

THE LIFE-BOAT.

JOURNAL

OF THE

Royal National Life-boat Institution.

(ISSUED QUARTERLY.)

VOL. XXI.—No. 240.]

1ST MAY, 1911.

[PRICE 1s.

AT the ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION, held at the Royal United Service Institution, Whitehall, on Thursday, the 16th day of March, 1911, The Right Honourable the EARL OF DERBY, G.C.V.O., C.B., in the Chair, the following Report of the Committee of Management was presented:—

ANNUAL REPORT.

IN all branches of the work of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION thorough efficiency has been maintained during the past year, and the Service has never been in a better condition to meet the demands made upon it.

The death of his late Majesty King Edward VII. was a severe blow to the Institution, in which he had always taken the deepest interest, having been Vice-President from 1863 to 1899, and President from 1899 till his Accession, when he became Patron. The Committee of Management have the satisfaction of stating that His Majesty King George, on relinquishing the office of President, graciously consented to become Patron of the Institution in succession to his late Majesty, thus emphasizing his interest in everything that affects the welfare of the seafaring population. His Grace the Duke of Northumberland, K.G., for many years a Vice-President and warm friend of the Institution, was proposed for election as President.

The Committee have to record the great loss which the Institution sustained on the 7th June, 1910—as reported in the Life-boat Journal—by the death of Mr. Charles Dibdin, who had filled the post of Secretary to the Institution for 27 years. Throughout this long period Mr. Dibdin had served the Institution with great devotion, and his death is deeply regretted by all concerned in its management.

In August, the Committee appointed to the Secretaryship Mr. George F. Shee, M.A., a gentleman widely known for his powers of organization as Secretary of the National Service League.

Life-boats.—Two additional motor Life-boats were sent to the coast, one to Brughy Ferry (Forfarshire), and the other to Donaghadee (co. Down); and eight additional motor Life-boats are in course of construction. New sailing boats were supplied to various stations, the coxswains and crews being fully consulted, as usual, as to the type of boat in which they had most confidence.

The following is a list of the new boats of all kinds sent to the coast during the year:—

Appledore No. 1 . . .	Devonshire.
Ayr	Ayrshire.
Broughty Ferry (motor)	Forfarshire.
Craill	Fifeshire.
Donaghadee (motor).	Co. Down.
Hythe	Kent.
Kirkcudbright. . . .	Kirkcudbrightshire.
Moelfre	Anglesey.
Pakefield	Suffolk.
Poolbeg	Co. Dublin.
Poole	Dorset.
Runswick	Yorkshire.
St. Andrews	Fifeshire.
Southsea	Hampshire.

At the end of the year 1910, exclusive of Boats in the Reserve, the fleet of the Institution consisted of 268 sailing and pulling Life-boats, 9 motor Life-boats, 4 steam Life-boats and 1 steam tug, making a total of 281 Life-boats and 1 steam tug.

Transporting Carriages.—A new transporting carriage was built and sent to Runswick (Yorkshire).

Inspection of Life-boats.—As usual, all the stations of the Institution were carefully inspected, a report in each case being submitted for the consideration of the Committee. Wherever necessary, the boats and stations were repaired.

Shipwrecks.—The gales of the year provided a full measure of arduous and dangerous work for the Life-boat crews, and it is with the deepest regret that the Committee report that one of the most gallant rescues was attended by the loss of the lives of three Life-boatmen. The St. David's Life-boat was called out about midnight on the 12th-13th October, by signals of distress from the ketch Democrat, of Barnstaple. The weather was exceptionally bad, with a whole gale from the N.E. and a very heavy sea. The three men on board were rescued, but the Life-boat, on its way back, was dashed on a rock, with disastrous results, the Coxswain (John Stephens) and two of the crew (James Price and Henry Rowlands) losing their lives in the service of their fellow men. The remainder of the Life-boatmen and the three men rescued from the ketch managed to cling to the rock, but would have perished from prolonged exposure had not some brave men gone off in shore-boats to their aid. The foremost of these men, a young fisherman named Sydney Mortimer, was rewarded with the Silver Medal of the Institution, and was subsequently elected Coxswain by the Life-boat crew. The Board of Trade, who held an enquiry into the disaster, found that no blame attached to the late Coxswain or the crew of the Life-boat. The Institution contributed £225 to the fund raised locally on behalf of the two widows and one dependent daughter who lost their bread-winners in this catastrophe.

The heaviest gales occurred on the 17th-21st February, the 12th-14th October, and the 15th-16th December. During the February gales 22 Life-boats were launched, 41 lives were saved, and 4 vessels were assisted. During the October storm 26 Life-boats were launched, resulting in the saving of 70 lives and 6 vessels. Finally, during the terrible storm of the 15th-16th December, 23 Life-boats were launched, 47 lives were saved, and 4 vessels; while 8 vessels and a very large number of fishing-cobles were assisted.

Altogether the Life-boats were launched 438 times on service, being manned by 6,381 men; in addition to which the crews were assembled in readiness for service on 52 occasions when fortunately it was found unnecessary to launch.

The Committee granted rewards for the saving of 649 lives by Life-boats and 118 lives by shore-boats and other means, or a total of 767 lives. The Life-boats were instrumental in saving 60 vessels and boats.

NOTE.—Prior to 1853 the lives saved by Life-boats, Shore-boats, etc., were not separately recorded.

Rewards.—The rewards bestowed in 1910 for rescuing lives from shipwreck or for praiseworthy and gallant attempts at rescue and in recognition of other good services rendered to the cause, included 4 Silver Medals and clasps, 14 Binocular Glasses, 5 Aneroid Barometers, 16 Votes of Thanks inscribed on vellum and framed, 10 Certificates of Service framed, and 12,262*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* in money payments, including pensions, retiring allowances, gratuities and compensation for personal injuries or loss sustained in the service.

At the close of 1910 the Institution had granted since its foundation in March, 1824, 101 Gold Medals and Clasps, 1,273 Silver Medals and Clasps, 69 Decorations, 426 Binocular Glasses, 15 Telescopes, 95 Aneroid Barometers, 1,932 Votes of Thanks inscribed on vellum and framed, 223 Certificates of Service framed, and 317,714*l.* in money.

Aneroids.—The Institution supplied, at a considerable reduction in price, 51 Aneroid Barometers to fishermen and 6 to coasters, making a total issue since 1882 of 5,156.

Life-boat Saturday Fund.—The Life-boat Saturday Fund, which had done excellent work for many years past in collecting funds on behalf of the Institution, was dissolved on the 31st December with a view to economy and to unity of effort and control. The grateful appreciation of the Committee of Management for the public-spirited work done by many thousands of patriotic men and women, who had devoted themselves to the Life-boat cause in connexion with the Fund, found expression, not only in the thanks publicly accorded to them through the medium of the Press, but also in the gracious words in which His Majesty referred to their work in the letter addressed by Sir Arthur Bigge to the Chairman of the Institution.

It is most satisfactory to be able to add, that, in response to the invitation issued by the Committee of Management, the vast majority of the Local Committees and Ladies' Auxiliaries of the late Fund have, in a spirit of hearty good will, agreed to transfer their energies to the Institution direct.

Local Committees.—The very grateful thanks of the Committee of Management are tendered to the Local Committees and their officers for their continued cordial co-operation, and more particularly to those at Station Branches who undertake the responsibility of managing and controlling the Life-boats and their crews. Special thanks are due to the Honorary Secretaries and Treasurers.

Public Authorities.—The warm thanks of the Committee are due to the Post Office and the various Light-house and Light-vessel authorities for their continued help. Also to His Majesty's Coastguard, whose watching of the coast is most important to the success of the Institution. The Committee earnestly hope that the system of watching by the Coastguard will be maintained and extended in the interests of humanity.

The Press.—The generous support of the Public Press is very gratefully acknowledged by the Committee.

Inventions.—Inventions have been submitted during the past year, and have received the careful attention of the Committee who are always on the look-out for any improvement which may tend to the increased efficiency of the Service.

Finances.—The amount received in annual subscriptions, donations, dividends, etc., including 14,592*l.* 2*s.* 5*d.* from the Life-boat Saturday Fund, was 72,609*l.* 9*s.* 1*d.*, a decrease of 6,092*l.* 16*s.* 10*d.* as compared with 1909. In addition, legacies amounting to 21,812*l.* 14*s.* 2*d.* were received, of which 6,442*l.* 11*s.* 5*d.* were for special trusts or specified purposes. 2,900*l.* were also received in gifts specially earmarked. But for the legacies the work could not have been carried on without encroaching on the invested funds of the Institution; for the total expenditure was 99,403*l.* 19*s.* This amount included 36,907*l.* 4*s.* for building, equipping and repairing Life-boats, Life-boat transporting carriages, Life-boat houses and slipways; 19,017*l.* 3*s.* for subsidies for non-self-supporting stations, branch outlays, aneroids for fishermen and coasters, life-belts and other stores and the store-yard; 32,862*l.* 13*s.* 11*d.* (a) for payments to coxswains, bowmen and signalmen, crews, etc., for services and for exercising the Life-boats, (b) for special rewards and recognitions, (c) for grants for injuries and to the relatives of deceased Life-boatmen, (d) for pensions and other retiring allowances to coxswains, bowmen and signalmen, (e) for medals and vellums, and (f) for payments to the inspecting staff. The balance was expended on printing, advertising, postage, telegrams and stationery, and on salaries, rates, taxes, office expenses and legal charges. Each item of receipt and expenditure has been examined and verified by Mr. Albert W. Wyon, Chartered Accountant, of the firm of Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co.

The Pension Scheme which was sanctioned last year has, after careful re-consideration, been confirmed; and the Committee entertain no doubt that it will prove a measure of true economy, productive of the best results in the work of the permanent staff of the Institution.

In conclusion, the fact that the Institution has now undertaken, as part of its ordinary business, the whole work of collecting funds for the national service with which it is entrusted, encourages the Committee to ask all supporters of the Institution to work with renewed energy and zeal on behalf of a cause which makes a special appeal alike to the instincts of humanity and to the spirit of a seafaring people.

NOTE.

After the Annual Report was completed, Colonel Sir FITZROY CLAYTON, who had taken an active part in its preparation, was seized with sudden illness, and, to the deep regret of his colleagues, he has now resigned the Chairmanship of the Committee of Management. The Committee at their last meeting unanimously passed the following Resolution:—

The Committee of Management have heard with the deepest regret of the illness of their Chairman, Sir FITZROY CLAYTON, and desire to assure him of their sincere sympathy and of their earnest wishes for his speedy recovery. They reluctantly accept his resignation of the Chairmanship, as from the date of the Annual Meeting; and gratefully remembering the invaluable services he has rendered to the Institution for more than forty-eight years, they hope he may be willing to retain the office of Vice-President, and that they may continue to have the benefit of his counsel and support for many years.

The Royal National Life-Boat Institution

Is prepared to establish and maintain a Life-boat Station on any part of the coast of the United Kingdom where it can be shown, from previous disasters, that a Life-boat is required. It is requisite that there should be a sufficient number of men (fishermen, or others accustomed to the management of boats at sea) to man the Life-boat, and a Committee formed from the residents in the neighbourhood to superintend the Station and obtain such small Annual Subscriptions as may contribute towards a portion of the expense of the Life-boat Station.

Communications should be addressed to the Secretary of the Institution, 22 Charing Cross Road, London, W.C.

GOD HELP OUR MEN AT SEA.

List of the Rewards

FOR SAVING LIFE FROM WRECKS

VOTED BY THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION

TO THE CREWS OF ITS LIFE-BOATS, TO SHORE AND FISHING-BOATS' CREWS, AND TO OTHER PERSONS

FROM THE 1ST JANUARY TO THE 31ST DECEMBER, 1910, INCLUSIVE.

Jan. 1. — LLANDUDNO, CARNARVON-SHIRE.—Theodore Price Life-boat.—At 1.45 P.M. a signal of distress was shown by two men in a fishing-boat two miles off from land in Llandudno Bay. The men, father and son, had gone out to their fishing lines and were overtaken by a sudden rising of the wind blowing from the west, which nearly caused the swamping of their boat. They fortunately had a bucket in the boat and were able to keep her afloat until help reached them. The Life-boat was launched very promptly and the men were rescued, their boat being towed in nearly full of water. In the freshening wind the sea became very rough, but the Life-boat behaved splendidly.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 6*s.* 3*d.*

Jan. 1.—CARDIGAN, CARDIGANSHIRE.—Elizabeth Austin Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 9.15 P.M. in answer to signals of distress from a vessel midway between Cardigan Head and Cardigan Island. There was a strong westerly breeze and a rough sea. On reaching the vessel, which proved to be the ketch Kattie Darling, of Cardigan, with a crew of three men, it was found she was dragging her anchors and drifting towards the rocks. The men were rescued and conveyed ashore, the vessel being left to her fate. Fortunately the anchors held and the vessel did not become a total wreck, but was taken into the river the next day.—Expense of service, 31*l.* 19*s.*

Jan. 2.—SELSEY, SUSSEX.—Lucy Newbon Life-boat.—The Coastguard reported at 8 A.M. that a vessel was ashore on the west end of the Mixon Reef, and the crew of the Life-boat were quickly assembled and the boat launched. They found the barquentine Waterwitch, of Portsmouth, loaded with coal and bound for that port, had stranded in the prevailing fog and was bumping heavily. Owing to the strong flood tide and head wind it took the Life-boat some time to get to the vessel, but on reaching her it was thought prudent to stand by her as she was in a very dangerous position, and with a heavy ground swell running. Later in the day a tug from Littlehampton was able to tow the vessel off in a leaking condition, and the crew being no longer in danger, the Life-boat returned to her station, arriving shortly before 5 P.M.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 6*s.* 9*d.*

Jan. 5.—CAISTER, NORFOLK.—Covent Garden Life-boat.—During a very thick fog a message was received from the Cross Light-vessel by wireless telegraphy stating a steamer was ashore on the sand. The crew of the No. 1 Life-boat were assembled and the boat launched. The sea was smooth at the time, but there was a heavy swell on the sands. After searching for half an hour in the fog the Life-boat fell in with the s.s. Orkla, of Leith, bound from that port to Alexandra with a general cargo, on the sand with three tugs in attendance. The captain asked the Coxswain to stand by until high water, when the vessel floated; the Life-boatmen were then engaged to assist to save the vessel and took her to Yarmouth Road, where she anchored.—Property salvage case; balance paid by Institution, 42*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*

Jan. 6.—PALLING, NORFOLK.—Hearts of Oak Life-boat.—In smooth but thick weather a telephone message was received from the Coastguard stating that a steamer was ashore at Horsey Gap. The crew and helpers of the No. 2 Life-boat were assembled and the boat sent to her assistance. She found the s.s. Swansea Bay, bound for Portugal in ballast, in the position described. By the request of the master the Life-boat stood by the vessel and her crew assisted to lay out an anchor, by which means the vessel was eventually floated. The Life-boat then returned to her station.—Property salvage case.

Jan. 8.—RAMSEY, ISLE OF MAN.—Mary Isabella Life-boat.—At about 4.45 P.M. a flare was observed E.N.E. of the Harbour from a schooner riding about a mile off. The Life-boat crew were summoned and the Life-boat was quickly alongside the schooner, which turned out to be the Glide, of Belfast, bound from Connah's Quay with bricks. Two anchors were out but the cables were foul, and the men on board feared dragging, as there was a strong gale blowing from S.W. with a heavy sea running. Whilst the crew, four in number, were being rescued, a steam trawler fell across the schooner's bows and carried away her bowsprit, placing the Life-boatmen in considerable peril. They got clear, and returning to Ramsey landed the rescued men at 6 P.M.—Expense of service, 30*l.* 13*s.*

Jan. 9.—HOLY ISLAND, NORTHUMBRLAND.—Lizzie Porter Life-boat.—At about 1.30 P.M. the Life-boat Coxswain with a large number of men witnessed the breaking away from their moorings of two boats anchored in Holy Island Harbour, one being the cutter Alma, of South Shields, and the other the ketch Fingal, of Dublin. A very strong W.S.W. gale was blowing, with a very heavy sea, and the boats were liable to the double danger of collision and stranding on the rocks. The Alma managed to barely clear the rocks but stranded on a sandy beach, where she was attended by shore-boats. The Life-boat was smartly launched and in five minutes was alongside the Fingal, which had been brought up by her anchors. The Life-boat stood by the vessel for two hours.

Jan. 9.—LLANDDULAS, DENBIGHSHIRE.—Brother and Sister Life-boat.—Shortly before noon the schooner Gualia, of Drogheda, bound from Liverpool with coal, was observed in the Bay showing signals of distress. The crew of the Life-boat were at once summoned, and although they were mostly in their different places of worship the Life-boat was promptly launched. In the teeth of a westerly gale the boat was rowed to the sinking vessel. The whole of the crew, six in number, were rescued and brought ashore, amid much excitement amongst the large crowd assembled on the beach. The sea was very rough at the time of the rescue, and after the men were saved the schooner stranded.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.*

Jan. 11.—POOLE, DORSET.—City Masonic Club Life-boat.—In the evening, considerable anxiety was felt for the safety of fourteen fishing boats belonging to Poole, the south-westerly wind having suddenly increased to a whole gale whilst they were out at sea. Many members of the Life-boat's crew were in the boats, but a crew was obtained and the Life-boat launched to their assistance. On reaching the boats she stood by them and accompanied them into port, the last one arriving at about 10.30 P.M. Fortunately all the boats got in safely, but many of them had their sails and gear carried away, and had a very narrow escape.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 5*s.*

Jan. 11.—WALMER, KENT.—Civil Service No. 4 Life-boat.—At about 9.30 in the evening, signals of distress were observed from a large ship ashore, or nearly so, on the main abreast of Walmer Castle. The weather was very bad with a rough sea and a strong S.W. by S. gale. The crew of the Life-boat were mustered and the boat launched. In doing so, owing to the heavy surf, the rudder was damaged and rendered useless, but notwithstanding this the men proceeded to the vessel, steering the boat by means of sweeps and oars. They found the vessel in a very dangerous position, having lost one of her anchors and her sails being blown away. Eight Life-boatmen were placed on board and succeeded with the assistance of a tug in saving the vessel and her crew of twenty-two men. It was impossible to weigh the vessel's anchor, as the windlass was broken; the cable was therefore slipped, and the tug having made fast, towed the vessel to the Thames.

The vessel was the barque Formosa, of Glasgow, and was bound from Shields to San Pedro with a general cargo.—Property salvage case.

Jan. 13.—PETERHEAD, ABERDEENSHIRE.—George Pickard Life-boat.—The steamer Lady Bessie, of Aberdeen, whilst on her way to Peterhead, stranded in the South Bay during the evening. A strong S.S.W. breeze was blowing and the sea was rough. In response to a telephone message reporting the casualty and the vessel's signals, the Life-boat was sent to her assistance in tow of a tug. On nearing the wreck the Life-boat anchored and veered down to her, but the captain of the vessel preferred to land the crew by means of the ship's boat, although warned of the danger. He declined the help of the Life-boat; she therefore stood by until all were in safety and then returned to her moorings.—Expense of service, 27*l.* 9*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 13th Jan., 1910.

Voted 14*l.* 6*s.* 9*d.* to pay the expenses of the following Life-boat launches, assemblies of crews, etc., with the view of assisting persons on vessels in distress:—Cadgwith, Hilbre Island, Lizard and Yarmouth.

Voted the silver second service clasp and 3*l.* to WILLIAM PRITCHARD, Coxswain of the Penmon Life-boat and 1*l.* each to six men who assisted him, for rescuing the crew of four hands of the ketch Willie, of Liverpool, wrecked on the Life-boat slip in a whole gale and rough sea, on the night of the 21st December. Pritchard, who entered the surf, incurred grave risk of losing his life in establishing communication with the vessel.

Voted 32*l.* 13*s.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at Brighton, New Romney, Teignmouth, Walton-on-Naze, Wells, Winterton and Withernsea.

Granted a retiring pension and certificate of service to WILLIAM FURBER, Coxswain Superintendent of the New Romney Life-boat. Also a retiring pension to SHEM MORGAN and to WILLIAM MCNAMARA, Bowman and Signalman, at Fishguard and Cloughy respectively.

Voted a special gratuity of 5*l.* to two old and very useful members of the Sennen Cove Life-boat crew on their resignation.

Jan. 14. — CLACTON - ON - SEA and WALTON - ON - NAZE, ESSEX. — Albert Edward and James Stevens No. 14 Life-boats. — About midnight, signals of distress were observed from a vessel apparently ashore on the Gunfleet Sands, and a telephone message was sent to the Gunfleet Light-house, asking for information. Shortly afterwards further signals were seen and the Light-house also fired rockets. The crews of the Life-boats at Clacton and Walton were promptly summoned and the Life-boats proceeded to the sands. They found H.M. tug Diligent with a lighter in tow, bound from Harwich to Sheerness, aground on the S.W. part of the sand, and the captain gladly availed himself of the services of the Life-boatmen to try and float his vessel. At low water they ran out the vessel's large bower anchor with a steel hawser attached, and when the tide made, eventually succeeded in getting the vessel clear.

The Life-boats then returned to their stations. — Property salvage case.

Jan. 14. — PAKEFIELD, SUFFOLK. — The Two Sisters, Mary and Hannah Life-boat. — During moderate weather at 5.35 A.M., flares were observed in the direction of the Newcombe Sands. The crew of the Life-boat were promptly called out and the boat launched. The vessel proved to be the ketch Salacia, of Lowestoft, homeward bound from fishing, but she was hard aground, with her mainmast carried away. At the request of the master Life-boatmen were put on board, and later on the Life-boat succeeded in towing her clear, when she proceeded to Lowestoft Harbour. — Property salvage case.

Jan. 16. — PIEL, LANCASHIRE. — Thomas Fielden Life-boat. — The steam trawler Dorothea, registered at Thorshaven, Faroe Islands, left Fleetwood for the fishing grounds early in the morning, but stranded on the west end of Walney Island, shortly after 3 A.M. The vessel was then in no immediate danger, but she was kept under observation, and later in the day tugs were ordered to go to her assistance. Shortly afterwards the vessel began to fill with water and hoisted a distress signal. The Life-boat was promptly despatched to her assistance. A strong and squally S.W. breeze had been blowing and this increased to a moderate gale, causing very rough and broken water. A tug towed the Life-boat to windward of the vessel where she anchored and veered down. Considerable difficulty was experienced by the Life-boat in getting alongside the trawler, and just before doing so a heavy sea washed one of the crew out of the Life-boat, but he was fortunately recovered at once.

Ten men were aboard the trawler and all were successfully rescued, the vessel having every appearance of becoming a total wreck. — Expense of service, 15*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.*

Jan. 23. — GORLESTON, SUFFOLK. — Mark Lane Life-boat. — Shortly before 1 A.M. the Coastguard reported that signals of distress had been fired by the St. Nicholas Light-vessel. As quickly as possible the crew of the No. 1 Life-boat were assembled, and the Life-boat, in tow of a tug, proceeded to sea. From the master of the Cross Sand Light-vessel the Coxswain ascertained that two steamers had been in collision, and had steamed slowly away to the southward.

The Life-boat and tug proceeded in that direction, and fell in with the steamer Helene Lohden, of Stromstad, from Leith to Boulogne with coal, which had been in collision with the steamer Restitution, of Liverpool, with sixteen hands on board. As the former was leaking badly, the Life-boatmen quickly ran ropes from her to the tug, and, with the Life-boat in close attendance in case of emergency, the vessel was taken into harbour and berthed for repairs. During this service a strong N.N.W. gale was blowing, with a heavy sea, and, but for the timely assistance, the vessel would probably have been lost. — Property salvage case.

