

THE LIFE-BOAT.

JOURNAL

OF THE

Royal National Life-Boat Institution.

(ISSUED QUARTERLY.)

VOL. XX.—No. 228.]

1ST MAY, 1908.

[PRICE 1s.

AT the ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION, held at the Royal United Service Institution, Whitehall, on Thursday, the 19th day of March, The Right Honourable Lord Balfour of Burleigh, K.T., P.C., in the Chair, the following Report of the Committee of Management was submitted and adopted:—

ANNUAL REPORT.

THE work of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION was actively carried on during the past year and every means adopted for promoting the efficiency of this great life-saving service established 84 years ago.

Life-boats. — The Committee of Management have not failed to do their utmost to secure success for the experiments which they have been making with motor Life-boats, as reported in their last two Annual Reports, and there are now 4 Life-boats on the coast installed with motor engines—all of which are of different make—with a view to ascertain the type or types of engine which may prove on the whole best adapted for the service. One of them has been stationed for experimental purposes at Seaton Snook (at the mouth of the Tees) with a view to strengthening and rendering the service in that locality more efficient. Other motor Life-boats are under construction, but the Committee feel that motor boats are still in the experimental stage.

During 1907 14 new pulling and sailing Life-boats were built, fully equipped and placed at stations on the parts of our coasts where they were most needed. One of these was sent in April, 1907, to Skateraw (Haddingtonshire) where a new station has been established. The Life-boat which had been stationed at Llanddwyn (Anglesey) for many years has been withdrawn as the result of improved arrangements at the adjacent stations; and owing to altered conditions in Fishguard Harbour one of the two stations there has been closed. The four steam Life-boats of the Institution were thoroughly overhauled and the boilers of two of them re-tubed, necessitating a heavy outlay.

The following is a complete list of the stations to which new boats were sent. In each case, in accordance with the uniform practice of the Committee, the coxswains and crews were consulted as to the type of boat in which they placed most confidence.

Ackergill	Caithness-shire.
Brightstone Grange	Isle of Wight.
Brooke	Isle of Wight.
Cemaes	Anglesey.
Clovelly	North Devon.
Cullercoats	Northumberland.
Ferryside	Carmarthenshire.
Filey	Yorkshire.
Hasborough	Norfolk.
New Quay	Cardiganshire.
Port Logan	Wigtownshire.
Redcar	Yorkshire.
Skateraw	Haddingtonshire.
Staithes	Yorkshire.

At the end of 1907 the Institution's fleet comprised 272 sailing and pulling Life-boats, 4 steam Life-boats, 4 motor Life-boats, and 1 steam-tug.

Transporting Carriages.—New transporting carriages were built and supplied to seven Stations during the year.

Inspection of Life-boats.—Every Station of the Institution was thoroughly inspected and overhauled, a full report of each inspection being placed before and carefully considered by the Committee of Management.

Shipwrecks.—The year was a busy one for the Institution's Life-boats. It was ushered in with misfortune, for on the 1st January, owing to the capsizing in a sudden squall of the Ryde Life-boat, which had been specially selected by and built for the crew two years previously, two of the crew lost their lives. The Institution promptly contributed 200*l.* for the dependent relatives.

On the 17th March four of the Institution's Life-boats, namely those at Cadgwith, Coverack, Lizard and Porthleven, were instrumental in saving as many as 456 lives from the S.S. Suevic, the largest number of lives saved by the Institution's boats from any one wreck since the establishment of the Institution. On this occasion not a single life was lost, nobody was seriously injured and the saving of the women and children was carried out with conspicuous skill and bravery.

The most remarkable gales of the year occurred on the 19th–21st February when 18 Life-boats were launched, 18 lives being saved, and on the 13th–14th December when there were 23 launches of Life-boats, 13 lives being saved and 3 vessels.

The Life-boats were launched 370 times on service, besides which on 38 occasions crews were assembled for service.

The number of lives for the saving of which by Life-boats the Committee granted rewards in 1907, was 932, in addition to which they granted rewards for the saving of 224 lives by shore-boats and other means, making together a total of 1,156. The Life-boats saved 43 vessels and boats.

The following table furnishes the details of the services during each month of the year:—

Rewards.—The rewards bestowed by the Institution in 1907 for rescuing lives from shipwreck or for gallant and praiseworthy attempts at rescue and in recognition of other good services rendered to the cause, included 1 Gold Medal, 13 Silver Medals, and 2 Silver Clasps, 3 Decorations, 6 Binocular Glasses, 5 Aneroid Barometers, 38 Votes of Thanks inscribed on vellum and framed, 12 Certificates of Service framed, and 11,860*l.* 1*s.* 10*d.* in money grants, including pensions, retiring allowances, gratuities and compensation for personal injuries or loss sustained in the Service.

Since the 4th March, 1824, the Institution has granted in rewards and recognitions 100 Gold Medals and Clasps, 1,247 Silver Medals and Clasps, 66 Decorations, 387 Binocular Glasses, 15 Telescopes, 77 Aneroid Barometers, 1,858 Votes of Thanks inscribed on vellum and framed, 196 Certificates of Service framed, and 278,896*l.* 16*s.* 6*d.* in money.

Aneroids.—In 1907 eighty applications were received by the Institution for the reliable Aneroid Barometers which are issued by the Committee at a greatly reduced price to the Masters and Owners of fishing boats and small coasters. Of these 69 were supplied to fishermen and 11 to coasters. The total number of Aneroids so distributed by the Institution since 1882 has been 4,967.

Local Committees.—The Committee of Management very gratefully acknowledge the important and active co-operation which they continue to receive from their numerous honorary secretaries, treasurers and other helpers. Without the aid of the Local Branch officials the work of the Institution could not be carried on.

Public Authorities.—The Committee have also to place on record the valuable help rendered by the Trinity Corporation, the Commissioners of Northern and Irish Lights, and more especially the Postal Officials whose work in connection with the electrical and telephonic communications established on the coasts for life-saving purposes and available both day and night, has been of great benefit to the Institution.

Coastguard.—At many stations where the supply of fishermen and other suitable hands is insufficient the assistance rendered by the Coastguard, not only as regards manning the boats but also in launching them and working the telephones, is of the utmost importance, and the partial withdrawal already of the Coastguard from this work and from the other assistance they give to the Institution is viewed by the Committee with grave apprehension. They would therefore express the earnest hope that no further steps may be taken by the Government in the direction of reducing or abolishing H.M. Coastguard.

Public Press.—For its uniform co-operation and helpful advocacy an expression of hearty thanks is due to the Public Press of the country.

Life-boat Saturday.—This organisation has done excellent work in collecting moneys for the Institution during the past year, and the much-valued efforts of the Central Committee and the other Committees connected with the movement throughout the country, including the Ladies' Auxiliaries, have been crowned with increased success. The Committee of Management gratefully acknowledge their valued help, which has been most important and encouraging; the amount received from the Fund since its inception in 1891 to the 31st December having exceeded a quarter of a million.

Inventions.—The Institution has continued to receive many inventions and proposals, which have had the very careful consideration of the Committee, they being at all times anxious to inquire into and examine any suggestions which might possibly, if tried, be useful for the Life-boat service.

Finances.—The total amount received by the Institution in 1907 in subscriptions, donations, dividends, etc., and including the very satisfactory sum of 20,686*l.* 11*s.* 10*d.* received from the Life-boat Saturday Fund, was 75,168*l.* 9*s.* 3*d.*, an increase of 2,858*l.* 12*s.* as compared with the corresponding total for 1906. Furthermore, the sum of 101,343*l.* 12*s.* 5*d.* was received under the head of legacies. This sum was unusually large owing to the receipt of 45,025*l.* 9*s.* 4*d.* on account of the legacy bequeathed to the Institution by the late Mr. Charles C. Ashley. It should be noted however that neither this bequest nor the income arising from it can be used for the general purposes of the Institution, the testator having "ear-marked" the moneys for specified objects. Of the remaining amount received in respect of legacies 25,261*l.* 18*s.* 3*d.* was also ear-marked for special purposes and trusts. It will be observed that were it not for the bequests to the Institution its work would have to be much curtailed as the receipts under all other heads are always exceeded by the payments, which in 1907 amounted to 90,238*l.* 4*s.* 5*d.* This total included 36,105*l.* 10*s.* 4*d.* for building, equipping and repairing Life-boats, Life-boat transporting carriages, Life-boat houses and slipways, and experiments with motor Life-boats; 15,377*l.* 1*s.* 8*d.* for subsidies for non-self-supporting stations, branch outlays, aneroids for fishermen and coasters, life-belts and other stores and the store-yard; 31,851*l.* 12*s.* 5*d.* for payments to coxswains, bowmen, signalmen, crews, etc., for services and for exercising the Life-boats, for special rewards and recognitions for services; grants to the relatives of deceased Life-boatmen, and for injuries, for pensions, and other retiring allowances to coxswains, bowmen and signalmen; medals and vellums; and for payments to the inspecting staff. The balance was expended on printing, advertising, postage, telegrams and stationery; on salaries, rates, taxes, office expenses and legal charges connected with bequests and leases. Each item of receipt and expenditure has as usual been examined and verified by Mr. Albert W. Wyon, Chartered Accountant, of the firm of Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., 3 Frederick's Place, Old Jewry, E.C.

The Institution receives no financial help from the State, being supported entirely by voluntary contributions; and the Committee of Management appeal to all classes for further financial aid, without which this great life-saving service of the country cannot be efficiently maintained.

The Royal National Life-Boat Institution

Is prepared to establish and maintain a Life-boat Station on any part of the coast of the United Kingdom where it can be shown, from previous disasters, that a Life-boat is required. It is requisite that there should be a sufficient number of men (fishermen, or others accustomed to the management of boats at sea) to man the Life-boat, and a Committee formed from the residents in the neighbourhood to superintend the Station and obtain such small Annual Subscriptions as may contribute towards a portion of the expense of the Life-boat Station.

Communications should be addressed to the Secretary of the Institution, 22 Charing Cross Road, London, W.C.

GOD HELP OUR MEN AT SEA.

List of the Rewards

FOR SAVING LIFE FROM WRECKS

VOTED BY THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION

TO THE CREWS OF ITS LIFE-BOATS, TO SHORE AND FISHING-BOATS' CREWS, AND TO OTHER PERSONS

FROM THE 1ST JANUARY TO THE 31ST DECEMBER, 1907, INCLUSIVE.

Jan. 1.—MONTROSE, FORFARSHIRE.—
Mary Atherstone Life-boat.— In the evening one of the fishermen reported that a vessel was showing a light, evidently in close proximity to the Annat Bank. The Life-boatmen were at once assembled and the No. 1 Life-boat Sarah Jane Turner was launched at 11.15 P.M. When proceeding across the Bank to reach the vessel, the Life-boat was driven ashore by the force of the wind and sea. The No. 2 Life-boat was thereupon transported by many willing helpers to a position on the beach opposite to the wreck, no easy task, snow lying thickly on the ground.

A good launch was effected at half an hour after midnight and the Life-boat made for the wreck with all speed. An attempt was made to effect communication, but it failed, and in the prevailing gale the boat was carried to leeward of the vessel. After a severe struggle the boat was pulled up to her and the four men on board were successfully rescued and landed in safety about 1 A.M. on the 2nd January. The vessel was the ketch Harriet, of Guernsey.—Expense of services, No. 1 boat, 20*l.* 2*s.*; No. 2 boat, 26*l.* 7*s.*

Jan. 7. — ALDEBURGH, SUFFOLK. — Edward G. Dresden Life-boat.—A telephone message, stating that a vessel was ashore near Thorpness, was received at 7.50 A.M., and the No. 2 Life-boat was immediately despatched to her assistance. There was a moderate W.N.W. breeze blowing, with thick haze but moderate sea. On arrival at the vessel, which was the s.s. Citrine, of Glasgow, bound from Hamburg to Liverpool with a general cargo, the master stated that he did not require assistance. As the master of the steamer was very ill, a shore-boat, which had also put off to the steamer, returned ashore at the suggestion of the Life-boat Coxswain, and obtained a doctor, the Life-boat in the meantime standing by the steamer, which at 2.15 in the afternoon floated on the tide and was able to continue her voyage. The Life-boat then returned to her station, arriving at 3.30 P.M.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 8*s.* 6*d.*

Jan. 7. — CADGWITH, CORNWALL. — Minnie Moon Life-boat. — During a very dense fog in the afternoon, sound signals were heard not far from the shore, and although the weather was fine, there being only a slight ground swell, it was considered advisable to launch the Life-boat. The s.s. Highland Fling, of London, was found about fifty yards from the shore with her forepart on a sunken rock and her stern being afloat. Her crew were in the act of getting their belongings together preparatory to leaving her.

It appeared that the steamer had put into Falmouth for repair and had left with a cargo of cement, bound for Cardiff, but within two hours had stranded off Cadgwith. The master requested the Life-boat to stand by him whilst efforts were made to get the steamer off, but in spite of all attempts this was found impossible. At 10.30 P.M., it then being high water, it was decided to give up work, and the majority of the crew having proceeded to the attendant tugs, the Life-boat returned ashore.—Expense of service, 31*l.* 10*s.*

Salvage operations were without loss of time commenced by a salvage company and continued for some time but without success, and at length finding that it was not possible to float the steamer they decided to cut her into two parts and tow the stern portion, if successful, into Falmouth. This was accordingly done on the 26th January, and to ensure the safety of the men on board, the captain of the salvage company asked that the Life-boat might accompany the wreck whilst being towed into port. The boat was therefore launched at 2.15 P.M. that day and rendered the desired service.—Expense paid by owners.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 10th Jan., 1907.

Voted 239*l.* 14*s.* 4*d.* to defray the expenses of launches of the following Life-boats, or assembling the crews in readiness, with the view of assisting those on board vessels apparently in distress:—Bembridge, Runswick, Ryde, Southsea, Uppang, Whitby No. 2 and Winterton No. 2.

Voted, with an expression of deep sympathy, 200*l.* towards the fund being raised locally for the dependent relatives of the two Life-boat men who lost their lives on the occasion of the capsizing of the Ryde Life-boat on the 1st January.

Granted a retiring pension and certificate of service to ROBERT ADAIR, Coxswain Superintendent, and a retiring pension to JAMES BRENNAN, Assistant Coxswain, on the abolition of the Ballywalter station. Also retiring pensions to JOHN M. BROWNLEE, Signalman at Port Patrick, and to PATRICK CUNNINGHAM, Bowman at Skerries, on their resigning their respective posts.

Voted 10*l.* 5*s.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at Llanddwyn, Margate and Tenby.

Also a special gratuity of 10*l.* to a man who for many years was a member of the Greystones Life-boat crew; and a gratuity of 5*l.* to JAMES DOYLE, Coxswain Superintendent of the Kingstown Life-boats.

Jan. 18. — PETERHEAD, ABERDEENSHIRE. — George Pickard Life-boat. — About 11.30 P.M. the Coxswain of the Life-boat was informed by the Coast-guard that a telephone message had been received reporting a vessel ashore at Scotston Head. The crew were at once summoned and the Life-boat was launched. She proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the steam trawler Strathbeg, of Aberdeen, bound from the fishing grounds to Aberdeen. An offer was made to take the crew off, but they declined as efforts were being made to float the trawler. The Life-boat then stood by the vessel until they got her clear, and her services being no longer required, she made for Peterhead. The weather was very cold and thick with a strong S.S.W. breeze and rough sea. — Expense of service, 2*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.*

Jan. 22. — SCARBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE. — Queensbury Life-boat. — A gale from S.S.E. sprang up with exceptional suddenness shortly before 5 A.M. Several of the local fishing boats were off fishing, and three were taken into safety by the Life-boat. The Coxswain was aroused by a fisherman at 5 A.M. He immediately obtained a crew and launched the boat. About a mile to the eastward he found the coble Maggie half full of water, and her crew of three men quite exhausted. With difficulty they were transferred to the Life-boat, and the coble being taken in tow they returned to harbour. A second trip was made, and the coble Rosabel and her crew were saved. The boat now put to sea again, and finding the coble Rescue in difficulties the crew of three men were taken into the Life-boat and the coble towed into harbour. This was a very meritorious service, skilfully performed; any error of judgment would have caused damage to the Life-boat and possibly loss of life. — Expense of service, 4*l.* 12*s.*

Jan. 22. — CULLERCOATS, NORTHUMBRLAND. — Co-operator No. 1 Life-boat. — Three of the cobbles were overtaken by the E.S.E. gale which suddenly sprung up, and as it was evident, owing to the heavy sea running, that their return to harbour would be very dangerous, the Life-boat was launched at 7.15 A.M. to assist them. The first boat to come in was the Perfection, and fortunately she got into safety, the Life-boat standing by as she crossed the bar. The Life-boat then returned to sea and having rescued the crew of four men of the coble Gloriana, towed her into harbour. During the rescue the Life-boat had a narrow escape. The coble was struck by a heavy sea, which lifted her on to the stern of the Life-boat and smashed the rudder head. Happily the men escaped without injury and the coble slid off and was saved. The third boat assisted was the Maggie Storey. She was driven out of her course and was in danger of being cast on the rocks. The Life-boat men succeeded in reaching her and taking off the crew of four hands. An attempt was then made to tow the coble into harbour, but when crossing the bar a heavy sea broke over the coble, filled her, and before she could be cut away, nearly dragged the Life-boat on to the rocks. From a very dangerous position the boat was skilfully manoeuvred into safety, but the coble was lost. — Expense of service, 2*l.* 12*s.*

Jan. 22. — MONTROSE, FORFARSHIRE. — Sarah Jane Turner Life-boat. — About 6 A.M. the wind suddenly veered to S.E., and increased to a gale, causing the sea to rise rapidly, so much so, that some of the fishing fleet which had gone off to the fishing grounds the previous evening were unable to return. Shortly after 7 A.M. the No. 1 Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the bar, where she stood by the boats until all were in safety. Some very narrowly escaped disaster, but happily no life was lost. — Expense of service, 12*l.* 9*s.*

Jan. 22. — WHITBY, YORKSHIRE. — John Fielden Life-boat. — The No. 2 Life-boat was launched at 8 A.M. in an E.S.E. gale and heavy sea, to the assistance of the fishing-boats Margaret and Jane and Priscilla, of Filey, and rescued the crews of eight men. The boats came into the roads being unable to make the harbour on account of the heavy sea on the bar. They remained under sail for a considerable time with the Life-boat in attendance, but when the tide turned it was necessary to abandon them. The boats were anchored with a view to their riding out the gale if possible, and the crews were taken into the Life-boat, which landed them about noon.—Expense of service, 17l. 15s. 6d.

Jan. 22.—STAITHES, YORKSHIRE.—Reserve Life-boat.—As the return of the local cobsles from the fishing-grounds was attended with considerable risk, due to the strong E.S.E. gale which had suddenly arisen, the Life-boat was launched at 7.30 A.M. to assist them. The sea on the bar was very rough, and as each boat crossed it the Life boat was ready to save the crew should disaster overtake the craft. By noon all the boats were in safety and the Life-boat returned ashore and was placed at moorings.—Expense of service, 14l. 15s.

Jan. 22.—HOLY ISLAND, NORTH-UMBERLAND.—Grace Darling Life-boat.—Seven of the fishing-boats belonging to Holy Island were at sea fishing when the S.E. wind increased to a gale, and the sea became very heavy. At 8.30 A.M. the Life-boat was launched, manned by a scratch crew, most of the regular crew being in the fishing-boats. She stood by the boats as they crossed the bar, and although several had very narrow escapes all managed to regain safety. The women of the village gave valuable help in assisting to launch the Life-boat.—Expense of service, 12l. 1s. 6d.

Jan. 22.—SALTBURN, YORKSHIRE.—Mary Batger Life-boat.—Six of the cobsles belonging to Staithes were endangered when off Saltburn by a sudden gale, and at about 10 o'clock in the morning the Life-boat was launched. She remained afloat for about three hours until all were in safety, she then returned to Saltburn and was rehoused.—Expense of service, 21l. 6s.

