

THE LIFE-BOAT.

JOURNAL

OF THE

Royal National Life-boat Institution,

(ISSUED QUARTERLY.)

VOL. XVIII.—No. 208.]

1ST MAY, 1903.

[PRICE 1s.

AT the ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION, held at the Royal United Service Institution, Whitehall, on Thursday, the 5th day of March, 1903, His Grace the DUKE OF SUTHERLAND, K.G., in the Chair, the following Report of the Committee of Management was submitted and adopted:—

ANNUAL REPORT.

THE Committee of Management have the honour to report that during the past year H.R.H. the Princess of Wales, who since 1895 has been the President of the Ladies' Auxiliaries throughout the United Kingdom, graciously became a Vice-Patron of the Institution. Such support has been particularly encouraging, inasmuch as the year proved a very difficult one for all the workers for the cause. Increased taxation, the necessary result of the late South African War, and expenses and calls specially connected with the unusual circumstances of the year, all proved dangerous obstacles to the raising of the necessary funds to maintain in thorough efficiency the great national life-saving service carried on by the Royal National Life-boat Institution. The Committee of Management have, however, persevered, and thanks to the loyal and zealous aid of the Institution's many friends and supporters, their appeals for help have not been made in vain.

Considerable anxiety has, for some time past, been caused the Committee, by the approaching termination of the lease of the House of the Institution in John Street, Adelphi, which will expire on the 25th March, 1904. The present premises, occupied by the Institution as its head-quarters since 1855, have for a long time proved altogether inadequate, the work connected with the Institution having practically doubled during the last thirty years, and it is imperatively necessary, if the work is to be efficiently carried on in the future, that the official staff should be housed in larger and more convenient premises. After much careful search, the Committee are glad to be able to report that they have acquired a sixty-five years' lease, at a ground rent of 385*l.*, of an excellent building situated in Charing Cross Road, which will, they believe, when fitted up and occupied next year, prove in every way better adapted than the present offices for the great national object of the Institution, and far more sanitary and suitable for the officers and staff. The price of the lease (10,000*l.*), though a large sum, the Committee consider moderate for such desirable premises.

Life-boats.—Newly built pulling and sailing Life-boats, thoroughly equipped and fully adapted for their important purpose, were supplied last year to 23 stations, and it is gratifying to know that they have given satisfaction to the coxswains and crews for whom they were supplied, and who were fully consulted as to the selection of their several types. Of the new boats thus provided, one was sent to a new station established at Hendon Beach (Durham).

The following is a complete list of the Stations to which new Boats were sent in 1902:—

Aldeburgh	Suffolk.
Appledore (No. 2) . .	Devonshire.
Aranmore	Co. Donegal.
Bambridge	Isle of Wight.
Blyth	Northumberland.
Burnham	Somerset.
Cromer	Norfolk.
Drogheda	Co. Louth.
Greencastle	Co. Donegal.
Hauxley	Northumberland.
Hendon Beach	Co. Durham.
Kilmore	Co. Wexford.
Llandudno	Carnarvonshire.
Looe	Cornwall.
North Berwick	Haddingtonshire.
Poolbeg	Co. Dublin.
Porthdinllaen	Carnarvonshire.
Portrush	Co. Antrim.
Robin Hood's Bay . . .	Yorkshire.
Scarborough	Yorkshire.
Tenby	Pembrokeshire.
Torquay	Devonshire.
Whitburn	Co. Durham.

During the year it became desirable to close the Porthcawl (Glamorganshire) station, in consequence of the impossibility of obtaining a really efficient crew to man the Life-boat; in addition to which the amount of shipping frequenting the port, which originally caused the establishment of the station, had fallen to very small dimensions, thereby practically removing the necessity for a Life-boat.

Transporting Carriages.—New transporting carriages have been provided for 11 stations.

Inspection of Life-boats, etc.—Each of the Institution's Life-boat stations has been carefully and thoroughly inspected during the past year, a full and detailed report of each inspection, of which many were "surprise visits," being submitted to and considered by the Committee of Management.

Shipwrecks.—The year 1902 was unusually free from violent gales. The services of the Life-boats and their gallant crews were, however, in constant requisition during some portions of the year, and much excellent life-saving work was effected. The heaviest gale of the year occurred on the 15th to 17th October, during which 16 of the Institution's Life-boats were launched, and were the means of saving 65 lives.

Between the 1st January and the 31st December, 1902, inclusive, the Life-boats were launched 295 times on service, and 1,084 times for exercise, in addition to which crews were assembled in readiness for service 42 times, but their assistance was not in the end required.

It is with the greatest satisfaction and the deepest thankfulness that the Committee of Management are able to record that, notwithstanding the thousands of Life-boatmen who were afloat in the Life-boats during the year, not one lost his life by drowning when on service. This is the first time since 1897 that the Committee have been able to make such a gratifying announcement.

The number of lives for the saving of which the Institution granted rewards in 1902 was 455; of these, 364 were saved by the Life-boats, and 91 by shore-boats and other means, besides which the Life-boat crews were instrumental in saving 28 vessels and boats.

The following table furnishes the details of the services during each month of the year:—

1902.	Number of Life-boat Launches.	Lives Saved by Life-boats.	Vessels and Boats Saved by Life-boats.	Lives Saved by Shore-boats.

The total number of lives for the saving of which the Institution has granted rewards since 1824, by Life-boats, shore-boats, or by other means, has been 43,652, the number for each year being given in the following table:—

Rewards.—The rewards granted by the Institution in 1902 for the saving of life from shipwreck on the coasts of the United Kingdom, or for prompt and meritorious efforts to do so, and in recognition of other good services rendered, included 4 Silver Medals, 9 Decorations, 18 Binocular Glasses, 8 Aneroid Barometers, 20 Votes of Thanks inscribed on vellum and framed, 11 Certificates of Service framed, and 7,847*l.* 1*s.* 10*d.*, including pensions and grants to the families of men who had died as the result of their Life-boat services, compensation for personal injuries sustained in the Service, and retiring allowances.

At the end of the year the Institution had granted altogether in rewards since 1824, 99 Gold Medals and Clasps, 1 200 Silver Medals and Clasps, 60 Decorations, 339 Binocular Glasses, 15 Telescopes, 42 Aneroid Barometers, 1,710 Votes of Thanks inscribed on vellum and framed, 151 Certificates of Service framed and 231,107*l.* in money.

Aneroids.—There has been a steady demand during the past year for the excellent Aneroid Barometers sold by the Institution at a greatly reduced price to the masters and owners of fishing-boats and small coasters. The total number supplied in 1902 was 146; of these, 122 were provided for fishermen and 24 for coasters. The total number issued since 1882 has been 4,563.

Electrical Communication on the Coast.—The Committee of Management are still anxiously awaiting the establishment of a satisfactory system of wireless telegraphy in connection with the light-houses and light-vessels round the coasts of the United Kingdom. They believe that such a system would be far more valuable than any existing arrangements for securing ready and prompt assistance from the shore for vessels in distress, and they consider it a matter of the utmost importance for Government to take action.

Local Committees.—The Committee desire once more to tender their grateful thanks to one and all of the honorary Officials, without whose important and valuable help, the Institution could not be carried on. The ready and important support given by the Branch Committees and their Secretaries and Treasurers, has been, and is, invaluable and cannot be too highly appreciated.

The cordial thanks of the Institution have also been earned by the Public Press, whose appeals on its behalf continue to be most encouraging and helpful. The co-operation of H.M. Coastguard has merited the heartiest acknowledgments of the Committee.

Life-boat Saturday.—There has been no falling back in the efforts of the thousands of Life-boat Saturday workers during the past year, but the unusual circumstances of the year rendered their work more than ordinarily difficult. Their zeal and enthusiasm have, however, effected much, and whether the results obtained have been large or small in amount, the very grateful thanks of the Committee of Management are due, and thankfully tendered to all helpers alike—to the Central Committee, to the local Life-boat Saturday Committees, to their Officers, and to the Ladies' Auxiliaries. It is very satisfactory to find that notwithstanding the adverse circumstances to which reference has been made, Life-boat Saturday Demonstrations and Collections were in 1902 made in 129 cities and towns, and of these, 12 towns had not before assisted in the movement.

Inventions, &c.—The Committee wish it to be clearly understood that they are at all times glad to receive and examine any suggestions which might perhaps, if adopted, tend to increased efficiency in the Service, and numerous inventions and patents have been thoroughly investigated by them since the publication of their last Report.

Finances.—The total amount received in 1902 by the Committee of Management, in subscriptions, donations, dividends, &c., and including the sum of 15,047*l.* 2*s.* 1*d.* received from the Central Committee of the Life-boat Saturday Fund, was 72,138*l.* 17*s.* 5*d.*, a decrease of 4,932*l.* 15*s.*, as compared with the corresponding total of the preceding year. In addition, the sum of 33,315*l.* 3*s.* 5*d.* was received in legacies, of which 16,158*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.* was for special trusts or other specific purposes.

The total ordinary expenditure in 1902 was 98,862*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*, a decrease of 12,434*l.* 14*s.* 7*d.*, as compared with the corresponding total for 1901. The expenditure included 47,486*l.* 8*s.* 3*d.* for building, equipping, improving, and repairing Life-boats, Steam-Tug, Life-boat transporting carriages, Life-boat houses and slipways; 18,281*l.* 2*s.* 5*d.* for subsidies for non-self-supporting stations, branch payments, aneroids for fishermen and coasters, life-belts and other stores and the storeyard; 27,227*l.* 6*s.* 4*d.* for payments to coxswains, bowmen, and signalmen, to crews, etc., for services and for exercising the Life-boats, for special rewards and recognitions for services; grants to the relatives of Life-boatmen who have been lost in connection with the Service; for injuries, pensions, and retiring allowances to coxswains, bowmen and signalmen; medals and vellums; also for payments to Inspectors; in printing, advertising, postage, telegrams and stationery; on salaries, rates, taxes, housekeeper and other office expenses; also legal charges connected with leases and bequests. The special net expenditure of 10,121*l.* 17*s.* 4*d.* (including legal expenses and deducting rent received) incurred in the purchase of the Lease of the Institution's new headquarters has been included in the accounts in the total expenditure for the year by desire of the Auditor. The Committee would have preferred showing the sum in the Balance Sheet as an investment under the head of Assets, and writing off a proportion of the amount every year. Each item of receipt and expenditure has, as usual, been examined, verified, and passed by Mr. Samuel Lovelock, Chartered Accountant.

The special attention of the public is drawn to the very remarkable development of the Institution since the accession to the throne, in 1837, of the late Queen Victoria, for 41 years the Institution's Patron, such development and advance having been made not only in its practical means for life-saving, and the number of lives for the saving of which it has granted rewards, but also in its income. In 1837, the 14th year of the Institution's existence, it possessed or contributed to the maintenance of only 35 Life-boats, whereas, last year, 1902, the Coronation year of the Institution's present Patron, KING EDWARD VII., its fleet comprised no less than 288 Life-boats. At the close of the year 1837, the Institution had, since its establishment in 1824, granted rewards for the saving of 3,937 lives, whereas at the end of 1902, the corresponding total had reached 43,652. In 1837, the receipts of the Institution from all sources, at that time diminishing year by year, amounted to 899*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.*, and the expenditure to 893*l.* 7*s.* 5*d.*

Having regard therefore to the very successful work done by the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION during the last 79 years, resulting in the saving of so many thousands of lives from shipwrecks, and the absolute necessity which still exists for maintaining a thoroughly efficient fleet of Life-boats round the dangerous shores of the United Kingdom, the Committee of Management once again earnestly appeal to the British Public for increased financial support.

ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

(Supported solely by Voluntary Contributions.)

ITS OBJECT AND WORK.

The work of the Institution mainly consists of—

1. Building, equipping and maintaining Life-boats, transporting carriages, boathouses and slipways, wherever required on the Coasts of the United Kingdom.
2. Payments and the granting of rewards to Life-boat coxswains, crews and helpers, for services rendered, including exercises; medals and vellums being awarded for conspicuous bravery.
3. Awarding medals, vellums or grants of money to those who, at the risk of their own lives, save, or endeavour to save, by means of shore boats or otherwise, life from shipwreck on the Coasts of the United Kingdom.
4. Granting pecuniary compensation to men injured on service.
5. Granting pecuniary compensation to the Widows and other dependent relatives of Life-boatmen who lose their lives on service; not less than £100 being allowed for each Widow and £25 for each dependent child.
6. Granting pensions or retiring allowances to Life-boat coxswains, bowmen and signalmen of long service and good character.

The moneys received from the Life-boat Saturday Fund are, as far as possible, applied by the Committee of Management of the Institution towards meeting the expenses of items Nos. 2, 4, 5 and 6 only.

† Presented to the Institution.

NOTE.—The Institution also holds the Lease of Nos. 20-22 Charing Cross Road, to be used as its House, occupied by Vendors under agreement until Midsummer 1903.

I have examined these Accounts, together with the relative Invoices and Vouchers, and found the same correct. I have also satisfied myself that the Securities representing the Investments of the Institution are in order.

(Signed) SAMUEL LOVELOCK,
Chartered Accountant,
Auditor.

The Royal National Life-Boat Institution

Is prepared to establish and maintain a Life-boat Station on any part of the coast of the United Kingdom where it can be shown, from previous disasters, that a Life-boat is required. It is requisite that there should be a sufficient number of men (fishermen, or others accustomed to the management of boats at sea) to man the Life-boat, and a Committee formed from the residents in the neighbourhood to superintend the Station and obtain such small Annual Subscriptions as may contribute towards a portion of the expense of the Life-boat Station.

Communications should be addressed to the Secretary of the Institution, 14 John Street, Adelphi, London, W.C.

GOD HELP OUR MEN AT SEA.

List of the Rewards

FOR SAVING LIFE FROM WRECKS

VOTED BY THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION

TO THE CREWS OF ITS LIFE-BOATS, TO SHORE AND FISHING-BOATS' CREWS, AND TO OTHER PERSONS

FROM THE 1ST JANUARY TO THE 31ST DECEMBER, 1902, INCLUSIVE.

Jan. 5.—THURSO, CAITHNESS-SHIRE.—Co-operator No. 3 Life-boat.—While a whole gale from W.N.W. was raging, accompanied by a very heavy sea and rain, signals of distress were observed from the schooners Emma Louise and Elizabeth Miller, both of Wick and bound for Thurso River with coal, the former from Hull and the latter from

Shields. The Life-boat was launched at 1.15 a.m., and landed the crews of the vessels, seven men in all. The force of the gale carried away the Life-boat's mizen-mast and sprung her foremast, so that her sails had to be lowered, and being unable to return to her station under oars she was compelled to put into Thurso River Harbour. The Eliza- beth Miller parted one of her chains, but both vessels rode out the gale.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 13*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 9th Jan., 1902.

Voted 338*l.* 10*s.* 7*d.* to pay the expenses of assemblies of crews, watching, launches, &c., at the following Life-boat stations: Arbreath, Caister No. 2, Clacton-on-Sea, Dungeness No. 1, Formby, Holyhead No. 1, Holy Island No. 1, Kingsdowne, Montrose No. 1, Mullion, North Berwick, Penzance, Poole, Rhoscolyn, Runswick, St. Helier's, Walmer, Walton-on-the-Naze, Whitby No. 1, and Winchelsea.

Voted the silver Medal of the Institution, accompanied by a copy of the vote inscribed on vellum, to HUGH HUGHES, Coxswain of the Rhoscolyn Life-boat, in recognition of his gallant services in that Life-boat, and particularly on the occasion of the rescue of the crew of the schooner J. W. Waring, of Lancaster, in a whole gale and very heavy sea, on the 8th December 1901. Double pay was awarded to the Coxswain and crew of the Life-boat for this good service.

Awarded a certificate of service and a pension to MARTIN WHITFIELD, PHILLIP MCKINNEY and OWEN MORRIS on their retirement from the posts of Coxswain of the Barry port, Greencastle and Rhosneigr Life-boats, respectively.

Also a pension to HARRY SMITH, Assistant Coxswain of Ryde Life-boat, and JOHN LEGERTON, Signalman at the Clacton-on-Sea Life-boat Station, on their resignation.

Also a gratuity of 5*l.* 5*s.* to E. M. LEWIS on retirement from the post of Assistant Coxswain of the Fishguard Life-boat.

Also the sum of 50*l.* to the widow and children of J. S. PETTIT, late Bowman of the Broadstairs Life-boat; and 30*l.* to the widow of the late WILLIAM CAPPS, Coxswain of the Lowestoft Life-boat for eighteen years.

The Committee specially recognized the valuable co-operation of ROBERT LEES, Esq., Honorary Secretary of the Wicklow Branch, on the occasion of the wreck of a vessel on the 13th November 1901.

Thanks were accorded to T. H. CORNISH, Esq., Honorary Secretary of the Penzance Branch, for his valuable services on the occasion of two launches of the Life-boat for service on the 1st January.

Also 1*l.* each to eleven fishermen who rendered most valuable assistance on the occasion of the Caister Life-boat accident on the 13th November 1901.

Jan. 13.—COVERACK, CORNWALL.—Constance Mélanie Life-boat.—This was the first service at this Life-boat station, which was established in the year 1901. The barque Glenberrie, of Glasgow, bound from London for Algoa Bay, with a general cargo, stranded at Lowland Point in a strong S.E. breeze, a rough sea and very thick and cold weather. She showed signals of distress and in less than ten minutes after they had been seen the Life-boat was launched. The time was then 8.35 P.M., the night intensely dark, and the choppy seas running amongst the rocks rendered it impossible for the Life-boat to get alongside the vessel; she therefore anchored about fifty yards from her, got the vessel's crew, consisting of sixteen all told, safely on board and landed them at 10.45. When they left the barque there was every prospect of her becoming a total wreck. The Life-boat behaved excellently and the service was highly creditable to her crew.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 13*s.*

Jan. 18.—WINTERTON, NORFOLK.—Edward Birkbeck Life-boat.—The steam trawler Teal, of London, returning to Lowestoft from the fishing grounds, in thick weather, on the night of the 17th January, stranded about a mile N. of Winterton. At about 1 A.M. she was seen by the look-out man, who at once gave an alarm, whereupon the No. 1 Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the trawler. The Life-boatmen were engaged by the master to assist to get the vessel afloat. At day-break an anchor was laid out, to which was attached a wire hawser, and ultimately, on the 20th January, the steamer was re-floated.—Property salvage case.