Jan. 24. — SOUTHWOLD, SUFFOLK. — Alfred Corry Life-boat. — At 2.15 A.M. the Coastguard reported that a message had been received stating that a smack was ashore about two miles below the town, near Covehithe. The No. 1 Life-boat was smartly launched, and on arriving at the vessel, which proved to be the Integrity, of Lowestoft, the master engaged the Life-boatmen to save his vessel. Two anchors were laid out and eventually, with the assistance of a tug, the vessel and her crew of five hands were saved. When the Life-boat reached the smack the seas were breaking across her decks, and as the flood made she bumped heavily. — Property salvage case.

Jan. 24. — BERWICK-ON-TWEED, NORTHUMBERLAND. — Matthew Simpson Life-boat. — Six of the fishing cobsles belonging to Berwick and Spittal went to sea in the morning, and when at their lines, were overtaken by a sudden gale from N.E. The Coxswain launched the Life-boat at the first sign of danger, obtaining a crew from amongst the helpers, as most of the regular crew were in the cobsles. A tug was obtained to tow her out, as the wind and tide were against her and the need for the Life-boat was very great. The gale increased very quickly, and the boats, which tried to get their lines, ran serious risk by the delay. The cobsles ran in one by one through an angry sea, followed by the Life-boat, until at 1 P.M. all the boats, by splendid management and skilful handling, had reached harbour in safety. The tug also stood by, and to reach the last boat towed the Life-boat a mile out to sea. It was found that the coble had lost her mast; spare life-belts were lent to the men on board and, narrowly escaping being swamped, she succeeded in getting into harbour. Shortly after the Life-boat returned and was being hauled up, a steamer was observed standing into danger, and as it was feared that she would be lost, the Life-boat was again launched. The steamer came too far in-shore before she decided not to take the harbour, and was in much danger of going on to the rocks when turning; she eventually succeeded however and the services of the Life-boat were not required. — Expense of service, 22l. 8s. 6d.

Jan. 29. — BULL BAY, ANGLESEY. — James Cullen Life-boat. — At 8.30 A.M. it was reported to the Coxswain that a vessel was flying signals of distress about four miles N.W. of Bull Bay. The Life-boat was launched in a very heavy sea, and on reaching the vessel, which proved to be the schooner Four Brothers, of Runcorn, found that she had been abandoned. With great difficulty five men were placed on board and setting the head sail brought her into the straits, where a steamer was engaged to tow her to Bangor. — Property salvage case.

Feb. 3. — HOYLAKE, CHESHIRE. — Hannah Fawcett Bennett Life-boat. — The ketch Alexandra, of Chester, left that port on 31st January bound for Millom with a cargo of coal and next day stranded on the East Hoyle Bank. For three days every effort was made to get the vessel off, and about thirty tons of cargo was jettisoned. On the 3rd February the wind changed from S. to W.N.W., and threw up a nasty sea. Shortly before high water she began to fill, and it was unsafe for the four hands to remain aboard. Signals of distress were made, and the Life-boat was launched and rescued the crew, landing them in safety at 7.25 P.M. The vessel would probably become a total wreck. — Expense of service, 36l. 6s.

Feb. 6. — SALCOMBE, DEVONSHIRE. — William and Emma Life-boat. — At 7.30 A.M., during thick weather, with a strong W. breeze blowing and a moderate sea, a message was received by telephone stating that a vessel was ashore between Prawle Point and Start Point. The crew of the Life-boat were assembled and the Life-boat proceeded to the scene of the wreck. On arrival at Woodcombe Point they found the ketch Sunflower, of Lowestoft, on the rocks. The Life-boat went alongside and inquired if assistance was required. The master of the vessel, in reply, asked the boat to stand by until he knew if tugs would be able to tow the vessel off. The Life-boat stood by the vessel for about three hours, when three tugs arrived, and two of them succeeded in getting the vessel off. The boat then returned to her station, arriving at 1.15 P.M.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 18*s.*

Feb. 9.—SCARBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE.—Queensbury Life-boat.—During the morning the Coxswain of the Life-boat went off in his coble, intending to go to his crab-pots. When well outside the break-water he found the sea very heavy and increasing. Knowing that several fishing cibles had gone to the fishing grounds he returned, and when he sighted a coble returning he launched the Life-boat and proceeded to her assistance. Taking the two men from the coble into the Life-boat, he towed the boat in. The Life-boat then put to sea again, and as the boats arrived she rendered them the necessary help until all were in safety.—Expense of service, 15*l.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 10th Feb., 1910.

Voted 611*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.* to pay the expenses of the following Life-boat launches, assemblies of crews, etc., with the view of assisting persons on vessels in distress:—Atherfield, Berwick-on-Tweed, Caister No. 1, Cloughey, Clovelly, Dunbar, Fleetwood, Fraserburgh, Girvan, Gorleston No. 1, Ilfracombe, Kessingland No. 1, Kingsdowne, Llandudno, Lynmouth, Padstow No. 2, Palling No. 2, Portrush, Ramsey, Tynemouth, Whithy No. 1, and Yarmouth.

Voted 17*l.* 9*s.* 6*d.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at Brighstone Grange, Peel, and at the Institution's Storeyard.

Granted annual pensions to THOMAS H. RIMMER, Coxswain Superintendent, HENRY MELLING, Assistant Coxswain, and R. HARRISON, Bowman of the St. Anne's No. 2 Life-boat, on the removal of the boat. Also a pension to W. JOHNSON, Assistant Coxswain, and one year's salary to W. HARRISON, Signalman of the St. Anne's No. 1 Life-boat, on their retiring.

Feb. 12.—CLACTON-ON-SEA, ESSEX.—Albert Edward Life-boat.—At 8 A.M. the Coastguard reported a barge at anchor near the South East Buxey Sand, with her foremast and head gear carried away, but there was no signal indicating that help was required. The barge was kept under observation and a little later a flag was hoisted as a signal of distress. The Life-boat was promptly launched and found the ketch-rigged barge Cecilia, of London, bound for Whitstable with coal, in a crippled condition. The master reported that a steamer had collided with him the previous night. He availed himself of the offer of the Life-boatmen, and taking the barge in tow they succeeded in saving the vessel and her crew of four hands.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 13-14.—ANSTRUTHER, FIFE-SHIRE.—James and Mary Walker Life-boat.—Shortly before midnight a messenger reported that a vessel was ashore opposite Ardrross Castle, half a mile east of Elie. It was blowing a S.S.W. gale with a heavy sea running.

The crew of the Life-boat were at once summoned and assembled without delay. Considerable difficulty was experienced in launching the Life-boat, as the tide was low and a heavy wind blowing home into the harbour mouth. On the first attempt the Life-boat was washed behind the West Pier and was in danger of being damaged on the rocks.

One of the crew gallantly swam ashore with a line, and this being attached to a rope, the boat was hauled back to the harbour. Using their oars, the crew then pulled the boat out, after which sail was set for the steamer. It was about 1 A.M. when the boat finally left Anstruther, and at about 3 o'clock they found the steamer Ansgar, of Copenhagen, a vessel of 1,365 tons, hard on the rocks.

It appeared the vessel left London early on Saturday morning for Methil, loaded with coal, and went ashore about 10.30 on Sunday night. The night was intensely dark and the Coxswain of the Life-boat was obliged to use considerable care and judgment to get alongside. Once there the whole of the crew, eighteen in number, were quickly rescued and conveyed to Anstruther. The steamer was likely to become a total wreck as her stern was under water when the Life-boat reached her.—Expense of service, 36*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

Feb. 15.—CROMER, NORFOLK.—Louisa Heartwell Life-boat.—At about 5.45 A.M. flares were observed by the Coastguard about five miles E.N.E. of Cromer, and he promptly reported to the Coxswain of the Life-boat. On arriving at the vessel, which proved to be the sprit-sail barge Resurga, of London, bound for Maldon with a cargo of tiles, the Life-boat put four men on board. The captain stated all his sails had been blown away, and that he required a tug to assist him to Yarmouth. He also asked the Life-boat to stand by him. Before doing so the Life-boat proceeded to Cromer and sent a telephone message to Yarmouth for a tug; she then returned to the vessel. In the meantime the wind had shifted from S.S.W. to N.W., and with the assistance of the Life-boat's crew the master rigged up what little sail he had left and proceeded. When about half way there a tug picked up both the barge and Life-boat and towed them into Yarmouth, arriving at 3 P.M.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 18.—MARGATE, KENT.—Civil Service No. 1 Life-boat.—Shortly after noon information was received stating that a large ship was aground on the Shingle Sands. The crew of the No. 2 Life-boat were assembled and the boat launched. On reaching the vessel the captain was asked if he required help, and at his request the Life-boat stood by until the following high water, when the weather having improved she was able to return to her station, tugs remaining with the vessel. Margate was reached at 1 A.M.

The ship was the Marechal Suchet, of Nantes, and at the time of the casualty was bound from Japan to London.—Expense of service, 37*l.* 3*s.*

Feb. 18.—BLACKPOOL, LANCASHIRE.—Samuel Fletcher of Manchester Life-boat.—At 3 P.M. a Life-boatman observed a vessel about three and a half miles out in a dismantled condition. There was a moderate westerly breeze blowing and the sea was heavy. The Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the vessel which proved to be a derelict schooner, the Prosperity, of Carnarvon. The rolling of the vessel made boarding her difficult, but it was eventually effected. In the meantime a tug had been telephoned for from Fleetwood and on arrival took her in tow. The vessel had suffered badly in the gale, having been dismantled and her decks were clean swept.—Property salvage case, balance paid by Institution, 14*l.* 9*s.* 10*d.*

Feb. 19.—WINTERTON, NORFOLK.—Edward Birkbeck Life-boat.—At 6.30 A.M. the watchman reported that a vessel was ashore about one and a half miles north of the station. The crew of the No. 1 Life-boat were promptly assembled and the boat launched. On reaching the place indicated she found the ketch Young Fox, of Goole, loaded with scrap iron and bound from London to Grangemouth. The Life-boat stood by her until the seas began to break over her, when they rescued the five men on board and landed them on the beach near their vessel. As it was blowing a gale from S. by E. the vessel would probably become a total wreck.—Expense of service, 28*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*

Feb. 19.—NEWLYN, CORNWALL.—Elizabeth and Blanche Life-boat.—At 7 P.M. information was received at Newlyn that a vessel was ashore at Penberth about seven miles to the westward, and that the life-saving apparatus had been called out to her assistance. The wind, which was W. by S., had been blowing a gale all day and the sea was very heavy, the Life-boat was therefore despatched to the assistance of the craft. The Coxswain having searched the shore east and west of Penberth and found nothing, stood out about three-quarters of a mile when he fell in with the sailing trawler Radiance, of Brixham, running before the gale into Mounts Bay. As the Radiance had had a bad hammering and her decks were being well washed, the Coxswain deemed it advisable to stand by until she was in a safe anchorage. During this service the crew had a wet and trying time, not regaining their station until nearly midnight, and the Committee of Management granted them an additional reward.—Expense of service, 27*l.* 3*s.*

Feb. 20.—PADSTOW, CORNWALL.—Arab Life-boat.—A strong S.W. gale was blowing with a rough sea, and at about 11 A.M. a message was received from Cove by telephone that a trawler was in a dangerous position, dragging her anchor. The crew of the No. 1 Life-boat were at once summoned and the boat proceeded to the trawler, which proved to be the New Boy, of Lowestoft. The Assistant Coxswain boarded the vessel and the master asked that the Life-boat should remain with him until assistance could be obtained to get the vessel into safety. At 1.30 P.M. a tug arrived and towed the trawler, accompanied by the Life-boat, to the town quay.—Expense of service, 12l. 5s.

Feb. 20.—ABERSOCH, CARNARVONSHIRE.—Oldham Life-boat.—During a whole W.S.W. gale in the night signals of distress were observed from a vessel in the St. Tudwell's Roads. Throughout the day it had been seen that the vessels there had been having trouble on account of the severity of the weather. At about 10 P.M. the ketch Snowdon, of Carnarvon, parted her cables and commenced to drift. When she had drifted about a mile the stream anchor was let go and to the surprise of everybody held. In the meanwhile the Life-boat had been launched in a very heavy sea and on reaching the ketch took off the crew of four hands. She then returned to an anchorage near the boat-house, as it was impossible to land at low water in the heavy sea. At 3.15 A.M. next morning when the Life-boat was at anchor with the four rescued men on board, signals were observed from the schooner Aeron Belle, of Aberystwith, which had parted one of her cables and was riding very heavily. The Life-boat at once proceeded to the schooner and rescued the three men on board. At 7 A.M. both the rescued crews were landed by means of a cantilever and basket specially provided at this station, as they were all in an exhausted condition; the boat being left at moorings until the weather moderated.—Expense of services, 48l. 17s. 6d.

Feb. 21.—TENBY, PEMBROKESHIRE.—William and Mary Devey Life-boat.—At about 12.15 in the morning the schooner Ellen, of Arklow, when at anchor in the Caldý Roads, commenced to drift and was in danger of driving ashore. There was a whole gale blowing, veering from S.W. to W.N.W., with a very heavy breaking sea. In response to the vessel's signals of distress, the Life-boat, which lay at moorings in the harbour, was got ready for sea, and as soon as there was sufficient water for her to get out of harbour she proceeded to the schooner and rescued the three men on board. The Life-boat then went on to the schooner John and Margaret, of Carnarvon, also in danger, and rescued her crew of four hands, returning to her station at 3 A.M. Both the vessels were laden with coal, outward bound from Swansea and Cardiff respectively.—Expense of service, 24l. 8s.

Feb. 24.—RAMSGATE AND WALMER, KENT.—Charles and Susanna Stephens and Civil Service No. 4 Life-boats.—The S.S. Brinkburn, of London, with twenty-two men on board, whilst bound from Antwerp to Cardiff in ballast stranded on the Goodwin Sands near the S.E. buoy. The weather at the time was threatening, and the Life-boats were sent to the vessel's assistance. The steamer was almost dry and the captain at once engaged the Life-boatmen to try and save her. An anchor was run out with a hundred fathoms of wire hawser and other rope attached. The weather had now become very bad, a hard southerly gale blowing and very heavy sea, but fortunately on the rising tide the vessel was got clear and anchored. With the heavy sea running the Ramsgate Life-boat, with only four men in her, broke adrift, and the men knowing she was no longer required made for Ramsgate. The remainder of the Life-boat crew were taken off the steamer by the Walmer Life-boat, one man falling overboard and narrowly escaping from being drowned.—Property salvage case.

Feb. 24.—FILEY, YORKSHIRE.—Hollon the Third Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched at 9.15 A.M. to the assistance of the cobles Marguerite and Isabel and Rita, which were overtaken by rough weather when to the north of the Brig. The E.S.E. wind caused the sea to rise very much and the men on board were placed in considerable danger. The Life-boat proceeded to their aid with all possible haste and supplied each of the men with a life-belt and accompanied both cibles into safety.—Expense of service 16*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*

Feb. 24.—MONTROSE, FORFARSHIRE.—Sarah Jane Turner Life-boat.—The paddle steamer Mabel, of Newcastle, whilst bound from North Shields to Cork in ballast, stranded on the Annat Bank off Montrose in the morning. There was a strong S.S.E. breeze at the time with a heavy sea, and the No. 1 Life-boat experienced considerable difficulty in getting to the steamer on account of the shallow water on the bank. The Life-boat remained alongside whilst the crew got some of their belongings and then took them ashore, arriving at 9.30 A.M.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 12*s.*

Feb. 25.—DUNGENESS, KENT.—Thomas Simcox Life-boat.—At 3.40 A.M. the Coastguard watchman reported that he had seen signals of distress in the direction of the Newcombe Bank. The crew of the No. 2 Life-boat was promptly summoned and the Life-boat proceeded in the direction indicated. They found the ship Blackbraes, of London, homeward bound, from San Francisco, ashore on the Bank, and at the request of the captain the men assisted to save the vessel, tugs also being employed. The Life-boat in the meantime remained alongside, returning to her station after the vessel had been successfully floated. There was a S.S.W. gale at the time of this service and the sea was rough.—Expense of service, 65*l.* 14*s.*

Feb. 26.—LITTLEHAVEN, PEMBROKE-SHIRE.—William Roberts Life-boat.—On the night of the 23rd February the ketch Falcon, of Cardiff, came to anchor in St. Bride's Bay, off Broadhaven, about half a mile from the shore, and very shortly afterwards a N.W. gale sprang up. The vessel being on a lee shore, was in a dangerous position, and was kept under constant observation. On the evening of the 26th February the wind increased to a strong gale and the anchors commenced to drag. The three men on board made signals of distress and the Life-boat was promptly launched. On reaching the ketch the crew were rescued and conveyed ashore, the Life-boat being left at moorings until the sea moderated.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 6*s.*

March 4.—FILEY, YORKSHIRE.—Holton the Third Life-boat.—At 7 A.M. the fishing cibles put to sea in a S.E. wind with a nasty sea. Two hours later the weather became worse, the wind increasing to a gale, and it was decided to launch the Life-boat to the assistance of the men in the boats. The Life-boat proceeded outside the breakers and provided the fishermen as far as possible with life-belts. She then stood by the boats as they made for the shore, and remained afloat until all the cibles had regained safety. Before the boats got in, the sea had become very rough, it being one of the worst days experienced for years.—Expense of service, 17*l.* -s. 6*d.*

March 4.—GOURDON, KINCARDINESHIRE.—Theophilus Sidney Echalaz Life-boat.—At about 2 P.M. it was necessary to launch the Life-boat for the protection of some of the fishermen in haddock and small crab boats, which were overtaken by a very heavy sea. To approach the harbour seemed highly dangerous, and great excitement existed in the village. The Life-boat proceeded to the endangered craft and remained in attendance until all were in harbour. She then returned and was rehousing at about 5 P.M.—Expense of service, 6*l.* 5*s.* 3*d.*

March 9.—RYE HARBOUR, SUSSEX.—John William Dudley Life-boat.—At 9.25 P.M. a telephone message was received stating that a vessel was ashore to the eastward of Jury's Gap. There was a strong S.W. breeze at the time and the sea was rough. The Coxswain and crew of the Life-boat were assembled and the boat launched. The Life-boat brought up within speaking distance of the vessel and found that she was the steam trawler Margaret, of Rye. The master stated that he did not require any assistance, but as the seas were breaking over the trawler the Coxswain considered it was advisable to stand by her until the men on board were out of danger.—Expense of service, 54*l.* 6*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 10th March, 1910.

Also voted 65*l.* 18*s.* 9*d.* to pay the expenses of the following Life-boat launches, assemblies of crews, etc., with the view of assisting persons on vessels in distress:—Aldeburgh No. 2, Barry Dock, Bridlington Quay, Buckhaven, Buckie, Caister No. 1, Courtmacsherry, Dunbar, Fishguard (motor), Formby, Hoylake, Kingstown No. 1, Llandudno, Margate No. 2, New Brighton (steam), Newlyn, Pakefield, Palling No. 2, Robin Hood's Bay, Selsey, Sennen Cove, South-end-on-Sea, Swanage, Tenby, Walton-on-Naze (motor), and Yarmouth.

Voted 7*l.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at Courtmacsherry, Pakefield, and Penmon.

Voted 3*l.* to the widow of a man who had been a member of the crew of the Harwich Life-boat for a large number of years.

Voted 10*l.* to the widow of E. W. JONES, Assistant Coxswain of the Ferry-side Life-boat, who was drowned when following his calling as a fisherman.

Also 2*l.* towards a fund being raised locally for JAMES HARRISON, ex-Coxswain Superintendent of the Life-boat.

March 12.—HOYLAKE, CHESHIRE.—Hannah Fawsett Bennett Life-boat.—The screw flat Victoria, of Liverpool, bound from Penmaenmawr to Birkenhead with a cargo of macadam, became unmanageable in the Rock Channel in consequence of a mishap to the steering gear and the bursting of the engine-room casing. Signals of distress were observed by the Coastguard, and the Life-boat was promptly launched. The crew of five hands were rescued and the vessel, before they left, was scuttled to prevent her driving on to the bank and becoming a total wreck. There was a moderate E.N.E. wind at the time and the sea was rough. It was high water when the men were rescued, but at low water it was possible to pump the vessel out and refloat her and she was eventually taken to Birkenhead.

The vessel belonged to the Northwich Carrying Company, Ltd., and the following month they showed their practical appreciation of the services rendered by sending the following letter to the local Hon. Secretary of the Branch, J. P. Brocklebank, Esq. :—

"Northwich Carrying Co., Ltd.,

"11th April, 1910.

"J. P. Brocklebank, Esq.,

"Dear Sir,

"Victoria.