Jan. 22.—TOTLAND BAY, ISLE OF WIGHT.—Robert Fleming Life-boat.—The ketch Effort, of Southampton, stranded on the Shingle Bank during a N.E. gale, and the heavy seas made a clean breach over her. At 5.30 P.M. the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the assistance of the five persons on board. On nearing the bank the Coxswain anchored the boat and veered down as near as possible to the wreck, a line was thrown to the men, and by this means they were hauled into the Life-boat. It was intensely cold and the rescued men suffered greatly from the exposure, a boy being almost in a state of collapse when landed.—Expense of service, 25l. 9s.

Jan. 22.—WINCHELSEA, SUSSEX.—John William Dudley Life-boat.—At 8.30 P.M. the Coastguard at Rye Harbour reported that a vessel in the bay was making distress signals. Without delay the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the craft, which proved to be the ketch Lord Tennyson, of London. It was found that in the prevailing E. by S. gale her sails had blown away, that the steering gear had broken and that the sea was breaking over her. With great difficulty the three men on board were rescued, together with their dog, the crew being in a very exhausted state from the severe cold. The sea being too heavy for the Life-boat to attempt to return to Winchelsea, the Coxswain made for Hastings, where the rescued men were handed over to the Shipwrecked Mariners Society. It was then past 11 P.M., the Life-boat was therefore made secure for the night and her crew provided with food and lodging. The next morning the weather was too severe to admit of the Life-boat being taken back to her station, the crew therefore went home and returned for the boat when the weather moderated. The cold was so great at the time of this service that the wet clothes of the men who launched the Life-boat were frozen upon them when returning home.—Expense of service, 79l. 6s. 9d.

Jan. 22.—HARTLEPOOL, DURHAM.—Horatio Brand Life-boat.—During the night the s.s. Pernambuco, of Liverpool, with a cargo of coal from Hartlepool to Portsmouth, struck heavily on the Spit Rock, Hartlepool, as she was proceeding to sea. She got off, but as she was found to be making water rapidly was put about, and on making for the harbour she again struck the Spit Rock. Two tugs went out to her, but failed to move her, giving up the attempt at 11.30 P.M. Ten minutes later the vessel made signals of distress and at 12.15 on the morning of the 23rd January the No. 3 Life-boat was launched to assist her. The Life-boat proceeded alongside, and in response to the request of several of the crew to be landed, nine men were taken into the Life-boat, which conveyed them ashore.—Expense of service, 30*l.* 1*s.*

The Life-boat then returned to the steamer and stood by her throughout the night. At 9 o'clock she assisted the tugs in another attempt to get the vessel off, but without success. Shortly after noon, as the tide was falling, both tugs and Life-boat returned to harbour. During the afternoon the Life-boat again put off to the vessel and took out a large number of men, who, together with the Life-boat men, jettisoned a quantity of the cargo, and at 10.30 P.M. the steamer was successfully floated and taken into safety.—Property salvage case.

Jan. 24. — CAISTER, NORFOLK. — Covent Garden Life-boat.—At 9 P.M. a vessel was observed on the Barber Sands. The crew of the No. 1 Life-boat were mustered, and in very cold snowy weather the boat was launched. The wind was moderate, but the sea was heavy on the sands. On reaching the vessel the master declined any assistance. The Life-boat remained near at hand in case it should become necessary to rescue the crew. At 4 A.M., on the rising tide, the vessel floated, and the crew being no longer in any danger the Life-boat returned ashore. The vessel was the trawler Successor, of Lowestoft, bound to the fishing grounds at the time of the accident.—Expense of service, 37*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*

Jan 26. — WALTON-ON-THE-NAZE, ESSEX.—James Stevens No. 14 Life-boat.—At 7.35 A.M. the Gunfleet Light-house commenced to fire guns signifying that a vessel was on the sands, and within ten minutes the Life-boat was on her way to help those on board. The Life-boat had recently been fitted with a motor engine, which on this occasion was used for the first time to perform a service. With the exception of a little water getting into the clutch it was reported to have worked satisfactorily. On reaching the vessel—the schooner Demaris, of Goole, bound from London to Hull—the master asked the Coxswain to stand by the vessel, and about 10.30 A.M. she was successfully floated on the flowing tide. No further assistance being required the Life-boat left for Walton, arriving shortly after noon.—Expense of service, 13*l.* 16*s.* 6*d.*

Jan. 28.—RUNSWICK, YORKSHIRE.—Cape of Good Hope Life-boat.—During a strong westerly gale and rough sea two cobsles were observed in the bay, one coble towing the other. As the weather was very bad the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the disabled coble, which had broken her rudder, and rendered valuable assistance in towing her ashore.—Expense of service, 13*l.* 4*s.*

Jan. 30.—FLAMBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE.—Matthew Middlewood Lifeboat.—The barquentine Latona, of Portsmouth, whilst bound from Portsmouth to Sunderland, stranded on the Smithic Sand. A whole gale was blowing from the north with a heavy sea running, and the weather was very cold with snow. It was 9.30 P.M. when the vessel stranded, and signals of distress were at once made. In response, the No. 2 Life-boat was launched and made for the vessel. She was found in a very dangerous position, her anchors having dragged. The crew of eight men were rescued and the vessel left with her anchors down.—Expense of service, 28*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

Next morning it was seen that the vessel had not broken up, and at the request of the captain the Life-boat was launched at 8 A.M. to try and save her. Both the crew and the Life-boat men went aboard and tried to get the anchors, but the windlass broke. The anchors were therefore slipped and eventually the vessel was floated and taken to Bridlington Harbour.—Property salvage case.

Jan. 30.—SOUTHWOLD, SUFFOLK.—Rescue Life-boat.—During a strong northerly gale the s.s. Cedric, of Landskrona, brought up in Southwold Bay, and next morning signalled that she wanted a doctor, or a boat to land a man who had met with an accident. There being too much sea on the beach, and the weather being too bad to launch a shore boat, the Life-boat was launched and took a doctor to the steamer. On getting alongside, it was found that the man—a Russian Finn—who had crushed his hand very badly, was injured too severely to be treated on board. He was therefore brought ashore in the Life-boat and taken to the hospital.—Expense of service, 18l. 3s. 9d.

JAN. 31—FEB. 1.—SEATON CAREW and HARTLEPOOL, DURHAM.—Charles Ingleby and Iminster Life-boats.—A terrible disaster, involving the loss of several lives, mostly Lascars, took place at the mouth of the River Tees. The s.s. Clavering, of London, a large vessel of upwards of 3,300 tons, left Middlesboro' at 4.15 A.M., bound for Japan with a general cargo, and shortly after 6 A.M. as she approached the sea she encountered the full force of the fierce northerly gale, and when near the North Gare breakwater she stranded. In a short time she was being swept from stem to stern by heavy seas. On the information reaching Seaton Carew, the Life-boat was transported to a suitable launching place, and after two attempts reached the steamer. Fifteen of the crew were taken aboard the Life-boat and landed without loss of time.

The Life-boat immediately started again to reach the vessel, but the tide by this time had begun to flow, and in spite of all their efforts the boat could not get alongside. The crew about this time became exhausted, and the boat was therefore taken up the river and shortly after noon moored in a convenient position to make another attempt to reach the imperilled men on the ebb tide. At about 2 P.M. several pilots came over from West Hartlepool and expressed their readiness to make an attempt to go to the assistance of the men on the wreck. At 3.30 they left in tow of a tug which took them as far as practicable, but it was absolutely impossible for them to do anything against the wind and sea, and after every effort they were reluctantly obliged to return.

About this time a boat put off from the Clavering, but before she could proceed far she was swamped. Some of the men who had been in her were picked up by tugs, two men being drowned. In the meanwhile news of the disaster had reached Hartlepool, and at 2 P.M. it was decided to send the Hartlepool No. 1

Life-boat Iminster to render what assistance they could. By many helpers the boat was dragged on her carriage to the main road where six horses belonging to the Corporation were attached.

Seaton Carew was reached about 5.30 P.M., where after a consultation it was decided to wait until the tide commenced to ebb before further efforts were made. Between 9 and 10 P.M. both the Life-boats left for the ill-fated vessel. For three hours the crew persisted in their struggle to reach the wreck. Twice they got within speaking distance, only to be washed back. The Hartlepool boat then burnt a white light to ascertain if anyone was still alive on the vessel, as the seas were washing completely over her. Shouts were heard and a desperate effort was made, but to reach those on board was beyond the power of the Life-boat men. Once more the work of rescue had to be abandoned and the boats returned to moorings shortly before 2 A.M.

Undaunted by the difficulties of their task the brave Life-boat men, whose courage and endurance was deserving of the highest praise, waited till daylight, and at 8 A.M. both Life-boats again left for the wreck. Fortunately the weather had moderated slightly and this time their exertions were crowned with success. Twenty-four men still survived their terrible ordeal, but all were thoroughly exhausted from cold and exposure. From the time the steamer struck until rescued they had been repeatedly drenched by the breaking seas and exposed to the bitter wind accompanied by a keen frost. With all despatch the unfortunate men were transferred to the Life-boats and conveyed into safety, everything possible being done for their comfort. It was then ascertained that several of the Lascar crew, who were but scantily clad, had succumbed and had been washed off the wreck. The work of the Life-boats was completed about 1 P.M., and during the afternoon the Hartlepool Life-boat was taken back to her station.

During these long and trying services the Honorary Secretaries at both Seaton Carew and Hartlepool were indefatigable, doing all that was possible, and the Committee of Management at their next meeting following specially thanked them for their exertions.

The Silver Medal of the Institution was conferred upon SHEPHERD SOTHERAN, Coxswain Superintendent of the Hartlepool Life-boat, and the Second Service clasp on JOHN FRANKLIN, Coxswain Superintendent of the Seaton Carew boat, the latter already holding the Silver Medal, in recognition of their gallant conduct and repeated efforts on this occasion.—Expense of services, Seaton Carew Life-boat, 95*l.* 8*s.*; Hartlepool Life-boat, 93*l.* 5*s.* 5*d.*

Feb. 1.—ILFRACOMBE, DEVONSHIRE.—Co-operator No. 2 Life-boat.—At about 1 A.M. the Coastguard called the Coxswain of the Life-boat and reported that a vessel was making signals of distress near the Bull Point. The Life-boat was at once launched, and proceeded to the place indicated, where they found the ketch Bingdove, of Bristol, aground. The Life-boat men at once set to work to save the ketch, and in this they fortunately succeeded. The ketch and her crew of four hands were taken safely to Ilfracombe. The weather during this service was moderate.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 3*s.* 6*d.*

Feb. 8.—CRESSWELL, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Ellen and Eliza Life-boat.—At about 2 A.M. the ship Hemanos, of Lillesand, bound to Leith with a cargo of guano, was reported ashore about two miles to the northward of Cresswell and firing signals of distress. The weather was thick and the southerly wind blowing freshly. The crew of the Life-boat were at once summoned and the boat launched. On arrival the crew gave valuable assistance in running out kedge anchors, and eventually the vessel was refloated and able to proceed to Leith in tow of a tug.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 10.—MARGATE, KENT.—Civil Service No. 1 Life-boat.—During a dense fog with a moderate S.S.W. breeze and a moderate sea, a large four-masted steamer—the Coronel, of Krägero—ran on to the Longnose Rock. The crew of the No. 2 Life-boat were called, and with all despatch the Life-boat proceeded to the steamer. The Life-boat men boarded her, and the captain at once engaged them to save his vessel if possible. As the tide was on the steamer's broadside, anchors were run out to prevent her going further on to the rocks, and in the evening, when the tide made, the Life-boat men, with the assistance of a tug, succeeded in refloating the steamer, which proceeded on her voyage to Barry Dock.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 11.—KESSINGLAND, SUFFOLK.—St. Paul Life-boat.—Flares were observed by the Coastguard watchman at 3.30 A.M. from a vessel apparently ashore on the West Barnard Sands. There was a strong S.S.W. wind blowing, and a heavy sea was running, while the weather was bitterly cold. Instructions were given for the No. 2 Life-boat to be launched, which was done very smartly. The vessel proved to be the smack Herald, of Ramsgate. She was leaking very badly and her crew of three hands were waiting to be taken off. They were transferred to the Life-boat and the Coxswain decided, on account of the weather, to make for Lowestoft, where he landed them. A tug was then engaged to take the Life-boat home, but on the way she again visited the scene of the wreck to see if it would be possible, with the assistance of the tug, to save the smack. On arrival however it was found that the vessel was totally submerged and beginning to break up. The boat therefore made for home, Kessingland being reached during the morning.—Expense of service, 37*l.*

Feb. 11.—CROMER AND PALLING, NORFOLK.—Louisa Heartwell and Hearts of Oak Life-boats.—At about 4.30 P.M. the Cromer Life-boat and the Palling No. 2 Life-boat went off to the Haisbro' Sands in response to a message from the light vessel that a steamer was ashore. The sea was rather choppy and the weather foggy, with a fresh W.N.W. breeze. Both boats were promptly launched, and the Cromer boat reached the vessel about 7 P.M., the Palling boat arriving about an hour later. The vessel proved to be the steamer Abara, of London, bound from the Tyne to Piræus, with a cargo of coal. The Life-boats lay alongside until midnight, when it was considered advisable to rescue the crew. There were twenty-four men on board, and they were equally divided between the two Life-boats, which at the request of the master remained in the vicinity of the vessel until daylight, in case it should be possible to get her off the sand. At about 7 o'clock in the morning it was seen that the steamer was a total wreck; the Life-boats therefore left for home, arriving in a blinding snowstorm. This was an excellent and very useful service, and the Life-boat men had a very trying time, being exposed to the extreme cold for upwards of sixteen hours. — Expense of service, Cromer, 54l. 1s.; Palling, 63l. 12s. 6d.

Feb. 12.—POLKERRIS, CORNWALL.—James William and Caroline Courtney Life-boat.—When the brigantine Ade-laide, of Fowey, with a cargo of coal for Par, was anchored in Par Bay a S.S.W. gale sprang up. The vessel dragged her anchors, losing one and finally bringing up in shallow water, close to rocks, near the entrance to Par Harbour. In the early morning at low water she took the ground and commenced to bump heavily. Signals were made, and in response the Life-boat was launched at 2.30 A.M. As the vessel floated with the rising tide the crew of six men would not leave her, but the Captain asked the Life-boat Coxswain and crew to stand by him, which they did. Later the weather moderated, and at 5 A.M., when nearly high water, the Life-boat signalled for further assistance, and a tug came from Fowey. About 7 A.M. she took the vessel in tow, but as she was leaking badly the Coxswain put four Life-boat men on board, and they assisted to take her to Fowey, where she was safely docked. — Expense of service, 27l. 12s.

Feb. 12.—MOELFRE, ANGLESEY.—Star of Hope Life-boat.—At about 3 A.M. signals of distress were observed from a vessel on the rocks to the S.W. of Moelfre, and without loss of time, the Life-boat was launched to the assistance of the men on board. On reaching her, the three men were rescued, and very shortly afterwards the mast went by the board, and she became a total wreck. The vessel, which was the smack Dinas, had been purchased only three days previously by a Moelfre man. — Expense of service, 25l. 19s. 6d.

Feb. 13.—MARGATE, KENT.—Civil Service No. 1 Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at about 4 A.M. in a N.N.W. gale and heavy sea in answer to signals of distress from a vessel on the Walpole Rock. The schooner Perseverance, of Fowey, was found ashore in the breakers and her crew of five hands were anxious to leave her, they were therefore taken into the Life-boat and landed at 6.30 A.M.—Expense of service, 24l. 13s.

At 8 A.M., there being a tug in the roads, the Captain asked if there was any chance of saving the schooner, and as the Life-boat men considered it might be possible on the flowing tide with the assistance of a tug, the Life-boat was again launched, taking the vessel's crew with them. The tug, at their request, undertook the task and she and the Life-boat again made for the schooner. On reaching her it was found that the sea was making a clean breach over her, but the Life-boat having obtained communication, a tow rope was secured to the tug, and by their united efforts the Perseverance was eventually saved.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 13.—FISHGUARD, PEMBROKE-SHIRE.—Reserve Life-boat.—At 1.45 P.M. signals of distress were observed from the cutter Eva, of Liverpool, at anchor in a dangerous part of Fishguard Bay: she was dragging her anchors and the three men on board feared she might run ashore. It was low water at the time and the Life-boat was unable to proceed then, but as soon as it was possible she was launched and made for the cutter. At the request of the master he and his two men were taken into the Life-boat and landed. There was a strong northerly wind and the sea was moderately rough at the time. Fortunately the vessel's anchor held, after dragging a considerable way, and the cutter was saved.—Expense of service, 12l. 3s. 9d.

Feb. 13.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—The Coxswain of the No. 1 Life-boat was rung up on the telephone by the Coastguard at 8.55 P.M. and informed that the St. Nicholas Light-vessel was firing signals for a vessel in distress to the north-westward. He launched the Life-boat and a tug took her in tow. The vessel was easily seen by her flares, and the Life-boat was enabled to follow her in a stern chase as the wind and tide were rapidly driving her towards the Corton Sands. Fortunately the Life-boat reached her in time to put eight men on board, who succeeded in getting the tug's wire hawser fixed as the breakers were just astern of the vessel and from this perilous position at the neck of the sands she was saved. Subsequently she was taken into harbour by the tug and safely berthed. The vessel proved to be the ketch Swin, of Blythe, and it was entirely due to the work of the Life-boat men that she was saved, as her crew of four men were completely exhausted when the boat reached the ketch.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 14th Feb., 1907.

Voted 297*l.* to pay the expenses of assemblies of crews or launches of the following Life-boats, with the view of assisting persons on vessels in distress:—Arbroath, Bridlington Quay, Caister No. 1, Dunbar, Gorleston Nos. 1 and 2, Lowestoft No. 2, Nairn, Palling No. 2, Port Erroll and Walmer.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was also launched on service.

Voted the Silver Medal of the Institution to Mr. SHEPHERD SOTHERAN, Coxswain Superintendent of the Hartlepool No. 1 Life-boat, and the silver second service clasp to Mr. JOHN FRANKLIN, Coxswain Superintendent of the Seaton Carew Life-boat in recognition of their gallant services on the 30th January and 1st February, resulting in thirty-nine lives being saved from the s.s. Clavering, of London, totally wrecked at the mouth of the River Tees.

Also sent letters of thanks to the Honorary Secretaries at Seaton Carew and Hartlepool for their very valuable services on the above occasion.

Voted 4*l.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at Margate and Rhoscolyn.

Granted a retiring pension together with a special gratuity of 10*l.* and a certificate of service to JAMES WAITE, Coxswain Superintendent at Winterton, also a special gratuity of 200*l.* to JAMES LARNER, Assistant Coxswain at Winter-ton, on their resignation through ill-health.

Granted a pension to CHARLES HART, Bowman of the Gorleston No. 2 Life-boat, on his resignation.

Voted a gratuity of 10*l.* to E. G. TUPMAN, ex-Coxswain of the Exmouth Life-boat.

Voted 10*l.* towards the expenses of the funeral of JAMES HAYLETT, jun., Assistant Coxswain for many years at Caister.

Also defrayed the funeral expenses, amounting to 13*l.* 5*s.* 6*d.*, of the two men who unfortunately lost their lives in the Ryde Life-boat accident.

Feb. 15.—CAISTER, NORFOLK.—Covent Garden Life-boat.—About 3 o'clock in the afternoon, whilst the Life-boat men were attending the funeral of the celebrated Life-boat veteran, James Haylett, the author of the famous phrase, "Caister men never turn back," the Life-boat bell was rung, and as soon as they could with respect the crew hurried to the shed to again take up their life-saving duty.

