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 14*s.*

April 10.—PORT LOGAN, WIGTOWNSHIRE.—Frederick Allen Life-boat.—Information was received at 5.15 P.M. that a vessel was showing distress signals in Luce Bay. The Life-boat was as quickly as possible transported on her carriage to the most convenient launching place at Tirally Bay, upwards of two miles distant, and launched without delay. On reaching the vessel she was found to be in a dangerous position on a lee shore, she was also leaking and had lost one anchor. The master refused to leave his vessel, but asked the Life-boat to stand by him, which did so for about two hours; he then requested the crew to return ashore and telegraph for a tug and return with an answer. As no tug arrived an agreement was made for the Life-boat to take the vessel to a more windward anchorage. This operation occupied several hours, and it was 11 A.M. on the 12th April before the Life-boat arrived at her house again.

The vessel was the barquentine Jessy, of Drogheda, bound from Drogheda to Ayr with a cargo of limestone.—Partly a property salvage case. Balance paid by Institution, 56*l.* 17*s.*

April 13.—KINGSDOWN, KENT.—Charles Hargrave Life-boat.—At 9.20 A.M. signals were fired by the South Sands Head Light-vessel indicating that a vessel was in distress on the Goodwin Sands. The crew of the Life-boat were quickly mustered and the boat proceeded to the sands, where they found the barque Baldur, of Trondhjem. It was blowing hard from S.W., with a rough sea, which made it difficult for the Life-boat to get alongside; on doing so, the Life-boatmen were engaged to try to save the vessel. Men were placed on board, who jettisoned the cargo, and at high water that night she was towed clear and proceeded to London, eight of the Life-boatmen going in her, to work the pumps. The Life-boat returned to her station, which was reached at 5 A.M. on the 14th idem.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 14th April, 1904.

Voted 522*l.* 10*s.* 3*d.* to pay the expenses of launching the following Life-boats or assembling the crews, with the view of assisting the crews of vessels in distress:—Aldeburgh, Broadstairs, Clacton-on-Sea, Coverack, Cresswell, Dunbar, Fraserburgh, Girvan, Gorleston No. 1, Irvine, Lowestoft No. 2, Mablethorpe, Margate No. 1, Newbiggin, New Brighton (steam), New Romney, North Deal, Walton-on-Naze, Whitelink Bay, Wicklow and Winchelsea.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was also called out on two occasions, but her services were not eventually required.

Also yearly pensions to ROBERT SAMPSON, Assistant-Coxswain, at Bridlington Quay; CHARLES D. PALMER, Coxswain, and GEORGE HEWSON, Bowman, of the Gorleston No. 3 station, and PHIL BOYLE, signalman at Aranmore.

Also a gratuity of 40*l.* to SAMUEL JONES, ex-Assistant-Coxswain of the New Brighton Life-boat and for many years a member of the crew.

Also 11*l.* 13*s.* 5*d.* to men injured while on duty at Hayling Island, Newhaven, Rye and Sheringham.

Also 6*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.* for a horse injured in the Life-boat service at Mablethorpe.

April 15.—WHITBY, YORKSHIRE.—Robert and Mary Ellis Life-boat.—During the evening one of the most exciting scenes ever remembered was witnessed at Whitby. The fishing fleet had left port early in the morning, the weather then being generally favourable. During the afternoon a heavy swell began to get up, and the sea on the bar made very quickly. Before 5 P.M. several of the fishing boats returned, but experienced great difficulty and risk, and as the remainder of the boats would be later in reaching the harbour and the weather became worse every minute, the crew of the Life-boat was mustered under the Coxswain of the Upgang Life-boat, her own Coxswain being at sea. Shortly afterwards the cable Lady Morris hove in sight. The Life-boat at once proceeded alongside and warned the skipper about the state of the bar, and then escorted her for the harbour, but just as the cable was crossing the bar a heavy cross sea struck her, capsizing her, and throwing her three occupants into the sea. The Life-boat promptly made for the spot, but the set of tide washed the men close to the West Pier, and the Life-boat had great difficulty in saving them. Owing to the strong easterly sea continually breaking over the Life-boat and setting her dangerously towards the West Pier, there was considerable risk of crushing the drowning men between the boat and the pier, or of smashing the boat to pieces. Life-buoys were thrown the men from the pier, but they were too exhausted and knocked about to help themselves. Eventually, however, the Life-boatmen succeeded in picking them up and took them safely ashore. The Life-boat then again proceeded to sea and convoyed three more cables safely over the bar; she then made a third journey and escorted another cable in. For the fourth time she put out, and having taken a man from one of the cables, convoyed two more into safety and landed her passenger. By this time the state of the weather rendered it quite unsafe for any more cobsles to attempt to return; the Life-boat therefore for the fifth and last time, again put to sea and warned the remaining boats to make for Runswick, which they did. During these services the crew had most arduous work and great difficulties to contend with. At times the seas dashed right over the boat, completely filling her, but every time she freed herself well and the work was successfully accomplished without damage to the Life-boat.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 15*s.*

April 18.—FISHGUARD, PEMBROKE-SHIRE.—Appin Life-boat.—The Life-boat rendered valuable assistance to the smack George Evans, of Cardigan. About 3 P.M. a vessel was reported by the Coastguard showing signals of distress, and the Life-boat proceeded to her as quickly as possible. On getting alongside the master asked the Coxswain to assist in getting his vessel clear, she having gone ashore in a dangerous position. This was agreed to. Some of the Life-boatmen were put on board, and eventually the smack was towed off and taken to Fishguard Bay.—Property salvage case, balance paid by Institution, 1*l.* 5*s.*

May 2.—TOTLAND BAY, ISLE OF WIGHT.—Robert Fleming Life-boat.—The schooner The Saint, of Padstow, while bound from Par, Cornwall, to Gravelines, with a cargo of china clay, stranded on the Warden Ledge in the early morning. On receipt of information from the Coastguard that a vessel was in distress, the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to her. On reaching the wreck, six persons, including the master's wife, were taken into the Life-boat, which landed them in safety, but the master and mate remained on the ship, as they hoped to save her; later in the day, however, they had to abandon her, and she became a total wreck. During this service a gale was blowing from S.W., the sea was very rough, and a strong tide running, and in rescuing the six people the Life-boat was considerably damaged.—Expense of service, 9*l.* 3*s.*

May 2.—TORQUAY, DEVONSHIRE.—Wighton Life-boat.—A large four-masted barque was observed at anchor in Torbay flying a signal for assistance. The Coastguard reported the matter to the Harbour Master, and within a quarter of an hour of the crew being summoned the Life-boat was on her way to the barque. A strong gale was blowing from the west, and on arrival at the vessel the captain requested the Life-boat to stand by him through the height of the gale. They learned that the barque was the Houth, of Dublin, a vessel of 3000 tons bound from San Francisco to Liverpool with a general cargo. After remaining with her some time, the Coxswain was asked by the Captain to take a message to Lloyd's Agent at Brixham, and the weather having moderated somewhat, this was done. On their return, as the wind was still dropping, the services of the Life-boat were no longer required; she therefore returned to her moorings during the afternoon.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 19*s.*

May 2.—WINCHELSEA, SUSSEX.—John William Dudley Life-boat.—A telephone message was received from Dungeness stating that a vessel off Dengemarsh was flying a signal, "Want immediate assistance." The crew and helpers of the Life-boat were assembled with all despatch, and the boat smartly launched, the helpers wading into the sea up to their necks in order to get her clear. The vessel proved to be the ship Derwent, of London, which in the strong south-westerly gale prevailing had broken adrift from the tug which had had her in tow. The Life-boat stood by her, and later, when the weather improved, she was again taken in tow by the steamer. The Life-boat then started to return to Winchelsea, but on account of the heavy cross sea running had to make for Dungeness, where she remained that night, returning to Winchelsea next morning.—Expense of service, 56*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 12th May, 1904.

Voted 11*l.* 14*s.* 1*d.* to pay the expenses of launches of Life-boats or assemblies of crews with the view of assisting persons in distress at the following Stations:—Broadstairs, Fraserburgh, Girvan, Harwich No. 1, North Deal, Port Erroll, Runswick and Whitelink Bay.

Also a grant of 10*l.* to the widow of FREDERICK ELLIOTT, late Coxswain of the Queenstown Life-boat.

Also 20*l.* as a final grant to J. O'DONNELL for injury incurred in the Life-boat service at Aranmore, and 7*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.* to a member of the crew at Winterton for an injury.

Also retiring pensions to J. MACKINS, Coxswain of the Walmer Life-boat, WILLIAM TYRRELL, Coxswain of the Harwich No. 2 Life-boat, and to H. J. WALKER, Signalman at Burnham, on their resignations.

Also a gratuity of 10*l.* to Mr. ANABONA for his great assistance and valuable co-operation for many years at Harwich.

May 14.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—About 3.50 P.M. the Coxswain's attention was drawn to a small boat which was apparently in distress about a mile from the shore. With promptness the crew of the No. 1 Life-boat were summoned, and she proceeded to the assistance of the three occupants of the boat. Before the Life-boat reached them they succeeded in getting to the St. Nicholas Light-vessel, where they took refuge. On the arrival of the Mark Lane they were taken on board and landed in safety at Gorleston. The wind at the time was blowing strongly from the west and the boat was in an absolutely helpless condition, as both oars were broken.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 3*s.*

May 14.—FOLKESTONE, KENT.—Leslie Life-boat.—At 7.20 P.M. the signal was fired denoting the Life-boat was required to assist some vessel in distress, and a steamer was seen in the fog making for the shore to the east of Folkestone. Within a very short time the Life-boat had been launched, and was alongside ready to render aid if necessary. The vessel, which proved to be the steamship Marzo, of Bilbao, had been in collision about four miles off, sustaining serious damage, and was in a sinking condition when beached. Shortly after the arrival of the Life-boat a tug came from Dover, and it was then decided to move the steamer to a safer position. This was carried out by the aid of the tug and Life-boatmen, the pumps being kept going all night. Meanwhile efforts were made to stop the leaks, the Leslie remaining alongside, and next morning the steamer was taken successfully to Dover, where she was docked. The Life-boat then returned to Folkestone, which was reached about 8 P.M.—Property salvage case.