"We as owners of the above steamer, wish (through your good self) to most heartily thank the crew of the Life-boat, who rendered such valuable and timely service to her crew when their vessel was in difficulties off Hoylake, 12th March last, and as it is our desire to further express our appreciation by contributing to the funds of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION, we will be glad if you will kindly inform us as to whom the contribution should be sent.—Yours faithfully,

March 12. — BERWICK - ON - TWEED, NORTHUMBERLAND. — Matthew Simpson Life-boat.—At about 6 P.M., two men put off in a pilot boat to pull a line set at sea. It was too dark to find it and they tried to get into harbour again, and twice were driven back, the boat shipping heavy seas. The third time they tried, the boat broached to, shipped a sea that half filled her and washed one of the men overboard, leaving the other man with only one oar. Fortunately by means of this the man was got on board again and both men shouted for help. Their cries were heard and the Life-boat was smartly launched and proceeded to sea with all haste. After searching for nearly an hour the Life-boat picked them up, both men being helpless from exhaustion, and the boat half full of water. Two Life-boatmen were put on board to bale the boat out and then she was taken in tow, the exhausted men in the meantime having been transferred to the Life-boat and supplied with restoratives.—Expense of service, 13*l.* 13*s.*

March 13.—SENNEN COVE, CORNWALL. —Ann Newbon Life-boat.—At 2.45 A.M., the Coastguard reported by telegram that flares were being burnt off Porthcurnow, close to the shore. The Life-boat was launched, and when near Porthcurnow they observed a flare. They proceeded to the direction and fell in with a small boat containing four men. The men stated they were the crew of the Brixham trawler Harry, which had gone ashore when proceeding to the fishing grounds, and had become a total wreck. The Life-boat brought the men and boat to Sennen Cove, which was reached at 9 A.M. A heavy gale had been blowing during the night. — Expense of service, 37*l.* 5*s.* 6*d.*

March 15.—RHOSNEIGIR, ANGLESEY. — Thomas Lingham Life-boat. — The ketch County of Anglesea, of Carnarvon, whilst bound from that port to Rhosneigir with a cargo of bricks, was seen at 8.50 P.M., drifting down towards the cliffs of Trecastell. The weather was not very bad at the time, although a heavy ground swell was making, she was therefore kept under observation. Seeing that the vessel was getting dangerously near the rocks the crew of the Life-boat were assembled and the boat launched. About this time the wind veered to the southward, which enabled the ketch to reach out, and the Life-boat stood by her until she made an anchorage. — Expense of service, 28*l.* 14*s.*

March 18. — PORTHDLINLAEN, CARNARVONSHIRE.—Barbara Fleming Life-boat.—In a strong N.N.E. wind with snow squalls, signals of distress were seen from a vessel in the Bay. The Life-boat was launched with all speed and proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the ketch Sarah, of Run-corn. One of the cables had parted and she drove into shallow water. The two men on board were rescued and the vessel left drifting towards the rocks.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 1*s.*

April 3.—PLYMOUTH, SOUTH DEVON. — Eliza Avins Life-boat.—Shortly before midnight, information reached the Coxswain of the Life-boat, that a steamer was ashore on the west end of Plymouth Breakwater. The weather was fine, but it was considered advisable to send the Life-boat to her assistance. On arriving at the steamer it was found that a Government tug was in attendance. The tide was then ebbing and the master of the steamer thinking that she might take a dangerous list asked that the crew and their baggage might be transferred to the tug. The baggage was accordingly put on board together with nine of the crew, the remaining five standing by on the steamer. After this was completed the boat returned in tow of the tug, the portion of the vessel's crew going in the tug to the dockyard. In going alongside the steamer the Life-boat touched the rocks, but no damage was done. Later in the day the steamer having been lightened was floated off and came in under her own steam. The steamer was the Rochefort, of Belfast, bound from Penarth to Devonport with a cargo of coal.—Expense of service, 13*l.* 13*s.*

April 4.—SELSEY, SUSSEX.—Lucy Newbon Life-boat.—At 9.30 A.M., when the fishing-boats were proceeding to the fishing grounds, the Coxswain saw a large steamer ground on the "Outer Owers." He in company with the other boats at once returned and on getting ashore telegraphed to Southampton for a tug. He then ordered the Life-boat to be launched, and on reaching the vessel found that she was the s.s. Craigearn, of Cardiff, bound from London to Swansea loaded with grain. On getting alongside the captain asked the Life-boat to stand by him. During the afternoon four tugs arrived, but their services were not required as the steamer floated off at high water, and the Life-boat returned ashore. During the morning the weather was very thick, but the sea was smooth.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*

April 4.—ST. ANDREWS, FIFESHIRE. — Louisa Life-boat.—At 6.50 P.M., the fishing-boat Jane and Margaret, of St. Andrews, when running for harbour in a heavy sea and E.N.E. gale, struck the beacon about 220 yards from the pier, and sank at once, the cause of the wreck being the bursting of the drogue in the surf. The four men on board jumped for the beacon and clung there, washed to the waists and shoulders by a heavy sea, until rescued by the Life-boat which was very promptly launched, the wreck of the boat and the dangerous position of the men being seen from the shore. The men managed with difficulty to hold on to the beacon, and the Coxswain in effecting their rescue managed his boat in the vicinity of the rocks with great skill. The endangered men behaved with quiet bravery and perfect coolness throughout. Noticing that one man was becoming exhausted, being an old man, the other three hoisted him up the beacon and kept him secure by clasping their arms round him. This was a troublesome task owing to their own insecure position, and the Committee of Management showed their appreciation of their conduct by giving them a reward.—Expense of service, 23*l.* 19*s.*

April 4-5.—NORTH DEAL, WALMER, AND RAMSGATE, KENT.—Charles Dibdin, Civil Service No. 4, and Charles and Susanna Stephens Life-boats.—These three Life-boats were launched a few minutes after midnight in answer to signals of distress, the steamer Artificer, of Newcastle, having stranded on the N.W. part of the Goodwin Sands. On reaching the vessel, the captain stated that he did not require any assistance at that time, but asked the Life-boats to stand by him. They accordingly did so until 4 A.M., when with the flowing tide the steamer got off and was able to proceed on her voyage. The weather was fine but cold.—Expense of service, North Deal, 18*l.* 5*s.*; Walmer, 18*l.* 5*s.*; Ramsgate, paid by the Board of Trade.

April 6.—WHITBY, YORKSHIRE.—John Fielden Life-boats.—Seven fishing cobsles went off early in the morning to their crab-pots, but when the time came for their returning, the entrance to the harbour was very dangerous owing to the strong easterly sea and the outset of the tide. The No. 2 Life-boat proceeded with spare life-belts to the bar. The cobsles were escorted into harbour one at a time, the Life-boat rowing out to each coble and supplying the fishermen with life-belts. At times the heavy seas broke the whole width between the piers and one coble narrowly escaped being swamped. The life-saving apparatus was also in attendance.—Expense of service, 6*l.* 17*s.*

April 6.—RHOSNEIGIR, ANGLESEY.—Thomas Lingham Life-boat.—The s.s. Aquila, of Liverpool, inward bound from Las Palmas with cargo and passengers stranded near Rhosneigir, at 8.30 P.M. A strong N.E. wind was blowing and the weather was very thick and very cold.

The Life-boat was promptly launched and proceeded to her assistance. At the request of the captain the Life-boat stood by her all night until 7.30 A.M., when on the morning tide she floated off and was able to proceed.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 5*s.* 6*d.*

April 12.—WALTON-ON-NAZE, ESSEX.—James Stevens No. 14 Life-boat.—At 5.50 A.M., a schooner was seen through the haze stranded on the Gunfleet Sands, and almost at the same time the Coast-guard received a telephone message from the Light-house reporting a vessel ashore. The Life-boat without delay proceeded under sail and motor power to the vessel, which proved to be the steam yacht Sea Belle, Royal Thames Yacht Club. The services of the Life-boat were offered, but the captain whilst declining active assistance asked the Coxswain to stand by for a time, to see if the vessel would get off on the flowing tide. At 9.40 A.M., the yacht floated and under her own steam proceeded to Brightlingsea, the Life-boat returning to her station where she arrived at 10.13 A.M.—Expense of service, 9*l.* 11*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 14th April, 1910.

Also voted 312*l.* 6*s.* 7*d.* to pay the expenses of assemblies of the crews or launches of the following Life-boats, with the view of assisting persons on vessels in distress:—Bull Bay, Caister No. 1, Courtnacsherry, Donna Nook, Dungeness No. 2, Gorleston No. 1, Hastings, Lowestoft No. 1, Palling No. 2, Piel, Rhoscolyn, Skateraw, Wells, and Yarmouth.

Voted 200*l.* to the widow and invalid daughter of ROBERT AMIS, Assistant Coxswain of the Palling Life-boats, whose death was caused by exposure on service on 1st March, 1910.

Also paid medical and other expenses amounting to 15*l.* 6*s.*

Voted 200*l.* to the widow and four dependent children of JOSEPH RICHARDS, Life-boatman at Newhaven, whose death was accelerated by exposure on service in the Life-boat.

Also 33*l.* 1*s.* 3*d.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at Cardigan, Hornsea, Kessingland, Llandudno, Sen-nen Cove, and Walton-on-Naze.

Also 2*l.* towards the funeral expenses of an old Life-boatman at Harwich.

Granted an annual pension and a certificate of service to ROBERT STROWGER, Coxswain Superintendent of the Kessingland No. 1 Life-boat, on retirement. Also a commuted pension to THOMAS W. H. CRADDUCK, Coxswain Superintendent of Whitehaven Life-boat, and to JOHN MURRAY, Assistant Coxswain of the Arklow Life-boat.

Also decided to increase the pension granted on retirement to H. PARKER, Coxswain Superintendent of the Walmer Life-boat.

April 14.—THURSO, CAITHNESS-SHIRE.—Sarah Austin Life-boat.—At 1.30 A.M. during a whole E. by N. gale, the schooner Emma Louise, anchored in the roadstead, showed distress signals. The crew of the Life-boat were already assembled as the night was exceedingly wild; the boat was launched and on reaching the schooner the four men on board were rescued, as the vessel was dragging her anchors.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 4*s.*

Later in the day the weather improved and the wind changed W.N.W. and five men again went off to the vessel. Towards nightfall the weather again became very rough and shortly before 8 P.M. a strong gale was blowing and a heavy sea running. The schooner Agnes Craig, bound from London to Thurso, was anchored in an exposed position, and as the wind increased was in imminent danger of being wrecked. Signals of distress were made and the Life-boat again launched and rescued the five men on board. Two other vessels—the ketch Sunlight, of Hull, and the schooner Emma Louise, also made signals and the Life-boat proceeded to them and landed their crews, nine in number. Fortunately for the owners the vessels rode out the gale.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 3*s.*

April 14.—RUNSWICK, YORKSHIRE.—Reserve Life-boat.—During a light S.E. breeze with a heavy ground swell four fishing cobbles belonging to Whitby were seen making for Runswick. As the landing at Runswick was considered to be very dangerous the Coxswain of the Life-boat deemed it prudent to launch the boat and proceed to their assistance. The Life-boat was launched and towed one of the cobbles in, she then returned to the other three and stood by them until all were in safety.—Expense of service, 9*l.*

April 18.—ST. MARY'S, SCILLY.—Henry Dundas Life-boat.—At 1.30 A.M. the Coastguard reported that a vessel was firing guns apparently on the rocks to the west of Bryher, and at about the same time the Bishop's Rock Light-house fired signals for the Life-boat. The crew of the Life-boat were assembled and the boat despatched with as little delay as possible. The sea was smooth but the weather very thick. On arrival the Life-boatmen found the Transatlantic liner Minnehaha, of Belfast, on the rocks. The vessel, a steamer of upwards of 13,400 tons gross tonnage, was bound from New York to London, and had on board sixty-six passengers in addition to one hundred and sixty cattle-men and crew. Before the Life-boat reached the steamer all the passengers had been landed with the assistance of gigs from Bryher, but the crew and cattlemen remained on board. Two tugs arrived from Falmouth and the Life-boat stood by until 3 P.M., when the captain ordered all but the officers and part of the crew to leave in the tug. As the vessel remained on an even keel and no further assistance was required the Life-boat returned to St. Mary's, arriving shortly before 4 P.M.—Expense of service, 23*l.* 15*s.*

April 18.—HAUXLEY, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Mary Andrew Life-boat.—Six men, whilst working on the Pit Heap, Newburgh Colliery, saw the coble Sunbeam, of Newbiggin, capsize in Druridge Bay. A messenger was sent for the Life-boat, and the remaining five, knowing that there was a small boat lying on the beach about one and a half miles to the south of them, which would give them a favourable wind, ran and launched it. Only one had any knowledge of boat-management. Fortunately they counted on the help of the Life-boat to get back, or they could not have gone. They successfully picked up the three men clinging to the boat, almost drowned, two being very exhausted. With great risk to their own lives they got them into their boat, which was scarcely capable of carrying eight people.

In the meanwhile the news of the disaster reached Hauxley. Most of the crew of the Life-boat were in bed after a rough day's work from early morning. Word of "urgency" was passed round, and several coming partly clothed, the Life-boat was launched in ten or twelve minutes, proceeded to the wreck in face of a strong head wind, and passing part of the wreckage, fell in with the overladen boat. The eight men were taken aboard and two Life-boatmen were put in the small boat and taken in tow. After a few minutes' towing it was seen that the rescued men were so exhausted that any delay was dangerous, the boat was therefore cast adrift and brought in by the two Life-boatmen. Whilst the Life-boat was returning she signalled for medical assistance and a doctor and nurse were in attendance shortly after landing. All three were bad cases, one man recovered quickly, but the other two were with great difficulty brought round.—Expense of service, 9*l.* 9*s.*

April 19.—ATHERFIELD, ISLE OF WIGHT.—Gem Life-boat.—The Coxswain of the Life-boat was informed by the Coastguard at 2.40 A.M. that a vessel was on the rocks. He immediately proceeded to the boat-house and took steps to assemble the crew. The boat was launched and found the steamer Diligent, of Sunderland, a vessel of 1,400 tons, was ashore. The Life-boat remained alongside until the arrival of a tug, and then stood by the vessel until she was successfully towed off. The sea was rough and choppy at the time, with a thick fog and strong S.W. breeze.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 9*s.* 6*d.*

April 20.—PALLING AND CROMER, NORFOLK.—Hearts of Oak and Louisa Heartwell Life-boats.—At about 6 A.M. signals were heard denoting a vessel was on the Haisboro' Sands. The Palling No. 2 Life-boat, was launched, and with the assistance of a friendly tow by a passing steamer, reached the vessel about 9 A.M. She proved to be the S.S. Haakon, of Arendal, bound from Hull to Rotterdam with coal. The captain engaged the Life-boatmen to lay out anchors and salve the vessel. Help was also given by five tugs. Part of the cargo was jettisoned, and the vessel floated at 3 P.M. on the 21st. When the vessel stranded, information was sent to Cromer, and that Life-boat was sent to her assistance. On reaching the steamer they found the Palling Life-boat was already there. They stood by for some hours in case further help should be required, but, finding they were not wanted, returned ashore. When the vessel floated she proceeded to Yarmouth, and the Palling Life-boat accompanied her until in safety, not reaching Palling again until 4 P.M. on the 22nd April.—Expense of service, Cromer, 45*l.* 1*s.*; Palling, property salvage case.

April 22.—WHITBY, YORKSHIRE.—John Fielden Life-boat.—Three cibles put to sea in the early morning and at 8 A.M. one of them returned, as the sea was rapidly growing. The other two—the Robert and Mary and the Brotherly Love—reached the roads about 10 o'clock, and lay waiting to get in. About 10.30 the No. 2 Life-boat was sent to their assistance, and brought up in the roads near them. At 1 o'clock it was seen that it was not possible for the cibles to enter, neither was it safe for the men to remain in them. All the men—seven in number—were therefore taken into the Life-boat, and the cibles cast adrift to wash up on the beach.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 7*s.*

April 25.—BARRY DOCK, GLAMORGANSHIRE.—John Wesley Life-boat.—At 3.45 P.M. the Coastguard reported that a small boat had capsized off Whitmore Bay, and two men were clinging to her. The Life-boat was smartly launched, and, in tow of a tug, proceeded to the capsized boat. She succeeded in saving one of the men, who immediately became unconscious, but no trace could be found of the other man, who had already sunk. The Life-boat at once made for the shore and landed the man. She then returned and picked up the boat. There was a moderate W.N.W. gale blowing, with a heavy sea, at the time of the accident.—Expense of service, 9*l.* 19*s.*

April 25.—WALTON-ON-NAZE, ESSEX.—James Stevens No. 14 Life-boat.—In the evening, whilst the Coxswain and two motor-men were on board the motor Life-boat running the engines, they saw a barge—the Mary Jane, of Rochester—apparently in difficulties, with the crew hard at work at the pumps. The Coxswain slipped the Life-boat's mooring and went alongside the barge, which was found to be in a sinking condition and urgently in need of assistance. The Life-boat immediately returned ashore, a full crew was obtained and she again proceeded to the vessel. The Life-boatmen were engaged to get the barge to Harwich Harbour. They were put on board to man the pumps and to bail with buckets, and eventually the barge was got into Harwich and placed on the mud.—Property salvage case.

May 8.—ILFRACOMBE, NORTH DEVON.—Co-operator No. 2 Life-boat.—The Life-boat was called out during the afternoon, a small vessel having been observed in difficulties off the "Hangman," near Combmartin. The sea was heavy with a moderate gale blowing and weather very cold. On reaching the vessel she proved to be the ketch Honour, of Jersey, bound for Ilfracombe. The ketch was making water, but the skipper stated that he did not want any help as he hoped to get his vessel into port. In case anything should go wrong the Life-boat stood by her until she arrived at Ilfracombe.—Expense of service, 20*l.* 12*s.*

May 11.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Charles and Susanna Stephens Life-boat.—At 9.15 P.M. it was reported that a fishing vessel, the Harry Martin, of Ramsgate, in trying to make the Harbour had failed to do so and was driving ashore. The weather at the time was very bad, with a strong N.E. gale blowing. Orders were at once given for the Life-boat and the Harbour tug to proceed to her assistance. The smack was in shallow water and bumping heavily on the chalk rocks. The Life-boat with great difficulty got near enough to the smack to get the end of her trawl warp on board, and this she ran away. The Life-boat then anchored and held the vessel from driving farther on to the rocks. Another rope was now made fast to the end of the trawl warp, and when the water had risen sufficiently for the tug to approach, she did so, and eventually picked up the rope, and at great risk to all, started to tow the smack into deeper water, and the vessel was at length taken into Harbour. There is little doubt that, but for the prompt assistance given, this vessel and probably her crew of three hands would have been lost, for there was a very heavy sea running and breaking on the shore.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 12th May, 1910.

Voted 67*l.* 2*s.* 8*d.* to pay the expenses of the following Life-boat launches, assemblies of crews, etc., with the view of assisting persons on vessels in distress:—Caister No. 1, Cresswell, Fishguard, Gorleston No. 1, Rhoscolyn, St. David's, Walmer and Whitby No. 2.

The Ramsgate Life-boat was also out on two occasions but her services were not eventually required.

Voted 10*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at the Lizard and Port Eynon.

Made a compassionate grant of 5*l.* to a Life-boat man at North Sunderland.

Voted 20*l.* for injury to horses whilst employed in Life-boat work at Winterton.

May 12.—ST. IVES, CORNWALL.—James Stephens No. 10 Life-boat.—At 10 A.M., during a heavy N.N.E. gale, the fishing lugger Jonadab, of St. Ives, was returning from the fishing ground. When trying to make the Harbour she struck and grounded on the ridge, bumping heavily. A shore boat succeeded in getting ropes on board from the Quay, but when trying to haul the vessel clear the ropes carried away and the heavy seas beat the vessel towards the rocks inside Pednolver Point, where she again stranded. The Life-boat was promptly launched and succeeded in taking off the six men on board, the vessel becoming a total wreck.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 18*s.*

May 12.—BERWICK-ON-TWEED, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Matthew Simpson Life-boat.—About midday the weather began to look boisterous with a growing sea, and shortly before three of the Spittal cobbles had sailed for Goswick Bay. The Honorary Secretary having been apprised of this, he directed the Coxswain of the Life-boat to have everything in readiness to launch. At 1.30 P.M., as a rough sea was making on the bar, the Life-boat was despatched. She proceeded to sea, and for an hour could find no trace of the boats. The weather now got very thick and the sea rose fast. The Life-boat anchored inside the bar and awaited events. For another hour nothing was seen of the cobsles; meanwhile the weather got worse, and it was evident their return would be attended by great danger. The first coble appeared at about 3.30 P.M. The Life-boat proceeded to her and supplied the men on board with life-belts. The coble got in without mishap, and the Life-boat then turned to meet the second, which had loomed out of the mist. She also entered after a narrow escape of being swamped. For upwards of another hour the Life-boat waited when the last boat hove in sight. She brought to until she saw a chance, and then ran for the bar, fortunately getting in safely, as a few minutes later it was breaking white everywhere.—Expense of service, 4*l.* 14*s.*

May 12.—ARBROATH, FORFARSHIRE.—James Stephens No. 13 Life-boat.—During a strong E.N.E. gale the fishing boat Catherine, of Arbroath, whilst returning to Harbour was in considerable danger owing to the heavy sea running, and there was some probability of her being dashed on to the rocks. The Life-boat was launched and proceeded outside. When the fishing-boat approached, the five men on board were each given a life-belt, and the Life-boat stood by the boat until she got into safety. The boat had a narrow escape from being swamped or being driven on to the rocks.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 11*s.*

May 12.—NORTH SUNDERLAND, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Foster Fawcett Life-boat.—During the evening the weather came on thick, whilst a very heavy sea was running. Just before the fog came on the coble Jane Douglas, of Beadnell, was observed between North Sunderland Point and Beadnell. About 7 P.M., as the sea continued very heavy and the fog did not lift, great anxiety was felt at Beadnell for the safety of the men on board the craft, and the Life-boat was telephoned for. She was taken by road to Beadnell and launched there. After an unsuccessful search the Life-boat proceeded to the Inner Farne Islands, and found that the coble had landed there after a very rough time. The skipper had great difficulty in keeping his coble up to the sea to prevent her being swamped, and he afterwards stated that on three occasions she practically "stood on end." At daybreak the crew of the coble decided to return to Beadnell, accompanied by the Life-boat. On reaching that place it was found that the sea was still very heavy, but by skilful seamanship she succeeded in making the harbour in safety. The Life-boat was then hauled up and taken back to her house by road.—Expense of service, 26*l.* 13*s.*

May 18.—HELVICK HEAD, CO. WATERFORD.—James Stevens No. 16 Life-boat.—At 6.30 P.M. the fishing-boat St. Bridget, of Ballinagoul, whilst returning from Dungarvan, ran on to the rocks near Ballinacourty Light-house, in a squall of rain. As the four men on board were in danger, the Life-boat was launched to their assistance. Eight Life-boatmen were put on board to lighten the vessel, and with the assistance of the Life-boat she was hauled off and taken to Ballinagoul, the men on board keeping her afloat by bailing. There was a moderate S.E. gale at the time, and the sea was moderately rough.—Expense of service, 17*l.*

May 19.—WALTON-ON-NAZE, ESSEX.—James Stevens No. 14 Life-boat.—At 2.35 P.M. a telephone message was received stating a yacht was in distress on the Buxey Sands. The crew of the Life-boat was promptly summoned, and the Life-boat, under motor power and sail, made for the place indicated. On reaching the vessel, which proved to be the yacht Gwenyth, the captain stated that he did not require any assistance, but asked the Life-boat to stand by whilst efforts were made to float the yacht. At 8.45 P.M. the yacht came off, and the Life-boat returned to her station, arriving at 10.15 P.M.—Expense of service, 27*l.* 9*s.*

May 19.—ROBIN HOOD'S BAY, YORKSHIRE.—Mary Ann Lockwood Life-boat.

—The steamer Hermiston, of Glasgow, whilst bound from Antwerp to Shields in ballast, stranded on the north cheek of Robin Hood's Bay. There was a dense fog at the time, with a light breeze and moderate sea. A messenger reported the casualty at 7.20 A.M., and the Life-boat was promptly launched. Two women passengers were taken off and landed, the boat at once returning to the steamer. She remained alongside until about 3.30 P.M., whilst unsuccessful efforts were made to float the steamer. —Expense of service, 9*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.* As there was then no immediate danger the Life-boat again proceeded to her station, and at the request of the captain, returned at 9 P.M. and stood by the vessel throughout the night. When returning the second time the Life-boat fell in with one of the ship's boats with four hands, which had been adrift all the previous night owing to the fog. The men were picked up and put aboard their vessel. Soon after 4 A.M. it was seen that the services of the Life-boat would not be required; she therefore made for Robin Hood's Bay, arriving at 5 A.M. — Property salvage case.

May 25.—HUNA, CAITHNESS-SHIRE.—Ida Life-boat.—At 10 A.M., information was received stating that a large fishing vessel was ashore on a dangerous reef to the west of the Pentland Skerries, where there is a very rapid tide race. Although the weather was moderate at the time, the tides being spring with considerable surf, it was deemed expedient to launch the Life-boat. The crew were assembled and the boat proceeded to the vessel, but found that the crew of seven men had, with the assistance of the Light-house keeper and others, managed to land on the island by means of a raft. The vessel was the Strathyre, of Findochty, bound from Stornoway to Wick. Shortly after the arrival of the Life-boat the vessel slipped off the ledge and drifted seaward. The Life-boat proceeded after her and attempted to tow her in and beach her, but had to give up the attempt. She then returned to the Island, took the seven men on board, and conveyed them to Huna.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 9*s.*

June 7.—PALLING, NORFOLK.—54th West Norfolk Regiment Life-boat.—At about 2 A.M., in a moderate E.N.E. breeze, but very heavy ground swell, the Coxswain of the Palling No. 1 Life-boat, and the Coastguard saw what they thought was a smack driving along the beach; she proved, however, to be fast on the outer bank. The crew and helpers of the Life-boat were mustered, horses obtained, and the boat launched at 2.35 A.M. On nearing the smack the Life-boat anchored and veered alongside. The crew of four hands, together with four cats, were taken off and landed in safety at 4.40 A.M. The smack was the Sophia and Rebecca, of Lowestoft. After the crew were rescued she was driven over the bank up on to the beach. — Expense of service, 29*l.* 10*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 9th June, 1910.