The trawler, Francis Roberts, of Lowestoft, a perfectly new craft, had stranded on the Barber Sands with all her sails set. The weather was thick and cold and there was a strong S.S.W. breeze with a considerable amount of sea. The No. 1 Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the trawler. After ineffectual attempts to get his vessel off the master engaged the Life-boat men to assist him, and they having laid out an anchor succeeded, after two hours' work, in getting the vessel clear. The trawler was then taken to Lowestoft, three of the Life-boat crew accompanying her.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 19.—HOLYHEAD, ANGLESEY.—Duke of Northumberland Life-boat.—The steam Life-boat rescued four hands from the schooner Miss Evans, of Aberystwith, during a strong W.N.W. gale and very heavy sea. The vessel was in the outer roads when her anchor commenced to drag. The master therefore made signals of distress, and the Life-boat proceeded to her and brought the crew into safety.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*

Next day, as the schooner was still at anchor, an attempt was made by the crew to rejoin her; but although the steam Life-boat took them out the weather had not moderated sufficiently for them to remain, they therefore returned ashore.—Expense paid by owners.

Feb. 20.—RAMSEY, ISLE OF MAN.—Mary Isabella Life-boat.—At 2.15 in the afternoon distress signals were hoisted on a schooner in the bay, which was riding heavily and dragging her anchors. There was a N.N.W. gale blowing at the time and a rough sea. The Life-boat was promptly launched, proceeded to the vessel and rescued the crew of four hands, who were in an exhausted condition, having had no sleep for two days and nights. The vessel, which was the schooner Isabella, of Barrow, was left with her anchors down to ride out the gale if possible.—Expense of service, 21l. 16s.

Feb. 20.—MOELFRE, ANGLESEY.—Star of Hope Life-boat.—During a whole N.W. gale and heavy sea the schooner J. T. S., of Barrow, got into difficulties whilst at anchor in the Roads, and at 4 P.M. made signals of distress. The Life-boat was promptly launched, and was quickly alongside. Owing to the very heavy sea some difficulty was experienced in rescuing the five hands on board, but they were eventually transferred safely to the Life-boat, which then returned ashore. The dog belonging to the vessel was also saved.—Expense of service, 12l. 6s.

Feb. 20.—ST. ANNE'S, LANCASHIRE.—Nora Royds Life-boat.—A large schooner was observed making for Liverpool, and she came to anchor about five miles off St. Anne's. As there was a strong gale blowing from the north-west and a very heavy sea running, a lookout was kept by the Life-boat men throughout the night. Next morning the vessel had drifted, her sails had blown away, and she appeared to be dragging her anchors, the No. 1 Life-boat was therefore taken on her carriage along the sands to the north for about a mile and a half and launched. Good progress was made and the Life-boat was quickly alongside the schooner, which proved to be the Becca and Mary, of Beaumaris, bound from Plymouth to Liverpool with a cargo of china clay. At the request of the master the Life-boat stood by the vessel for about four hours, when a tug took her in tow for Liverpool.—Expense of service, 21l. 6s. 6d.

Feb. 21.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—The steamer Vala, of Grangemouth, whilst bound from Valencia to Hull with a cargo of oranges, was weather-bound off Gorleston. Being short of provisions they sent off a boat containing five men to procure some, but in the strong northerly gale prevailing and the tide the boat was unable to make the harbour and was carried towards the Corton Sands. This being reported by the Coastguard to the Coxswain, the No. 1 Life-boat was promptly launched, and in tow of tug proceeded after the boat, which they overhauled near the sand. As the steamer's crew were quite exhausted and the boat was half full of water they were transferred to the Life-boat, which returned to harbour as soon as possible and landed them. Later in the day, when the men had recovered, a tug took them out and with some difficulty put them on board their vessel. There was a heavy snow-storm at the time.—Expense of service, 23l. 19s. 6d.

March 3.—WALMER, KENT.—Civil Service No. 4 Life-boat.—During a dense fog a boat came ashore at Walmer and reported that a large steamer was stranded on the Goodwin Sands. The crew of the Life-boat was at once assembled and the boat launched at 4.30 P.M. For hours the boat searched the sand, but it was not until 11 o'clock that night they succeeded in finding her. The steamer was the FitzClarence, of Glasgow, a vessel of upwards of 2,000 tons register, and was bound to Dover with a cargo from South America. The services of the Life-boat men were employed to salve the vessel, and having refloated her they took her in safety to Dover with the assistance of tugs.—Property salvage case.

March 3.—MARGATE, KENT.—Eliza Harriet Life-boat.—At 10 P.M. the Coastguard received a telephone message from the Kentish Knock Light-vessel stating that a vessel was making distress signals on the Kentish Knock Sands. Within a quarter of an hour the No. 1 Life-boat was launched and on her journey—a distance of nearly twenty miles. At daylight they saw a large steamer and made for her; the Life-boat men were at once engaged to try and save her. They started to jettison the cargo of iron ore, and after working until 2 P.M. succeeded in getting her afloat. They then returned to Margate, arriving at 8.30 P.M. The steamer was the Kingford, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, and was bound from Malaga to West Hartlepool. She carried a crew of twenty-two hands.—Property salvage case.

March 5.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—The steamer Bluff, of Durban, bound from Grimsby to South Africa, where she was intended for the fishing trade, stranded on the Cross Ridge, in hazy weather, and at 5.50 the No. 1 Life-boat was launched to her assistance. On getting alongside, the master stated that he intended to try and get his vessel off at high water, and requested the Life-boat to stand by him in the meantime. With the assistance of two tugs, the vessel was refloated an hour before high water, and the services of the Life-boat being no longer wanted she returned ashore.—Expense of service, 32*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.*

March 7.—DUNGNESS, KENT.—Thomas Simcox Life-boat.—The Coxswain of the Life-boat observed signals of distress from a vessel at 8.45 P.M. during a south-westerly gale. He at once assembled the crew and launched the No. 2 Life-boat. On arrival he found the barkentine Roma, of Perna, ashore on the Newcombe Bar and making water. The master requested the Life-boat to stand by him until his vessel was refloated, and she accordingly did so. The crew then assisted to take the vessel into the roadstead, and no further help being required the boat returned ashore, arriving at 5 A.M.—Expense of service, 47*l.* 9*s.* 6*d.*

March 9.—PALLING, NORFOLK.—54*th* West Norfolk Regiment Life-boat.—About 1 A.M. the schooner Vixen of Fowey was wrecked on the beach about two and a half miles to the north of Palling. She was laden with burnt ore and was bound from London to the Tyne. The crew consisted of six hands. When she stranded the wind was blowing a strong gale from N.N.W. and the sea was very heavy. The Coastguard reported the casualty to the Coxswain of the Life-boat and with all despatch he assembled the crew and obtained horses. The No. 1 Life-boat was transported on her carriage along the beach to a suitable launching place, progress at times being delayed by the breakwaters. The boat was launched between 4 and 5 A.M., but before she could reach the wreck the mizen mast went by the board. On the boat coming alongside five of the crew were with difficulty rescued, the work in the darkness being impeded by the fallen mast and wreckage, and the mainmast threatened to fall every time the vessel rolled.

The master on getting into the Life-boat stated that there was still a man in the rigging, who could not clear himself as he was numbed and incapacitated by the cold and exposure. One of the Life-boat crew, James Pestle, Junior, boarded the wreck together with the master, and at great risk the former climbed the rigging of the tottering mast and ultimately, with some assistance from the master, got the man, who was a Russian, down. He and the master were then helped into the Life-boat, but before Pestle could regain her the sea drove the Life-boat away from the wreck. It was a considerable time before she could be worked back to the wreck, and during this time Pestle was in great danger of being washed overboard, as the seas made a clean breach over the wreck, and in addition there was considerable risk of the wreck going to pieces. Happily, however, the Life-boat got back and Pestle was rescued. The boat then returned ashore, having performed an excellent service.

The Committee of Management as a special mark of appreciation of the courage and bravery displayed by Pestle conferred on him the silver medal of the Institution and to him and to each member of the crew they granted an additional pecuniary reward.—Expense of service, 58*l.* 6*s.*

March 9.—PORTRUSH, CO. ANTRIM.—Hopwood Life-boat.—At 10.10 P.M. information was received from the Coastguard that a vessel was ashore at the mouth of the River Bann, which required assistance. The Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the place indicated, but in the darkness and heavy surf the Coxswain was unable to get alongside. He remained in the vicinity of the vessel until daylight and then boarded her. Four of the crew desired to be landed. They were therefore taken into the Life-boat which conveyed them ashore; the remainder, four in number, stopped on board to try and save the vessel. During this service the weather was thick with occasional sleet showers, the wind blew strongly from the N.W. and the sea was rough. The vessel was the steamer Loch Doon of Glasgow, and was bound from Maryport to Coleraine, with a cargo of coal.—Expense of service, 27l. 15s. 6d.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 14th March, 1907.

Voted 837l. 19s. 6d. to pay the expenses of assemblies of the crews or launches of the following Life-boats, with the view of assisting persons on vessels in distress:—Aldeburgh No. 2, Berwick-on-Tweed, Blackpool, Broadstairs, Caister No. 1, Clacton-on-Sea, Dunbar, Dungeness No. 1, Folkestone, Fraserburgh, Gorleston Nos. 1 and 3, Hasborough, Ilfracombe, Llanddwyn, Lytham, Newhaven, North Deal, Peterhead, Porthdinllaen, Selsey, Shoreham, Southend-on-Sea, Southport, Stromness, Walmer, Whitby No. 1, Winchelsea, Winterton No. 2, and Yarmouth.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was also launched, but her services were not required.

Granted a retiring pension and certificate of service to WILLIAM MOORE, Coxswain Superintendent, and a retiring pension to A. COULSON, Assistant Coxswain, on the abolition of the West Hartlepool Life-boat station.

Voted 30l. to the widow of A. BENSLEY, for many years Assistant Coxswain of Gorleston No. 2 Life-boat.

Also a gratuity of 20l. to C. H. SNELLER, for forty-nine years a member of the Life-boat crew at Caister.

March 16.—HOLYHEAD, ANGLESEY.—Duke of Northumberland Life-boat.—In the evening the S.W. wind at Holyhead is reported to have reached the force of a hurricane, and at 8.35 P.M. signals of distress were observed from the brigantine Fortuna, of Glasgow, and the ketch Esmeralda, of Milford, which were at anchor in the outer roads. The steam Life-boat was with promptness despatched to their assistance, and found that the anchors of both vessels were dragging. The crews of five hands were rescued from the Fortuna and two hands from the Esmeralda, the Life-boat then returned ashore. The sea was very rough, but happily both vessels rode out the gale in safety. The Fortuna was bound at the time from Tynemouth to Glasgow with a cargo of china clay, whilst the Esmeralda was on her way to Portmadoc laden with gunpowder.—Expense of service, 11l. 17s. 6d.

March 16.—PORTHDINLLAEN, CARNARVONSHIRE.—Barbara Fleming Life-boat. — The smack Prosperity, of Carnarvon, whilst bound in ballast from Aberayron to Carnarvon, was lying at anchor in Porthdinllaen Bay when the westerly wind increased to a whole gale. She rode heavily and at about 8.30 P.M. one of her cables parted. The Coxswain of the Life-boat observed what had happened and at once launched the boat and rescued the two men on board together with their dog. Fortunately the vessel's second anchor held and the following morning the weather moderated.—Expense of service, 24l. 10s. 6d.

March 16.—ABERSOCH, CARNARVONSHIRE.—Oldham Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched on service at 11 P.M. in answer to signals of distress made by the schooner Two Brothers, of Carnarvon. There was a whole S.S.W. gale blowing and a very heavy sea, and on arrival at the vessel it was found that she had parted one of her chains and was in danger of drifting ashore. The four men on board were rescued and landed at Penrhyndu Point. During the night the wind veered to the west and the schooner rode out the gale. At 7 A.M. the crew were able to return on board and took the schooner into Pwllheli Harbour to await the arrival of new cable and anchor. The vessel was bound for Cork at the time with a cargo of slates.—Expense of service, 30l. 17s. 6d.

March 16.—CLOGHEY, CO. DOWN.—

John Life-boat.—About 10 P.M. the wind veered to the west and increased to a gale, and half an hour later the Coast-guard reported that a ketch, which was at anchor in the bay, was making signals of distress. The crew of the Life-boat were immediately summoned and the boat was launched. On reaching the ketch the master stated that he was afraid of his cables parting and his vessel going on to the rocks. The crew of three hands were therefore taken into the Life-boat which then made for her station. On nearing the beach the surf was too heavy for them to land, and the Life-boat lay off until 2.30 in the morning, when the tide having ebbed, they were able to come ashore. The ketch was the Witch of Wave, of Belfast, trading between that port and Portaferry. When the crew were landed the vessel was still riding to her anchors.—Expense of service, 31l. 10s.

March 17, 18.—CADGWITH, COVERACK, THE LIZARD, and PORTHLEVEN, CORNWALL.—Minnie Moon, Constance Mélanie, Admiral Sir George Back, and John Francis White Life-boats.—A disaster of such magnitude as seldom occurs on the coast of the United Kingdom took place off Cornwall on the night of the 17th March. Thanks to the prompt action of the Life-boats in the neighbourhood and the splendid discipline maintained on board it was happily unattended by loss of life.

In a dense fog at 10.30 P.M. the S.S. Suevic, of Liverpool, ran on to the Maenheere Reef off the Lizard. The vessel, a White Star liner of upwards of 12,000 tons, was on her way home from Australia with five hundred and twenty-four persons on board and carried a general cargo. There was a strong S.W. wind and a heavy sea at the time. The signals of distress were speedily responded to by the Life-boats at the Lizard and Cadgwith, Admiral Sir George Back and Minnie Moon, and further aid was summoned by telephone from Coverack, Porthleven and Mullion. Two of the ship's boats were lowered and promptly filled with women and children, but fortunately the two Life-boats arrived before they had proceeded far from the steamer, as they were in great danger owing to the officers in charge having no knowledge of the rocks all around them. The Lizard Life-boat took one in tow to Polpear, where, putting a Life-boat man on board, they slipped the boat close to the beach and returned to the wreck. The other boat was picked up by the Cadgwith Life-boat, and the Honorary Secretary of that branch of the Institution, the Rev. H. Vyvyan, being on board, he jumped into the ship's boat, and, slipping the tow rope in order to allow the Life-boat to return to the vessel, successfully piloted the boat ashore through the rocky and dangerous channel. He then attempted to return to the steamer in the boat, but the ship's sailors were not strong enough and the boat was thrown upon the rocks and stove in. Happily no life was lost but the boat could not be floated. The Honorary Secretary then tried to obtain volunteers to go off in the ship's other boat, but failed; he therefore awaited the return of the Lizard Life-boat with another load of passengers, when he again proceeded to the wreck, where he assisted generally and superintended taking the passengers on board.

In the meantime the other Life-boats, Constance Mélanie and John Francis White, from Coverack and Porthleven, had arrived upon the scene, and the work of rescue was continued throughout the night. Between 3 and 4 o'clock in the morning the weather was at its worst, but neither this nor the intense darkness hindered the Life-boat men's hazardous task, and by noon the next day everyone was in safety. Of the passengers one hundred and sixty were women and children, sixty of the latter being infants under three years of age, and the whole of this number were saved without accident.

Two seamen, named GEORGE ANDERSON and WILLIAM WILLIAMS, specially distinguished themselves. They carried the children down the rope-ladders, and when the Life-boats, which were surging up and down, rose on the waves, dropped the children into the arms of the Life-boat men, who tended them until the mothers were lowered over the side and, steadied by the men, were also skilfully dropped into the boats.

The indomitable pluck and perseverance displayed by all during the service was much appreciated. Owing to the skilful handling of the boats no loss of life occurred, but when the work was over the battered condition of boats' wales and their damaged hulls were speaking testimony of the task which had been so meritoriously carried out.

The lives credited to the respective Life-boats are as follows:—

Cadgwith	227
Lizard	167
Coverack	44
Porthleven	18

The remainder, 68 in number, were conveyed in the ship's boats to tugs which were in attendance.

In addition to the monetary rewards granted to the crews and helpers, the Committee of Management granted the silver medal of the Institution to the Rev. H. VYVYAN, the Honorary Secretary at Cadgwith, in recognition of his gallant and arduous services. A similar honour was bestowed on E. RUTTER, Coxswain Superintendent of the Cadgwith Life-boat, W. H. MITCHELL, Coxswain Superintendent, and EDWIN MITCHELL, Assistant Coxswain of the Lizard Life-boat, and special pecuniary awards were given to the crews of Coverack and Porthleven Life-boats.

To the two seamen who took such a meritorious part in the rescue the silver medal was also granted, together with a monetary reward of ten pounds. Expenses of service, Cadgwith, 131*l.* 4*s.*; Coverack, 61*l.* 16*s.*; Lizard, 145*l.* 10*s.*; Porthleven, 39*l.* 18*s.* 3*d.*

March 18.—HOPE COVE, SOUTH DEVON.—Alexandra Life-boat.—At about 2.15 A.M. the Elder Dempster steamer Jebba, of London, from Sierra Leone, with passengers, mails, and general cargo, went ashore near Bolt Tail. When the vessel stranded she ran on to the rocks close under the cliffs, and remained fast. The Life-boat was launched, and on arriving at the steamer found she was lying broadside to the shore with her outside rail under water and a heavy sea breaking over her. At each end of the steamer were rocks, making it impossible for the Life-boat to get on the land side of her, and to take off the passengers and crew, who numbered 155, it would have been necessary to haul them by ropes through the sea. By the time the Life-boat reached the steamer, the rocket apparatus had got communication from the cliff, and was working. By this means, and ropes from the shore, all on board were, with the able assistance of the local fishermen, happily saved, the Life-boat in the meantime standing by in case her services should be wanted. The rescue operations were skilfully carried out, and shortly after all had been saved the ship filled with water.—Expense of service, 55*l.* 0*s.* 6*d.*

March 18.—ARBROATH, FORFARSHIRE.—James Stevens No. 12 Life-boat.—The steam trawler Philorth, of Dundee, left Dundee Harbour at 1.30 A.M. bound for the fishing grounds, and at 3.45 she was seen from Arbroath Harbour to run on to the rocks about one mile to the eastward, and make signals of distress. Information was at once sent to the Coxswain of the Life-boat, and at 4.5 A.M. the boat was launched. She proceeded under sails and oars towards the trawler, which was found in a very dangerous position on the rocks. A tug also proceeded to the trawler, but was unable to get close enough to get a line fast. The Life-boat offered to convey a line to the tug, but this assistance was declined by the Master. The offer to land the crew was also declined, but the cook of the vessel was at his own request taken into the Life-boat and conveyed to Arbroath. The S.S.W. wind was light at the time of this service, and the sea moderate.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.*

March 18.—NEWHAVEN, SUSSEX.—Reserve Life-boat.—During a moderate westerly gale and heavy sea information reached Newhaven at 7.25 A.M. that a steamer was ashore one mile west of Cuckmere. The Life-boat was promptly launched and proceeded to the place where they found the s.s. Newstead, of Newcastle—a large steamer of nearly 3000 tons—ashore. The Captain requested the Life-boat to stand by him, and later when two tugs arrived they ran hawsers to them, but all attempts to float the vessel failed. The Life-boat remained with the vessel until the evening of the following day, when about 7 P.M. it was decided to abandon her, and the crew of twenty-three were taken into the boat. Owing to the rough sea and the state of tide, it was impossible for the Life-boat to get to Newhaven, she therefore made for the beach, and when nearing it two of the Life-boat men swam and waded ashore with lines, and with the assistance of the onlookers the boat was pulled up on to the beach. Two men were left in charge of the boat, and the crew returned by land to Newhaven, arriving at 10.30 P.M. This was a very excellent service resulting in twenty-three lives being saved, and the endurance of the Life-boat men was severely tried, they having been on duty in cold and heavy weather continuously from 7.30 A.M. on the 18th until 10.30 P.M. on the 19th March. As the weather continued heavy a tug was sent on the 20th near to the scene of the wreck, and towed the Life-boat back to Newhaven.—Expense of service, 87l. 4s.