May 14.—NEWHAVEN, SUSSEX.—Michael Henry Life-boat.—During a thick sea fog a message was received from the Coastguard that a vessel was ashore about half a mile to the west of Beachy Head. The wind was blowing strongly from W.S.W. and the sea was rough. Without delay the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the scene of the disaster; on arrival they found the schooner Emma Louise, of Harburg, stranded, whereupon the crew of six hands were promptly taken into the Life-boat, which afterwards safely landed them at Newhaven.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 8*s.*

May 18.—MARYPORT, CUMBERLAND.—Civil Service No. 5.—Shortly before 11 P.M. it was reported that a vessel was showing signals of distress on the north side of the harbour. The Life-boat was launched and proceeded to her assistance. The weather was very squally, a moderate W.N.W. gale blowing, and a rough broken sea, but within a quarter of an hour the Life-boat had rescued the crew of three hands from the vessel, which was the schooner Jane, of Wigtown, with a cargo of pitwood; she had been making for the harbour when she stranded; eventually she became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 3*s.*

May 25.—ST. DAVID'S, PEMBROKESHIRE.—Gem Life-boat.—Shortly after mid-day the Chief Officer of Coastguard reported that he had just received a telegram from Swansea, stating that the captain of the s.s. Tyne had reported a shipwrecked crew on the North Bishop's Rock. When observed by the steamer her life-boat was at once launched, but they were unable to effect any communication on account of the high sea running. Immediately on receipt of the news the Life-boat was despatched to the help of the five men, whom they found on the rock as stated; they were taken into the Life-boat without delay and landed in safety at St. David's. They subsequently stated that their vessel, the schooner Edith Crossfield, of Barrow, had struck the rock at 6 p.m. on the 23rd and sank in half an hour. Happily they had all managed to get on to the rock in safety, but were compelled to remain there as the ship's boat was wrecked in landing.—Expense of service, 8*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*

May 27.—HOPE COVE, DEVONSHIRE.—Alexandra Life-boat.—During a dense fog in the Channel the passenger steamer Lady Hudson Kinahan, of Dublin, ran ashore half a mile to the eastward of the "Bolt Tail," on the South Devon coast. Information reached Hope Cove at 9.15 p.m., and the Life-boat proceeded to the vessel with all despatch. Twenty-six of the passengers were taken into the Life-boat, which then returned to the shore and landed them. In the meantime steps were taken to refloat the steamer, and when this was successfully accomplished those who wished were taken back to the vessel which, in a damaged condition, proceeded to Plymouth. The Life-boat then returned to her station.—Expense of service, 26*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.*

May 28.—ATHERFIELD, ISLE OF WIGHT.—Catherine Swift Life-boat.—In the morning, during a temporary lift in the prevailing fog, a schooner was observed on the Atherfield Ledge. The crew of the Life-boat were summoned, and the boat proceeded to the vessel's assistance. On going alongside they found that she was the Dolly, of Harburg, bound from Teignmouth to Leith with a cargo of china clay. A kedge anchor was laid out, and an unsuccessful attempt made to get her off. Later another attempt was made with the assistance of a tug, but without avail, and she gradually filled with water. The crew of five hands were then taken into the Life-boat, which landed them in safety about noon.—Expense of service, 29*l.* 2*s.*

June 5.—WINTERTON, NORFOLK.—Edward Birkbeck Life-boat.—During a thick fog the s.s. Osprey, of London, collided with another steamer and was very seriously damaged. The captain, to prevent his vessel sinking, decided to beach her, and about 3 p.m. she was observed through the fog making for the shore. The crew of the No. 1 Life-boat were promptly called out, and went to the aid of the sinking steamer. When they reached her she was ashore, and the engine-room and after compartments were full of water. There were thirty-six persons, all told, on board, including several passengers, the steamer being bound from Granton to London with passengers and a general cargo. In three trips the Life-boat landed all the passengers and the majority of the crew, leaving only the captain and three others on board. The boat then returned and stood by the vessel, and at 2.45, on the morning of the 6th, the remaining four men were taken into the Life-boat, and a quarter of an hour later were landed in safety. The wind during this service was blowing strong from N.E., and there was a heavy swell.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 9th June, 1904.

Voted 5*l.* 15*s.* to pay the expenses of assembly of the crews of the following Life-boats with the view of helping persons in distress:—Salcombe and Whitelink Bay.

Also a retiring pension, together with a certificate of service to SAMUEL GIBBS, Coxswain of the Port Eynon Life-boat, on resigning.

Also a pension to M. BURNICLE, Coxswain of the Redcar Life-boat.

Also a gratuity of 10*l.* to the widow of R. ROBERTS, late Coxswain of the Penmon Life-boat, and 20*l.* to R. G. DAVIDSON, ex-Coxswain of the Sheringham Life-boat.

June 9.—SCARBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE.—Queensbury Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched about 7.30 a.m. in the morning to render assistance to the fishing fleet, which had to return to harbour on account of the weather. The cobles had left for the fishing grounds about 3 o'clock in the morning, and shortly afterwards the N.E. wind increased until it was blowing half a gale, causing the sea to make very quickly. The Life-boat stood by ready to render assistance in the event of any casualty, but happily her help was not called for.—Expense of service, 10*l.* 9*s.*

June 9.—SOUTHWOLD, SUFFOLK.—Rescue Life-boat.—About 10 P.M. it was reported that a punt, named the Rapid, belonging to Southwold, had not returned ashore. As the wind was blowing strongly from E. by S., accompanied by a very nasty sea, the No. 2 Life-boat was launched, and for a time searched for the missing boat; in the darkness, however, she could not be found. The Coxswain then remained at sea until daybreak, when the punt was seen about a mile away. The Life-boat at once made for her, and succeeded, about 4 A.M., in bringing both the boat and the four occupants ashore in safety.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 2*s.*

June 10.—WHITBY, YORKSHIRE.—Robert and Mary Ellis Life-boat.—Three of the fishing cobs belonging to Whitby were overtaken by severe weather, and as their return to port could only be accomplished with great risk, the No. 1 Life-boat was launched about 10 A.M., and escorted them into harbour. The wind was blowing moderately from the N.E. at the time, but the sea on the bar was very rough and broken.—Expense of service, 10*l.* 8*s.*

June 15.—ARBROATH, FORFARSHIRE.—James Stevens No. 13 Life-boat.—At 3.30 A.M. two of the fishing cobs were observed trying to make for the harbour. There was a heavy gale blowing from S.S.E., and it was evident that they could not cross the bar without considerable risk to the men on board. The Life-boat was accordingly launched, and remained in attendance until both cobs were in safety.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 9*s.*

June 16.—NORTH SUNDERLAND, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Thomas Bewick Life-boat.—During a whole W.S.W. gale and rough sea, the fishing-boat Pilgrim, of Buckhaven, was observed about three miles off North Sunderland Harbour showing signals of distress. At 3.45 P.M. the Life-boat was sent to her assistance, taking with her a borrowed sail, as it appeared probable that the fishing boat's sails had been blown away. This proved to be the case, and after several attempts the Life-boat got alongside and placed the sail and five men on board. The boat's crew were much exhausted, but with the assistance thus rendered they were able to bring their boat safely into harbour.—Expense of service, 9*l.* 12*s.*

June 25.—NORTH SUNDERLAND, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Thomas Bewick Life-boat.—The services of this Life-boat were again called into requisition. Four of the herring boats belonging to the port were waiting for the tide to rise sufficiently for them to get into harbour, but in the prevailing weather—a N.E. gale and heavy sea—the harbour authorities considered it dangerous and hoisted the warning signal. The boats having their catches of fish on board, the men were anxious to land them and it was seen they intended to try to get in. As an attempt would be attended with considerable risk, the Life-boat launched and proceeded out of the harbour, and convoyed each of the boats safely in.—Expense of service, 5*l.* 14*s.*

July 6.—THE MUMBLES, GLAMORGANSHIRE.—Reserve Life-boat.—About noon the Coastguard fired the Life-boat assembly signal, and in response the crew quickly mustered, launched the boat, and at once proceeded to the s.s. Lilian, of West Hartlepool, which was ashore in a very dangerous position to the south of Mumbles Head. On the arrival of the Life-boat an offer was made to take the crew off, but this they declined as there was no immediate danger. After standing by the vessel for some time the boat returned ashore; but later in the day, on the weather becoming rather threatening, the Life-boat again went off to the vessel and remained by her until after high water. As the Lilian proved to be badly damaged and was in a very exposed position no attempt was made to float her; and the Life-boat's assistance not being required she returned to her station at 2 A.M. and re-housed.—Expense of service, 30*l.* 9*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 14th July, 1904.

Voted 48*l.* 12*s.* to pay the expenses of launches or assemblies of crews at the following stations, with the view of rendering assistance to vessels supposed to be in distress:—Dunbar, Girvan, St. David's, Wexford, and Winchelsea.

Also 16*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.* to men injured while engaged in Life-boat work at Exmouth, Sunderland and Tramore.