Voted 22*l.* 4*s.* 6*d.* to pay the expenses of assemblies of crews or launching the following Life-boats, etc., with the view of rendering assistance to persons on vessels in distress:—Anstruther, Caister No. 1, Dunbar, Flamborough No. 2, Gorleston No. 1, Helvick Head, Kessingland No. 1, Newhaven (motor), Port Erroll, Sutton, Walton-on-Naze (motor), Wexford, and Winterton No. 1.

Granted an annual pension to RICHARD ELLIOTT, Assistant Coxswain of the Workington Life-boat.

Voted 5*l.* to the widow of J. H. DAVIDSON towards the funeral expenses, he having fallen dead when hurrying to the Life-boat house for duty on the 11th May.

Granted 2*l.* for injuries to a horse at an exercise of the Rhosneigr Life-boat.

June 27.—MOELFRE, ANGLESEY.—Charles and Eliza Laura Life-boat.—Whilst the new Life-boat was being navigated from Liverpool to her station by a party of New Brighton Life-boatmen, the attention of the Coxswain was drawn by a passing dredger to a small yacht, which appeared to be in difficulties near the North Wall, Liverpool. The Coxswain bore down on her and found her to be the yacht Drake, of New Brighton, with two young men on board. They were quite unable to manage her, and the tide was drifting them on to the Wall. They hailed the Life-boat and asked for a line to be thrown them to tow them clear. This was done, and the boat and her occupants towed to New Brighton. Had the Life-boat not been there to render this assistance, the yacht would have undoubtedly been smashed against the Wall and the two men in all probability drowned.—Expense of service, 3*l.* 10*s.*

July 6.—LLANDUDNO, CARNARVONSHIRE.—Theodore Price Life-boat.—In the evening a small trawler, the Hero, hailing from Rhyl, anchored in Llandudno Bay. There was a strong N.N.W. breeze blowing, with a rough sea, and at 7.40 P.M. the men on board hoisted a signal of distress. They raised the alarm because the anchor had dragged and they were in danger of being driven on to the rocks. The Life-boat was launched and rescued the two men, the master being in a very exhausted condition. The firing of the Life-boat assembly signal attracted a large crowd, and the rescue was witnessed by many thousands of people, who heartily cheered the Life-boatmen.—Expense of service, 28*l.* 10*s.*

July 7—HOLY ISLAND, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Lizzie Porter Life-boat.—About half-past four two small yawl-rigged yachts, the Cruiser and Raven, were observed by Holy Island fishermen to be running south before the wind off Berwick. About 7 P.M. it was seen that these vessels meant to take Holy Island Harbour. They were kept under observation, and as the wind was from the N.E., blowing a strong gale, and very squally with a very heavy sea, it was considered necessary to send the Life-boat outside to meet them, as the bar was breaking every now and then. The Life-boat was promptly launched, and stood by the first yacht whilst she crossed the bar. The Life-boat then pulled out towards the Plough Rock and sailed up to meet the other craft, which was still some distance to the north. Great anxiety was felt by all regarding the little vessel, as she was so long in coming south. At 9.30 P.M. she came in sight, and took the bar, followed closely by the Life-boat, and got into smooth water in the Harbour. This was the first service by the Lizzie Porter in a heavy sea, and the Coxswains and crew were delighted with her behaviour under sail. In going out she shipped two heavy seas, but cleared herself quickly.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 3*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, July 14, 1910.

Also voted 25*l.* 2*s.* 8*d.* to pay the expenses of assemblies of the crews or launches of the following Life-boats, with the view of assisting persons on vessels in distress:—Berwick-on-Tweed, Blakeney, Clacton-on-Sea, Fleetwood, Gorleston No. 1, Harwich Nos. 1 and 2 (steam), Hasborough, Hilbre Island, Kingstown No. 1, Plymouth, Point of Ayr, Poolbeg, Sennen Cove, Sheringham, Walton-on-Naze and Yarmouth.

Voted a special gratuity of 50*l.*, together with an annual pension and certificate of service to JAMES LAMING, Coxswain Superintendent of the Kingsdowne Life-boat for twenty-one years, and Assistant Coxswain for nine years. He retired on account of old age.

Voted a gratuity of 5*l.* to T. M. COLLINS, Coxswain Superintendent of the Port Isaac Life-boat, on retirement.

Also 10*l.* as a compassionate grant to the widow and children of a Life-boatman, who lost his life whilst following his occupation as a fisherman.

Voted 5*l.* to a man injured in the Life-boat service at Brighthstone Grange.

July 28.—DONAGHADEE, Co. DOWN.—William and Laura Life-boat.—A telephone message was received from Cloughey at 7.30 A.M., stating that the Life-boat was required to stand by a stranded steamer, as the Cloughey Life-boat was not available. The crew were promptly assembled and the new motor Life-boat despatched. They found the s.s. Agamemnon, of Liverpool, bound for Glasgow, was ashore inside the South

Rock Light-house. The captain stated that he had already landed most of his crew of Chinamen. The Life-boat stood by the steamer for a time, but the officers decided to remain on board; the Life-boat therefore returned to Donaghadee, arriving at 2.45 P.M.—Expense of service, 4*l.* 2*s.*

Aug. 1.—PADSTOW, CORNWALL.—Arab Life-boat.—During a moderate E.S.E. gale the schooner Belle of the Plym, of Plymouth, stranded on the Doambar, at the entrance of the harbour. The chief officer of Coastguard reported the casualty by telephone at 6.30 P.M., and it having been ascertained that the vessel was in a position of danger, the No. 1 Life-boat was launched. When the Life-boat reached the schooner, the tide was flowing, the Coxswain therefore stood by her until 10.15 P.M., when she was successfully towed clear by the local tug.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 4*s.*

Aug. 6.—FRASERBURGH, ABERDEENSHIRE.—Anna Maria Lee Life-boat.—At 10.30 A.M., whilst the fishing fleet were returning from sea, in a strong northerly wind and rough sea, serious congestion took place in the harbour channel, and it was feared that serious damage might be caused to life and property. On the orders of two members of the Local Committee, the Life-boat was launched, and took up her position at the entrance of Balaclava Harbour in readiness to give assistance should any casualty occur. Fortunately nothing happened to require the services of the Life-boat, and after standing by for four hours she returned to moorings in the new South Harbour.—Expenses of service, 7*l.* -s. 6*d.*

Aug. 6.—HUNA, CAITHNESSSHIRE.—Ida Life-boat.—During the afternoon signals of distress were heard from the direction of Duncansbay Head; a dense fog prevailed at the time, with a north-east swell. The crew of the Life-boat were immediately assembled and the Life-boat proceeded in the direction of the signals, which continued until she nearly reached the vessel. Before getting to the scene of the wreck, however, two boats were passed bottom up, which turned out to be the two life-boats from the wrecked vessel, which had been swamped alongside, with the loss, unfortunately, of one life. The Life-boat with some difficulty got alongside the steamer, and two men were put on board. The vessel proved to be the s.s. Indian, of Liverpool, a four-masted vessel of nearly 6,000 tons register, bound from Nordenham via the Tyne for Pensacola, with a cargo of agricultural salt, and carrying a crew of fifty-two hands. Shortly after the vessel struck and before the Life-boat arrived, she had heeled over to port until almost rail under. It was now considered necessary to transfer the crew to the Life-boat, and accordingly part of the crew were taken on board clad in their life-belts. With the turn of the tide the vessel righted herself and slipped off the rocks. An examination showed that she was making water rapidly. Two attempts were made to take the steamer in tow, but the tow ropes carried away; it was therefore decided, as the vessel was gradually sinking, to beach her in Sinclair Bay, in order to save life and property. This was accomplished in safety, but with only one bulkhead holding between the water and the engine-room, which might burst at any moment, and as the forepart was already full of water, the captain requested the Life-boat to stand by the vessel until tugs arrived. The Life-boat remained in attendance until the 10th August, when her services being no longer required, she returned to her station, arriving at 6 P.M.—Property salvage case.

Aug. 11.—CRICCIETH, CARNARVONSHIRE.—Reserve Life-boat.—During the evening a breeze sprang up very suddenly from the S.S.W., and continued to freshen until there was a fresh gale. At 11 P.M. signals of distress were seen from the ketch James, of Cardigan, on Portmadoc Bar. The Life-boat crew were summoned, and the Life-boat promptly launched. She proceeded alongside the ketch and rescued the two men, landing them in safety at 3 A.M. The vessel rode out the gale, and was towed into Portmadoc at noon next day.—Expense of service, 22*l.* 7*s.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 11th Aug., 1910.

Also voted 25*l.* -s. 8*d.* to pay the expenses of the following Life-boat launches or assemblies of crews, etc., with the view of assisting persons on vessels in distress:—Clacton on-Sea, Cloughey, Donaghadee (motor), Gorleston No. 1, Harwich (steam), Hilbre Island, Hoylake, Little Haven, New Brighton (steam), North Deal, Pakefield, Port Erroll, Pwllheli, Tenby, Wicklow and Yarmouth.

Voted a retiring pension and certificate of service to CHARLES HORNE, Coxswain Superintendent of the Staithe's Life-boat.

Voted 12s. 6d. to a man for injury to his hand on Life-boat service at Llandudno.

Aug. 12.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—During a strong W.S.W. breeze with heavy sea, a man put off in a small rowing-boat, but got into difficulties, and was seen drifting with the tide rapidly towards the Corton Sands. His signals of distress were reported to the Coxswain, who launched the No. 1 Life-boat. They proceeded with all haste after the boat, and having taken the occupant on board, towed the boat back to Gorleston.—Expense of service, 11l. 13s.

Aug. 15.—CRICCIETH, CARNARVONSHIRE.—Reserve Life-boat.—The pleasure yacht Iris, of Chester, was seen to be in a dangerous position in the breakers near Portmadoc Bar. The Coxswain launched the Life-boat and proceeded to the assistance of the crew. He asked them if they wanted the assistance of the Life-boat; they at first declined, stating that they would remain on board until swamped, and would then try and swim ashore. It was pointed out to them that this would be impossible, and that they would incur very great and unnecessary danger; as soon as they realised that this was so they readily availed themselves of the proffered aid. The three men were then taken into the Life-boat and brought ashore in safety, the yacht being left at anchor to weather the storm if possible. The sea was rough during this service, with a moderate W.S.W. gale blowing.—Expense of service, 9l. 15s.

Aug. 18.—RAMSEY, ISLE OF MAN.—Mary Isabella Life-boat.—At 6.45 P.M. information was received by telegram from the Light-keeper at Point of Ayr Light-house to the effect that a small yacht was in difficulties close by, flying signals of distress. The Life-boat was at once ordered out, and in a south-westerly gale and heavy sea proceeded to Point of Ayr. She reached the yacht a few minutes after 8 P.M. and found that she was the Sea Bird, of Carnarvon, with three persons on board, bound from Lamlash to Pwllheli. The three men were quickly transferred to the Life-boat, and she at once started on her return journey, arriving at Ramsey at 4 A.M.—Expense of service, 27l. 14s.

Aug. 19.—HASTINGS, SUSSEX.—Charles Arkcoll Life-boat.—The cutter-yacht We're Here, of Burnham-on-Crouch, was in grave peril of being lost on the Castle Rocks, Hastings, in the early morning. The yacht, with the owner, his wife, man, and two dogs on board, left Folkestone about noon the previous day, and had to beat against the wind all the way down Channel. During the night it came on to blow hard and the owner tried to run for Rye, but missed the harbour in the darkness. He then decided to make for Hastings, which place was reached, but not knowing the shore, he could not discover a suitable place for landing. The anchors were let go, but the yacht was in shallow, broken water in close proximity to a dangerous and extensive reef. The anchors held fairly well, but the sea was so rough the yacht was knocked about badly, and the position of those on board was one of considerable peril. At 5.20 A.M. signals of distress were made, and the Life-boat promptly launched. The Coxswain handled his boat splendidly, taking her into the broken water and rescuing all on board, including the dogs. He found that the craft was so near to the rocks that he could not get to leeward, but had to effect the rescue from windward. Had the Life-boat been less skilfully handled she might have been very seriously damaged, if not wrecked.

The Committee of Management at their following meeting, in appreciation of the excellence of the service, made an additional reward to each member of the crew. The owner of the yacht, Dr.

Shenton, showed his appreciation of the rescue by sending a pecuniary present to the Coxswain and crew, and forwarding a letter to the Institution expressing his gratitude. — Expense of service, 18*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*

Aug. 19.—SALTBURN, YORKSHIRE.—Mary Batger Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched shortly after noon to the assistance of the pleasure coble Thelma, of Saltdurn, which had put to sea with three persons on board. A N.W. gale suddenly sprang up, making the coble difficult to handle, and she drifted down the coast. Signals of distress were made, and the Life-boat proceeded after the helpless craft. When near Skinninggrove the occupants of the coble decided to try and land, and the Life-boat stood by until the boat was safely beached. The Life-boat was compelled to wait off Skinninggrove at anchor for some hours until the ebb tide set in, as she was unable to row back in the teeth of the gale. — Expense of service, 12*l.* 1*s.* 6*d.*

Aug. 19.—MARGATE, KENT, and HARWICH, ESSEX.—Civil Service No. 1 and City of Glasgow Life-boats.—At 11.30 A.M. information was received at Margate that a large vessel was ashore on the Longsand. The crew of the No. 2 Life-boat were assembled, the Life-boat launched, and proceeded to the sands. On arrival the Coxswain found the barque Fox, of Arendal, aground. He asked the captain if he required any assistance, and in reply he stated he wished the Life-boat to stand by until high water, also to inform him as to his position, as he had been unable to take his bearing, and was in ignorance as to where he was. In the meanwhile a message reached Harwich reporting the casualty, and the steam Life-boat put to sea. She made straight for the Longsand, and both Life-boats stood by the barque until high water at 11 P.M. When she succeeded in the strong N.W. wind in getting clear of sands she was put upon her course for America, and the Life-boats returned to their respective stations.—Expenses of service, Margate 24*l.* 19*s.*, Harwich 11*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

Aug. 21.—DUNBAR, HADDINGTONSHIRE.—William Arthur Millward Life-boat.—The Life-boat was called out shortly after nine in the morning to a vessel which had stranded on the Peffer Sands, some miles westward of Dunbar. The Life-boat was promptly launched, not without some difficulty, the rudder being damaged. The state of the wind and tide necessitated the Life-boat being towed to the Harbour mouth by a large squad of helpers. On getting outside the Life-boat encountered a strong N.E. wind, but by good seamanship quickly got to sea. On arrival at the scene of the wreck, the vessel was found to be the small steamer Inchcolm, of Leith. The Life-boat crew made signals offering to take the crew off, but they did not desire to be landed; she stood by the vessel for a considerable time, and then returned to Dunbar. The steamer was in a very bad position and likely to become a total wreck.

The weather was very bad at the time of this service, and the crew and helpers had a very arduous time; the Committee of Management therefore gave them an additional reward.—Expense of service, 22*l.* 18*s.* 6*d.*

Aug. 21.—NEWHAVEN, SUSSEX.—Reserve Life-boat.—At about 6.30 P.M. the Coxswain of the Life-boat sighted a steamer making for the Harbour, when she struck the bar and at once commenced to drift ashore. As the vessel appeared to be quite unmanageable and in a dangerous position owing to the heavy sea, the Life-boat was launched. A pilot asked to be put on board the disabled vessel, stating he had tried to board her before she came in, but was unable to do so, his boat being nearly swamped. He was put on board as requested, and the Life-boat stood by until asked by the captain of the steamer to get a tow-rope from a tug, which had also gone to the steamer's assistance, but was unable to get near. A rope was obtained and taken to the steamer, but in the meantime she had succeeded in getting her head to sea, and the rope was refused. The Life-boat continued to stand by the steamer until, eventually, the wind and sea moderating, she got clear on the rising tide. The Life-boat then returned to Harbour.

The steamer was the Brittany, a new boat built for the London, Brighton and South Coast Railway Company, for the Newhaven and Caen route. She was on her way from Hull to Newhaven when the mishap occurred, and she was very fortunate in getting off as she did, because had the wind increased instead of moderated, she would have, in all probability, been lost.—Expense of service, 16*l.* -s. 3*d.*

Aug. 22.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—A telephone message reported that a vessel was ashore on the Holm Sands. The No. 1 Life-boat was launched, and in tow of a tug proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the smack Young Harry, of Lowestoft, homeward bound with fish. The master on being asked if he required the assistance of the Life-boat, replied that he had not done so up to the present; the Life-boat therefore stood by until the tide flowed sufficiently to enable a tug to get the smack afloat. This she eventually did, and the Life-boat returned to her station.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 6*s.* 4*d.*

Aug. 26.—PEEL, ISLE OF MAN.—May-hew Medwin Life-boat.—At 5 A.M. the Coxswain of the Life-boat received information that there were no tidings of a small fishing yawl, the Shamrock, of Peel, which left Harbour at 10.30 A.M. the previous day. The Assistant Harbour-Master was consulted, and the launch of the Life-boat ordered. The assembly signal was fired, and in the short space of ten minutes the Life-boat was afloat and proceeded to sea in a S.W. gale. The Life-boat stood to windward for some time and then ran to leeward for ten miles. After searching a wide expanse of sea for four hours the Coxswain observed a small sail about five miles away. He kept the Life-boat in the direction of the sail, which proved to be the missing boat with its three occupants. They were taken into the Life-boat in a most exhausted condition, after a terribly trying experience. The Life-boat then made for land, being twelve miles to leeward. The wind was still increasing at this period, with heavy squalls of rain and a heavy sea running. It was realised at Peel that the Life-boat in beating home in the teeth of the gale would have a very heavy task, and Mr. C. F. Egner, the owner of the steam drifter Manx Bride, very kindly directed his vessel to put off and tow the Life-boat home, he and the Honorary Secretary of the Branch, Lieutenant A. Newnham, R.N., accompanying her. The Life-boat was picked up when about six miles off, the drifter being so smartly handled that the hawser was aboard in two minutes. All being secure she steamed for Peel, the small boat still being in tow of the Life-boat. During the voyage into port the yawl was swamped by a heavy sea and sank, the tow-rope breaking as she went down. It was now blowing a whole gale, and large crowds had gathered to witness the return of the Life-boat. When she arrived at 1.30 P.M., having been at sea eight hours, rousing cheers greeted them. This was a brilliant rescue, and much praise and credit are due to the Life-boat's crew, and to Mr. Egner for his timely assistance with his steamer, which saved some hours of exposure to the rescued and their rescuers.

The Committee of Management at the meeting next following showed their appreciation of this service by presenting the Coxswain CHARLES CAIN with the thanks of the Institution inscribed on vellum and framed, and double pay to each of the crew. They also sent special letters of thanks to Mr. Egner and to Lieutenant Newnham for their valuable assistance, and made a monetary reward to the crew of the drifter.—Expense of service, 29*l.* 4*s.*

Aug. 26.—PORT ERIN, ISLE OF MAN.—William Sugden Life-boat.—At about 3 P.M., during a whole W.N.W. gale, the fishing-boat Fear Not, was seen to miss stays and drift towards the rocks. The Life-boat was immediately launched, but before she could reach her the fishing-boat was on the rocks, a total wreck, only five minutes elapsing between the time the boat commenced to drift and being dashed on to the rocks. The Life-boat approached the wreck as near as it was possible, and searched the wreckage, but failed to find any sign of life. Two of the vessel's crew unfortunately perished, but the four others managed to get ashore. The Coxswain, having satisfied himself that nothing further could be done, proceeded, in answer to distress signals, to the smacks Expert, of Castletown, and Milky Way, of Port St. Mary, and saved six men from the former and seven from the latter. Shortly afterwards, the Expert parted her cable and was driven on shore, becoming a total wreck. The weather at the time was unusually bad, and the service was an excellent one, in recognition of which the Committee of Management granted each of the crew double pay.—Expense of service, 20*l.* 13*s.*

Aug. 27.—NEW BRIGHTON, CHESHIRE.—A fierce westerly gale swept the Mersey during the early hours of the morning, and at about 4 o'clock the large dredger Walter Glynn, belonging to the Docks and Harbour Board, was capsized near the North Wall, Liverpool. She had a crew of sixteen on board. Some of the men clung to the upturned dredger, but others managed to get ashore, whilst two, unfortunately, lost their lives in the attempt. At 4.30 A.M. a telephone message was received at New Brighton, reporting the casualty, and the steam Life-boat Queen was promptly despatched. On reaching the vessel the Coxswain found that she was aground, with several men clinging to the upper part of her. As the vessel lay with her bottom towards the wall, and too near in for the Life-boat to attempt to get to leeward, the Coxswain was compelled to approach her from windward. The Life-boat's movements were much impeded by the wreckage and the vessel's top hamper, consisting of dredging-buckets, masts, funnels, etc. With considerable difficulty and after four unsuccessful attempts, the Coxswain managed to get off all the remaining men, five in number, dragging them one by one through the water. One man had been severely injured, and required careful handling and skill in getting him into the Life-boat. The Coxswain, having made sure that there were no signs of life either on the wreck or in the vicinity, proceeded to New Brighton and landed the rescued men. This was an excellent service, carried out in a whole gale and at considerable risk owing to the close proximity to the seawall and to the wreckage, and the Committee of Management awarded the thanks of the Institution inscribed on vellum to WILLIAM CROSS, the Coxswain, and granted him and each of the crew additional pay.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.*

Aug. 28.—ALDEBURGH, SUFFOLK.—Edward Z. Dresden Life-boat.—At 11.30 A.M. a barge was observed riding at anchor about a quarter of a mile from the shore between Orfordness and Aldeburgh. She was labouring heavily, with the sea washing over her. A signal of distress was made and the No. 2 Life-boat was immediately launched. The Life-boatmen found the barge was the Resurga, of London, bound from the Humber to London with coal. The captain reported that his anchor was dragging and that he wanted help to recover it, as he feared his vessel would ground. The crew of three hands were all ready to leave her. The Coxswain considering it would be possible to save the vessel, put five men on board, the anchor and cable were slipped, and the barge got under way. Accompanied by the Life-boat, they took her to Southwold Harbour, arriving at 5 P.M.—Property salvage case.

Aug. 29.—NORTH DEAL and RAMSGATE, KENT.—Charles Dibdin and Charles and Susanna Stephens Life-boats.—At 10.15 A.M. a barque was observed from Deal ashore on the Goodwin Sands. The Life-boat was promptly launched and proceeded to her assistance. She proved to be the barque Henrich, of Larvik, with a crew of ten hands, bound from Antwerp, partly loaded. Some difficulty was experienced in boarding her, but when accomplished the Life-boatmen were engaged to save the vessel. The sea at this time was so heavy that the Life-boat was unable to lie alongside; she therefore anchored close at hand, and subsequently laid out an anchor from the vessel. When the tide flowed the barque was hauled clear and taken into the Downs. Shortly after the vessel had been seen from Deal, the Gull Light-vessel commenced to fire signals, and the Ramsgate Life-boat put to sea. When she reached the barque she found the North Deal men already engaged in salving the vessel. She stood by in case any further assistance should be required, and when the vessel got clear of the sands returned to her station.

—North Deal, property salvage case. Ramsgate. Paid by Board of Trade.

Aug. 31. — CAISTER, NORFOLK. — Nancy Lucy Life-boat.—The schooner William and Alice, of Hull, whilst bound from that port to Grays with a cargo of coal, stranded on the Cockle Sand. The crew of the No. 2 Life-boat were assembled and the Life-boat launched. On arrival at the schooner it was found that she was hard aground. The master declined any assistance, but the Life-boat stood by for about two hours, while a tug, which had also come to the schooner, made efforts to tow her clear. At the end of this time the vessel floated, and the Life-boat returned to her station. — Expense of service, 11l. 12s. 6d.