March 28.—WINCHELSEA, SUSSEX.—John William Dudley Life-boat.—The s.s. Swan, of Sunderland, whilst bound from Havre to the Tyne, stranded about 50 yards to the westward of Rye Harbour. There was a moderate W.S.W. gale at the time, and the sea was heavy. The coastguard watchman having reported the casualty, the Life-boat was launched. At the request of the Master the Life-boat stood by the steamer in case of accident, but on the flowing tide she succeeded in getting off under her own steam and proceeded. The Life-boat then returned ashore.—Expense of service, 39l. 18s.

March 23.—WHITBY, YORKSHIRE.—Robert and Mary Ellis Life-boat.—The fishing coble Robert and Mary had gone off fishing early in the morning, and when returning at 8.30 A.M. it was seen that her passage over the bar would be attended with considerable peril for those on board, as the sea had become very rough. The Life-boat therefore proceeded to the bar and accompanied the coble into safety, the men being wet through by the seas breaking over the boat.—Expense of service, 9l. 18s.

April 3.—WHITBY, YORKSHIRE.—Robert and Mary Ellis Life-boat.—When the fishing fleet were returning from fishing a nasty cross sea was running at the harbour entrance, caused by a strong easterly breeze which had been blowing, and the broken sea on the bar together with the ebb tide was very dangerous. The Life-boat proceeded to the bar at 10 A.M. and escorted all the cobles in. Several had very narrow escapes of being swamped, but happily all made the harbour without loss of life. The rocket apparatus was also in attendance during this service.—Expense of service, 6l. 12s.

April 4.—FILEY, YORKSHIRE.—Hollon the Second Life-boat.—At 6 A.M. nine of the cobles belonging to Filey went off fishing, in a moderate N.E. breeze. Later the sea increased very much, and at 9 A.M. one coble returned and reported the sea outside was very rough for the cobles. When the other eight cobles were seen approaching, the Life-boat was launched and escorted them into safety. In two cases life-belts were lent to the men on the cobles.—Expense of the service, 12l. 17s.

April 5.—WHITBY, YORKSHIRE.—Robert and Mary Ellis Life-boat.—A heavy broken sea on the bar prevented the majority of the fishing fleet from putting out to sea, but three of the cobles ventured out, incurring great risk and causing considerable excitement. About 1.30 two of them returned and anchored in the roads. As it was seen they were unable to regain the harbour, the No. 1 Life-boat proceeded to them and brought them in. Shortly after 4 P.M. the other coble also returned; the Life-boat again proceeded to the bar and assisted that also.—Expense of service, 6l. 12s.

April 5.—HOWTH, CO. DUBLIN.—James Stevens No. 7 Life-boat.—During a moderate S.S.E. gale a vessel was observed at 4.15 P.M. with a signal of distress flying, and as it was apparent that she required assistance, the Life-boat was sent out. The Life-boat reached the vessel about two miles to the north of Howth Harbour, heading for Baldoyle Sands. The Master stated that his vessel was sinking, there being seven feet of water in the hold, and the crew exhausted from working the pumps. The Coxswain advised him to anchor his vessel, which he did, and the crew of three men were taken into the Life-boat, which returned to harbour, arriving at 6.20 P.M.

The vessel was the smack Prosperity, of Carnarvon, bound from that port to Dundalk with a cargo of slates.—Expense of service, 6*l.* 14*s.*

Later in the evening the weather moderated, and at 10.30 P.M. the Life-boat again proceeded to the abandoned vessel and succeeded in bringing her into harbour at 1.45 A.M. next morning.—Property salvage case.

April 6.—MONTROSE, FORFARSHIRE.—Marianne Atherstone Life-boat.—At 7.15 A.M. a schooner was seen making for the harbour entrance, the wind then being south with a heavy sea on the bar, and a quarter of an hour later when the vessel had just got inside the river, the wind suddenly changed to W.S.W., driving the ship in the strong current on to the Annat Bank. As she was exposed to the full force of the sea which broke over her, it was considered desirable to send the Life-boat to her assistance. The No. 2 boat was launched, but just before she reached the vessel, which was the Marie, of Kjöge, laden with coals from Bo'ness, she managed to get clear of the bank. The Life-boat stood by her to see if any assistance was required, but finding it was not she returned to her station.—Expense of service, 8*l.* 10*s.*

April 7.—CLACTON-ON-SEA, ESSEX.—Albert Edward Life-boat.—The ketch Sabine, of Treguier, when bound from Colchester to London, stranded on the Buxey Sand. The northerly wind was moderate and the sea smooth, but as she was on a lee shore with the tide falling it was considered advisable to launch the Life-boat. The assembly signal was fired at about 11 A.M. and within twelve minutes the Life-boat was on her way to the ketch. Assistance was offered to get the vessel off, but this the Master declined. The Life-boat then stood by the ketch until the tide flowed sufficiently to float her, and her crew, having got her clear of the sands, took her back to the River Colne. The Life-boat arrived at Clacton at 6 P.M.—Expense of service, 10*l.* 10*s.*

April 8.—HUNA, CAITHNESS-SHIRE.—Ida Life-boat.—At 3.30 A.M. a messenger arrived at Huna and reported that a vessel was ashore and burning flares in the direction of Duncansby Head. There was a strong E.S.E. wind blowing with a rough sea and the weather was cold and wet. The crew of the Life-boat were assembled and the Life-boat was promptly on her way to the scene of the casualty. On nearing the vessel the Life-boat was anchored and veered down to her. She proved to be the trawler Ardgowan, of Glasgow, bound for Aberdeen with a cargo of fish. The Life-boat stood by to see if it would be possible to save the trawler, but finding that nothing could be done the crew of ten men were saved and taken to Huna.—Expense of service, 23*l.* 3*s.*

April 11.—KESSINGLAND, SUFFOLK.—Bolton Life-boat.—The No. 1 Life-boat was launched at 12.30 A.M. in response to distress signals from a vessel on the West Barnard Sands. On reaching the sands the tug Java, of London, was found stranded and the Life-boat men were at once engaged to save her if possible. Anchors were laid out, and after a great deal of hard work and risk, as during this time the N.N.E. wind and sea had increased considerably, the vessel was floated on the flowing tide. The services of the Life-boat being no longer required she returned to her station at 6.30 A.M.—Property salvage case.

April 11.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Ada Lewis Life-boat.—In consequence of the heavy state of the sea fears were entertained for the safety of the fishing coble Louisa, which had been out fishing all night, more especially as it was seen that landing would be dangerous. At 5 A.M. the Life-boat was launched and remained in readiness to assist the coble when she returned, but the coble had gone very much farther than usual, and it was not until the afternoon that she was observed making for port, when the Life-boat took her in tow and brought her safely in. The Life-boat men had an exhausting time on this occasion, as they took neither food nor water in the boat and for ten hours were without either.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 8*s.* 3*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 11th April, 1907.

Voted 287*l.* 18*s.* 6*d.* to pay the expenses of the following Life-boat launches or assemblies of crews, with the view of assisting persons on vessels in distress:—Aldeburgh No. 2, Broadstairs, Clacton-on-Sea, Gorleston No. 3, Greencastle, Hornsea, Kingstown No. 2, Margate No. 2, Mullion, New Brighton No. 2 (steam), Pakefield, Runswick, Salcombe, Shoreham and Tenby.

Voted the Silver Medal of the Institution to the Rev. H. VYVYAN, Honorary Secretary of the Cadgwith Branch of the Institution, to Mr. EDWARD RUTTER, Coxswain Superintendent of the Cadgwith Life-boat, and to Mr. WILLIAM E. MITCHELL, Coxswain Superintendent of the Lizard Life-boat, for their gallant services in connection with the rescue of the crew and passengers of the White Star steamer Suevic, wrecked at the Lizard on the night of the 17th–18th March.

The Silver Medal and 5*l.* each were also awarded to GEORGE ANDERSON and WILLIAM WILLIAMS, two seamen belonging to the Suevic, who specially distinguished themselves during the work of rescue.

Granted a retiring pension and certificate of service to J. F. MOORE, Coxswain Superintendent of the Southend-on-Sea Life-boat, also a pension and certificate of service to BERNARD HAMILTON, Coxswain Superintendent of the Blackrock Life-boat, and a pension to EDWARD BAINES, Signalman at Blakeney, on their resigning their respective posts. Voted 150*l.* to the widow and orphans of HENRY C. SQUIRE, Coxswain Superintendent of the Exmouth Life-boat, who suddenly expired whilst assisting to launch the Life-boat for exercise on the 16th March, 1907.

Also 99*l.* 18*s.* 10*d.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at Cullercoats, Hastings and Llanddulas.

April 11.—STAITHES, YORKSHIRE.—Reserve Life-boat.—The wind suddenly increased to the strength of a gale, and the sea became very heavy, when the fishing cobbles were at sea. As their return would be attended with considerable risk to those on board, the Life-boat was launched at noon and stood by them until all were again in safety.—Expense of service, 9*l.* 4*s.*

April 13.—LOWESTOFT, SUFFOLK.—Stock Exchange Life-boat.—At 3.45 A.M. the Coxswain of the Life-boat was called by the Coastguard, who stated that they thought a vessel was ashore. The Coxswain at once proceeded to the beach, but he was unable to distinguish anything and returned home, but he was at once called out again, as the Coastguard had located something on the Newcome Sands.

The crew were at once summoned, and the No. 2 Life-boat left in tow of a tug, there being a very strong E.N.E. wind. On reaching the wreck it was seen that the fore topmast had gone and that three of the crew were clinging to the foremast, whilst two others were in the water on the wreckage. The boat was anchored and veered down to the ship, a line was made fast, and the boat pulled near to the vessel. An endeavour was then made to save the two men in the water, but it was impossible owing to the wreckage, being athwart the boat, and whilst waiting for an opportunity to reach them a heavy sea broke over the wreckage washing them away, and nothing more was seen of them. Just about this time the main topmast was carried away and fell right across the Life-boat, but happily no one was hurt. The wreckage was cut away, and the Life-boat was then pulled close in under the mast, and the men in the rigging dropped into the boat and were saved.

Owing to the heaviness of the sea the Coxswain was obliged to cut the cable and lines and get clear of the wreck as quickly as possible. The rescued men were all in a state of exhaustion due to cold and exposure, and had it not been for the stimulants administered in the boat, would probably have collapsed. Sail was made, and with all despatch they were conveyed to Lowestoft, which was reached about 6 A.M.

The vessel was the schooner Caledonia, of Faversham, bound from Seaham to Whitstable with coal, and one of the crew stated that when she stranded on the sands it was so thick with rain that all shore lights were obscured. The seas commenced to break over the vessel, and all hope of being saved had been given up.—Expense of service, 26*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*

April 17.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Ada Lewis Life-boat.—A N.N.E. gale suddenly sprang up off Newbiggin whilst the fishing cobles were at sea, causing the sea to become very rough and rendering their return very risky. The Life-boat was launched soon after noon, and accompanied some of them into safety. In one instance a coble was struck by a heavy sea and nearly swamped.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 5*s.* 6*d.*

April 20.—FORMBY, LANCASHIRE.—John and Henrietta Life-boat.—At about 10 A.M. a ketch was seen to miss stays and run aground on Taylors Bank, and as the cone had just been hoisted denoting a gale might be expected, the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to her. When still about 500 yards from the ketch, she succeeded in getting off and proceeded. The Life-boat then made for the shrimper Marjorie, of Liverpool, which had also stranded and was in rather a bad position. On reaching her they found that there was only one man aboard. Assistance was given him, and an anchor laid out, by which means she was subsequently floated. The Life-boat then returned to her station.—Expense of service, 17*l.*

April 22.—BERWICK-ON-TWEED, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Matthew Simpson Life-boat.—During a heavy gale from S.W. the yacht Bittern, of Berwick, was observed being rapidly driven seawards. The gale was increasing in violence, and it was considered necessary to launch the Life-boat to save the three men on board. By this time the yacht was out of sight, but a careful bearing having been taken of her last position, the Life-boat followed her under a double-reefed foresail. When clear of the land the sea was very heavy, and frequently broke on board. About 7.45 P.M., just before dark, the yacht was sighted, evidently in a bad plight and shipping water. Two of her occupants were taken into the Life-boat, and two Life-boat men were placed on board with the third. She was then taken in tow by the Life-boat, which made for land. Half an hour later a tug came up and offered to tow them in, and this was accepted, the harbour being reached about 10.30 P.M., after a very wet passage.—Expense of service, 31*l.* 2*s.*

April 27.—SKEGNESS, LINCOLNSHIRE.—Samuel Lewis Life-boat.—During a fresh N.N.W. breeze and moderate sea, the brig Commerce, of Yarmouth, stranded on the Knock Sand, and in response to her signals of distress, the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to her. On arrival they found that she was bound from Lowestoft to Boston in ballast. The Assistant Coxswain of the Life-boat went on board and the Life-boat stood by while steps were taken to float the vessel. At flood tide they succeeded, and the brig continued on her way to Boston, the Life-boat men accompanying her.—Property salvage case.

May 2.—NORTH DEAL, KENT.—Charles Dibdin Life-boat.—The Coastguard called up the Coxswain of the Life-boat at 6 A.M., and reported that a large ship was ashore on the Main, near Sandown Castle. The crew were promptly assembled and the Life-boat launched in a heavy surf and very rough sea, there being a strong S.W. gale at the time. On nearing the vessel, which was the Wilhelmine, of Hamburg, the Life-boat anchored and veered down to her. The Master declined any assistance, but asked the Life-boat to stand by him until high tide, in case they should fail to float. The Life-boat accordingly did so, and the vessel having floated she returned ashore.—Expense of service, 10*l.* 5*s.*

May 2.—KINGSDOWNE, KENT.—Charles Hargrave Life-boat.—The Coxswain of the Life-boat was called by a boatman in the early morning as the South Goodwin Light-vessel was firing signals. He at once proceeded to the beach, and seeing a large ship in dangerous proximity to the Goodwin Sands, summoned the crew and launched the Life-boat. The vessel proved to be the ship Lonsdale, of Liverpool, bound from Newcastle to Chili. They found her riding very heavily close to the sands, having already lost one anchor, and her sails had blown away; the Life-boat men were engaged to try and get the vessel clear, and this they succeeded in doing during the evening, returning ashore at midnight.—Property salvage case.

May 2.—HOLYHEAD, ANGLESEY.—Joseph Whitworth Life-boat.—Early in the morning, during a W.S.W. gale, a small ketch was observed at anchor close to a lee shore in Church Bay, and at 10 o'clock she hoisted a signal of distress. A steamer, making for Holyhead, was seen proceeding to her with the object of towing her out of danger, but they were not successful in getting a hawser to the ketch, and as the distress signal remained flying, the Coxswain decided to launch the No. 2 Life-boat. On reaching the ketch, which was the Marjorie, of Milford, the master stated he did not wish to leave his vessel should it be possible to save her; the Life-boat therefore conveyed a hawser to the steamer, and six Life-boat men having been placed on board the ketch to weigh the anchor, she was towed into Holyhead Harbour.—Property salvage case.

May 6.—SEAHAM, DURHAM.—Skynner Life-boat.—At 2 P.M. the steamer Queen Louise, of Glasgow, carrying a crew of twenty-nine persons, stranded on the rocks half a mile south of Seaham. There was a moderate N.E. wind blowing with a heavy ground swell, and this prevented any shore-boat getting near the steamer, as she was surrounded by rocks, on which the seas broke heavily. Towards evening the Life-boat was launched, and proceeded to her, and at the captain's request ran ropes to the tugs, as they also were unable to get near to the steamer. The seas frequently broke over the Life-boat, but she cleared herself well, and about 8.30 P.M. the tug succeeded in towing the steamer clear. The boat remained with the vessel until it was ascertained that the damage was not serious, and then returned ashore, arriving at 9.30 P.M. The Honorary Secretary of the Branch, Captain JOHN SMITH, was on board the Life-boat during this service, and was specially thanked by the Committee of Management for his valuable co-operation.—Property salvage case.

May 8.—MARGATE, KENT.—Civil Service No. 1 Life-boat.—The brigantine Antje, of Warsingsfehn, whilst bound from London to Plymouth with a cargo of cement, stranded in moderate weather, on the north-west part of the "Shingles." Her position was perceived, and as the weather looked threatening it was decided to launch the No. 2 Life-boat to her assistance. The boat was launched at 1.45 P.M., and the master asked them to stand by him. They did so accordingly, but just before high water the wind changed to W.N.W. and increased to a whole gale; the Life-boat men were therefore engaged to lay out anchors and if possible get the vessel off the sands. With the help of the anchors the vessel was floated, and taken by the Life-boat men into Margate Roads, where, the wind having moderated and backed to S.W., she was left at anchor. The Life-boat got back to her station at 3.30 the next morning.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 11th May, 1907.

Voted 238*l.* 1*s.* 3*d.* to pay the expenses of assemblies of crews or launching the following Life-boats, &c., with the view of rendering assistance to persons on distressed vessels:—Broadstairs, Dover, Harwich (steam), Llandudno, The Mumbles, Palling No. 2, Peel, Shoreham, Southend-on-Sea, Walmer, Walton-on-Naze, Wexford and Winterton No. 2.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was also launched, but her services were not required.

Voted the Silver Medal to Mr. EDWIN MITCHELL, Assistant Coxswain of the Lizard Life-boat, and an additional pecuniary reward to the crews of the Coverack and Porthleven Life-boats for their excellent services in connection with the wreck of the White Star steamer Suevic.

The Committee specially recognised the very valuable services of the REVEREND T. S. TREATOR, Honorary Secretary of the Goodwin Sands and Downs Branch on his resignation after upwards of twenty-six years' service.

Voted a retiring pension and certificate of service to H. STAPLETON, Coxswain Superintendent of the Bude Life-boat.

Also a binocular glass to the late Coxswain of the Blackrock Life-boat.

Granted 18*l.* 15*s.* to Life-boat men at Aldeburgh, Arbroath, Broadstairs and Lynnmouth for injuries sustained in the Life-boat service.

Granted 5*l.* to the widow of GEORGE MARLOW, who for many years was a member of the crew of the North Deal Life-boat.

Also 8*l.* to the widow of W. ROBSON, late Bowman of the North Sunderland Life-boat.

Voted a special gratuity of 10*l.* to an old Life-boat man at Staithes.

May 20.—CAISTER and YARMOUTH, NORFOLK.—Covent Garden and John Burch Life-boats.—At about 7.45 P.M. two of H.M. Torpedo-boat Destroyers, the Cherwell and Eitrick, when near the Barber Sand steaming northward, ran aground. The weather was moderate, but the ships being unable to get clear fired signals for assistance. The Life-boats from Caister and Yarmouth, together with tugs, promptly responded. The former boat went to the Cherwell and the latter to the Eitrick, and both rendered valuable assistance in getting the vessels off, there being no less than seventy persons on board each ship.—Property salvage case.

May 24.—BOULMER, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Melissent Life-boat.—The steam-trawler Preston, of Pittinweem, bound for North Shields with fish, stranded about 1.20 A.M. to the south-east of the coast-guard station. The Life-boat was immediately launched in answer to her distress signals and proceeded to her. She stood by the trawler until 3 A.M., but the captain and crew declining to leave their vessel, as they hoped to get her off during the day, the Life-boat returned ashore and was re-housed. At the time of the accident the night was very thick and dark, with a moderate sea and moderate N.E. wind. The stranding was apparently due to the ship's compass being out of order.—Expense of service, 20*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.*

May 25.—RHOSCOLYN, ANGLESEY.—Ramon Cabrera Life-boat.—During foggy weather the schooner Princess of Thule, of Chester, bound from London to Liverpool, stranded on the Fish Rock, Treaddur Bay. At 4.30 A.M. the Life-boat was launched to assist her, but just as she got alongside the vessel floated.