Also yearly pensions to JOHN McIVOR, late Coxswain at Greenore, and JAMES LAWRENCE, late Assistant-Coxswain at Selsey, the former being also awarded a certificate of service.

Also a donation of 10*l.* to the Orphans of J. McJURY, for many years a member of the Life-boat crew at Port Patrick, who was accidentally drowned on the 15th June.

Also 9*l.* 10*s.* to S. MUNRO, for many years Caretaker at Montrose.

July 19.—STAITHES, YORKSHIRE.—Temporary Life-boat.—The fishing cobsles belonging to this place were overtaken while at sea by heavy weather, and their return was attended with great danger. In order to ensure the safety of the fishermen the Life-boat was launched about 7 A.M., and stood by each boat as she came in. Happily, all succeeded in reaching the shore in safety, and shortly before noon the Life-boat returned ashore and was re-housed.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 16*s.*

July 24.—BERWICK-ON-TWEED, NORTH-UMBERLAND.—Matthew Simpson Life-boat.—During a thick fog the s.s. Torbryan, of Glasgow, stranded on the rocks at Dodds Well, about 1½ miles north of Berwick Harbour, at 1.30 P.M. The life-saving apparatus went to her assistance and stood by in readiness, but towards evening the Chief Officer of Coastguard sent a message to the Life-boat authorities that it was desirable for the Life-boat to stand by during the night, in case she was required while attempts were being made to refloat the steamer. The Life-boat was therefore launched at 6 P.M. and proceeded to the scene of the accident. She remained in attendance until 11 P.M., when the vessel was refloated without mishap, and she then returned to Berwick.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 16*s.*

July 28.—NORTH-SUNDERLAND, NORTH-UMBERLAND.—Thomas Bewick Life-boat.—The fishing-boat Affiance, of St. Ives, whilst bound for the fishing-grounds, stranded on the Farne Islands, the weather being fine and the sea smooth at the time. In response to her signals of distress, the Life-boat was despatched to assist her, and she stood by the boat until the tide flowed sufficiently to float her; the Life-boat then took her in tow and placed her in safety in the roadstead.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 3*s.*

Aug. 6.—YEALM RIVER, DEVONSHIRE.—Michael Smart Life-boat.—A message was received shortly before nine o'clock in the morning, stating that a sailing-barge was in difficulties near the entrance to Mothecombe Harbour. The Life-boat was at once launched and proceeded to the barge, which was found dangerously near the rocks, and shipping a great deal of water, the crew of two men being in a very exhausted condition. She had put to sea the previous evening, but her rudder carried away; she then anchored, but in the heavy weather which was prevailing, her cable also carried away, and when the Life-boat reached her she was depending only on two small anchors. As there was not much prospect of the barge remaining afloat very long, the crew were taken into the Life-boat, which then returned and landed them at Yealm Harbour.—Expense of service, 6*l.* 5*s.* 6*d.*

Aug. 6.—ILFRACOMBE, NORTH DEVON.—Co-operator No. 2 Life-boat.—During the morning the Life-boat rescued two persons, who were found in a pitiable condition in a fishing boat, which was dismasted and drifting helplessly in a strong W.S.W. wind and rough sea. The boat Bonnie Lad, of Sennen, had been fishing at Salvon, and when about five miles east of Lundy Island homeward bound, had her mast and sails blown away in a squall, about 9 o'clock in the evening of the 5th. She drifted all that night, and it was only due to both men bailing continuously and pumping that she was kept afloat. About 9 A.M.

she was observed from Ilfracombe, and reported to the Coxswain of the Life-boat. In less than five minutes, the Co-operator No. 2 was launched, and with the wind and tide in her favour, reached the disabled craft half an hour later, off Watersmouth. It was at once seen that the two men were in a thoroughly exhausted state and almost helpless. Two Life-boatmen were placed on board, who gave them rum and biscuits, and it subsequently transpired that they had had nothing to eat for over twenty-four hours. The Bonnie Lad was then taken in tow, and both boats reached Ilfracombe harbour during the afternoon. The two men, who were father and son, were both very grateful for their timely rescue, and the elder man subsequently stated that "he was never so delighted in his life as when he caught sight of the Life-boat." A few days later, after their safe return home, the Hon. Secretary of the Ilfracombe Branch, Mr. W. COLE, received a letter expressing the heartfelt gratitude of the rescued men and their relations to all who had assisted them in their hour of need.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 9*s.* 6*d.*

Aug. 6.—KINGSTOWN, CO. DUBLIN.—Dunleary Life-boat.—About noon during a strong W.N.W. gale and rough sea, the Coastguard reported that the ketch Standard, of Fowey, was dragging her anchors and was in danger on a lee shore in Dublin Bay. The Life-boat was promptly launched, and proceeded to the place indicated. In the meantime, the Standard had brought up to her anchors, and on the arrival of the Life-boat was riding head to sea. As the crew were in no immediate danger, the Life-boat stood by the ketch for an hour, and then, finding her services were not required any longer, returned to her station and was rehoused during the afternoon.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 14*s.*

Aug. 6.—PENMON, ANGLESEY.—Christopher Brown Life-boat.—During a strong gale the yacht Maude, of Glasgow, was observed flying a signal of distress while at anchor, and the Life-boat at once proceeded to her. Having anchored to windward, the Life-boat was veered down to the yacht, and three of her occupants were taken off; the crew of two men, however, preferred to remain on board. The Life-boat therefore returned without them and landed the three men at Beaumaris. It appeared that the yacht was on her way to Scotland, but in the heavy weather lost her sails and some of her spars; she then anchored as stated above, and later in the day was towed by a steamer to moorings off Bangor.—Expense of service, 13*l.* 17*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 11th August, 1904.

Voted 54*l.* 15*s.* in payment of assemblies of crews or launches to the aid of vessels not ultimately needing help, by the following Life-boats—Broadstairs, Bull Bay, Carrickfergus, Harwich (steam), Palling No. 1, and Penmon. The Ramsgate Life-boat was also launched on service.

Also a yearly pension to GEORGE MACBETH on resignation of the post of signalman at Angle.

Also a grant of 2*l.* to a man engaged in the Life-boat service at North Deal.

August 14.—POOLBEG, CO. DUBLIN.—Richard Cresswell Life-boat.—The yacht Psyche, of Dublin, drove ashore near the Flash Light, on the north bank of the Liffey, during a heavy squall in a westerly gale, and as the position of the occupants was one of great danger the Life-boat was promptly despatched to their assistance. On reaching the disabled vessel the crew, three in number, were taken into the Life-boat, which conveyed them safely ashore.—Expense of service, 4*l.* 14*s.*

August 15.—HOWTH, CO. DUBLIN.—James Stevens No. 7 Life-boat.—At 3 o'clock in the afternoon two youths, aged 15 and 14 respectively, took a boat from her moorings in the harbour and proceeded out to sea. On getting clear of the harbour, it was noticed by the onlookers that they were inexperienced, and unable to manage their craft. There was a strong W.N.W. breeze blowing with heavy squalls and a moderately high sea. The boat, being driven before the wind and tide, became unmanageable, and the lives of the lads were thought to be in danger. The Life-boat was therefore launched and was sent to their assistance. In the meantime the wind lulled somewhat and shifted, and the lads rowed to the Bailey Lighthouse Cliffs, where two boatmen from the shore got on board. On the arrival of the Life-boat the whole party was taken on board, and the boat was towed back to harbour.—Expense of service, 6*l.* 13*s.*

Aug. 31. — RHYL, FLINTSHIRE. — Caroline Richardson Life-boat.—Shortly after noon, while a diver was giving a performance at the pier-head, the attendant boat was capsized, throwing her two occupants into the water. There was a moderate N.W. gale, accompanied by a very heavy sea at the time. With the assistance of the diver one of the men managed to reach the pier, but the other commenced to drift rapidly out to sea, clinging to an oar. As no small boat could launch in so heavy a sea, the Life-boat was signalled for. Within a few minutes the boat was in the water, and with all speed proceeded to the drifting man, who was skilfully picked up in a very exhausted condition. As soon as the boat regained the shore medical aid was given the unfortunate man, who in due time was successfully restored. The accident having occurred in the middle of the day, both the launch and the rescue were witnessed by some thousands of spectators.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*

Sept. 1.—LOWESTOFT, SUFFOLK. — Samuel Plimsoll Life-boat. — About 8 A.M. the Coastguard gave information to the Coxswain of the No. 1 Life-boat, that a vessel was aground on the Holm Sand. He promptly mustered his crew, and left for the vessel in tow of a tug. On reaching the sands the Life-boat was anchored and veered down to the wreck, which proved to be the trawler Paula Bertha, of Ostend, outward bound from Yarmouth. She was hard on the sand and leaking a great deal, the crew were therefore taken into the boat, which then proceeded to get clear of the sands. In the meantime the trawler on the rising tide floated off the sand into deep water. The boat at once made for her, and several of the men were placed on board, and an attempt made to save her. A hawser was carried to the tug, and the trawler was towed to Lowestoft and beached. During the service there was a strong N.N.E. breeze, with a heavy sea running on the sands.—Property salvage case.