Sept. 4. — CAISTER, NORFOLK. — Covent Garden Life-boat. — The No. 1 Life-boat was launched at 1.45 P.M., the Coastguard having reported a vessel was making distress signals. It transpired that the ketch barge Empress of India, of Ipswich, whilst bound from Sunderland to London with a cargo of bottles, was overtaken by a violent northerly gale when off Caister and sprung a leak. Signals of distress were made, and the Covent Garden Life-boat put off in a very heavy sea. On reaching the vessel it was found that she was waterlogged, and the four persons on board, including the master's wife, were rescued as the vessel was sinking. As the weather was too bad for the Life-boat to attempt to land at Caister, she proceeded to Yarmouth, where the rescued people were landed, wet through and exhausted. A very gratifying letter of thanks was subsequently received from the master of the barge, in which he spoke in high terms of the service rendered him. — Expenses of service, 21l. 17s. 6d.

Sept. 5. — GORLESTON, SUFFOLK. — Leicester Life-boat. — At 12.30 A.M., during a whole N.E. gale with very heavy sea, it was reported to the Coxswain of the No. 2 Life-boat that a vessel was ashore on the North Bank. The Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the steam drifter Test, of Lowestoft, with ten hands aboard. She was hard aground about 100 yards north of the North Pier. The Life-boat anchored and veered down to her, when the master at once engaged the services of the crew and that of a tug to try and get his vessel afloat. Life-boatmen were put on board, an anchor run out, and with the flood making she was towed off and taken into safety.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 8th Sept., 1910.

Voted 170l. 14s. 3d. to pay the expenses of the following Life-boat launches, assemblies of crews, etc., with the view of assisting vessels in distress:— Aldeburgh No. 2, Appledore No. 1, Castletown, Clacton-on-Sea, Douglas, Eastbourne No. 2, Fishguard, Flcetwood, Ilfracombe, Lowestoft No. 1, Newhaven, Port Logan, and Totland Bay.

Voted 3l. to a man injured in the Life-boat service at Porthleven.

Voted a gratuity of 68l. to the widow of JOHN DAVISON, Coxswain Superintendent of the Sunderland South Outlet and Hendon Beach Life-boats for the past thirty years.

Sept. 14. — ALDEBURGH, SUFFOLK. — Edward Z. Dresden Life-boat. — At 8 A.M. a barge was seen drifting ashore about half-a-mile from Thorpeness. The assembly signal was at once fired and the No. 2 Life-boat promptly launched. The life-saving apparatus also proceeded to the scene of the casualty, but was unable to get into communication. The crew of two men were rescued by the Life-boat, which then stood by for some time to see if it would be possible, with the assistance of a tug, to save the craft. After two hours' waiting, all attempts were abandoned, as the sea was too heavy in the prevailing easterly gale. The barge, which was the Monarch, of London, eventually became a total wreck.—Expense of service, 17l. 8s. 6d.

Sept. 18. — RAMSGATE, KENT. — Charles and Susanna Stephens Life-boat. — At 5.35 A.M. it was reported that the Gull Light-vessel was firing guns, and also that a steamer could be seen on the Goodwin Sands. The Life-boat promptly proceeded in tow of the Harbour tug to sea. On arriving at the vessel the Life-boat went alongside and offered assistance, which was accepted. The steamer was the Stainburn, of Workington, carrying a crew of nine, bound from Newcastle to St. Helen, Isle of Wight, with coal. The crew had got all their effects ready for leaving the vessel, but were advised to remain on board. The steamer had stranded earlier in the morning and had been bumping heavily. An anchor was laid out, and as the flood made heavy seas broke over the steamer. At 8 A.M. ropes were successfully passed to the tug and by the united efforts of the tug and the Life-boatmen the vessel and her crew were eventually saved.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 2.—SOUTHEND-ON-SEA, ESSEX.—James Stevens No. 9 Life-boat.—During a strong S.W. gale, it was reported that a steamboat—the Duke of Abercorn—was driving down towards the pier. The Deputy Pier-Master was informed, and it was deemed advisable to assemble the crew of the Life-boat in readiness. On arriving at the pier-end the crew found the Managing Director of the company to which the vessel belonged. He was very anxious about the safety of the vessel, as she was short-handed, the Skipper and Chief Engineer being ashore, and he requested the Coxswain to put him and an engineer on board. The Life-boat was manned at 8.55 P.M., and the two men were taken off. The Life-boat then returned to her moorings.—Property salvage case; balance paid by Institution, 15*l.* 1*s.*

Oct. 3.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—At about 2 A.M. the Coxswain of the No. 1 Life-boat was called up and informed that a vessel near the North Bank had dragged her anchors, and was burning flares for assistance. He hastened to the Boat-house, and found the crew had already assembled. The Mark Lane was promptly launched, and in tow of a tug she proceeded to sea. It was blowing a hurricane at the time from the S.S.E., but an hour later the wind flew round to N.W. and blew a whole gale. A course was shaped for the vessel, and getting to windward, the Coxswain anchored and veered down to her. The vessel proved to be the dandy barge Lord Nelson, of London, carrying a crew of four hands, bound from Hull to Maldon, Essex, with a cargo of coal. She was in a sinking condition, but the master stated that with the help of the Life-boat and tug he hoped to save her. Five Life-boatmen were put on board and communication was established between the tug and the barge, a wire hawser being eventually made fast. The vessel was then towed into a position of comparative safety until daybreak. At 5.40 A.M. the tide was favourable, and the barge and the Life-boat were safely towed into harbour, and the former was taken up the river and beached.—Property salvage case; balance paid by Institution, 9*l.* 6*s.* 6*d.*

Oct. 6.—NEWHAVEN, SUSSEX.—Reserve Life-boat.—At 8 A.M. in the morning, the Coastguard reported that a steamer was ashore under Telscombe Cliffs in a dangerous position. It was decided to launch the Life-boat, and she proceeded to the stranded vessel, which was found on the rocks within six feet of the cliffs. The Coxswain of the Life-boat asked the Captain if he required assistance, and he requested the Life-boat to stand by until high water, when an attempt would be made by tugs to tow the vessel off. The Life-boat accordingly remained with the vessel, and some hours later the tugs succeeded in towing her off. The Life-boat then returned to Newhaven. The vessel was the steamer Progress, of Hull, bound from Jersey to Newhaven in ballast.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 9*s.*

Oct. 13.—ST. DAVID'S, PEMBROKE-SHIRE.—Gem Life-boat.—Shortly after 1 A.M., a deplorable disaster overtook the St. David's Life-boat, after she had rescued three men from the ketch Democrat, of Barnstaple.

The Democrat was riding with her two anchors down on the night of the 12th October, when the prevailing moderate N.N.E. gale increased, and the master, fearing that his anchor would drag, made signals for assistance.

The crew of the Life-boat were assembled, and in a heavy sea the boat was launched. The night was very dark and it was then blowing a full gale from N.E., with occasional showers. After two unsuccessful attempts the Life-boat got alongside the vessel, which was in close proximity to a dangerous reef of rocks known as "The Bitches." The three men on board were taken into the Life-boat and orders given to sheer off. Although the crew pulled hard they were unable to straighten the Life-boat's head up against the wind, sea and tide, and she was rapidly swept towards the reef. Seeing that it was impossible to pull clear the Coxswain made an effort to manœuvre his boat through a narrow passage, which in the darkness was only discernible by its foam, the sea in the whole of the vicinity being described as "boiling mad." Unfortunately, in attempting to make this passage the Life-boat struck on a rock, and all the men were thrown out, some on to the rock and some into the sea, the Life-boat being washed away and totally wrecked.

Fifteen men, including the crew of the Democrat, succeeded in getting upon the rock, but JOHN STEPHENS, the Coxswain, and two other Life-boatmen were not seen again until their bodies were picked up. On land nothing was known of the accident until about 9 A.M., when one of the men on the rock burnt some oil-skins to attract attention. SYDNEY MORTIMER, a fisherman, hearing that an accident had happened to the Life-boat, at once called for volunteers to go to their assistance. SAMUEL GUPPY and SAMUEL HUSK, two Coastguardsmen, promptly responded, and the three men put off in a shore-boat in a very heavy sea. When they reached the vicinity of the rock the sea was too rough for them to attempt to approach it, and the men on the rock were too exhausted by exposure and the hardships they had undergone to allow of an attempt to haul them through the sea from the rock to the boat. Mortimer therefore decided to stand by until the tide had fallen. Four hours later he took five men off and landed them on Ramsay Island. He then returned and took five more ashore, and was going back a third time when another boat, which had put off at about 3.30 P.M., manned by ELEAZAR JAMES and four other men, rescued the remaining men. In the meantime those on shore had done all that was possible, and had telegraphed for the Fishguard motor Life-boat, Charterhouse. That boat was promptly manned, and in face of a sea described as running mountains high, proceeded upwards of sixteen miles to the help of their comrades in distress. Although the Charterhouse was not in time to take any of the men from the rock, her arrival was most opportune, as the boat manned by James and the four other men was frail, and she was in imminent danger of being swamped, and was not under control. A rope was thrown to the boat, and the Life-boat towed her into safety. An hour later the rescued men, who had been landed on Ramsay Isle, were brought to St. David's. Many of the survivors were so exhausted that they were in a state of collapse. Restoratives were administered, and everything possible was done for their comfort.

The deepest sympathy was felt by all for the relatives of the three brave men who had risked and lost their lives to save their fellows. A fund was opened locally for their benefit, and to this the Institution contributed 225*l.*, at the same time passing a vote of deep sympathy.

The gallant conduct of SYDNEY MORTIMER and the two men who accompanied him met with the highest commendation from all, and the Committee of Management awarded votes of thanks inscribed on vellum, together with pecuniary rewards, to each of them, while Mortimer's heroic conduct was especially distinguished by the award of the silver medal of the Institution. Monetary rewards were also made to the men who went off in the other shore boat, and additional rewards were granted to the crew of the Fishguard Life-boat, whose splendid work was performed in very severe weather.

It is very gratifying to be able to record that the St. David's Life-boatmen showed their appreciation of Mortimer's gallantry by electing him, in spite of his youth, their Coxswain Superintendent, in place of poor Stephens, who had lost his life in the performance of a noble service nobly rendered.

The cost of the Fishguard Life-boat was presented to the Institution by "Carthusians," past and present, and after the service the Coxswain, J. Howells, received the following telegram:—"Well played, sailors! Boys congratulate you.—Girdleston, Charterhouse, Godalming."

Mr. WALTER J. VAUGHAN, the Fishguard Honorary Secretary, also received the following letter from the Rev. Dr. G. H. Rendall, headmaster of Charterhouse:—"Please convey to the Life-boatmen our heartfelt appreciation of the gallantry and seamanship shown in the thrilling experience which they have just passed through. The hour of trial has come early in the boat's career, and we rejoice that the men who are associated with the name we love have exerted themselves so heroically and so successfully to cover it with new honour. I trust that there are no fatalities or serious injuries to the crew of the 'Charterhouse.' The boys will be interested in all they can learn of the doings and welfare of the crew."

Oct. 13.—WEXFORD, CO. WEXFORD. James Stevens No. 15 Life-boat.—During a strong N.E. gale with a rough sea, signals of distress were seen at 6.30 A.M. from the smack Vivid of Wexford, which had stranded the previous day about three-quarters of a mile W.N.W. of Rosslare Point. A messenger was despatched on a bicycle to summon the crew and the Life-boat proceeded to her assistance. When nearing the vessel the Life-boat took the ground and was obliged to wait until the tide made; she then went alongside and took off the crew of four men, who were in an exhausted state, having had neither food nor firing all night. The men were landed, supplied with dry clothing and food, and later in the day put on board a dredger which took them to Wexford.—Expense of service, 10*l.* 17*s.*

Oct. 13.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Charles and Susanna Stephens Life-boat.—The Life-boat was sent to the assistance of a small fishing vessel of Ramsgate named the Oceana, at 1.20 P.M. The vessel was seen by the watchman trying to make the Harbour when her sails split and she became unmanageable, with the result that she began to drift ashore. Orders were given for the Harbour tug Aid to proceed to her assistance, but as the tug could not, owing to the heavy sea and shoal water, get near enough to pass a rope on board, the Life-boat was also sent, and she succeeded in establishing communication. The Oceana had her anchor down, but it was not holding, and had the vessel once struck the ground she would no doubt have been wrecked, and the crew of two men would probably have been drowned. The weather was very bad, with a strong E.N.E. gale blowing and a very heavy sea. The Life-boat let go her anchor, and by means of a rope, managed to hold the Oceana and prevent her drifting further in shore among the breakers. She held the vessel until the tide had made sufficiently for the tug to get near to them, and then a hawser, with great difficulty, was passed to the tug. When the anchors had been weighed the tug started to tow, and the Life-boat and vessel were taken out of danger and eventually into Ramsgate Harbour.—Paid by Board of Trade.

Oct. 13.—CLACTON-ON-SEA, ESSEX.—Albert Edward Life-boat.—In response to a telephone message from the Gunfleet Light-house, stating that a French lugger was driving up the "Swin" with distress signals flying, the Life-boat was launched at 4.30 P.M. On reaching the vessel, which proved to be the lugger Prince de Joinville, of Boulogne, with twenty-one hands on board, the Master employed the Life-boatmen to try and save his vessel, as he had completely lost his bearings. The Life-boatmen took charge, and having set more sail, eventually succeeded in getting the lugger in safety to Sheerness. At noon the next day the boat started for Clacton, and after very arduous efforts, reached home at 7.45 P.M.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 13th Oct., 1910.

Voted 435*l.* 15*s.* 8*d.* to pay the expenses of the following Life-boat launches, assemblies of crews, etc., with the view of assisting persons on vessels in distress:—Buckie, Cadgwith, Caister Nos. 1 and 2, Clacton, Dunbar, Formby, Fraserburgh, Gorleston No. 1, Hayling

Island, Hilbre Island, Lizard, New Brighton (steam), Newhaven, Palling No. 2, Point of Ayr, Porthleven, South-end-on-Sea, Southsea and Yarmouth.

Granted annual pensions and certificates of service to the following Coxswains, Superintendents on their resignations:—JOHN AINDON, Formby; GEORGE HODGSON, Withernsea; HIRAM MAYNARD, Shoreham; SAMUEL ASHTON, Polkerris; and ROBERT WOODCOCK, Appledore.

Also annual pensions to WILLIAM ROBINS, Assistant Coxswain at Polkerris and to GEORGE WISEMAN, Assistant Coxswain at Hasborough.

Also a commuted pension to A. CARROLL, Bowman of Blackrock Life-boat.

Granted 10*l.* 1*s.* to pay the funeral expenses of SAMUEL MARTIN, for many years Coxswain Superintendent of the Pakefield Life-boat.

Oct. 14.—HYTHE, KENT.—Meyer de Rothschild Life-boat.—At 5.57 A.M., the Coastguard reported that a vessel was lying off Dymchurch making signals of distress. The Life-boat was successfully launched in a very heavy sea and proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the fishing smack Providence, of Folkestone, with three men on board. The vessel was on a lee-shore, her sails had been blown away in the storm, and her anchors were dragging.

The three men, in an exhausted condition, were rescued by the Life-boat. She then returned to Hythe, arriving at 8.45 A.M. A strong N.E. gale was blowing during this rescue and the Life-boat was very smartly handled.—Expense of service, 18*l.* 6*s.*

Oct. 14-16.—ALDEBURGH, SUFFOLK and HARWICH, ESSEX.—City of Winchester and City of Glasgow Life-boats.—The Coastguard reported at 5.45 A.M. that a steamer was ashore at Shingle Street and the crew of the Aldeburgh No. 1 Life-boat were at once assembled. A whole E. by N. gale was blowing which caused a very heavy sea, and it was with great difficulty that the Life-boat was launched. As soon as the boat was clear of the shoal water she sailed quickly to the vessel, which proved to be the s.s. Hurricane, of Liverpool.

They found she was lying in very broken water and as the Life-boat proceeded alongside she frequently touched the ground.

The crew of eight hands were successfully rescued, the Harwich Steam Life-boat standing by, in case her services might be required, a message having been sent to Harwich as well as to Aldeburgh.

The rescued men were landed near the wreck at Shingle Street and, it having been reported by telephone that the sea was too rough for the Aldeburgh Life-boat to attempt to beach at Aldeburgh, she remained at Shingle Street.

Some hours later the Life-boatmen and local men were engaged to try and save the steamer. Anchors were laid out and many tons of cargo were jettisoned, and eventually they succeeded. As the sea continued to be very heavy at Aldeburgh it was not possible for the Life-boat to get back to her station until the 16th October.—Expenses of first service 51*l.* 8*s.* 6*d.* Second service, Property salvage case.

Oct. 14.—NEWLYN, CORNWALL.—Elizabeth and Blanche Life-boat.—In the early morning the wind which had been blowing from E.N.E. suddenly changed to S.S.E. and increased to a strong gale. As there were many vessels in the Bay it was decided to launch the Life-boat. She was launched at 8.40 A.M. and she was scarcely afloat before several vessels were seen running for Newlyn. By this time heavy seas were breaking on and around the pier. The Coxswain spoke several of the sailing craft and warned them how best to make the harbour. He then proceeded to the fleet lying at anchor, which reported "all well," with the exception of the schooner Lizzie, of Weymouth, which was lying in shoal water and labouring heavily. On the arrival of the Life-boat the Master shipped his anchors, and accompanied by the Life-boat made for Newlyn, which was reached at 11.15.

Oct. 14.—PWLLELI, CARNARVONSHIRE.—Margaret Platts Life-boat.—On the night of the 13th October the Criccieth Life-boat was launched to the assistance of two vessels on Portmadoc bar, but in the severe weather prevailing, was unable to reach them.

Next morning it was reported to Pwllheli that the Criccieth Life-boat had not returned, and the Margaret Platts was launched. After a very trying beat of twelve miles she reached the fishing-boat Venus, and found four men on board, two being the crew of the smack Helena, which had sunk earlier in the morning. The men on board were rescued, and Life-boatmen were put on the Venus and succeeded in saving her. A whole gale was blowing at the time of this service, and a very heavy sea running. The Criccieth Life-boat, although unable to get to the vessels, got ashore in safety.—Expense of service, 14l. 3s. 6d.

Oct. 14.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Leicester Life-boat.—During a strong E.S.E. gale a steam drifter was observed towing another steam drifter—apparently in a sinking condition—towards the harbour. A strong E.S.E. gale was blowing with a heavy sea, and when the vessels were crossing the bar the tow-rope parted, and the sinking drifter stranded near the North Pier. The No. 2 Life-boat was immediately launched, and proceeded to her assistance. Shortly afterwards the drifter which had been towing came to her and again commenced to tow her; assisted by the Life-boat the vessel was floated and taken into safety. The vessel was the steam drifter Arcadia, of Aberdeen, and carried a crew of ten hands.—Expense of service, 23l. 9s. 6d.

Oct. 18.—POINT OF AYR, FLINTSHIRE.—H. G. Powell Life-boat.—Shortly after 4 P.M. it was reported that a small tug was on the West Hoyle Bank, and as the W. wind was increasing, it was decided to send the Life-boat out. They found the tug Manuense in want of assistance; she was bumping heavily on the sands, and the Master had lost his bearings. Life-boatmen were put on board; they succeeded in getting the vessel clear, and took her and her crew of five men into safety.—Expense of service, 30l. 7s. 6d.

Oct. 19.—WHITBY, YORKSHIRE.—John Fielden Life-boat.—In the early morning several of the fishing cobbles put to sea for the purpose of fishing. The wind suddenly changed, and they were obliged to run for shelter. All the cobbles got in safely with the exception of one small one, named the Rose of Sharon, which could not be seen. At about noon the coble was seen off the harbour; by this time the sea had become very rough, and the wind had increased to a gale. The risk to the men in the coble was too great for them to cross the bar; the Life-boat was therefore launched, and escorted them into safety. This gale was exceptionally sudden. The life-saving apparatus also turned out in case the coble met with a disaster.—Expense of service, 10l. 17s.

Oct. 21.—CAISTER, NORFOLK.—Covent Garden Life-boat.—The No. 1 Life-boat rescued the crew of ten hands of the barque Ceres, of Kragero, which had stranded on the Scroby Sands in a very heavy sea. The vessel was seen standing into danger, and the Life-boat was, with some difficulty, launched. When attempting to go alongside under the vessel's lee, the seas drove the Life-boat away. The men on board the Ceres then tried to float a life-buoy, with a line attached, to the Life-boat, but without success. In the meanwhile the sea was breaking right over the vessel, and at times over the Life-boat as well. Seeing the difficulty experienced by the Life-boat, one of the Norwegian sailors, named Olsen, pluckily plunged from the deck of the vessel into the sea, with a line, and swam to the Life-boat; a rope was then bent on and hauled to the Life-boat, and by this means the boat got near enough to the barque to rescue all on board. The Covent Garden then returned to Caister, where the men, who were suffering from the effects of exposure, were conveyed in carts to the Sailors' Home. The vessel became a total wreck. This was a very good service, and the Committee of Management granted the crew of the Life-boat an additional reward, and also rewarded Olsen for the courage he displayed.—Expense of service, 45l. 2s. 6d.

Oct. 24.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Leicester Life-boat.—At 1.55 P.M. it was reported that a vessel bound for the Harbour in tow had parted from her tow-rope and was drifting on to the North Bank. The No. 2 Life-boat was promptly launched, and in tow of a tug proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the iron coal hulk Era, of Yarmouth, inward bound from Boston. When near the Era the Life-boat slipped the tug and ran under the lee of the vessel, made fast and took off the crew of six hands. In the meantime the vessel had drifted close to the head of the Pier and it was not possible for the Coxswain to return to the tug, he therefore ran for the beach and landed the shipwrecked men. The Life-boat was hauled up on the beach and when the weather moderated was taken back to her house.—Expense of service, 39*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.*

Oct. 27.—FILEY, YORKSHIRE.—Hollon-the-third Life-boat.—Twenty-seven of the fishing-cobles belonging to Filey put to sea very early in the morning, in an east by south wind. At about 7 A.M. the wind commenced to freshen and bring the sea up. Three of the boats came in soon afterwards, and reported that there was too much sea for the safety of the other cobles. The Life-boat's crew were mustered and the boat launched. By this time the wind had increased to a strong gale and they found the sea off the Brigg exceedingly rough. The Life-boat, therefore, stood by until the whole of the twenty-four cobles had got into safety.—Expense of service, 16*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*

Oct. 27.—FLAMBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE.—Forester Life-boat.—During a strong E.S.E. wind, with a very heavy sea, the No. 1 Life-boat was launched at 10.30 A.M. to the assistance of four fishing-cobles. The boats were getting their lines off Flamborough Head and the weather was very bad. The Life-boat stood by them and brought them in to the North Landing at about 1.30 P.M.—Expense of service, 14*l.* 17*s.*

Oct. 27.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Ada Lewis Life-boat. The south-easterly breeze increased shortly before 10 A.M. and caused the sea to rise to such an extent that it became dangerous for the fishing-cobles when returning from the fishing ground. The Life-boat was launched and stood by seven cobles while they came ashore, which was fortunately accomplished without disaster.—Expense of service, 7*l.* 4*s.*

Oct. 27.—SCARBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE.