The Life-boat then stood by her, as she was leaking, until well clear of the rocks and on her way to Holyhead, which was reached in safety.—Expense of service, 21*l.* 12*s.*

May 28.—FOLKESTONE, KENT.—Leslie Life-boat.—In a strong easterly breeze during the night, the mast of the lugger E. M. L., of Folkestone, was carried away in a heavy squall. The crew then rigged up a jury mast and proceeded towards Folkestone Harbour, but were unable to make it. Finding they were on a lee shore they anchored and signalled for assistance. At 9.30 A.M. on the 29th May the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to her. As the crew of three hands were exhausted they were taken into the Life-boat and landed, three Life-boatmen being left in charge of the lugger. The Life-boat then returned to the lugger and towed her into safety.—Expense of service, 9*l.* 13*s.*

May 30.—PORTHLEVEN, CORNWALL.—John Francis White Life-boat.—The Coastguard reported at 3.10 A.M. that a vessel was ashore on the Gunwalloe Beach and within twenty minutes' time the Life-boat was on her way to assist her. The weather was moderate but thick at the time. On reaching the vessel it was found that she had just got clear, but at the request of the captain one of the Life-boat men was placed on board to pilot the vessel to Penzance. It appeared that the ship had missed stays and struck the ground aft, damaging her rudder, but it could not be ascertained what further damage had been sustained. The vessel was the industrial training ship Polly, of Bristol, a brigantine of 200 tons, and she was cruising with about fifty persons on board.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 4*s.*

June 1.—SCARBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE.—Queensbury Life-boat.—The Coxswain of the Life-boat when returning from the fishing-ground at 8 A.M. experienced very great difficulty in making the harbour and incurred considerable risk in the prevailing E.S.E. gale. He therefore launched the Life-boat and proceeded to the coble Claudia which was then in sight making for the harbour. As the sea was very heavy for the coble the two men were transferred to the Life-boat which returned ashore with the coble in tow. Two other cobbles, the Ferland and Lady Adeline, each containing two men, were also saved in a similar manner.—Expense of service, 19*l.* 18*s.*

June 1.—FLAMBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE.—Forester Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 8.30 in the morning to assist nine of the local fishing cobbles. An easterly gale having sprung up, the sea became very heavy across the landing and it was necessary for the Life-boat to proceed to sea and accompany each coble as she came in. Fortunately there was no disaster and the Life-boat had completed her work and was re-housed by 11.30 A.M.—Expense of service, 10*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 13th June, 1907.

Voted 140*l.* 18*s.* to pay the expenses of launches and assemblies of the crews of the following Life-boats with the view of helping persons in distress:—Caister No. 1, Clacton-on-Sea, Gorleston No. 1, Pakefield, The Mumbles, Robin Hood's Bay, Walmer, Whitby No. 2, Whitehaven and Winterton No. 2.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was also called out, but her services were not required.

Voted the Silver Medal of the Institution and an additional pecuniary reward to JAMES PESTLE, Jun., for bravely boarding the schooner Vixen, of Fowey, wrecked off Palling on 9th March, and rescuing one of the crew from the rigging.

Also granted an additional pecuniary reward to the other members of the Palling No. 1 Life-boat crew for their services on the same occasion.

Voted the Silver Third Service Clasp, a special gratuity of 50*l.* and a certificate of service, together with an annual pension to RICHARD ROBERTS on his resignation of the post of Coxswain Superintendent of the North Deal Life-boat. Roberts had been Assistant Coxswain and Coxswain since the formation of the station, upwards of 42 years.

Also granted an annual pension to EDWARD HANGER on his resigning the post of Assistant Coxswain of the North Deal Life-boat.

Voted a gratuity of 10*l.* to a man now nearly blind who for many years had been a helper and one of the crew of the New Brighton Life-boat.

Also voted 5*l.* towards the funeral expenses of the ex-Coxswain Superintendent of the Mevagissey Life-boat.

Also a special gratuity of 15*l.* to ARCHY McALISTER, late Coxswain Superintendent at Campbeltown.

Voted 19*l.* 9*s.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at Aldeburgh, Caister, North Deal and Tynemouth.

June 16.—STAITHES, YORKSHIRE.—James Gowland Life-boat.—The s.s. Enterprise, of Cardiff, loaded with coal, stranded on "Cowbar Steel," off Staithes, about 11 P.M. The cobbles belonging to the place went off to her assistance, but finding the conditions of weather were becoming dangerous they returned ashore, at the same time bringing the captain's wife and daughter with them. As the crew of the vessel were on board, the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the steamer. Fifteen men were rescued, but the captain refused to leave; the Life-boat therefore conveyed them ashore and returned to the captain. Later it was seen that there was little or no chance of the vessel being saved, and the captain was rescued. During this service there was a strong N.W. wind and moderate sea.—Expense of service, 37*l.* 10*s.*

June 19.—ALDEBURGH, SUFFOLK, and HARWICH, ESSEX.—Edward Dresden and City of Glasgow Life-boats.—The Aldeburgh No. 2 Life-boat was launched at 10.30 P.M. in a strong westerly breeze and moderate sea to the assistance of the s.s. Ariadne, of London, ashore on the Shipwash Sands. It appeared that the steamer was bound from Hull to the River Plate with a cargo of coal when she stranded, and as the sea was becoming rougher the Life-boat stood by her. About an hour later the Harwich steam Life-boat City of Glasgow also arrived, and both Life-boats stood by the steamer throughout the night and the greater part of the next day as she was at times bumping heavily. In the meanwhile the captain treated the Life-boat men very kindly, providing them with food and doing what was possible to lessen the discomfort of their long service.

Next day tugs succeeded in towing the vessel clear, and the Life-boats returned ashore.—Expense of service, Aldeburgh, 39*l.* 19*s.* 9*d.*; Harwich, 10*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*

July 6.—CAISTER, NORFOLK.—Nancy Lucy Life-boat.—About 11 o'clock in the morning a ketch stranded on the Barber Sands. The accident was observed, and as the vessel failed to float off the No. 2 Life-boat was despatched to her assistance. There was a strong south-westerly breeze with heavy squalls and the sea was rough. On arriving at the vessel, which proved to be the ketch Charlotte Kilner of Goole, the master requested her to stand by him whilst efforts were made to get the vessel off the sand. The boat therefore remained for about three hours when with the rising tide the vessel floated; during this time however the ketch was bumping heavily and leaking, but the damage sustained was not sufficient to prevent her proceeding when clear of the sand to Exmouth, where she was bound.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 11th July, 1907.

Voted 74*l.* 9*s.* 8*d.* to pay the expenses of launches or assemblies of crews at the following stations, with the view of rendering assistance to vessels supposed to be in distress:—Barry Dock, Brixham, Broadstairs, Clacton-on-Sea, Gorleston No. 1, Grimsby, Harwich (steam) and Swanage.

Granted 21*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.*, including medical expenses, to men for injuries sustained in the Life-boat service at Gorleston and Palling.

Granted a retiring pension and certificate of service to THOMAS WILLIAMS, Coxswain Superintendent; also a retiring pension to RICHARD HUGHES and WILLIAM JONES, Assistant Coxswain and Bowman respectively at Llandwyn.

Also a retiring pension to HENRY MARSHALL, Signalman at Skegness, on his resignation.

July 13.—KILMORE, WEXFORD.—The Sisters Life-boat.—In the early morning the cutter Lilian, of Arklow, stranded on the bar of Tacumshane, about six miles from Kilmore Quay. At low water two of the crew managed to get ashore and made for Kilmore for assistance. They reported that three men were still on board, and as the weather looked threatening and the barometer was falling, it was considered advisable to launch the Life-boat. She proceeded to the vessel without loss of time and took off the three men, whom they landed in safety. When the Life-boat arrived the vessel was full of water, but she was subsequently saved.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 3*s.*

July 21.—MONTROSE, FORFARSHIRE.

—Marianne Atherstone Life-boat.—

About 12.30 P.M. a pleasure boat containing two men was observed being carried down the river by the ebb tide, and as it appeared probable that she would run on to the Annat Bank the Life-boatmen assembled and proceeded to the boathouse. When they arrived there it was seen that the boat was amongst the breakers and the men were in imminent danger; the No. 2 Life-boat was therefore launched with all speed and followed them. A few minutes later the boat was observed from the Scurdyness Light-house. Although the easterly wind was quite light the sea on the Annat Bank was heavy and broken, and by the time the Life-boat reached the endangered men the boat was in the middle of it, in great danger of being capsized. Both men were taken into the Life-boat, one being totally prostrated through sea-sickness; one of the crew was then placed on board to steer her, and a rope having been made fast she was towed into harbour. It subsequently appeared that the two men who were visitors had lost one of the oars and in their helpless condition despaired of ever reaching safety; in all probability they would have been drowned if the Life-boat had been less prompt in putting off to rescue them.—Expense of service, 8*l.* 10*s.*

July 23.—THE LIZARD, CORNWALL.—Admiral Sir George Back Life-boat.—The ketch Fanny, of Bideford, stranded on the Leys Reef, off Green Lane Cove, in the evening, during a thick fog. Information reached the Life-boat authorities between 9 and 10 o'clock, and the Life-boat was promptly despatched to her assistance. On reaching the ketch she was found to be leaking badly, and directly the Life-boat got alongside the master and his crew of two men at once left her. As there was little or no chance of saving the ketch the Coxswain returned to Polpear and the vessel became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 24l. 2s.

July 23.—PORT PATRICK, WIGTOWNSHIRE.—Civil Service No. 3 Life-boat.—About 10.30 P.M. three youths engaged a small lug-sail boat, called the Moa, to go for a moonlight sail. They were caught by the tide and being inexperienced in boating were unable to make any headway and drifted to the north of Black Head, where they were able to pull in near the shore. Next morning the owner of the boat missed her and having given the alarm it was found that the three young men were still absent. It was then blowing freshly from S.E., and the sea was moderately rough; the Life-boat was therefore sent out at 7 A.M. and proceeded to search for the missing boat and the occupants. About an hour later she fell in with the boat and found the youths much exhausted and frightened by the experience. They were taken into the Life-boat which then took the boat in tow and returned to harbour.—Expense of service, 7l. 12s.

July 30.—CARDIGAN, CARDIGANSHIRE.—Elizabeth Austin Life-boat.—During a moderate northerly gale with a choppy sea the ketch Brothers, of Cardigan, commenced to drag her anchors. As the vessel was on a lee shore signals of distress were made, and in response the crew of the Life-boat were assembled and the boat launched. On reaching the vessel it was found that she was rolling heavily with the sea breaking over her and was very close to the rocks. The two men were rescued and the Life-boat, which is reported to have behaved splendidly, returned ashore.—Expense of service, 9l. 6s.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 1st August, 1907.

Voted 31l. 18s. to pay the expenses of assemblies of crews or launching the following Life-boats, &c., with the view of rendering assistance to persons on distressed vessels:—Gorleston No. 1, Holy Island No. 1, and The Mumbles.

Granted 17l. 9s. 7d. to men injured in the Life-boat service at Sidmouth and Skateraw.

Also voted a special gratuity of 30l. to the late Coxswain of the Castletown Life-boat.

Aug. 2.—ARANMORE, CO. DONEGAL.—La Totitam Life-boat.—Information reached Aranmore about 9 P.M. that two fishing boats belonging to the place were in difficulties, and as there was a S.E. gale blowing, with a rough sea, the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to their assistance. The boats were taking shelter under the little Island of Arran, and the Life-boat met one of them rounding the north side; about an hour later she fell in with the other one. She then escorted both home, Aranmore being reached shortly after midnight.—Expense of service, 18l. 10s.

Aug. 3.—PORTHLEVEN, CORNWALL.—John Francis White Life-boat.—In response to a message stating that a vessel was ashore on the Loe Bar, the Life-boat was launched at 8.15 P.M. The Life-boat proceeded to the bar and met the men belonging to the stranded vessel in their own boat rowing towards Porthleven, but in complete ignorance of their position. They were taken into the Life-boat and conveyed to Porthleven. The weather was very thick at the time, and the vessel, which was the Seierskrandsen of Svendborg, was bound for Teignmouth in ballast. Later in the evening the Coxswain of the Life-boat went with the captain of the vessel to ascertain the exact position, and the captain and crew kept a watch throughout the night.—Expense of service, 15l. 15s.

Next morning at 5 A.M. the Life-boat again put off and, assisted by a tug from Falmouth, the Life-boat men and crew succeeded in saving the vessel.—Property salvage case.

Aug. 4.—POINT OF AYR, FLINTSHIRE.—H. G. Powell Life-boat.—A small yacht was observed on the West Hoyle Bank soon after midday with a signal flying denoting that they required assistance. The crew were assembled and the Life-boat launched. There was a moderate W.N.W. breeze with a moderate sea, and when nearing the yacht the Life-boat grounded on the bank. The Life-boat men succeeded however in floating her and getting a line to the yacht. They found that she was completely at the mercy of the wind and sea, as the occupants, three in number, had lost the boat's anchor and the steering gear had broken. She proved to be the yacht Pem belonging to the Tranmere Sailing Club, and the Life-boat having taken her in tow conveyed her and the crew into safety at Mostyn.—Expense of service, 19l.

Aug. 5.—POOLBEG, CO. DUBLIN.—Richard Cresswell Life-boat.—Soon after midday information reached the Coxswain of the Life-boat that a man was adrift in the river in a small boat with only one oar. There was a strong offshore breeze at the time and the boat was being quickly driven into danger. With great promptness the Life-boat was launched, and succeeded in picking her up and rescuing the man at the entrance to the river. The rescue was most opportune, as in a very short time the boat would have drifted far out into the bay and owing to her size would probably have been swamped.—Expense of service, 4l. 16s.

Aug. 7.—WALTON - ON - THE - NAZE, ESSEX.—James Stevens No. 14 Life-boat.—At 1.30 A.M. a telephone message was received from the Gunfleet Lighthouse stating that the Kentish Knock Light-vessel was firing signals for a ship in distress. The crew of the Life-boat were summoned, and within fifteen minutes the boat was on her way to the sands, where, on her arrival at about 4 A.M., she found the steam-trawler Westward Ho! of Hull, aground. The vessel was bound from the coast of Spain to Hull with a cargo of soles. At the request of the master the Life-boat stood by the trawler for some hours, and then as the vessel was still ashore he employed the crew to float her. All assistance possible was rendered by the Life-boat and crew, and at 11.30 A.M. she floated.

As the trawler was able to proceed on her way the Life-boat returned to her station, arriving at 3.30 P.M. During this service the wind was blowing strongly from N.N.W., and the sea was rough; the behaviour of the Life-boat was reported to have been highly satisfactory, and the motor which had recently been fitted in the boat worked without the least trouble.—Property salvage case.

Aug. 7.—NEW BRIGHTON, CHESHIRE.—Queen Life-boat.—During a moderate S.W. gale with a rough sea a steam-tug reported at about 9 P.M. that a vessel was ashore on Taylors Bank. The crew of the steam Life-boat were assembled, and the boat proceeded to the position indicated. On arrival she found the schooner Problem of Connah's Quay at anchor in dangerous proximity to the sand, although not actually ashore, and as the sea was heavy the three men on board were rescued. The Life-boat then returned to New Brighton, arriving at 11.30 P.M.—Expense of service, 9l. 14s. 6d.

Aug. 8.—PETERHEAD, ABERDEENSHIRE.—George Pickard Life-boat.—Shortly after midnight the Coxswain was informed by the Coastguard that a fishing-boat was ashore on the rocks behind Keith Inch. There was a heavy sea running with a strong N.W. breeze at the time, and the Life-boat was promptly launched and proceeded to the wreck in tow of a tug. The stranded vessel proved to be the herring-boat Concord, of St. Combs, carrying a crew of seven hands. One man had already left the vessel and been landed by a boat, and as there was a prospect of the vessel becoming a total wreck, the remaining six were rescued and conveyed to Peterhead.—Expense of service, 21l. 2s.

Aug. 15.—DUNGNESS, KENT.—R.A.O.B. Life boat.—A youth was left in charge of a small boat called the Mizpah. He pushed off from the shore, but in doing so lost one of the oars, and in the prevailing gale quickly drifted out to sea. He was seen waving his hat for assistance, and the crew of the No. 1 Life-boat were promptly assembled. At 4 P.M. the boat was launched and succeeded in picking up the boat in time to save the occupant. A steam cutter then towed the Life-boat and boat back to Dungeness, which was reached at 5.30 P.M.—Expense of service, 11l. 13s. 2d.

Aug. 19.—MARGATE, KENT.—Civil Service No. 1 Life-boat.—At about 11 A.M. information was received that two large ketches had stranded on the N.W. part of the Margate sand. The weather at the time being very unsettled with a strong N.N.W. breeze and choppy sea, it was considered advisable to send assistance. The crew of the No. 2 boat were summoned and the boat launched. She reached the two vessels at 1.30 P.M., and found that they were the Norvic and Doric, both of London. At the request of the masters the boat stood by them as the wind had veered to north, and the weather had become very bad with heavy thunder-storms. About three hours later the wind again changed and moderated, and shortly afterwards the two vessels floated on the flowing tide. As no further assistance was required, the boat then returned to her station.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 15*s.*

Aug. 22.—WALTON - ON - THE - NAZE, ESSEX.—James Stevens No. 14 Life-boat.—At 4.20 A.M. a telephone message was received from the Gunfleet Lighthouse stating that a vessel was ashore on the sand. Rockets were fired to assemble the crew, and within thirteen minutes the Life-boat left her mooring under sail assisted by the motor which had been recently fitted in the boat. On arrival the vessel proved to be the barque Adele of Brevig, bound from that port to London with a cargo of ice. At the request of the captain the Life-boat stood by the vessel, but a few minutes before high water the vessel, with the assistance of a tug, floated and proceeded in tow of the tug to London.

The Life-boat then started for home, but seeing a motor launch that had come out from Frinton at anchor near the sand, the Life-boat made for her. It was found that the motor had broken down, and as there were nine persons on board, and the wind off the shore, the Coxswain took the disabled vessel in tow as far as Frinton. He then returned to Walton, arriving at 11.30 A.M., the motor having worked well during the whole time the boat was at sea.—Expense of service, 27*l.* 6*s.*

Aug. 26.—WALTON - ON - THE - NAZE, ESSEX.—James Stevens No. 14 Life-boat.—The schooner Mary Ann of Faversham, whilst bound from London to Hull with a cargo of chalk, stranded on the Gun-fleet sand. Information reached Walton by telephone from the Lighthouse at 5.17 A.M., and with very great promptness the motor Life-boat was despatched to her assistance. On arrival it was low tide, and the vessel was so far on the sand that the Life-boat could not get alongside; three of her crew waded to the schooner, and the master asked that the Life-boat should remain until high water. In the meanwhile steps were taken to jettison the cargo, the crew of the vessel being assisted by several smacks' crews. Towards high water the Life-boat helped to tow the vessel clear of the sand. It was then found that she was leaking, the Life-boat therefore assisted her to Harwich, some of the Life-boat men remaining on board to help at the pumps. The harbour was reached at 3 P.M. and the Life-boat regained her station at 6 P.M. The weather was fine during the service, and the motor worked well during the whole time.—Property salvage case.