Sept. 5. — BLYTH, NORTHUMBERLAND. — Dash Life-boat. — In the evening, a Spanish steamer, when entering Blyth, collided with the s.s. Peña Cabarga, of Santander, which was outward bound with a cargo of iron ore. The latter vessel nevertheless proceeded, but after getting a short distance out to sea, it was found she was badly damaged, and she put about to return to harbour; in doing so, however, she struck on the Seaton Sea Rocks and commenced to settle down. Signals of distress were made, and in response the Life-boat proceeded to her assistance. Shortly after the collision, fearing the steamer was about to sink, nine of the crew left her in one of the boats, and they were picked up by one of the steam cutters belonging to the Blyth pilots. On the arrival of the Dash, the remainder of the vessel's crew, fourteen in number, were taken off the steamer. The Life-boat then made for the shore, taking one of the steamer's life-boats in tow, containing the ship's papers, the clothes of the crew, &c. The sea was rough at the time, with a moderate S.E. wind blowing.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 12*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 8th Sept., 1904.

Voted 197*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.* to pay the expenses of the launches of the following Life-boats, with the view of rendering help to the crews of vessels in distress : — Appledore No. 1, Berwick-on-Tweed, Brighton, Bude, Gorleston No. 1, Holyhead (steam), Ilfracombe, North Sunderland, Poole, Rhoscolyn and Yarmouth.

Also a yearly pension, together with a certificate of service, to P. WAFER, late Coxswain of the Cahore Life-boat.

Also 6*l.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at Aldeburgh and Port Erroll.

Sept. 9. — ALDEBURGH, SUFFOLK. — City of Winchester Life-boat.—About 1 A.M., a telephone message was received from the Shipwash Light-vessel, stating that the brigantine Laura, of Whitstable, had been in collision with the Light-vessel, and was then drifting northwards. The Life-boat was launched, and proceeded to the Sands, keeping a sharp lookout, in the meantime, for the brigantine, but without result. On arrival at the Light-vessel, the mate of the Laura was found there, he having been knocked overboard by the collision, and rescued by the Lightship men in a drowning condition. He was taken into the Life-boat, which then proceeded to make a further search for the missing vessel, but no trace of her being found, the Life-boat returned ashore and landed the man they had brought from the Light-vessel. — Expense of service, 44*l.* 15*s.* 3*d.*

Sept. 11. — DOUGLAS, ISLE OF MAN. — Civil Service No. 6 Life-boat. — During a moderate E.S.E. gale, signals of distress were observed at 10.30 P.M. The Life-boat was immediately launched, and proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the pleasure yacht Eagle, of Douglas, and succeeded in rescuing her six passengers and crew of two hands. The yacht was bound from Derby Haven to Douglas, and when about three miles south of Douglas Head, her rudder head was carried away by a heavy sea. In spite of the accident, her occupants managed to reach Douglas, but owing to the very heavy seas running, were unable to enter the harbour, and drifted into a very perilous position. When rescued, the yacht was in great danger of being dashed on the Conister Rocks. — Expense of service, 19*l.* 11*s.*

Sept. 17. — GORLESTON, SUFFOLK. — Leicester Life-boat. — Shortly after 5 A.M. the shrimp-boat Adeline, of Great Yarmouth, was brought up off Gorleston in a dangerous position, half full of water, and her mast carried away; in response to the signals made by the two men on board, the No. 2 Life-boat was promptly despatched to their assistance, and brought both the boat and her occupants into safety. There was a strong E.S.E. breeze and rough sea at the time. — Expense of service, 8*l.* 14*s.*

Sept. 22. — WEXFORD, CO. WEXFORD. — James Stevens No. 15 Life-boat. — The schooner Sarah Anne Ruskell, of Dublin, when bound to Wexford with a cargo of salt, stranded about a mile to the eastward of Rosslare Point. Information of the casualty reached the Wexford Life-boat Coxswain about 5 P.M., and without delay the Life-boat went off in tow of a tug to the place indicated. The vessel was found in a very bad position, with the seas breaking heavily over her. The boat was towed as near as possible to the wreck, and then, under sails and oars, proceeded alongside through the broken water. Much difficulty was experienced, the boat on several occasions being filled right up to her thwarts. The Life-boat was handled admirably. The crew of four men and the pilot were successfully taken on board, together with their dog, and all were landed in safety at the Life-boat station by 8.30 P.M. — Expense of service, 14*l.* 9*s.* 4*d.*

Sept. 27. — WALTON-ON-NAZE, ESSEX. — James Stevens No. 14 Life-boat. — At 5.51 A.M., during very thick weather, the Gunfleet Lighthouse fired signals of distress on account of a schooner which grounded on the sands about one mile to the W.S.W. of the Lighthouse. The Life-boat was smartly manned, and proceeded under both sails and oars to the vessel—the schooner Willie, of Faversham.

On arrival the master declined any assistance; the Coxswain then stood by in case the services of the boat should be required, but the schooner floated with the rising tide some four hours later, and the Life-boat returned ashore. — Expense of service, 9*l.* 5*s.*

Oct. 5. — FOLKESTONE, KENT. — Leslie Life-boat. — About 10 P.M., signals of distress were seen from a fishing-smack being driven before a strong gale from the S.W. The assembly signal was made, and many willing hands quickly got the Life-boat to the water's edge; here a desperate struggle to launch took place. Enormous waves struck the boat, and time after time washed her broadside on; but in spite of the difficulty of their task the launchers stuck to their post, and the Life-boat was at length got clear of the beach. A flare was then seen off Copt Point, and the boat made for it. When nearing the smack, which was the Good Intent, of Folkestone, a heavy sea struck the Life-boat and washed two of the crew out of her; happily the next wave brought the boat close to them, and both were picked up. The Life-boat was then anchored and veered alongside the wreck, the three men on board were rescued and the boat started on the return journey. Notwithstanding the lateness of the hour large crowds had assembled on the harbour piers awaiting the return of the Life-boat, and at 2.30 A.M. a tremendous cheer from the crowd denoted the safe return of the boat and the success of her mission. The crew were loud in their praises of the Life-boat, and said she behaved splendidly throughout. Having landed the shipwrecked men the boat was left in the harbour under the care of two watchmen, but her services were fortunately not required again. The smack within a short time of her crew being taken off was dashed on to the rocks and totally wrecked.

The Committee of Management as a special mark of their appreciation of the gallantry displayed during this service conferred the Silver Medal of the Institution with a framed copy of the vote inscribed on vellum on the Coxswain Superintendent, Mr. S. Cook, and made an additional monetary grant to each of the crew.—Expense of service, 46*l.* 1*s.*

Oct. 5.—TEIGNMOUTH, SOUTH DEVON.—Alfred Staniforth Life-boat.—About 8.30 P.M. information was brought by some fishermen that a vessel had driven ashore about two miles to the S.W. of Teignmouth. The Life-boat was launched, and proceeded to the assistance of those on board. On reaching the craft, which proved to be the ketch Canterbury Belle, of Plymouth, she was found to be half full of water, with her pumps choked and leaking badly. As nothing could be done to save the ketch, the crew of three hands were taken into the Life-boat, which landed them safely at Teignmouth about 11 P.M. The ketch had left Teignmouth in the early morning bound for Plymouth in ballast, but sprung a leak shortly after putting to sea.—Expense of service, 22*l.* 13*s.*

Oct. 8.—CROMER, NORFOLK.—Louisa

Heartwell Life-boat.—At 6.15 P.M. a message was received from Bacton stating that a vessel was off that place in need of immediate assistance, her rudder-head having carried away. There was a strong N.N.W. gale blowing, accompanied by a very heavy sea at the time. The Life-boat was launched as soon as possible and proceeded to the ship, which proved to be the s.s. Rosalind, of Newcastle. As nothing could be done to save the vessel without the assistance of a steam-tug, the Life-boat stood by until one arrived, and then in conjunction with the tug assisted to take the steamer and her crew to Yarmouth.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 10.—GREENORE, CO. LOUTH.—Sir Arthur Blackwood Life-boat.—About 8 P.M. during rather hazy but moderately calm weather, flashing lights were observed by the Greenore coastguard, but as it was supposed that these signals were made for a pilot, no further action was taken. Later a fisherman came from some little distance and reported that he had seen lights, from the position of which he was satisfied that a vessel was on the rocks or in grave danger in Carlingford Lough. The Life-boat was therefore launched, proceeded in the direction indicated, and found the steam yacht Mandolin, of London, stranded on the Long Rock. The master of the yacht was asked if he required any assistance, to which he replied in the negative, but requested that the Life-boat would stand by him in case of need. This the Life-boat did until the yacht floated, when, her services being no longer required, she returned to Greenore and was rehoused.—Expense of service, 35*l.* 11*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 13th Oct., 1904.

Voted 157*l.* 16*s.* 2*d.* to pay the expenses of launches of Life-boats, or assemblies of crews, at the following Stations, with the view of assisting vessels in distress:—Arklow, Brixham, Castletown, Courtmacsherry, Fishguard, Gorleston No. 1, Hope Cove, Hornsea, Maryport, Palling No. 2, Porthdinllaen, Rhyl, Wicklow, and Yarmouth.

Also a yearly pension, together with a certificate, to JOHN ROSS, Coxswain of the Dornock Firth and Embo Life-boat, on the abolition of that station.

Also a gratuity in lieu of a pension to JOHN CROWE, Coxswain, and for some years Assistant Coxswain of the Kingstown No. 1 Life-boat.

Also 2*l.* to one of the crew of the Ilfracombe Life-boat for an injury incurred in the Life-boat.

Also a donation of 10*l.* to the widow of the late signalman at Hasborough. He had also been a member of the crew for many years.

Also 5*l.* towards a fund raised for the benefit of the parents of a boy who was killed at a Life-boat Saturday Demonstration at Guildford.

Also 10*l.* to the late Honorary Secretary of the Kessingland Branch.