Jan. 25.—JOHNSHAVEN, KINCARDINESHIRE.—Sarah Ann Holden Life-boat.—A telephone message having been received from Gourdon, intimating that a schooner was ashore at the Burn of Benholm, which is about a mile and a half eastward of Johnshaven, the Life-boat was launched at 6 P.M. A strong wind was blowing from N., the sea was moderate and the weather very cold, with snow showers. The stranded vessel proved to be the Lord Clyde, of Banff, homeward bound from Sunderland, with a cargo of coal. When the Life-boat reached her the Rocket Brigade had succeeded in throwing a line over her, but the crew did not wish to leave as she was not leaking. They, however, ultimately decided to avail themselves of the Life-boat and were taken safely ashore. It was arranged that the Life-boat should take them back to their vessel at the flood tide if the weather permitted. At 10.30 P.M. the Life-boat left the harbour for this purpose, but the wind increased to a gale, there was a heavy sea, and it was found utterly impossible to get near the vessel. The Life-boat laid by for about two hours and then returned. It proved fortunate for the crew that they had left the schooner, as at 2 o'clock her masts fell, and at daylight she was seen to be breaking up.—Expense of service, 44l.

Jan. 25.—MOELFRE, ANGLESEY.—Star of Hope Life-boat.—A strong gale was experienced from N.N.E., accompanied by a heavy sea, very cold weather and snowstorms, and the crew of the Life-boat were on duty all night, as there were three vessels at anchor in the bay and in a perilous position. At 11 o'clock the barquentine Ethiopia, of Wicklow, laden with coal, signalled for assistance; having dragged her anchors for about two miles, she was in shoal water and on a lee shore. Her crew of six men were rescued by the Life-boat. Shortly after landing them, at 1.45 A.M., the Life-boat was again called out by the schooner Lily Green, of Liverpool, also laden with coal, which had dragged her anchors for about three miles. Having taken off her crew of three men the Life-boat spoke the third vessel, but the crew said they could not leave her as she was leaking, meaning no doubt that if the pumps were abandoned she would founder. They however asked that the Life-boatmen would keep a sharp look-out and be ready to proceed to their assistance at once in the event of their making signals of distress. She was watched until day had broken and the gale had abated, but her crew did not need any help.—Expense of service, 46l. 17s.

Jan. 26.—FLAMBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE.—Matthew Middlewood Life-boat.—The coastguard having reported that a vessel was burning flares S. of the Head, near the Smithic Sands, while a whole gale was blowing from N.W., with a heavy sea, the Life-boat was launched about 3.35 A.M., and rescued the crew of eight men from the vessel, the barquentine Aurora, of Guernsey. At about 9 A.M. the weather moderated and the master and crew being anxious to return to the vessel, the Life-boat was again launched for this purpose and put on board the crew and some boatmen, who were successful in taking the vessel to a safe anchorage about 5 P.M.—Reward from Institution in addition to payment by shipowners, 28l. 2s. 6d.

Jan. 28.—HAYLE, CORNWALL.—E. F. Harrison Life-boat.—The s.s. Flewick, of Whitehaven, coal laden from Neath for Hayle, stranded on the eastern spit of Hayle Bar, in a strong gale from N. and a very heavy sea. At 7.55 P.M. the Life-boat put off to her assistance and rescued her crew, consisting of eleven men and a pilot who was on board. The rescued men were safely landed at 9.35 P.M. The Life-boat sustained damage in effecting this rescue, the yoke of the rudder being broken and five oars were either broken or lost. She was, however, admirably handled by the Coxswain, and the service was altogether a trying one for the whole of the crew.—Expense of service, 24l. 10s.

Jan. 31.—CULLERCOATS, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Co-operator No. 1 Life-boat.—Eight fishing-cobles were endeavouring to return home while a heavy sea was breaking on the bar. As they would incur considerable risk in crossing, the Life-boat was launched at 11 A.M., taking out spare life-belts, which were handed to the fishermen, and stood by the boats until they safely reached the shore.—Expense of service, 13l. 13s.

Jan. 31.—WEXFORD, Co. WEXFORD.—James Stevens No. 1 Life-boat.—The s.s. Belle, lightship tender, while returning to Wexford from the Lucifer Shoal Light-vessel, in a moderate breeze, with a moderate sea and thick weather at times, grounded on the E. end of the Swanton Bank. In response to her signals of distress, the Life-boat proceeded to her assistance at 6.30 P.M., and stood by her until nearly high water, when she floated and was warped off the sand, an anchor having been laid out for that purpose.—Expense of service, 22l. 17s.

Jan 31.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—The coastguard having informed the Coxswain of the Life-boat that a vessel was burning flares in Yarmouth Roads, while a whole gale was blowing from the E., accompanied by a heavy sea, the Life-boat was launched at 11 P.M., and found the brigantine Volant, of and from Limerick, bound for West Hartlepool, riding at one anchor, her other cable having parted. As she was driving towards the Outer Bank, the Life-boat stood by her during the night, and on the following morning the vessel was towed into the harbour.—Property salvage case. Balance paid by Institution, 36l. 15s.

Feb. 1.—ST. MARY'S, SCILLY ISLANDS.—Henry Dundas Life-boat.—The Life-boat put off at about 11 A.M., and for some hours remained by the ketch Ada, of Gloucester, which had anchored in a bad position in St. Mary's Sound, and was leaking. A strong gale was blowing from E.N.E., the sea was rough, and the weather very cold.—Expense of service, 17l. 2s.

Feb. 1.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Bradford Life-boat.—While endeavouring to return to the harbour, in a whole gale from E. and a heavy sea, the smack Lottie struck the West Pier, and was driven to the back of it. Her anchor was let go but it did not hold, and ultimately the cable parted, and an attempt to assist her by means of a line thrown from the pier was ineffectual. Three of the crew who took to their boat were got on to the pier, and one man, who was left on board the smack, which drifted into the surf on the rocky beach, was rescued by the Life-boat.—Payment arranged by the Board of Trade.

Feb. 2.—CLACTON-ON-SEA, ESSEX.—Albert Edward Life-boat.—The coast-guard having informed the Coxswain of the Life-boat that signals had been fired by the Swin Middle Light-vessel, he summoned the crew, and at 5.30 A.M. the Life-boat was launched. On speaking the light-vessel the Coxswain was informed that the signals had been fired in answer to those of the Mouse Light-vessel, and the boat at once proceeded in that direction and found the s.s. Dungonnell, of Glasgow, bound from Grangemouth for London, with coal, stranded on the Black Tail Spit. A whole gale was blowing from the E. and the sea was very heavy. The Life-boatmen were engaged to jettison the cargo, and they continued to do so until 5 P.M., when the sea increased to such an extent that it became necessary to batten down the hatches. At 7 o'clock the engines were put astern, but before high water they were choked with sand, and the ship did not move with that tide. At 9.30 the jettisoning was again commenced, and continued until 4.30 A.M., when one of the steamer's boats was launched and took a line to a steam-tug, by means of which a tow-line was brought to the vessel and made fast. At high water the tug succeeded in towing the vessel off the sand, and at once her anchor had to be let go so as to avoid collision with another vessel. The crew of the steamer, eleven in number, were so thoroughly exhausted that the Life-boatmen were requested by the captain to get in the anchor and the sixty fathoms of chain attached; this they did by manual labour, no steam-power being available. The tug then towed the steamer in the direction of Gravesend, the Coxswain of the Life-boat accompanying her, the boat subsequently returning to her station, which was reached at 3.15 P.M. on the 3rd February, the s.s. Merlin, belonging to the General Steam Navigation Company, of London, having towed her part of the way.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 3.—WINTERTON, NORFOLK.—Margaret Life-boat.—Rockets and guns were fired by the WOULD Light-vessel. A moderate breeze was blowing at the time from E. by S., there was a heavy sea and the weather was thick, with rain and sleet, and very cold. At 6.53 P.M. the No. 2 Life-boat was launched and falling in with the s.s. Harlow, of London, was kindly taken in tow until a steam-tug came up. On speaking the Light-vessel it was ascertained that flares had been seen about five miles E.N.E. The Life-boat was towed in the direction indicated, and eventually found the barque Chili, of Gessle, riding at anchor. She had lost her masts and rudder and was water-logged. The Life-boatmen boarded her, remained by her during the night, and on the arrival of steam-tugs on the following day she was taken in tow and beached at Winterton, where her crew of fourteen men were safely landed by the Life-boat. The barque was bound from Christiania for East London, Cape Colony, with a cargo of timber. — Property salvage case.

Feb. 4. — FALMOUTH, CORNWALL. — Bob Newbon Life-boat. — At 8 P.M., intelligence having been received from the coastguard that a vessel was aground on the Black Rock, this Life-boat was launched. A moderate wind was blowing from E.N.E., and there was a moderate sea. On reaching the vessel she was found to be the schooner Snæfell, of Ramsey, Isle of Man, bound from Portmadoc for Ipswich, with a cargo of slates. It appeared that in entering the harbour she had to alter her course in order to avoid collision with another vessel and ran on the rock. When the tide served she was taken by a steam-tug to a safe anchorage, the Life-boat standing by her until all danger was over. — Expense of service, 28*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

Feb. 5. — POOLE, DORSET. — City Masonic Club Life-boat. — While a fresh wind was blowing from E.S.E., a telephone message was received from the coastguard at Sandbanks stating that a vessel was on the Hook Sand and burning flares. The Life-boat was launched at 7.15 P.M., and proceeding to the sand, on which a heavy sea was breaking, found the ketch Jessie, of Boston, bound for Poole, with potatoes, striking heavily. At the request of the master, the Life-boat stood by until the vessel floated off the sand and made for Poole. The boat regained her station at 10.30 P.M. — Expense of service, 24*l.*

Feb. 7. — WHITBY, YORKSHIRE. — Robert and Mary Ellis Life-boat. — At about 10.30 A.M. two cobles, the Thomas and Richard and the Lady Morris, which had left the harbour for the fishing ground some six hours previously, were seen returning. The first boat, when about one hundred and fifty yards outside the bar, was struck by a sea which nearly swamped her. She was partly filled, but her crew managing with their oars to get her head to sea, pulled her clear of the broken water, anchored, and baled the water out of the boat. The sea continued to increase, and as it was evident that the cobles could not cross the bar with safety, the Life-boat was launched, took the crews, six men in all, out of them, and safely landed them. The boats were towed into the broken water and allowed to wash up on the beach, when they were drawn out of the water and placed in safety. — Expense of service, 15*l.* 3*s.*

Feb. 8. — RAMSEY, ISLE OF MAN. — Mary Isabella Life-boat. — The schooner Ellesmere, of Runcorn, bound for Liverpool, with potatoes, had her mainsail and top-gallant sail torn in a gale from E. by S., and anchored about three-quarters of a mile E.N.E. of the harbour. She was in a dangerous position, being near a lee shore, and in response to her signals for assistance the Life-boat was launched at 9.30 A.M., and rescued her crew of three men. A rough sea was running at the time, snow was falling, and the weather was very cold. — Expense of service, 18*l.* 10*s.*

Feb. 8. — STAITHES, YORKSHIRE. — Jonathan Stott Life-boat. While the fishing cobles were out a strong breeze from the E.N.E. sprung up, the sea became very rough and the weather being thick it was feared that some casualty might happen. The Life-boat was launched at noon and assisted the boats to regain their port. — Expense of service, 13*l.* 5*s.*

Feb. 11. — HOYLAKE, CHESHIRE. — Coard William Squarey Life-boat. — A man and his wife, while walking from the mainland to Hilbre Island, were overtaken by a very heavy snow-storm, and as they had not returned, and it was doubtful whether they could have reached the island before it was surrounded by the tide, the Life-boat was launched and proceeded in search of them. When the snowstorm ceased they were seen on what is known as the beach mark, or little eye, a rock with a landmark on it, surrounded by the tide. The woman, who was greatly exhausted, was carried into the Life-boat, and she and her husband, both wet through up to the waist, were taken safely ashore.—Expense of service, 24*l.* 10*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 13th Feb., 1902.

Voted also 573*l.* 7*s.* in payment for launches of the Life-boats, or for assemblies of the crews at Brixham, Broughty Ferry, Caister No. 1, Carrickfergus, Clacton, Eastbourne, Falmouth, Gorleston No. 1, Great Yarmouth, Hythe, Margate, Newhaven, Padstow, Palling No. 2, Porthoustock, St. Mary's, St. Peter's Port, Southend (Essex), Walton-on-the-Naze, Watchet, Weymouth and Winterton.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was also taken out, but her services were not ultimately needed.

The Committee awarded an aneroid barometer each to CHARLES T. HIPKIN, A. D. SCOTT, WILLIAM J. ROY and FRANK HALLS for their special services on the occasion of the Life-boat at Walton-on-the-Naze being called out for service on the night of the 6th January.

The sum of 14*l.* 1*s.* was granted to men injured while engaged in the Life-boat service at Bridlington, Kingsdowne and Rhoscolyn.

Also 5*l.* to J. HOGG, who had been a member of the crew of the Tyrella Life-boat for sixteen years.

Also voted 15*l.* to the widow and three young children of a Life-boat man at Stromness who contracted illness while on Life-boat service.

Also awarded a pension to OSCAR CORLETT and GEORGE NORTHWAY, ex-assistant Coxswain and ex-Bowman of the Ramsey and Torquay Life-boats; also to JOHN COTTON and WILLIAM WHITE, ex-Bowman and ex-Signalman of the Atherfield Life-boat.

Feb. 15.—NORTH DEAL, KENT.—Mary Somerville Life-boat.—The s.s. Rion of Newcastle, laden with oil, from Batoum for London, stranded on the inner part of the North Goodwin Sand in a thick fog. In response to signals from the Gull Light-vessel, the Life-boat was launched about 8 A.M. and proceeded to the vessel. The services of the Life-boatmen, in conjunction with the crews of two luggers, were engaged to pump some of the oil out of the tanks in order to lighten the vessel. About 1500 tons were thus jettisoned, and about 40 tons of bunker coal were thrown overboard. Kedge anchors were laid out, and ultimately, with the help of four steam-tugs, the steamer was got clear of the sands, her own engines being, by the advice of the Coxswain of the Life-boat, put full speed ahead to assist in the operation. Having been taken into deep water, the Rion proceeded under her own steam for Gravesend, accompanied by one of the tugs, and having on board the Coxswains of the Life-boat and luggers, who remained to assist the master with their local knowledge.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 16.—CRESSWELL, NORTHUMBRLAND.—Ellen and Eliza Life-boat.—This Life-boat was launched at 5.45 A.M., and proceeded to the s.s. Minerva, of Sunderland, which had stranded on Quarry Point in a strong breeze from S. by E., a moderate sea, and very thick and cold weather. The vessel was bound from the fishing-grounds for the Tyne. The Life-boatmen laid out a kedge anchor and assisted to get the vessel afloat, returning to their station at 9 o'clock.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 21.—MONTROSE, FORFARSHIRE.—Sarah Jane Turner Life-boat.—About 6.20 A.M. rockets were fired from Scurdyness, indicating that the services of the Life-boat were needed. The crew were summoned, and in about ten minutes the Life-boat was launched, and proceeding to the Annat Bank found the fishing boat Marjory Brown, of Montrose, stranded there, bumping heavily and the heavy seas washing over her. The Life-boat shipped a very heavy sea, but managed to rescue the five fishermen, and landed them at 7.30. —Expense of service, 18*l.* 9*s.* 9*d.* Later in the day the Life-boat again went to the vessel at the request of the owners and assisted to bring her safely into the river.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 21.—HAUXLEY, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Algernon and Eleanor Life-boat.—The coastguard reported that he had heard signals of distress. A steamer was seen on the Bondicar Rocks; she had a light burning and was sounding her whistle. A moderate breeze was blowing from the S., the weather was thick and the sea moderate. The reef being a dangerous one it was considered that it would be impossible to render any help by means of a coble, and therefore the Life-boat was launched. She put off about 10.30 P.M., and found the s.s. Velocity, of and from London, in ballast, for Blyth. Some of the Life-boatmen went on board, an anchor was laid out, and as the tide was flowing, the steamer soon floated. At the master's request three of the Life-boatmen remained on board to accompany him to Blyth so as to assist him if anything happened, and the Life-boat returned to her station. The vessel then seemed watertight but soon began to leak; however the donkey engine was sufficient for working the pumps and she safely arrived at her destination.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 23.—WINCHELSEA, SUSSEX.—John William Dudley Life-boat.—A telephone message was received from the coastguard at Galloways, stating that a ketch was ashore. The Life-boat was launched at 8.40 A.M., in a rough sea, a strong S. breeze and a thick mist, and found the ketch Pilot laden with china clay, stranded between Galloways coastguard station and Jury's Gap. The master having engaged the services of the Life-boatmen, the anchor was slipped, sails set, and ultimately the vessel was got away from the shore. They then manned the pumps as the ketch was leaking badly. One of the crew, which consisted of four men, was injured, and as there were no spirits on board some were supplied to him from the Life-boat's store. Arriving about a mile and a half from Dungeness the Life-boatmen enquired of the master if he wished any further help, and on his stating that he did not, they were arranging to return to their station; but the vessel's crew, in view of the fact that she was in a leaky condition and had no anchor or cable on board, refused to go any further if the Life-boat left. The master therefore asked that the Life-boatmen would accompany him to Dover, and they accordingly did so. Dover was reached at 4.30 P.M., but it was impossible to get into the harbour until 11.30. The injured man was then landed by the Life-boat. Having finished their work at 1 A.M. the Life-boatmen proceeded to the Sailor's Home to rest, and on the following evening at about 7 o'clock arrived back at Winchelsea.—Property salvage case; balance paid by Institution, 24*l.* 17*s.*

Feb. 27.—ALDEBURGH, SUFFOLK.—Bolton Life-boat.—About 8 A.M. a telephone message was received stating that a steamer was blowing a succession of short blasts from a foghorn and immediately afterwards another message arrived stating that a barque was ashore. A moderate breeze was blowing from W., the sea was rough, with a heavy swell on the shoals, and the weather was thick. The Life-boat was launched, and, proceeding in a northerly direction, saw a barque ashore about four hundred yards from Misner coastguard station. Two boats were leaving her but the sea being too heavy for them to land, they were making for a steamer which was aground on the Sizewell Bank. The Life-boat made for the steamer, the Lorne, of Hull, bound for London with grain. Just before the Life-boat arrived alongside, the steamer got off the sand. The barque's crew, consisting of ten men, were taken into the Life-boat and safely landed at Aldeburgh. They reported that their vessel, the Loveid, of Porsgrund, bound from Norway for London with a cargo of ice, had also been aground on the Sizewell bank, but knocked over the sand, broke her back, and drove ashore full of water.—Expense of service, 30*l.* 10*s.* 3*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 13th March, 1902.