—Queensbury Life-boat.—Three cobles whilst running for Scarborough were overtaken by a south-easterly gale, which caused a rough sea. At the Pier head it was breaking very heavily, the Life boat was, therefore, launched and stood by the crafts as they entered the Harbour.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 4*s.*

Oct. 27—28.—HARWICH, ESSEX.—City of Glasgow Life-boat.—In answer to signals from the Cork Light-vessel, the Life-boat was sent to sea at 11.27 P.M. It was blowing a moderate gale from S.E., and the sea was rough. The Coxswain spoke the lightship and learned that a vessel was showing signals of distress to the south-eastward of them. The Life-boat proceeded in that direction and found the steamer Baltzar von Platen, of Helsingborg, in a disabled condition, a mooring chain having fouled her propeller. The captain asked for assistance, and two Life-boatmen were put on board. The Life-boat then returned to Harwich for a tug and again proceeded to the vessel with her. They both stood by the vessel until daylight. In the morning the propeller was worked until the chain slipped off, and the steamer proceeded under her own steam into harbour, accompanied by the Life-boat and tug.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 30.—DONNA NOOK, LINCOLNSHIRE.—Richard Life-boat.—At 12.15 A.M. a telephone message was received stating that a vessel was showing signals of distress to the southward. The Life-boat crew were assembled and the boat launched as soon as possible. When in the vicinity of the vessel three heavy seas struck the Life-boat, throwing several of the crew from their seats and causing the boat to miss the vessel. The boat was hauled up and re-launched in a very rough sea. On reaching the vessel she found that the crew, ten in number, had taken to the bridge for shelter, as the sea was making a clean breach over the vessel. They were skillfully rescued and landed at 6.30 A.M. This was an excellent service, the crew of the ill-fated vessel having given up all hope of being saved. The vessel was the steam trawler Endeavour, of Hull, and was bound to the fishing grounds when wrecked.—Expense of service, 45*l.* 7*s.*

Oct. 30.—CAISTER, NORFOLK.—Covent Garden Life-boat.—The steamer Claudia, of Stockton, carrying a crew of twenty-five hands and five passengers, and bound from London to Middlesboro' with a general cargo, stranded on the Barber Sands. The crew of the No. 1 Life-boat were promptly assembled and the boat launched through a heavy sea. On reaching the vessel the crew were at once engaged to try and save the vessel. After some hours' work they were fortunately successful, as a N.N.E. gale was blowing. During this service the Life-boat was damaged, and it was afterwards necessary to take her to Yarmouth for repair.—Property salvage case.

Oct. 31.—CLOVELLY, DEVON.—Elinor Roget Life-boat.—At 8.30 P.M., during a strong W.S.W. gale, a telephone message from Hartland Point reported that a vessel about three miles from Clovelly was burning signals for assistance. The Life-boat was very quickly launched in a rough sea and proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the ketch Little Jane, of Plymouth. The crew of three men were taken from the ketch, which was then waterlogged and sinking, and had had all her sails blown away. The crew when saved were in an exhausted condition, and the arrival of the Life-boat was most opportune, as the vessel foundered immediately after the crew had been taken off.—Expense of service, 33*l.* 19*s.*

Oct. 31.—HOLYHEAD, ANGLESEY.—Duke of Northumberland Life-boat.—During a strong W.S.W. gale, shortly after 8 P.M., flares were seen from a small schooner lying in the outer roads and the steam Life-boat proceeded to her aid.

The anchors of the vessel, which was the Elizabeth Hyam of Chester, were dragging, and as the wind was increasing and the sea becoming heavier the crew of three hands were taken off and landed about 9 P.M. The anchors subsequently held, but the vessel was in a very dangerous position.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*

About five hours later further signals were seen from another vessel and the steam Life-boat again put to sea. They found the schooner Rockingham of Dublin, in similar danger to the other schooner, with her anchors dragging. The three men on board were therefore taken off and brought into safety. The weather at the time was very bad with a very rough sea.—Expense of service, 11*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*

Nov. 1.—PENMON, ANGLESEY.—Christopher Brown Life-boat.—During the evening of the 31st October the ketch James of Carnarvon, was seen close to Penmon Lighthouse and was considered to be in danger. The crew of the Life-boat were therefore mustered and the vessel kept under observation. A little before midnight the wind changed to N.W. and the vessel made a signal of distress, but before the Life-boat could be launched the ketch had slipped her anchors and got into the straits with her mizen and head sails set. A few minutes later her mizen blew away and she became unmanageable. Further signals were made and the Life-boat was launched. When she reached the ketch she was in shallow water and shortly afterwards took the ground. The master was undecided whether to leave his vessel or not, but as there was no immediate danger unless the wind got more northerly, the Life-boat stood by until the vessel floated on the flood tide. At this time the weather moderated somewhat, and the Life-boat having seen the ketch get into a place of safety returned to her station.—Expense of service, 35*l.* 6*s.*

Nov. 1.—MARGATE and RAMSGATE, KENT.—Civil Service No. 1 and Charles and Susanna Stephens Life-boats.—At about 2 A.M. it was reported at Margate and at Ramsgate that signals of distress were being made by a vessel off the North Foreland and both Life-boats proceeded to her assistance. She proved to be the spritsail barge Pride of the Colne, of Colchester, bound from Newhaven to London, but her rudder and steering gear had been damaged. At the request of the master both Life-boats stood by the barge, as a strong W.S.W. gale was blowing with a very heavy sea. At daylight the gale had abated somewhat, and as the barge did not require further assistance, both boats returned to their stations.—Expense of service, Margate, 31l. 3s. 6d.; Rams-gate, paid by Board of Trade.

NOV. 1. — EASTBOURNE, SUSSEX. — James Stevens No. 6 Life-boat. — A very strong westerly gale suddenly sprang up, and shortly after 4 A.M. the Coastguard at Pevensey Bay telephoned that a vessel off the Bay was making signals of distress and wanted assistance. The Life-boat crew were quickly called and the No. 2 Life-boat launched. After forty-five minutes' strenuous and hard pulling, the boat reached the vessel, which turned out to be the fishing-boat Bonnie Kate, of Eastbourne. She was riding to her anchors, nearly all her canvas having been blown away by the fury of the gale. The crew of three hands were below in an exhausted condition. Stimulants were at once given them from the Life-boat's supply and an offer was made to take them into the Life-boat, but as the storm showed some signs of abating it was decided that the Life-boat should stand by the fishing-boat. For three hours she did so and then the vessel made her way to Eastbourne accompanied by the Life-boat. — Expense of service, 31l. 19s.

NOV. 2. — SELSEY, SUSSEX. — Lucy Newbon Life-boat. — At 1.15 P.M. a four-masted barque was seen to run aground on the Puller Bank. The Life-boat was promptly launched, and on reaching the vessel found that she was the Lydgate, of Liverpool, bound from South America to Hamburg with a cargo of saltpetre. The Life-boat was requested to stand by, as the barque was leaking. It was some little time before they could get the pumps to work, as they were disabled. The Life-boat experienced great difficulty in lying alongside, as it was blowing very hard from the W.N.W. with a heavy sea, and the Life-boat was damaged. During the evening two tugs arrived from Southampton, but the Life-boat remained with the vessel until 11.30 P.M., when she floated. — Expense of service, 54l. 8s. 9d.

NOV. 2-3. — ARANMORE, DONEGAL. — La Totitam Life-boat. — During the afternoon of Wednesday, the 2nd November, the Honorary Secretary received a report stating that on the previous Sunday, 30th October, three men had gone to Roaninish Island to bring home their fishing gear and lobster pots, taking only two loaves of bread with them. A sudden storm from N.W. came on on the Sunday night and increased in violence until the Wednesday, and they were unable to get home. Roaninish being an uninhabited island, it was decided to send the Life-boat with provisions and to rescue the men.

The Life-boat was launched at 2 P.M. and reached the island two hours later, but was unable, owing to the violence of the gale and the sea, to rescue the men. The Life-boat put into Portnoo for the night and again put to sea at 6 A.M. next morning, when they succeeded in getting the men on board in an exhausted condition. Having been given restoratives and food they were conveyed to Burton Port. — Expense of service, 30l. —s. 6d.

NOV. 4. — GORLESTON, SUFFOLK. — Mark Lane Life-boat. — At 3.10 A.M. the Coastguard reported that the St. Nicholas Light-vessel was firing guns, and flares were to be seen from a vessel on the outer bank, north beach. The No. 1 Life-boat was launched, and in tow of a tug proceeded to the vessel. She proved to be the steam drifter Violet May, of Yarmouth, carrying ten hands, homeward bound with fish. The master at once engaged the Life-boatmen and tug to save his vessel, and this was accomplished on the flood tide. There was a strong N.N.E. wind at the time with a heavy sea on the sands.

NOV. 6. — DOVER, KENT. — Mary Hamer Hoyle Life-boat. — The five-masted steel sailing ship Preussen, of Hamburg, said to be the largest vessel of her kind in the world, went ashore in Crab Bay, near Dover, in a violent gale, after being in collision with a mail steamer off Newhaven earlier in the day. News of the disaster reached the Honorary Secretary at 4.40 P.M. He at once sent for the Coxswain, who fired the signal for a crew. Meanwhile the Life-boat was prepared and everything was in readiness when the crew arrived a few minutes later. The boat, in the face of a S.S.W. gale and very heavy sea, was successfully launched at first attempt, and under oars and sail went to the help of the distressed vessel, but the crew refused to leave her and the Coxswain came back in tow of a tug. At 11 P.M. distress signals were made on the Preussen, and the Life-boat proceeded to sea. She again encountered very violent weather, and for some hours the Life-boatmen had to stand off from the ship. Eventually the Life-boat got near enough to communicate with the captain of the Preussen and offered to attempt to take off the crew, but the offer was declined and the Life-boat returned to Dover between 4 and 5 o'clock in the morning.

By 9 o'clock the Life-boatmen were again on their way to the scene of the wreck, where by this time there were 12 tugs, English, Belgian, Dutch and German in attendance. For over an hour before high tide the seas broke heavily over the stranded ship. The crew could be seen standing huddled together on the enclosed deck above the midships deckhouse. There appeared to be between 40 and 50 of them, and the majority of the men were wearing cork jackets. It had been arranged that attempt should be made to tow the ship afloat at high tide in the afternoon, and the 12 tugs were manoeuvring to get into position for an hour before that time. None of them however could get near enough to the ship to get a hawser aboard. There was an exceedingly heavy sea running. Shortly after 2 o'clock the tugs abandoned their efforts.

As the Life-boat could do no good and the rocket apparatus had established communication from the top of the cliffs, the Life-boatmen returned, after three trips in one of the worst gales of the year. The crew remained on board until the weather moderated, but all attempts to get the vessel off proved fruitless, and she became a total wreck.—Expense of services, 79l. 12s. 6d.

Nov. 6.—NEWHAVEN, SUSSEX.—Reserve Life-boat.—At 5.20 P.M. during a whole S.S.W. gale, it was reported that a vessel was ashore at the end of the breakwater. The Life-boat proceeded to her and found that she was the brigantine Mary Johns, of Fowey, bound from Shields to Falmouth. At the request of the master, a pilot was put on board, and the Life-boat then laid out a kedge anchor, with warp attached, to keep the vessel off the breakwater. She then proceeded into harbour to get the assistance of a tug, and stood by until the vessel was towed clear and taken into harbour.

Next day the honorary secretary received the following letter from the master of the Mary Johns :—

Nov. 7th, 1910.

DEAR SIR,—I beg to tender to you my best thanks for the services and attention rendered to me and my vessel, whilst stranded last night, by the Coxswains and crew of the Newhaven Life-boat. They carried out their duties well, without making trouble over them, and were perfectly willing to do everything in their power to render me any assistance that I required, for which I am very grateful.—Yours respectfully, (Signed) W. A. JOLLY, Master.

—Expense of service, 24l. —s. 3d.

Nov. 7.—THURSO, CAITHNESS-SHIRE.

—Sarah Austin Life-boat.—During the night the easterly gale increased, until it blew with hurricane force, and the schooner Barbara, of Wick, which was lying in Scrabster Roads, dragged her anchors. At 1.15 A.M. signals of distress were made, and the Life-boat was quickly launched.

The four men on board were rescued, and the sea being too heavy to haul the Life-boat up, she was moored in the harbour until the weather moderated.—Expense of service, 22l. 16s.

Nov. 9.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Ada Lewis Life-boat.—As the sea was very high when some of the fishing cobbles of Newbiggin were coming in, the Life-boat, at the urgent request of some of the relatives of the men, was launched, and stood by them, as the boats had to land on the open beach. The Assistant Coxswain took charge of the Life-boat, the Coxswain being at sea fishing.—Expense of service, 6l. 19s. 6d.

Nov. 9.—ROBIN HOOD'S BAY, YORKSHIRE.—Mary Ann Lockwood Life-boat.—A telephone message from Whitby stated that the sea off that place was too rough for the coble Robert and Mary to attempt to enter the Harbour, and that she was proceeding towards Robin Hood's Bay. The coble was seen at about 3.45 P.M., and as it was considered dangerous for the men to land, the Life-boat was launched and stood by the boat until in safety.—Expense of service, 19*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 10th Nov., 1910.

Voted 912*l.* 16*s.* 9*d.* to pay the expenses of the following Life-boat launches, assemblies of crews, etc., with the view of assisting persons on vessels in distress:—Barry Dock, Bembridge, Blakeney, Carrickfergus, Criccieth, Folkestone, Formby, Gorleston No. 1, Harwich (steam), Hayling Island, Holyhead (steam), Hornsea, Littlehampton, Looe, New Brighton (steam), North Deal, Palling No. 2, Penzance, Peterhead, Plymouth, Port St. Mary, Rhoscolyn, Robin Hood's Bay, Scarborough, Selsey, Sennen Cove, Sheringham, Southsea, Wicklow, Worthing and Yarmouth.

The Committee passed a vote of deep sympathy with the two widows and the one dependent relative of the Life-boatmen who unfortunately perished in the accident to the St. David's Life-boat on 13th October, and voted them the sum of 225*l.* as a contribution to the fund raised locally.

Awarded the thanks of the Institution, inscribed on vellum, and the silver medal, together with a reward of 5*l.*, to SYDNEY MORTIMER, as well as votes of thanks and 5*l.* each to SAMUEL HUSK and SAMUEL GUPPY for very gallantly putting off in a boat and rescuing the survivors from the wreck.

Also awarded the silver medal and 5*l.* to JAMES COWIE for plunging into the sea at Gorleston, and at great risk rescuing one of the crew of the steam drifter Mistletoe, of Banff, on the 15th October.

Voted additional monetary rewards to the crews of the Fishguard and Criccieth Life-boats for very arduous services in severe weather on the 13th and 14th October.

Voted 2*l.* 10*s.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at Barry Dock.

Voted a special gratuity of 15*l.* to J. PEDRICK, head horseman and extra signalman at Appledore for thirty-two years.

Granted a retiring pension to HUGH HUGHES, signalman at Camlyn.

Voted 10*l.* to the widow of JOHN BROWN, signalman at Newbiggin-by-the-sea.

Also 25*l.* to J. DOWNER, for many years labourer at the storeyard, retiring on account of ill-health.

Nov. 12.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Charles and Susanna Stephens Life-boat.—Shortly before 1 A.M. the Coastguard reported that they had received a message from the North Goodwin Lightship, stating that a ship was ashore on the sands, and, as there was a very heavy sea, to send assistance as soon as possible, otherwise lives might be lost. The Life-boat, in tow of the tug, was sent with all despatch. At 2.15 she found the vessel, bumping heavily, and with great difficulty got alongside and rescued the crew of four men. The vessel, which was the ketch Maria Cheeseman, of Montrose, bound to Guernsey, with potatoes, was then nearly full of water. The Life-boat, with the vessel's crew, stood by in case there should be any chance of saving the vessel, but at 5 A.M. the ketch turned bottom up and sank. The Life-boat then proceeded to the Light-vessel in order that the wrecked men might be warmed and have their clothing dried; later in the morning they were conveyed ashore and taken to the Sailors' Home.—Expenses paid by the Board of Trade.

Nov. 13.—PETERHEAD, ABERDEENSHIRE.—George Pickard Life-boat.—At about 1.15 P.M. it was reported by telephone that a vessel off Buchanness was making signals of distress. A gale had been blowing all the previous night, but had moderated, leaving a very heavy sea. The Life-boat, in tow of a tug, proceeded to the vessel's assistance, and found she was the steamer Deanha, of Aberdeen. The Captain stated that his engines had broken down and he was afraid of his vessel drifting ashore. The Life-boat stood by the steamer while repairs were being made, and eventually the vessel was able to proceed under her own steam to Aberdeen.—Expense of service, 20*l.* 16*s.* 10*d.*

Nov. 13.—BRIXHAM, S. DEVON.—Betsy Newton Life-boat.—Owing to a southerly gale two schooners near Brixham breakwater were riding very heavily. Shortly before 5 P.M. it was reported that one of them—the Margaret, of Paimpol—had broken adrift and would collide with the vessel riding near her. Fearing danger to life the Coxswain launched the Life-boat. On getting alongside the Margaret he found the vessels were only six feet apart and in a very perilous position. The anchor was then holding. The master of the schooner asked the Life-boat to stand by him, as he was compelled to rely on very inferior tackle. After laying by for half-an-hour the wind suddenly changed and then dropped. As the services of Life-boat were required no longer, the Coxswain returned ashore, having arranged with the master of the vessel that he should signal for assistance if the wind rose again and he wanted help.—Expense of service, 19l. 2s. 6d.

Nov. 15.—ABERYSTWITH, CARDIGANSHIRE.—John and Naomi Beattie Life-boat.—At 10.30 A.M., during a heavy and sudden squall from the north, two small open fishing-boats were seen to be in difficulties off Castle Point. In the heavy wind and choppy sea they were unable to make any headway and were obliged to anchor to prevent being driven on to the rocks, had they attempted to land they would have undoubtedly been swamped. The Life-boat was launched without delay and succeeded in saving the two men and bringing the boats into safety.—Expense of service, 15l. 18s.

Nov. 15.—FILEY, YORKSHIRE.—Hollon-the-third Life-boat.—At 4.30 in the morning many of the fishing-cobles belonging to Filey put to sea; at 8 A.M. the wind veered to the north and began to blow very hard. This caused the sea to rise very quickly. The Coxswain of the Life-boat, who was in one of the boats, at once made for home and took the Life-boat out and stood by the other boats, twenty-four in number, until all had got into safety.—Expense of service, 16l. 17s. 6d.

Nov. 15.—WEXFORD, Co. WEXFORD.—James Stevens No. 15 Life-boat.—At 8 A.M. the motor fishing-boat Agnes Green, of Wexford, was seen on the Dogger Bank with signals flying. A strong N.N.E. gale prevailed with a heavy sea. The Life-boat was at once prepared but as it was impossible for her to get near the vessel until the tide had ebbed, she was not launched until 10 A.M. She then proceeded to the Bank as near as possible to the boat, and took off two of the crew, who were on board and landed them.—Expense of service, 9l. 19s. 6d.

Nov. 18.—ALDEBURGH, SUFFOLK.—Edmund G. Dresden Life-boat.—The Shipwash Light Vessel reported at 8 A.M. that a vessel was aground on the north-west part of the sands, and the No. 2 Life-boat was promptly sent to her assistance. On reaching the place indicated they found the steamer Skakkeborg, of Copenhagen, hard and fast on the sands. She was bound for London from St. Petersburg with a cargo of oats. The Life-boat stood by the vessel until high water, when she floated, and no further assistance being required she returned to her station, arriving at 2.30 P.M.—Expense of service, 26l. 4s. 9d.

Nov. 23–24.—BUCKHAVEN, FIFE-SHIRE.—Isabella Life-boat.—During the evening the schooner Star, of Vordingborg, was proceeding under sail to West Wemyss Dock. Mistaking the lights of a coal-pit about two miles to the eastward for the Dock entrance light she got too near the rocks, the weather being hazy at the time. Finding out his position the Master tried to get his ship round but she would not stay, whereupon the anchors were let go, her position being about half a ship's length from the rocks. Shortly after 7 P.M. a telegram reached the Coxswain of the Life-boat, reporting that a vessel was ashore and the Life-boat went out. On reaching the Star the Master stated that the crew did not wish to leave their ship, but he asked the Life-boat to stand by until low water, as there was a heavy swell. The Life-boat did as requested and then returned to her station. The vessel got clear the next day and made West Wemyss safely.

The Master sent a letter of thanks to the Honorary Secretary for the assistance given, together with a donation to the funds of the Institution.

Nov. 24.—NEWHAVEN, SUSSEX.—Reserve Life-boat.—At 11.30 A.M., during a moderate S.E. gale and heavy sea, the Coastguard reported that a tug with a dredger in tow off Beachy Head was signalling for "immediate assistance." The Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the Dredger No. 2, of Zeebrugge.

The Master of the Tug informed the Coxswain that he had already transferred the crew of the Dredger to his vessel, as the dredger was in a sinking condition. He asked that a man should be put on the tug to pilot them into Harbour. Owing to the heavy sea the Coxswain did not think it prudent to do so, but offered to go first to show him the way in. This offer was accepted and Newhaven was reached in safety.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 25.—WINTERTON, NORFOLK.—Edward Birkbeck Life-boat.—The barque Vidette of Hamburg, carrying a crew of fifteen hands, stranded about two miles to the south of the Life-boat station, in a strong S.E. breeze and nasty sea.

The crew of the No. 1 Life-boat were assembled at 4 A.M.; and the boat was transported on her carriage to the vicinity of the wreck. The boat was launched and on reaching the barque the crew were engaged to save the vessel. After several hours' work they succeeded and the vessel was refloated at 2.30 P.M. She then proceeded to Yarmouth Roads.—Property salvage case, paid by Institution, 12*l*.

Nov. 27.—NEWBIGGIN, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Ada Lewis Life-boat.—The steamer Eleanor, of Shields, whilst bound from Sheerness to Blyth in ballast, ran aground at Church Point, owing to the lights and the land being obscured by a thick fog. The Life-boat was sent to her assistance and, at the request of the captain, stood by the vessel until she was towed off at high water. The steamer was then towed to Blyth, and the Life-boat, not being required, returned and was rehoused.—Expense of service, 42*l*. 17*s*. 3*d*.

Nov. 27.—FLAMBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE.—Matthew Middlewood Life-boat.—At 3.30 A.M., during a thick fog, the coastguard reported that a vessel had grounded on the beach, about a mile to the south of the headland. The No. 2 Life-boat was launched and proceeded to the vessel, which proved to be the fishing vessel Diligence, of Fraserburgh, with seven hands aboard. The Life-boatmen were engaged to save the vessel, and at high water successfully floated her.—Property salvage case, balance paid by Institution, 15*l*.

Nov. 27.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Charles and Susanna Stephens Life-boat.—At 4 A.M. the Coastguard reported that the East Goodwin Lightvessel had sent a wireless message stating a ship was on the Sands. The Life-boat, in tow of a tug, was at once dispatched, and found the Norwegian Barque Thoralf bumping heavily on the Sands. The Life-boat went alongside and their services were at once accepted to save the vessel. A rope was conveyed from the tug to the distressed vessel, and about two hours later they were successful in getting the vessel clear. At the time of the service the wind was blowing a moderate breeze from the south, but shortly after the vessel had got clear it changed into the south-east and increased to a strong gale. Had it not been for the timely help, and that the vessel had already been floated, she would doubtless have become a total wreck.—Property salvage case.