Oct. 26th.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Bradford Life-boat.—The s.s. Abermoed, of Swansea, while bound from Swansea to London with a cargo of coal, stranded about 11 P.M. on the Goodwin Sands. There was a thick fog prevailing, which prevented either the steamer or her signals being seen by the crews of the light-vessels which protect the sands. Next morning her signals were observed, and one of the light-vessels at once called out the Life-boat, which proceeded in tow of the harbour tug Aid to the sands, where the steamer was found in a very dangerous position. The Life-boat went alongside, placed some of her crew on board, and carried a hawser to the tug. Towing operations were then commenced, and after about an hour's work the steamer came off and was towed into deep water in safety. Not being much damaged, she was able to proceed to her destination, and the Bradford returned to Ramsgate. Expenses paid by the Board of Trade.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 10th Nov., 1904.

Voted 80*l.* 2*s.* to pay the expenses of assembling the crews or taking out the following Life-boats with a view of assisting the crews of vessels in distress:—Ballywalter, Gorleston (steam), Lowestoft No. 1 and Porthleven.

The Porthdinllaen Life-boat was also launched to endeavour to save a vessel.

Voted the Silver Medal to Mr. S. COOK, Coxswain superintendent of the Folkestone Life-boat, in recognition of his gallantry on the occasion of the wreck of the fishing lugger Good Intent of Folkestone in a whole S.W. to W. gale and very heavy sea on the 5th October, when the Life-boat saved her crew of three hands. An additional grant was also made to each of the crew.

Also 10*l.* 5*s.* to a man injured whilst engaged in the Life-boat service at Aldeburgh.

Also a gratuity, in lieu of a pension, to Mr. SAMUEL BROWN on his retirement from the post of Coxswain of the Padstow No. 1 Life-boat.

Nov. 10.—RAMSEY, ISLE OF MAN.—Mary Isabella Life-boat.—In the early morning the schooner Elizabeth Ellen Fisher, of Fleetwood, bound from Workington to Strangford Loch, got into difficulties when off the Calf of Man. In the wind which was blowing strongly—almost a gale—from N.E., the schooner had lost her sails and some of her spars. Signals of distress were made, and in response the Life-boat was despatched to her assistance. The crew of four hands were rescued from their perilous position, the sea at the time being very rough, and were landed at Ramsey at 7 A.M.—Expense of service, 33*l.* 15*s.*

Nov. 11.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Leicester Life-boat.—During a strong southerly breeze and very heavy sea, the Coxswain of the No. 2 Life-boat received information that flares had been observed on a vessel ashore on the North Bank. He promptly launched the Life-boat, and on nearing the spot, anchored and veered down to the craft. She proved to be the fishing lugger Burds, of Banff; she had run aground whilst coming into port with a catch of herrings. The master and owner declined the assistance offered, but as there was a strong southerly breeze and very heavy sea, the Leicester stood by the vessel for three hours in case of danger. She then returned ashore, and later in the day the lugger floated and was towed into harbour.—Expense of service, 23*l.* 16*s.* 6*d.*

Nov. 10-11.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Robert and Susan Life-boat.—The s.s. Willie, of Amsterdam, whilst bound from that port to Amble, in ballast, stranded shortly before midnight on the rocks to the north of Newbiggin Point, and in response to her signals of distress the Life-boat was promptly launched. Owing to the state of the sea and tide it was a considerable time before the Life-boat could get alongside the steamer; when she did some of the Life-boatmen were, at the Captain's request, placed on board, and the boat with the rest of her crew remained in attendance. The sea was heavy and the southerly wind moderately strong. With the rising tide the vessel floated and drifted into deeper water, then, with the help of the Life-boatmen, she was taken through a very narrow channel clear from surrounding rocks and on to Blyth Docks. It was a difficult and dangerous service, the Life-boat being slightly damaged; and no other boat could have been taken out in the condition of the sea.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 18.—BROOKE, ISLE OF WIGHT.—William Stanley Lewis Life-boat.—During a very thick fog signals of distress were observed from the direction of Brooke Ledge. Information was at once conveyed to the Coxswain of the Life-boat, and a good launch was effected with all despatch. The vessel, which proved to be the steam suction dredge Triton, of Rotterdam, was on the ledge and was bumping heavily, her propeller being broken, and the sea making a clean breach over her. There was a small boat belonging to the vessel, but in the heavy ground sea was quite useless to the imperilled men. The Coxswain managed his boat well and showed able seamanship in rescuing the ten men of the crew, and the liveliest satisfaction was expressed locally with the manner in which the service was carried out. A few days later the following letter of thanks appeared in the Shipping Gazette:

COWES, Nov. 28, 1904.

SIR,—I the undersigned, master of the steam suction dredger Triton, of Rotterdam, recently ashore at Brook, I.W., do hereby tender, on behalf of myself and the crew of the said vessel, our heartiest thanks to the crew of the Life-boat stationed at that place for the services so promptly rendered by them in coming to our assistance and landing the crew in safety. Also we wish to offer to Sir Charles Seeley, Bart., and the residents of Brook generally our heartfelt thanks for all their kindness to us in our distress.—

Yours, &c.,

G. HOLLEMAN, master of Triton.

To the Editor.

Expense of service, 16*l.* 19*s.* 9*d.*

Nov. 19.—NORTH SUNDERLAND, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Thomas Bewick Life-boat.—At 5.40 p.m. the coastguard observed a very bright flare up to the north of the Inner Farne Islands. As the signal burnt fiercely the crew of the Life-boat were assembled with all speed, and the boat was launched. On arriving at the scene of the casualty the fishing boat Mizpah, of North Sunderland, was found stranded on the rocks, with three other fishing boats in attendance. The Life-boat stood by until the vessel floated with the rising tide, and then seeing that the other fishing boats were remaining with the damaged vessel, she returned to her station, arriving about 9 p.m.—Expense of service, 24*l.* 16*s.* 6*d.*

Nov. 21.—EASTBOURNE, SUSSEX.—James Stevens No. 6 Life-boat.—About 7.30 p.m. a S.W. gale suddenly sprang up and the Eastbourne fishing boats, which had put to sea earlier in the day were overtaken when off Pevensy. The Coxswain and assistant coxswain were both afloat at the time but they reached the shore in safety and proceeded to Eastbourne with all haste to take the Life-boat to the aid of their comrades. The Life-boat was launched at 10.30 p.m. and reached Pevensy Bay shortly afterwards; it was then found that one of the boats had been driven ashore and had become a total wreck. Five others were in danger, the Life-boat therefore stood by them until all were safely beached, and then made for Eastbourne. The sea at the time was very rough, and the weather cold, with sleet and hail. The Life-boat was reported to have behaved splendidly.—Expense of service, 34*l.* 3*s.*

Nov. 22.—SEATON CAREW, DURHAM.—John Lawson Life-boat.—During a violent north-easterly gale with very heavy sea, the schooner Craig Alrah, of Dover, when bound from London to the Tyne, stranded at the mouth of the Tees. As soon as information was received steps were taken to launch the Life-boat, but before she reached the vessel the crew of eight men made an attempt to land in their own boat. This boat stranded on a sand-bank in the middle of the river and her bows were stove in. The position of the men was one of great peril, especially as they were strangers to the locality, and had it not been for the timely arrival of the Life-boat they would have been drowned.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 17*s.*

Nov. 22.—MOELFRE, ANGLESEY.—Star of Hope Life-boat.—Shortly after midnight signals were seen from a vessel in the roads. As there was a strong N.N.E. gale and very heavy sea, the Life-boat was promptly launched, and within half-an-hour she had reached the schooner Ellen, of Wexford, which was on a lee shore. The crew of four hands were taken off and landed at Moelfre. The weather was very cold with heavy snow-storms.—Expense of service, 24*l.* 0*s.* 1*d.*

Nov. 23-24.—HARWICH, ESSEX.—City of Glasgow Life-boat.—In reply to a telephone message from Aldeburgh, stating that a steamer was ashore on the Shipwash sands, the crew of the steam Life-boat were summoned, and the boat proceeded to the sands. On getting alongside the vessel was found to be the s.s. Tyne, of Newcastle, bound from London to Middlesbrough with a cargo of chalk. There was a fresh N.W. breeze and rough sea, and in the fog and snow she had grounded near the middle of the sands. Three Life-boatmen were placed on board the steamer, and kedgie anchors run out by the Life-boat. Efforts were then made to get the vessel off, and about an hour later with the help of the tide, which was flowing, she was got clear and able to proceed on her journey.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 26.—WALMER, KENT.—Civil Service No. 4 Life-boat.—The barque Penin, of Genoa, while bound from Buenos Ayres to Dunkirk, with a cargo of log wood, stranded on the Goodwin Sands, and in response to signals from the Light-vessel this Life-boat proceeded to her assistance. A strong breeze was blowing from the N.W., and the sea was heavy. On the arrival of the Life-boat and some luggers, which had also put off to the vessel, the crews commenced to jettison the cargo, and when 60 to 80 tons had been disposed of, the barque at high tide on the 27th was floated with the assistance of a tug; she was then taken through heavy weather and a blinding snow-storm to a safe anchorage in the Downs.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 30.—BROADSTAIRS, KENT.—Francis Forbes Barton Life-boat.—At 7.30 A.M. a telephone message was received through the Coastguard, stating that a vessel was on the N. Goodwin Sands. The Life-boat was at once launched and proceeded in the direction indicated. There was a fresh westerly breeze and moderate sea, the tide being ebb. As the vessel was not in any immediate danger the master of the vessel—which proved to be the barquentine Tweed of Faversham—requested the Coxswain of the Life-boat to stand by him, and at half-tide she floated clear, the services of the Life-boat were then no longer required and the boat returned to her station, arriving at 2.15 P.M.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 13*s.*

Dec. 4.—POOLE, DORSET.—City Masonic Club Life-boat.—This Life-boat was launched at 10 A.M. to the assistance of a vesssl in distress on the Hook Sands. When the Life-boat reached her it was ascertained that she was the schooner Carrie Belle, bound from Plymouth to Poole with a cargo of limestone. The Life-boat stood by her for some hours until she floated on the tide. The Life-boat then left her for the men to get food. But on her way, the ketch Zenobia, of London, was sighted on the opposite side of the Hook Sands, and the Life-boat at once made for her, but assistance was declined. As her position was one of considerable danger, the Life-boat again returned to her during the afternoon, when, at the request of the master, part of the Life-boat crew were put on board and anchors laid out, by means of which the ketch was eventually saved. During these services there was a S.W. strong gale and very heavy sea, and the Life-boat was reported to have behaved very well.—Expense of service, Carrie Belle, 12*l*. Zenobia, property salvage case.