Voted 18*l.* 15*s.* 11*d.* to pay the expenses of launches of Life-boats, &c., at the following stations, with the view of assisting vessels in distress.—Alnmouth, Broadstairs, Caister No. 1, Cullercoats, Harwich (Steam Life-boat), Hauxley, Kingsdowne, Montrose No. 1, Palling No. 2, and Port Erroll. The Ramsgate Life-boat was also out on three occasions but her services were not ultimately required.

Voted 24*l.* 2*s.* to men injured while on Life-boat service at Ballywalter, Caister, Hastings and Porth Rhuffydd.

Also a pension and certificate to JAMES SUTTON, ex-Coxswain of the Yarmouth Life-boat, and a pension to HENRY JANE, ex-Bowman of the Cadwith Life-boat, and a donation of 5*l.* to a member of the crew of the same boat on resigning after thirty-four years' service.

March 15.—MARGATE, KENT.—Civil Service No. 1 Life-boat.—At 6.45 A.M., while a strong gale was blowing from N.W. and a rough sea was running, information was given by the Coastguard that a vessel was on the N.W. part of Margate Sand. The Life-boat was immediately launched and proceeded to her assistance, but when within about a mile of the distressed vessel she also grounded. As it was then just about low water, the Coxswain anchored and lay there for an hour. On the tide flowing sufficiently another effort was made to reach the vessel—the ketch Justice, of Harwich—and after considerable difficulty and hard work the Life-boat was brought alongside. With the assistance of three of the Life-boatmen the vessel was got off the sand and brought into Margate, thus saving both the vessel and the crew of three hands. It subsequently appeared that the barge had been riding at anchor close to the sands, and when she commenced driving towards them, the master slipped his cable and forced his vessel to the top of the sand to prevent her foundering.—Property salvage case.

March 15.—CLACTON-ON-SEA, ESSEX.—Albert Edward Life-boat.—A severe north-westerly gale was experienced off

Clacton in the morning, accompanied by a rough sea. About 8.15 A.M. a vessel was seen drifting towards the Gunfleet Sands. Information was at once conveyed to the Life-boat authorities, and the Assistant Honorary Secretary, on seeing the vessel was getting into a dangerous position, decided to launch the Life-boat.

This was done shortly after 9 A.M., and on coming up with the vessel, she was found to be the ketch Crania, of Brixham, but no one was on board. The Coxswain without delay put some men on her, and sail having been set, a start was made to take her to Brightlingsea. On the way they fell in with the owner, who had come out in a smack, and he accepted the offer of the Coxswain to see the ketch into safety. As soon as the ketch was under weigh the Life-boat returned to her station. During the whole of the time she was afloat her behaviour evoked the greatest praise, the local authorities speaking in the highest terms of her performance.—Property salvage case.

March 16.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Bradford Life-boat.—At 1.20 A.M. a message was received from the Coastguard that the Gull Light-vessel was exhibiting signals of distress. The Life-boat was at once ordered out and proceeded in the direction indicated. The weather was clear, with a moderate W.N.W. wind and slight sea. On arriving they found the schooner Morwenna, of Truro, laden with clay and sand from Teignmouth to London, aground about half-a-mile from the North Goodwin buoy. She had become unmanageable through the loss of her yards and head sails. Just as the Life-boat got alongside, the vessel again floated, so the master requested that she might be taken to Ramsgate. Accordingly, six men were put on board, and a rope having been passed to the steam-tug Aid, which had gone out with the Life-boat, a start was made for the harbour, which was reached soon after 4 A.M.

March 18.—DUNBAR, HADDINGTONSHIRE.—William Arthur Millward Life-boat.—During a westerly gale and moderate sea, the smack Young Helen, of Buckhaven, struck on the "Wildfire Rock," between North Berwick and Dunbar. On the information being received, the Life-boat launched and proceeded to her assistance. On reaching the scene of the accident they found the vessel rolling very badly and the crew hard at work at the pumps. As it was then impossible to tell the extent of the damage and whether the smack would float with the flood tide, the skipper requested the Life-boat to stand by him in case it became necessary to abandon his vessel. After remaining nearly four hours the smack floated off, and they then accompanied her back to Dunbar, where she was safely berthed during the evening.—Expense of service, 21*l.* 2*s.* 3*d.*

March 24.—EXMOUTH, DEVON.—Joseph Scames Life-boat.—A fishing boat which had proceeded to sea in favourable weather early in the morning was overtaken by a strong gale from S.S.W., and as the sea became very heavy, accompanied by a very thick rain, considerable anxiety was felt for the safety of the crew. About noon she was observed with her sails split, dangerously near to the sands. The Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the Fairway buoy, where she remained by the boat in readiness to render help to the crew should any casualty befall them; eventually however, they succeeded in bringing her safely in.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 11*s.* 3*d.*

March 24.—CARDIGAN.—Lizzie and Charles Leigh Clare Life-boat.—While a strong N.W. gale was blowing with heavy seas during the evening, the signalman fired the alarm signal indicating a vessel in distress in Cardigan Bay. The Life-boat was launched shortly after 8 P.M., and pulled out to the vessel, which proved to be the schooner John Ewing, of Carnarvon, bound from London to Cardigan. She was then dragging her anchors and drifting towards the shore. As too much risk would have been incurred by the Life-boat going alongside, the Coxswain anchored, and by means of a rope secured to the schooner and a Life-buoy succeeded in gallantly saving the crew of four hands in an exhausted condition. Shortly after the rescue was effected the vessel beached on the Pembrokeshire sands, her hull by that time being completely under water, and became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 27*l.* 18*s.*

March 24.—HOLYHEAD, ANGLESEY.—Duke of Northumberland steam Life-boat.—About midnight H.M.S. Opossum, while lying in the harbour at Holyhead, dragged her anchor and collided with the schooner Gipsy Maid. As she fired a rocket and showed signals of distress, the steam Life-boat proceeded to her and succeeded in towing her clear of the schooner.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*

Shortly after this the cables of the Gipsy Maid parted, and the Life-boat then went to her aid and assisted to bring her into the old harbour in safety. There was a N. gale blowing at the time, accompanied by very cold weather and rough sea.—Property salvage case.

April 1.—PETERHEAD, ABERDEENSHIRE.—George Pickard Life-boat.—While the Coxswain of the Life-boat was working in the Life-boat house during the afternoon, information was brought him that a vessel had gone ashore at Scotston Head. After consulting the Harbour Master, he at once launched the boat and proceeded under sail to the vessel, in the face of a strong N.W. gale. She proved to be the schooner Pioneer, of Dundee, bound for Nairn with a cargo of coal, and was fast on the rocks, rolling heavily. The crew were preparing to leave in their own boat, but on the arrival of the Life-boat and a steamer, which had also come up, they decided to make an attempt to float the schooner. A rope was passed by means of the Life-boat to the steamer, and after a good deal of trouble she was eventually got off and towed into harbour, the Life-boat returning at the same time.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 9*s.* 8*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 10th April, 1902.

Voted 182*l.* 5*s.* 2*d.* to pay for watching or launches of Life-boats at the following stations, with the view of assisting distressed vessels:—Broadstairs, Caister No. 1, Courtmacsherry, Dunbar, Gorleston No. 1, Whitelink Bay, Winchelsea and Winterton No. 2.

Voted the thanks of the Institution, inscribed on vellum and framed, to JAMES LAMING, Coxswain of the Kings-downe Life-boat, and to JOHN MACKINS, Coxswain of the Walmer Life-boat, in recognition of their good services on the occasion of the rescue of the crew of the four-masted barque Mersey, of Grimstad, in a S.S.W. gale and a very heavy sea on the 28th December.

Also granted a pension to WILLIAM HELLYER, ex-Bowman and RICHARD BEVAN, ex-Signalman of the Selsey and Port Eynon Life-boat respectively.

Also a donation of 15*l.* to the widow of FREDERICK WARD, who had been connected with the Aldeburgh Branch of the Institution.

April 15. — SCARBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE.—Queensbury Life-boat.—About 4.30 P.M. two fishermen reported that two cobsles, engaged in crab-catching between four and five miles north-east of the Castle foot were in danger owing to the strong sea and fog. It was therefore deemed advisable to launch the Life-boat and about 4.45 P.M. this was done; she proceeded in a north-easterly direction for about a mile without sighting any boats. About 6.30 P.M., however, two cobsles, one of which was the Ocean and the other the Queen's Jubilee, were seen making for the harbour. The Life-boat pulled to the former, took her crew of two men on board and the boat in tow, bringing them safely into harbour. On the way they spoke the Queen's Jubilee, and instructed them to remain outside until they could return for her. This they did, and after landing the two men the Life-boat went back and escorted the second vessel into safety. Expense of service, 15*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.*

April 18.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Leicester Life-boat.—A telephone message was received from the coast-guard about 1.30 P.M. stating that a vessel was ashore half-a-mile south of the watch-house. In the absence of the Coxswain, the Assistant Coxswain immediately summoned the crew of the Life-boat and proceeded to the position indicated. The weather was very thick and the sea rough, with a strong breeze from S.E. They found the stranded vessel was the steam-trawler Notus, of Great Yarmouth. As assistance was not required to get her off, the Life-boat stood by until the vessel floated, and having seen she was no longer in danger started to return for Gorleston. On coming near the pier they were informed that another boat was aground to the northward, so proceeded in that direction. That boat proved to be the lugger Sunshine, also of Great Yarmouth, but before the Life-boat reached her she succeeded in getting off, and as the Life-boat's services were not required she returned to her station.—Expense of service, 8*l.* 13*s.*

April 22.—STROMNESS, ORKNEY.—Good Shepherd Life-boat.—A small lobster fishing-boat, while out at sea to the west of Hoy Head was caught in a sudden gale from S.E. On the matter being reported to the Honorary Secretary, he at once despatched the Life-boat to her assistance. She eventually succeeded in rescuing the crew of three men and saving the boat, which was taken in tow and brought back to Stromness about 4.30 P.M. In the meanwhile the wind had much increased and was then blowing a heavy gale; this together with the rough sea and the state of the tide prevented any attempt being then made to house the Life-boat; after a wait of some hours however this was safely accomplished. The position of the boat and her occupants when rescued was very perilous, as their only chance of safety was to remain close under the cliff to the S. side of the Head, and had a land sea set in nothing could have saved them.—Expense of service, 10*l.*

April 26. — DUNGENESS, KENT. — R.A.O.B. Life-boat.—About 5.30 A.M. the Coastguard watchman sent a message to the Life-boat Station that a four-masted barque was ashore in West Bay. The Coxswain promptly assembled his crew and launched the Life-boat to assist her. On reaching the vessel, which proved to be the Crown of India, of Liverpool, bound for Hamburg with a cargo of grain, the master at first declined any assistance, but later the Life-boatmen were engaged by him to assist in getting the vessel off. Having given the help required, the Life-boat returned ashore, but owing to the rough sea and strong breeze it was necessary to beach her at Dungemars and return her to the boat-house when the weather moderated. The vessel on getting clear was able to proceed on her way.—Property salvage case.

April 28.—CLOVELLY, DEVON.—Elinor Roget Life-boat.—A member of the Local Committee having observed what he took to be a signal of distress from a vessel in Barnstable Bay about 10 P.M., he reported it to the Coast-guard, and after consulting the man on watch, it was ascertained that a boat had been showing flares, but apparently only for "pilotage" purposes. While they were watching however another flare was made, accompanied by a rocket. The signal was at once fired to assemble the crew of the Life-boat, and she proceeded to the assistance of the vessel, which proved to be Pilot Cutter No. 21, of Newport. On going alongside they found her in a sinking condition, having sprung a leak when off Trevoise Head. It was then just after midnight, and the two men who were on board were much exhausted, as they had been working at the pump since noon the previous day. The master was anxious to get his cutter to Ilfracombe, but as that place was sixteen miles to windward the Coxswain did not consider it possible. Four of the Life-boat crew were put on board, and they succeeded in bringing her in safety to Clovelly Roads. The Life-boat accompanied her and stood by until high water on the 29th inst. in case it should be necessary to take the men off. Having saved the vessel and her two occupants, the crew then assisted to get her into harbour, and steps were taken to stop the leak. When the work was completed the vessel sailed for Newport.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 17*s.*

During this service, which occupied the whole night, the weather was very cold and rough, JOHN DUNN, the Bowman of the Life-boat, contracted a chill, subsequently developing pleurisy and influenza, from which he never recovered. He left an invalid widow and one dependent daughter. As he had been a member of the crew ever since the Life-boat was established at Clovelly and had held the post of Bowman for ten years, the Committee resolved to make a grant of 125*l.* for the benefit of the dependent relatives, leaving the distribution of the money in the hands of the Local Committee.

May 3.—BROADSTAIRS, KENT.—Francis Forbes Barton Life-boat.—The ketch Meteor, of London, bound for Dunkirk with a cargo of pitch, had her mainsail and jib blown away in a south westerly gale when about two miles from the South Foreland. In response to her signals of distress the Life-boat launched about 1.35 P.M. and proceeded to her assistance. The sea was very rough at the time but they succeeded in placing two men on board, who, with the crew of the ketch, managed to bring her into Ramsgate Harbour safely, the Life-boat meanwhile standing by in case her services should again be required.—Property salvage case.

May 5.—WHITBY, YORKSHIRE.—Robert and Mary Ellis Life-boat.—About 8 A.M. a north-easterly gale suddenly sprang up, accompanied by rain and sleet and a rough sea, whereupon several fishing cobs which had left the harbour earlier in the morning attempted to return. The first two while crossing the bar were nearly swamped, and only got in with great difficulty, one of them being dashed against the end of the East Pier. As the remaining boats were in peril and had still to make the harbour, the No. 1 Life-boat launched and stood by them until they were out of danger, when she was returned to her house.—Expense of service, 9*l.* 18*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING.—8th May, 1902.

Voted 106*l.* 0*s.* 4*d.* to pay for watching or launches of the Aldeburgh, Dungenarvan Bay, Filey, Gorleston No. 1, Newburgh, Palling No. 2, Peterhead and Southend-on-Sea Life-boats.

Also 12*l.* 6*s.* the funeral expenses of CHARLES GEORGE, drowned on the occasion of the Life-boat accident at Caister in November, 1901.

Also awarded a gratuity of 2*l.* 2*s.* to GEORGE DENYER on his resignation as Bowman of the Littlehampton Life-boat.

Also granted 3*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.* to two men injured while engaged with the Life-boat at Staithes and Dunbar, and a gratuity of 1*l.* 1*s.* to the ex-Signalman at Banff.

May 12.—STAITHES, YORKSHIRE.—Jonathan Stott Life-boat.—While some of the fishing cobbles were at sea the wind, which was blowing in a north-easterly direction, freshened and the sea became rough. As it was probable that some of the boats would require assistance, the Life-boat launched at 9.30 A.M., and remained by the boats while they crossed the bar. When all had reached the land in safety, which was accomplished by 1 P.M., the Life-boat returned ashore.—Expense of service, 8*l.* 19*s.*

May 12.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBRLAND.—Robert and Susan Life-boat.—Towards the middle of the day the N.N.E. wind freshened and the sea became dangerously rough. Several of the fishing cobbles were at sea, and as four were known to be some miles away, it was thought advisable to launch the Life-boat. This was done about 11.15 A.M., and she beat up to windward until she fell in with them. It subsequently appeared that they had left the fishing grounds in company together, and in order to run for safety without any delay had to abandon part of their gear. On meeting with them the Life-boat returned, accompanying them to Newbiggin and remaining by them until all danger was past.—Expense of service, 7*l.* - 6*d.*

May 27.—SENNEN COVE, CORNWALL.—Ann Newbon Life-boat.—During a dense fog H.M. Torpedo Destroyer Recruit struck the rocks, about half a mile N. of Cape Cornwall, at 4 o'clock in the morning. The Coxswain, hearing distress signals, summoned the crew of the Life-boat, launched, and proceeded to her assistance. Her Commander requested the Coxswain to stand by. Tugs subsequently arrived, and during the afternoon she was got off the rocks and towed to Penzance. After remaining in attendance for about two miles, the Coxswain was informed that the services of his crew were no longer required, so the boat returned ashore, arriving at 5 P.M.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 5*s.*

May 27.—WEXFORD, CO. WEXFORD.—James Stevens No. 15 Life-boat.—A yawl belonging to Wexford broke adrift during the night. A strong gale from the W.S.W. was blowing at the time, accompanied by a heavy sea. Owing to the stress of weather the crew were unable to make the shore. On information being received of their perilous position, the Life-boat proceeded to search for the vessel; they found her about three miles from the station, and succeeded in picking up the boat, and saving the lives of the five occupants, bringing them safely to land at 4.30 on the morning of the 28th May.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 4*s.*

May 30.—UPGANG, YORKSHIRE.—Uppang Life-boat.—During the evening the s.s. Ben Corlic, of North Shields, bound with a cargo of coal from the Tyne to the Mediterranean, stranded off Uppang in a dense fog and a rough sea. Cries for help in a seaward direction were the first intimation of a disaster, as no distress signals were made by those on board. A messenger was at once despatched to Whitby to give information respecting the accident, and to summon the Life-boat crew, there not being sufficient men on the spot to man and launch the Life-boat. Upon arrival they launched the Life-boat with great promptness.

Shortly after the vessel struck, the greater part of the crew attempted to land in their own boats. The boats were however capsized, and it was only by clinging to them and the floating oars that thirteen out of the fifteen men who left the vessel managed to get ashore. Unfortunately the other two who filled the posts of third engineer and carpenter were drowned. Had they remained on board in all probability their lives would have been saved, as five other members of the crew were successfully rescued from the wreck by the Life-boat, which brought them to land in safety. After returning ashore the Life-boat men patrolled the beach for two hours in hope of recovering the bodies of the two poor fellows who had perished, but without success.—Expense of service, 24l. 7s. 6d.