Sept. 2.—LLANDUDNO, CARNARVONSHIRE.—Theodore Price Life-boat.—The smack Midsummer of Douglas was lying in the bay in the evening, when the wind changed to N.N.W., increased to a moderate gale, and a heavy sea rose. The smack commenced to drag her anchor, and the master, who was all alone on board, feared she would go ashore or founder; he therefore made a signal of distress, and the Life-boat was launched in the short time of seventeen minutes from the time the signal was made. On reaching the vessel the Life-boat took the master off and brought him ashore. Both the launch and return of the Life-boat were witnessed by some thousands of visitors, the town being very full, and great satisfaction was expressed at the smart way in which the service was performed.—Expense of service, 29*l.* 10*s.*

Sept. 3.—SCARBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE.—Queensbury Life-boat.—At 12.30 A.M. the Coxswain of the Life-boat was called by the Coastguard, they having received a message from Whitby expressing anxiety for the safety of a Whitby coble, owing to a strong north-easterly gale having suddenly sprung up. The Life-boat was promptly launched and proceeded to sea, shortly afterwards falling in with the coble Prince Lewellen. The sea being very rough and heavy the boat was taken in tow, and she and her crew of four hands conveyed into safety. At 4.45 A.M. a Scotch fishing craft—the Victoria of Leith—carrying a crew of seven, was observed outside, but without sufficient sail set to enable her to make the harbour in safety, the Life-boat therefore proceeded to her and brought them into harbour.—Expense of service, 19*l.* 11*s.*

Sept. 6.—DUNGENESS, KENT.—R.A.O.B. Life-boat.—In the early morning a telephone message was received stating that two steamers had been in collision about four miles to the southward of the Point, and that one was apparently sinking. The crew of the No. 1 Life-boat were at once assembled, and the boat proceeded to the spot, a tug towing them part of the way. They found the s.s. Cambric, of Hull, extensively damaged and the crew in the ship's boats. At the request of the master, his wife was taken into the Life-boat and several Life-boat men were put on board to make a hawser fast between the damaged steamer and the tug. The Cambric was then towed with difficulty to Dover, the Life-boat going with her in case any further help might be required.—Property salvage case.

Sept. 11.—CAISTER, SUFFOLK.—Nancy Lucy Life-boat.—About an hour before sunset, in misty weather, a foreign schooner went ashore on the Barber Sand, and the Cockle Lightship commenced to fire guns. The crew of the No. 2 Life-boat were assembled, and the boat proceeded to her. She proved to be the Zwaanije Cornelia, of Groningen, bound from Yarmouth to Hull, in ballast. A kedge anchor had been laid out, but as there was a considerable swell on the sands, the Life-boat stood by the schooner. On the flowing tide the vessel floated, and the Life-boat, being no longer required, returned ashore.—Expense of service, 28*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 12th Sept., 1907.

Voted 193*l.* 18*s.* 8*d.* to pay the expenses of launching the following Life-boats, or assembling the crews, with the view of assisting the crews of vessels in distress:—Formby, Gorleston No. 1, Harwich (steam), Hilbre Island, Kilmore, Kingsdowne, Lyme Regis, New Brighton (steam), Salcombe, Stromness, Walmer and Whitby No. 1.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was also out but her services were not required.

Granted a commuted pension and a certificate of service to WILLIAM BEARNE, Coxswain Superintendent of the Weymouth Life-boat; also a retiring pension and certificate of service to JAMES LAW, Coxswain Superintendent of the Ayr Life-boat.

Granted 7*l.* 11*s.* 10*d.* to defray the funeral expenses of a man who died suddenly from heart failure after assisting at the exercise of the Broadstairs Life-boat on the 30th August.

Voted 48*l.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at Appledore, Arammore, Mablethorpe, Moelfre, and Poolbeg.

Sept. 27.—PENZANCE, CORNWALL.—Elizabeth Blanche Life-boat.—At about 5.30 P.M. the Coastguard reported that a vessel close to the Runnel Stone rocks was flying signals for medical assistance and for a pilot. The weather was rough and threatening, with an E.S.E. gale blowing, and it was considered too rough for any pilot to go off in a gig. The Coxswain of the Life-boat therefore, after consulting the pilots, sent for a medical man, and with him on board proceeded to search for the vessel. She proved to be the s.s. Ellesmere, of Manchester, and on the Life-boat proceeding alongside, the Coxswain was asked to put the doctor on board. This was accordingly done, the Life-boat remaining alongside until he was ready, when the boat returned to Penzance.—Expenses of service, 20*l.* 9*s.*

Oct. 1.—BALLYCOTTON, Co. CORK.—T. P. Hearne Life-boat.—During a whole S.E. gale, signals of distress were made from the yacht Cyane, of Cork, lying at anchor in the bay. The Life-boat was very smartly launched and proceeded to the yacht, which they found in a dangerous position on a lee shore. The crew were unable to weigh the anchors, and in the heavy sea running there was great probability of the craft being swamped. Three Life-boat men were put on board, their boat in the meantime standing by, and with this assistance both the yacht and the two men on board were saved.—Expense of service, 11l. 13s. 6d.

Oct. 4.—YARMOUTH, NORFOLK.—John Burch Life-boat.—The lugger Twilight, of Inverness, when bound to Lowestoft for the herring fishing, stranded during the night on the South Scroby Sands. There was a strong N.N.E. breeze with a heavy sea at the time, and their signals of distress were promptly responded to. The crew of the Life-boat were assembled, and the boat proceeded to the help of the shipwrecked men. Great difficulty was experienced in rescuing the crew of six hands, as the vessel was hove over and the sea swept her. The men were found clinging to the side of their craft, and from this perilous position were taken into the Life-boat. To reach the fishing boat the Life-boat had to go into very shoal water, and when making for shore with the rescued men on board she struck the sands heavily several times, happily without serious consequences. Yarmouth was reached shortly after one o'clock in the morning and the rescued men were landed. The fishing vessel became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 31l. 17s. 6d.

Oct. 7.—RHYL, FLINTSHIRE.—Caroline Richardson Life boat.—At about 7.30 A.M., the Life-boat Coxswain, who was on the look-out, observed a yacht near the Middle Patch buoy, about four miles distant, showing signals of distress. He immediately summoned his crew, and the Life-boat was promptly launched. After about two-and-a-half hours' hard pulling in the teeth of a moderate N.N.W. gale and against a strong tide, the Life-boat succeeded in getting to the yacht, and rescued the two men who were on board. The yacht proved to be the Ruby, of Liverpool. She had been compelled to anchor on account of the heavy weather to prevent being driven ashore. The weather being too heavy to attempt to tow the yacht in, she was abandoned. The Life-boat is reported to have behaved splendidly, and when returning ashore both the crew and the rescued men were received with enthusiastic cheers by a large crowd.—Expense of service, 22l. 2s. 6d.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 10th Oct., 1907.

Voted 356l. 10s. to pay the expenses of launches of Life-boats, or assemblies of crews, &c., with the view of assisting the crews of vessels in distress at the following places:—Caister No. 1, Clacton-on-Sea, Cromer, Dunbar, Fenit, Giles Quay, Gorleston No. 1, Holyhead (Steam), Hope Cove, Margate No. 2, Palling No. 2, Peterhead and Winterton No. 2.

Granted a pension and certificate of service to MICHAEL ROBSON, Coxswain Superintendent, and a pension to ROBERT PATRICK, Assistant Coxswain at North Sunderland on their resigning their respective posts.

Also a pension to NICOLAS W. JOHNS, Signalman at Cadgwith, on his resignation.

Voted a gratuity of 5l. to the widow of H. ROWLANDS, Assistant Coxswain of the Aberdovey Life-boat for nine years, and a member of the crew for some years previously.

Voted 10l. 14s. 2d. to men injured in the Life-boat service at Llandudno and Newquay, Cornwall.

Oct. 10.—TEIGNMOUTH, SOUTH DEVON.—Alfred Staniforth Life-boat.—At about 12.30 P.M. a schooner was seen driving dangerously near the outer end of Teignmouth bar. A strong S.S.W. gale had been blowing all night, but it had then moderated somewhat; the seas however were very heavy. Shortly afterwards the vessel anchored, and it was seen that she was quickly dragging into dangerous broken water. She then hoisted a distress signal, and the Teignmouth Life-boat was about to be launched when a telephone message was received stating that the Exmouth Life-boat had already been launched. Repeated and meritorious attempts were made by this boat to get to the schooner, but about an hour later another message was received stating that the Exmouth Life-boat, being to leeward, could not get near the vessel, which by that time had been driven ashore on the outer part of the Pole Sands. The crew of the Teignmouth Life-boat were immediately re-assembled and the Life-boat promptly launched. It was then nearly low water, and the seas on the bar and for a half a mile seaward were very bad; nothing but a smother of broken water was to be seen. There was no hesitation however, and the boat made for it. The boat behaved splendidly, but at times the sea was so heavy that she was completely enveloped. On one occasion a heavy sea broke right over her, putting her completely out of sight, and every man of the crew was knocked over, and every oar went overboard, the boat being driven towards the harbour. Undaunted, they started afresh, and after strenuous efforts and hard work the task of crossing the bar was accomplished. Once outside the breakers sail was made, and the Alfred Staniforth, with all speed made for the wreck, a heavy sea being encountered all the way. On nearing the wreck the crew could be seen in the fore-rigging, as the ship was full of water and every sea was making a clean breach over her. The deck cargo of timber was washing out of the wreck, and the sea for a considerable distance was covered with timber and wreckage, which made the work of rescue both difficult and hazardous. Sails on the Life-boat were taken in, and the anchor let go; with great skill she was then veered down as near to the vessel as possible. Communication was obtained by ropes, and by this means the crew of eight men were dragged through the breaking seas to the Life-boat. This rescue, so skilfully carried out, was most opportune, as a quarter of an hour after it had been accomplished the three masts went by the board, and all that remained was wreckage. The prevailing weather precluded any attempt being made by the Life-boat to regain her station, and the crew were both wet and tired; she therefore crossed the Exmouth bar, and landed at Exmouth. Here the boat was left until next day, when, the weather having moderated, she was towed home.

The wrecked vessel was the schooner, Tehwija, of Riga, bound at the time of the disaster from Lappvik, in Finland, to Exmouth, with a full cargo. Happily the whole of the crew were saved, although they unfortunately lost all their belongings. A dog belonging to the captain resisted all attempts at rescue, and had to be left to its fate; but it was eventually washed ashore in the deck house—this portion of the wreck coming ashore intact.

During this service the Honorary Secretary of the Teignmouth branch, Mr. W. J. BURDEN, was on board the Life-boat, and materially assisted in the success of her mission—both by encouraging the men and personally assisting in the management of the boat. During the critical time when crossing the Teignmouth bar he steered the Life-boat, which enabled the Coxswain and Bowman to assist in double-banking the oars. The Committee of Management, in addition to cordially thanking Mr. Burden for his gallant and valuable assistance, awarded him and the Coxswain-Superintendent, GEORGE RICE, the Silver Medal of the Institution, accompanied by a framed copy of the vote engrossed on vellum, as a special token of appreciation.

An additional pecuniary reward was also made to each of the Life-boat men who took part in the rescue, and the whole of the awards were publicly presented at Teignmouth before an enthusiastic audience.—Expense of service, 33*l.* 10*s.* 11*d.*

Oct. 16.—FOLKESTONE, KENT.—Leslie Life-boat.—About 1.30 P.M. a fishing boat was observed to be on the Mole Rocks to the eastward of the breakwater; at the time it was blowing a moderate gale from S.E. with a rough sea. Without loss of time the crew were assembled and the Life-boat was launched. On reaching the craft, which proved to be the lugger Bird of Freedom, of Shoreham, it was found that she had bumped over the rock, but that the anchors which had been let go were dragging. The Life-boat men assisted the vessel and eventually she was got into harbour in safety.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 15*s.*

Oct. 16.—BRIXHAM, SOUTH DEVON.—Betsey Newbon Life-boat.—In the morning there was a moderate easterly gale with very heavy squalls and a heavy sea running in the bay; about noon the gale increased in violence. The ketch J. B. Charcot, of Boulogne, was at anchor close off Fishcombe Point, on a lee shore, riding with both anchors down. Seeing that she was in considerable danger she was kept under observation. About 3 P.M. it was seen that an attempt was about to be made to get the ketch clear under close-reefed sails. Shortly afterwards one of her cables parted and the other was slipped. It was then seen that she was bound to get into difficulties, and orders were given for the immediate launch of the Life-boat. Before the Life-boat could reach her however she had fouled four of the trawlers moored in the outer harbour, and having carried away her bowsprit and spars she became quite unmanageable. As soon as the Life-boat reached her six men were put on board, and after much difficulty, the ketch and her crew of six hands were taken into safety.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 16.—ST. IVES, CORNWALL.—James Stevens No. 10 Life-boat.—During the evening, a telegram was received at St. Ives, stating that the schooner Susan Elizabeth had left Swansea that morning for St. Ives. A heavy N.N.E. gale was then blowing accompanied by a very heavy sea. As the wind increased and mountainous seas swept across the mouth of the harbour it was felt that even if the vessel managed to reach the bay it would not be possible for her to make the harbour. About 9 P.M. the Life-boat was launched into the harbour in readiness to await the arrival of the schooner. Throughout the night, in the prevailing gale and drenching rain, the crew remained on duty ready to start at a moment's notice. About 5 A.M. on the 17th it was decided, as nothing had been heard of the vessel, to replace the boat on her carriage and this was completed shortly before 6 A.M. Just as the work was done it was reported that the Susan Elizabeth was off the Head running for the harbour. The Life-boat was again launched and proceeded towards the vessel. By this time she was close to the Ridge, and a few minutes later she struck heavily, the seas commencing to break over her. Owing to the heavy sea and strong tide the Life-boat was carried to leeward of the wreck. Five times the crew bravely pulled the boat back and got close to her, but each time she was swept away, and was ultimately thrown on the Porthminster beach. Scores of willing hands tried to re-launch the boat, and after three-quarters of an hour's strenuous work she was re-floated. In the meantime, the vessel's crew could be seen huddled together in the bows, whilst the seas made a clean breach over her. With all speed possible the Life-boat again made for the schooner, their efforts this time being crowned with success, the four men on board being safely rescued, and landed in the harbour about 8 A.M. Shortly afterwards the vessel broke up, and by 11.30 all that remained of her was floating wreckage.—Expense of service, 39l. 13s. 6d.

Oct. 17.—ALNMOUTH, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Allen Scott Life-boat.—A lamentable wreck resulting in the loss of two lives took place at Birling Car. In a strong N.E. gale and a very heavy sea, the steamer Ina MacTavish, of Glasgow, whilst bound from the Tyne to Aberdeen, stranded. One of the crew of four hands was washed overboard after she struck, and the remainder took refuge in the rigging.

The life-saving apparatus endeavoured to obtain communication but failed.

The Life-boat proceeded to the assistance of the endangered men, and after considerable difficulty succeeded in rescuing two of the men, but the others had perished before assistance reached them.—Expense of service, 33l. 6s. 6d.

Oct. 20.—MONTROSE, FORFARSHIRE.—Sarah Jane Turner Life-boat.—During a moderate southerly breeze with a rough sea shortly after midnight on the 19th–20th October signals were observed from a vessel in the Bay. From the direction of the signals it was feared that the vessel had stranded, and the Life-boat was sent to her assistance. On reaching her, however, it was found that she was afloat, but in such a position that it was not safe to stop her for anyone to go on board. It was therefore arranged for the Life-boat to precede her and guide her over the bar by means of lights. This was accordingly done, and when inside the river a pilot was put on board to take her to safe moorings. It was then ascertained that the coal on board was completely exhausted and had it not been for the timely assistance of the Life-boat, the vessel in all probability would have been driven ashore and wrecked. She proved to be the S.S. Condor, of Bergen, bound from that port in ballast to Warkworth. — Expense of service, 24l. 6s.

Oct. 28. — FETHARD, WEXFORD. — Helen Blake Life-boat. — The ketch P. M. Wilcox, of Aberystwith, whilst bound with a cargo of coals from Ayr to Bannow, took shelter in Fethard Bay from a strong S.S.E. gale. In the early morning of the 28th October her anchors commenced to drag owing to the heavy sea and flood tide, and signals of distress were made. These were observed at about 6 A.M. by the Coxswain of the Life-boat, and the Life-boat was promptly launched. On reaching the ketch the four men on board were rescued and conveyed into safety. — Expense of service, 14l. 2s.

Oct. 28. — WHITBY, YORKSHIRE. — Robert and Mary Ellis Life-boat. — During the morning several of the cobbles returned to harbour, as the sea was growing on the bar, and at about 10.30 A.M. it was considered advisable to send out the No. 1 Life-boat to a coble which was riding outside and unable to come in. The Life-boat lay alongside the coble until low water, when she escorted her into safety; she then proceeded to the assistance of two other boats, and in two trips stood by them until safely in harbour. There was a moderate easterly breeze at the time, but the sea was heavy. — Expense of service, 10l. 2s.

Nov. 1. — PAKEFIELD, SUFFOLK. — The Two Sisters Mary and Hannah Life-boat. — Shortly before 8.30 in the morning, during a dense fog, it was reported that a vessel was ashore about one mile to the south of the Life-boat station and bumping heavily. The Life-boat proceeded to her assistance, and with the help of a tug the vessel was towed clear and taken with her crew of eight hands to Lowestoft Harbour. The Life-boat accompanied the vessel, and the pumps were kept working, but shortly after her arrival she sank. The vessel was the fishing lugger Maggie May, of Lowestoft, and had a catch on board at the time of the casualty. — Property salvage case. Balance paid by Institution, 16s. 6d.

Nov. 6. — MARGATE, KENT. — Eliza Harriet Life-boat. — At 3 A.M. the Coastguard reported that a vessel was making distress signals and was apparently on the Hook Sands. The crew were immediately summoned and the No. 1 Life-boat launched. On reaching the place indicated, they found the spritsail barge George and Jehu at anchor, with some of her spars and gear carried away. As there was a heavy sea with an on-shore wind, the master requested the Life-boat to stand by him until repairs had been carried out. They accordingly did so, and when the barge was safely under way returned ashore. — Expense of service, 37l. 1s. 6d.

Nov. 10. — DUNGENESS, KENT. — R.A.O.B. Life-boat. — During a dense fog the S.S. Bayard, of Christiania, collided with another vessel off Dungeness. The Coastguard having reported the accident by telephone, the crew of the No. 1 Life-boat were promptly summoned and the boat launched. The steamer was found to be very much damaged, and as the master feared for her safety he requested the boat to stand by her. They therefore remained until two hours after high water, when seeing that there was no immediate danger they returned ashore, having arranged with the master to signal again should he require assistance. — Expense of service, 16l. 1s.

Nov. 13. — HOLYHEAD, ANGLESEY. — Duke of Northumberland Life-boat. — At midnight signals of distress were observed from a vessel in the outer roads. A N.W. gale was blowing at the time, and the sea was very rough, the steam Life-boat was despatched as soon as possible and found that two vessels had fouled and were dragging. The master of one of them stated he wanted a tug, and the Life-boat returned for the purpose of obtaining one, but the master of the only tug available declined to proceed to the vessel as he was of opinion that in the prevailing gale he would be unable to get into a position for towing. The Life-boat returned to the vessels, which by this time had become disengaged. The crew of five hands of the smaller vessel, the brigantine Benita, of Whitehaven, then decided to come ashore, and were transferred to the steam Life-boat, which landed them.

—Expense of service, 11l. 17s. 6d.

Next morning the storm had abated, and at the request of the men they were replaced on board, the vessel having weathered the storm.—Service paid for by owners.

NOV. 14.—HARTLEPOOL, DURHAM.—

Horatio Brand Life-boat.—During foggy weather in the early morning the small steam fishing-boat Ranter, belonging to North Shields, stranded on the Longscar Rocks, and in reply to her signals of distress the No. 3 Life-boat was launched. The Life-boat approached the vessel as closely as possible, but was unable to get alongside on account of the rocks and shoal water. The vessel at this time was deck to sea, and being swept by the breakers. The Life-boat men hailed the men on board, who stated that they wished to be taken off, and every effort was made to do so, the boat being manœuvred from different points to reach them, but without success. She then stood by until about 6 A.M., when there was sufficient water to go alongside. Five of the crew were taken into the Life-boat which conveyed them ashore in safety. The Life-boat then returned to the vessel and offered assistance to the master who had remained on board, but during the morning the vessel was towed into harbour, where she sank.—Expense of service, 26l. 9s. 6d.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 14th Nov. 1907.