Dec. 8.—CROMER, NORFOLK.—Louisa Heartwell Life-boat.—Five of the small fishing boats belonging to Cromer were overtaken by a N.N.E. gale, which suddenly sprang up and caused the sea to increase very rapidly, and as their return was attended by a good deal of risk the Life-boat was launched, and stood by the boats, thus assisting their crews to reach the shore in safety. This was happily accomplished without any serious accident, and the Life-boat was re-housed during the afternoon.—Expense of service, 18*l*. 6*s*.

Dec. 8.—ARKLOW, CO. WICKLOW.—Frances Charlotte Life-boat.—About 10 o'clock at night this Life-boat was launched to the rescue of the crew of the fishing boat Lily, of Arklow. A number of fishing boats were out in the Bay engaged in herring fishing, when a southerly gale sprang up, making the sea very heavy on the bar; most of them reached harbour in safety, but the Lily, which was behind the others, was unable to do so. The boat anchored and awaited assistance, making what signals they could. In the darkness the Life-boat passed the boat, but was brought up 100 fathoms to leeward. By this time the seas were tremendous and the wind had increased, and it took the Life-boat nearly an hour to beat back to the wreck. On getting alongside, the crew, numbering four hands, who were in an exhausted condition, were taken into the Life-boat. On the return journey the seas frequently washed over the boat, but she freed herself quickly and behaved well. After the crew were taken off the fishing boat she became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 23*l*. 5*s*.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 8th Dec., 1904.

Voted 842*l*. 18*s*. to pay the expenses of launches of Life-boats, assemblies of crews, &c., with the view of rendering assistance to vessels in distress at the following places:—Aldeburgh, Balcary, Bridlington Quay, Broadstairs, Caister Nos. 1 and 2, Cullercoats, Dungeness No. 1, Formby, Gorleston (steam), Harwich (steam), Hoylake, Lowestoft No. 1, Margate Nos. 1 and 2, New Brighton (Steam), North Deal, North Sunderland, Palling Nos. 1 and 2, Ramsgate, Scarborough, Shoreham, Southend-on-Sea, Sunderland (South Outlet), Uppang, Walton-on-the-Naze, West Hartlepool, Whitby, Winchelsea, Winterton No. 2, and Yarmouth.

Directed that a special letter of thanks be sent to Mr. W. J. OLIVER, Hon. Secretary at Sunderland, for the active part he took in the proceedings at the stranding of the S.S. Indianic, and for assisting to save a man who was washed off his feet by a heavy wave.

Granted 18*l*. 10*s*. to men injured whilst engaged on Life-boat duty at Bridlington, Caister, and Padstow.

Dec. 9.—APPLEDORE, N. DEVON.—Jane Hannah Macdonald Life-boat.—During a whole S.S.E. gale the ketch Shamrock, of Bideford, fouled another one while making for shelter, and the bowsprit and mainmast of the Shamrock were carried away. As her position in the gale was one of great danger, signals of distress were made, and in response the Life-boat was immediately launched and rescued the crew of four men.—Expense of service, 22*l*. 16*s*.

Dec. 9.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Robert and Susan Life-boat.—The S.S. Anglia, of Grimstad, stranded on the "Spittal Car" rock off Newbiggin during the very early morning, and two of the local cobsles, instead of waiting for the Life-boat, at once launched to offer their assistance. Before reaching the vessel one of these cobsles, when in broken water, was capsized, and her crew of eight men were thrown into the water. It being quite dark nothing of these men's peril was known, but the Life-boat on reaching the steamer found the upturned coble, and one man was shortly afterwards, by his cries for help, discovered clinging to some gear and picked up. As the steamer declined assistance, the rescued man was at once taken ashore, and the Life-boat again put to sea to try and find the missing men. The search, however, was unsuccessful, and the other poor fellows, seven in number, unfortunately perished.

—Expense of service, 32*l.* 3*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 9.—BLACKROCK, COUNTY LOUTH.—General R. Dudley Blake Life-boat.—Shortly after 8 A.M. information was received that a vessel was in distress in Dundalk Bay, and shortly afterwards she drifted ashore. The Life-boat was launched in a strong S.E. gale and heavy sea, and succeeded in rescuing the crew of four hands. The vessel, which was the dandy Catherine Lathom, of Chester, loaded with general cargo, was bound from Belfast to Annalong, and in the gale got into difficulties, being eventually driven ashore. The Life-boat behaved splendidly.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 6*s.*

Dec. 9.—SKERRIES, COUNTY DUBLIN.—William Maynard Life-boat.—In the early morning the schooner Agnes, of Preston, anchored in a dangerous position to the eastward of Skerries Harbour, and about 10 A.M. the wind increased to a moderate gale from E.S.E., with a heavy cross sea. Signals of distress promptly called out the Life-boat, and on arriving at the schooner the captain asked for assistance to take his vessel into safety. Four Life-boatmen were placed on board, and by their exertions the vessel was eventually brought into Skerries Harbour, the Life-boat in the meantime remaining in attendance.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 9.—PORT ISAAC, CORNWALL.—Richard and Sarah Life-boat.—About 7 P.M., when the fishing fleet was returning to harbour heavily laden, a heavy sea struck one boat, causing her to sink. As there was a heavy ground sea running and several boats were still out, the Life-boat was despatched to the scene of the disaster, and was of great assistance in bringing the other boats in. The crew of the fishing boat which was swamped unfortunately perished, but under no circumstances could the Life-boat have reached the spot in time to rescue them.—Expense of service, 31*l.* 1*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 9-10.—TOTLAND BAY, ISLE OF WIGHT.—Robert Fleming Life-boat.—A telegram was received from the coast-guard shortly after 7 P.M. stating that a small vessel was off the mainland apparently in distress. The Life-boat was sent to her assistance, but the Coxswain found it impossible, there being very little wind, to make headway against the flood-tide, he therefore waited until it eased and then proceeded to the position named. The vessel, which was the cutter Take Care, of Portsmouth, had had her masts carried away in a gale some time before she was seen from the shore, but happily the weather moderated, and when the Life-boat reached her the crew, with some assistance from the Life-boatmen, were able to take her into the Solent. The master was very grateful for the help given him. The Life-boat regained her station at 10.30 the next morning, her crew having been out exposed to the cold for fifteen hours.—Expense of service, 39*l.* 0*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 10-11.—NEW BRIGHTON, CHESHIRE.—Queen Life-boat.—At day-break on the 10th Dec. a large steamer was observed ashore in a dangerous position on the Burbo Bank, and shortly after noon she signalled for assistance. The steam Life-boat at once proceeded to her; she proved to be the s.s. Ulloa, of Barcelona, bound from that port to Liverpool with a mixed cargo. On arrival the Captain requested that the Life-boat would land the 2nd Officer to enable him to report to the owners. This was done, the Life-boat regaining her station at 2.50 P.M. At the time of the casualty the wind was blowing strongly from N.N.E. and the sea was rough, but the weather was not sufficiently bad to give up hopes of saving the vessel. The next night the wind went round to the south and increased to a gale; the barometer was falling rapidly, and the men on board were in danger; the steam Life-boat, therefore, again proceeded to the vessel and took off ten of the eleven men who were still on board. The Captain very gallantly refused to desert his post, and as no persuasion would make him change his mind he was left there, and the Life-boat returned to New Brighton. Next day the Captain was, at the earnest request of the owner's representative, induced to leave his ship and was rescued by one of the tugs which was standing by her. The steamer eventually became a total wreck.—Expense of first service, 7*l.* 10*s.*; second service, 16*l.* 10*s.*

Dec. 12.—WEXFORD, COUNTY WEXFORD.—James Stevens No. 15 Life-boat.—During the afternoon this Life-boat was launched and rescued two men in an exhausted condition from a small fishing boat named Melrose Abbey, of Wexford. The men had gone out early in the day to fish and a N.N.W. gale overtook them, blowing away their sail. The sea was rough, and when rescued the men were suffering a great deal from exposure.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 12.—CLOGHEY, COUNTY DOWN.—Faith Life-boat.—The fishing boat Rosebud, of Portavogie, was reported to be dragging her anchors in a whole N.W. gale and rough sea, in Green Isle Bay, the Life-boat was therefore sent to her assistance and the three men on board rescued.—Expense of service, 28*l.* 10*s.*