JUNE 1.—BERWICK-ON-TWEED, NORTH-UMBERLAND.—John and Janet Life-boat.—On Sunday morning while a north-easterly gale was raging, accompanied by a heavy sea, the coastguard look-out man observed a barque, about six miles off, flying signals of distress. On this being reported to the Honorary Secretary, he at once went to the boathouse, assembled the crew, and at 9.30 A.M. launched the Life-boat. A steam-tug, which was also proceeding to the assistance of the vessel, took the Life-boat in tow. On reaching her, she was found to be the barque Demetra, of Christiania, in tow of a steamer, bound from Middlesbrough to Shetland with a cargo of salt. The assistance of the Life-boat and tug was declined, so after remaining a short time they started to return to Berwick-on-Tweed. They had not proceeded far however before they were recalled by the barque hoisting further signals of distress. On their return they found the crew were quite exhausted and wanted assistance to man the pumps. Every man in the Life-boat volunteered, although it meant running great risk to board the vessel in such a sea. Indeed, the boat only escaped being capsized by a hair's-breadth, a near approach to the vessel being attended by the greatest danger. Soon after 11 A.M., by skilful management, three men were successfully put on board. In doing so, the Life-boat was somewhat damaged. The men found 9 feet of water in the hold, and for some hours worked incessantly at the pumps, single-handed, the crew of the Demetra being compelled to rest. About 4 P.M. the rope between the vessel and the Life-boat parted, and it was only after hard work that communication was once more restored. This had only just been effected when the masts commenced to go by the board, and the crew reported that the ship was sinking. The wreckage of the spars flying in all directions made the deck unsafe, so the crew decided to abandon their vessel, and asked to be taken into the Life-boat. It being unsafe for the Life-boat to go alongside the vessel, on account of the heavy sea running, communication was obtained by means of a line rove through a "tail" block, and the work of rescue commenced. The Life-boatmen on the sinking vessel displayed great coolness and skill during this difficult and dangerous operation, and it was chiefly due to their efforts that it was accomplished without fatality. Having seen all the crew off, they were the last to leave the ship.

By this time Berwick was so far away that it was out of the question to return there, and in view of the hard work and exposure experienced, the Coxswain deemed it desirable to make the shore as soon as possible. After pulling a distance of eight miles, with the rescued men on board, the boat arrived in safety at Eyemouth at about 8.30 P.M., and the Life-boat having been made secure, was left there for the night.

It being Sunday, most of the crew had run down to the boat dressed in their best clothes, some even going without any breakfast. By the time they landed again in the evening they were all, owing to the roughness of the sea, both wet through and exhausted. The Honorary Secretary took immediate steps to procure food for them, after which they were driven back to Berwick-on-Tweed, reaching home about midnight. Next day they went over to Eyemouth, and brought the John and Janet back to her station.

An additional grant was made by the Committee of Management to the Coxswain and crew on account of their arduous work, and they specially recognized the services of the three men who boarded the vessel. A special letter of thanks was also ordered to be sent to the energetic Honorary Secretary of the Branch, Dr. C. L. FRASER, who also went out in the Life-boat on this occasion and shared the fatigues and dangers of the Life-boatmen during their efforts to save the vessel.—Expense of service, 22l. 2s. 6d.

JUNE 2.—WHITBY, YORKSHIRE.—John Fielden Life-boat.—About half-past three in the morning in thick weather, a fisherman reported that a three-masted vessel was anchored within about a quarter of a mile of the Whitby Rock Buoy, close to the rocks, and in a very dangerous position. The Coxswain of the No. 2 Life-boat at once assembled his crew, launched the boat, and proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the schooner Frier, of Poole, laden with a cargo of coal. As the captain could not get his vessel under way and into a position of safety without assistance, he requested the Life-boat to stand by him. After she had been in attendance for some time the fog lifted, when a steamer was seen approaching from the southward. The captain of the schooner then asked the Life-boat to proceed to the steamer and ascertain if they would be willing to tow the Frier into safety. This service the steamer undertook, and the Life-boat carried a hawser to her. When this was accomplished, the Frier slipped her anchor and the services of the Life-boat were apparently at an end. Before they had proceeded far however the tow-rope parted and the John Fielden had to again give her assistance in restoring the communication. The second rope held, and the Life-boat, after seeing the schooner well out to sea in tow of the other vessel, returned to her station. — Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 12th June, 1902.

Voted 113*l.* 4*s.* 8*d.* to pay for launches of Life-boats at the following stations, or watching with the view of assisting distressed vessels:—Ballycotton, Broadstairs, Clacton-on-Sea, Dunbar, Dungarvan, Fraserburgh, Margate No. 1, New Brighton (Steam Life-boat), Peterhead, Whitby No. 2 and Whitelink Bay.

Awarded the silver medal of the Institution, together with a pension, to THOMAS OWEN, on his resignation as Coxswain of the Moelfre Life-boat. The former for his gallant conduct and skilful management of the Life-boat on three special occasions.

Also a gratuity of 5*l.* to EDWARD THOMAS, who had been connected with the Anglesey Life-boats for more than thirty years.

Also a gratuity of 3*l.* to T. T. EDWARDS, ex-Signalman of the Exmouth Branch.

Voted 1*l.* 4*s.* to JOHN DENT, one of the launchers of the Newbiggin Life-boat, injured while on Life-boat service, and 1*l.* to CHARLES HART, Bowman of the Gorleston Life-boat.

June 16.—WEXFORD.—James Stevens No. 15 Life-boat.—The fishing yawl Swan, of Wexford, while coming into harbour in a strong breeze and heavy rain squalls, struck on an anchor belonging to a dredger, after which she stranded and commenced to fill with water. In response to her signals of distress, the Life-boat proceeded to the vessel. On reaching her they found she was full of water, and so low that her deck was half covered. The Life-boat managed with some difficulty to get alongside and rescued the crew of four men, who together with one small box of their fish were conveyed in safety back to Wexford. As the tide rose the fishing boat dragged off into deep water and was lost.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 12*s.*

July 1.—CLACTON-ON-SEA, ESSEX.—Albert Edward Life-boat.—At 10.45 A.M. a message was received from the Gunfleet Light-house, stating that a barque was ashore about four and a half miles to the W.S.W. The signal to muster the Life-boat crew was fired, and the Life-boat at once proceeded to the ship, which proved to be the brigantine Hilda, of Abo, bound from London to Shields, in ballast. The wind and sea were moderate, so the captain declined any assistance, but asked that the Life-boat should remain alongside until his vessel floated. This request was complied with, and on the vessel re-floating—apparently undamaged—no further help being required, the boat returned to her station.—Expense of service, 12*l.*

July 5.—PALLING, NORFOLK.—54*th* West Norfolk Regiment Life-boat.—About 10 o'clock in the morning the North Hasborough Light vessel fired signals, indicating that a vessel was in distress on the sands. The crew of the Life-boat was at once summoned, and having launched their boat, proceeded to Hasborough Knoll, where the s.s. Holderness, of Glasgow, was found ashore on the sands, she having stranded during the thick weather. Her cargo consisted of coal, coke and bricks, which she was taking to Cartagena from the Tyne. As the sea was smooth and the wind at the time light, the master of the steamer decided to wait until the tide rose, hoping then to get clear. He requested the Life-boat to stand by him, in case their services should be required, and this they did until about 4 P.M., when the vessel was successfully re-floated, and the captain having expressed his thanks for the timely aid proffered by the Life-boat, proceeded on his voyage.—Expense of service, 21l. 10s.

July 5.—WINTERTON, NORFOLK.—Margaret Life-boat.—The signals in the above case being heard at Winterton, the No. 2 Life-boat also went to the vessel's assistance, and also stood by with the Palling Life-boat.—Expenses of service, 17l. 13s. 6d.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 10th July, 1902.

Voted the Institution's Silver Medal, accompanied by a copy of the vote inscribed on vellum and framed, to HENRY BRITTON, in recognition of his gallant services. He had been Coxswain of the Walton-on-the-Naze Life-boat since 1884, and assisted to save 132 lives, going out in the Life-boat eighty-nine times; four of the services were very gallant ones.

Also the sum of 10l. to G. HATCHER, a member of the same Life-boat's crew, aged seventy, who had been out in the boat on service eighty times, and assisted to save nearly as many lives as the Coxswain.

Also 20l. 1s. 6d. to pay for launches of Life-boats at the following stations with the view of assisting distressed vessels: Bude, Margate No. 1, and Peterhead.

Also awarded a certificate of service and a pension to ROBERT BADCOCK on his resigning the post of Coxswain of the Clovelly Life-boat.

Also 15s. to the Coxswain of the Boulmer Life-boat, to pay for damage done to his coble when attempting to render assistance to a vessel in distress on the 12th November, 1901.

July 20.—MOELFRE, ANGLESEY.—Star of Hope Life-boat.—Shortly after 6 o'clock in the evening signals of distress were observed from a schooner in Red Wharf Bay, and the signal for summoning the Life-boat crew was at once fired. It was Sunday evening, and most of the crew were either in church or chapel, but they ran straight from their places of worship, manned the Life-boat, and within ten minutes from the time the vessel first called for help, the Life-boat had started on her errand of mercy. There was a strong breeze blowing from the N.N.E. at the time, and the sea was rough. The vessel—the Eliza Bond, of Lancaster—bound from Holyhead to Point of Ayr in ballast, was found to be in a dangerous position in shallow water on a lee shore, so the master and crew, consisting of two men, were glad to be taken into the Life-boat and they were brought ashore in safety.—Expense of service, 11l.

July 26.—GOURDON, KINCARDINE-SHIRE.—Theophilus Sidney Echalar Life-boat.—The full force of the gale which blew this day was experienced at Gourdon, and a very heavy sea was running on the coast. The herring fleet had put to sea on the previous night, but in consequence of the threatening appearance of the weather next morning the boats made for the shore with all speed. A few of them safely entered the harbour during the forenoon, but as the wind and sea were rising, and the driving rain made it impossible to see any distance, there was great anxiety amongst the fishing community as to the safety of a number of craft that were unaccounted for. About 1 P.M. the Life-boat was therefore with difficulty launched, and pulled out into the bay ready to render assistance, if required, to the luggers which lay outside. Having seen three into safety she returned into harbour as no others could venture in until the flood-tide. At about 3 P.M. another of the boats, Brothers, bore up for the harbour. The Life-boat was again manned, went out, and stood by. Just as the boat neared the entrance a heavy wave struck her, and before anything could be done she was swept on to the rocks. The Life-boat at once proceeded alongside and took a rope with the object of getting the vessel off if possible, but before this was accomplished a surf-boat stationed at Gourdon was able to take the crew of six men off her. As there was then nothing further to be done the Life-boat returned ashore. — Expense of service, 8*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

July 26.—MONTROSE, FORFARSHIRE. —Marianne Atherstone Life-boat.—The gale of the 26th July was also severely felt at Montrose. As many of the fishing fleet as could returned to harbour. They reported there were others outside whose return would be attended with danger. The sea had risen very rapidly, and while the wind was blowing a gale from E.S.E. heavy rain was falling. Recognising the need for the Life-boat being at hand while the boats crossed the bar, the lighthouse-keeper fired a rocket. The Life-boat was at once launched in response and taken down to the bar, where she made repeated journeys until she had accompanied ten boats over, and seen them in safety into the harbour. Having then ascertained that there were no more boats to be seen outside, she was taken back to her station and re-housed. — Expense of service, 8*l.* 10*s.*

July 27.—NEW ROMNEY, KENT.—James Stevens No. 11 Life-boat.—The coxswain of the Life-boat having been informed about 7.30 A.M. that a vessel was in distress on the Roar Bank, he at once assembled the crew and having launched, proceeded to her assistance. With a strong gale from S.W. there was a very heavy sea. The stranded vessel proved to be the barque Assyria, of Christiania, bound from Newfoundland to London. The tide at the time was low, but, as it was making, the captain requested the Life-boatmen to stand by him. This they did until, with the assistance of a steam-tug, the vessel was floated and proceeded on her voyage.—Expense of service, 17*l.* 12*s.*

July 29.—HILBRE ISLAND, CHESHIRE. —Admiral Briggs Life-boat.—In the early morning there was a very fresh W.N.W. wind blowing and a nasty sea. About 9 o'clock the flat Livadia was observed ashore on the Great Salisbury Bank, so the Coxswain of the Life-boat immediately got his boat ready in case her services should be required. As the weather got worse, the wind increasing to a gale with heavy squalls, it was decided about 1 P.M. to launch and proceed to the vessel, which was reached shortly after 2 P.M. The crew were then endeavouring to get her off; after considerable difficulty this was accomplished, and the Life-boat returned to her station after having stood by until all danger was over. The captain expressed his great satisfaction that the Life-boat had launched to his help, as he quite realised the imminent peril his vessel was in.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 9*s.* 6*d.*

Aug. 9. — CAISTER, NORFOLK. —Covent Garden Life-boat.—The s.s. Araucania, of Liverpool, bound from London to Newcastle, broke down and anchored off Caister during the afternoon. About 8 o'clock in the evening the captain and chief engineer were brought ashore in one of the yawls belonging to the place. Next morning they requested to be put on board again with four other engineers. The weather was then bad, a strong N.W. breeze was blowing, with heavy sea and swell on the beach, it was therefore considered necessary to launch the Life-boat and take them to the ship. When she got alongside and had put them on board, it was found that the ship was riding in a dangerous position, so the captain requested the Life-boatmen to stand by him until the weather moderated. They accordingly remained by him until about 7 P.M., when they returned to the shore. The vessel, it appeared, had been aground in the Stanford Channel, which disorganised her machinery.—The expense of this service was partly paid by the owners. Balance paid by the Institution, 12*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 14th August, 1902.

Voted 124*l.* 1*s.* to pay for launches or assemblies of the crews of Life-boats at the following stations, with a view of assisting vessels in distress:—Arnamore, Broadstairs, Cemlyn, Dungeness No. 1, Hilbre Island, Margate No. 2, Port Erin and Port St. Mary.

Also a pension and certificate of service to WILLIAM COOKE and JAMES PEARCE, retiring Coxswains of the Fethard and Porthcawl Life-boat stations; and a pension to JOSEPH FLETCHER, ex-Bowman of the Looe Life-boat.

Also the sum of 5*l.*, as compensation recommended by the Local Committee at Worthing, to the Contractor who supplies horses for use with the Life-boat, one of his animals having been injured while helping to draw the Life-boat in March, 1901.

Granted 4*l.* 10*s.* to the Coxswain of the Workington Life-boat, who injured his foot while engaged on Life-boat duty.

Aug. 18.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Leicester Life-boat.—About 12.30 P.M., the Coastguard on duty informed the Coxswain of the Life-boat that a yacht was in danger close to the North Bank. The wind was blowing a moderate gale from S.S.W. at the time, and there was a rough sea on. The crew mustered, launched the Life-boat and found the yacht Curlew, of Harwich, as described. Their proffered services having been accepted, the Life-boatmen, together with the steam-tug Gleaner, which had also gone to the vessel, succeeded in bringing the vessel and her occupants into harbour.—Property salvage case. Balance of expense paid by Institution, 3*l.* 18*s.*

Aug. 22.—BULL BAY, ANGLESEY.—Curling Life-boat.—About 10.30 in the morning a telephone message was received from Point Lynas, stating that a smack was in danger. The Coxswain of the Life-boat at once summoned the crew and proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the smack Jane, of Beaumaris, with two men aboard. On reaching her they found a steam Pilot-boat had already gone to her aid, and had made fast to her. At the request of the crew of the Pilot-boat, some of the Life-boat men were placed on board the smack, and assisted to weigh the anchor; she was then towed into safety by the Pilot-boat. The Life-boat was taken back to land, and re-housed about 1.30 P.M. Subsequently, at the request of the master of the salvaged boat, some of the Life-boatmen went out to him, and assisted to bring his boat into the inner bay.—Expense of service, 8*l.* 6*s.* 6*d.*

Sept. 3.—MOELFRE, ANGLESEY.—Star of Hope Life-boat.—This Life-boat saved a man's life on the morning of the 3rd September. The previous night the yacht Modwen was anchored in a dead calm in Dulas Bay, with one man on board in charge. About 1 o'clock in the morning it came on to blow a gale from S.E., so he at once took the vessel for shelter under the lee of Dulas Island or Rocks; suddenly the wind shifted W. by N.; he did all he could to get her under way, but the vessel canted and struck the rocks, throwing him overboard. Although somewhat hurt he was able to scramble on to the island. About 7 o'clock the next morning Mr. W. M. Preston, Honorary Secretary of the Anglesey Branch of the Institution, to whom the yacht belonged, on being informed that she was to be seen to the leeward of Dulas Rocks, at once went out and found she was riding heavily in a very heavy sea. Seeing the danger and fearing the man was still on board, he got a horse and went with all speed to Moelfre. On arrival he found the crew had mustered, and that the Life-boat was ready for launching. He then took charge and proceeded under close-reefed canvas towards the island. On getting near, great relief was felt when the man was seen on the rocks. As soon as possible the Life-boat anchored, and after great difficulty he was got on board. The rescue was effected only just in time, as the waves were then breaking right over the island. A start was made for home, the yacht meanwhile having drifted away to sea. The gale was a very heavy one, and the crew were delighted with the behaviour of the boat.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 16*s.*

Sept. 3.—HILBRE ISLAND, CHESHIRE.—Admiral Briggs Life-boat.—During a strong gale from the W.S.W. a shrimping boat—the Dreadnought, of Parkgate—was discovered half a mile S.S.W. from Hilbre Island, with heavy seas breaking over her. The Life-boat crew proceeded from Hoylake to the island, launched their Life-boat promptly, and succeeded in rescuing the occupant of the boat. Men from the Life-boat also went on board the shrimper and brought her into Hilbre Pool.—Expense of service, 11l. 17s. 6d.

Sept. 3.—MARYPORT, CUMBERLAND.—Civil Service No. 5 Life-boat. A south-westerly gale is reported to have blown with hurricane force at Maryport, accompanied by a very heavy sea, with rain and haze. As several fishing boats were at sea, it was decided to launch the Life-boat and despatch her to the help of the boats. About 10.30 she fell in with the smack Victory in distress, throwing ballast overboard; accordingly she bore down on her and rescued the crew of five men from their perilous position. Having taken the men on board the coxswain decided to anchor, as he did not consider it safe to run for Silloth, and he could not reach down the Firth. He waited until the ebb-tide had made, and then ran for the shore, beaching his boat without damage at Allonby. During the afternoon the Life-boat carriage was sent over from Maryport and the Civil Service No. 5 conveyed back to her station. While the Life-boat was at sea the Harbour Master at Maryport realised that she could not regain that port without assistance, so he despatched the tug Netherhall to tow her back; unfortunately she was not successful in falling in with the boat, so had to return alone.—Expense of service, 18l. 17s. 6d.