Voted 808l. 6s. 9d. to pay the expenses of Life-boat launches, assemblies of crews, etc., with the view of assisting the crews of vessels in distress, at the following stations:—Brixham, Cadgwith, Caister Nos. 1 and 2, Cemaes, Cemlyn, Clacton-on-Sea, Dover, Dunbar, Exmouth, Eyemouth, Fenit, Formby, Hope Cove, Ilfracombe, Kessingland No. 1, Killough, Newcastle (Co. Down), Newhaven, Palling No. 2, Penzance, Plymouth, Point of Ayr, Port Erin, St. Anne's No. 1, Skateraw, Teignmouth, Tenby, Weymouth, Winterton No. 2 and Yarmouth.

Voted the Silver Medal of the Institution to JAMES LAMING, Coxswain Superintendent of the Kingsdowne Life-boat, in recognition of his long and gallant services in the Life-boat, extending over a period of forty-one years.

Granted a retiring pension and certificate of service to HUGH HUGHES, Coxswain Superintendent of the Rhoscolyn Life-boat, and a commuted pension to ROBERT WARD, Assistant Coxswain at Staithes on their resignation. Also a retiring pension to WILLIAM GEORGE, Coxswain Superintendent of the Mullion Life-boat.

Voted 37l. 12s. to men injured in the Life-boat service at Atherfield, Pakefield, Sidmouth, Skateraw, and Tynewmouth. Also 12l. 10s. to a fund raised for the benefit of the widows of two Life-boatmen at Barry Dock who were drowned by the capsizing of their 16-ft. boat on 13th October.

NOV. 17.—POINT OF AYR, FLINTSHIRE, —H. G. Powell Life-boat.—At about 7.15 P.M. signals of distress were observed to the westward of the Life-boat station and the signal to assemble the crew was promptly fired. Without delay the boat was launched and proceeded in the direction of the vessel in distress. They found that the signals were being made on board the fishing smack Myosotis of Liverpool, which had stranded off Prestatyn in a storm on the 13th November, and was in charge of the owner and two other men. It had been their intention to float her off at high water, but they failed to do so as she had sunk in the sand and listed until she was submerged at high water and they were in danger of being washed overboard. The three men were rescued and conveyed in safety ashore, being landed about 10.30 P.M.—Expense of service, 28l. 11s.

NOV. 20.—RUNSWICK, YORKSHIRE.—Cape of Good Hope Life-boat.—At about 7.30 P.M. during thick but moderate weather signals of distress were seen near Kettleless and a boat put off from the shore; she returned very shortly and reported that a steamer was ashore requiring assistance. The Life-boat was then launched and proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the Sardinian of London carrying a cargo of coal and bound for Sunderland. The Life-boat men succeeded in getting the steamer afloat and she proceeded on her way to Sunderland.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 21.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—James Stevens No. 3 Life-boat.—During a very dense fog, about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, sounds of a collision off the mouth of the harbour were heard, and with great promptness the steam Life-boat put to sea. She cruised about in every direction for some hours and spoke several vessels without learning anything about the colliding vessels. Eventually she fell in with the steam drifter Glenmoor of Aberdeen, which had stranded in the fog, and as it was possible assistance might be required the Life-boat stood by her until 7.15 P.M. when she floated. The Life-boat then made for home arriving at 7.40 P.M.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 18*s.* 6*d.*

Nov. 21.—GREENCASTLE, CO. DONEGAL.—Brittan Willis Life-boat.—During a moderate S.W. gale and rough sea about 6.30 P.M. it was reported that a vessel was ashore inside the beacon called the "Iron Man," below the Warren Light. The Life-boat proceeded to the vessel which, having first struck a rock, was then fast on the sand inside a reef of rocks, at the place stated, with her anchor out. The Life-boat at the request of the master stood by the vessel until 4 A.M., at which hour the five men on board were rescued by her, as the vessel was in a dangerous position and making water. The vessel was the schooner Emily of Runcorn, of about 300 tons, bound for Lisahally on the River Foyle.—Expense of service, 28*l.* 5*s.*

Nov. 22–26.—WINTERTON, NORFOLK.—Edward Birkbeck and Reserve Life-boats.—In the early morning of the 22nd November the S.S. Terra, of Glasgow, a large steamer carrying a cargo of coal, stranded on the Cockle Sand. She was bound at the time from Shields to Genoa.

The weather became bad, the S.S.E. wind increasing to a gale accompanied by a heavy sea. The large No. 2 Life-boat proceeded to her assistance and finding that if the ship was to be saved more help would be necessary signals were made for the No. 1 Life-boat Edward Birkbeck to take out more men. She accordingly did so and the work of lightening the steamer by jettisoning cargo was continued for four days, the men being relieved from time to time by means of the No. 1 Life-boat, the larger boat remaining with the steamer the whole time. On the 26th November with the assistance of several tugs the vessel was floated and she and her crew of twenty-two hands were taken in safety to the Yarmouth Roads.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 23.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Leicester Life-boat.—The Coxswain of the No. 2 Life-boat was aroused about 1.50 A.M. by the Coastguard, who informed him that a vessel on the North Bank was burning flares. With all despatch the Life-boat was launched and proceeded to her. The vessel proved to be the coal-lighter, Lizette, of Great Yarmouth, homeward bound with a cargo of coal from Boston, and had stranded about thirty yards from the North Pier. A S.S.E. gale was blowing and owing to the heavy sea great difficulty was experienced in getting alongside, but by aid of a rope they succeeded and the four men then on board were saved.

The other two men of the crew had been previously rescued by the Rocket apparatus.—Expense of service, 23*l.* 11*s.*

Nov. 25.—WALMER, KENT.—Civil Service No. 4 Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 9.10 A.M. in a very heavy sea and strong westerly breeze to assist a vessel which had stranded on the Deal Bank, but the master declined any assistance, and later when the tide flowed the vessel floated off. The Life-boat then made for home and on the way spoke two small fishing boats of Walmer—Orchid and Little Dick. At the request of the men the boats were taken in tow and conveyed into safety.—Expense of service, 17*l.* 6*d.*

Nov. 26.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Ada Lewis Life-boat.—Several of the fishing-boats which had gone out for fishing returned early in the morning without working their lines on account of the threatening state of the weather, and shortly afterwards it became worse. About 10 A.M. the coble Thistle was seen off the harbour and as it was considered dangerous for her to come in, the Life-boat was launched and stood by her until in safety.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 19*s.* 9*d.*

Nov. 26.—BARMOUTH, MERIONETHSHIRE.—Jones Gibb Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched on service with great promptness about eleven in the morning and rendered assistance to the fishing-boat Flora, of Pwllheli, in a whole S.E. gale. It subsequently transpired that the Flora, which was out herring-fishing during the night, got into difficulties whilst trying to head for Barmouth.

It came to blow a gale causing the crew of three men to run for shelter about six miles to the S.W. of Barmouth. Their boom was carried away and the sails torn and they had a very trying experience, being in immediate danger of driving into the rocks when they made signals of distress. When the Life-boat reached the boat she was under weigh, the men having tried to make sail; the Life-boat then piloted her safely to Barmouth where the crew arrived in a very exhausted condition.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 5*s.*

Nov. 26.—SCARBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE.—Queensbury Life-boat.—At 3.45 P.M. it was reported that a coble belonging to Scarborough had been overtaken by the S.E. gale and was in need of help away to the northward. The Life-boat was launched and proceeded to a steam trawler, which went to the craft and offered to tow her back to Scarborough. The crew of the coble however preferred to sail, and when they neared the harbour the Coxswain of the Life-boat gave the men life-belts and escorted the vessel into safety. The coble was the Swanland Hall, and had four men on board.—Expense of service, 28*l.* 13*s.*

Nov. 29.—SEATON CAREW, DURHAM.—Temporary Life-boat.—On the night of the 28th November the schooner Primrose, of Calmar, outward bound from Hartlepool with a cargo of coal, was wrecked on the Longscar Rocks. In response to her signals the Hartlepool Life-boat went to her assistance, and the Seaton Carew Life-boat authorities were warned. There was a north-easterly gale at the time with a rough sea, and in spite of all their efforts the Hartlepool men were unable to get alongside the vessel. For four hours their efforts were so strenuous that by the end of that time they were completely exhausted. Signals were made, and the Seaton Carew boat was sent out. She arrived in the vicinity of the ship a quarter of an hour after she was launched, but owing to the shallowness of the water on the rocks was unable to get alongside. Several attempts were made to do so, and on one occasion the boat remained grounded on the rocks for a considerable period. At length there was sufficient water for the boat to reach the wreck, and the crew of six hands were successfully rescued. This was an excellent service, but the boat was damaged in performing it.—Expense of service, 35*l.* 5*s.*

Dec. 3.—DUNGENESS, KENT.—R.A.O.B. Life-boat.—At 4.55 A.M. the Coastguard reported that a vessel was ashore on the Newcome Bar making signals of distress. With great promptness the No. 1 Life-boat was launched and in the prevailing S.S.W. gale made for the distressed vessel. With considerable difficulty and risk, owing to the rough sea, the crew of eleven hands were rescued, the Life-boat being considerably damaged. The vessel was the steam trawler Perseverance, of Boulogne; she became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 48*l.* 6*s.*

Dec. 4.—BRIDLINGTON QUAY, YORKSHIRE.—George and Jane Walker Life-boat.—During a strong S. by E. gale and heavy broken sea the Life-boat saved the coble Boys' Own, of Hull, and her crew of three men. About 2.30 P.M. it was noticed that some of the cobsles were in difficulties and unable to make the harbour; the boat was therefore launched and proceeded to the Boys' Own and took the men off. The gear and ballast were then thrown out of her, and the Life-boat returned to harbour with the coble in tow. The service was witnessed by a large crowd, who cheered the Life-boat men lustily on their return. The other coble reached safety without help.—Expense of service, 27*l.* 18*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 4.—FLAMBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE.—Forester Life-boat.—During a strong

S.S.E. gale and rough sea it was reported that three of the fishing cobbles were off the Head and in difficulties. The No. 1 Life-boat was launched and proceeded to their assistance. Having stood by them, she accompanied them into safety. — Expense of service, 14*l.* 14*s.* 3*d.*

Dec. 4. — MARGATE, KENT. — Civil Service No. 1 Life-boat. — The ketch Susie, of Littlehampton, whilst bound from London to Southampton with a cargo of maize, stranded during a strong southerly gale on the Longnose Rocks. She got off the rocks, but was making water fast; the master therefore made signals of distress. At 7.15 p.m. the No. 1 Life-boat was launched, and on reaching the ketch the master stated he feared that his craft was sinking, and his crew were exhausted from pumping. Eleven Life-boat men were at once put on board, and although there were upwards of four feet of water in the hold, they found that it would be possible with continual pumping to keep the water under. The pumps were manned, and by the combined efforts of the three hands and the Life-boat men the vessel was successfully brought into harbour at 10.45 p.m. — Property salvage case.

Dec. 8. — RAMSGATE, KENT. — Charles and Susanna Stephens Life-boat. — At 3.50 a.m. it was reported that a vessel in the vicinity of the Gull Light-vessel was making signals of distress, and without loss of time the Life-boat was sent to her assistance. She was found lying at anchor, and the Life-boat went alongside and offered her help; a tug, however, was already standing by her. The vessel was a large barque, the Forfarshire, of Glasgow, loaded with grain from Callao to London. She reported having been in collision with a steamer off Folkestone. She had had all her headgear carried away and stern damaged. The Life-boat stood by until 7.15 next morning, but no assistance being required she returned to harbour in tow of the tug which had taken her out. — Expenses paid by Board of Trade.

Dec. 8. — CRICCIETH, CARNARVONSHIRE. — Caroline Life-boat. — At 1.20 p.m. during a strong S.W. gale, signals of distress were observed about one-and-a-half miles to south-east of the Life-boat station. The crew of the Life-boat were immediately assembled and proceeded to the rescue. The vessel proved to be the three-masted schooner Owen Morris, of Carnarvon, bound from Naples to Portmadoc in ballast. She stranded on Portmadoc bar, and in a very heavy confused sea the Life-boat successfully saved the six men on board, the vessel becoming a total wreck. This good service so skilfully performed was witnessed by many hundreds of people who highly praised both the Coxswain and crew. The following letter was a few days later received by the local Honorary Secretary from the shipwrecked crew:—

“Portmadoc, 11th December, 1907.

“Capt. EVAN JONES,

“DEAR SIR,—I beg on behalf of myself and crew of the Owen Morris, of Carnarvon, which was wrecked last Sunday on Craig Ddu during a heavy storm, to thank Coxswain and crew of Life-boat Caroline, and the NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION, for their heroic and daring effort to rescue us, as the vessel was in a broken and confused ground sea, and although the vessel was supplied with two good boats, they would have been quite inadequate for rescuing work as they would never have lived in the confused sea. It was a good thing for us that a Life-boat was stationed at Criccieth, otherwise we would have been in great peril.

“I am, dear Sir,

“Yours faithfully,

(Signed) “DAVID ROBERTS.”

Dec. 8. — FOLKESTONE, KENT. — Leslie Life-boat. Shortly before two o'clock in the morning it was reported that signals were being made from a vessel off the harbour. A strong S.W. gale was blowing, accompanied by a heavy sea. The Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the vessel, which they found at anchor just clear of the Copt Rocks. She proved to be the steamer Scheldestroom, of Amsterdam, bound with a general cargo to Plymouth, and had been in collision about four miles off Folkestone. The crew were very excited and requested to be put ashore, but the Coxswain prevailed upon them to remain by the ship. It appeared that previous to the arrival of the Life-boat one of the steamer's boats had put off with seven or eight men in her. In the rough sea she capsized, and they were drowned. As seven of the men still persisted they were brought ashore about 4 A.M. Later in the day they returned to the steamer, but when dusk came on they refused to remain any longer, as they feared she would break in two pieces; the Life-boat therefore again brought them ashore, and she remained in the harbour until the steamer was taken away in tow of tugs.—Expense of service, 35*l.* 11*s.* and property salvage case.

Dec. 8.—BRIXHAM, SOUTH DEVON.—Betsy Newbon Life-boat.—In response to a message stating that a vessel in Torbay was making signals of distress the Life-boat was launched at 7.20 P.M. She proceeded to the craft which proved to be the ketch Lily of Falmouth, loaded with stone. The crew of two men wished to be taken ashore; the Coxswain of the Life-boat offered to stand by and render assistance, but the crew stated they wished to be landed as they considered they were in great danger by remaining on board. There was a whole W.S.W. gale blowing, and the ketch was dragging. The men were taken into the Life-boat which landed them at about 9.15 P.M. About two hours later the gale moderated and the men were able to return aboard.—Expense of service, 20*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 8.—NEW BRIGHTON, CHESHIRE.—Queen Life-boat.—During a strong S.S.W. breeze with rough sea the steam Life-boat was called out about 11.20 P.M. by distress signals from the Crosby Light-ship. On reaching the position indicated the sloop Pilgrim of Cemaes was found riding to anchor inside the mark-buoys of the channel. As the vessel was in a dangerous position the master requested the Life-boat to stand by her. The Coxswain accordingly did so throughout the night, and then having assisted to get the vessel into a position of safety, returned to New Brighton.—Expense of service, 20*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 10.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Ada Lewis Life-boat.—The fishing cobles belonging to Newbiggin put to sea as usual with their lines before daybreak. Towards the middle of the day the southerly wind and sea increased, making the landing both difficult and dangerous. The Life-boat was launched and stood by the boats until all had reached safety, when she returned ashore and was rehooused.—Expense of service, 8*l.*

Dec. 11.—STROMNESS, ORKNEY ISLES.—Good Shepherd Life-boat.—About six o'clock in the morning the steam trawler Shakespeare, of Hull, homeward bound from the fishing grounds went ashore at the Point of Spoil near Breckness. The morning was boisterous with a fresh south-westerly breeze, and when the vessel struck the sea was very heavy. Soon after striking the vessel became submerged and the crew had to take to the rigging. Unhappily two of the crew were washed away as soon as the vessel stranded, and two more were lost from the mast before help could reach them. Information of the wreck reached Stromness about 7 A.M., and with all haste the Life-boat was despatched to the assistance of the endangered men.

On nearing the steamer it was seen that two of the men were clinging to the fore rigging, one was on the funnel and three on the mainmast. The sea was so heavy that at times it was breaking right over the men, and it was evident that the rescue would be an exceedingly difficult and dangerous one.

With great skill and splendid seamanship the Coxswain manœuvred the boat until near enough to get communication by throwing the grapnel into the fore-rigging. By this means a life-belt was passed to the two men clinging there, and these were hauled through the sea in safety to the boat. The boat was then worked down until it was possible to throw a line to the man on the funnel and he too was saved. In the meanwhile, the life-saving apparatus had come upon the scene, and by means of a rocket established communication from the shore with the men on the mainmast, they were hauled ashore. The Life-boat then started for Stromness, everything possible being done for the rescued men who were in an exhausted condition.

At a subsequent inquiry held at Kirkwall into the sad loss of the four men, the Sheriff, addressing ROBERT GREIG, the Coxswain of the Life-boat, said:—"The master of the trawler has already expressed his gratitude for the treatment received at the hands of your crew, and the jury would like through me to add their congratulations for the efficient way in which you conducted the rescue."

In recognition of this gallant and skilful service the Committee of Management conferred upon ROBERT GREIG the silver medal of the Institution, and granted to him and each of the crew an additional monetary reward.—Expense of service, 31*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 12th Dec., 1907.

Voted 595*l.* 8*s.* to pay the expenses of the following Life-boat launches and assemblies of crews with the view of assisting persons on vessels in distress:—Brooke, Caister No. 1, Cemlyn, Courtown, Dunbar, Dungeness No. 2, Exmouth, Folkestone, Gorleston Nos. 1 and 2, Hartlepool No. 3, Holyhead Nos. 1 and 2, Hoylake, Ilfracombe, Kessingland No. 1, Margate No. 2, Pakefield, Plymouth, Port Logan, Rhyl, Southend-on-Sea, Whitby No. 1 and Yarmouth.

Voted a gratuity under the pension scheme to WILLIAM THOMAS, Assistant Coxswain at Burry Port, on his retirement.

Voted 206*l.* 12*s.* to men injured in the Life-boat services at Hayling Island, Longhope, and Mablethorpe. Also paid 17*l.* 10*s.* for a horse injured in the service at Bridlington Quay.

Dec. 12.—HASTINGS, SUSSEX.—Charles Arkcoll Life-boat.—During a moderate S.S.W. gale with a very heavy sea, at about 6 A.M., the Coastguard reported that a vessel was in distress off Pett. The Life-boat was promptly launched and proceeded to her. She proved to be the S.S. Volano of Sunderland bound from Sunderland to Limerick with a cargo, but her machinery had broken down. At the request of the Captain the Coxswain proceeded some distance until he obtained a tug in tow of which he returned to the steamer. No further assistance from the Life-boat being then required she returned to her station.—Expense of service, 32*l.* 13*s.*

Dec. 13.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Charles and Susanna Stephens Life-boat.—At 8.30 P.M. signals of distress were reported from a barge at anchor in Pegwell Bay. There was a whole S.S.W. gale at the time with a very heavy sea. The Life-boat in tow of the harbour tug proceeded to the barge, which proved to be the Thames of Greenhithe; the weather was very bad and the seas were breaking right over her. As it was feared she would become a wreck the two men on board were rescued, considerable risk being incurred in the operation. Shortly afterwards the weather moderated, the wind in a tremendous squall having shifted to westward, the sea smoothed. Thinking it might be possible to save the barge the Life-boat and tug stood by her for an hour or so. Some of the Life-boat crew were then put on board, together with the crew of two men, and they succeeded in sailing her into Ramsgate at 1.15 A.M., the tug and Life-boat accompanying her.—Expenses paid by the Board of Trade.