Dec. 12-13.—GROOMSPORT, COUNTY DOWN.—Chapman Life-boat.—About 9 P.M. a vessel was observed apparently being towed into the Lough, but making little headway, and shortly afterwards she commenced to drift rapidly to leeward towards the shore. The Coxswain at once summoned the crew, launched the Life-boat and proceeded to the vessel. On reaching her he found that her anchors were then holding; he could not see any trace of a tug, and on trying to speak the vessel, as the sea was much too heavy to go alongside, he found the crew could not speak any English or understand him. The Life-boat stood by for an hour and a half, when seeing the anchors would hold, and that the crew had no wish to leave the vessel, she ran for Donaghadee, where she remained until next morning. At 6 A.M. the gale, having moderated somewhat, a start was made to reach Groomsport, the Life-boat again speaking the vessel on the way. No assistance appeared to be required except from a tug, and the Life-boat proceeded to her station. The vessel was the barque Touraine, of Nantes, bound from Ardrossan to Barry Dock.—Expense of service, 47*l.* 10*s.*

Dec. 13.—NEW BRIGHTON AND HILBRE ISLAND, CHESHIRE.—Queen and Admiral Briggs Life-boats.—Shortly before midnight on the 12th Dec. a telephone message was received at New Brighton stating that signals of distress were being made between the Formby and Crosby Light-vessels. There was a whole gale blowing from N.N.W., a very heavy sea, and the weather was bitterly cold. The steam Life-boat proceeded to the locality and on the way learnt from a tug that the signals were from the hopper barge Rhinoceros, of London. Considerable difficulty was experienced in taking the crew off, owing to the very heavy seas running, but it was accomplished without mishap, the steam Life-boat reaching New Brighton again at 5.30 A.M. Owing to the signals being repeated by the Dee Light-vessel, the Hilbre Island Life-boat was also launched and searched the West Hoyle Bank all night without result. At daybreak the Coxswain made for home, and on arrival heard that there was a vessel on the East Hoyle Bank, and that the Hoylelake Life-boat had gone to help another. The Life-boat at once put out again, and found the above barge drifting helplessly about and deserted. Some of the Life-boatmen were put on board, and later in the day they succeeded, with the help of a tug, in saving the barge.—New Brighton expense of service, 15*l.* 5*s.*; Hilbre Island, Property salvage case.

Dec. 13.—HOYLAKE, CHESHIRE.—Coard William Squarey Life-boat.—During the gale, as daylight broke, a vessel was seen half submerged on one of the dangerous sand banks, and with all haste the Life-boat was launched to the aid of her crew. She proved to be the flat Fair Trade, of Llandulas, bound for Widnes with a cargo. She had driven ashore the previous evening, and her unfortunate crew of three hands spent a terrible twelve hours lashed to the rigging that night, and when rescued were quite exhausted with cold and exposure. To land them without delay the Coxswain ran for New Brighton, and later in the day returned to Hoylake. The service was an arduous one, lasting many hours, and the Committee granted the crew an additional reward. —Expense of service, 28*l.* 16*s.*

Dec. 13. — BERWICK-ON-TWEED, NORTHUMBERLAND. — Matthew Simpson Life-boat. — At 2.30 P.M. the coastguard telephoned for the Life-boat to proceed to a steamer ashore at Spittal Point, and the call was promptly responded to. On reaching the vessel they found she was the s.s. Tweed, of Berwick, and had stranded in the moderate N.E. gale then prevailing. She was not in any immediate danger, the Life-boat, therefore, stood by as long as necessary and then made for home. It appeared that the steamer had left Berwick the previous day bound for Leith, but her engines broke down, and when trying to return under her own sail she was driven ashore. —Expense of service, 25*l.* 16*s.*

Dec. 13. — DUNBAR, HADDINGTON-SHIRE. — William Arthur Millward Life-boat. — At dawn a telegram was received by Mr. W. BERTRAM, the Hon. Secretary of the Dunbar Life-boat Station, from Redheugh Coastguard Station, near St. Abb's Head, calling attention to a ship a mile or two off, which was making signals of distress, and appeared to be in imminent risk of drifting on to the rocks. With all haste the Life-boat signals were fired, and as horses were not obtainable in the town, some 80 beachmen immediately proceeded to draw the boat overland to Skateraw, about six miles distant, from whence it was purposed launching her. Having proceeded three miles eight horses were secured, the owner, with most praiseworthy promptitude, having these removed from a field where ploughing operations were in progress. The remaining three miles, over a very heavy road, were speedily covered with their assistance. At 10.30 A.M. an exciting incident occurred as the Life-boat was being launched from the beach. The boat grounded in shallow water, while the stern got fast on the rear portion of the carriage. In the midst of a perfect downpour of sleet, the beachmen entered the icy water up to the waist, and after fifteen minutes' work, succeeded in pushing the boat afloat. The vessel turned out to be the Bams, of Christian-sand, from Krageroe to Alloa with pit props. With such fury were the seas washing over her that the greatest caution had to be exercised in getting near. Ultimately communication was established, and the crew of eight got aboard the Life-boat in a most exhausted state. It transpired that the ship got out of her course the previous night and drifted about helplessly. All her canvas having been blown away in the prevailing North-easterly gale, flare lights were repeatedly shown, and finally the vessel was anchored about a mile off Cockburnspath. What with heavy seas washing over the vessel, and also the fact that she was leaking, the position of the crew became critical, and they had, hours before the arrival of the Life-boat, given themselves up for lost. The Life-boat reached Dunbar harbour late in the afternoon, after having been away nearly seven hours, and the magnificent exhibition of seamanship displayed by the Coxswain in steering his boat through a heavy sea at the harbour mouth, was the signal for hearty cheers from hundreds of people gathered on the pierhead. The rescued sailors were at once cared for, and the Life-boat was re-housed at 5 P.M.

This was an excellent service, and the Committee of Management granted, as a mark of their appreciation, an additional award to each of the crew and helpers. —Expense of service, 60*l.* 9*s.* 1*d.*

Dec. 14. — CLOVELLY, NORTH DEVON. — Elinor Roget Life-boat. — The ketch Dolphin, of Bideford, when off Clovelly in a moderate gale, commenced to drag her anchors, and about 3.45 in the morning she made distress signals. The Life-boat put off to her without delay, and on arriving alongside the crew were taken into the Life-boat which landed them in safety at Clovelly. —Expense of service, 27*l.* 1*s.*

Dec. 16. — IRVINE, AYRSHIRE. — Jane Anne Life-boat. — This Life-boat rendered valuable assistance to the s.s. Bonawe, of Glasgow, which stranded in a strong S.W. gale and heavy sea, whilst bound from Glenarne to Irvine. The Life-boat was engaged all day, and as a result of the joint efforts of a tug and the Life-boatmen the vessel was got off.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 16-17.—PALLING AND WINTER-TON, NORFOLK.—Hearts of Oak and Margaret Life-boats.—At 3.20 p.m. a large steamer was observed on the Hasboro' Sands, and the Palling No. 2 Life-boat was launched to her assistance. The Wold Light-vessel was spoken and the exact position of the vessel ascertained. She proved to be the s.s. Filippo Artelli, of Trieste, bound from the Tyne to that port with a cargo of over 7,000 tons of coal. The weather was moderately fine but somewhat thick. The Palling Life-boat, Winterton Life-boat Margaret and Yarmouth tugs were fortunately successful in extricating the steamer from her perilous position.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 29th Dec., 1904.

Voted 892l. 0s. 4d. to pay the expenses of assemblies, watching, launches, etc., with the view of assisting the crews of distressed vessels by the following Life-boats:—Angle, Ardrossan, Caister No. 1, Campbeltown, Dungeness No. 1, Exmouth, Eyemouth, Formby, Gorleston Nos. 1-2, and steam, Greenore, Hasboro', Holy Island, Hoylake, Ilfracombe, Newbiggin, North Sunderland, Pakefield, Palling Nos. 1-2, Point of Ayr, Totland Bay, Troon, and Winterton No. 2.

Granted 2l. to Coxswain at Dunbar for illness contracted when on Life-boat service.

Dec. 30.—SOUTHEND-ON-SEA, ESSEX.—James Stevens No. 9 Life-boat.—At 10 A.M. the Coxswain received a telephone message stating that a barge was in distress about a mile to the south of the Pier. As it was blowing a strong W.N.W. gale and the sea was rough, the Life-boat proceeded with all despatch to the barge. On arrival, it was found that she was the Sandy, of London, bound for London, but the three men on board asked to be taken off. This was accordingly done and the boat returned to the Pier and landed the men. Before the Life-boat could be moored another barge was observed flying a distress signal close to the Nore Sands. The boat put off again and took the barge Kimberley, of Ipswich, into Sheerness. She then returned to Southend, but on the way fell in with the first barge (Sandy) still afloat. Some men were placed on board and the vessel was taken to Southend, where it was safe for her crew to go back aboard.—Expense of first service, 12l. 5s.; second service, property salvage case.

Dec. 30.—JOHNHAVEN, KINCARDINESHIRE.—Sarah Ann Holden Life-boat.—The fishing boat Ebenezer, of Johnshaven, left the port early in the morning to attend to her lines and nets, when the wind rose very suddenly and increased to hurricane force from the north. The boat sought the shelter of the land but owing to the blinding spindrift got too near the shore. She anchored in close proximity to the rocks and in considerable danger. Her crew were then afraid to weigh anchor, and the Life-boatmen seeing their predicament went to their assistance and helped them back to Johnshaven.—Expense of service, 6l. 4s. 6d.