Sept. 3.—PEEL, ISLE OF MAN.—May-hew Medvin Life-boat.—About 9.30 A.M. two boats, the Dinna Ken and Bonnie Jane, of Peel, which had been out herring fishing all night, were observed trying to make the harbour. At the time there was a moderate gale blowing, but it increased almost suddenly to a whole gale, the wind veering from S. to S.W. with torrents of rain. Crowds of people assembled, and the vessels being in great danger of driving ashore, much excitement prevailed. After a consultation the Local Committee decided to launch the Life-boat and send her in search of the vessels. She went for four miles in the direction in which they were last seen, but the weather was so thick and heavy that no trace of them could be found. The Coxswain, not being able to see even three lengths of his boat ahead, decided to return to the station and ascertain if any further information had been received. He then learnt that the boats had been seen five miles away along the coast, so he again put to sea and eventually found the Dinna Ken, mast down, head sails gone and dragging her anchor, about half a mile from the rocks, waiting for help. The master asked the Coxswain to stand by for a time, and afterwards requested him to take a rope and tow them if possible. The weather having moderated a little by this time, the Coxswain consented to do so, and after a long and stormy passage succeeded in towing her into harbour.

The rescue was made in the presence of thousands of visitors and residents, who displayed their very high appreciation of the service rendered, the splendid qualities of the boat and the way in which she was handled by the Coxswain and crew in exceptionally heavy weather.

The other boat, the Bonnie Jane, after having experienced a terrible time, ultimately succeeded in reaching the harbour under her own canvas.—Expense of service, 7l. 16s. 6d.

Sept. 3.—NEW BRIGHTON, CHESHIRE, and FORMBY, LANCASHIRE.—Queen and John and Henrietta Life-boats.—About 10 o'clock in the morning the Steam Life-boat stationed at New Brighton was called out to the neighbourhood of the Formby Lightship, where the Mersey Dock Board's Hopper No. 12 had drifted into a dangerous position near Taylor's Bank, owing to a derangement of her machinery. A gale was blowing from S.W. at the time and a heavy and rough sea was running. Before the Queen managed to reach her, another of the Board's hoppers—No. 18—came to her assistance and took her in tow; shortly afterwards however the tow-rope parted, and the captain of the hopper asked that the Life-boat would stand by him until he was out of danger. This was accordingly done, and another rope having been made fast between the two vessels, the Queen left them and returned to New Brighton.—Expense of service, 4l. 16s.

During the morning, before other help arrived, eight of the crew of the dredger G. B. Crow, belonging to the same corporation, which was in the vicinity of the distressed vessel, volunteered to go to their aid. For more than an hour they struggled to accomplish their task, when a heavy sea overturned the boat. All the men, with the exception of one poor fellow who was washed away and drowned, managed to cling to the upturned keel and eventually they righted the boat again. In the meantime the Coxswain of the John and Henrietta Life-boat stationed at Formby received a message from the Formby Light-vessel that a hopper was in distress and required a Life-boat. The sea was so rough, and the state of the tide such, that it was only after repeated efforts and very arduous labour that the Life-boat was got afloat. Twice she was thrown back on to the shore and the crew had to go waist deep into the water to push the boat clear before they could take their places in her. After pulling a considerable distance through the surf the boat of the dredger was seen in a water-logged condition with seven men still clinging to her. With great difficulty the Life-boat got alongside and rescued them from their perilous position, the waves meanwhile repeatedly washing over them. Having conveyed them in safety ashore, the John and Henrietta again launched and sailed out to the Hopper No. 12, to whose assistance they had originally gone out. Communication was established with the vessel by means of a line but the other hopper having taken the vessel in tow as stated above, the Life-boat ran for the beach, getting ashore in safety after performing a useful but very trying service.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 15*s.*

Sept. 3.—BUCKHAVEN, FIFESHIRE.—Isabella Life-boat.—While the barque Nornen of Christiansand was at anchor in Methil roadstead an easterly gale suddenly sprang up, which veering to S.E., S., and finally to S.W., increased to a whole gale with hurricane squalls. The barque commenced to drag her anchors and drifted towards the rocks in Largs Bay. In answer to her signals of distress the Life-boat was launched at 12.20 P.M. and proceeded to the mouth of the harbour. The Coxswain, Assistant Coxswain, and most of the regular crew of the Life-boat were away fishing, so the Bowman acted as Coxswain, got a scratch crew together, amongst whom were several miners, and launched the boat. When they reached the mouth of the harbour the violence of the gale frightened the landsmen and they refused to go further so at their request the acting Coxswain landed them. He then took steps to obtain others to fill their places; and having got a sufficient number of men to proceed to sea—although unable to get a full complement—they again started for the distressed vessel. On arrival they found that she had grounded, but her anchors were then holding. The master refused to leave his ship, the crew however did not consider it safe to remain, so they were landed by the Life-boat. After their return a consultation was held and it was thought advisable to send the boat back again, there still being one life in danger on board. About 10 P.M. the Isabella was therefore hauled out to the end of the pier and sail made. While attempting to work the boat clear of the piers she drifted on to the rocks and was badly damaged. She was got off and the Coxswain took her back into harbour and reported what had happened to the Honorary Secretary. In spite of the grave danger and the fact that the boat was practically waterlogged, it was decided she must return to the vessel in case the master had to abandon her. This time they succeeded in rowing out clear of the rocks, and on arrival lay alongside the Nornen all night. About 2 A.M. the weather moderated somewhat, and a steam-tug was despatched with the crew, who had already been landed, to try to get the vessel off. The men were placed on board again, and every effort made to save the ship; after sometime this was found to be hopeless the vessel being full of water and the master called upon the Life-boat to save both himself and crew. They were at once taken on board, but it was so dark that the acting Coxswain decided not to attempt to make the harbour until daylight; they therefore remained where they were, and next morning landed the rescued men at Methil. The vessel ultimately became a total wreck. The Committee granted both the Coxswain and crew an extra reward in recognition of their gallant and arduous services on this occasion.—Expense of service, 34l. 18s. 6d.

Sept. 3.—ARBROATH, FORFARSHIRE.—James Stevens No. 13 Life-boat.—This Life-boat was launched to the assistance of the fishing-boat Rosebud, of Arbroath, in a whole gale, heavy sea, and thick weather. The boat had started on a voyage to Scarborough for herring fishing, but owing to the heavy weather, had to put back. When seen off Arbroath she was endeavouring to make the harbour and as that was attended by considerable risk the Life-boat was manned and proceeded to the vessel, standing by her until she and her crew of seven men were out of danger.—Expense of service, 7l. 4s.

Sept. 3.—DUNBAR, HADDINGTONSHIRE.—William and Arthur Millward Life-boat.—All day a violent southerly gale raged at Dunbar, accompanied at times by heavy rain. A great many of the fishing fleet were known to be at sea, and in the early afternoon several were seen making for the harbour. Large crowds of people assembled, as the arrival of the boats was attended with great danger and difficulty. One of the first to get in was a boat in which the Life-boat Coxswain had been to sea, and it was only by means of life-lines that she was eventually towed in, after receiving considerable damage on the rocks. Several others then followed, and succeeded in getting into safety. The last to make an attempt was the Carmi, of Arbroath. Owing to the severity of the gale she missed the harbour entrance, and almost immediately her canvas was blown to ribbons. She then drifted about two miles to eastward, and hoisted signals of distress, in answer to which the Coxswain, who had only reached the haven a few minutes before much exhausted, at once ordered the launch of the Life-boat. This was promptly done and within twenty-three minutes of the gun firing they reached the vessel—which was two miles off—a most praiseworthy performance and a record for the station. After lying by her for several hours in case of mishap, the Life-boat returned to harbour, but was not beached in case her services should be again required. About 8 in the evening, the weather having somewhat moderated, the Carmi succeeded in getting safely into harbour.—Expense of service, 10l. 13s. 9d.

Sept. 3.—EYEMOUTH, BERWICKSHIRE.—Sarah Pickard Life-boat.—A whole gale from S.S.W. suddenly sprang up off Eyemouth while the herring fishing boats—about seventy in number—were at sea, and without loss of time they made for safety. As anxiety was felt for them the crew of the Life-boat was assembled in readiness. About 1.30 A.M. it was seen that several of the boats had their sails torn, the Ocean of Dunbar so much so as to render her nearly helpless. The Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the boat, which they found in great danger of drifting on to the rocks owing to the uncertainty of their anchors holding. With the assistance given, the Life-boat were able however to get the boat out of danger, and as their services were not then required any more, they returned ashore.—Expense of service, 5l. 6s. 6d.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 11th Sept., 1902.

Voted 106l. 5s. 3d. in payment for launches of Life-boats, or for assemblies of the crews with the view of assisting vessels in distress at Anstruther, Bull Bay, Criccieth, Eyemouth, Hilbre Island, Longhope and Sennen Cove.

Also a pension and certificate of service to THOMAS CLARKSON on his resignation as Coxswain of the Lytham Life-boat.

Also granted a donation of 5l. to one of the late members of the crew of the Staithes Life-boat.

Sept. 16.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—Shortly after 10 A.M., the attention of the Coxswain was called to the dangerous position of a small boat which was drifting towards the Scroby Sand, in a moderate westerly gale and heavy sea, and whose three occupants were showing signals of distress. He immediately launched the No. 1 Life-boat, and sailing out found the boat perilously near the Scroby Sand, with a visitor and two local men on board. They had started out with the intention of fishing, but the wind and tide were too strong for them. They had neither mast, sails nor oars on board, the oars having broken. The Mark Lane took the boat in tow, and brought her safely ashore, with the three men.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 13*s.*

Sept. 27. — PALLING, NORFOLK.— During thick weather, the s.s. Mundako, of Bilbao, with coal and general cargo from Newcastle to Bilbao, ran aground one mile and a quarter north of Palling. The No. 1 Life-boat on that station promptly proceeded to her assistance, but on reaching her the master declined any aid. The Life-boat however stood by until the afternoon, when the vessel floated. Finding she was then able to proceed on her voyage and was apparently undamaged, the Coxswain returned ashore and during the evening re-housed the boat.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 16*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 9th Oct., 1902.

Voted 18*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.* to pay for assemblies of crews or launches to the aid of vessels not ultimately needing help, by the following Life-boats:— Bridlington Quay, Broadstairs, Caister No. 1, Cemlyn, Filey, Gorleston Nos. 1 and 2, North Deal, Palling No. 2, Sennen Cove, Wells, Whitby No. 1, and Winterton No. 2.

Also a pension and certificate of service to ARCHD. D. MCDOWALL, retiring Coxswain of the Isle of Whit-horn Life-boat.

Paid the medical expenses for attendance on JAMES HAYLETT, Junr., and the three survivors of the Life-boat accident at Caister in November, 1901, amounting to 29*l.* 0*s.* 6*d.*

Oct. 13.—RHOSNEIGIR, ANGLESEY.— Thomas Lingham Life-boat. — In the early morning the schooner Lily Green, of Liverpool, got into a very dangerous position among the rocks in Rhosneigir Bay, during thick weather a moderate south-westerly gale and heavy sea. In response to the signals of distress the Life-boat launched and went to her assistance shortly after 3 A.M. They found she had stranded, but after considerable bumping had got off again, and was riding at anchor. At the request of the master the Life-boat stood by him until the tide made, and after daylight several men were put on board and an attempt made to beach the vessel on the soft sand. This was unsuccessful but they managed to get the vessel into a safer berth. The weather meanwhile did not improve, and two days later about 6.45 A.M., while the vessel was riding to her anchors, one cable parted, and the crew found their ship was likely to become a total wreck so again they showed signals of distress. By this time the sea was very heavy, and a whole gale was blowing from W.S.W.

The Thomas Lingham Life-boat was again launched, and succeeded in rescuing the four men, bringing them ashore in safety soon after 9 A.M. Expense of service, 59*l.* 13*s.*

The same day the Local Honorary Secretary of the Institution received the following letter from the master of the schooner:—

“Sea View,
Rhosneigir,
Tycroes R.S.O.
Oct. 15th, 1902.

“DEAR SIR,—My heart is too full of thankfulness to sufficiently express my gratitude for the noble services rendered to me and my crew by the Life-boatmen of the Thomas Lingham, stationed at Rhosneigir. My vessel, the schooner Lily Green, of Liverpool, seventy-eight tons register, laden with timber, from Cork to Garston, was, owing to a S.W. gale, during a fog on Sunday morning, the 13th October, 1902, driven into here, where the vessel would not work out, and got amongst the rocks, when we let go the anchors and made signals for the Life-boat, which promptly effected the rescue of four men forming the crew, the Life-boat men assisting to berth the vessel in a safer position. Unfortunately, on the morning of the 15th inst. a heavier gale came on, and the little vessel parted her bow cable; she being moored at both ends the after cable held;

the crew were again taken off by the Life-boat, on seeing our signals of distress, during a heavy gale and mountainous sea. Again expressing my sincere thankfulness on behalf of myself and crew,

“I remain, yours in gratitude,

“JAMES DEVLIN (Master).

“W. JONES, Esq.”

Oct. 15. — Pwllheli, Carnarvonshire. — Margaret Platt Life-boat. — During a whole gale from S.W. and a very heavy sea, the schooner Snaefell, of Ramsey, was observed dragging her anchors about 6.45 A.M., bearing about half-mile S. of Gimlet Rock. At the time she was bound for Portmadoc and had nine persons on board, including the Captain's daughter and her four children. On receiving information the Coxswain of the Life-boat launched his boat and went to their assistance. On getting alongside, the Captain refused to leave his ship, but the remainder, including the woman and children were all taken into the Life-boat and brought in safely ashore. Shortly afterwards the wind fortunately veered to W.N.W. which caused the vessel's anchors to hold, making it unnecessary for the Life-boat to again go out to sea. — Expense of service, 13l. 14s.

Oct. 15. — Ardrossan, Ayrshire. — James Stevens No. 8 Life-boat. — Shortly after 9 A.M. the Life-boat was launched to the assistance of the ship Savona, of Maitland, Nova Scotia. Owing to a strong W.S.W. gale and very heavy sea, the Savona was compelled to anchor early in the morning in a dangerous position about two miles from Stevenston shore. About 8 A.M. the Ardrossan tug went out and offered assistance, which the captain declined. Before going out in the tug, the Harbour Master, who is a member of the local Life-boat Committee, gave instructions that the Life-boat was to be immediately got ready. As the gale increased she was accordingly manned and sailed out to the vessel. On arrival the Coxswain anchored and the Captain of the vessel floated a line to him. After standing by for five hours it was found the anchors were then holding firmly and the ship would probably weather the storm. The Captain, his wife and daughter—who were on board—and sixteen out of a crew of nineteen decided to remain where they were, but three of the seamen elected to go ashore, the Life-boat accordingly returned with them, reaching Ardrossan Harbour after having been out over six hours. During her return journey she had a very rough trip, and when in the trough of the sea only the top of the mast was visible from the end of the pier. This will give some idea of the size of the waves. The Life-boat is reported to have behaved “splendidly” and to have “sailed like a yacht.” — Expense of service, 13l. 13s. 6d.

Oct. 15-16. — New Brighton and Hoyleake, Cheshire, and Formby, Lancashire. — Henry Richardson, Coard William Squarey, and John and Henrietta Life-boats. — The gale which visited the whole of the west coast of England, Scotland, and Wales on the 15th and 16th of October blew with exceptional severity in Liverpool Bay, causing several shipping disasters and the destruction of much valuable property. Happily the Life-boats in the neighbourhood were instrumental in saving no less than 51 lives in the two days.

On the morning of the 15th the Coxswain of the Formby Life-boat saw a schooner and a barquentine dragging their anchors. From time to time they were hidden by heavy squalls of rain, but at 9.15 A.M. the barquentine showed signals of distress, and in response the Coxswain summoned his crew, and launched to her assistance. On arrival he found the Marie Sophie, of Falmouth, stranded and likely to become a total wreck, while bound for Liverpool with a cargo of timber. The crew of 6 hands were successfully rescued and landed at Formby, the Life-boat being replaced in her house about 2 P.M. — Expense of service, 20l. 10s.

The same night, soon after 11 o'clock, the Coastguard on duty at New Brighton observed signals of distress in the direction of the Crosby Lightship. Information was at once conveyed to the Coxswain of the Henry Richardson Life-boat and the crew assembled. With the assistance of a tug she at once proceeded to the distressed vessel. On arrival, the s.s. Heracides, of Liverpool, a liner of 3,000 tons, bound from Liverpool to Glasgow in ballast, was found stranded on Taylor's Bank. The Life-boat went alongside and took twenty-two men on board, the remainder of the crew refusing to leave the vessel, so the Henry Richardson remained near her. The tide at the time was ebbing, and as a result of standing by, she also grounded on the bank. About the same time as the distress signals were reported at New Brighton they were observed from Hoylake, and the crew of the Life-boat Coard William Squarey, stationed at that place, was assembled. The Life-boat on her carriage was transported by horses about half-a-mile to the eastward; at the foot of the slipway, the sand proved to be soft, the tide having just left it, and this together with the difficulty of getting the horses to pull together caused some delay but shortly after midnight the boat was successfully launched. With difficulty and hard work she reached the distressed vessel and stood by her, about one cable length off, until 7 A.M. on the 16th, in case her aid might be required. Between 2 and 3 A.M. the Formby Life-boat John and Henrietta also arrived upon the scene. The surf on launching was very heavy, but the crew displayed great perseverance, and eventually they reached the Formby Channel, where they made sail. On arriving in the vicinity of the wreck, the crew saw it was no use attempting to go alongside, as the steamer was almost dry; the Life-boat also was bumping heavily so the Coxswain took her into a channel directly to leeward, and beached her within a cable's length of the vessel; some of the crew then waded to the Heraclides, and took the fourteen men who had remained on board back with them to the Life-boat, which landed them at Formby about 7.30 A.M.

The Hoylake Life-boat being afloat to westward of the bank, did not know that all the crew had left the steamer, so they waited for the flood-tide to take her alongside, but about this time the Henry Richardson Life-boat, with her twenty-two rescued passengers floated and informed the Coxswain of the Hoylake Life-boat, in passing, that all the crew had been taken off. On hearing this a start was made for Hoylake, and the boat beached soon after 10 A.M. on the 16th, having been out, exposed to the violence of the gale, for more than ten hours. The New Brighton boat got back to her moorings about 8.30 A.M.

During the day there was no abatement of the gale, although the wind got round rather more to the west. About 9 P.M. a telephone message was received at New Brighton, stating that another vessel was ashore off Blundell Sands. The crew of the Henry Richardson was again mustered, and the Life-boat left in tow of a tug. On reaching the ship, which proved to be the barquentine Matador, of Riga, repeated attempts were made to get alongside and rescue the crew. Heavy seas swept over the boat, and a perilous time was experienced.

In the meantime the Hoylake Life-boat Coard William Squarey, in charge of Coxswain Dodd, arrived and after considerable difficulty effected a gallant rescue of the whole crew of nine, who were landed at New Brighton between midnight and 1 A.M. on the 17th idem. The New Brighton Life-boat also returned about that time, and the rescued crew and the Life-boatmen were duly fed and cared for.