Nov. 27.—ALDEBURGH, SUFFOLK.—City of Winchester Life-boat.—A few minutes after 11 in the morning, the Coastguard reported that a vessel was ashore near Thorpeness. The crew of the No. 1 Life-boat were promptly called out and the boat launched. The Life-boat stood by the vessel until she was floated at 5.30 P.M. and then returned home. The vessel, which was the s.s. Fulgent, of Sunderland, was fortunate in getting off, as the weather became very bad, and the S.E. wind increased to a strong gale. The steamer was only two months old, and had a cargo of 3,000 tons of coal on board.—Expense of service, 67*l*. 13*s*. 6*d*.

Nov. 27.—CLOVELLY, DEVON.—Elinor Roget Life-boat.—During a thick fog, at 10.45 P.M., information was received at Clovelly that a vessel in the bay was showing signals of distress. A heavy sea was running at the time and the crew of the Life-boat were promptly assembled. The boat was launched and on reaching the vessel she was found to be the Julia, of Bideford, lying at anchor. The captain informed the Coxswain that he wished to leave his vessel as he was afraid that, owing to the conditions of the weather, if he remained on board any longer, he might be unable to get ashore and he did not consider it safe to remain on board. The Coxswain of the Life-boat therefore took the captain and his crew, consisting of two hands, into the Life-boat, and landed them at Clovelly.—Expense of service, 33*l.* 19*s.*

Nov. 27–28.—LYME REGIS, DORSET.—Susan Ashley Life-boat.—At 2.30 P.M. during a strong south-easterly gale, the Coastguard reported by telephone that a large vessel had come to anchor in Lyme Bay, in a dangerous position. The vessel was kept under observation, and about 9.40 P.M. it was seen that a distress signal had been hoisted. The Life-boat was therefore launched and proceeded to the vessel. There was a heavy sea running and it was found on arrival at the vessel that she was within half a mile of land on a lee shore. Life-boatmen were sent on board and the captain requested the Life-boat to stand by him throughout the night as he was afraid his anchors might drag. During the night the wind fortunately dropped and in the morning the crew were engaged to weigh and clear the vessel's anchors, which they succeeded in doing during the afternoon. The vessel was the barque Furst Bismarck, of Brake, Germany, and was bound from Bremen to Trinidad with a general cargo.—Expense of first service, 30*l.* 1*s.*; second service, Property salvage case.

Nov. 28.—CAISTER, NORFOLK.—Covent Garden Life-boat.—In a strong gale and heavy sea, the s.s. Edie, of Goole, ran ashore on the Cackle Sand. The No. 1 Life-boat was promptly launched and proceeded to her assistance, but before she could reach her, the steamer had knocked over the sands and brought up to her anchors, with her rudder damaged. The captain at first declined the assistance of the Life-boatmen, but later on engaged them, together with tugs, to save his vessel. Owing to the heavy sea running, the Life-boat was somewhat damaged against the steamer. The vessel was eventually got clear and taken into safety.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 1.—CLACTON-ON-SEA, ESSEX.—Albert Edward Life-boat.—At 1 A.M. the Coastguard reported that a telephone message had been received from the Maplin Lighthouse, stating that signals of distress were being made in the vicinity of the Mouse Light-vessel. It was blowing a moderate S.E. gale with a very rough sea. The Life-boat was promptly launched and proceeded in the direction indicated. The Coxswain searched for some considerable time without result. He then decided to wait until daylight in case the vessel, which had been making the distress signals, should still be on the Sands. Shortly after 6 o'clock, a vessel was seen and the Life-boat proceeded to her with all speed. On getting alongside she proved to be the Pearl, of Dundee, bound from Middlesbrough to London, with a cargo of salt. She was then full of water, and her decks were being constantly swept by the waves. The Captain and four of the crew were rescued in a very exhausted condition, but, unfortunately, one man had been washed away and drowned before the Life-boat reached the vessel. This was a very trying service, as the Life-boatmen were wet through and suffered much from the cold during the night.—Expenses of service, 39*l.* 16*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 1.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Charles and Susanna Stephens Life-boat.—The East Goodwin Light-vessel reported at 5 A.M. by wireless telegraphy, that a vessel was ashore to the westward of them. Instructions were promptly given for the tug and Life-boat to proceed to sea. The weather at the time was very bad, a strong easterly gale blowing, with very heavy sea. The fishing-vessel Don, of Ramsgate, was found on the S.E. part of the Goodwin Sands. She had been bumping heavily, but just as the Life-boat reached her she floated on the rising tide. The Life-boat went alongside and offered assistance, but although the vessel was making water, help was declined. The Life-boat then stood by the vessel until she got into Ramsgate in safety.—Expenses paid by Board of Trade.

Dec. 1–2.—DONNA NOOK, LINCOLN-SHIRE.—Richard Life-boat.—Shortly after midnight the Coastguard reported that a vessel was showing flares to the north of the Life-boat station, near Tetney Haven. The crew of the Life-boat were promptly assembled and the boat launched. They found the steam tug Winchester, of Hull, ashore on the beach, in a bad position. The Life-boat succeeded in rescuing the crew of five hands in a very exhausted condition, one of the sailors, a very old man, being quite helpless. This was a very good service performed in an easterly gale and heavy sea.—Expense of service, 47l. 7s.

Dec. 3.—WEXFORD, Co. WEXFORD.—James Stevens No. 15 Life-boat.—At 8.15 A.M. a telephone message was received stating that a vessel was ashore on the Blackwater Bank. It was then blowing a moderate gale, but it had been blowing a whole gale for twelve hours previously, causing a very heavy sea. The Life-boat, in tow of a tug, proceeded to the vessel's assistance, and when nearing the bank found that the vessel had beaten over it, and was under way. The Life-boat went alongside and found that the vessel's steering gear was so much damaged that she was not under control, and in addition she was making water. The tug took the vessel in tow and took her to Rosslare Harbour, the Life-boat accompanying them; she then returned to her station. The vessel was the schooner Nelly, of Groningen; she was bound from Greenock to Plymouth with coal, and had seven men on board. Expense of service, 13l. 14s. 6d.

Dec. 4.—GORLESTON, SUFFOLK.—Mark Lane Life-boat.—At 8.40 P.M. the Coastguard reported that flares were being burnt by a vessel in a south-easterly direction. The crew of the No. 1 Life-boat were called out, and the boat launched. In tow of a tug she proceeded to the Corton Sands. The vessel proved to be the schooner Angela, of Harburg, bound to Yarmouth with a cargo of oatake. On arrival at the vessel it was found that she was driving over the broken water on the north part of the sand. Six Life-boatmen were put on board to render assistance, but the Captain finding that his vessel was not making water, stated that he then wanted a pilot and tug only. The tug which had taken the Life-boat out took the schooner in tow, and, accompanied by the Life boat, they made for harbour, which was reached at 10.20 P.M. Expense of service, 43l. 19s. 6d.

Dec. 4-5.—RAMSGATE, KENT.—Charles and Susanna Stephens Life-boat.—The schooner Circe, of Antwerp, carrying a crew of seven hands, stranded on the Goodwin Sands in a heavy sea at about 8 P.M. She was bound at the time from Antwerp to Mexico with a cargo of cement. Information of the disaster was reported by wireless telegraphy from one of the Light-vessels, and the Life-boat and tug were dispatched to her assistance. The Life-boat went alongside, placed seven men on board, and they were at once engaged to save the vessel, over which the seas were then making a clean breach. The vessel's anchors were down and she was bumping heavily. As the tide made, anchors were got up and she began to knock across the Sands. Sail was then set on board. The tug at very great risk came over the Sands to get into communication with the schooner, and the hawser having been placed on board, the tug and Life-boatmen had the satisfaction of getting the schooner and her crew into safety.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 5.—HOLYHEAD, ANGLESEY.—Duke of Northumberland Life-boat.—The schooner Jane and Ann, of Carnarvon, whilst bound from Point of Ayr to Fishguard, with a cargo of coal, was caught in a strong south-west gale. She ran for Holyhead, but owing to the severity of the weather, was unable to get in; she therefore anchored between the end of the breakwater and Carmel Point. At 11.20 A.M. the anchors began to drag and a distress signal was hoisted. The steam Life-boat promptly went to her assistance and landed the three men then on board.—Expense of service, 6l. 1s. 3d.

Dec. 4-8 and 9-11.—CLACTON-ON-SEA, ESSEX.—Albert Edward Life-boat. At 9 A.M. on the 4th December the Coastguard reported that a vessel appeared to be ashore on the East Barrow Sand, and the Life-boat was launched. The vessel was the s.s. Antigone, of London, bound from Smyrna to London, with a crew of twenty-four hands. The Life-boatmen were engaged to save the vessel. About 400 tons of cargo were jettisoned, and four days after she had stranded they succeeded, with the assistance of tugs, in getting the steamer off the sands. She was then towed into deep water, and the Life-boat returned to her station, arriving at 6 P.M. Next morning it was reported that the same vessel again appeared to be aground. The Life-boat was launched, and on reaching the vessel found that the surmise was correct, and that the vessel was the Antigone. The Captain explained that the second accident had occurred owing to the steering gear of the vessel being out of order. The Life-boatmen were again employed, and at about 6 P.M. on the 11th December the vessel was again floated and towed into safety. The Life-boat then returned to her station, arriving at 9.30 P.M., after two very long and arduous services.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 6. — NEWBURGH, ABERDEENSHIRE.—James Stevens No. 19 Life-boat.—Information having reached Newburgh by telephone that a vessel had stranded about three miles south of the Life-boat station, the Life-boat was transported on her carriage to the scene of the casualty. They found that the Life-saving apparatus had had communication with the vessel, but the gear having fouled, the rope broke. The Life-boat was at once launched and saved the eight men on board. The vessel was the steam trawler Taymouth, of Aberdeen. At the time of the rescue the weather was very thick, with a heavy sea running, and the work of the Life-boatmen was somewhat impeded by the darkness of the night.—Expense of service, 36*l.*, 13*s.*

Dec. 8. — KINGSDOWNE, KENT. — Charles Hargreave Life-boat. — The schooner Creoula, of St. Vincent, whilst bound from London to Portugal in ballast, got into difficulties off Kingsdowne in a S.E. gale. When in stays she mis-stayed and commenced to drift on to the main. An anchor was let go, but this did not hold her; another anchor was put down, but this also failed to hold her. The Life-boat crew were mustered and the boat launched. On reaching the vessel the Life-boat crew were engaged to clear her and take her into harbour. Seven men were placed on board, and having slipped one of the anchors, they got the vessel clear and took her into Ramsgate.—Property salvage case.

COMMITTEE MEETING, 9th Dec., 1910.

Voted 835*l.* 8*s.* 6*d.* to pay the expenses of the following Life-boat launches, etc., with the view of assisting persons on vessels in distress:—Aldeburgh No. 1, Berwick-on-Tweed, Bridlington Quay, Brooke, Caister No. 1, Cresswell, Cromer, Dunbar, Flamborough No. 1, Fleetwood, Folkestone, Gorleston Nos. 1 and 2, Huna, Llandudno, New Brighton (steam), North Deal, Palling Nos. 1 and 2, Rye Harbour, Sennen Cove, Sheringham, Skerries, Southend-on-Sea, Southwold No. 1, Walmer, Weymouth, Winterton Nos. 1 and 2, and Yarmouth.

Voted 10*l.* 10*s.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at Aldeburgh, Barry Dock and Harwich.

Awarded an additional monetary grant to the crew of the Newlyn Life-boat for an arduous service, in very severe weather, on the 7th November.

Granted 20*l.* to the widow of H. MAYNARD, late Coxswain Superintendent of the Shoreham Life-boat.

Dec. 9th.—WHITBY, YORKSHIRE.—John Feilden Life-boat.—Between 7 and 8 o'clock in the morning, eight fishing cobs put to sea in moderate weather. About 10 o'clock the wind increased to a moderate gale and the sea became very heavy. Realising the danger the men would be in, in attempting to return to Whitby, the Coxswain launched the Life-boat and went outside the bar in a very heavy cross sea. She was rowed to the Roadstead and there awaited the arrival of the eight cobs. As they reached the Life-boat they all anchored and waited for some time to see how the weather would turn, but as the wind and sea continued to grow, it was deemed advisable to beach the cobbles with their crews on the west sands when the tide was low, instead of allowing them to come into harbour. The Life-boat escorted each cobble separately through the surf to the beach until all were safe. One cobble attempted to make for the harbour, but finding it was impossible, was also beached. Having seen the men were all safe the Life-boat was also brought ashore and mounted on her carriage, awaiting a favourable opportunity to take her round into the harbour and replace her at moorings. — Expense of service, 17*l.* 9*s.*

Dec. 9. — FILEY, YORKSHIRE. — Hollon the Third Life-boat. — The Filey fishing cobbles were overtaken by a strong north-easterly gale and very heavy sea when out fishing, the wind having risen very suddenly. For the safety of the men in the boats the Life-boat was launched at 11 A.M. and stood by them until all had landed in safety. It is reported that this was one of the worst days known for the cobbles during the past forty years, and it was a matter of great relief when the men regained the shore. The Life-boat behaved splendidly and gave the greatest satisfaction to the men who manned her. — Expense of service, 17*l.* 3*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 9. — SUNDERLAND, SOUTH OUTLET, DURHAM. — Nancy Newbon Life-boat. — At about 11.30 A.M. three fishing cobbles were observed about three-quarters of a mile off the shore in distress. The wind at the time was blowing from the south-east with a very heavy sea running. The Life-boat crew were assembled and proceeded to the cobbles. They experienced great difficulty in rescuing the crews, nine in number. Had it not been for the timely assistance of the Life-boat, the men would have probably perished, as it would not have been possible for the boats to have crossed the bar without the assistance of the Life-boat. — Expense of service, 12*l.* 18*s.* 9*d.*

Dec. 9. — SCARBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE. — Queensbury Life-boat. — The Life-boat was launched at 11.30 A.M., during a south-east gale and very heavy sea, and succeeded in saving eight small cobbles and their crews of twenty-four men. She also stood by five other larger cobbles as they came into Harbour. In the case of the small cobbles, the men were taken into the Life-boat, the cobbles being towed in, one by one, and in the other instances, lifebelts were supplied to the men in the cobbles and each one was escorted in by the Life-boat. — Expense of service, 23*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 9. — YARMOUTH, NORFOLK. — John Burch Life-boat. — At 5.50 P.M. the Coastguard reported that the Captain of H.M.S. Spanker, which was riding abreast the Britannia Pier, had sent a message ashore by Morse Code, stating that a cutter belonging to his vessel, with 17 men in her, was drifting to leeward towards the Barber Sands. A strong wind was blowing from the south south-east, with a heavy sea and ebb-tide at the time. He requested that the Life-boat might be launched and sent to the assistance of the men. The crew of the John Burch were assembled and the boat proceeded northward, and when near the South Caister buoy the cutter was found dragging her anchor and drifting. She was picked up by the Life-boat, which then anchored and awaited the arrival of a tug, which conveyed both the cutter and the Life-boat back to the Spanker, and the men were placed safely on board. The Captain of the vessel expressed his thanks for the services rendered and the Life-boat returned to her Station, arriving at 7.20 P.M. — Expense of service, 38*l.* 10*s.*

Dec. 9. — HOLYHEAD, ANGLESEY. — Duke of Northumberland Life-boat. — Signals of distress were seen at 7.50 P.M. from a vessel in the Outer Roads. It was blowing very strongly at the time, but the wind moderated somewhat shortly afterwards. The steam Life-boat proceeded to the ship and found the barquentine Ocean Swell, of Fowey, anchored in a very dangerous position not far from the shore. She had only just come in and had been dragging her anchors. The Coxswain asked the Master if he wished to be landed, but he stated he would like the assistance of the Life-boat to get his ship into safety. The Life-boat having rendered the help required, returned to her Station. — Property salvage case.

Dec. 12.—NORTH SUNDERLAND, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Forster Fawsett Life-boat.—Although the sea was heavy on the coast the fishing cobles put out to sea in the morning. During the forenoon the sea increased very much, and the first coble to return very nearly came to grief. It was therefore considered advisable to launch the Life-boat in order that she might be ready to render any assistance required to the other cobles.

The boat was launched at 11 A.M. and proceeded to the entrance of the harbour, where she stopped until all the cobles had entered safely.—Expense of service, 8*l.* 8*s.*

Dec. 13.—BERWICK-ON-TWEED, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Matthew Simpson Life-boat.—A strong S.E. gale suddenly sprang up off Berwick while several of the fishing cobles were at sea, and to protect them when running for shelter the Life-boat was launched. She proceeded outside the harbour and stood by the boats until all had entered safely. Crossing the bar in the cobles was a very hazardous undertaking, and it was a great relief to everybody who witnessed their coming in that nothing untoward took place. The gale was one of extreme suddenness.—Expense of service, 8*l.* —s. 6*d.*

Dec. 13.—SELSEY, SUSSEX.—Lucy Newbon Life-boat.—The Italian brigantine Fratelli Lama had her sails blown away, and became disabled when off Selsey during a strong S.W. gale. She carried a crew of eight hands. In response to her signals of distress the Life-boat was launched. So much difficulty and danger was experienced by the Life-boat in attempting to get alongside, owing to the rolling and pitching of the vessel, that the Coxswain was compelled to postpone rescuing the men until the tide turned. For three hours the Life-boat lay near to the brigantine in a very heavy sea exposed to the fury of the gale. The weather was becoming worse. A gallant effort was made to save the men. It proved successful, but not without risk to the brave Life-boatmen, for the vessel's boom broke the Life-boat's mast and one of the crew was injured.—Expense of service, 36*l.* 5*s.* 9*d.*

Dec. 14.—NEWHAVEN, SUSSEX.—Michael Henry Life-boat.—At 4.30 P.M. it was reported that a steam trawler had struck the bar at the entrance of the harbour and gone ashore. The crew of the Life-boat were called and the Life-boat proceeded to the stranded vessel. She found the seas were breaking right over her. The Coxswain asked the Master if he wanted assistance, but he, being a Frenchman, the Coxswain was unable to understand what he said. A rope however was passed on board, and the Life-boat stood by the vessel until she floated. There was a very heavy sea running with a strong southerly gale at the time, and the Life-boat accompanied the vessel into Newhaven Harbour. The vessel was the steam trawler Naalso, of Boulogne, bound for Newhaven for coal.—Expense of service, 23*l.* 13*s.* 3*d.*

Dec. 15.—ARKLOW, CO. WICKLOW.—Frances and Charlotte Life-boat.—Thirty-four of the fishing smacks belonging to Arklow had gone fishing during the day. During the afternoon the sea became exceedingly rough, and it was found that it was quite impossible for the boats to come in. As it was feared some of the men might attempt it and lose their lives, the Life-boat was launched at 7.15 P.M. and proceeded out into the bay. The Coxswain warned the fishermen of the great danger they would incur by attempting to come into harbour, and they abandoned the idea and ran for Wicklow, a distance of twelve to fourteen miles, for shelter. The Life-boat then returned to harbour, arriving at 1 A.M.—Expense of service, 23*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 15.—CAISTER, NORFOLK.—Covent Garden Life-boat.—At about 7.30 P.M. the Coxswain observed flares burning in the direction of the Middle Scroby Sands. He at once assembled the crew of the No. 1 boat and proceeded to the sands. He there found the schooner Elizabeth Bennit of Liverpool, bound from Hamburg to Poole, with a cargo of oil cake. The Captain informed the Coxswain that he was riding at anchor in two and a half fathoms of water, and he was afraid that his ship would drift on to the Sands. The Life-boat stood by while an effort was made to clear the vessel and this proved successful, and the vessel eventually reached Yarmouth Roads in safety. The Captain expressed his gratitude for the services rendered and the Life-boat returned ashore at 11 P.M.—Expense of service, 37*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 16.—MUMBLES, GLAMORGANSHIRE.—Charlie Medland Life-boat.—The Life-boat was launched about half an hour after midnight during a moderate W.N.W. gale and very heavy sea in answer to flares. On reaching the vessel, which proved to be the ketch Ocean Gift of Brixham, the Master reported that he had lost all his sails and a lot of gear; also that he was anchored on a lee shore. He requested the Coxswain to try and get him a steam-tug and the Life-boat proceeded to Swansea, where, after much difficulty, she secured the services of a steam pilot boat, which proceeded to the ketch and took her in tow. The Life-boat then returned ashore.—Expense of service, 27*l.* 6*s.*

Dec. 16.—FLAMBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE.—Forester Life-boat.—At about 8 A.M. the No. 1 Life-boat was launched to assist six fishing cobles which were getting their lines in a very strong south-easterly wind and choppy sea. The Life-boat stood by the cobles until they all got into safety. The Coxswain was then informed that two other cobles were still at sea. He therefore again went out and proceeded northward, but eventually he found that the boats had landed near to Filey, so returned to his station.—Expense of service, 15*l.* 4*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 16.—HAYLING ISLAND, HAMPSHIRE.—Charlie and Adrian Life-boat.—At 9.30 A.M. a vessel was seen to be in difficulties near "the Woolsemer" during a whole westerly gale. The crew of the Life-boat were assembled and the boat launched in a very heavy sea. She found the schooner Blanche of Dunkirk, bound from Dunkirk to Lisbon with corn. She had two anchors down but they were not holding. A tug was sent for and attempted three times to tow the schooner but each time the tow rope parted. The ship having slipped her cables was now in a very critical position and was drifting towards dangerous shoals; the Life-boat therefore rescued the crew consisting of seven hands and landed them at Hayling Island at 3 P.M. The vessel afterwards stranded and was likely to become a total wreck.—Expense of service, 19*l.* 11*s.*

Dec. 16.—BERWICK - ON - TWEED, NORTHUMBERLAND.—Matthew Simpson Life-boat.—All the cobles went to sea at about 6 A.M. At 8 o'clock a fresh breeze from S.E. sprang up and rapidly increased into a gale. The boats left their lines and ran for port under shortened canvas. As the men were in danger the Life-boat was launched and went to their assistance. The boats had a nasty task in crossing the bar, but fortunately all came in without accident. One of the cobles had her rudder smashed and was in great danger of broaching to, but by skilful management, and the assistance of the Life-boat, she got in safely.—Expense of service, 6*l.* 10*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 16.—PALLING and WINTERTON, NORFOLK.—Hearts of Oak and Eleanor Brown Life-boats.—The Hasboro' light-vessel reported by telephone that a vessel was ashore on the sands and the Palling No. 2 and Winterton No. 2 Life-boats put off to her assistance. The vessel was reached a few minutes after noon and proved to be the steamer Solent, of Sunderland, with eighteen hands on board. Life-boatmen were put on board and both Life-boats stood by whilst attempts were made to get the vessel off. The weather was very bad and at one time the Palling Life-boat grounded and bumped heavily. At about 5.30 P.M., when the tide flowed, the vessel floated and for another three hours the Life-boats remained with her, until she was able to proceed under her own steam. As the Life-boats were beating home the wind increased until it blew with hurricane force in the squalls.

This service was one of the most trying and arduous ones that the Life-boatmen have had for several years, many of them not being able to have any food from 10.45 on the morning of the 16th until they got home again at 2 A.M. on the 17th, whilst the wind and sea were especially heavy.—Property salvage cases.