Dec. 30.—LOWESTOFT, SUFFOLK.—Samuel Plimsoll Life-boat.—In a N.N.W. strong gale—at times a hurricane—a vessel was reported near the Holm Sands with her canvas blown away and very low in the water. The Life-boat proceeded to her and placed some men on board; when a tug arrived they carried a hawser to her, and then, by the united efforts of the tug and Life-boat, the vessel was conveyed to Lowestoft Harbour. The vessel was the schooner Nancy, of Goole, bound from Jersey with a cargo of granite.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 30.—CLOVELLY, NORTH DEVON.—Elinor Roget Life-boat.—The schooner Juniper, of Bideford, when anchored off Clovelly, in a N.W. gale and very heavy sea, sprung a leak. A signal of distress was shown, and in response the Life-boat was promptly launched. On going alongside the master requested that he and his crew, four in number, should be landed; they were, therefore, taken into the Life-boat, which returned to Clovelly.—Expense of service, 13l. 8s.

THE LIFE-BELT USED BY THE CREWS OF THE LIFE-BOATS OF THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

The requisite qualities of a Life-boat man's life-belt are—

1. Sufficient extra buoyancy, 22 lbs., to support a man heavily clothed, with his head and shoulders above the water, or to enable him to support another person besides himself.

2. Perfect flexibility, so as to readily conform to the shape of the wearer.

3. A division into two zones, an upper and lower, so that between the two it may be secured tightly round the waist; for in no other manner can it be confined sufficiently close and secure round the body without such pressure over the chest and ribs as to materially affect the free action of the lungs, impede the muscular movement of the chest and arms, and thereby diminish the power of endurance of fatigue, which, in rowing-boats, is a matter of vital importance.

4. Strength, durability and non-liability to injury.

THE LIFE-BOAT STATION.

THE following brief description and diagrams illustrative of a complete Life-boat Establishment, including the House for the protection of the boat, will serve to convey an idea of the general character of one of the 285 Life-boat Stations of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

It will be seen that it is a work of a costly nature, and that not only in the first instance, but that a large permanent expense is entailed in keeping the whole machinery in an efficient state, in the re-supply of any part of it which may be destroyed or worn out, in the exercise of the boats' crews, in launching and working the boats and in remunerating them for their services in saving their fellow-creatures. Yet, looking to the vast importance of the result effected and the responsibility of calling on men to risk their lives in effecting the same, it is felt that few if any persons will be found who will consider that expense to be incurred in vain.

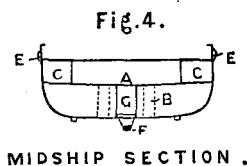

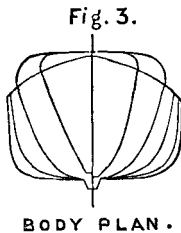

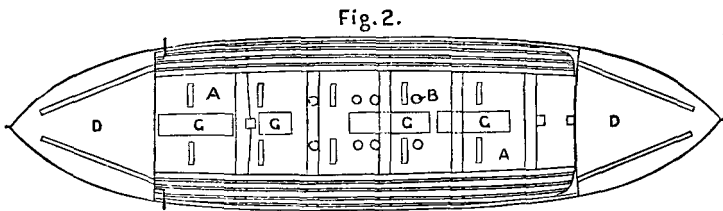

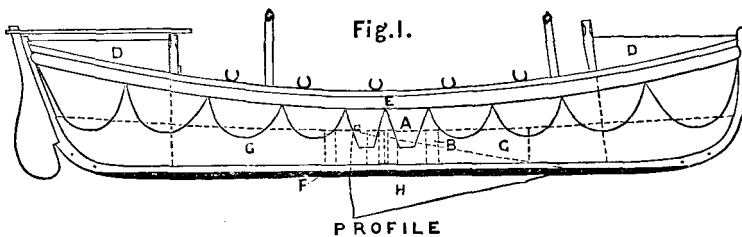

THE LIFE-BOAT.

(See Diagrams on following pages.)

The following drawings show the general outline and principal fittings of the different types of Life-boats used in the Institution's service. Figure 1 gives the profile or broadside view. Fig. 2 the "plan" or deck view. Fig. 3 the "body plan," showing the form of transverse vertical sections at regular intervals in the length; and Fig. 4 the "midship section." The festooned lines on the Fig. 1 profile views represent outside lifelines for men in the water to catch hold. The blackened portion of the keel indicates "iron keel" ballast in distinction from "water ballast" carried in "tanks" or compartments provided in the hold for the purpose, and admitting of being taken in or pumped out at pleasure; both "iron" and "water ballast" are variable and optional in the several boats according to the special circumstances of the different stations and wishes of the coxswains and crews. Water shipped on deck by seas breaking over the boat and otherwise is automatically freed through the holes in the deck and bottom of boat, connected by large pipes called "relieving tubes" having valves called "relieving valves" fitted at the deck, which pass water downwards but not upwards. Some boats, such as the "Norfolk and Suffolk" type, have also freeing scuppers in the sides of boat above deck for the same purpose. Enclosed compartments are automatically ventilated by specially designed valves and pipes. A large proportion of the boats have "centre boards" or "drop-keels" of variable size and weight, which can be used at pleasure and materially add to their weather qualities.

THE LIFE-BOAT TRANSPORTING-CARRIAGE.

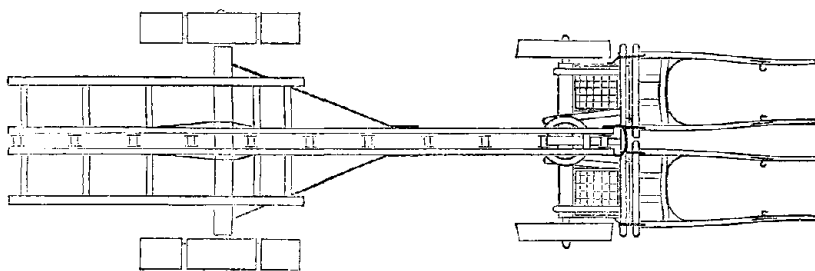

The Life-boat transporting-carriage is a very important auxiliary to the boat. Nearly every Life-boat, except a few of the larger sizes, is provided with a carriage, on which she is kept in the boat-house ready for immediate transportation to the most favourable position for launching to a wreck. A Life-boat is thus made available for a greater extent of coast than she otherwise would be. In addition to its ordinary use, a carriage is of immense service in launching a boat from a flat beach; while "Tipping's plates," with which the main wheels are sometimes clad, greatly facilitate the transport of the boat over the long stretches of soft sand which have to be traversed before deep enough water is reached to float the boat.

The carriage consists of a fore and main body. The latter is formed of a keelway, and of bilgeways attached to it, and resting on the main axle, the boat's weight being entirely on the rollers of the keelway. Its leading characteristics are that while for launching it forms an inclined plane, down which the boat can be launched off the rear end, it can also be used for replacing the boat, the inclined plane being reversed by removing the fore-carriage.

A very full equipment of stores is supplied to the Life-boats of the Institution—such as cork life-belts, anchors and cables, grapnels and lines, life-buoys, lanterns, rockets, and many other articles, together with portable or launching-skids.

THE LIFE-BOAT HOUSE.

The boats of the NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION and all belonging to them are kept in roomy and substantial boat-houses, under lock and key, in charge of paid coxswains, under the general superintendence of local honorary committees of residents in the several localities. Each boat has its appointed coxswain at a salary of 8*l.* and an assistant at 2*l.* a year, with further allowances in special circumstances. The crew consists, in addition, of a bowman who is paid 30*s.* a year, and as many boatmen as the boat pulls oars. A signalman is also appointed who receives a retaining fee of 1*l.* per annum and payment as a helper each time he is on duty. The members of the volunteer crews are registered and wherever practicable at least double the number of men required are entered on the register. Such men are mostly resident boatmen, fishermen or Coastguardmen. On every occasion of going afloat to save life the coxswains and each of the crew receive alike from the funds of the Institution (whether successful or not) 10*s.*, if by day, and 1*l.*, if by night; and usually 4*s.* each for every time of going afloat for exercise. These payments are increased by one half during the six months of each year beginning the 1st October and ending the 31st March. The Institution also grants retiring allowances to Coxswains, Bowmen and Signalmen of good behaviour and long service. It should be specially noted that the Life-boat crews, excepting when remunerated by the owners of vessels for property salvage service, are paid by the Institution for their efforts, whether successful or not, in saving life.

A reward of 7*s.* is given to the man who first brings intelligence of a wreck in such a position as not to be in sight of a Coastguard man on duty or other responsible look-out man.

On boarding wrecks the preservation of life is the sole consideration. Should any goods or merchandise be brought into the Life-boat contrary to the coxswain's remonstrance he is authorised to throw them overboard.

The formation of a Life-boat Station costs considerably more than 1,000*l.*, and the Annual Expense of maintaining it is about 125*l.*—in many instances much more.

Such is a brief summary of the more important Regulations under which the Life-boats are worked. How faithfully and with what result they are carried out let the journals of each Life-boat Station and the annals of the Institution tell.

The ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION has now 285 Life-boats under its charge. Nearly all of these have been specially presented to it, and they save every year hundreds of shipwrecked sailors. Altogether, the Institution has granted rewards for the saving of 44,889 lives, either by its Life-boats or by other means.

Despite however this fleet of 285 Life-boats and of 16 others locally provided or otherwise supported, and despite the numerous rocket apparatus stations on our coast, there remains the melancholy fact that about 500 lives are lost annually on or near the coasts of the United Kingdom alone, as shown by the Board of Trade Returns, proclaiming solemnly though silently that for humanity's sake and for the national credit, no exertions should be spared in providing every possible means for the conveyance of succour to the shipwrecked.

The Institution needs about 100,000*l.* per annum to maintain its great Life-saving Fleet; and the Committee feel assured that it will never lack it so long as it maintains its boats in the state of thorough efficiency that they are in at the present time, and manned as they are on every emergency by as fearless and noble a class of men as ever Nelson or Collingwood led to battle to uphold our country's honour and glory.