Soon after 3 A.M. the Hoylake Life-boat started from New Brighton to return home, which was reached about 8.15 that morning, after an absence of over eleven hours.

The rescue was an excellent one, and the Coxswain handled his boat magnificently. The Committee of Management decided to mark their appreciation of his gallantry, energy and skill, by conferring on him the Silver Medal of the Institution. After being at sea for eleven hours on the night of the 15th, the boat, with a break of only eight hours, was again engaged for another eleven hours.—Expenses of services, New Brighton, 55*l.* 1*s.*; Hoylake, 109*l.* 11*s.*; and Formby, 43*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

Oct. 15.—HOLYHEAD, ANGLESEY.—Duke of Northumberland Life-boat.—About 4 P.M. a message was received from the "South Stack" that a schooner was flying signals of distress about three miles W.N.W., and in response the Steam Life-boat was at once despatched. By the time she reached the end of the breakwater the schooner—which was the Two Brothers, of Carnarvon—had come abreast the lighthouse. Her sails were almost all in ribbons and she was practically helpless. The Coxswain of the steam Life-boat assisted her to an anchorage and was about to return ashore, but at the request of the captain put four of the Life-boatmen on board to help to bring the vessel into the new harbour; the services of the Life-boat not being required further, she returned to her moorings.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 16. — BROADSTAIRS, KENT. — Francis Forbes Barton Life-boat.—The coast-guard reported during the afternoon that a small fishing-boat was showing signals of distress about three and a half miles off in a S.E. direction. The sea was strong and squally from N.W. and the sea rough. On the arrival of the Life-boat alongside, they found the boat was the Nancy, of Ramsgate, with two men on board. She was unable to make any headway; the crew had tried to make the land under oars, but the two oars broke, and having lost their anchor they were being rapidly driven on to the Goodwin Sands; they therefore decided to fly a distress signal on a broken oar. The boat was leaking and taking in water all over. Having taken the men on board and the boat in tow, the Francis Forbes Barton returned to her station.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 1*1s.*

Two days later the following letter was received from the imperilled men:—

“Ramsgate, 16th October, 1902.

“Dear Sir,—We beg to thankfully acknowledge the very great service which the coxswain and crew of your Life-boat stationed at Broadstairs rendered to ourselves this afternoon. We had been fishing, and were coming back to Ramsgate when it came on to blow very hard, and the tide being against us we were carried away to sea, having lost our anchor and oars. We should have been blown right away to sea had your boat not come to our assistance at once, for which we are very thankful, and remain, “Yours very respectfully, (Signed) “FREDK. MOYES.

“FREDK. KIRBY.”

Oct. 21. — BLAKENEY, NORFOLK.—Zaccheus Burroughes Life-boat.—In a moderately rough sea and a W.S.W. wind, the ketch Annie, of Grimsby, stranded on the Blakeney West Sands about 9.45 p.m. The Coxswain of the Life-boat, who was on board his smack at the time, saw the signal of distress and fired the assembly signal. On arrival the vessel was found to be making water, the captain requested the Coxswain to stand by him in case of disaster and also to allow some of his crew to assist in trying to get the vessel off when the tide made. They accordingly laid out an anchor and having thrown some forty tons of cargo overboard managed to float the ketch and then assisted her into safety. While the work was proceeding the sea increased very much and had it not been for the timely aid the vessel would most likely have become a total wreck.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 22.—PIEL, LANCASHIRE.—Thomas Fielden Life-boat.—The schooner T. & E. F., of Barrow, while bound for Barrow with a cargo of coal, stranded about two miles south of Walney Lighthouse, in a strong W.N.W. wind and rough sea. Her sails and spars were blown away, rendering her helpless. On information being received from the Lighthouse that the Life-boat was required, she put to sea without a moment being lost. On reaching the schooner they found she was floating again, but quite helpless owing to the loss of gear. After consulting the Captain, the Coxswain, at his request, put some of the Life-boatmen on board the vessel, and she was ultimately got clear and taken with the assistance of a small steamer, to Piel anchorage. The Coxswain remained as long as he considered life in danger and then returned ashore. One of the crew had his right hand injured when assisting to haul off the Life-boat, for which the Institution granted him compensation and the medical expenses incurred.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 28. — CAISTER, NORFOLK. — Covent Garden Life-boat.—At 5.40 a.m. the Cackle Lightship fired signals, indicating a vessel in distress on the Barber Sands. A moderate breeze was blowing from W.N.W., there was a heavy sea on the sands and the weather was foggy and cold. The crew of the Life-boat were assembled and the boat launched. On reaching the vessel they found she was the dandy Admiral, of Lowestoft, and had stranded. As there was no immediate danger the Life-boat lay by her, but at about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, finding the vessel was rapidly filling, they went alongside and rescued the entire crew of nine hands, taking off at the same time a dog and a cat which were on board; the vessel ultimately becoming a total wreck. When all had been put on a steam-tug, which was also in the vicinity, the Covent Garden returned to her station.—Expense of service, 27l. 17s. 6d.

Nov. 1.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—The lugger Cyprus, of Banff, was seen to strike the Scroby Sands shortly after 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The sea on the sands being somewhat heavy, the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to her assistance. On arrival the master of the vessel declined any help until the tide made, in the hope that he might get off unaided. In this he was successful but the Life-boat meanwhile stood by him in case it was found necessary to have additional help, subsequently returning ashore.—Expense of service, 30l. 19s. 6d.

Nov. 4.—CLOGHEY, Co. DOWN.—Faith Life-boat.—At 7 o'clock in the morning a steamer was reported ashore on the North Rocks. There was a strong south-easterly wind and rough sea at the time. The Life-boat was promptly launched and found the s.s. Miramar had stranded while on a voyage from Glasgow to Barcelona with a cargo of coal. At the request of the Captain the Life-boat stood by until after she got off and then two of the Life-boatmen were put on board to assist in getting the vessel to Belfast. Having seen there was no further need for his services, the Coxswain then returned ashore.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 6.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Robert and Susan Life-boat.—In thick weather and a heavy sea the s.s. Greenwich of London, while bound for the Tyne, ran aground early in the morning, before daylight, on a rocky beach just north of Newbiggin Point. The Life-boat launched and went to the vessel. The captain's wife and some of the crew were taken on board and landed at Newbiggin; but the captain and the remainder of the hands elected to remain on board.—Expense of service, 25l. 3s. 3d.

During the afternoon, at the Captain's request, the Life-boat was again launched and proceeded to the vessel; they then laid out an anchor and rendered other assistance. In consequence of the state of the sea it was impossible for any other craft to go out, but the Life-boat performed the service in safety, getting back to the boat-house about 5 P.M.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 7.—HOLYHEAD, ANGLESEY.—Duke of Northumberland Life-boat.—Signals of distress being seen about 6 A.M., on a schooner anchored near the end of the breakwater, the steam Life-boat was immediately sent out. The vessel was found to be the Water Lily, of Liverpool, with which another schooner while under sail had collided. The master accordingly signalled for assistance and on the arrival of the Life-boat asked for help to slip his anchor as he feared his ship was sinking; the necessary help having been given, both schooners were taken in tow by tugs and brought into the inner harbour, the Life-boat returning to her moorings. There was a strong southerly gale at the time and a very heavy sea.—Expense of service, 8l. 18s. 9d.

Nov. 8.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Robert and Susan Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched about noon to assist the fishing coble Rose of England, of Newbiggin, which was in danger in a strong S.S.E. wind and rough sea. Three fishermen had gone out to try and save their crab cages, but before they could get back the wind increased so much that the sea became very dangerous, and they had to land on a lee shore; this they managed to do successfully, the Life-boat in the meantime standing by ready to rescue them if necessary.—Expense of service, 7l. 0s. 6d.

Nov. 11.—RAMSEY, ISLE OF MAN.—Mary Isabella Life-boat.—At 9.15 A.M., two boats manned by two and four rowers respectively were observed to be getting into a dangerous position near the bar of the harbour, and the Life-boat was launched to assist them over. It appeared that one of the boats broke adrift from the s.s. Aviles, of Aviles, when about two miles off Ramsey, and the other boat was sent after her, but neither could get back to her ship on account of the S.S.E. gale and rough sea. The Life-boat having convoyed both boats into safety was re-housed shortly before noon. — Expense of service, 18l. 14s.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 13th Nov., 1902.

Voted 794l. 12s. 10d. to pay for the assemblies of crews or launching of the following Life-boats with the view of assisting vessels in distress:—Angle, Broadstairs, Buckhaven, Caister No. 1, Cemlyn, Cloughey, Cromer, Dungeness Nos. 1 & 2, Gorleston Nos. 1 & 2, Hauxley, Hoylake, Johnshaven, Kessingland No. 1, Kingstown No. 2, Kirkeudbright, Lowestoft No. 1, Margate No. 1, Minehead, Newbiggin, New Brighton No. 1, Palling No. 2, Plymouth, Swanage, Torquay, Wells, Whitehaven, Whithorn, Winchelsea, Winterton No. 1, and Great Yarmouth.

Also a pension and certificate of service to JOHN J. DAVIES on his resignation as Coxswain of the Cromer Life-boat.

Voted 7l. 10s., including medical expenses, to F. CURWEN, whose right hand was injured while assisting to re-house the Piel Life-boat after service on the 22nd October.

A letter of thanks was sent to the Captain of the s.s. Jet, of Newcastle, for his kind co-operation in towing the Palling No. 2 Life-boat when returning to her station, after being out for many hours of service on the 5th and 6th November.

Nov. 15. — SOUTHEND, CANTYRE. — John R. Ker Life-boat. — The steam lighter Gnome left Carnlough, Ireland, about 9 P.M. on the 14th Nov. in a moderate breeze, bound for Glasgow with a cargo of limestone. During the night the wind increased to a gale and the sea rose considerably. About daylight when the vessel was nearing Sanda, the rudder head carried away and she broached to, seas swept her from end to end carrying all loose gear overboard, and caused some of the cordage to foul the screw. She then attempted to anchor, but the anchor failed to hold, and she drifted with the strong tide and wind. The only boat she carried was smashed by the heavy seas, and in this helpless condition she lay exposed to the fury of the storm. At 10 A.M. signals of distress were shown, and at once seen by the Life-boat signalman at Southend, who immediately telegraphed to Campbelltown for the Life-boat crew, there not being sufficient men on the spot to man and launch the boat. Within ten minutes of the receipt of the telegram, Canon WAKEHAM, one of the Honorary Secretaries of the Branch, had summoned the crew and despatched them to Southend; the caretaker at this place had in the meantime engaged helpers so that by the time the crew arrived the boat was in the water ready to start.

When the Life-boat came up with the lighter she had drifted near to the Moil (or Mull) Lighthouse, but the Life-boat could not go alongside on account of the way the lighter was rolling and the heavy seas breaking over her. The Coxswain therefore anchored his boat and dropped down as near as possible. The lighter's anchor chain then parted and she drifted away on the tide, which was running about 8 knots; the Coxswain at once proceeded to lift his anchor, but finding he could not move it cut his cable, and made after the vessel which was now riding quieter not being anchored. On coming up with her he succeeded in getting alongside and after considerable difficulty got the imperilled men on board in safety. A start was then made to return home, but against the strong tide and S.E. wind this was found impossible, so the Coxswain headed his boat for Machrihanish, where the crew were landed at 4 P.M.

When Canon Wakeham had sent the crew over to Southend in the morning, he himself followed with all haste to direct things there. He watched the boat out of sight and then instructed the Signalman to proceed along the shore, while he went to the post-office and communicated by telephone with the Moil Light-keepers, who kept him informed of all that was going on; he was thus enabled to follow all the movements of the boat and wreck, and on hearing that the boat was making for Machrihanish he wired to Campbeltown for further assistance to be sent there to haul her up. He then proceeded to Machrihanish himself, arriving as the boat with her wet and exhausted crew came in. In making his report he stated that the telephone was invaluable, and this case certainly instances the immense use the telephone is in the life-saving service, and the excellent and indefatigable work of the Honorary Secretary. Having made the Life-boat secure, and given the men much-needed refreshment, they were all driven home, arriving soon after 8 P.M. The boat was taken back to her station on the 17th idem by road.

The Committee of Management marked their appreciation of this excellent service by giving the men an additional award and presenting the Honorary Secretary, Canon Wakeham, with a mounted aneroid bearing a suitable inscription.—Expense of service, 65*l.* 4*s.* 11*d.*

Nov. 15.—CLOUGHÉY, Co. DOWN.—Faith Life-boat.—The barque Dictator, of Tvedestrand, while bound from Conway (Wales) to Norway, stranded on the Ballyspurge Rocks, close to the shore, in a strong south-easterly breeze and heavy sea, and soon after 10 P.M. showed signals of distress. The Life-boat proceeded to her and stood by her for two hours and a half in case her services should be required, but finding the crew would not leave their vessel they returned ashore, re-housing the Life-boat at 4.30 A.M.—Expense of service, 28*l.* 11*s.*

Nov. 16.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Bradford Life-boat.—At 9.45 P.M. a message was received that a small steam yacht, at anchor about a quarter of a mile south-west of the harbour, was in distress. Orders were at once given for the Life-boat to go to her aid. On getting alongside she proved to be the steam yacht Ethel, of Margate. She had broken down and was at anchor, but owing to the heavy sea, was half full of water. Her crew of four men were at once taken on board the Life-boat, and the yacht's anchor having been slipped, she took the vessel in tow and brought her in safety into harbour. There was a strong E.S.E. wind at the time.—Payment arranged by the Board of Trade.

Nov. 17.—ACKERGILL, CAITHNESS-SHIRE.—Jonathan Marshall, Sheffield, Life-boat.—About 10 A.M. the Coxswain observed a smack, half-way up Sinclair's Bay, flying signals of distress. There was a strong southerly gale and heavy swell, so he immediately launched the boat and proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the smack Catherine, of Wick, laden with a cargo of potatoes for that place. It appeared that the smack ran to the bay for shelter during the previous night, and in the morning, as the gale was increasing and the anchors dragging, distress signals were shown. On the arrival of the Life-boat it was deemed advisable to abandon the smack, therefore the crew of three hands were taken on board and brought safely ashore.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 19*s.*

Nov. 20.—CLOUGHÉY, Co. DOWN.—Faith Life-boat.—During a moderate south-easterly gale and rough sea the schooner Twin Sisters, of Stranraer, grounded on the North Rock, and showed signals of distress. The Life-boat launched at 10.35 P.M., and proceeded to her. They found the vessel had then floated, but in spite of having an anchor out, was dragging along the ridge and coming ashore as the tide made. At the Captain's request the Coxswain put three of the Life-boatmen on board; they assisted the crew to set more sail, and having hove the anchor (the vessel meanwhile bumping heavily) they managed to beat up to a safe anchorage, and then took the crew ashore. Had it not been for the timely assistance of the Life-boat, there is little doubt the vessel would have become a total wreck.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 22.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Bradford Life-boat.—At 7 A.M., in very cold and thick weather, it was reported that guns were being fired by the East Goodwin Light-vessel and in response thereto the Life-boat proceeded to her. On speaking her they learnt that there were six men on board, the crew of the three-masted schooner Martha Edmonds, of Fowey, which had gone ashore in the night. The Life-boat then went alongside the light-vessel and took the men on board. The master of the schooner informed the Coxswain that his vessel while on a voyage from Flushing to Liverpool with a cargo of ore ran aground about half an hour after midnight, the weather at the time being thick. The vessel being nearly on her beam-ends with seas breaking over her, at 1 A.M. they got into their boat and abandoned her, deeming this the wisest course to pursue as it was impossible for their signals of distress to be seen by the light-vessels. After about an hour they managed to make the East Goodwin vessel and were taken on board.

After the crew had been taken into the Life-boat, she was again taken in tow of the tug Aid—which had brought her out—and a thorough search was made along the sands and in their vicinity but no trace of the vessel could be found, so they returned to Ramsgate, landing the shipwrecked men soon after noon.—Payment arranged by the Board of Trade.

NOV. 24.—NEWQUAY, CORNWALL.—James Stevens No. 5 Life-boat.—At 9 P.M. a coastguard reported that a fishing-boat which had gone to her nets during the afternoon was then in a dangerous position, owing to the sudden increase of the S. wind to a strong gale, and the very heavy ground swell. The Life-boat was at once despatched to her assistance and after remaining until she was out of danger ran for the harbour, arriving about midnight. At that time there was too much sea running to attempt to re-house the boat, so she lay in the harbour until nearly noon next day.—Expense of service, 42l. 3s.

NOV. 24.—PORT ISAAC, CORNWALL.—Richard and Sarah Life-boat.—This Life-boat assisted to save six of the fishing-boats of Port Isaac. During the evening these boats were unable to make the haven, owing to the lowness of the tide and the strong S.W. gale. There was a very heavy ground sea, and it was feared, if the wind veered round to the north-west—which was anticipated—the boats and their occupants would be lost. It was therefore thought advisable to launch the Life-boat. This was done shortly after 10 P.M., and she stood by the boats while the tide made. At high tide four of them were taken in tow, and one at a time brought ashore. The other two were also brought to safe moorings and in doing this, one but narrowly escaped being dashed on to the rocks.—Expense of service, 32l. 2s.

NOV. 25.—PLYMOUTH, DEVONSHIRE.—Eliza Avins Life-boat.—At 2 A.M. the look-out men posted on the Hoe during the southerly gales prevailing, observed signals of distress on a vessel anchored in the Sound. The Coxswain was immediately called, the crew summoned, and the Life-boat launched. On arriving alongside the vessel, which proved to be the brigantine Snowdrop, of Plymouth, it was ascertained that there were only two men of the crew on board, the Captain and remainder of crew being ashore. They stated that the vessel commenced dragging her anchors about midnight, and continued to do so until they became alarmed at their close proximity to the shore and made signals. They were anxious to leave their vessel; but the Coxswain having reassured them, proceeded on board, together with seven of the Life-boatmen. He then took steps to prevent the vessel getting nearer to the shore and in the meantime signalled for a tug to come to their assistance. At 5.30 the tug Reynard went off, and having got a hawser on board, took the vessel in tow and, accompanied by the Life-boat, took her to safe moorings. The Life-boatmen then returned to their boat and sailed back to her station, the boat being re-housed at 10 A.M. The sea was very heavy, and heavy rain fell nearly all the time.—Property salvage case. Balance paid by Institution, 31l. 19s.