Dec. 13.—SOUTHWOLD, SUFFOLK.—Alfred Corry Life-boat.—The spritsail barge Decima of London had her sprit and topmast carried away during a W.S.W. gale and very heavy sea about six miles off Southwold. In response to her signals of distress the No. 1 Life-boat at 11.55 P.M. proceeded to her, but the captain refused to leave his craft. The Life-boat therefore at his request then proceeded to Lowestoft for a tug. They arrived at 3 A.M., obtained a tug and returned to the vessel. The tug then took the barge in tow, and with the Life-boat in attendance the vessel and her crew of two hands were taken to Lowestoft.—Property salvage case. Balance of expense paid by Institution, 5*l.* 11*s.* 11*d.*

Dec. 13.—MARGATE, KENT.—Civil Service No. 1 Life-boat.—Shortly after midnight during a strong N. by W. gale the Coastguard reported that a vessel was showing flares to the eastward of Margate. The crew were at once summoned and the No. 2 Life-boat launched. On reaching the vessel—the ketch Sleuthhound of Ramsgate—they found her badly stranded on the main with a shore-boat alongside. The crew were about to land in the shore-boat and at their request the Life-boat stood by until this had been safely accomplished. The Life-boat then returned ashore arriving at 3.30 A.M.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 0*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 14.—CROMER, NORFOLK.—Louisa Heartwell Life-boat.—At 9.30 A.M. the Coastguard reported that a vessel about one mile off shore was flying signals of distress. The Life-boat was launched, and on reaching her found that she was the barge Britisher, of Hull, bound from Greenhithe to Hull, with a cargo of chalk. There was a strong gale, and the heavy seas continually broke over the barge. The three men on board were in such an exhausted condition that they were unable to weigh anchor, and they feared the barge would drive ashore. They were successfully rescued and landed a few minutes after 11 A.M.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 3*s.*

Dec. 14.—BROADSTAIRS, KENT.—Francis Forbes Barton Life-boat.—The crew of the Life-boat had a very trying experience owing to the intense cold and very rough weather during a long service. A whole W.N.W. gale was blowing, and about 10 A.M. a schooner was observed in difficulties drifting before the gale towards the Goodwin Sands, having been in collision during the night. The Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the schooner, which proved to be the Windermere, of Chester, bound from Par to Queenborough with a cargo of pipeclay. The Life-boat stood by her, and some of the men were put on board, who rendered valuable assistance in checking the drifting. The weather as the tide made gradually got worse, but the boat remained until a tug arrived. They were then able to return to Broadstairs, where they landed at 5 A.M. next morning suffering considerably from cold and exhaustion.—Property salvage service. Balance paid by Institution, 7*l.* 16*s.*

Dec. 14.—SOUTHSEA, HAMPSHIRE.—Heyland Life-boat.—A telegram was received from Ryde about 3 P.M., asking that the Life-boat should be sent to a barge in distress between the Sand Head Buoy and Ryde Pier. As wind and tide were both against the boat, a tug was sent for, and about 3.20 P.M. the Life-boat left in tow for the vessel. On arrival at the sand they found the London barge Blanche was then just clear of the sands. She had been bumping heavily and making water. Her tiller was gone and gudgeon broken. The master declined the Coxswain's offer to put some men on board to assist him, as he then thought assistance was not necessary. The Life-boat stood by her for half-an-hour when the weather having moderated she returned home.—Expense of service, 19*l.* 8*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 15.—TOTLAND BAY, ISLE OF WIGHT.—Robert Fleming Life-boat.—The Coastguard reported signals of distress from the direction of the Shingle Bank about 10 P.M. The Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the sands, where she found the schooner Hans, of Brake, Germany, in a very bad position and likely to break in two. The Life-boat stood by her until nearly high water, when she floated, but leaking badly. Several Life-boat men were placed on board, and with their assistance the vessel was taken to a position of safety. Happily the weather was moderate and sea smooth during this service, or the schooner would doubtless have been lost.—Expense of service, 35*l.* 8*s.*

Dec. 18.—CAISTER AND GREAT YARMOUTH, NORFOLK.—Nancy Lucy and John Burch Life-boats.—The s.s. Andalusia, of London, whilst bound from Antwerp to King's Lynn, with a cargo of silver sand, stranded on the Barber Sand, and the two Life-boats put off to her assistance. The weather was moderate at the time, and as there was a prospect of the vessel floating on the next high tide the Life-boats stood by her in case their services should be required; but about 4 P.M. the steamer got clear of the sand and they returned ashore.—Expense of service, Caister, 25*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*; Yarmouth, 27*l.* 6*s.* 9*d.*

Dec. 21.—KINGSDOWNE, KENT.—Charles Hargrave Life-boat.—The Life-boat performed a good service resulting in fourteen lives and a dog being saved from the steamer Cap Lopez, of Antwerp, which stranded and ultimately became a total wreck on the Goodwin Sands.

The Life-boat was launched about 2.30 A.M., and on nearing the vessel anchored and veered down to her. They got alongside with considerable difficulty as the sea, in the prevailing W.S.W. gale, was very heavy. The captain of the steamer at once engaged the Life-boat men to try and save the vessel. The Walmer Life-boat also came upon the scene shortly afterwards, and that crew was also engaged to try and save the vessel. A kedge anchor was laid out, and they commenced to jettison the cargo. When the tide turned the wind and sea increased considerably, and it was seen that it would be necessary to abandon the vessel. The Walmer Life-boat broke from the ship while six of her men were still on board, and the Kingsdowne Life-boat incurred great risk and difficulty in rescuing the crew of the vessel and getting the others on board into the Life-boat. The seas were making a clean breach over the vessel, and the Life-boat had to go on to the ship rail before they could get all the men out; some of them had taken to the rigging, and had to jump from there into the boat. Happily, everybody was successfully saved, and when the Life-boat got clear of the wreck she assisted the Walmer Life-boat, which had been considerably damaged, and both boats made for Ramsgate, which was reached about noon.—Expense of service, 66*l.* 9*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 26. — MUMBLES, GLAMORGANSHIRE.—Charlie Medland Life-boat.—During a moderate E.S.E. gale with heavy sea, signals were observed from a schooner lying at anchor in the Roads. The crew of the Life-boat were summoned and she proceeded to the vessel in question. She proved to be the John Ewing, of Cardigan, bound from Red Bridge to Newport, Monmouthshire, with a cargo of rails. The vessel was labouring heavily and leaking, and in addition the cargo had shifted and carried away the pumps. On getting alongside, the crew, consisting of five hands and the master's wife, were taken into the Life-boat and taken into safety.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 18*s.*

The next day the vessel having weathered the storm the Life-boat men were able to save her.

Dec. 26.—HARTLEPOOL, DURHAM.—Horatio Brand Life-boat. At 6.15 P.M. a vessel was observed to run ashore to the southward of the entrance, and whilst steps were being taken to send assistance, signals of distress were made by those on board. The Life-boat was towed down the Channel to the bar, where she parted with the tug and proceeded direct to the vessel. On the way a heavy sea struck the boat breaking two oars. The vessel proved to be the steamer Hanna, of Stavanger, inward bound from Gottenburg with a cargo of wooden goods. She was in a bad position, and a heavy sea was running with a moderate E.S.E. gale. There were twenty-three persons on board, and as it was not possible to rescue all in one trip, twelve were taken ashore, and the boat returned for the remainder, the service being completed by 8.40 P.M. The rescue was witnessed by a crowd who heartily cheered the Life-boat men each time they landed the rescued men.—Expense of service, 26*l.* 4*s.*

Dec. 28.—BRIXHAM, SOUTH DEVON.—Betsey Newbon Life-boat.—A whole E.S.E. gale had been blowing all night, causing a very heavy sea, and placing the fishing fleet in danger. In the morning several of the fishermen announced their intention of putting off to work their trawlers out of the bay. As this necessitated their going out in open boats and incurring considerable risk, the Life-boat was launched to protect them, and she rendered valuable assistance in addition to safeguarding their lives.—Expense of service, 10*l.* 10*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 30th Dec., 1907.

Voted 44*l.* 4*s.* 5*d.* to pay the expenses of assemblies, watching, launches, etc., with the view of assisting the crews of the distressed vessels by the following Life-boats, etc.:—Aldeburgh No. 1, Barry Dock, Brancaster, Bridlington Quay, Broadstairs, Clacton-on-Sea, Courtown, Dunmore East, Formby, Harwich (steam), Holyhead No. 2, Margate No. 1, North Deal, Port Logan, Selsea, Southend-on-Sea, Walmer, Wells, and Winchelsea. Voted 9*l.* 2*s.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at Hastings and Kingsdowne.

THE LIFE-BELT USED BY THE CREWS OF THE LIFE-BOATS OF THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

The requisite qualities of a Life-boat man's life-belt are—

1. Sufficient extra buoyancy, 22 lbs., to support a man heavily clothed, with his head and shoulders above the water, or to enable him to support another person besides himself.
2. Perfect flexibility, so as to readily conform to the shape of the wearer.
3. A division into two zones, an upper and lower, so that between the two it may be secured tightly round the waist; for in no other manner can it be confined sufficiently close and secure round the body without such pressure over the chest and ribs as to materially affect the free action of the lungs, impede the muscular movement of the chest and arms, and thereby diminish the power of endurance of fatigue, which, in rowing-boats, is a matter of vital importance.
4. Strength, durability and non-liability to injury.

SHORE-BOAT SERVICES REWARDED BY THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION IN 1907.

Jan. 10.—Voted the thanks of the Institution inscribed on vellum and framed, and 1l. 10s. each to five men, one of whom was the Coxswain of the Poole Life-boat, for rescuing at great personal risk one of two men whose boat was capsized on Christchurch Ledges, in a heavy ground sea on the 18th December, 1906.

THE LIFE-BOAT STATION.

THE following brief description and diagrams illustrative of a complete Life-boat Establishment, including the House for the protection of the boat, will serve to convey an idea of the general character of one of the 280 Life-boat Stations of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

It will be seen that it is a work of a costly nature, and that not only in the first instance, but that a large permanent expense is entailed in keeping the whole machinery in an efficient state, in the re-supply of any part of it which may be destroyed or worn out, in the exercise of the boats' crews, in launching and working the boats and in remunerating them for their services in saving their fellow-creatures. Yet, looking to the vast importance of the result effected and the responsibility of calling on men to risk their lives in effecting the same, it is felt that few if any persons will be found who will consider that expense to be incurred in vain.

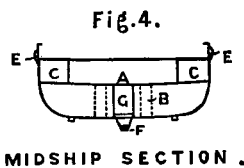

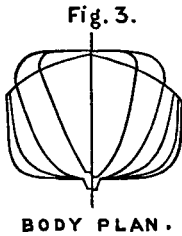

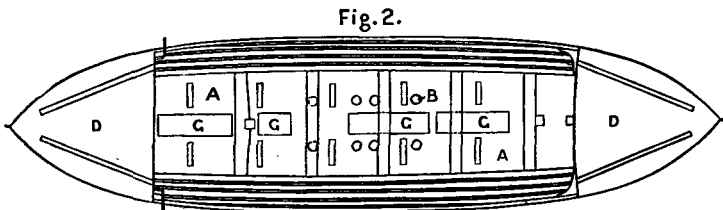

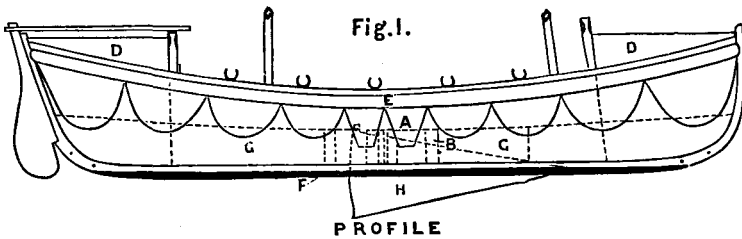

THE LIFE-BOAT.

(See Diagrams on following pages.)

The following drawings show the general outline and principal fittings of the different types of Life-boats used in the Institution's service. Figure 1 gives the profile or broadside view. Fig. 2 the "plan" or deck view. Fig. 3 the "body plan," showing the form of transverse vertical sections at regular intervals in the length; and Fig. 4 the "midship section." The festooned lines on the Fig. 1 profile views represent outside lifelines for men in the water to catch hold. The blackened portion of the keel indicates "iron keel" ballast in distinction from "water ballast" carried in "tanks" or compartments provided in the hold for the purpose, and admitting of being taken in or pumped out at pleasure; both "iron" and "water ballast" are variable and optional in the several boats according to the special circumstances of the different stations and wishes of the coxswains and crews. Water shipped on deck by seas breaking over the boat and otherwise is automatically freed through the holes in the deck and bottom of boat, connected by large pipes called "relieving tubes" having valves called "relieving valves" fitted at the deck, which pass water downwards but not upwards. Some boats, such as the "Norfolk and Suffolk" type, have also freeing scuppers in the sides of boat above deck for the same purpose. Enclosed compartments are automatically ventilated by specially designed valves and pipes. A large proportion of the boats have "centre boards" or "drop-keels" of variable size and weight, which can be used at pleasure and materially add to their weather qualities.

THE LIFE-BOAT TRANSPORTING-CARRIAGE.

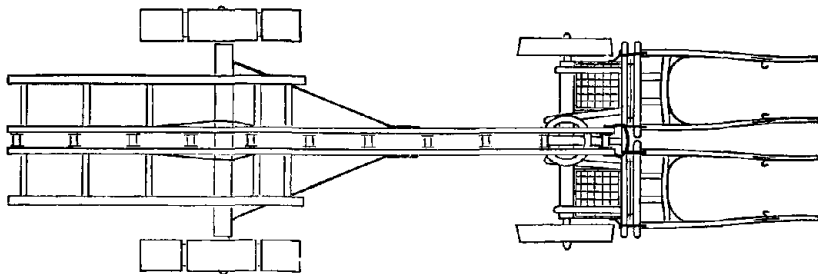

The Life-boat transporting-carriage is a very important auxiliary to the boat. Nearly every Life-boat, except a few of the larger sizes, is provided with a carriage, on which she is kept in the boat-house ready for immediate transportation to the most favourable position for launching to a wreck. A Life-boat is thus made available for a greater extent of coast than she otherwise would be. In addition to its ordinary use, a carriage is of immense service in launching a boat from a flat beach; while "Tipping's plates," with which the main wheels are sometimes clad, greatly facilitate the transport of the boat over the long stretches of soft sand which have to be traversed before deep enough water is reached to float the boat.

The carriage consists of a fore and main body. The latter is formed of a keelway, and of bilgeways attached to it, and resting on the main axle, the boat's weight being entirely on the rollers of the keelway. Its leading characteristics are that while for launching it forms an inclined plane, down which the boat can be launched off the rear end, it can also be used for replacing the boat, the inclined plane being reversed by removing the fore-carriage.

A very full equipment of stores is supplied to the Life-boats of the Institution—such as life-belts, anchors and cables, grapnels and lines, life-buoys, lanterns, rockets, and many other articles, together with portable or launching-skids.

THE LIFE-BOAT HOUSE.

The boats of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION and all belonging to them are kept in roomy and substantial boat-houses, under lock and key, in charge of paid coxswains, under the general superintendence of local honorary committees of residents in the several localities. Each boat has its appointed coxswain at a salary of 8*l.* and an assistant at 2*l.* a year, with further allowances in special circumstances. The crew consists, in addition, of a bowman who is paid 30*s.* a year, and as many boatmen as the boat pulls oars. A signalman is also appointed who receives a retaining fee of 1*l.* per annum and payment as a helper each time he is on duty. The members of the volunteer crews are usually registered and wherever practicable at least double the number of men required are entered on the register. Such men are mostly resident boatmen, fishermen or coastguardmen. On every occasion of going afloat to save life the coxswains and each of the crew receive alike from the funds of the Institution (whether successful or not) 10*s.*, if by day, and 1*l.*, if by night; and usually 4*s.* each for every time of going afloat for exercise. These payments are increased by one half during the six months of each year beginning the 1st October and ending the 31st March. The Institution also grants retiring allowances to coxswains, bowmen and signalmen of good behaviour and long service. It should be specially noted that the Life-boat crews, excepting when remunerated by the owners of vessels for property salvage service, are paid by the Institution for their efforts, whether successful or not, in saving life.

A reward of 7*s.* is given to the man who first brings intelligence of a wreck in such a position as not to be in sight of a coastguardman on duty or other responsible look-out man.

On boarding wrecks the preservation of life is the sole consideration. Should any goods or merchandise be brought into the Life-boat contrary to the coxswain's orders he is authorised to throw them overboard.

The formation of a Life-boat Station costs at least 2,000*l.*, and the Annual Expense of maintaining it is about 125*l.*—in many instances much more.

Such is a brief summary of the more important Regulations under which the Life-boats are worked. How faithfully and with what result they are carried out let the journals of each Life-boat Station and the annals of the Institution tell.

The ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION has now 280 Life-boats under its charge. Nearly all of these have been specially presented to it, and they save every year hundreds of shipwrecked persons. Altogether, the Institution has—since its establishment on the 4th March, 1824—granted rewards for the saving of 47,845 lives, either by its Life-boats or by other means.

Despite however this fleet of 280 Life-boats and of 17 others locally provided or otherwise supported, and despite the numerous rocket apparatus stations on our coast, there remains the melancholy fact that about 500 lives are lost annually on or near the coasts of the United Kingdom alone, as shown by the Board of Trade Returns, proclaiming solemnly though silently that for humanity's sake and for the national credit, no exertions should be spared in providing every possible means for the conveyance of succour to the shipwrecked.

The Institution needs about 100,000*l.* per annum to maintain its great Life-saving Fleet; and the Committee of Management feel assured that it will never lack it so long as it maintains its boats in the state of thorough efficiency that they are in at the present time, and manned as they are on every emergency by as fearless and noble a class of men as ever Nelson or Collingwood led to battle to uphold our country's honour and glory.

ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

Incorporated by Royal Charter. Supported Solely by Voluntary Contributions.

Patron—His Most Gracious Majesty the King.

President—H.R.H. THE PRINCE OF WALES, K.G.

Chairman—SIR EDWARD BIRKBECK, Bart., V.P.

Deputy Chairman—COLONEL FITZROY CLAYTON, V.P.

Secretary—CHARLES DIBDIN, Esq., F.R.G.S.

APPEAL.

THE Committee of Management of the Royal National Life-boat Institution earnestly appeal to the British Public for Funds to enable them to maintain their 280 Life-boats now on the Coast and their Crews in the most perfect state of efficiency. This can only be effected by a large and permanent annual income. The Annual Subscriptions, Donations, and Dividends are quite inadequate for the purpose. The Committee are confident that in their endeavour to provide the brave Life-boat men, who nobly hazard their lives in order that they may save others, with the best possible means for carrying on their great work, they will meet with the entire approval of the people of this the greatest maritime country in the world, and that their appeal will not be made in vain, so that the scope and efficiency of our great life-saving service, of which the Nation has always been so proud, may not have to be curtailed.

The Institution granted rewards for the saving of 1,156 lives in 1907, namely, 932 by the Life-boats, and 224 by fishing and other boats. Total of lives saved, for which rewards have been granted, from the Establishment of the Institution in 1824 to 31st December, 1907, 47,345.

It should be specially noted that the Life-boat Crews, excepting when remunerated by the owners of vessels for property salvage service, are paid by the Institution for their efforts, whether successful or not, in saving life.

Annual Subscriptions and Donations will be thankfully received by the Secretary, Charles Dibdin, Esq., at the Institution, 22, Charing Cross Road, London, W.C.; by the Bankers of the Institution, Messrs. Coutts and Co., 440, Strand, London, W.C.; by all the other Bankers in the United Kingdom; and by all the Life-boat Branches.