Dec. 16.—BROADSTAIRS, KENT.—Francis Forbes Barton Life-boat.—

During the severe gale, the shipping on the East Coast of England suffered very severely and several Life-boats were called out to the help of vessels in distress. Shortly after noon it was seen from Broadstairs that two vessels had been in collision and were in great danger of sinking. The crew of the Broadstairs Life-boat mustered and the boat was launched. They found the schooner Nikita, of Plymouth, in a very damaged condition, and the captain at once employed the Life-boatmen to try and save his vessel and crew of five hands. Life-boatmen were placed on board, and, shortly afterwards, the Ramsgate tug appeared upon the scene and her services were also engaged to tow the vessel to Ramsgate. The Life-boat remained in close attendance. Whilst the schooner was in tow both masts went by the board, but fortunately no one was injured. On reaching Ramsgate some delay was experienced as it was low water and the vessel was unable to get into safety until 3 A.M. next morning.—Property salvage case.—Balance of expense paid by Institution, 5*l.* 8*s.*

Dec. 16.—SOUTHSEA, HAMPSHIRE.—Richard Crawley Life-boat.—The crew of the Life-boat spent fourteen hours at sea on the 16th–17th December, during a whole S.W. gale, and very heavy sea. The Life-boat was continually swept by the waves, but freed herself quickly, and behaved splendidly. On one occasion two men narrowly escaped being washed overboard, and were bruised and injured by being washed from one end of the Life-boat to the other. They found a large steamer off East Wittering, riding with two anchors down in six fathoms of water. The Life-boat let go her anchor and stood by for a considerable time in case her services were required. In the boisterous weather it was not possible for the Life-boatmen to see the name of the vessel. About 4.30 P.M. the boat's cable parted, but she beat up against the wind and tide, remaining almost stationary near the vessel until 9.30 P.M. The tide had then turned, and the vessel's anchors were holding so she returned to Southsea. The men were much exhausted when they got ashore owing to the exposure and want of food. The vessel subsequently proved to be the s.s. Pendeen, and a contribution from the crew was forwarded to the Institution, together with a copy of a touching appeal which the Master made to his crew. The letter was as follows:—

“To the crew of the s.s. Pendeen.—The Committee of the Royal National Life-boat Institution appeal to sea-faring people for help in their efforts to maintain their fleet of 282 Life-boats in a proper and efficient manner. You have seen for yourselves what they are able to do by the practical demonstration we had on Friday afternoon and evening of the Southsea Life-boat sailing out, anchoring, their getting under way again before dark and cruising across our bows ready to run down alongside if the ship had parted from her anchors. Personally, I was full of admiration for the manner and skill shown in the handling of that particular Life-boat. I have been at sea over forty-one years, and have never seen anything better. Therefore on behalf of those brave fellows, who put in a most uncomfortable night for our sakes, I ask you to contribute what you think fit to help this noble cause. God grant we may never need their help, but others may, so please help.—Yours faithfully,

“(Signed), JNO. RICHARDS, Master.”

The Committee of Management of the Institution showed their appreciation of the excellent service of the crew by granting the men an additional reward.—Expense of service, 49*l.* 14*s.*

Dec. 16.—NORTH DEAL AND WALMER, KENT.—Charles Dibdin and Civil Service No. 4 Life-boats.—Shortly before 1 P.M. the Gull light-vessel commenced to fire signals denoting a vessel was on the Sands. Both the Life-boats were launched through a very heavy sea and proceeded to the Sands. They there found the schooner Antonio Julia of Oporto, bound from London in ballast. A tug reached the vessel shortly before the arrival of the Life-boats. They therefore stood by while efforts were made, for upwards of two hours, to get the vessel off. The weather during this service was exceedingly bad, and the Life-boats were continually swept by heavy seas, but both boats behaved splendidly, and quickly freed themselves from water—Expense of service, North Deal, 45*l.* 3*s.*; Walmer, 45*l.* 15*s.*

Dec. 16.—MINEHEAD, SOMERSETSHIRE. — George Leicester Life-boat. — The smack M. & E., of Bridgwater, whilst bound from Sydney to Porlock with a cargo of coal, got into difficulties during a whole westerly gale. In response to her signals of distress, the Life-boat was launched, and brought the crew of seven men, together with their dog, safely ashore. Later in the day the Life-boat again went off to the vessel, and succeeded in bringing her also into safety.—Expense of service, 32*l.* 11*s.*

Dec. 16.—BRIXHAM, SOUTH DEVON. — Betsy Newbon Life-boat.—At about 5.30 P.M. the W.N.W. wind was blowing with hurricane force, and at about this time the Coxswain of the Life-boat received a message from the Coastguard that a vessel was burning signals of distress. The Life-boat crew were promptly assembled, and the boat was towed out to the vessel, which was lying off Berry Head, in a very damaged condition. Her head sails had been blown away, and she was leaking badly, having been in collision with a steamer. The tug was engaged to tow the vessel into harbour, and the Life-boat stood by whilst this operation was being performed. The vessel saved was the Brixham trawler Bia, and had four men on board at the time of the accident.—Expense of service, 20*l.* 15*s.*

Dec. 16.—HARWICH, ESSEX.—City of Glasgow Life-boat. — In response to flares showing from a barge, moored near the mouth of the harbour, the steam Life-boat proceeded to her, and found she was the barge Baltic of London, bound from London to Yarmouth, with a cargo of wheat. In the whole W.S.W. gale and heavy sea then prevailing, her anchors were dragging. A tug also came to the vessel's assistance, and the Life-boat stood by whilst the barge was being towed into safety. She then returned to her station.—Expense of service, 10*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*

Dec. 16.—WALMER, KENT. — Civil Service No. 4 Life-boat.—At 10.45 P.M., the Life-boat was launched in a very heavy sea, in answer to signals of distress. She found the barque Lenita of Bergkvara, with ten men on board, in a very dangerous position, in close proximity to a steamer. The first attempt to get alongside failed, and it was only after successive attempts that the Life-boat succeeded. The Life-boatmen were at once engaged to save the vessel, and, with the assistance of a steam tug, they fortunately succeeded.—Property salvage case.

Dec. 16.—MARGATE, KENT. — Civil Service No. 1 Life-boat.—At 7.40 P.M. information was received that flares were being burnt by a vessel in the Gore Channel. The Life-boat was launched and found the barge Lord Morton of London, riding very heavily close to the Hook Sand with the seas making a clean breach over her. The Captain requested the Life-boatmen to take the crew off and also to try and save the barge. A boy and a dog, who were on the barge, were placed in the Life-boat for safety, and several Life-boatmen were then put on board the barge for the purpose of heaving up the anchor. The Life-boatmen were eventually able to get the vessel out of danger and took her and her crew of three hands safely into Margate Harbour.—Property salvage case.

Within an hour of her return to port, the Life-boat was again called out to the ketch Alpha of Ramsgate, which had been in collision about eight miles to the north-eastward of Kingsgate. After three attempts the Life-boat succeeded in getting alongside and rescued the crew of four hands. The ketch very shortly afterwards became a total wreck. The gale which had been prevailing all day was still raging and the Life-boatmen incurred considerable danger during this service, as the boat's mizen mast was carried away, and the sea was exceedingly heavy whilst the boat was alongside the ketch.—Expense of service, 24*l.* 9*s.*

Dec. 17. — CROMER, NORFOLK. — Louisa Heartwell Life-boat.—At 3 A.M., during a strong W.S.W. gale, rockets were observed near the Haisboro' Sands, and the Life-boat was launched. After speaking the light-vessels, and searching for four hours, the Life-boat found the schooner Desdemona of Thurso, with a crew of five hands. The master stated that he wanted assistance, as all his head sails had been blown away; he had about five feet of water in his hold, and he and his crew were quite knocked up trying to keep the water under. Life-boatmen were put on board and started pumping. Shortly afterwards a tug came upon the scene and towed the schooner and Life-boat to Yarmouth, where they arrived at 4.30 P.M.—Property salvage case; balance paid by Institution, 16*l.* 19*s.*

Dec. 20.—JOHNSHAVEN, KINCARDINESHIRE.—Sarah Ann Holden Life-boat.—During the morning whilst three of the fishing boats were in the Bay, the sea suddenly became very rough and it was considered advisable to launch the Life-boat as a matter of precaution in case any accident happened to them. The boat proceeded to sea shortly after noon. She went out one and a half miles to the assistance of one boat and accompanied her into harbour. She then returned to the other boats and stood by them as they came in.—Expense of service, 6*l.* 6*s.*

Dec. 20.—GOURDON, KINCARDINESHIRE.—Theophilus Sidney Echalez Life-boat.—After the fishing fleet had put to sea, the south-easterly breeze increased and caused an exceedingly heavy sea at the Harbour mouth. As it was thought the men in the boats were in danger the Life-boat was launched. She proceeded to sea, and for several hours stood by until all the boats had come in. Considerable excitement prevailed on shore until all the boats were saved.—Expense of service, 6*l.* 5*s.* 3*d.*

Dec. 24.—HASBOROUGH, NORFOLK.—Jacob and Rachel Vallentine Life-boat.—At 6.30 A.M. the barquentine Scotia of Folkestone, whilst bound from London to Hartlepool with a cargo of chalk, stranded about one and a half miles to the south of the Life-boat station. The crew of the Life-boat were summoned, and the Life-boat was smartly launched. She found the vessel in a leaking condition, and at the request of the Captain stood by her whilst efforts were made to get her afloat again by attendant tugs. They succeeded in floating the vessel at 11 A.M., and the Life-boat returned to her station.—Expense of service, 25*l.* 2*s.* 10*d.*

Dec. 28.—SOUTHWOLD, SUFFOLK.—Alfred Corry Life-boat.—At 8.50 P.M. the Coastguard reported that a vessel was ashore at Covehithe and the crew of the No. 1 Life-boat were at once assembled. The boat proceeded to Covehithe where she found the Lowestoft smack Excelsior on the main. Life-boatmen were put on board, an anchor was laid out, and for two hours they worked to get the head of the vessel round. A tug then arrived upon the scene and early next morning the vessel was floated.—Property salvage case.—Balance paid by Institution, 26*l.* 16*s.* 3*d.*

COMMITTEE MEETING, 29th Dec., 1910.

Voted 823*l.* 19*s.* 8*d.* to pay the expenses of the following Life-boat launches, assemblies of crews, etc., with the view of assisting persons on vessels in distress:—Aldeburgh No. 1, Angle, Arbroath, Arklow, Bembridge, Berwick-on-Tweed, Bridlington Quay, Cahore, Cullercoats, Dover, Dunbar, Eastbourne No. 2, Flamboro' No. 2, Hayling Island, Holyhead, Holy Island, Huna, Johnshaven, Kessingland No. 1, Kingsdowne, Littlehampton, Margate No. 2, Nairn, North Deal, North Sunderland, Palling No. 2, Plymouth, Port Erroll, Rosslare Harbour, Sidmouth, Southsea, Walmer, Walton-on-Naze, Winterton No. 2 and Yarmouth.

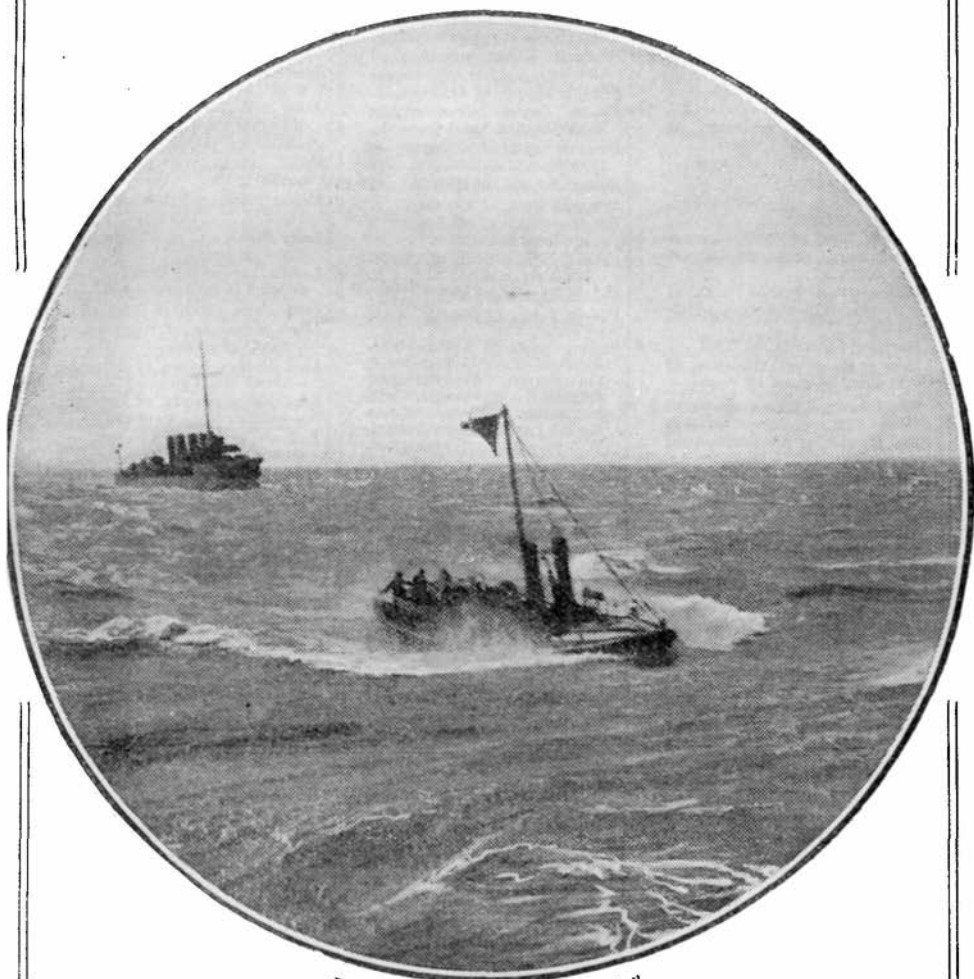

Granted 21*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.* to men injured in the Life-boat service at Girvan, Newhaven, Palling, Selsey and Southsea.

Dec. 30.—SCARBOROUGH, YORKSHIRE.—Queensbury Life-boat.—About 7 A.M. several small cobsles went off to the northward to their fishing lines, the wind then being off the land. At 8 A.M. the weather changed, and the wind veered round to the north, bringing a very heavy sea and a good deal of broken water in shore. The cobsles returned to harbour with the exception of two, which delayed too long. At 11 A.M. it was absolutely unsafe for them to round the pier-head, the Life-boat was therefore launched and towed northward by a steam trawler. In the meanwhile one of the cobles had obtained assistance from another steam trawler. When the Life-boat reached the other coble, which was named the Margory, the three men on board were rescued, and the boat was taken in tow and brought into harbour. — Expense of service, 15*l.* 4*s.*

Dec. 30.—ROBIN HOOD'S BAY, YORKSHIRE.—Mary Ann Lockwood Life-boat.

—At 9 A.M. four fishing cobles belonging to Robin Hood's Bay, put off to the fishing ground, there being a moderate breeze from the north at the time. Whilst employed fishing the sea increased rapidly, and the boats were in danger. At 10.30 the Life-boat was launched, and assisted the boats to land. This was accomplished safely, shortly after noon.—Expense of service, 12*l.* 18*s.* 6*d.*

THE LIFE-BELT USED BY THE CREWS OF THE LIFE-BOATS OF THE ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

The requisite qualities of a Life-boat man's life-belt are—

1. Sufficient extra bouyancy, 22 lbs., to support a man heavily clothed, with his head and shoulders above the water, or to enable him to support another person besides himself.
2. Perfect flexibility, so as to readily conform to the shape of the wearer.
3. A division into two zones, an upper and lower, so that between the two it may be secured tightly round the waist; for in no other manner can it be confined sufficiently close and secure round the body without such pressure over the chest and ribs as to materially affect the free action of the lungs, impede the muscular movement of the chest and arms, and thereby diminish the power of endurance of fatigue, which, in rowing-boats, is a matter of vital importance.
4. Strength, durability and non-liability to injury.

THE LIFE-BOAT STATION.

THE following brief description and diagrams illustrative of a complete Life-boat Establishment, including the House for the protection of the boat, will serve to convey an idea of the general character of one of the 281 Life-boat Stations of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION.

It will be seen that it is a work of a costly nature, and that not only in the first instance, but that a large permanent expense is entailed in keeping the whole machinery in an efficient state, in the re-supply of any part of it which may be destroyed or worn out, in the exercise of the boats' crews, in launching and working the boats and in rewarding them for their services in saving, or attempting to save, their fellow-creatures. Yet, looking to the vast importance of the result effected and the responsibility of calling on men to risk their lives in effecting the same, it is felt that few if any persons will be found who will consider that expense to be incurred in vain.

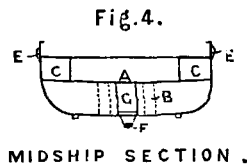

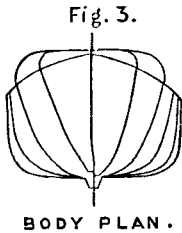

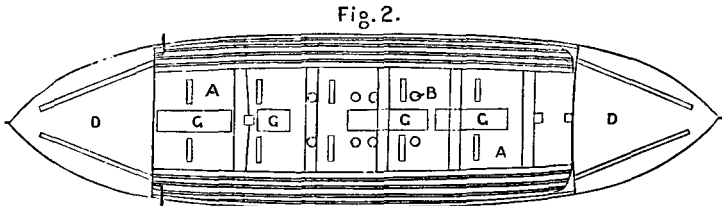

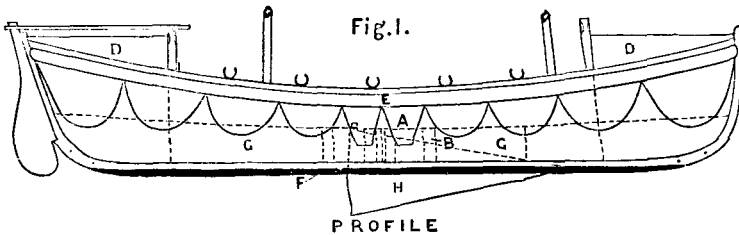

THE LIFE-BOAT.

(See Diagrams on following pages.)

The following drawings show the general outline and principal fittings of the different types of Life-boats used in the Institution's service. Figure 1 gives the profile or broadside view. Fig. 2 the "plan" or deck view. Fig. 3 the "body plan," showing the form of transverse vertical sections at regular intervals in the length; and Fig. 4 the "midship section." The festooned lines on the Fig. 1 profile views represent outside lifelines for men in the water to catch hold. The blackened portion of the keel indicates "iron keel" ballast in distinction from "water ballast" carried in "tanks" or compartments provided in the hold for the purpose, and admitting of being taken in or pumped out at pleasure; both "iron" and "water ballast" are variable and optional in the several boats according to the special circumstances of the different stations and wishes of the coxswains and crews. Water shipped on deck by seas breaking over the boat and otherwise is automatically freed through the holes in the deck and bottom of boat, connected by large pipes called "relieving tubes" having valves called "relieving valves" fitted at the deck, which pass water downwards but not upwards. Some boats, such as the "Norfolk and Suffolk" type, have also freeing scuppers in the sides of boat above deck for the same purpose. Enclosed compartments are automatically ventilated by specially designed valves and pipes. A large proportion of the boats have "centre boards" or "drop-keels" of variable size and weight, which can be used at pleasure and materially add to their weather qualities.

THE LIFE-BOAT TRANSPORTING-CARRIAGE.

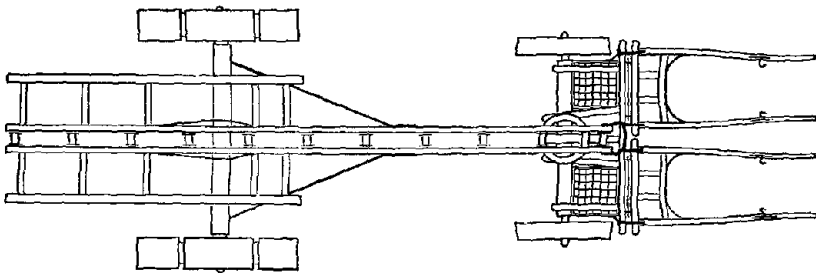

The Life-boat transporting-carriage is a very important auxiliary to the boat. Nearly every Life-boat, except a few of the larger sizes, is provided with a carriage, on which she is kept in the boat-house ready for immediate transportation to the most favourable position for launching to a wreck. A Life-boat is thus made available for a greater extent of coast than she otherwise would be. In addition to its ordinary use, a carriage is of immense service in launching a boat from a flat beach; while "Tipping's plates," with which the main wheels are sometimes clad, greatly facilitate the transport of the boat over the long stretches of soft sand which have to be traversed before deep enough water is reached to float the boat.

The carriage consists of a fore and main body. The latter is formed of a keelway, and of bilgeways attached to it, and resting on the main axle, the boat's weight being entirely on the rollers of the keelway. Its leading characteristics are that while for launching it forms an inclined plane, down which the boat can be launched off the rear end, it can also be used for replacing the boat, the inclined plane being reversed by removing the fore-carriage.

A very full equipment of stores is supplied to the Life-boats of the Institution—such as life-belts, anchors and cables, grapnels and lines, life-buoys, lanterns, rockets, and many other articles, together with portable or launching-skids.

THE LIFE-BOAT HOUSE.

The boats of the ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION and all belonging to them are kept in roomy and substantial boat-houses, under lock and key, in charge of paid coxswains and under the general superintendence of local honorary committees of residents in the several localities. Each boat has its appointed coxswain at a salary of 8*l.* and an assistant at 2*l.* a year, with further allowances in special circumstances. The crew consists, in addition, of a bowman who is paid 30*s.* a year, and as many boatmen as the boat pulls oars. A signalman is also appointed who receives a retaining fee of 1*l.* per annum and payment as a helper each time he is on duty. The members of the volunteer crews are usually registered and wherever practicable at least double the number of men required are entered on the register. Such men are mostly resident boatmen, fishermen or coastguardmen. On every occasion of going afloat to save life the coxswains and each of the crew receive alike from the funds of the Institution 10*s.*, if by day, and 1*l.*, if by night; and usually 4*s.* each for every time of going afloat for exercise. These payments are increased by one half during the six months of each year beginning the 1st October and ending the 31st March. The Institution also grants retiring allowances to coxswains, bowmen and signalmen of good behaviour and long service. It should be specially noted that the Life-boat crews, excepting when remunerated by the owners of vessels for property salvage service, are paid by the Institution for their efforts, whether successful or not, in saving life.

A reward of 7*s.* is given to the man who first brings intelligence of a wreck in such a position as not to be in sight of a coastguardman on duty or other responsible look-out man.

On boarding wrecks the preservation of life is the sole consideration. Should any goods or merchandise be brought into the Life-boat contrary to the coxswain's orders he is authorised to throw them overboard.

The formation of a Life-boat Station costs at least 2,500*l.*, and the Annual Expense of maintaining it is about 125*l.*—in many instances much more.

Such is a brief summary of the more important Regulations under which the Life-boats are worked. How faithfully and with what result they are carried out let the journals of each Life-boat Station and the annals of the Institution tell.

The ROYAL NATIONAL LIFE-BOAT INSTITUTION has now 281 Life-boats under its charge. Nearly all of these have been specially presented to it, and they save every year hundreds of shipwrecked persons. Altogether, the Institution has—since its establishment on the 4th March, 1824—granted rewards for the saving of 49,394 lives, either by its Life-boats or by other means.

Despite however this fleet of 281 Life-boats and of 17 others locally provided or otherwise supported, and despite the numerous rocket apparatus stations on our coast, there remains the melancholy fact that about 500 lives are lost annually on or near the coasts of the United Kingdom alone, as shown by the Board of Trade Returns, proclaiming solemnly though silently that for humanity's sake and for the national credit, no exertions should be spared in providing every possible means for the conveyance of succour to the shipwrecked.

The Institution needs about 100,000*l.* per annum to maintain its great Life-saving Fleet; and the Committee of Management feel assured that it will never lack it so long as it maintains its boats in the state of thorough efficiency that they are in at the present time, and manned as they are on every emergency by as fearless and noble a class of men as ever Nelson or Collingwood led to battle to uphold the country's honour and glory.