NOV. 25.—NEWHAVEN, SUSSEX.—Michael Henry Life-boat.—About 9 A.M. the Coxswain received a message from the coastguard that there was a steamer about two miles off Portobello, showing signals of distress. The Life-boat was immediately launched and within a quarter of an hour was proceeding in tow of a tug to the aid of the distressed vessel. She proved to be the Calvados, of Newhaven, and while bound for Caen had injured her propeller. The Life-boat stood by her until she was towed into Newhaven Harbour, ready to render any help if required. There was a moderate gale and a heavy sea at the time.—Expense of service, 12l. 9s.

NOV. 26.—DONNA NOOK, LINCOLN-SHIRE.—Temporary Life-boat.—About 6.30 in the evening flares were seen in the direction of the Haile Sand by the coastguard, who immediately warned the Life-boat authorities. The Coxswain and crew were quickly assembled and the boat launched. On arrival at the sands the brigantine Jane Dyson, of Hull, was found wrecked, and her crew—five in number—in a boat hanging on to the vessel, awaiting help. They were all taken safely into the Life-boat and brought ashore. There was a moderate south-easterly wind with a choppy sea at the time, and the Life-boat was slightly damaged whilst effecting the rescue.—Expense of service, 38l. 9s. 6d.

NOV. 28.—FORMBY, LANCASHIRE and NEW BRIGHTON, CHESHIRE.—John and Henrietta and Queen Life-boats.—Shortly after noon the Coxswain at Formby observed a very large steamer stranded on the point of Taylor's Bank. The sea was rough and the wind moderate, but the south cone indicating rough weather had been hoisted a few hours before, so the Coxswain decided to launch his boat and render assistance if required. The Coxswain of the New Brighton Steam Life-boat was telegraphed to and the boat proceeded. On nearing the Crosby No. 1 buoy, the New Brighton Steam Life-boat overtook the Formby boat, and taking her in tow, both boats arrived at the vessel in a short space of time. She proved to be the Ikkal, of Liverpool, bound to Galveston with a cargo of coal; at this moment she did not require help, but as the wind was increasing and the sea becoming rather lumpy the Life-boats were requested to stand by as the services of both would probably be required should the wind continue with such force. Fortunately towards night the wind fell considerably, and about 8.20 P.M. the vessel floated into deep water, apparently little damaged, so both Life-boats returned to their respective stations.—Expenses of service: Formby, 43l. 2s. 6d.; New Brighton, 19l.

NOV. 29.—HUNA, CAITHNESS-SHIRE.—Ida Life-boat.—At 3.45 in the morning a messenger reported that flares had been seen from a vessel off Duncansbay. The crew were assembled without delay and the Life-boat launched. There was a strong gale blowing from S.E. and a heavy sea running and in addition the night was exceedingly dark and cold. The boat beat to windward in search of the vessel, but at first no trace of her could be found; this they afterwards learnt was due to the fact that after the first flare had burnt out the crew could get at no more as the sea was washing right over the vessel. Eventually the vessel was seen by means of shore lights, and proved to be the steam trawler Silanion, of Grimsby; she had stranded while homeward bound from the fishing grounds. An attempt had been made by the crew to escape in their own boat, but it was immediately swamped and carried away, after which they took to the rigging. With considerable difficulty and risk the Life-boat was taken near enough to the vessel to rescue the crew; they then got clear of the wreckage and anchored until daylight. At daybreak a start was made for home, but after two ineffectual attempts to reach Huna, it was decided to land at Wey, and from this place the crew and rescued men, all of whom were in an exhausted condition, were driven to Huna. This was an excellent service, and the Life-boat is reported to have behaved splendidly.—Expense of service, 40l. 17s.

A few days later the following letter was received by the Coxswain from the master of the wrecked vessel:—

Dec. 1, 1902.

“DEAR SIR,—Please accept, on behalf of myself and crew, our deepest thanks for your noble and heroic services in rescuing us from a position of great danger in the morning of Nov. 29, 1902, with the wreck of the s.s. Silanion, of Grimsby, at Duncansbay. Hoping that you and your crew may live and be spared to carry on such noble work,

"I am, yours faithfully,

(Signed) "W. G. WRIGHT (Master).

"To the Coxswain and crew of the Huna Life-boat."

Nov. 30.—MONTROSE, FORFARSHIRE.—Sarah Jane Turner Life-boat.—During a moderate south-easterly gale the lighthouse keeper at Skurdy Ness telephoned that a ketch was nearing the harbour, and as the sea was very heavy on the bar the services of the Life-boat would probably be required; a few minutes later signal rockets were sent up, so the Life-boat at once launched and proceeded to the vessel, which was the ketch Spartan, of Montrose, bound from London with a cargo of cement. Having attended her over the bar into safety and waited to see if she would again be required, the boat returned and was re-housed during the afternoon.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 9*s.*

Dec. 1.—CARDIGAN.—Lizzie and Charles Leigh Clare Life-boat.—The Coastguard at Penrhyn Castle telephoned about noon that the schooner Katie Darling was flying signals of distress. The crew of the Life-boat was quickly mustered and the boat with some difficulty, owing to the softness of the mud, was launched. There was a strong S.E. gale and thick wet weather at the time. On reaching the vessel the crew of three hands were rescued and taken ashore, the Life-boat being re-housed during the afternoon.—Expense of service, 17*l.* 2*s.*

Dec. 5.—FLAMBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE.—Matthew Middlewood Life-boat.—During the afternoon this Life-boat was called out to the aid of fishing cobles which were in danger near the Smithie Sands, in a strong E.S.E. gale and heavy sea. The Life-boat stood by them until they got out of danger and safely ashore, she was then taken back to her station.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 1*s.* 3*d.*

Dec. 8.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—The Coastguard reported that a vessel was ashore on the Haisboro' Sands, so the Life-boat was launched and started in tow of a tug. On getting as far as the "Cockle" the master of the tug refused to go farther, as he was making so much water, the Coxswain therefore decided to go on alone. Sail was accordingly set, and after sailing for some time they fell in with another tug, which picked them up and towed them to the sands. On arrival they found the schooner Liggo, of Riga, was in difficulties, but at first she declined assistance; however after a time finding the sea breaking over her, the master signalled for help and the Life-boat again approached the vessel. After putting some men on board a hawser was made fast between the tug and the schooner and a start made for Gorleston. They were successful in reaching the roads, but as the vessel was then sinking, the men were taken into the Life-boat and conveyed ashore. During this service, which was performed in a S.E. gale and heavy sea, the Life-boat lost one of her drop keels and her anchor and cable.—Expense of service, 63*l.* 19*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 11th Dec., 1902.

Voted 71*8l.* 5*s.* in payment for launches of the Life-boats, or for assemblies of the crews with the view of assisting vessels in distress, at Angle, Arbroath, Berwick-on-Tweed, Broughty Ferry, Buckhaven, Caister No. 1, Cromer, Dunbar, Eastbourne, Eye-mouth, Gourdon, Hastings, Hythe, Kingsdowne, Lowestoft No. 1, Margate No. 1, Newbiggin, Palling No. 2, Ramsgate, Rhoscolyn, St. Heliers (Jersey), Southwold No. 1, Sunderland (North Dock), Sunderland (South Outlet), Whitelink Bay, Wicklow, Winterton No. 2, Tynemouth No. 1, Walmer and Yarmouth.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was also out, but her services were not ultimately required.

Thanks were accorded to A. F. CLOWES, Esq., Hon. Secretary of the Yarmouth and Caister Branch, for his exertions, and for volunteering to go in the Yarmouth Life-boat on the 18th November; also to N. McBAIN, Esq., Hon. Secretary of the Arbroath Branch, for the able manner in which he carried out his duties on the 1st and 2nd December, when the services of the Life-boat were likely to be required.

The sum of 50*l.* 9*s.* 6*d.* was granted to men injured while engaged in the Life-boat service at Eastbourne, Guernsey, Holyhead, Penmon, Swanage, and Yarmouth.

7*l.* 10*s.* was granted to E. MCBAY, Coxswain, on resignation at Johnshaven, and 5*l.* to A. SINCLAIR, Bowman at Thurso.

Dec. 12.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Robert and Susan Life-boat.—About 10.30 P.M. signals were seen and heard from the s.s. Tertia of Flensburg, which had stranded on the "Outcars" rocks while bound to Blyth in ballast. The Life-boat was promptly launched and stood by the vessel until with the rising tide she floated off. Although considerably damaged, she was taken to Blyth for repairs. There was a moderate south-westerly breeze and moderate sea, but the weather was thick.—Expense of service, 32*l.* 2*s.*

Dec. 12.—PORT EYNON, GLAMORGANSHIRE.—A Daughter's Offering Life-boat.—About 8 o'clock in the morning a schooner was reported in distress on the east side of Port Eynon Bay, and while the Life-boat was being prepared for launching the Hon. Secretary proceeded on horseback to where the vessel lay. Having got into communication, he arranged to telegraph for tugs, and in the meanwhile launch the Life-boat to "stand by." Just after the boat reached the stranded vessel she got broadside on, and every preparation was made to abandon her, but before this was carried out two tugs arrived. After considerable difficulty and at great risk the Life-boat succeeded in getting hawsers to the tugs, when the vessel was towed off and eventually taken to Swansea. There was a moderate gale from S.E., accompanied by a rough choppy sea, and the Life-boat is reported to have behaved splendidly.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 14.—PENMON, ANGLESEY.—Christopher Brown Life-boat.—This Life-boat was called out shortly after mid-day to the assistance of the smack Stag, of Bangor, which was dragging her anchors in a whole south-westerly gale and very heavy sea off Penmon, while bound from Point of Ayr to Bangor with a cargo of coal. On reaching the vessel the Life-boat anchored to windward, veered down to her and succeeded in rescuing the three men on board; they then returned to Penmon, but the sea was so heavy, they were unable to land until nearly 1 A.M., having to remain in the pouring rain until a landing was effected.—Expense of service, 38*l.* 8*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 15.—HOLYHEAD, ANGLESEY.—Duke of Northumberland Life-boat.—At 9.45 in the morning, during a north-westerly gale, a large steamer, the Leonora, of Rotterdam, which had come in during the night, was seen dragging her anchors and quickly drifting towards the rocks on the east side of the bay. The Steam Life-boat was despatched without delay, and on reaching the steamer found she was then on the sand. There were no tugs in harbour at the time, so the master of the vessel requested the Coxswain of the Life-boat to assist him to get his vessel off, the tide being nearly high; a rope was fastened to her bows, and with the assistance of her own engines the vessel was extricated from her perilous position and brought to a safe anchorage in the roads.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 18.—BULL BAY, ANGLESEY.—Curling Life-boat.—A steamer was seen broadside to the sea about six miles off Bull Bay, and on the Coast-guard reporting she was showing signals of distress, the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to her. On arrival they found she was the s.s. Rapido, with her machinery broken down, and there was a N.N.W. strong gale blowing and heavy sea. After considerable difficulty two of the Life-boatmen were placed on board to assist the crew and shortly after this a steamer and steam pilot boat came to her help and took her in tow. The Life-boat remained as long as her services were likely to be required and then made for land. As the wind and tide were against them in getting back to Bull Bay, they ran for Moelfre, the boat being taken back to her station during the afternoon next day. Property salvage case.

Dec. 19. — GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Leicester Life-boat.—Shortly after 6 in the evening the steam drifter Glentilt, of Aberdeen, was seen to be ashore on the North Sand, so the No. 2 Life-boat was launched to her assistance. On arrival her help was declined, as well as the aid offered by a tug and yawl which had also gone to her. There was a moderate W.N.W. wind and a heavy ground swell at the time, and as the tide rose the sea got heavier. The master of the drifter then finding he was being driven further on to the sand, engaged the tug and the boat to help him; meanwhile as the seas were washing over the vessel, the Life-boat stood by her until out of danger; she then returned ashore and was re-housed.—Expense of service, 23*l.* 10*s.*

Dec. 21.—PALLING, NORFOLK.—54th West Norfolk Regiment Life-boat.—In a strong N.W. breeze heavy sea and hazy weather, the brigantine James Simpson, of London, stranded off Palling, while bound from Dover to the Tyne in ballast. The No. 2 Life-boat was despatched to her assistance without delay, and in conjunction with a tug got the vessel off; and as she was leaking badly, escorted her into Yarmouth Harbour.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 24.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—The Coxswain learnt by telephone that a vessel was aground on the Corton Sands. He at once launched the No. 1 Life-boat, and proceeded with a tug to the place indicated. There they found the steamer Sandsend, of London, which had stranded in thick weather. At first she declined any assistance but subsequently the master asked the Life-boat and a tug, which had come from Yarmouth, to assist in getting the vessel off. In this they were successful and brought the vessel into safety.

Dec. 25.—GIRVAN, AYRSHIRE.—James Stevens No. 18 Life-boat.—During the morning the fishing boat Optimist, of Girvan, was seen trying to make the harbour in a strong W.N.W. gale and very heavy sea. As the Coxswain of the Life-boat felt it would be very dangerous, if not impossible, for her to cross the bar, he launched his boat and went to her assistance. The master of the boat meanwhile seeing his danger ran for Woodland Bay; here the Life-boat stood by him and put four of her crew on board to assist in anchoring. When this was done the entire crew were taken into the Life-boat and conveyed into safety.—Expense of service, 17*l.* 18*s.*

Dec. 25. — GOURDON, KINCARDINESHIRE.—Theophilus Sydney Echalaz Life-boat.—This Life-boat was launched to the assistance of a fishing-boat, which was in a helpless condition, with her sails blown away in a whole gale and heavy sea off Gourdon. In the meantime another fishing lugger took the vessel in tow, so the Life-boat on arrival stood by them until they were able to get into safety.—Expense of service, 23*l.* 5*s.*

Dec. 27.—HOLYHEAD, ANGLESEY.—Duke of Northumberland Life-boat.—During the afternoon a large four-masted barque was observed being taken in tow by a tug, but it was noticed that very little progress had been made when darkness came on. Shortly after 9 P.M. a distress signal was seen, upon which the Steam Life-boat was at once ordered out. Upon arrival they found the Lord Shaftesbury, of Liverpool—a vessel of over 2,000 tons—anchored but still attached by a hawser to a tug. She was then about 500 yards from a lee shore, and in spite of everything was dragging into greater danger. It was blowing a strong gale from W.S.W., and a very heavy sea was running; the captain therefore thought it advisable to abandon his vessel, and the crew of 29 hands were accordingly taken into the Life-boat. This feat was fortunately accomplished without mishap, and the captain of the vessel spoke in terms of the highest praise of both the Life-boat and her crew, stating it was quite the smartest piece of work he had ever seen performed.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*

After the crew had been taken off the vessel her anchors held sufficiently to prevent her going on to the rocks. Next day an attempt was made to put some of the crew on board again, but it was not possible. The weather however moderated somewhat on the 30th instant, and another attempt was then made, and on this occasion it was successful, the ship being eventually saved.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 28.—NEWQUAY AND PADSTOW, CORNWALL.—James Stevens No. 5, and Edmund Harvey Life-boats.—During a strong N.W. gale and heavy sea the s.s. Baltazan, of Sydney, New South Wales—a large vessel of over 5,000 tons—was brought to anchor off Godrevy Head owing to damage to her machinery. In answer to her signals of distress both the above Life-boats were sent to her assistance. The Newquay one was the first to arrive, and experienced great difficulty in getting into communication with the distressed vessel on account of the heavy sea running; this was eventually accomplished and the endangered crew were drawn by lines, one by one, through the water to the Life-boat. When twenty, composed of 19 of the crew and the captain's wife, had been rescued in this manner, the Padstow Life-boat, in tow of the tug Helen Peele, arrived upon the scene. The Newquay boat therefore left the work of rescuing the remaining eight persons to her, and returned ashore with her human freight with all despatch. The Padstow boat successfully took the remainder of the crew on board in a similar manner to that employed by the other Life-boat, and having signalled to the tug to pick her up, was towed back to her station.

This was an excellent service, twenty-eight persons in all being saved without mishap, and the Committee of Management, in addition to granting extra payment to the crew, sent a letter to the Coxswain of the James Stevens No. 5 expressing their high approval of the manner in which he handled his boat.—Expense of service—Newquay, 49*l.* 7*s.* 4*d.*; Padstow, 45*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 30.—MABLETHORPE, LINCOLNSHIRE.—Heywood Life-boat.—This Life-boat was called out by telephone from Theddlethorpe, as a steamer was showing signals of distress off "Oliver's Gap," she having stranded while bound from St. Helens to Goole in thick weather. On reaching the vessel she was found to be the s.s. Algethi, of Shoreham, and at the request of the captain the Life-boat stood by him and assisted to float the vessel when the tide made.—Property salvage case. Balance by the Institution, 29*l.* 12*s.* 3*d.*

Dec. 31.—The Committee voted 1,049*l.* 19*s.* 7*d.* to pay the expenses of assemblies, watching and launches, etc., with the view of assisting the crews of distressed vessels by the following Life-boats:—Appledore, Banff, Buckhaven, Bull Bay, Caister No. 1, Cemaes, Cemlyn, Cloughey, Cullercoats, Donna Nook, Dunbar, Dungeness No. 1, Folkestone, Formby, Girvan, Hauxley, Holyhead, Moelfre, New Brighton, Padstow No. 1, Porthdinllaen, St. Ives, Sennen Cove, Whitehaven and Workington.

SHORE-BOAT SERVICES REWARDED BY THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION IN 1902.

Jan. 9.—Five men put off in a boat and at moderate risk rescued three fishermen whose boat had been overtaken by a S.S.W. gale and a rough sea, on the 23rd December, in Llandudno Bay.—Reward, 1l. 5s.

Jan. 9.—Voted letters of thanks and 10s. each to Mrs. S. A. DAVEY and Mrs. J. M. PYNNE, whose husbands are coastguardmen, for assisting to save seven of the crew of the Flora, tender to H.M.S. Melampus, which stranded on the rocks in Kingstown harbour in a whole gale and heavy sea on the 12th November.

Feb. 1.—The crew of the ketch Devon, of Barnstaple, rescued the crew of three men from the schooner Annie, of Padstow, which sunk off the entrance of the Ely River, near Penarth Dock, in a N.E. gale and heavy sea.—Reward, 1l.

Feb. 2.—Fourteen men put off in a boat and endeavoured to save life on the occasion of the loss of the Italian barque Lofaro, which capsized and sunk, with the loss of her crew, near St. Martin's Head, Isles of Scilly, in a strong E.N.E. gale and a very heavy sea. An additional gratuity was granted to two of the men who were injured by falling on the rocks.—Reward, 15l.

Feb. 13.—Voted 1l. 10s. to three men for putting off in a boat and rescuing two men from a barge which had stranded in Bannow Bay, Co. Wexford, in a strong S.W. gale and a very rough sea, on the 23rd December. 7s. 6d. was also awarded to two persons who assisted to launch the boat.

March 13.—Voted an Aneroid Barometer to Mr. ALEXANDER MCPHERSON, skipper, and 1l. each to his crew of seven men, for putting off in his boat from Whinnyfold, Scotland, and saving six of the crew of the s.s. Hartfell, of Aberdeen, which struck on the Cruden Scaurs and sunk very soon afterwards, in a dense fog, a light S.S.E. breeze and a ground swell on the 1st March.

March 25.—Seven men put off in the Institution's boarding boat at New Brighton, and stood by the fishing boat Ellen, of Liverpool, which had stranded in a moderate N.W. gale and a very heavy sea. A gratuity was also given to a man who assisted to get the boat off.—Reward, 5l. 11s.

March 28.—Six men put off in the Institution's New Brighton boarding boat, with the view of assisting the crew of the cutter Mosquito, which had been capsized in a strong W. breeze and a rough sea. Two other men engaged on the occasion were also rewarded.—Reward, 7l. 6s.

April 4.—Three men rescued one of the crew of the fishing lugger Welcome Home, of Kessingland, who by the jibbing of the mizzen sheet had been knocked overboard when off Lowestoft, in a strong N.W. breeze and a moderate sea.—Reward, 15s.

April 5.—THOMAS VEALE, ferry-boat proprietor, put off in a boat and rescued two boys from a punt off Dungarvan, Ireland.

One of them had fallen overboard and was holding on to the punt and the other one was unable to help him as the boat, a very unsafe one, would not bear his weight on her side.—Reward, 1l.

April 10.—Voted the thanks of the Institution, inscribed on vellum and framed, to the Misses ROSIE M. BIRNIE and MARY J. BIRNIE, daughters of the keeper of the Kyleakin Lighthouse, Isle of Skye, and a present of 5s. to their brother, Master ROBERT W. BIRNIE, for putting off in a boat and rescuing two men, whose boat had been capsized midway between the Kyle Rock and the Lighthouse, in a moderate breeze with slight squalls, a moderate sea and thick weather, on the 18th March.

April 15.—Four fishermen saved the crew of fifteen men from the s.s. Loch Leven, of Aberdeen, which stranded and sunk on the Knavestone Rock, one of the Farne Islands group, in a moderate S.E. breeze and a rough sea with a heavy swell.—Reward, 2l.

April 26.—Three men waded into the sea and rescued one of the crew of a small boat which had been capsized off Seaton Carew, Durham, in a somewhat rough sea.—Reward, 15s.

May 27.—Six coastguardmen put off in their boat and rescued the crew of eight men of the lugger Self Reliance, of Howth, which was totally wrecked off Ballinacourty. A strong W.S.W. breeze was blowing at the time, the sea was moderate and the weather thick and squally.—Reward, 3l.

June 9.—SAMUEL ASHTON (Coxswain of the Polkerris and Fowey Life-boat) and his son Harry put off in a boat and rescued four boys who were in danger in an unseaworthy boat in Par Bay.—Reward, 10s.

June 12.—Voted the thanks of the Institution inscribed on vellum and framed, together with 15s. each, to Messrs. ROBERT and RICHARD POCKLEY, for gallantly assisting, at great risk to their own lives, two fishermen who were clinging to some oars, their boat when near the Smithic Sands off Flamborough having filled with water in a whole gale from W. and a very rough sea on the 4th April; but for the timely and skilful assistance of the salvors, lives would have been lost.

Also 3l. to six men, four of whom were coastguardmen, for their promptitude in putting off in two boats and rescuing three out of the crew of five of the boat Star of the Sea, of Howth, Ireland. While tacking, the boat was thrown on her beam ends and her five occupants pitched overboard, when about three-quarters of a mile N.E. of Howth Harbour, in squally weather and a choppy sea on the 4th May. One of the boats succeeded in picking up the two men, who lost their lives, but in spite of every effort to resuscitate them on the part of two of the coastguardmen, they never recovered. An additional 2s. 6d. each was awarded to these men for their humane efforts.

June 19.—Four fishermen rescued the crew of four persons from a salmon yawl which was capsized in a moderate gale and very heavy sea about two miles off Knockadoon Head (Youghal).—Reward, 4*l*.

July 10.—Voted 2*l*. to DAVID RUDALL and HENRY MORGAN, two fishermen, for promptly putting off in a boat and rescuing five of the occupants of a boat which was swamped and foundered off Llanelly on the evening of the 27th of May.

The salvors, who saw the accident, immediately got into their boat and pulled to the spot. Unfortunately four of the men had already disappeared and it was only owing to the resource displayed by Rudall that the other five were rescued, the sea at the time being rough and the wind fresh and squally.

July 17.—Four fishermen saved four of the crew of the fishing-boat Mayflower, which capsized when about three miles off Glengad Head, County Donegal, in a strong N. breeze and a heavy sea. The sailors, seeing the accident, immediately went to the spot and succeeded in rescuing three men who were clinging to the keel of the up-turned boat, and another who was supporting himself by an oar. All were in an exhausted condition. The fifth member of the crew was unfortunately washed away and drowned before help could reach him. A further award was granted to the crew of two other fishing-boats which also put off with a view to saving life.—Reward, 7*l*. 10*s*.

July 27.—Three men saved two men from a boat which was swamped in a rough sea and strong breeze, off Redcar, Yorkshire.—Reward, 1*l*. 2*s*. 6*d*.

Sept. 3.—The crew of the steamer Rothsay Bay assisted to save three of the crew of the s.s. Tinto, of Bo'ness, off Anstruther, in a whole gale from S.W. and very heavy sea.—Reward 2*l*.

Oct. 22.—Eight men put off in a coble after dark and brought ashore the captain and crew of three men of the s.s. Aggie, of Dundee, which stranded on the Burn Car Rock off Beadnell, in a strong north-westerly breeze, moderate sea and hazy weather.—Reward 2*l*.

Oct. 31.—Five men put off in a boat and rescued three men from the smack Mary, which sank in a strong north-westerly breeze and a heavy sea off Ardrossan Harbour. When picked up the men were in a very exhausted condition.—Reward 2*l*. 10*s*.

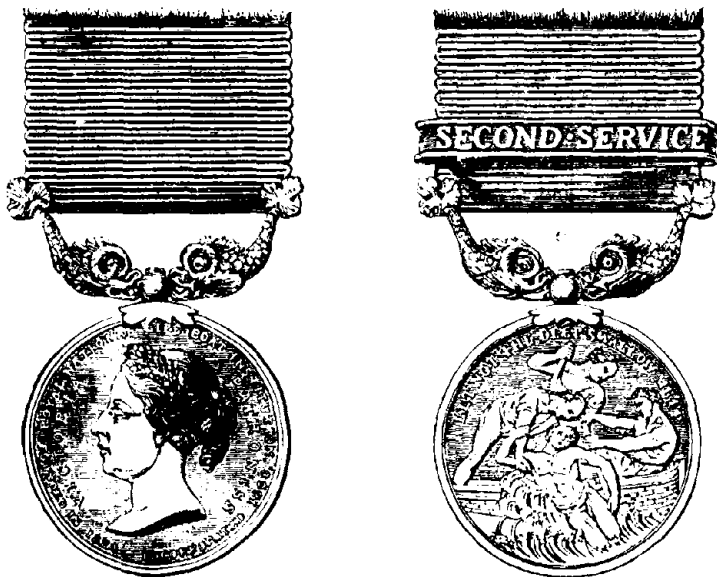

Oct. 31.—Three men picked up two men from a coble which had been run down off Tynemouth in a fresh S.S.W. breeze and slight sea.—Reward, 15*s*. 6*d*.

Nov. 20.—Three of the crew of the tug Snowdon promptly put off from that tug in a small boat and rescued four of the crew of the s.s. Knud, which was run down off Tynemouth in a moderate E.S.E. breeze and strong sea.—Reward, 3*l*.

Dec. 11.—Voted a binocular glass bearing a suitable inscription to Mr. PHILIP HERBERT, for saving the life of Professor McHardy, who was knocked overboard from the deck of the yacht Grayling, about 9 P.M. on the 26th July in a strong S.S.W. wind and rough sea when off Beachy Head.

THE
 FOR THE PRESERVATION OF LIFE FROM SHIPWRECK.

Obverse.—Bust of His Majesty KING EDWARD VII. Double Legend: "Royal National Life-boat Institution. Founded in 1824. Incorporated 1860. King Edward VII. Patron."

Reverse.—Figure of Hope assisting Coxswain-Superintendent of Life-boat to buckle on his life-belt, and wishing him and his crew "God speed." Life-boat manned in distance ready to launch, and awaiting the instructions of the Coxswain-Superintendent. "G. W. de Saullès."

The colour of the ribbon (which is corded silk) attached to the medal is blue.

The following is a LIST of the GOLD and SILVER MEDALS which have been voted by the Committee of the Institution from its establishment in 1824 to the 31st Dec., 1902, to persons whose humane and intrepid exertions in saving Life from Shipwreck on our Coasts, etc., have been deemed sufficiently conspicuous to merit that honourable distinction. The Cases will be found recorded in detail in the several Annual Reports of the Institution.

The total number of Medals and Clasps granted by the Institution is 1,299, 99 of which are in Gold, and 1,200 in Silver.

Note.—The asterisk (*) after the name denotes the reception of a Gold Medal or Clasp. The figure after the name signifies the number of honorary distinctions received from the Institution. Abbreviations.—C.G.—Coast Guard. R.C.—Revenue Cruiser. M.M.—Master Mariner.

THE LIFE-BELT USED BY THE CREWS OF THE LIFE-BOATS OF THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

The requisite qualities of a Life-boat man's life-belt are—

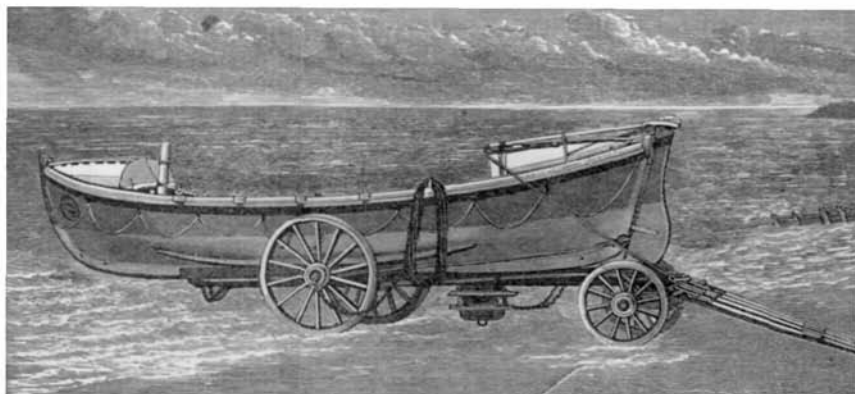

1. Sufficient extra buoyancy, 22 lbs., to support a man heavily clothed, with his head and shoulders above the water, or to enable him to support another person besides himself.

2. Perfect flexibility, so as to readily conform to the shape of the wearer.

3. A division into two zones, an upper and lower, so that between the two it may be secured tightly round the waist; for in no other manner can it be confined sufficiently close and secure round the body without such pressure over the chest and ribs as to materially affect the free action of the lungs, impede the muscular movement of the chest and arms, and thereby diminish the power of endurance of fatigue, which, in rowing-boats, is a matter of vital importance.

4. Strength, durability and non-liability to injury.

THE LIFE-BOAT STATION.

THE following brief description and diagrams illustrative of a complete Life-boat Establishment, including the House for the protection of the boat, will serve to convey an idea of the general character of one of the 288 Life-boat Stations of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

It will be seen that it is a work of a costly nature, and that not only in the first instance, but that a large permanent expense is entailed in keeping the whole machinery in an efficient state, in the re-supply of any part of it which may be destroyed or worn out, in the exercise of the boats' crews, in launching and working the boats and in remunerating them for their services in saving their fellow-creatures. Yet, looking to the vast importance of the result effected and the responsibility of calling on men to risk their lives in effecting the same, it is felt that few if any persons will be found who will consider that expense to be incurred in vain.

THE LIFE-BOAT.

(See Diagrams on following pages.)

The following drawings show the general outline and principal fittings of the different types of Life-boats used in the Institution's service. Figure 1 gives the profile or broadside view. Fig. 2 the "plan" or deck view. Fig. 3 the "body plan," showing the form of transverse vertical sections at regular intervals in the length; and Fig. 4 the "midship section." The festooned lines on the Fig. 1 profile views represent outside lifelines for men in the water to catch hold. The blackened portion of the keel indicates "iron keel" ballast in distinction from "water ballast" carried in "tanks" or compartments provided in the hold for the purpose, and admitting of being taken in or pumped out at pleasure; both "iron" and "water ballast" are variable and optional in the several boats according to the special circumstances of the different stations and wishes of the coxswains and crews. Water shipped on deck by seas breaking over the boat and otherwise is automatically freed through the holes in the deck and bottom of boat, connected by large pipes called "relieving tubes" having valves called "relieving valves" fitted at the deck, which pass water downwards but not upwards. Some boats, such as the "Norfolk and Suffolk" type, have also freeing scuppers in the sides of boat above deck for the same purpose. Enclosed compartments are automatically ventilated by specially designed valves and pipes. A large proportion of the boats have "centre boards" or "drop-keels" of variable size and weight, which can be used at pleasure and materially add to their weather qualities.

THE LIFE-BOAT TRANSPORTING-CARRIAGE.

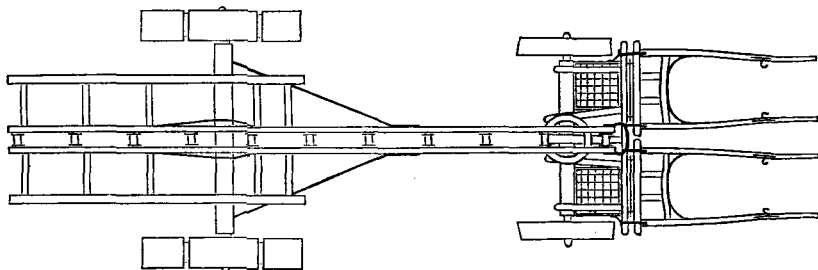

The Life-boat transporting-carriage is a very important auxiliary to the boat. Nearly every Life-boat, except a few of the larger sizes, is provided with a carriage, on which she is kept in the boat-house ready for immediate transportation to the most favourable position for launching to a wreck. A Life-boat is thus made available for a greater extent of coast than she otherwise would be. In addition to its ordinary use, a carriage is of immense service in launching a boat from a flat beach; while "Tipping's plates," with which the main wheels are sometimes clad, greatly facilitate the transport of the boat over the long stretches of soft sand which have to be traversed before deep enough water is reached to float the boat.

The carriage consists of a fore and main body. The latter is formed of a keelway, and of bilgeways attached to it, and resting on the main axle, the boat's weight being entirely on the rollers of the keelway. Its leading characteristics are that while for launching it forms an inclined plane, down which the boat can be launched off the rear end, it can also be used for replacing the boat, the inclined plane being reversed by removing the fore-carriage.

A very full equipment of stores is supplied to the Life-boats of the Institution—such as cork life-belts, anchors and cables, grapnels and lines, life-buoys, lanterns, rockets, and many other articles, together with portable or launching-skids.

THE LIFE-BOAT HOUSE.

The boats of the NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION and all belonging to them are kept in roomy and substantial boat-houses, under lock and key, in charge of paid coxswains, under the general superintendence of local honorary committees of residents in the several localities. Each boat has its appointed coxswain at a salary of 8*l.* and an assistant at 2*l.* a year, with further allowances in special circumstances. The crew consists, in addition, of a bowman who is paid 30*s.* a year, and as many boatmen as the boat pulls oars. A signalman is also appointed who receives a retaining fee of 1*l.* per annum and payment as a helper each time he is on duty. The members of the volunteer crews are registered and wherever practicable at least double the number of men required are entered on the register. Such men are mostly resident boatmen, fishermen or Coastguardmen. On every occasion of going afloat to save life the coxswains and each of the crew receive alike from the funds of the Institution (whether successful or not) 10*s.*, if by day, and 1*l.*, if by night; and usually 4*s.* each for every time of going afloat for exercise. These payments are increased by one half during the six months of each year beginning the 1st October and ending the 31st March. The Institution also grants retiring allowances to Coxswains, Bowmen and Signalmen of good behaviour and long service. It should be specially noted that the Life-boat crews, excepting when remunerated by the owners of vessels for property salvage service, are paid by the Institution for their efforts, whether successful or not, in saving life.

A reward of 7*s.* is given to the man who first brings intelligence of a wreck in such a position as not to be in sight of a Coastguard man on duty or other responsible look-out man.

On boarding wrecks the preservation of life is the sole consideration. Should any goods or merchandise be brought into the Life-boat contrary to the coxswain's remonstrance he is authorised to throw them overboard.

The formation of a Life-boat Station costs considerably more than 1,000*l.*, and the Annual Expense of maintaining it is about 125*l.*—in many instances much more.

Such is a brief summary of the more important Regulations under which the Life-boats are worked. How faithfully and with what result they are carried out let the journals of each Life-boat Station and the annals of the Institution tell.

The ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION has now 288 Life-boats under its charge. Nearly all of these have been specially presented to it, and they save every year hundreds of shipwrecked sailors. Altogether, the Institution has granted rewards for the saving of 43,652 lives, either by its Life-boats or by other means.

Despite however this fleet of 288 Life-boats and of 16 others locally provided or otherwise supported, and despite the numerous rocket apparatus stations on our coast, there remains the melancholy fact that about 500 lives are lost annually on or near the coasts of the United Kingdom alone, as shown by the Board of Trade Returns, proclaiming solemnly though silently that for humanity's sake and for the national credit, no exertions should be spared in providing every possible means for the conveyance of succour to the shipwrecked.

The Institution needs an annual income of about 100,000*l.* to maintain its great Life-saving Fleet; and the Committee feel assured that it will never lack it so long as it maintains its boats in the state of thorough efficiency that they are in at the present time, and manned as they are on every emergency by as fearless and noble a class of men as ever Nelson or Collingwood led to battle to uphold our country's honour and glory.

HOW TO HELP

THE

ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION

1. By becoming an Annual Subscriber, even if the amount subscribed be small; or by giving a donation.
2. By taking charge of a collecting box, or card, and endeavouring to fill it.
3. By remembering the needs of the cause when you make your Will, and providing for a legacy for the general purposes of the Institution.
4. By endeavouring to form Branches, with a view to raising funds for the Institution.
5. By promoting concerts, bazaars, special collections, etc., for the cause.
6. By speaking a good word for the Institution wherever you go, and interesting others in the work.
